My Dear Eliza

I have had no reply from Jew to my last letter I am now sorry to have to announce to Jew the death of your Aunt in Canada I had a letter from Mary stating that she died on the ¹⁴ 26 of February her disease appearing she only survived the attack three Hours - I pity poor Mary very much she writes in a despondent strain but alludes to the past and present

I had received a letter from her about a week before saying they were all well that crops were not so abundant as in former years but that they had no reason to complain

I consider they are now over their difficulties and they must have had many William is an Overseer on a tramp's trust near Lubeck —

Edw. Henry is well and very well Robert wife and Daughter well and prosperous the Carsons all well I saw Charles last week he was very well. Mr. Kitch still in Belfast the complaints of bad times here see John is still here he is a bright Youth none of the ship Henry of Grange married but are very right well I knew nothing of the Palmer — few were so by the Paper I saw few this day the tremendous revolution that has occurred over all Europe I dread I fear we are in the eve of troublesome times here the City is full of soldiers ready to act at the shortest notice good only I wish how it may end - you will see by the paper that corn is at a moderate price that there is much farming in the west and south - Potatoes $1\frac{1}{2}$ p. stone - and great quantity planting - I have never heard from Thomas I fear he has fallen a victim to southern climate Mr Jones is well keeps the same house still and has yet by many as servant who got married about 3 years back I got Mr. Husband as stationer as Guard on the Drogheda Railway - Ellis the Booker used in the poor house some time back indeed there has been some change in the affairs of many since you left this I only wonder how I have been able to weather so many storms I enjoy pretty good health but find my strength failing and no wonder I am over 61 year of age my best respects to Mr. Russell and family Mr. Green and the youngster Truly yours

Henry
