COME TO THE PICNIC -- Highbanks Park -- SUN., JUNE 29

There's going to be a Potluck Picnic, following a softball and other fun session, for everybody in WHRC--and all your friends who would like to come.

It's our annual meeting and election, combined with a big get-better-acquainted picnic dinner party, and it will be at Highbanks Park (go north on R.23--High St.--north of St. Josephinum Academy, and it's on the west side of the road) on Sunday afternoon, June 29. Games and refreshments begin at 3 o'clock. Dinner at 4 will be followed by short business meeting, or the meeting at 4 will be followed by the dinner--come and see which comes first. And there will be more recreation till dark.

TO THE MEMBERS OF WHRCOUNCIL--

--from your concerned president--

Since our last annual meeting, your board of trustees has been meeting almost every month, in our various homes. We have been directing our attention to the needs of Worthington in the following areas:

--The growing demands on the Worthington Community Service Committee;

--The race relations program;

--The needs of the elderly;

--The needs of the youth in employment and recreation;

Everyone is to bring a main dish, salad or desert, plus your own beverages, tableware, and things for recreation. NOTE--If you bring lawn chairs, put your name on them.

BRING YOUR FRIENDS!

NEW TRUSTEE NOMINEES

Terms expire this year for Mary B. Crawford (elected in 1972), Walter Fluellen and Marguerite Turnbull, both of whom were appointed to fill unexpired terms.

Your nominating committee reports the following, who have agreed to serve if elected:

WALTER FLUELLEN, long-time resident of Worthington, supervisor at Defense Construction Supply Center; wife Chester and he have five children.

MARIE GARRAWAY, 1-year WHRC member, programmer at Children's Hospital, wife of Michael, OSU Prof. of Plant Pathology.

MARGE TURNBULL, long-time member WHRC, counsellor with CMACAO, member Worthington Community Relations Commission, wife of Bob, OSU Prof. of Philosophy.

MANY, MANY THANKS --

--To Mary B. Crawford, who is completing her term as trustee and secretary this year.

--To Olwen Firestone, who has served for years as membership chairman or co-chairman.

--To Mary E. Walker, who was hostess chairman the past year.

--To our nominating committee for this year--Jane Cross, chairman, Bruce Bennett, and Novella Pettway.

Additional nominations may be made at meeting--with nominee consent. The following trustees will continue in office:

TERMS ENDING IN 1976--Gilman Calkins, Juanita Jones, Ed Willis.

TERMS ENDING IN 1977--Madelyn Bailey, Richard Macer, Robert Woodruff.

CONGRATULATIONS!

WHRC extends sincere congratulations and best wishes to this years' high school and college graduates. Bon Voyage!

FROM YOUR PRESIDENT --

--The problems of wrong-doing by some--both old and young;

--The need for much work in publicity and community education about all of these problems.

The membership and public meetings that we have held have not been as well attended as we had hoped for (one, of course, was the victim of very bad weather).

Your board will be looking for people to help with typing, and with the expansion of our publicity--telephoning, notices to papers, the churches, radio, and help with this newsletter and its frequency!

We need relief chairmen for various committees (the same person shouldn't have to work five years!--for housing opportunity representative, hostess service, youth employment, civic affairs (monitoring council and board of education meetings, etc.), collaboration with Columbus and other civil rights groups.

I strongly urge you to support your WHRCouncil financially or we will not be able even to communicate with you through this newsletter. Our many thanks to you who HAVE paid this past year.

My thanks to Gil Calkins for the real work of getting this newsletter to you. Gil, I know, would protected and honored, none of us will have these rights insured.

We must speak out for what we know is right and just. What do you know and feel about the Columbus police brutality cases? Does your news media give you all the facts? Do you travel into the Columbus city area anytime? Should we stay in the Worthington area, or wear armbands when we leave it to insure our safety? Think about this!

Come to the potluck picnic and meeting; it won't be too long. Join the fun. Think about and help us solve our problems.
