

Class
'02

Twenty-third Annual Commencement of the
Worthington High School

School Auditorium
Thursday, May Twenty-ninth
Nineteen Hundred and Two
7:30 P. M.
Worthington, Ohio

Graduates

MINNIE C. COLLINS, Be Contented, but Never Satisfied

HALFORD M. POSTLE, The Relation of the U. S. to China

ROBERT MARSHALL, America, A World Power

CLEMENT G. HARD, Our Duties to Our Country

ELIZABETH M. FLICKINGER, Music—Its Influence

FREDERIC M. SHARP, The Influence of Inventions

CAROLINE M. VEST, Queen Alexandria

IDA M. PINNEY, Self Made Men

LEWIS H. JOHNSON, Evolution

HOWARD POTTER, Growth of Liberty in the XIX. Century

IRVIN D. SNOUFFER, The Development of Naval Warfare

FLORENCE M. WILLIAMS, The Spirit of Americanism

MORGAN C. MILNE, American Supremacy

J WILBERT KIRKER, The Influence of Nature

GRACE LECKLITER, The Mission of Poetry

EDYTHE C. CASE, Eugene Field

VINNIE HARD, Finding a Place

Program

MUSIC

Invocation REV. J. W. ATKINSON

MUSIC

Address—"The Wealth of People Who Toil," . DR. E. L. REXFORD

MUSIC

Valedictory FREDERIC SHARP

MUSIC

Presentation of Diplomas . PRESIDENT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION

MUSIC

Benediction REV. J. W. ATKINSON

Music furnished by Bonnelli's Orchestra.

Class Flower

Pink Rose

Class Motto

Wie die Arbeit, so der Lohn

Class Colors

Scarlet and Silver

Class Day Exercises

Tuesday, May 27, 1902

7:30 P. M.

Miss Alice M. Watson