

So would not go to one side of the room so what she could better out my husband and son after him and would hold of him and hold him off some where. But she was well come up for it she had to go home alone or her and her sister to a house they got out in the street she hallowed out here no one gentleman has one but that did not do them any good.
He had another a stranger but the last night he was not here the finest gentleman here and he has the name of it to Mr. is a well educated young man but a stranger. Mr. Mr. that gave me the introduction to him and it seemed that I was acquainted with him then. He was to Mr. proposed to me that I should write a letter to him requesting his company which he accepted. I am attending school now she is held in the - Masonic Hall the members of societies are about 20 the most of whom are young ladies. We have one young lady board ing with us what is Emma M. they are in very pleasant she will not remain here until
- Mrs. March can get a house when she is going to keeping house. Mrs. March was here some days this week and wanted to get board ing here until she went to keeping house I report that her and Mrs. March have had a spot about something else told them that they might come but when the news is told be about it that her and the young ladies were coming here she would not let them come who did not want to have their dress in a steam although it was pleasant weather

On our way home we stopped at the Colonies where we stayed one night Thursday, Thursday morning we went to the town where we stayed 2 days.

On Saturday morning we started for home and drove with us as usual I was just at last.

You spoke about showing the Survey paper to you but I suppose that you have not yet any but he is going to have them sent you the next time that he goes out to Inquire he was not at home when we received your letter but was out at Inquire.

I will send you the last paper and a catalogue of the steam train. But I have not told you that the Thomson was here and has been here nearly two weeks. The Thomson think extremely good.

Thomas Jefferson I am well at present as well as the rest of the party and I hope that you are well also. I expect that I shall go to school this winter whether he shall command I cannot tell by the letter and on my last visit and should like to see a kind of to go to you on my business and I shall be glad to see you
