

... is perturbation of good possibly the presence of any future life! At least it is a delicious thought, & although it may appear absurd, yet I will not see it as such. In either case I shall while it will be sweet, while it is rational - for who can trust the ... He may be bright & sunny as the imagination can picture to you is may be dark & gloomy as the heart is. But I must ... ^{light} ... if you would change your
... will bring you ... what or how will you arrange
...? On charitable I beg of you!

And again I have a great many things I would like to say to you - it is possible to say to you
... at our best intentions. But how ... your presence, my fascinations of intellectualizing are
... to my control as I would wish. And I trust now that I have come that way of this far, you will ... look upon
... as my god is able to say, with the intention to make
... of a ... ^{I feel a responsibility of} ...
... wholly devoid of self-interest, only to make myself & my use to the happiness of ... ^{to be} ...
... as I ...

... I ...
... I ...
... I ...
... I ...
... I ...

