LEFT VERSUS RIGHT BROUGHT PEOPLE TOGETHER AND TORE THEM APART

This year began with pundits declaring this "the most intense election to date." It was donkey versus elephant in a pivotal race to win the presidency. At times people seemed to be at war with each other rather than with outside countries. The divide between those with ardent beliefs in the top parties erased any middle ground in sight.

Now the election has passed, and we must unite as again and work through the next four years together. This leaves us to pose the question, "Was your battleship sunk?"

Working on team building in model Senate, students Catherine Holm, Lisa Gray, and Brianna Dominach write their draft for a bill they proposed.

Pondering their thoughts during insightful discussion at this year's model Senate are students David Jackson and JR Donnerwirth. Speaking their mind is not a problem for these two.

Most of the students at Kilbourne are not yet eighteen, thus not legal voters. A mock election, put together by political club allowed students to voice their opinion clear. Andrew Kingston made his opinion clear by wearing this controversial t-shirt.

STUDENTS REALLY GOT INTO THE ELECTION, MAKING SIGNS AND T-SHIRTS, BASKING "THE OTHER SIDE"

An eclectic group of W.K.H.S. students rally together not only to show their enthusiasm for a candidate, but also to support the country as a whole. The flag unites everyone, regardless of political affiliation.

Many students decided to take a closer look at both sides of the political spectrum. Kelly Ringle, Pam Skehan, Danielle Lanz, and Mike DiBartola create Bush and Kerry posters to bash the opposing side.

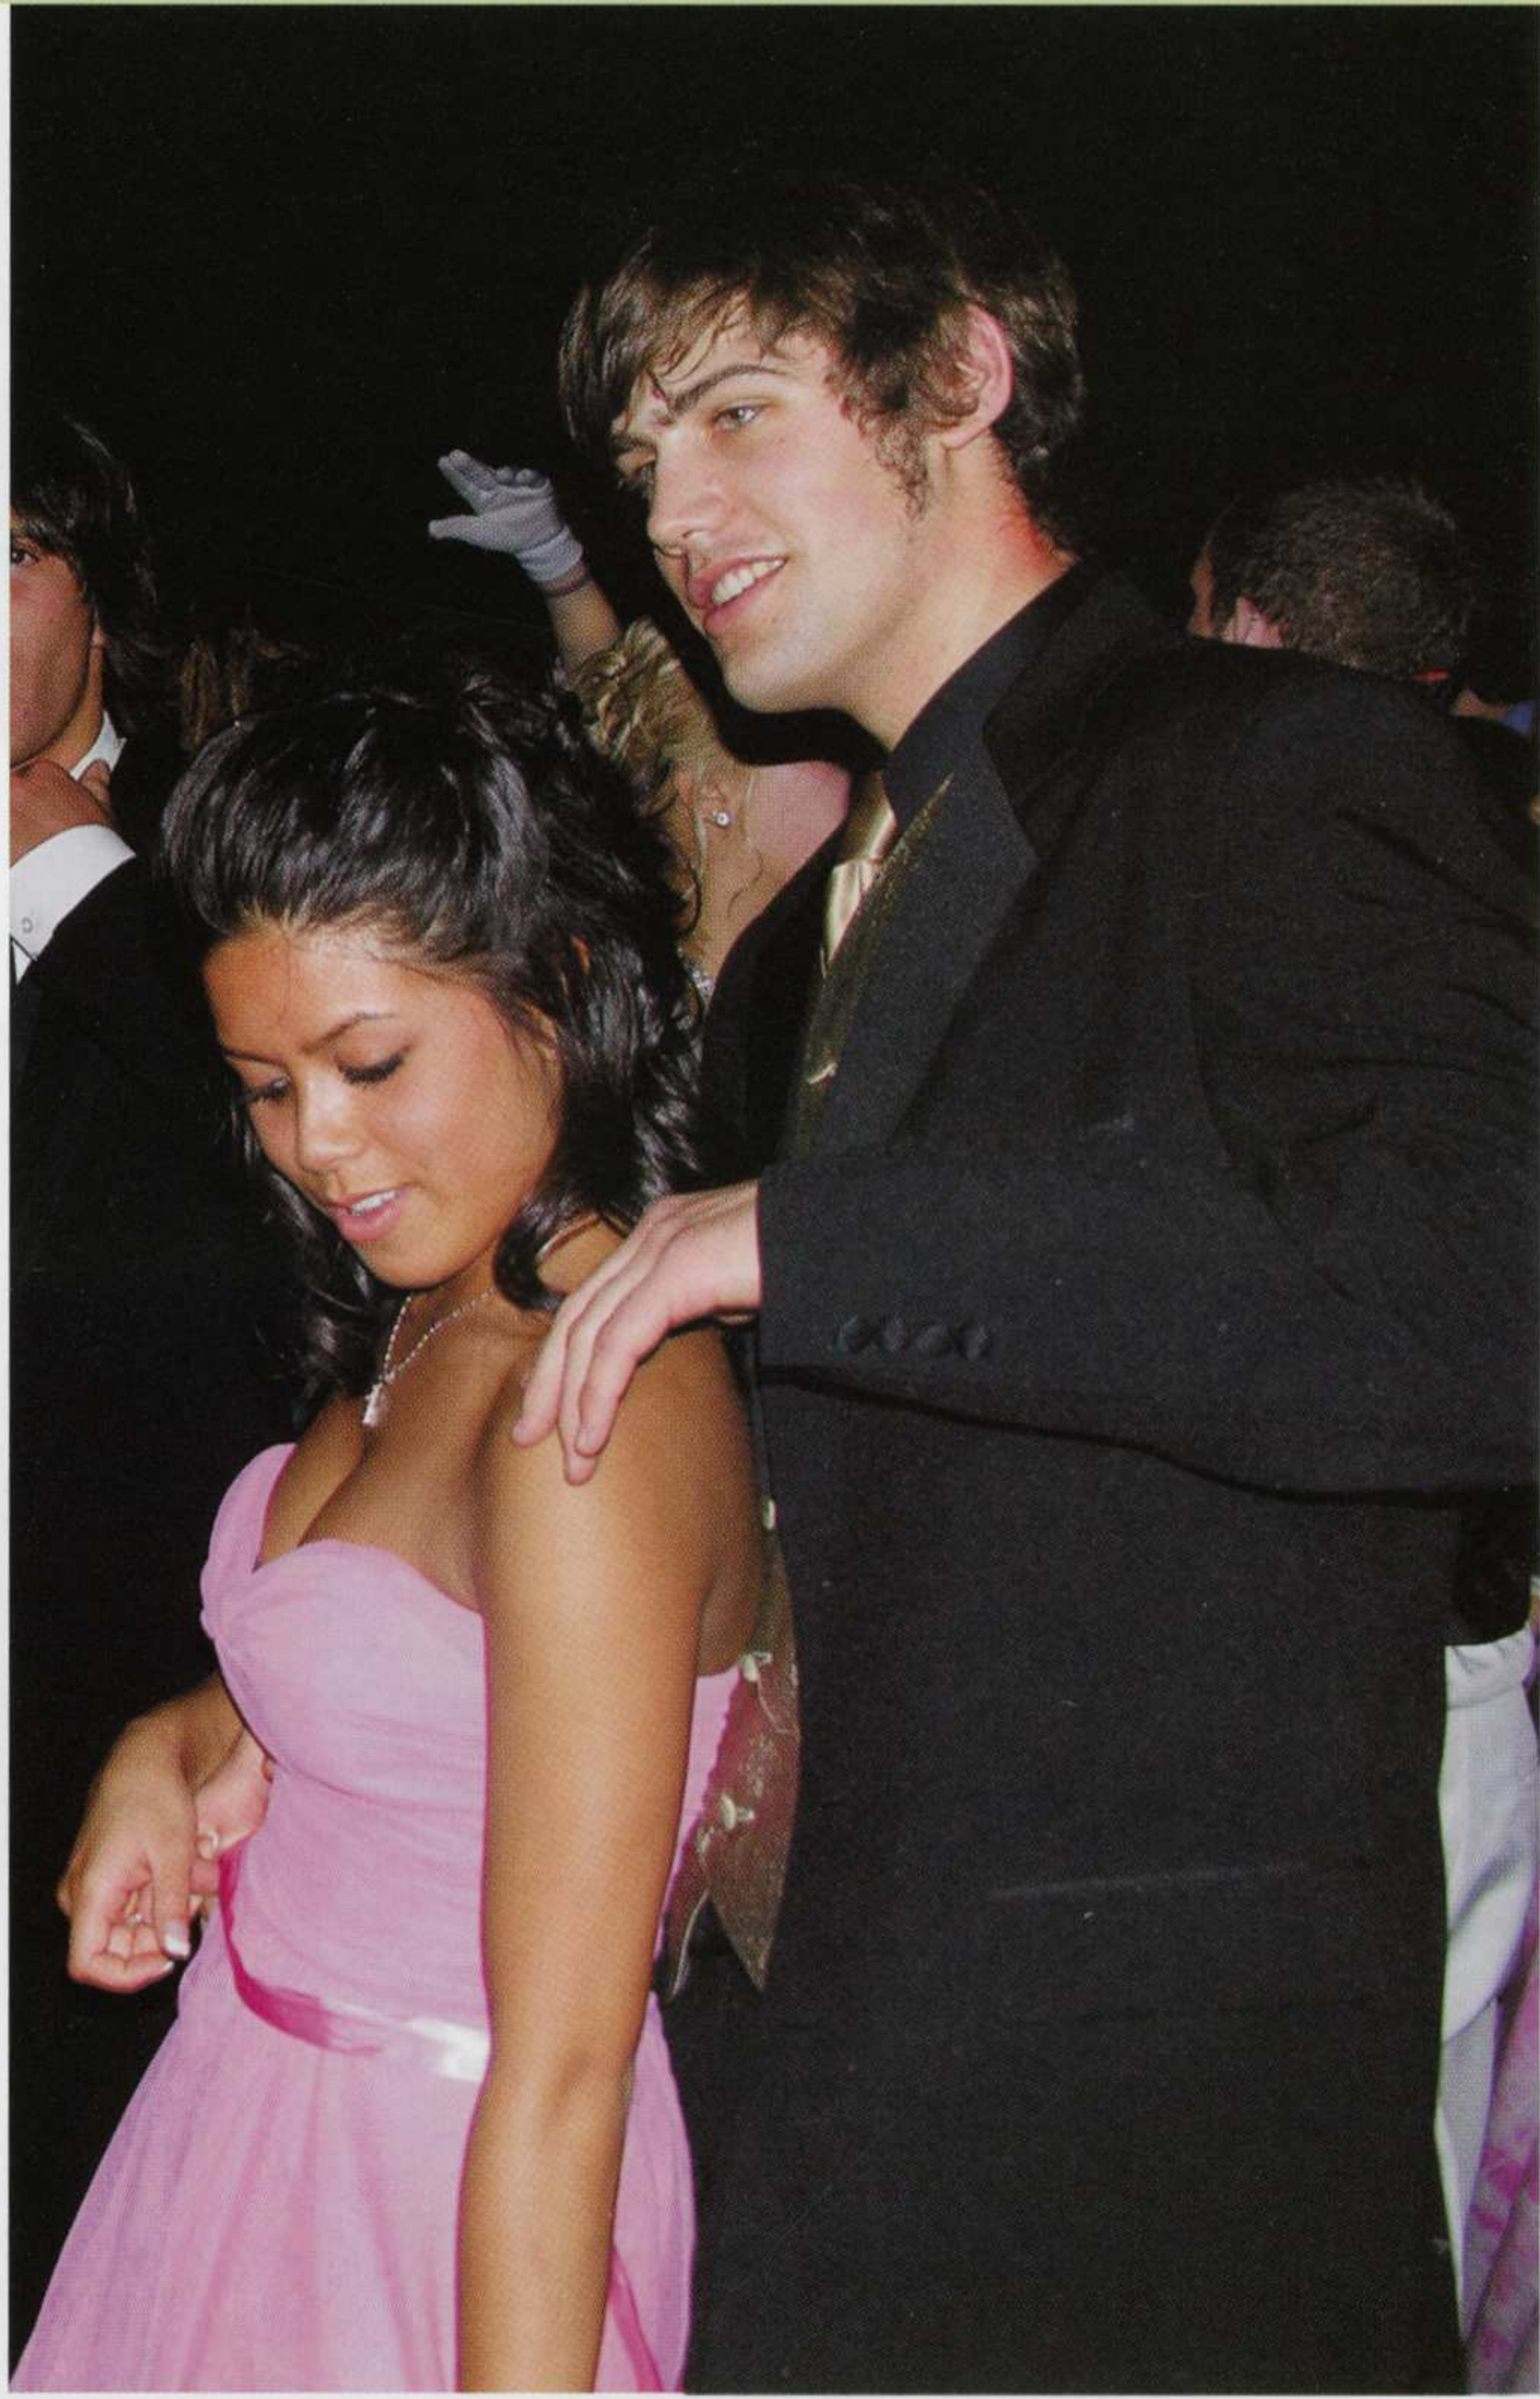

Many once of a lifetime opportunities arose this year allowing students to hear the candidates speak. Deanna Calvert and Courtney Vozeniek root on their candidate at the local rally. Can you guess who they voted for?

Catch phrases captured the attention of voters around the country and around Kilbourne. Jill Pritchett does her part to make sure everyone knows she is no flip flopper.

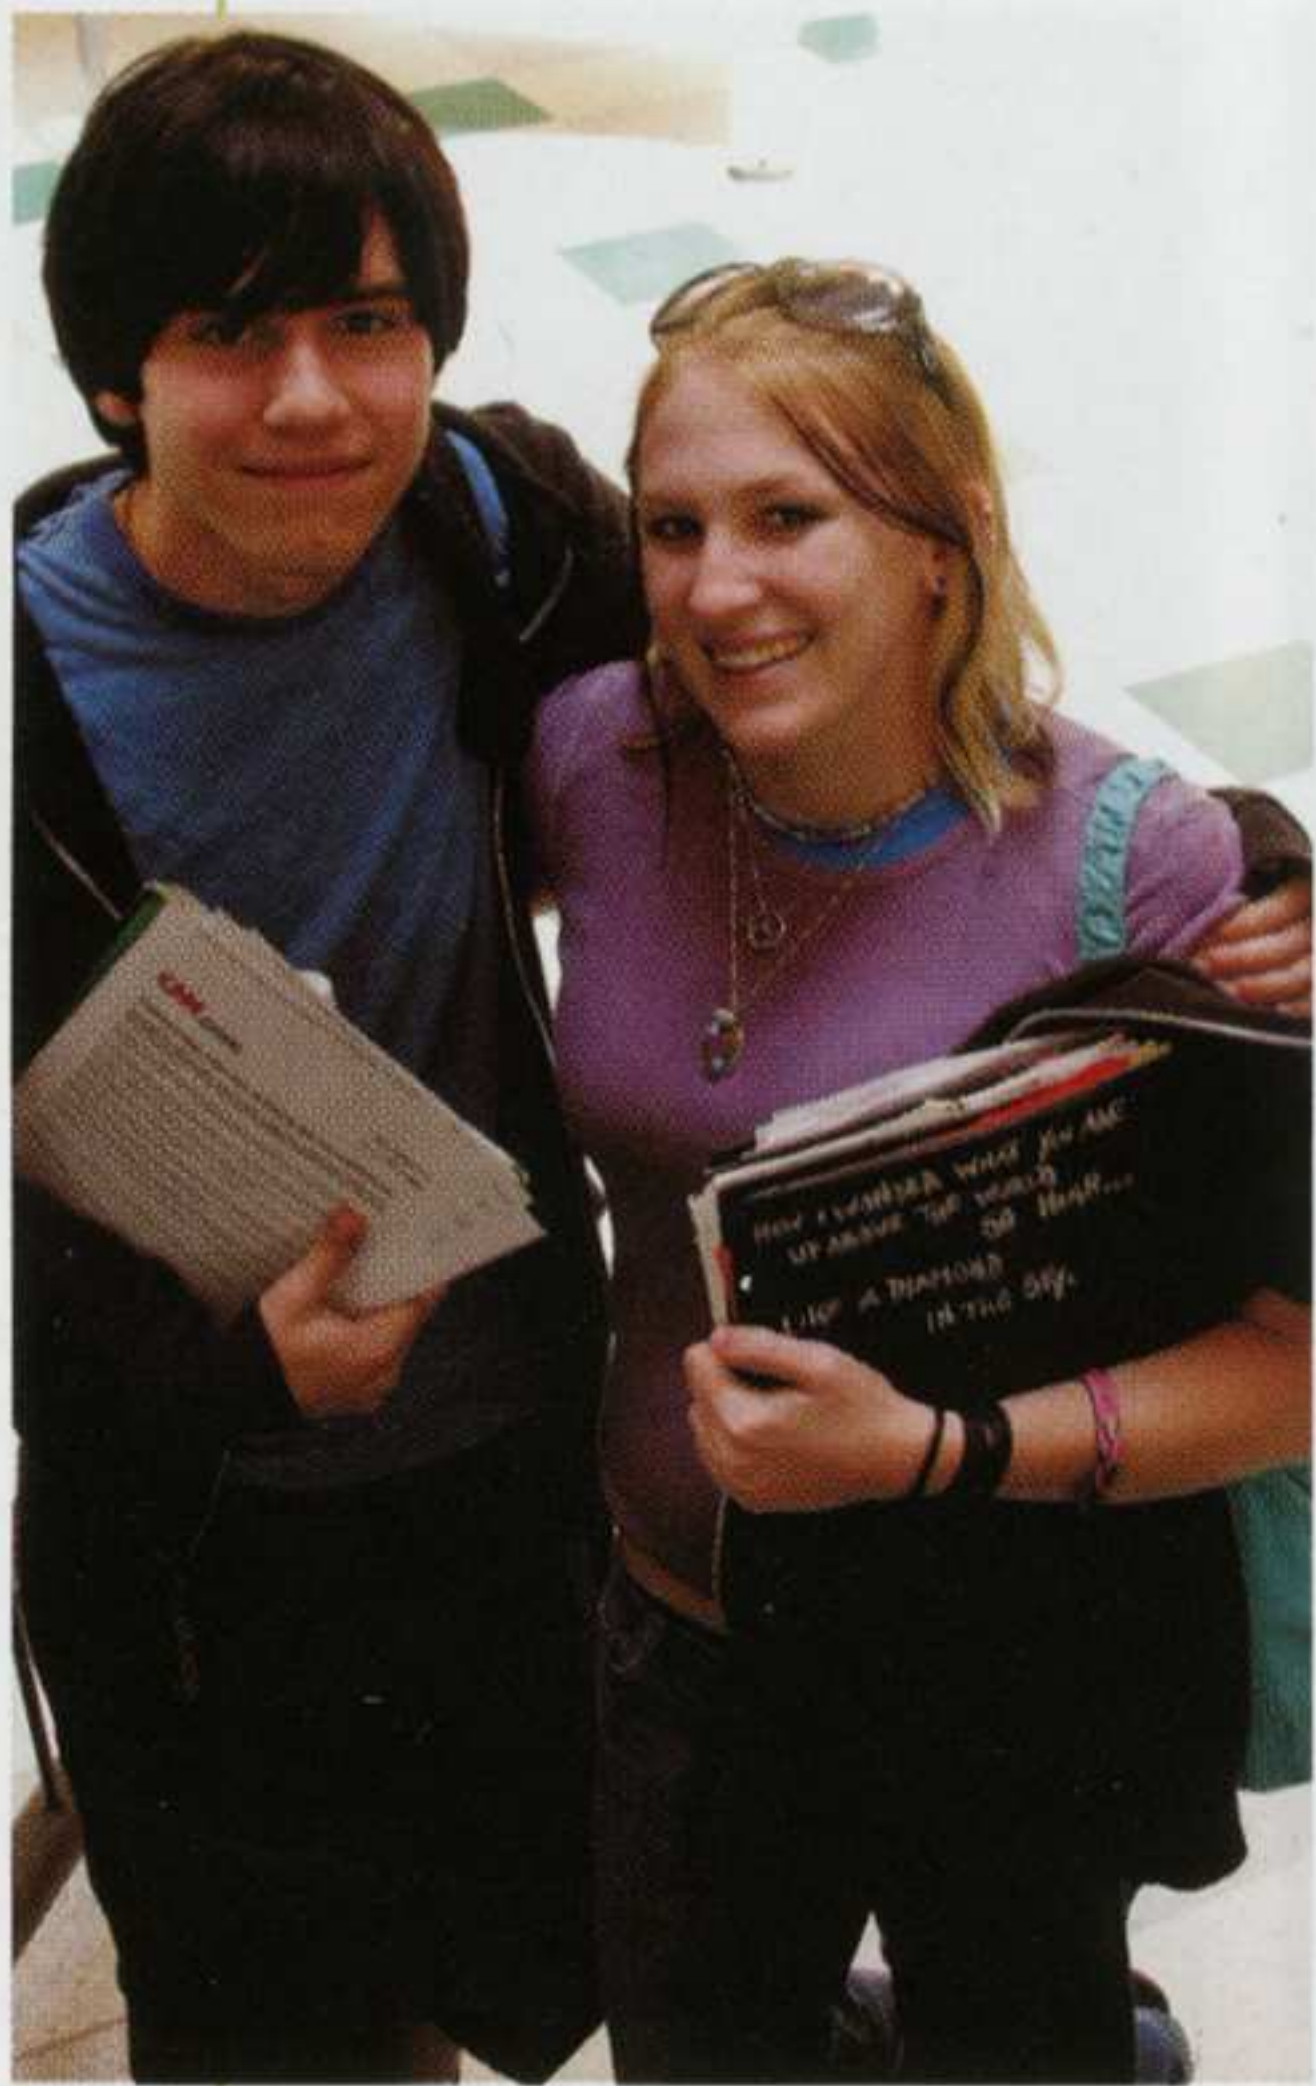

See, people still dance at prom. Stefany Phan looks like a fairy princess in her beautiful pink dress. Mike Casher, you're a lucky, lucky man.

If I were Amber Miller, I'd date Mason Keny for his sweet house in German Village. But I'm sure Amber would never do a thing like that.

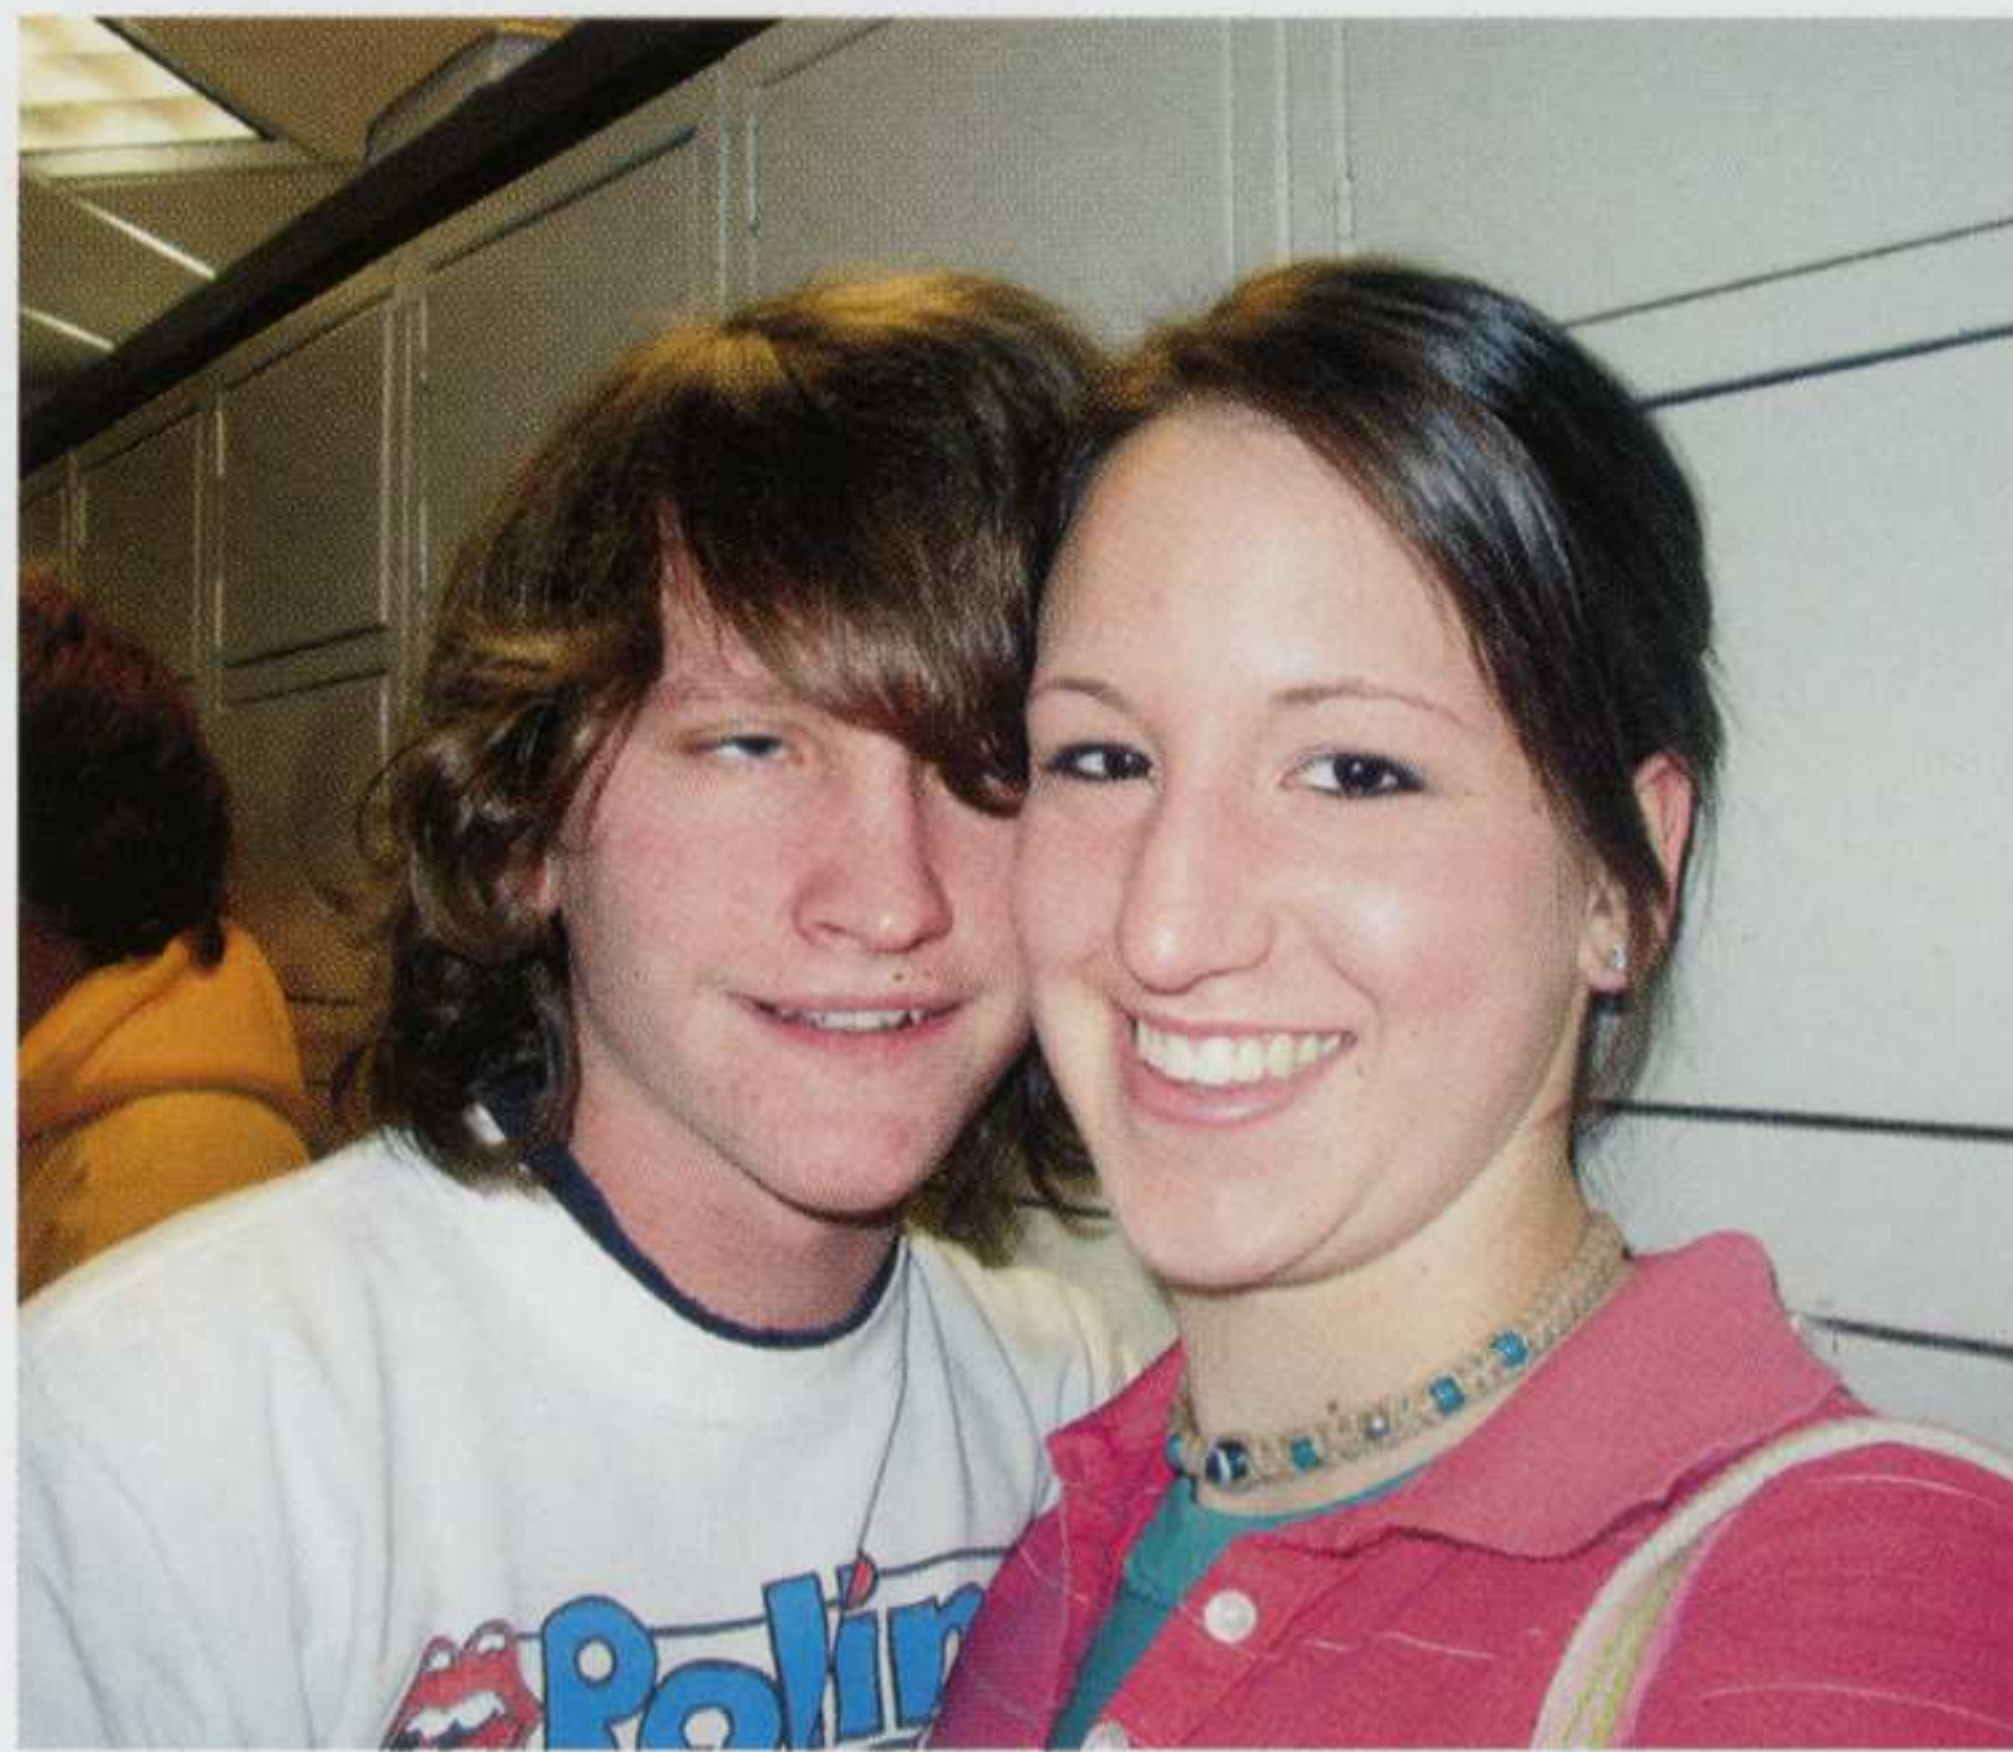

Commenting on all the outstanding qualities of Hannah Smith, Nick Tracy says, "She's one of a kind." Hannah says of Nick that "he's so kind and gentle." This couple seems to have what it takes to remain in a relationship.

Don't Wake Daddy

Going to class is so much fun when we're in love, isn't it? Just ask Alex Baldwin and Jessica Trusler.

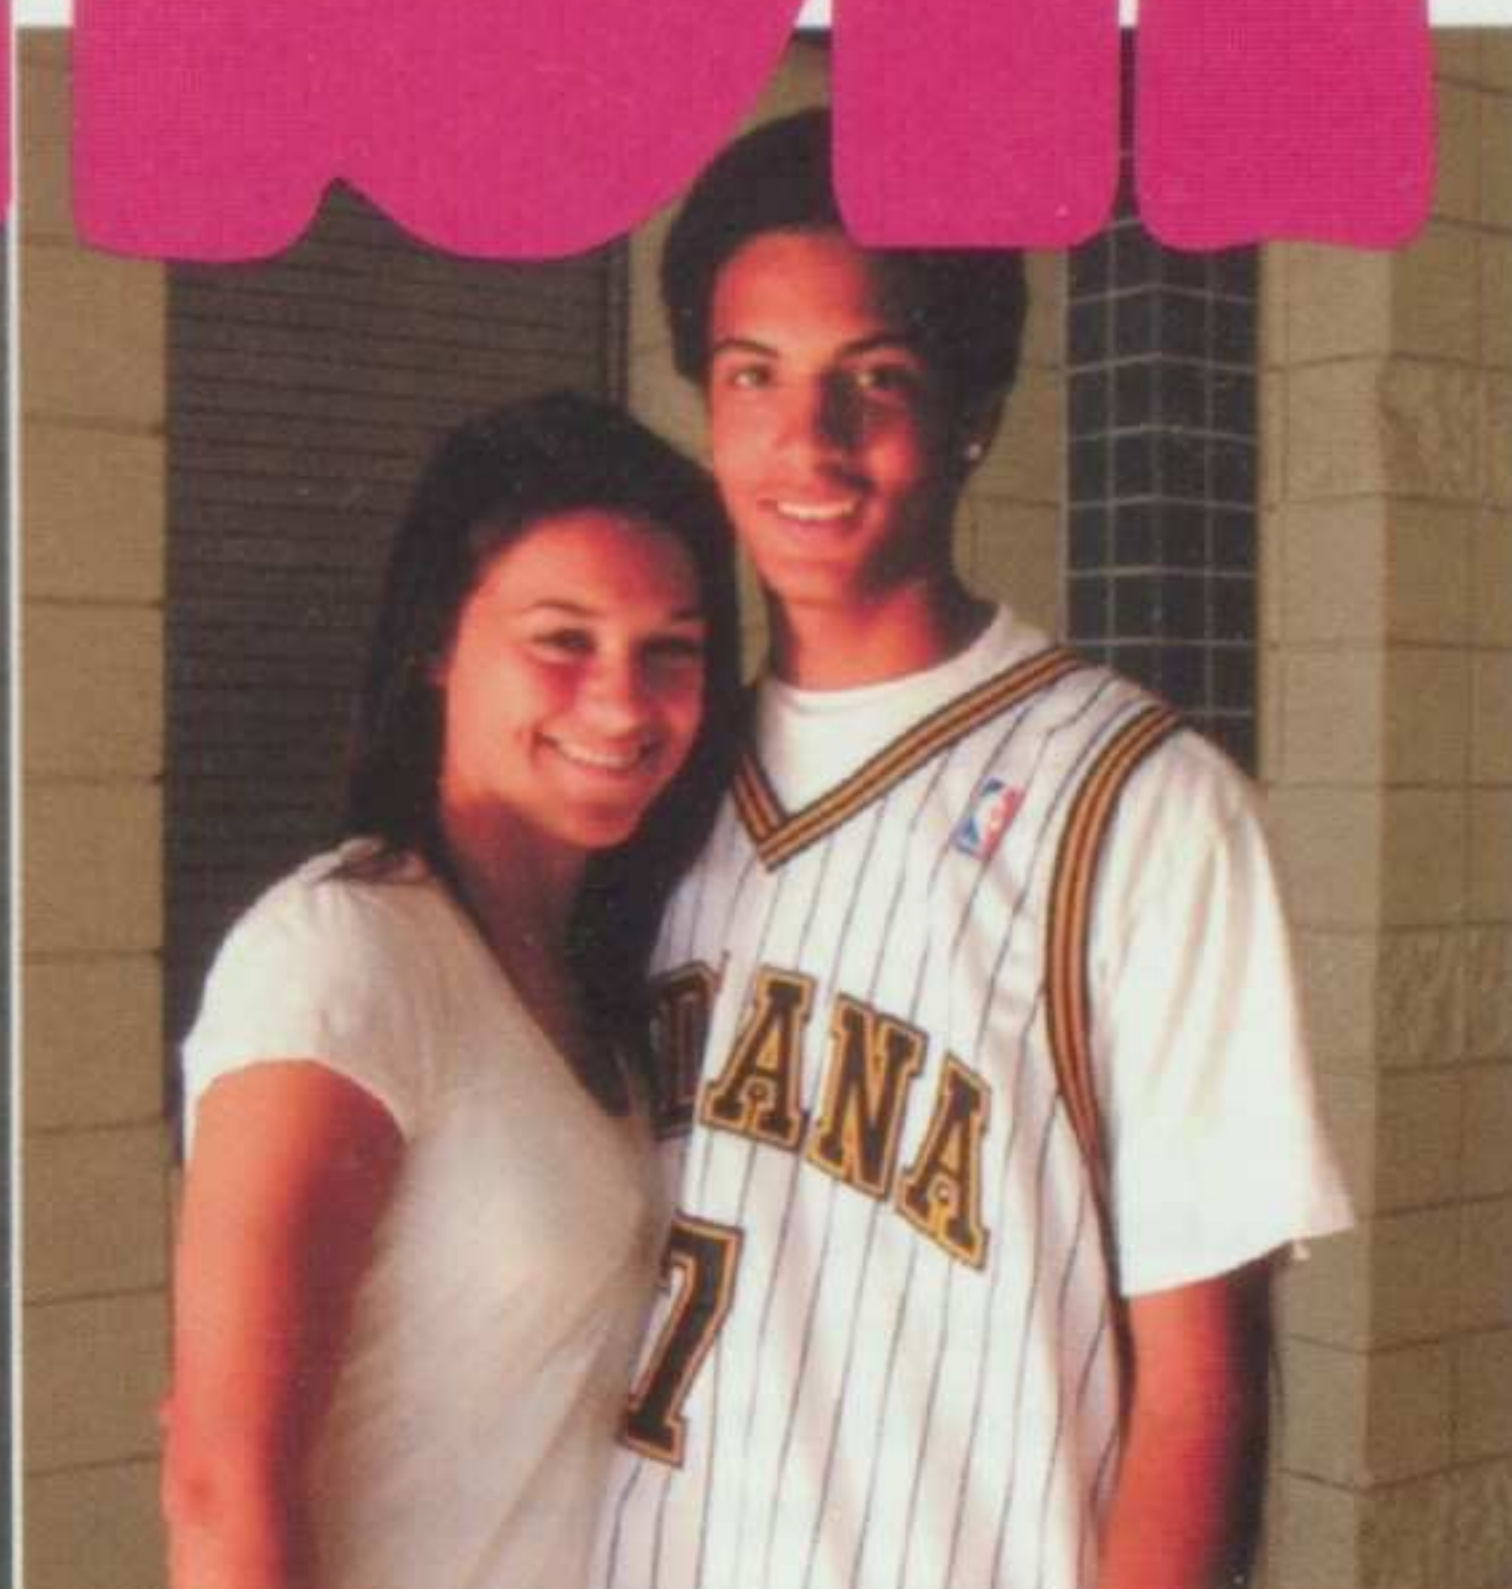

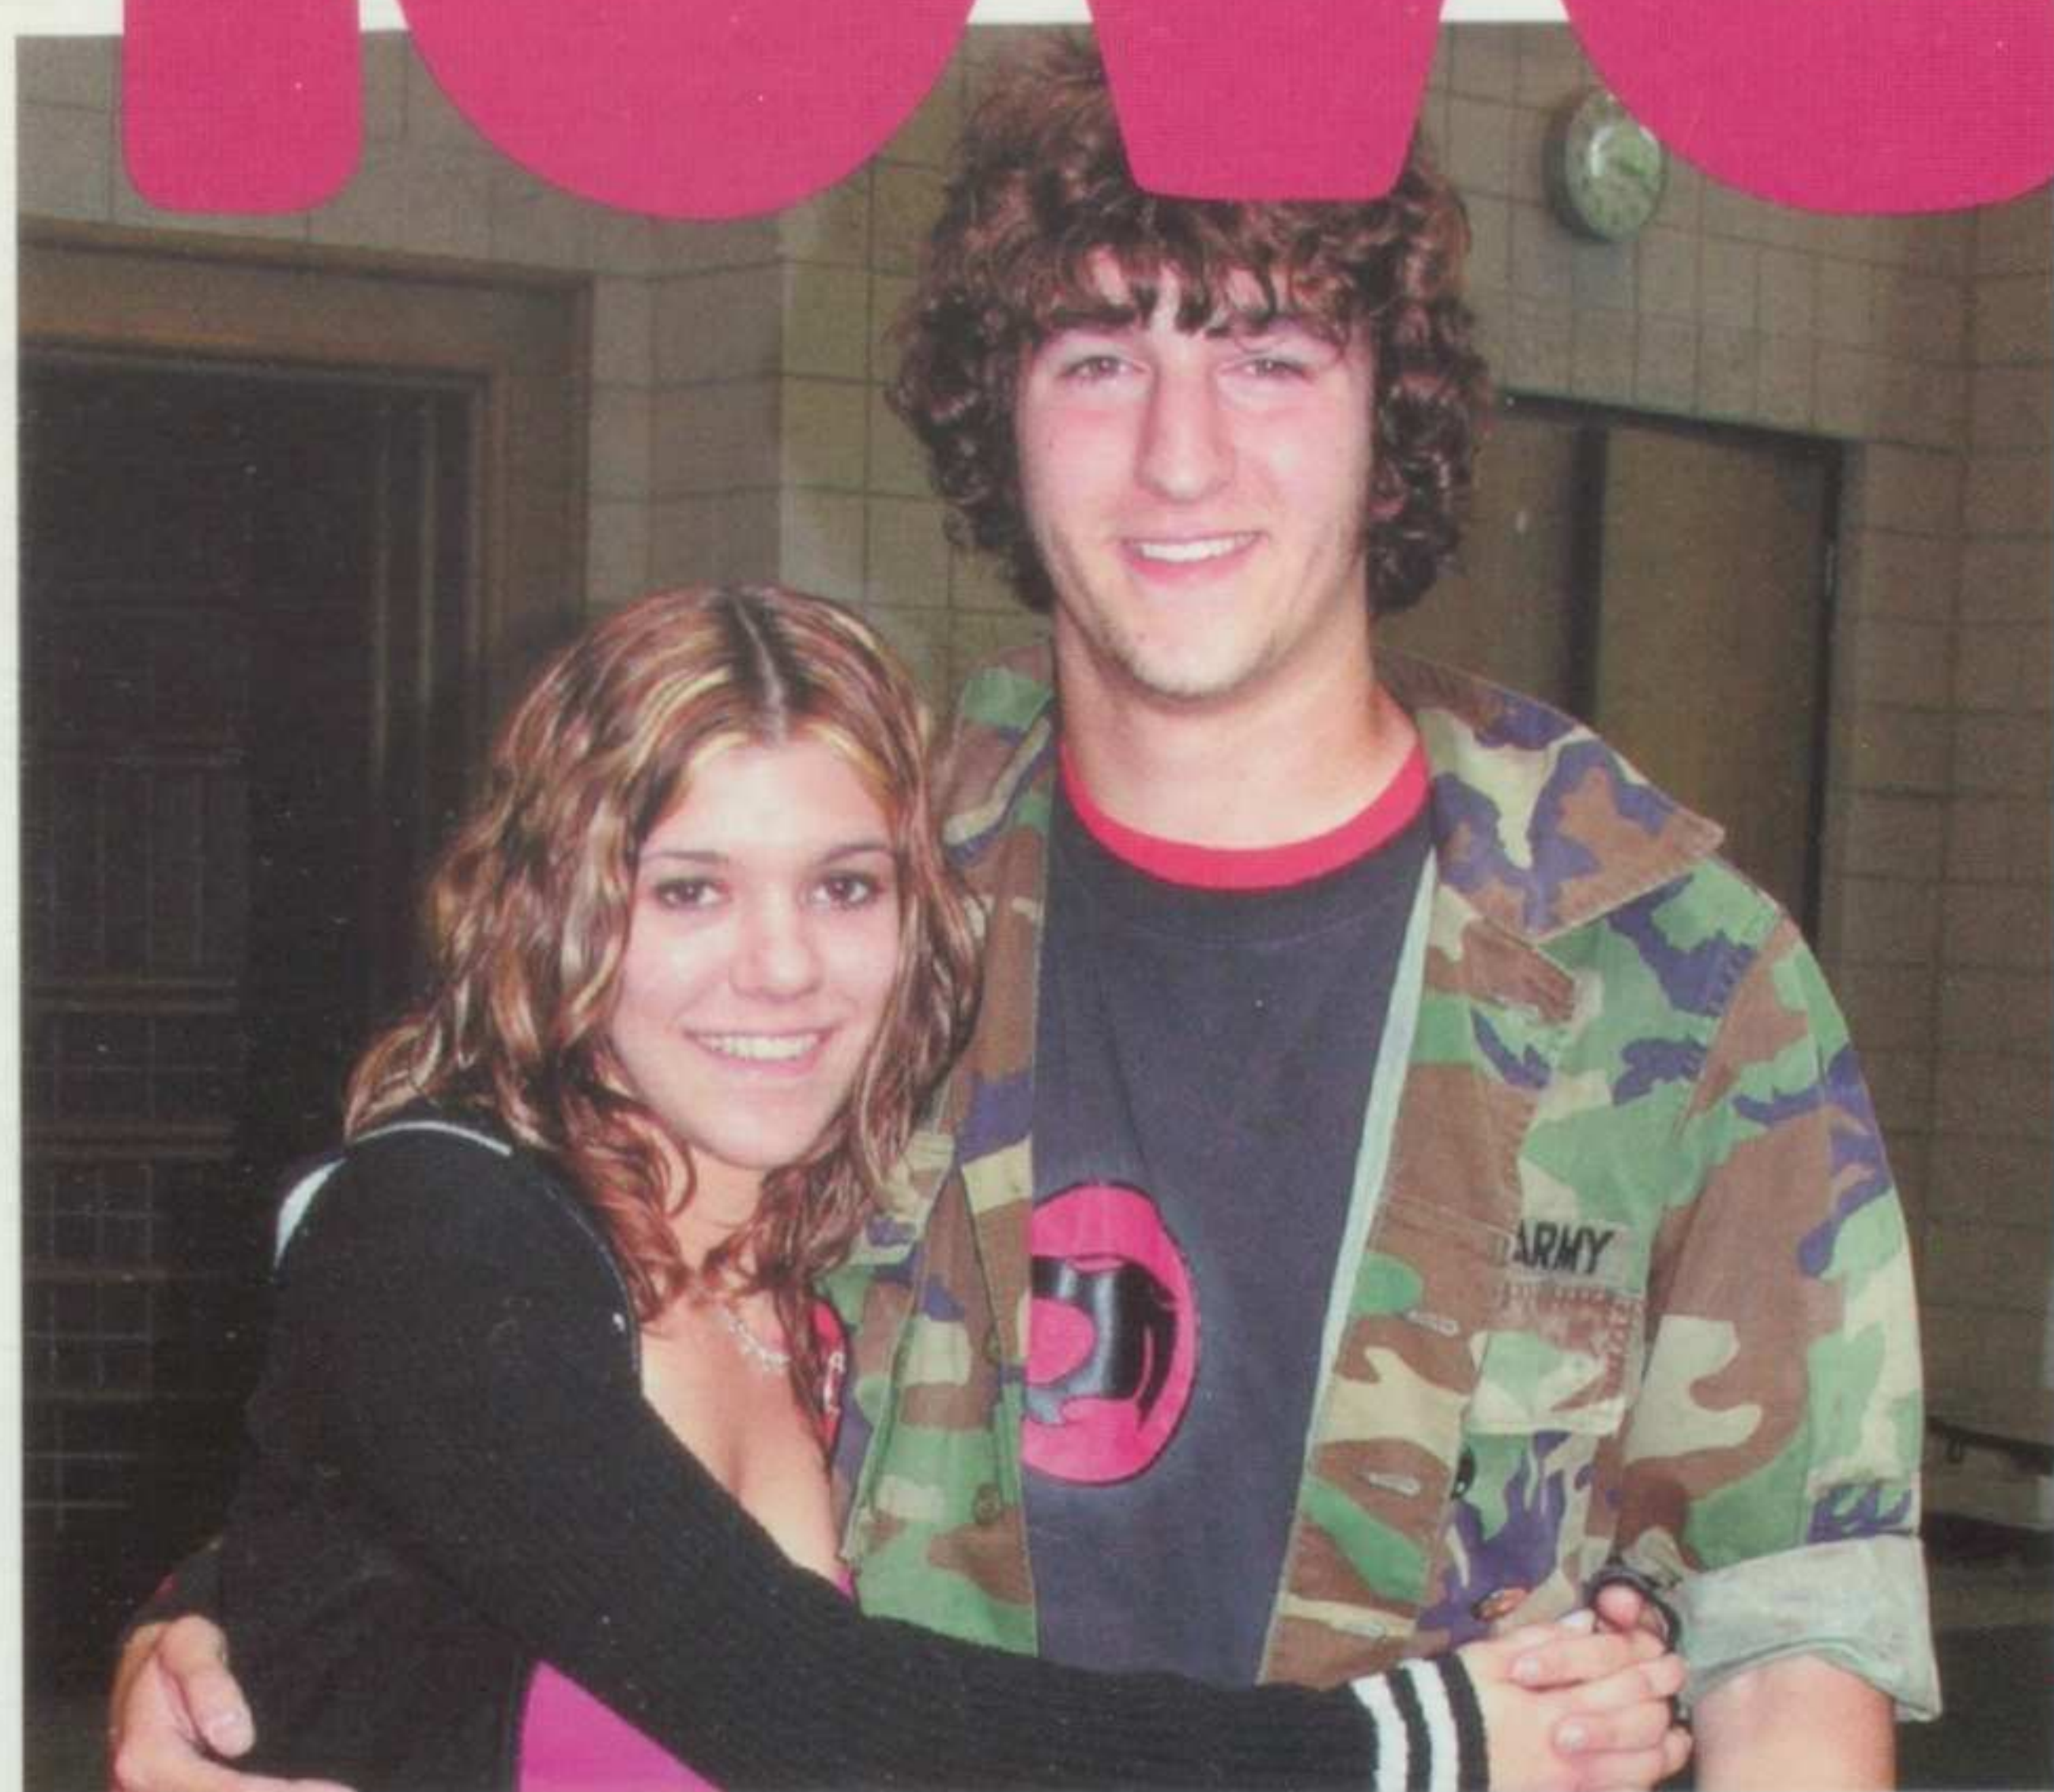

Careful of the PDA, you two! Brian Kaufman and Morgan Katz clearly need some alone time, away from the hustle and bustle of school.

"Every B-Day, BurkeTreboni leaves school illegally to wake me up for class. We hang out and make chocolate chip pancakes before we have to come back to school." says Brette Wilson.

Lovebirds

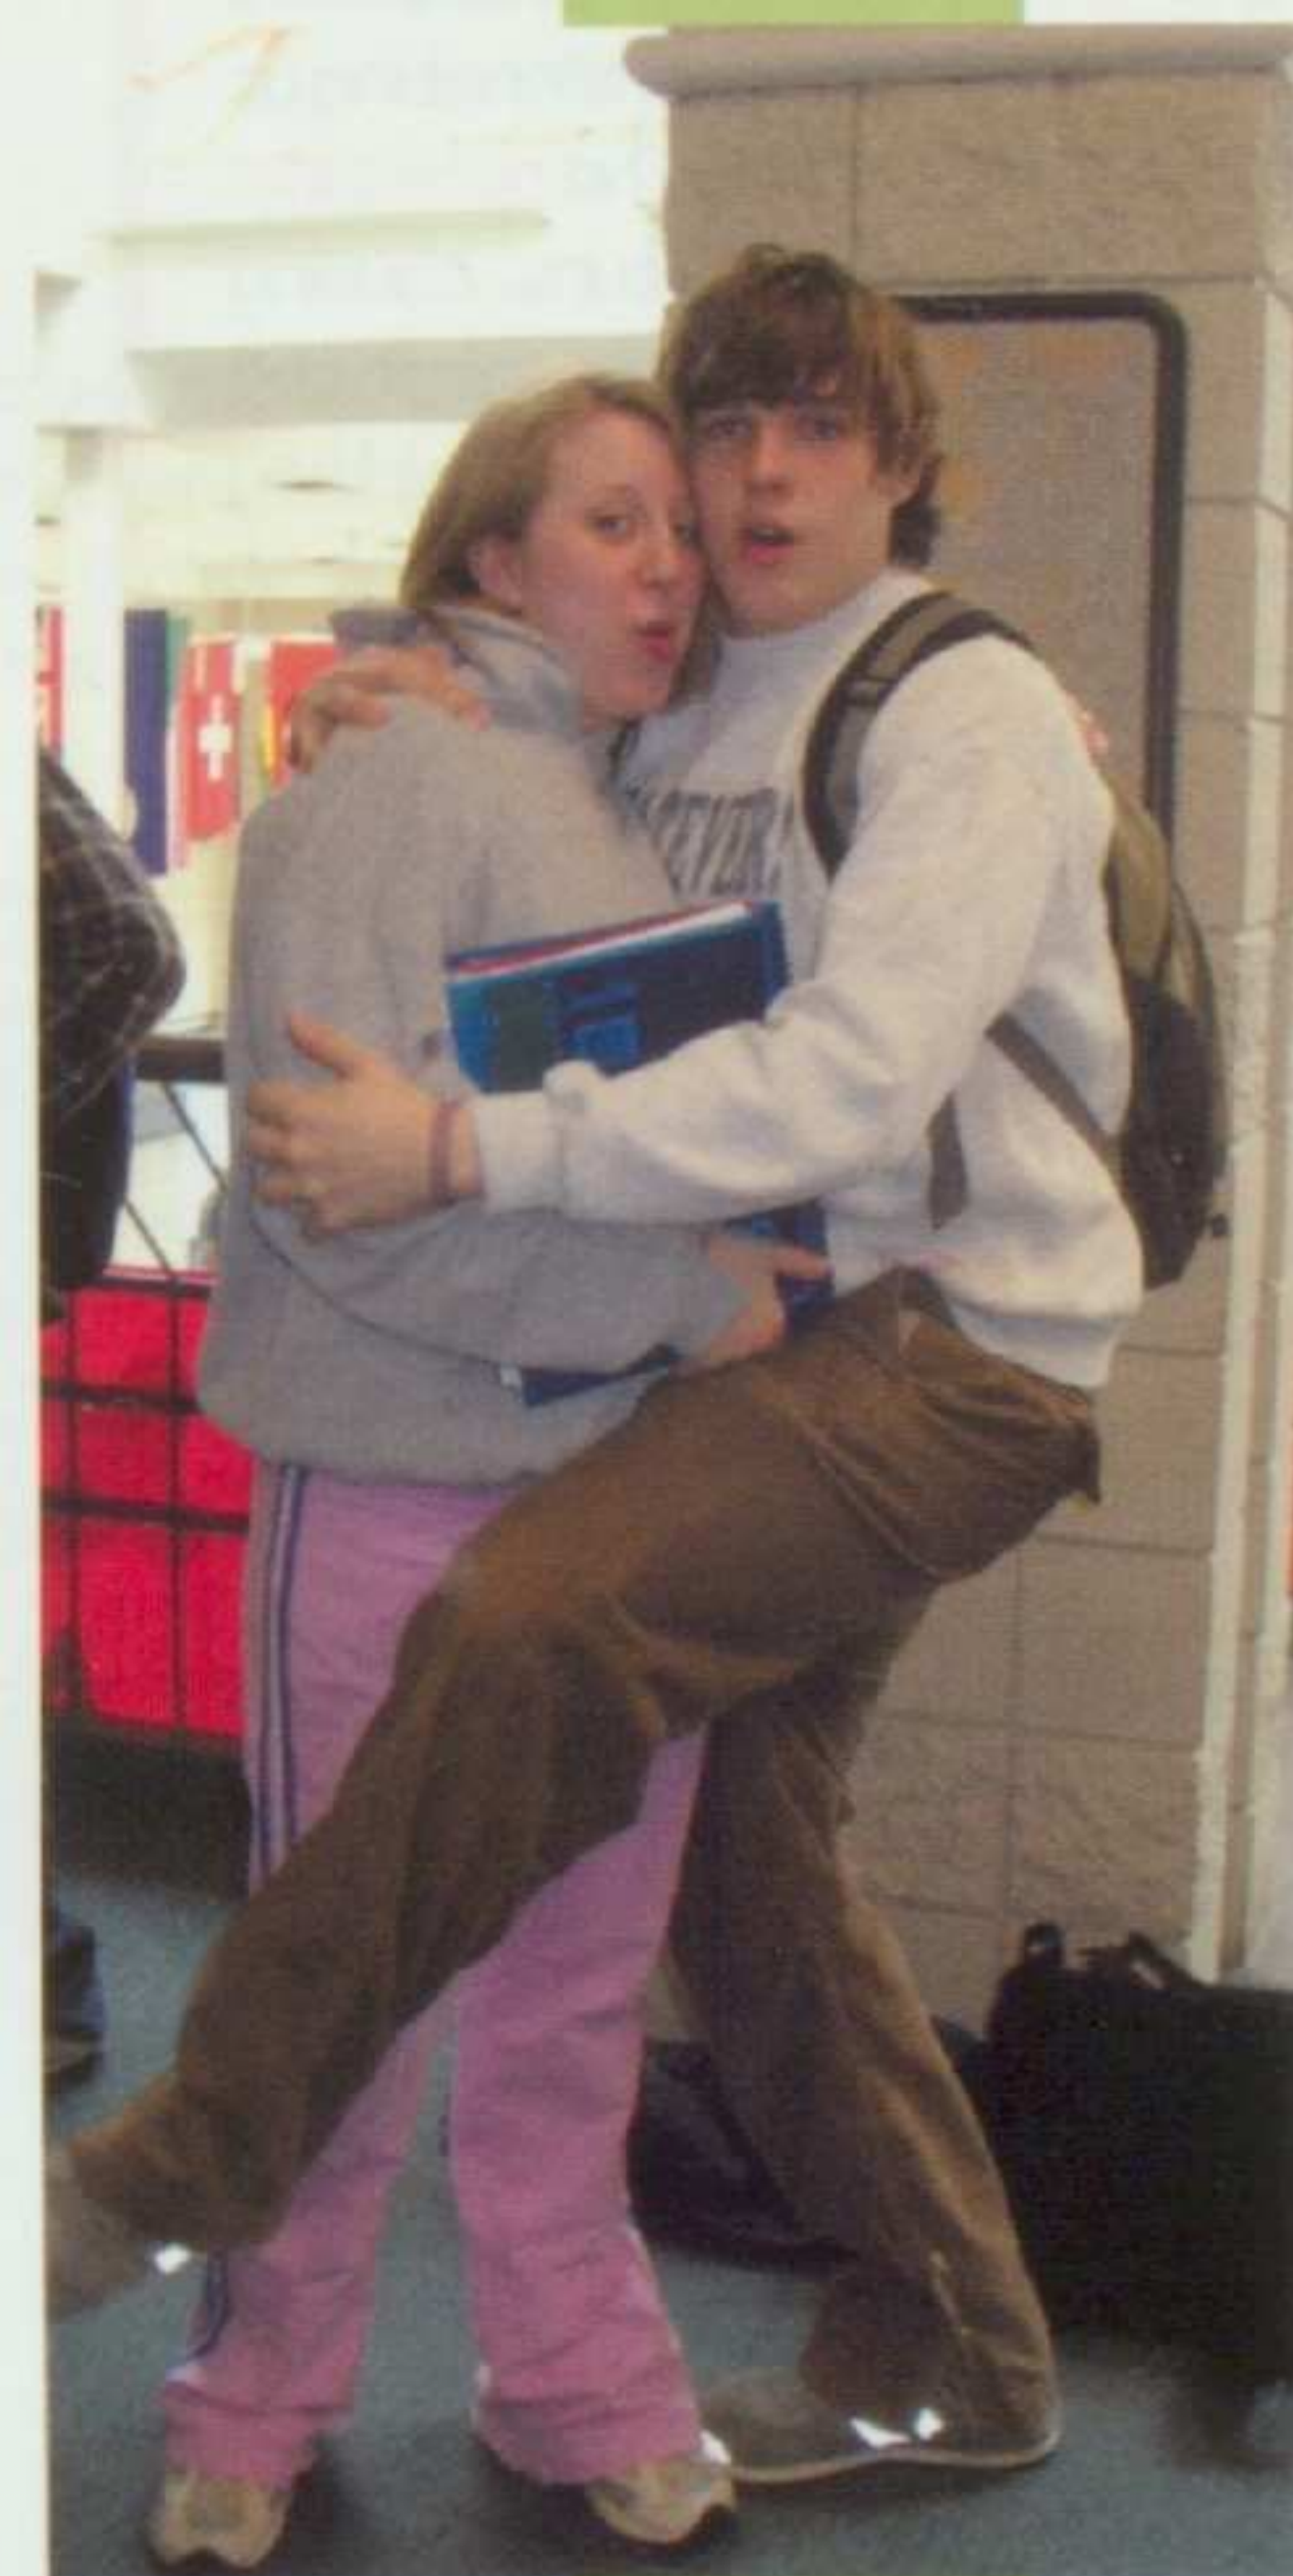

Needing some cuddling, Ryan Beattie tries to wrap himself around his lovely lady Kara Jones. Now, now, now, Ryan, none of that!

Hanging out in the commons during lunch are Evann Morgan and JJ Cole. If I were she, I'd be milking JJ for some lunch.

"Ellie Smith has really gorgeous eyes," says Alex Staniskis. But that's not what's most attractive about her. "She cares more about her friends that she does about herself."

What a cute couple! Chad Boyd and Chelsea Davis are looking gorgeous at their final school dance.

Skipping class to hang out are Alex Hettinger, and Ashley Coen. "Love" makes people do crazy things.

Chillin' out at their junior prom are James Coppeler and Lyda Sprague. Dating for over a year at Kilbourne is a pretty remarkable record.

Gliding down the stairs of the Franklin Park Conservatory, Zach Smith and Lani Oshima make up part of Kilbourne's kick'n prom court.

REALITY TV: CONTESTANTS RACING TO THE TOP BEFORE IT ALL COMES CRASHING DOWN

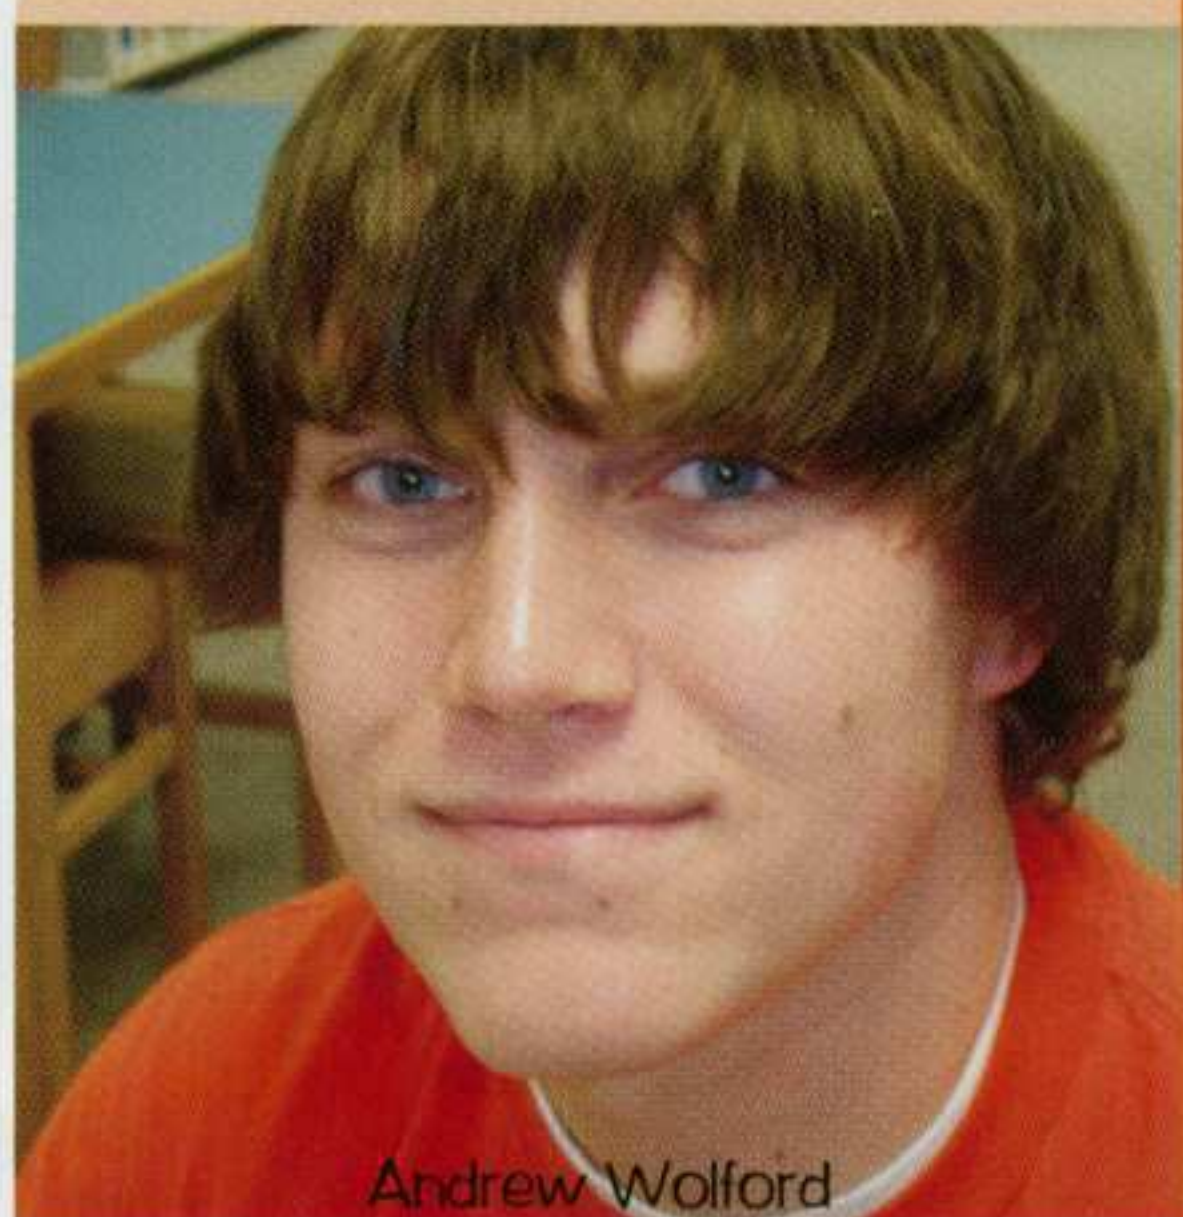

Reality shows have engulfed prime time TV. The corny plots and over-dramatic characters consume our brains, alienating us from "real" reality. The networks define reality in culture, causing the "Average Joes" to mimic the exaggerated illusion of what they watch every Thursday night at eight. From "seven strangers picked to live in a house" to being crowned "The Swan," TV viewers transform themselves into these celebrity-like contestants.

With the growing numbers of reality TV shows and the lack of new story lines, "it is time to cut the fat."

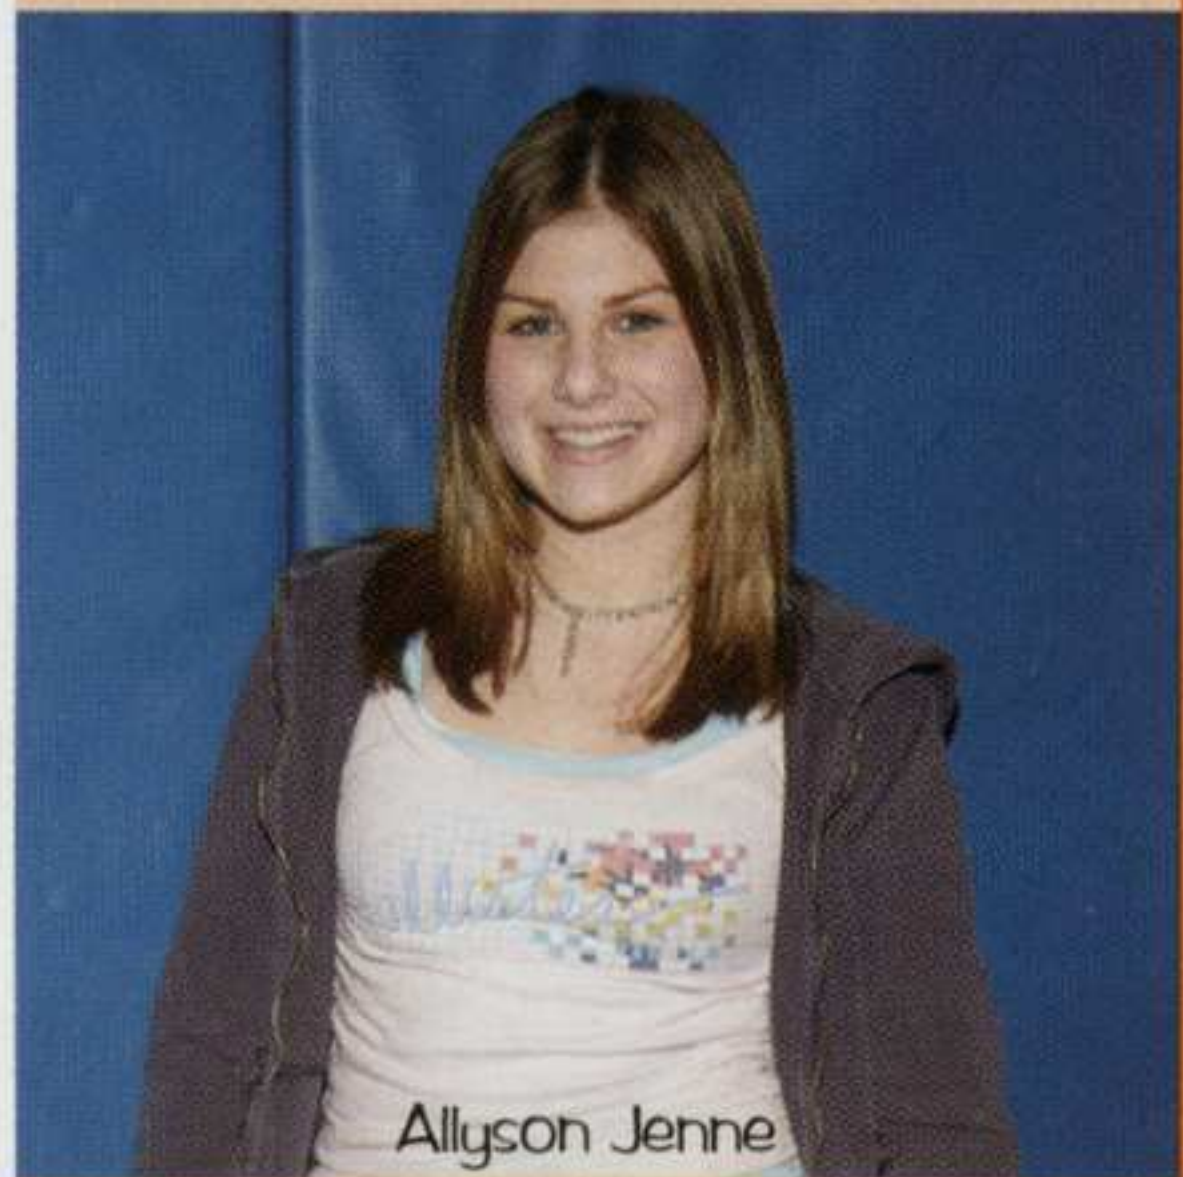

Dare-devil Ryan Wheeland likes jumping off high buildings, attempting crazy stunts on his skateboard, and setting speed limits with his car. His friends voted him most likely to be on Fear Factor.

Whether it is working at the local fast food joint or shoveling cow manure, could Tina Fry and Tiffany Belton hack it on FOX's The Simple Life? Their classmates believe these girls can handle any obstacle.

Andrew Wolford

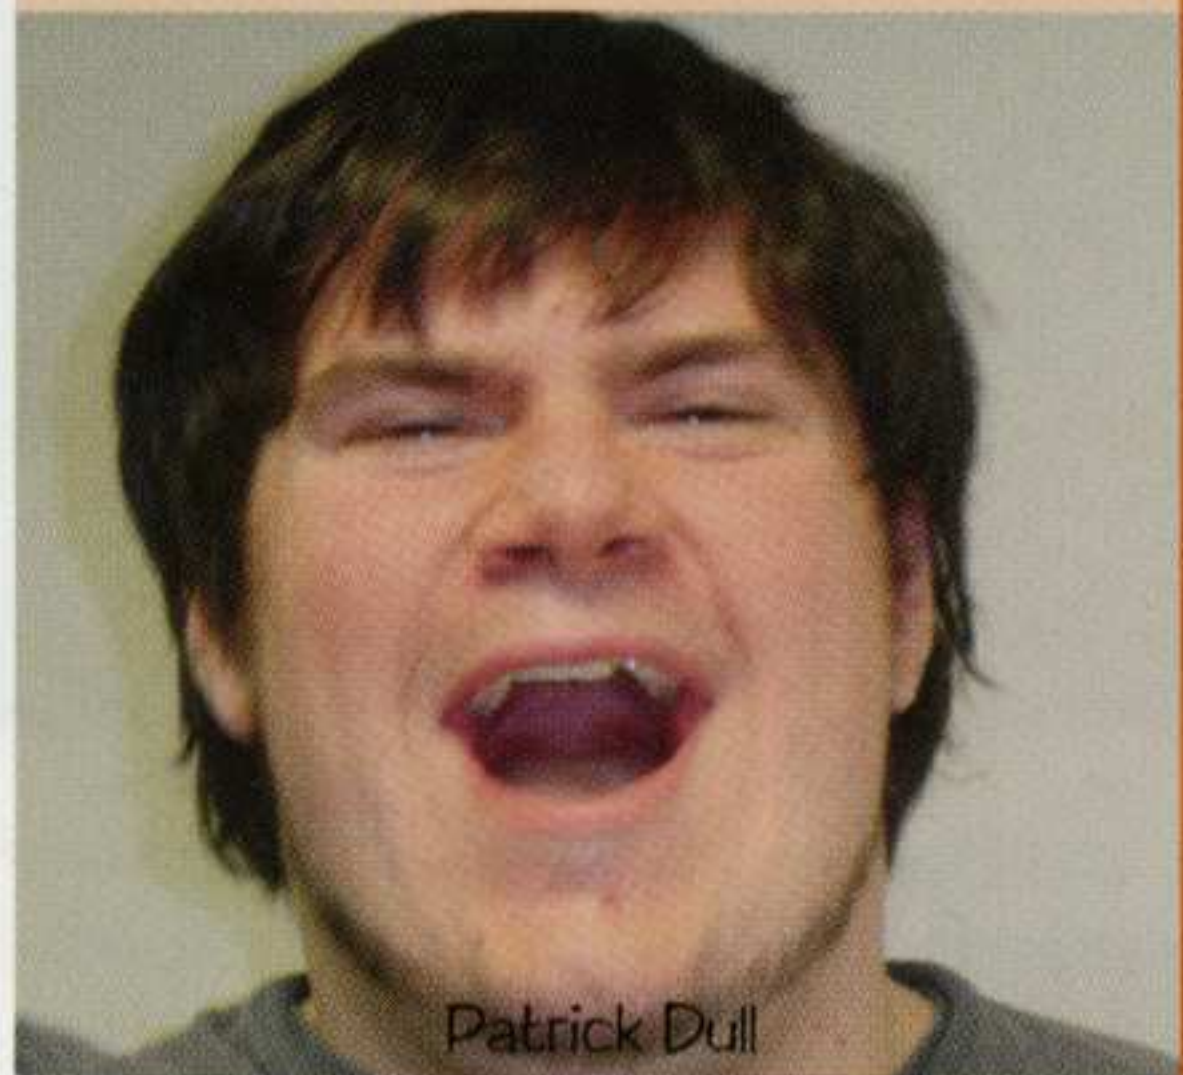

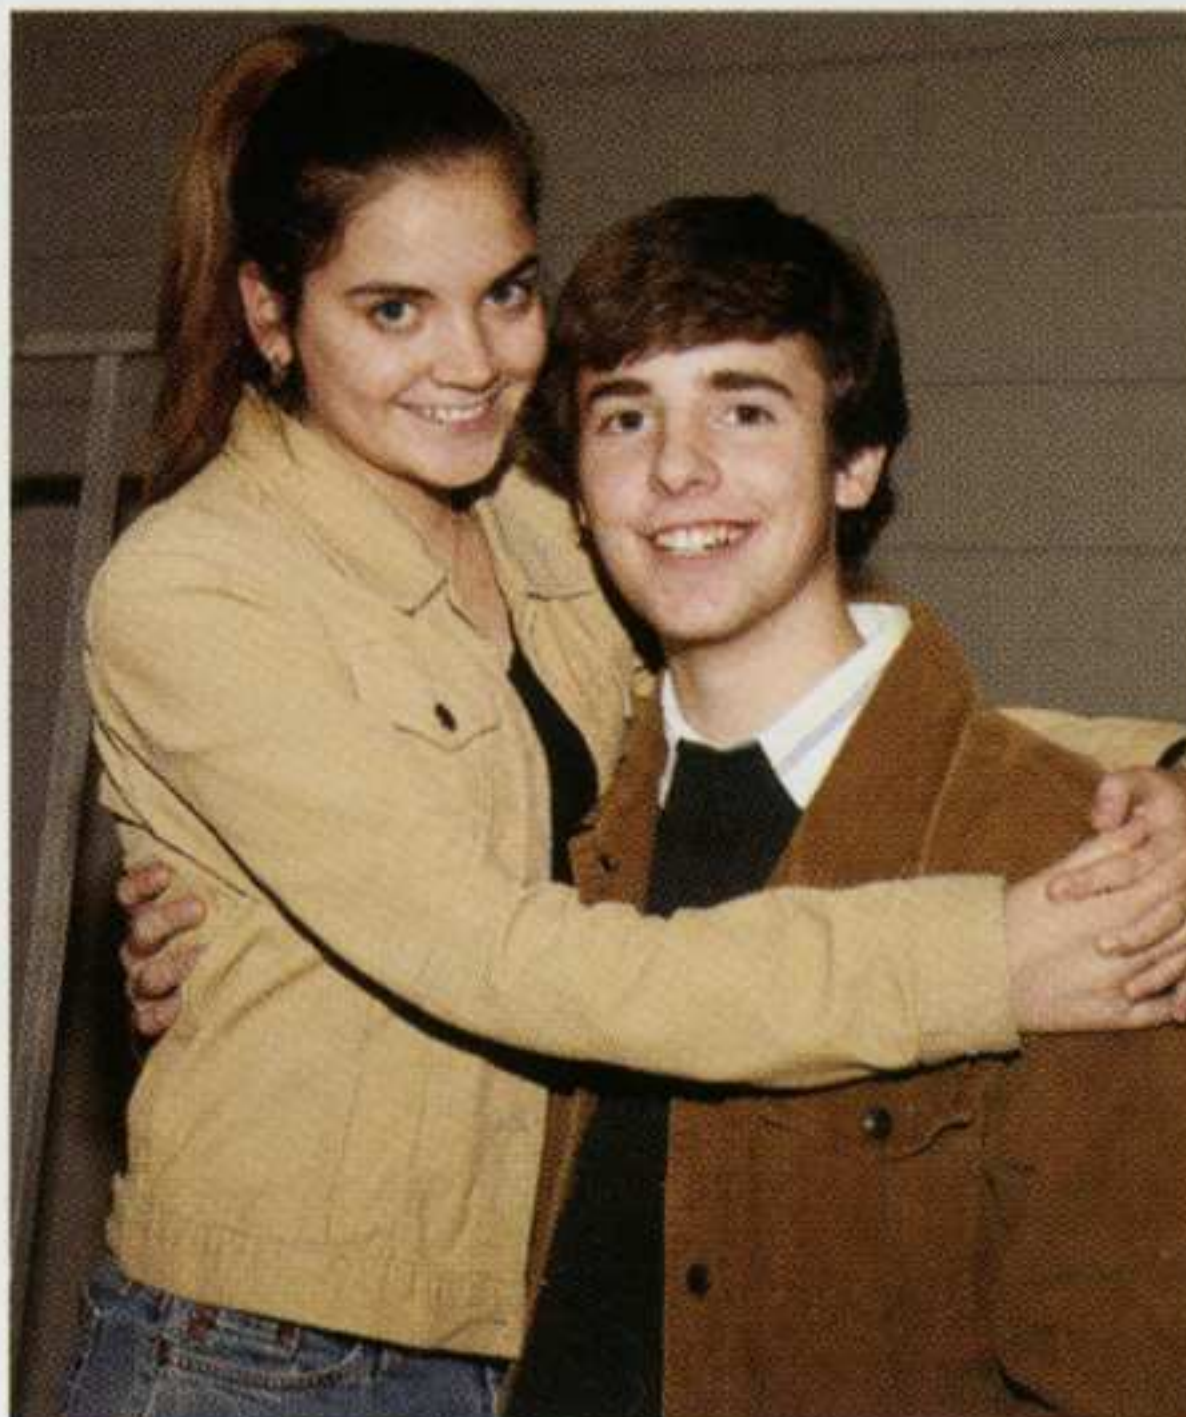

Allyson Jenne

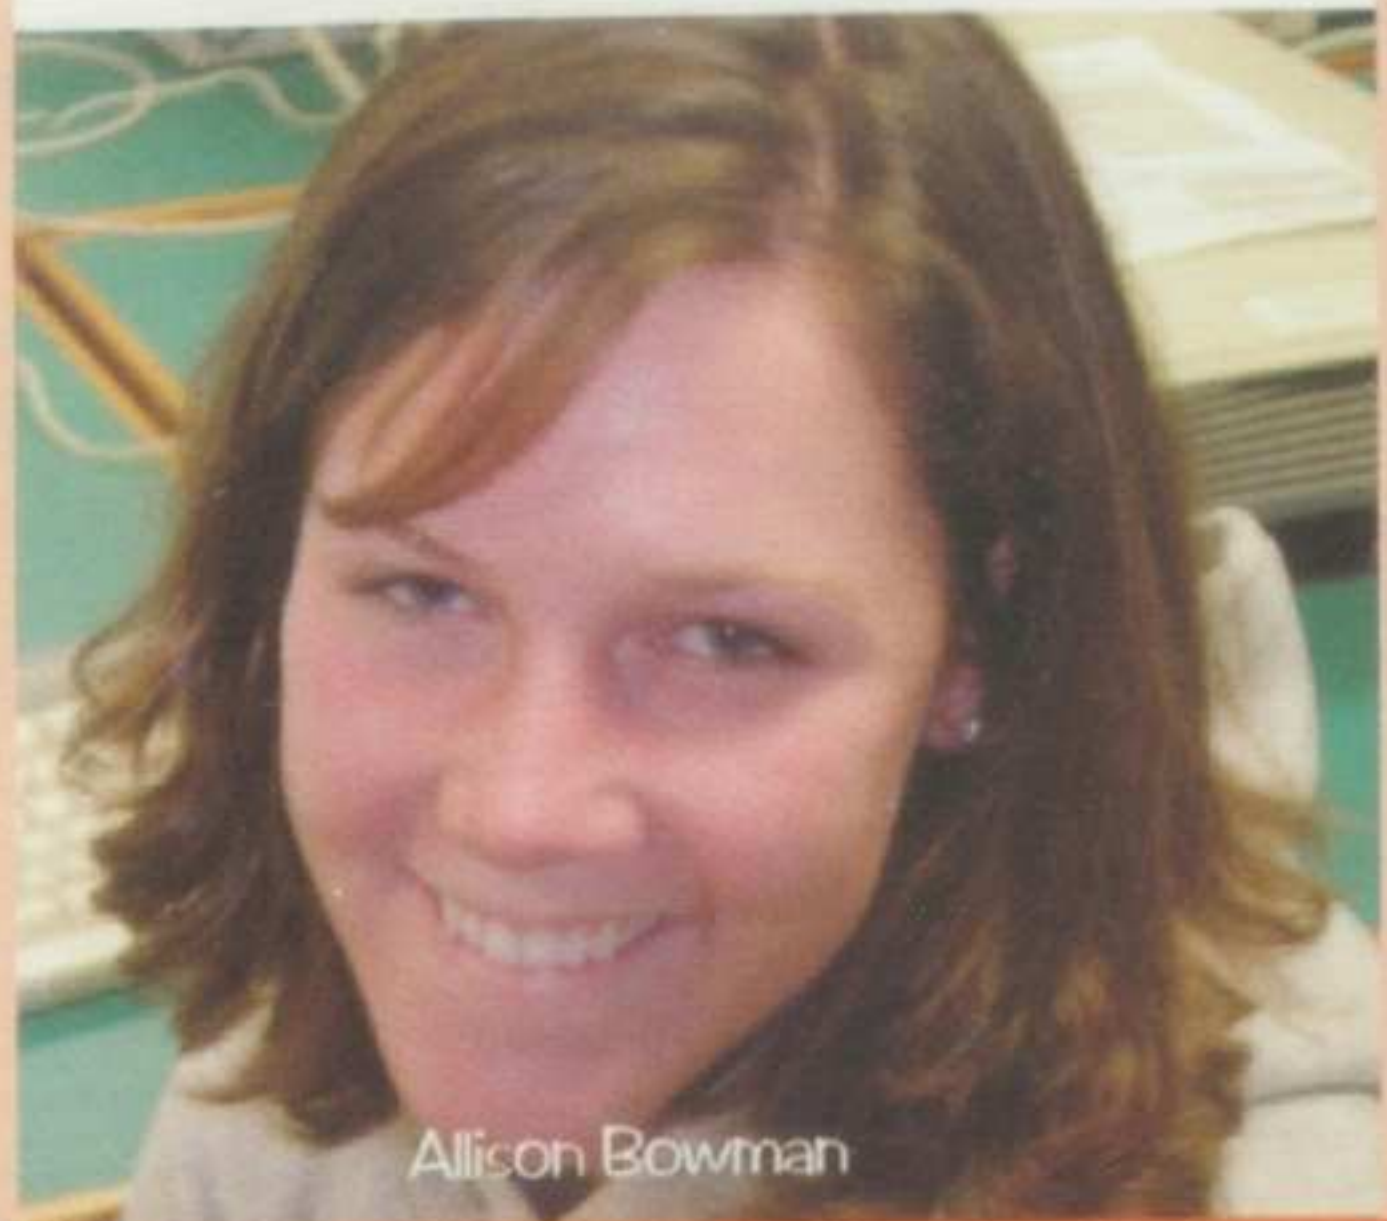

Rocking the cheeta sunglasses and useless keys, Courtney Vozenilek was voted best to win Pimp My Ride. Unfortunately, Courtney's car, "Rusty," now rests in pieces. She informed me her new transportation is a maroon Huffy bike!

Considered to be the next Jessica and Nick, Jessica Bruce and Ben Mooney give the famous couple some competition. They are both actively involved in the music program and who knows, they might even have their own reality show in the future.

WHO KNOWS?...MANY STUDENTS AT KILBOURNE HAVE THE POTENTIAL TO BE A NEW "REALITY" STAR

Being over-dramatic, out-going, and diverse has helped Jackie Spicer, Caitie O'Rourke, Emma Parker, Kevin Steele, Jessy Liddle, Taylor Boveine, and Colin Igoe land the seven spots in the Real World cast. This wild bunch are complete strangers to one another and have many different views on life. They are picked to live in a unique mansion for four months. Voted by their peers, this crew could surely help the show hit the top of the MTV charts!

With their charisma, charming wit, and gorgeous looks, these four fine men, Tom Mawer, Collin Veryser, Andy Campbell, and Clayton Straker, capture the hearts of the mesmerized ladies of Killbourne. Many girls wish to be given roses while hoping to continue their roller-coaster rides with the men of their dreams! Will this group of Bachelors pick their fair ladies?

Best friends since middle school, Amanda Blackwell and Heidi Knoblock can conquer anything together. Whatever the challenge may be, Heidi and Amanda would finish on top in the Amazing Race.

Striking his most famous pose, MTV's MADE contestant Ryan Beattie has been transformed into a Ladies' Man. With his handsome looks and sarcastic humor, Ryan manages to swoon his leading lady Kara Jones.

This hammer head shark looks pretty pitiful in the hands of Joanna Kalgreen and Carmen Clark.

Having fun while soaking up the sun in Florida's South Beach are seniors Carly Hilliard, Jill Pritchett, and Megan Baumbusch.

On their first day in Europe, Megan Hasbrouck, Courtney Vozenilek, Alissa Curtis, Kristin Gunter, Allie Veith, and Brittany Smith stand at the London Eye while they take in Big Ben.

In Vail, Colorado over spring break, Matt Graves, Mike Schott, and Mrs. Graves are having fun on a speedy snow mobile.

Getting ready to go on an extreme bike ride down a long, adventurous hill. Taylor Craig, Max Maughan, Chad Boyd, Preston Yarnell, Eric Wu, Luke Pierce, and with his back to us, Martin Daly flex to charge themselves up.

Making a jump on the slopes of Colorado, Katie Fischer enjoys escaping from school to go skiing.

At Young Life camp in Colorado, Tom Jackson, Kyler Denbow, Nick Tracy, and Frank Swiatek dress as cowboys for country western night.

In Orlando, Florida, at Disney's Wide World of Sports complex, Brian Bunting, Cody Wilson, and Scott Gustafson relax before playing baseball.

Also at Crooked Creek for Young Life camp are these group of girls who just climbed the highest mountain in camp, Mount Every. In the background are the Rocky Mountains.

CRAZY HAIRSTYLES, JAZZY JEWELRY, FLASHY BRACELETS, AND SNAZZY CLOTHES

Creativity and uniqueness seem to define the new styles popping up at Kilbourne this year. Clean cut hairstyles are no longer the norm as mohawks and shags become a growing trend.

Hair is not the only way to show originality; the right accessory also declares one's individuality. Innovative theme purses are just as popular as the trusty designer bag, and artistic jewelry complements many outfits. Long beaded necklaces and fundrasier bracelets make big fashion statements.

Collared shirts and khakis from Abercrombie, Hollister, or American Eagle are the in-thing for guys who like to dress up at Kilbourne. Jared Smith looks refined in his Hollister duds!

We find a few unique hairstyles at Kilbourne. Junior Jared Siculan stands out as having one of the most noticeable hairstyles in the school.

The fundraising bracelets are the newest fad at Kilbourne. Matt Gansl explains, "I think they are such a great idea. Not only do they help people out, but they also are fun to wear."

There's nothing wrong with a classy shoe to spice up an outfit. Stilettos are not only for skirts and dresses; they also complement a cute pair of capris. These shoes may look agonizing, but Stephanie Massey finds them comfortable enough for a day at school.

DESIGNER PURSES, OUTRAGEDUS SHOES, ZIP-TO-DATE HAIR DOS, MATCHING SWEAT SUITS

"I love to shop. I try to keep up with the newest fashion trends, but I also like to add my own touch," says Duru Armagan. Duru is always looking her best. No matter what she wears, she always manages to make it work.

Stylish sophomores are David Geier, Katie Abate, Will Klein, Kristie Zelina, Elliot Hunt. They all have different hair styles that announce their personalities! Elliot Hunt shares, "I like when my hair looks different from everyone else's."

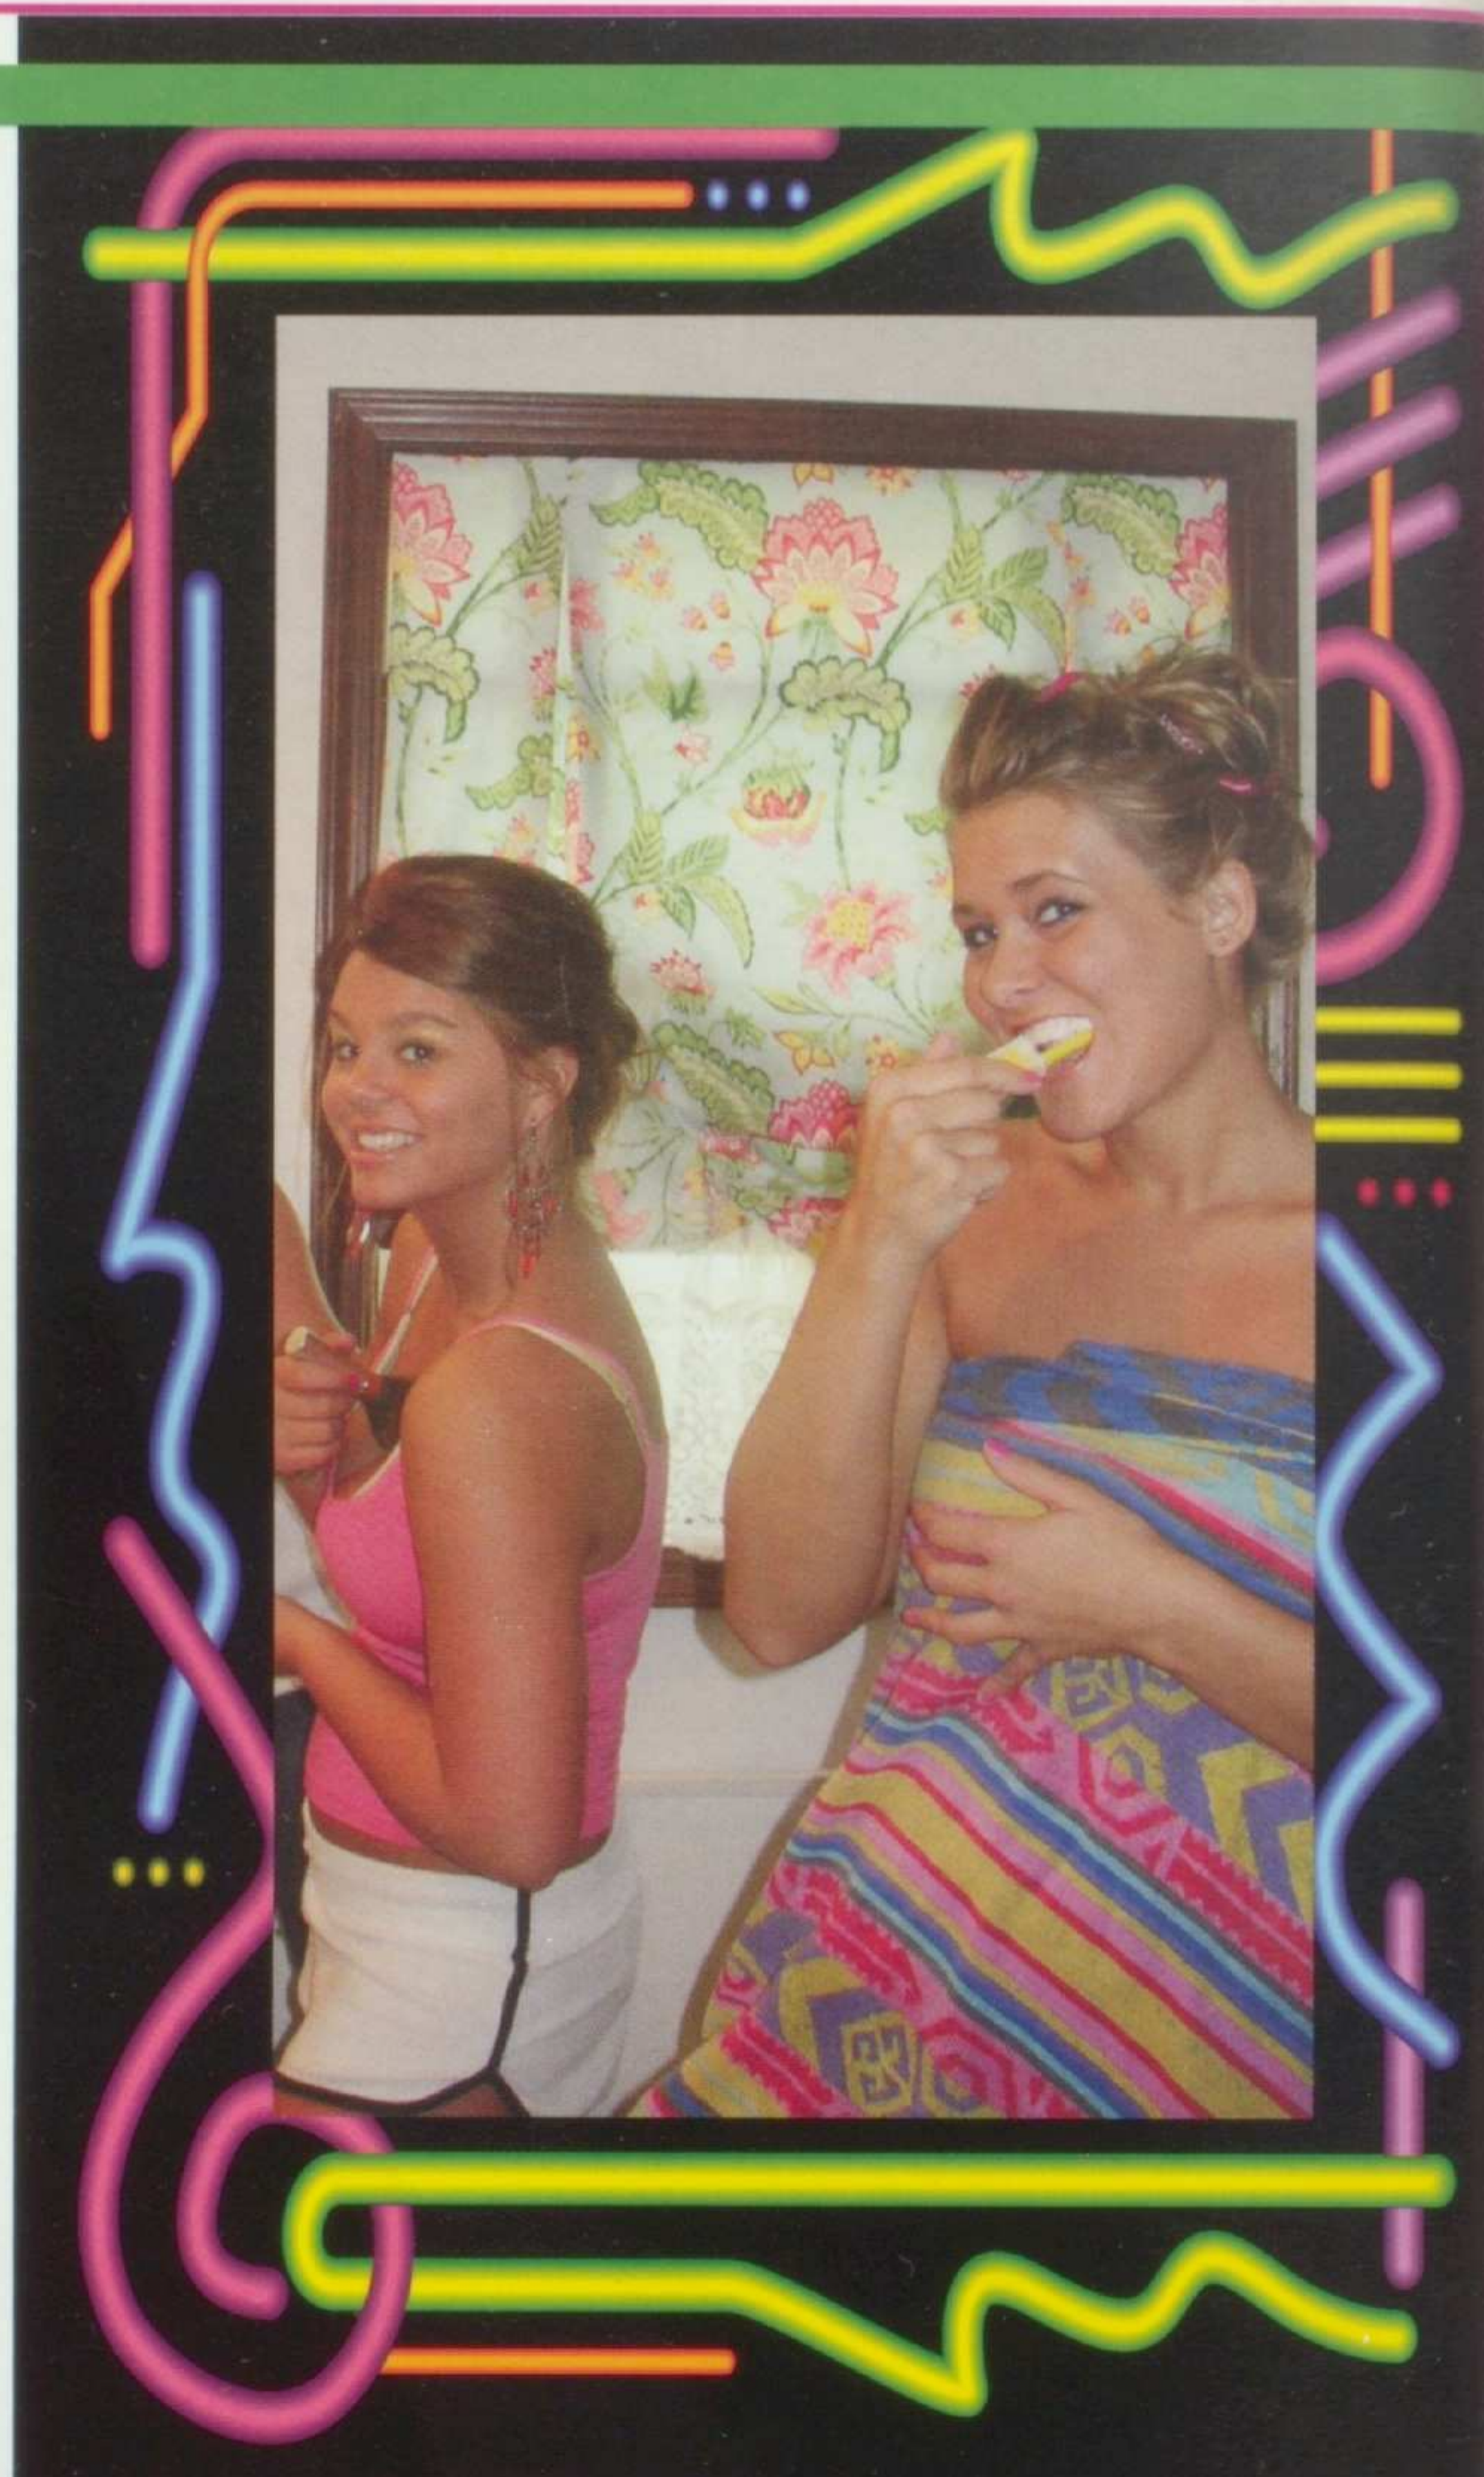

One of the most stylish guys in the school is Reed Williams. We see Reed wearing a golf shirt and jeans almost everyday. Reed says "Style is what you make of it."

Dressing up isn't the only fashionable thing to do. Students show their style by wearing a simple sweat suit! Sarah Blaine explains, "They are comfortable and cute."

Primping before prom, Malorie Martino and Brette Wilson have as much fun getting ready together as they have at prom itself.

Flexing his hot muscles, Andy Wasson shows off his ice and wrap around his brand. You'd think something like that might hurt a little. Andy, what a crazy way to celebrate after the dance.

Was Megan Boggs escorted into the prom by both Kyle Schottke and Mike McConnel? Nope, Kyle took Corey Coughlin, but it looks as if they're all having a great time together.

Such a thing as too much fun? Snacking at After Prom 2005 are Heather DeSantis and Abbi Grimes. The $20 bucks a pop offered a ton of activities.

These beauty queens are on their way to Mike McConnell's house to hang out after prom. Marisa Catalino, Kayla Greco, Allison Bowman, Duru Armagan, and Ashley Garner are lookin' fine as always.

Always the life of the party, Caitie O'Rourke struts her stuff on the dance floor before, during, and after the dance.

Looks as if Mike Schott is surprised to see Thomas's Molly Beckwith. Harrison Jones isn't. He knows Kilbourne's girls are "almost" as cute as Molly!

TALKING AND STAYING CONNECTED, STUDENTS AT KILBOURNE ARE CHATTING IT UP

Cell phones are a changing fashion statement every day. We use phones not just for safety or convenience but also because they are trendy. Cell phones have 100 ring tones and come in different shapes, colors, and sizes. Students are talking on cell phones while driving or shopping at the mall, giving them access to whomever, whenever. Despite expensive bills and embarrassing moments, students think cell phones are the next best thing since instant messenger.

Not having a cell phone that he can call his own, senior T.J. Luttrell does not follow the trends. He wants to be an individual creating his own style. He is a part of the cool club in his own way.

With her cell phone, freshman Sammie Eaken especially likes to download ring tones for the cool ones. She has "She Will Be Loved," "The Reason," and "P.I.M.P." Sammie does not take her phone along everywhere she goes.

Sarah Dowler

C.J. Hartman

Choices of chats and text messages fill the brain of freshman Adam Hutchinson who buys ringtones for his phone. $75.00 later... he thinks it still pays to be in style. He really likes "Dirt Off Your Shoulders," "P.I.M.P.," and "Snoop." Adam always carries his phone so anyone can reach him.

Flip and picture phone owner, junior Cate Goodell likes to create her ringtones herself. She likes funk, boogie, and "My December" as ring tones. Her phone is personalized with a transparent neon case in her favorite color.

A CHAIN OF FRIENDS KEEPS IT REAL IN THE NEVER ENDING CIRCLE OF DOWNLOADING AND TEXT MESSAGING

Cells phones will help seniors John Burt, Chris Wiber, and Scott Gustafson to keep in touch next year. This is one sure way that these seniors who are destined for different post-graduate plans can get organized to still hang out.

"Rock 'n roll is really cool for ring tones," says junior Jerica Irwin. "Flip phones are just amazing." The rings she likes are "Meant to Live" and "Until the Day I Die." Jerica and her phone are best friends - she always has it.

Needing a flip phone to save room, senior Britney Andrews favors disco tones. She really likes her kickin' baseball phone cover. Brittany always carries her phone in case her friends need to reach her.

"The favorite ring on my phone is 'Ryan Cabrera'" says junior Heather Meena. John Mayer makes her phone complete. Heather really is obsessed with flip phones because they are so amazing. Heather has her phone in case of emergency.

Spirit week

Enjoying his last spirit week by dressing up and turning heads with Mr. Riegel. Chris Hunt explains, "I'm going to miss these days where I can dress up and have fun."

Looking studious in their glasses, Ms. Irwin and Ms. Conley catch the spirit as do Jimmy Treboni and Michael Boggs all dressed up for costume day.

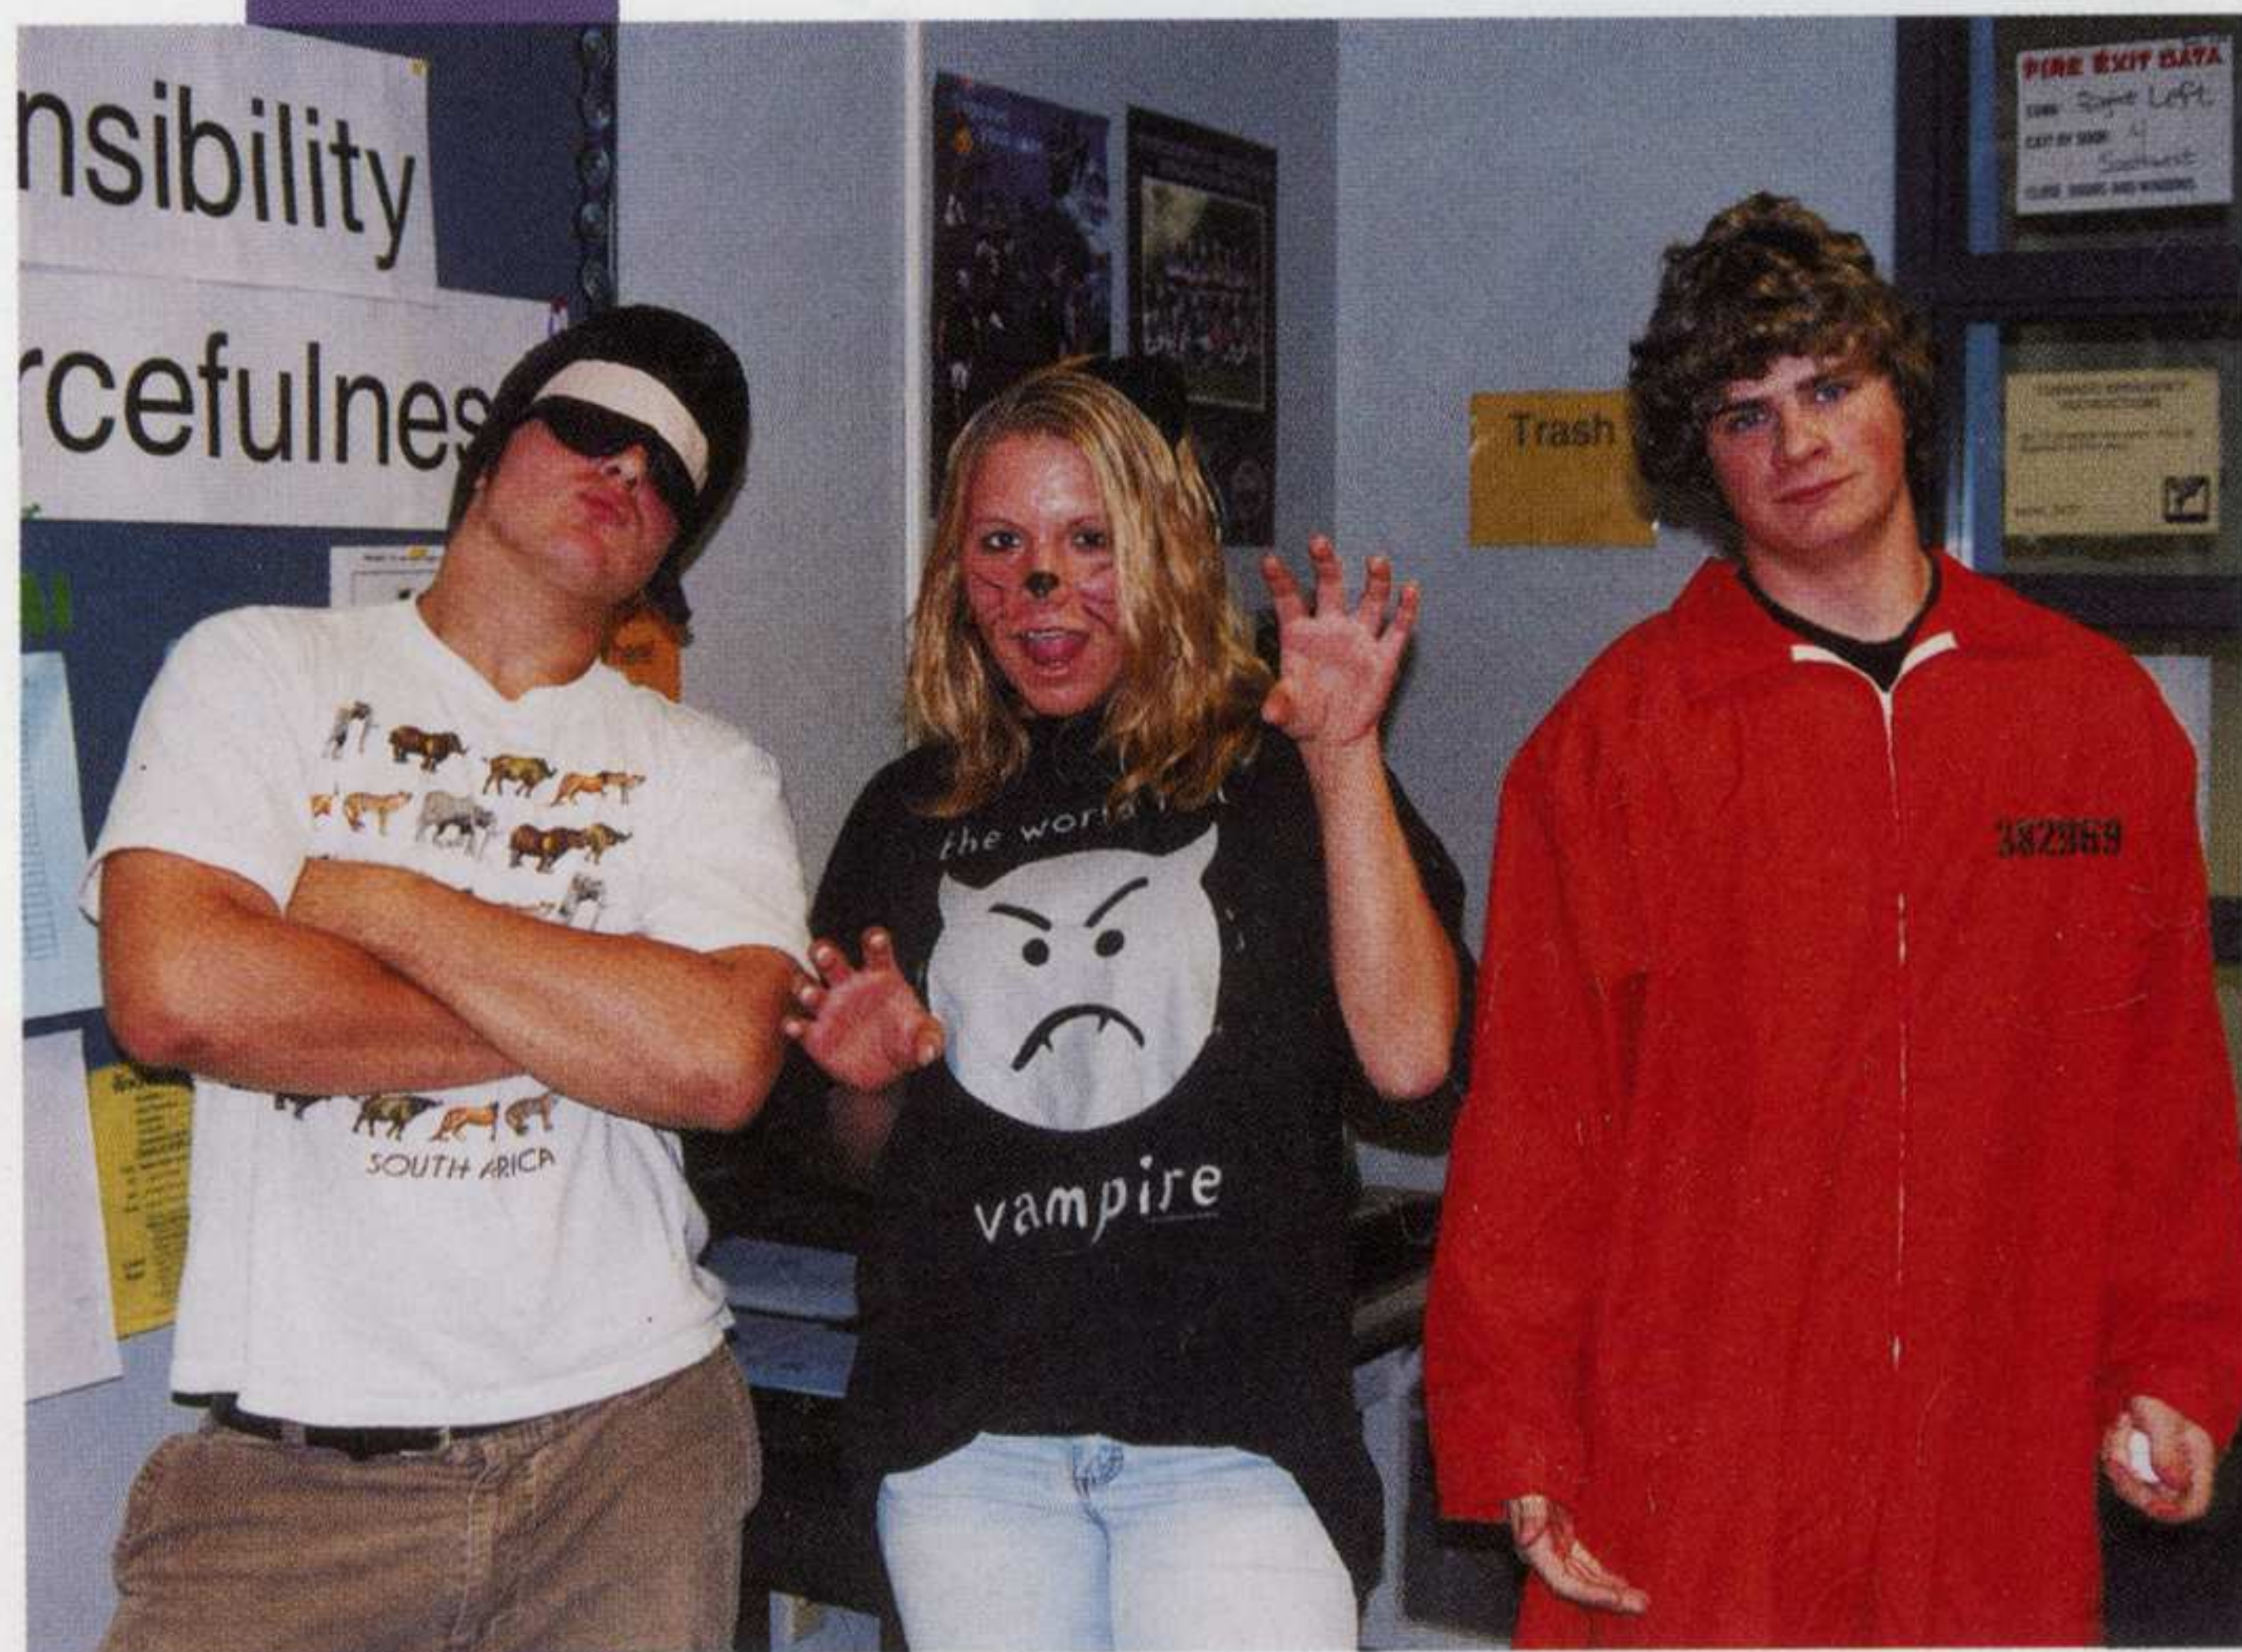

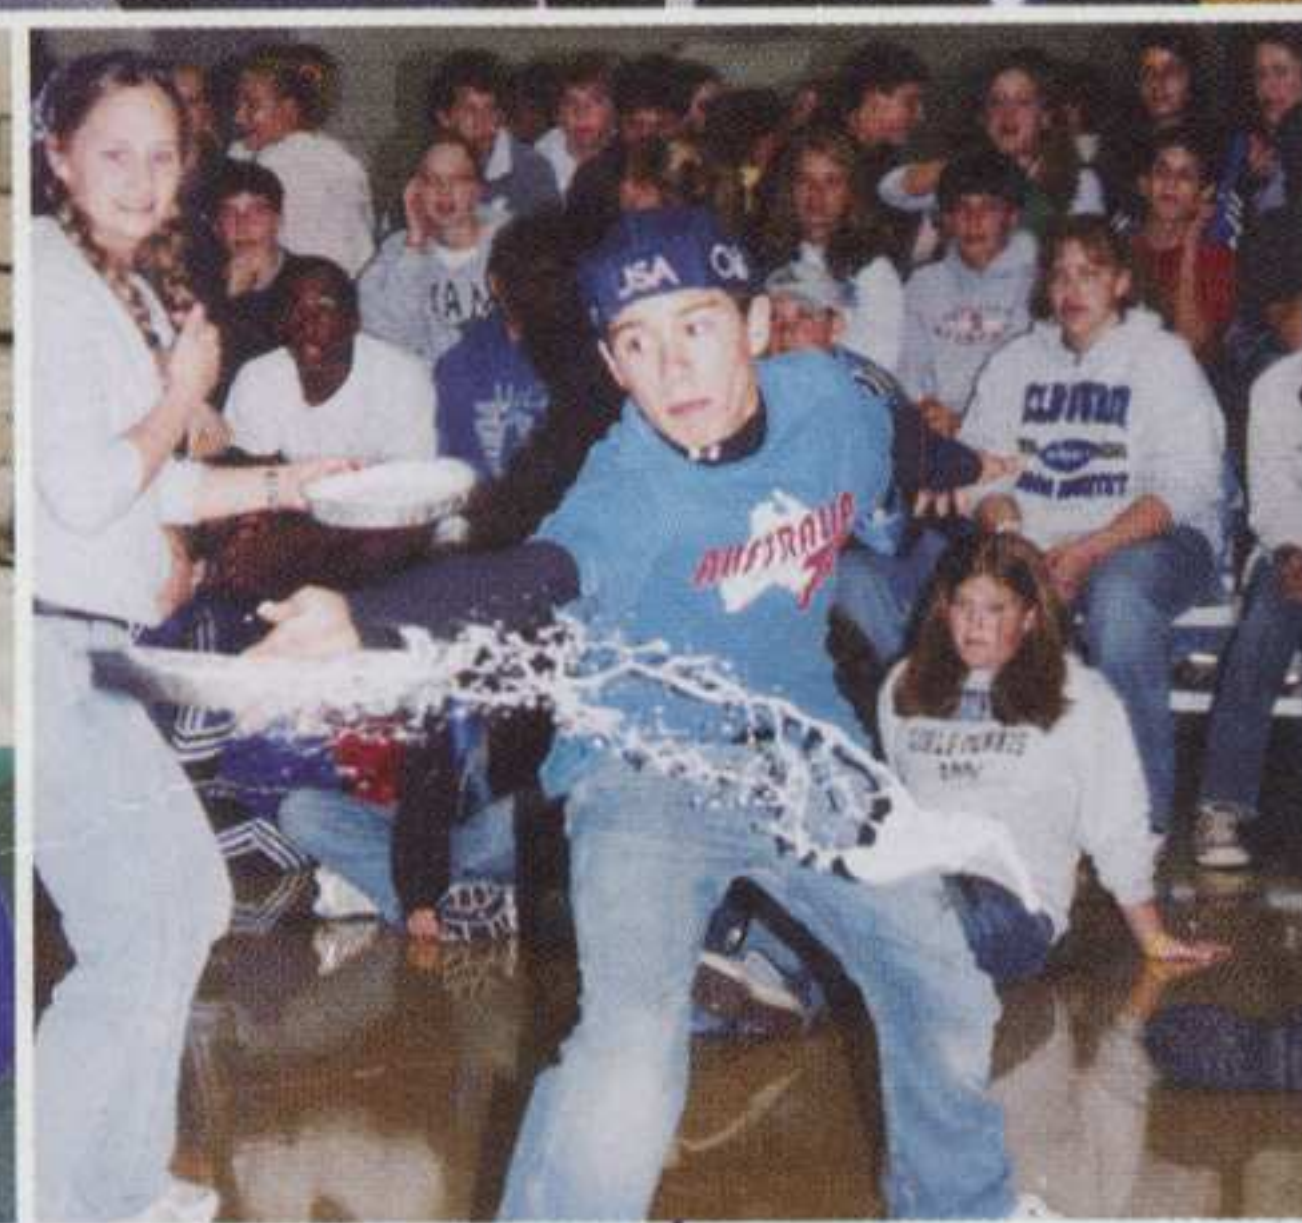

"This year's homecoming was one of the best dances. I had a lot of fun, and I danced until I dropped," says Coleman Proctor.

Along with Danielle Miller and Ellen Gentry, Abby Hils (center) dresses up for college day. Abby says, "Even though my team is not that great, I still cheer for them!"

Hoping to earn points for his class, sophomore Brit Meador throws a pie in one of the contests at the bonfire while an amazed Becca Ewing looks on.

All dressed up for costume day are Elliot Hunt, Amanda Naulty and Erick Faust. Amanda Naulty tries to impersonate a cat with the face paint and cat ears that compliment the shirt!

With determination on his face, Pat Dull pulls with all his might in the tug-o-war. Unfortunately, it was not enough for his team to win.

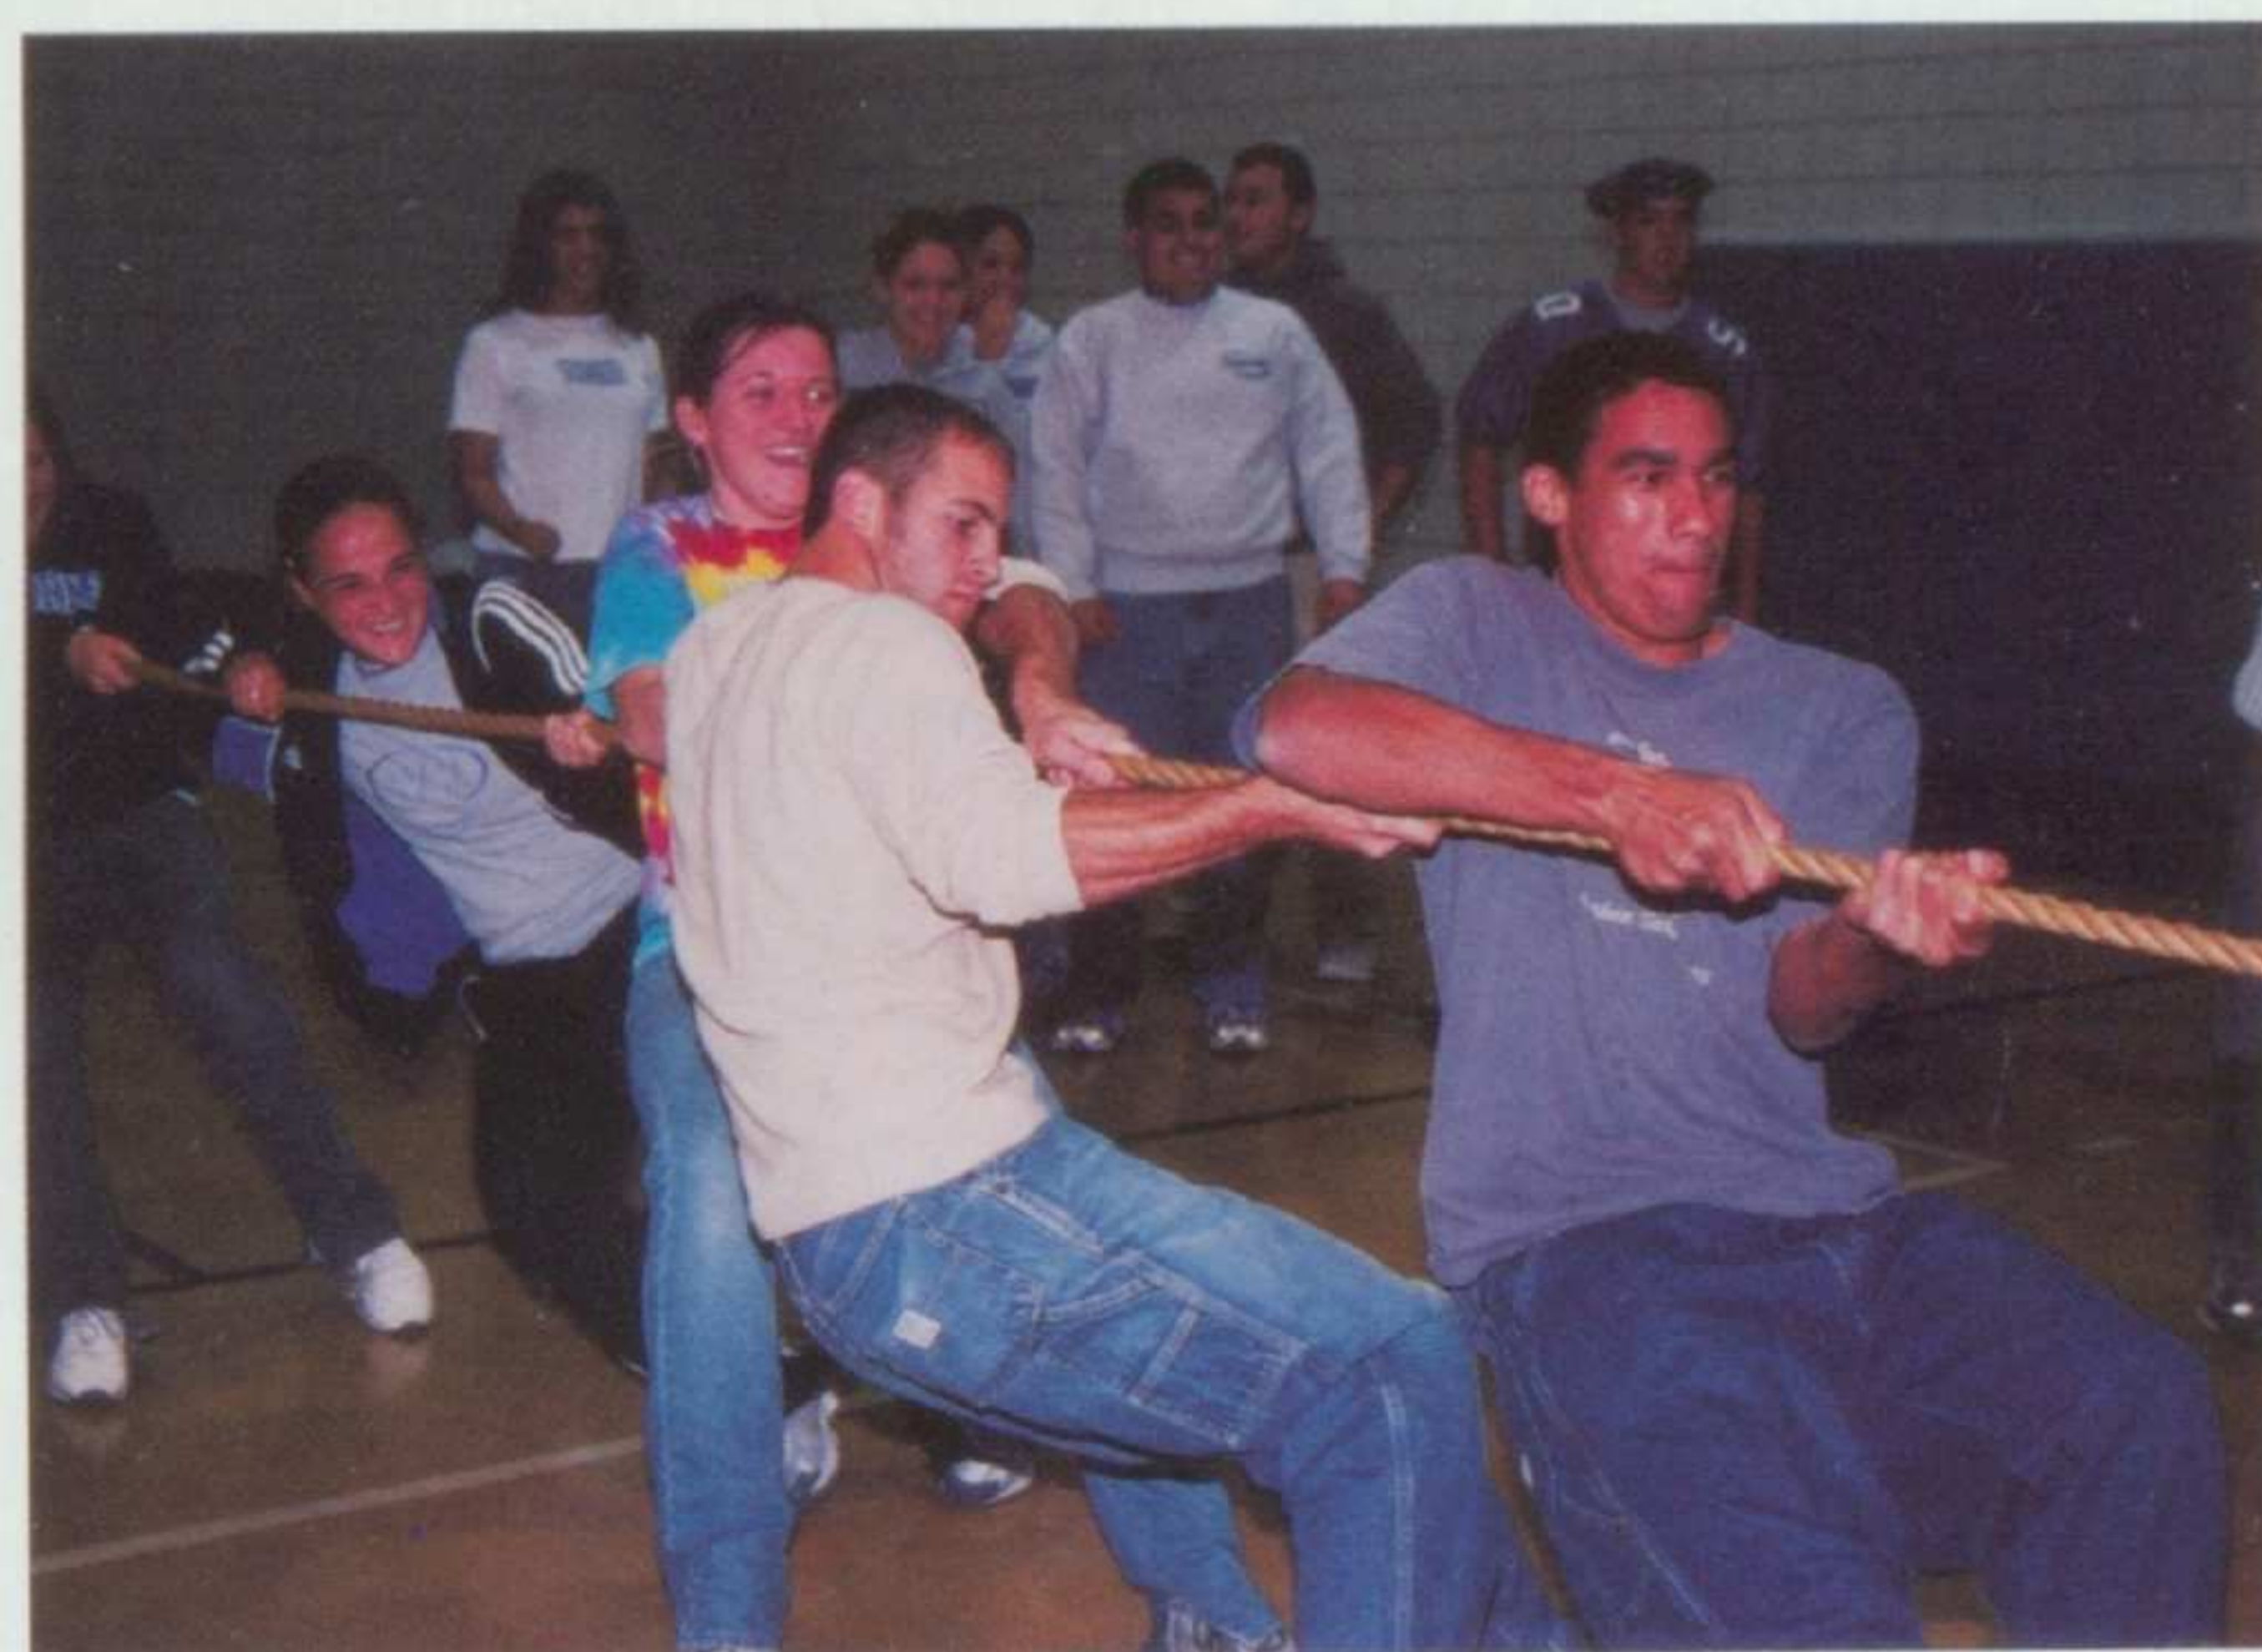

Making a door sign for the class competition during spirit week are Brittany Mounts, Heather DeSantis, Courtney Mustric, Lyle Fedor, and Kelly Symmonds.

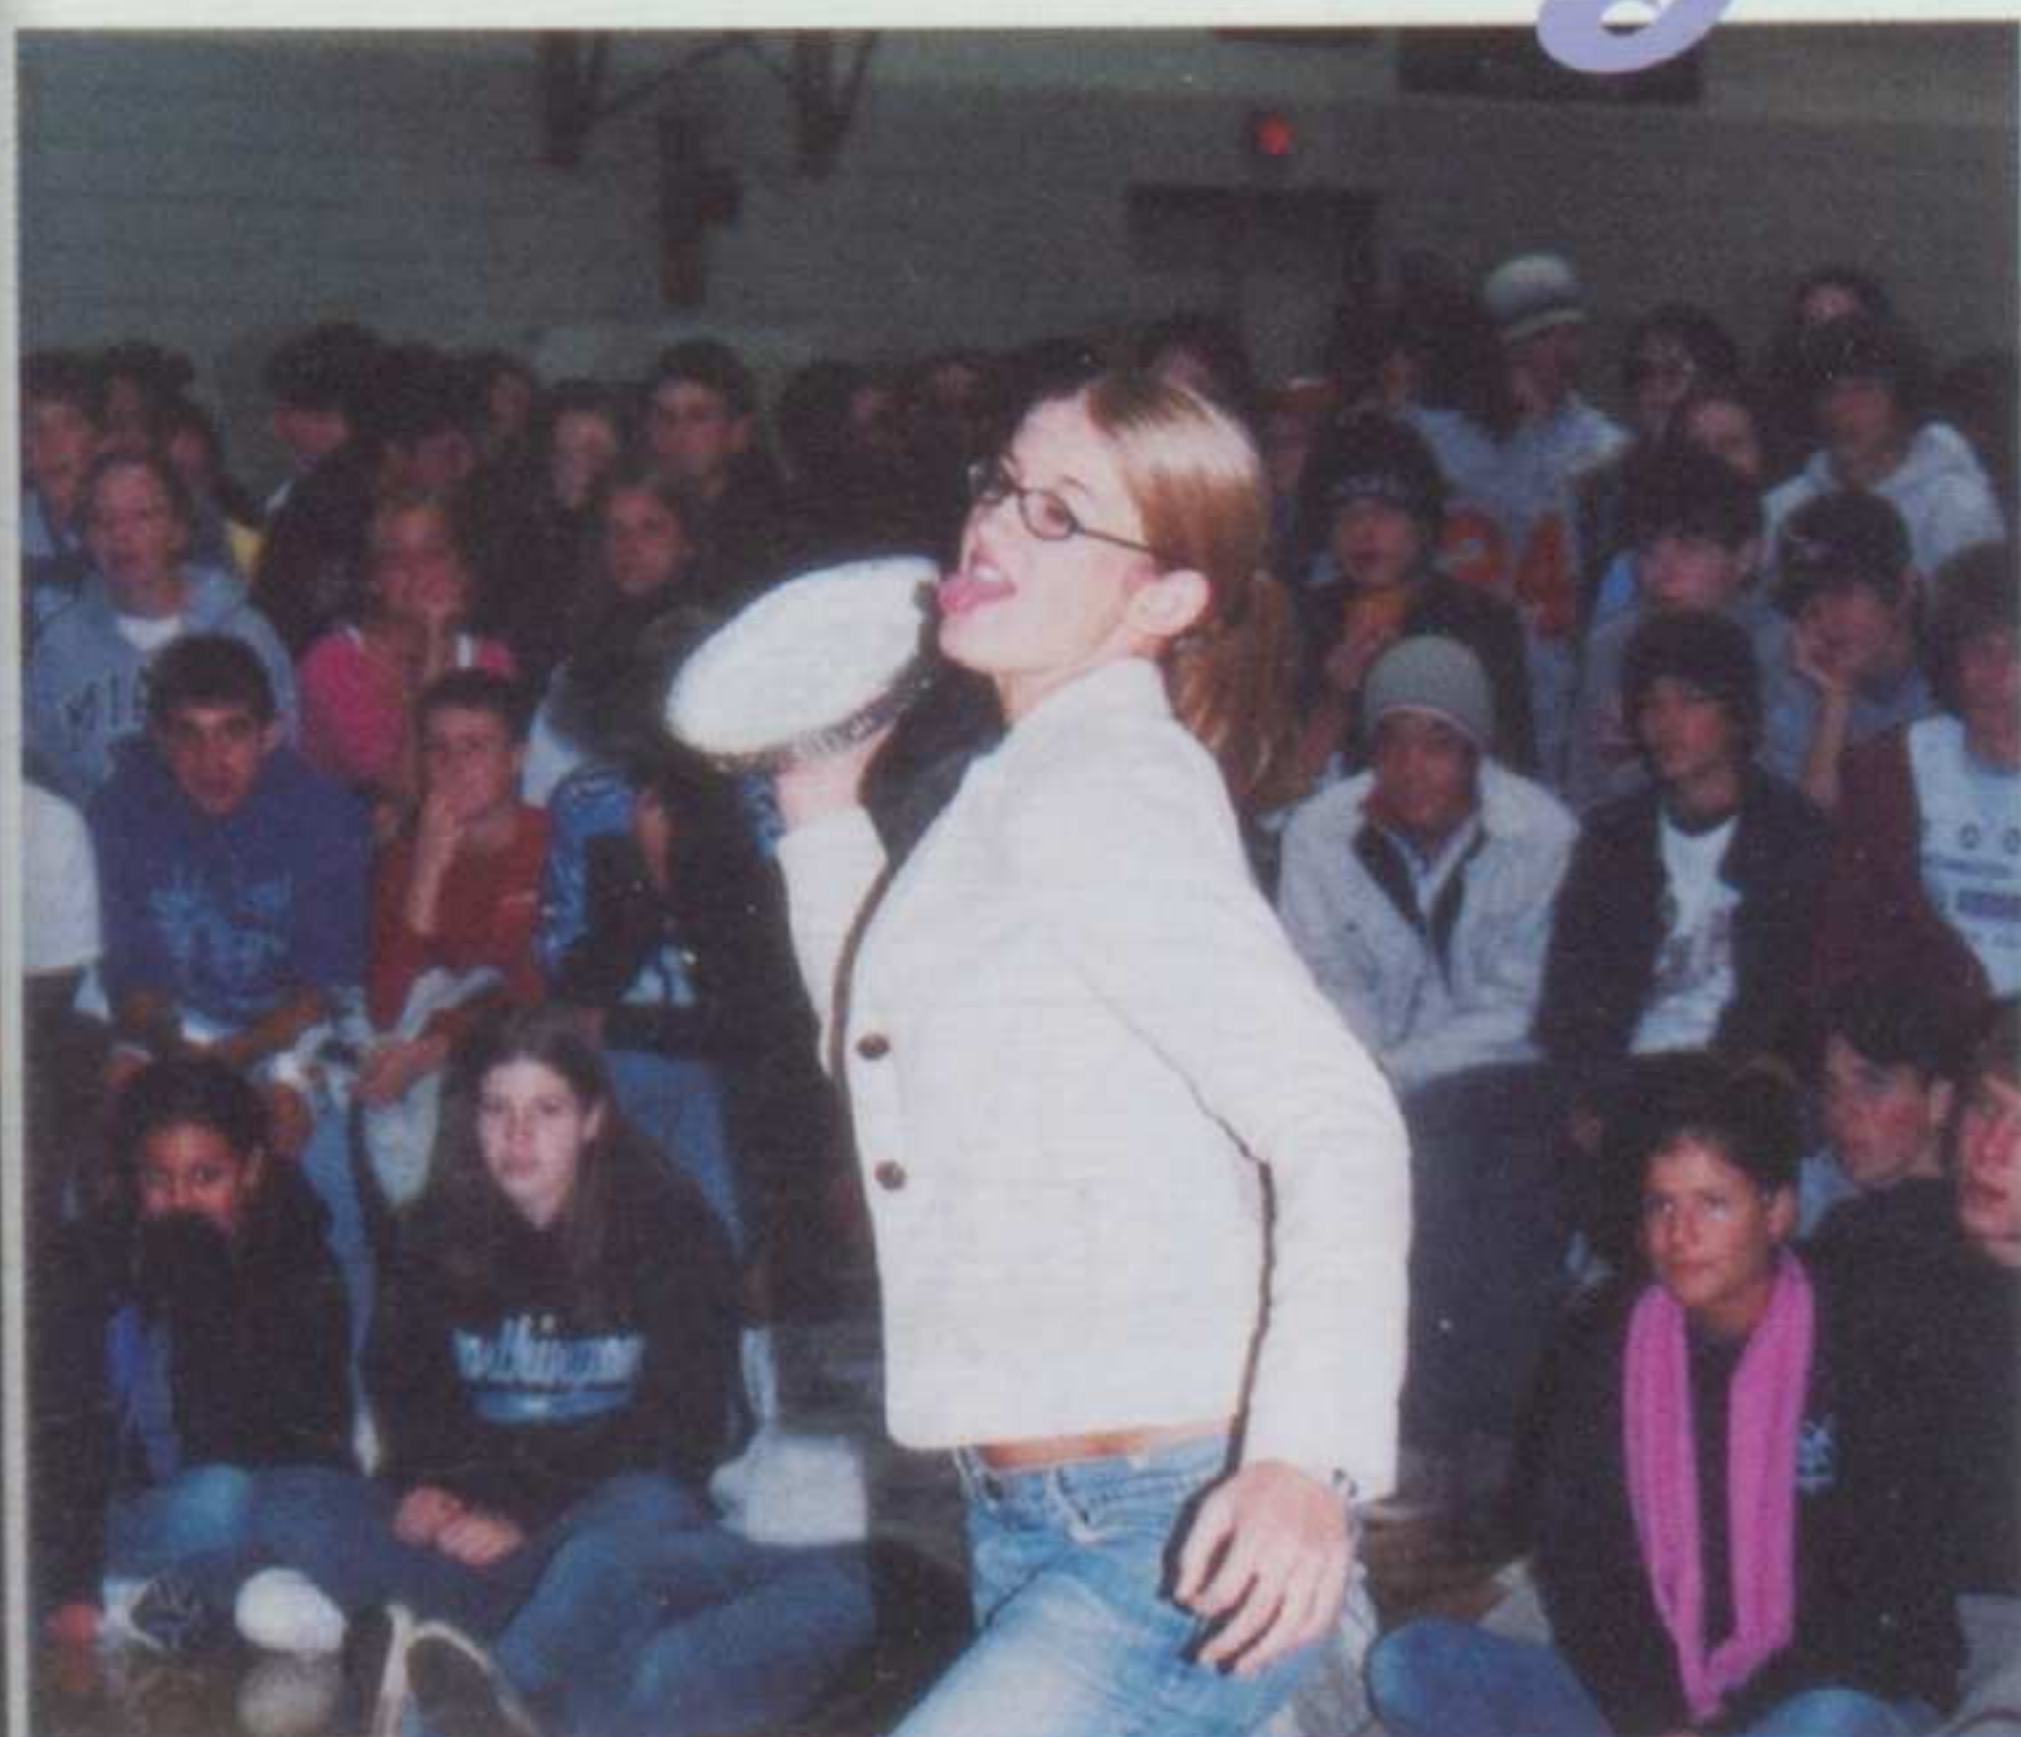

Supporting their favorite colleges, Mrs. Steele, Lyda Sprague, Mike Vandewalle, and Max Minehart celebrate college day while getting in the spirit of homecoming.

"Although the weather was bad and we had to go inside, we still had fun and made it worth while. The tug-o-war game was the best part of my night, and I really enjoyed doing it with Katie Miler, Pam Skehan, Bill Mauro, and Chris Hunt," shared senior Megan Hasbrouck.

Tug-o-War

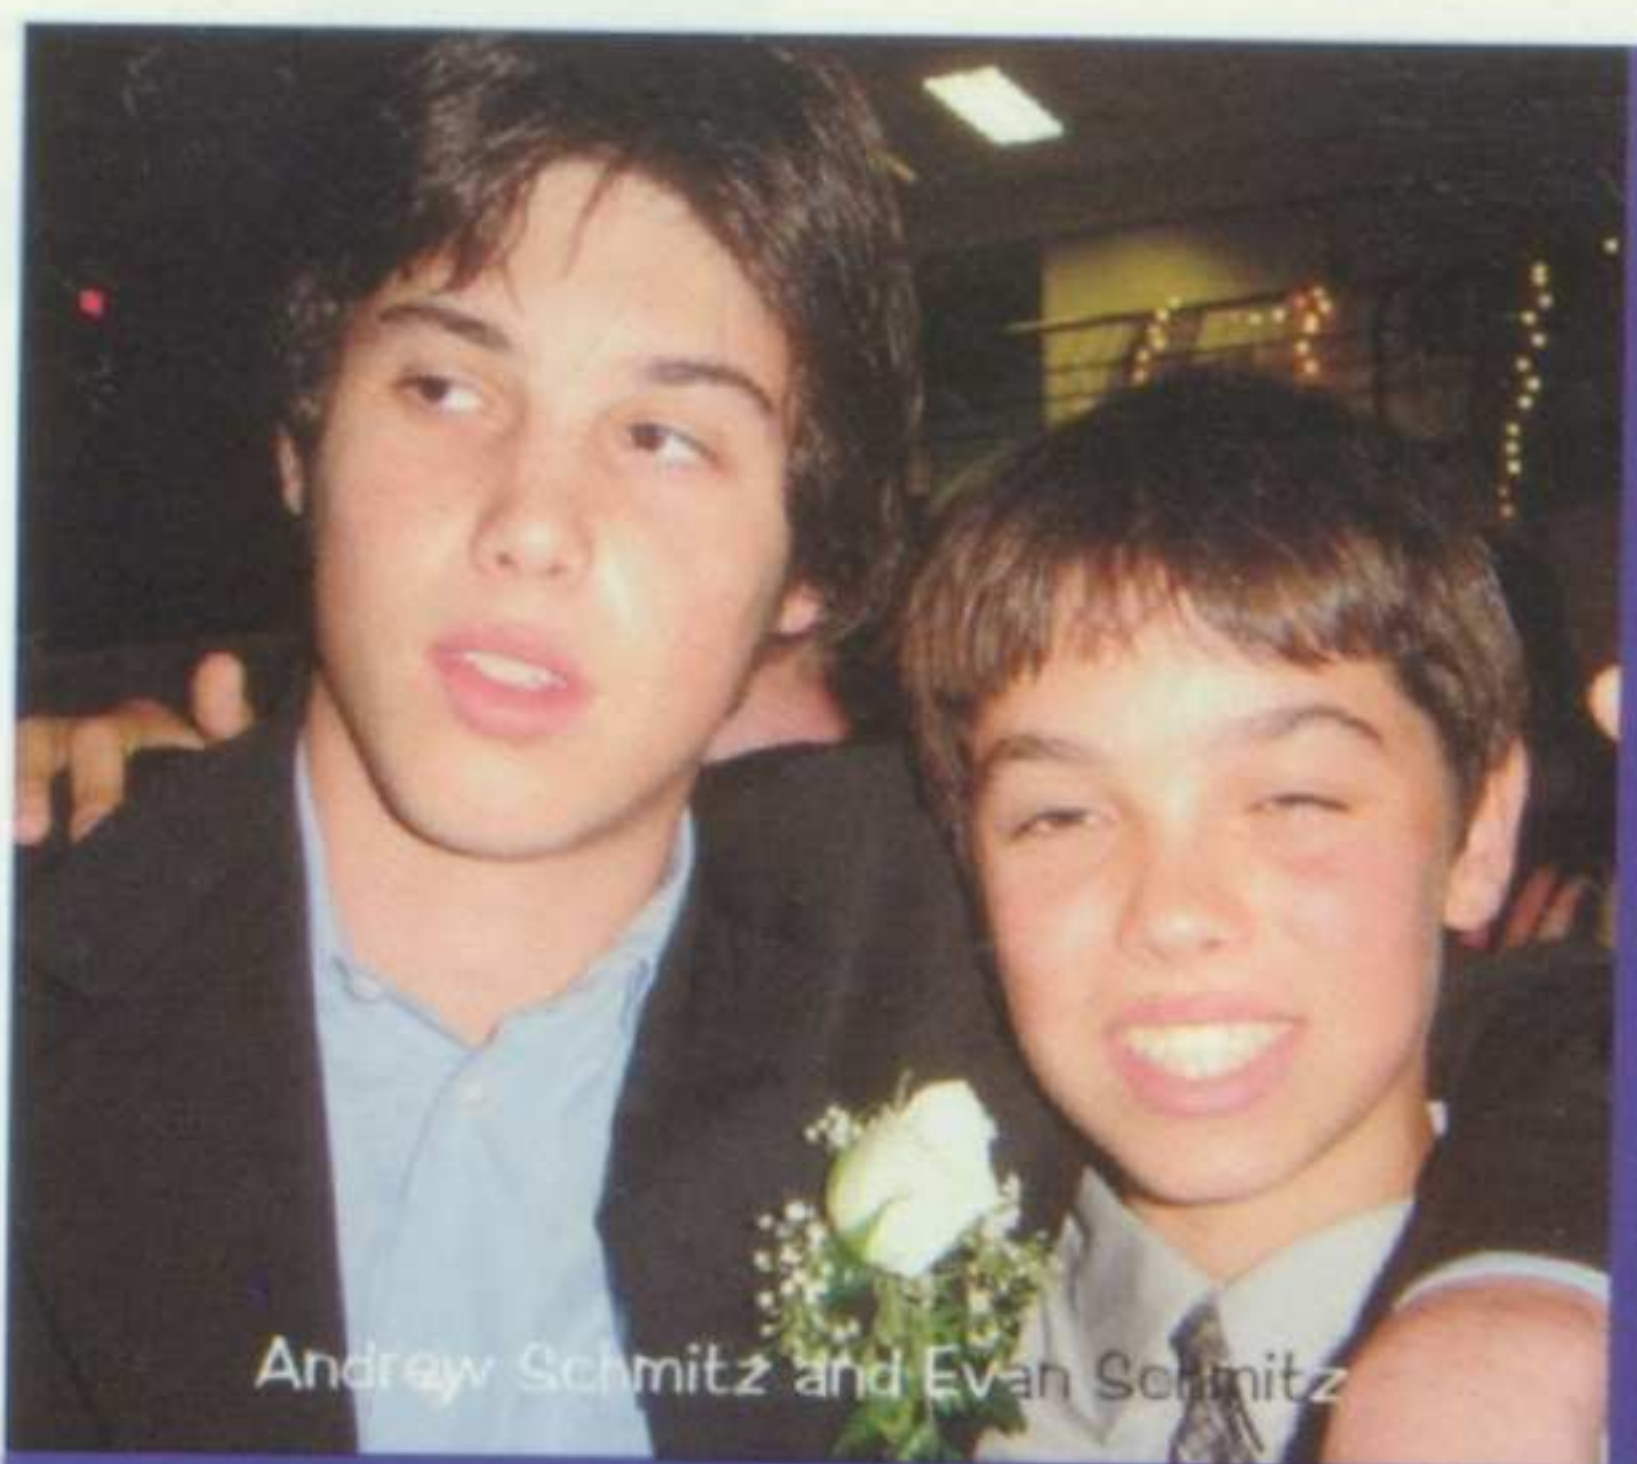

"The pie throwing contest was the best part of the whole bonfire. It was a lot of fun, and I was excited to participate," explains Emma Parker.

Bringing out their favorite leis for Hawaiian day, Chaitanya Bukkapatnam, Korri Ferguson, Nijiko Seino, and Chris Rayis look so festive in their outfits!

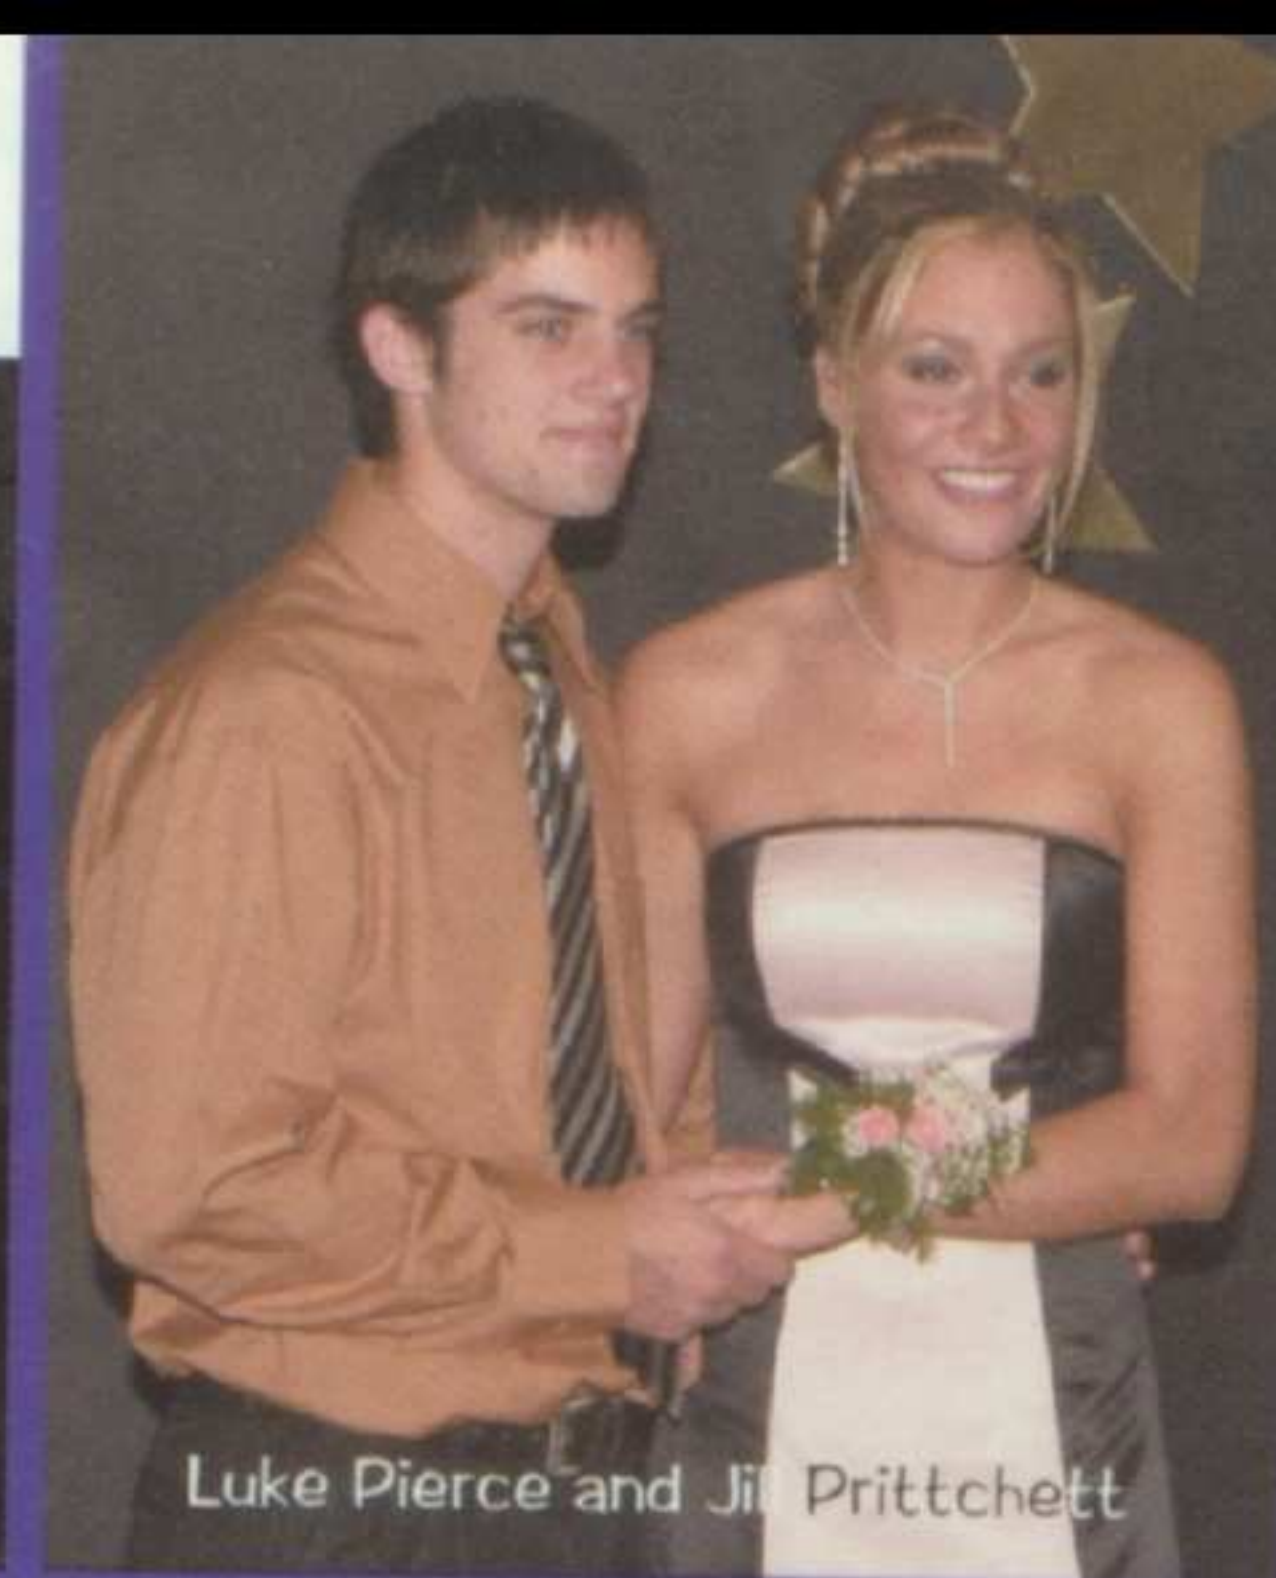

Looking forward to making the best window, Phill Bunting and David Scheaf work long and hard on their masterpiece.

STUDENTS TRY TO CAPTURE AN UNFORGETTABLE NIGHT OF HOMECOMING WITH CLOSE FRIENDS

Senior girls gather in the bathroom for some last minute primping before hitting the dance floor. Kayla Greco, Carissa Mayhugh, Gina Forte, Malorie Martino, Niti Shah, and Ashley Gueth are excited for their last homecoming.

Ladies man and current sophomore Christian Hallam is working his magic with close friends Katie Belton and Sophia Karageorge. These three amigos are enjoying every moment of this traditional dance.

Spinning his leading lady Taylor Brown, the talented Philip Young seems to know the right steps. He definitely has a future in dance instruction.

AN UNLIKELY MIX OF "UNCHAINED MELODY" AND ZISHER'S "YEAH" ROCKED THE COMMONS

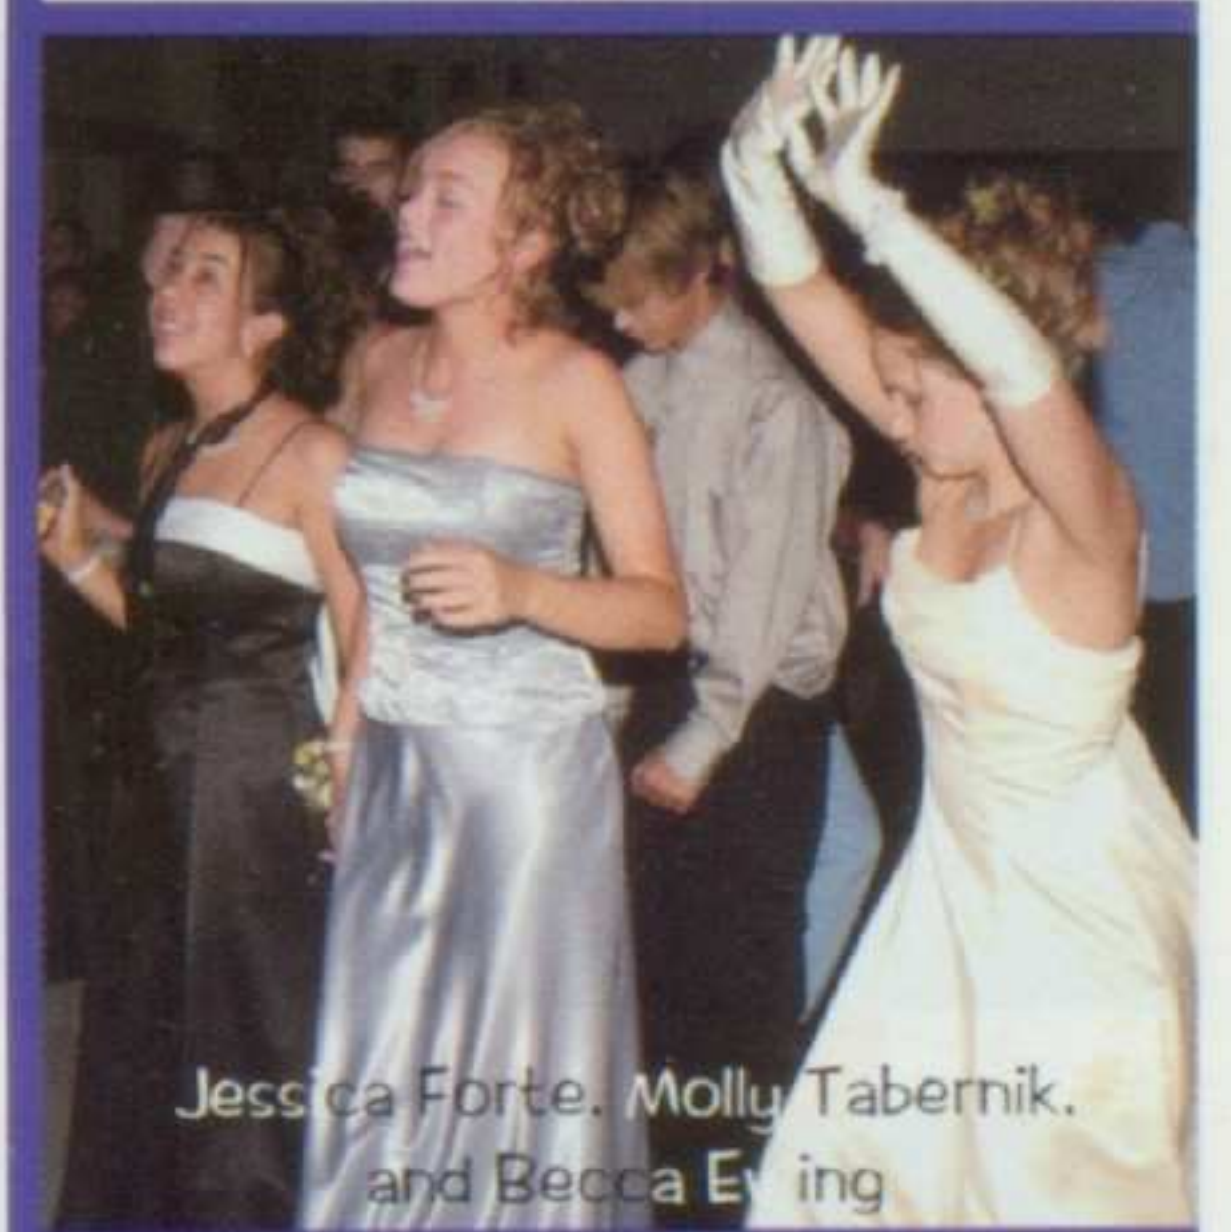

The night began for most of us with an evening of paparazzi parents and dinner at a fun restaurant. What followed was one of the most unforgettable dances of the year.

This year's homecoming dance twinkled with strings of tiny lights glistening over the commons. The tune of the Rightous Brothers' "Unchained Melody" carried the theme of the dance. People gathered to celebrate not only a great season of football, but a wonderful evening of friends and good old fashioned dancing.

Making their grand entrance to the dance are the homecoming king and queen. The ceremony kicks off as Lindsay Brelus and Jeff Thompson walk down the stairway to the commons. This has been a Wolf tradition throughout the years.

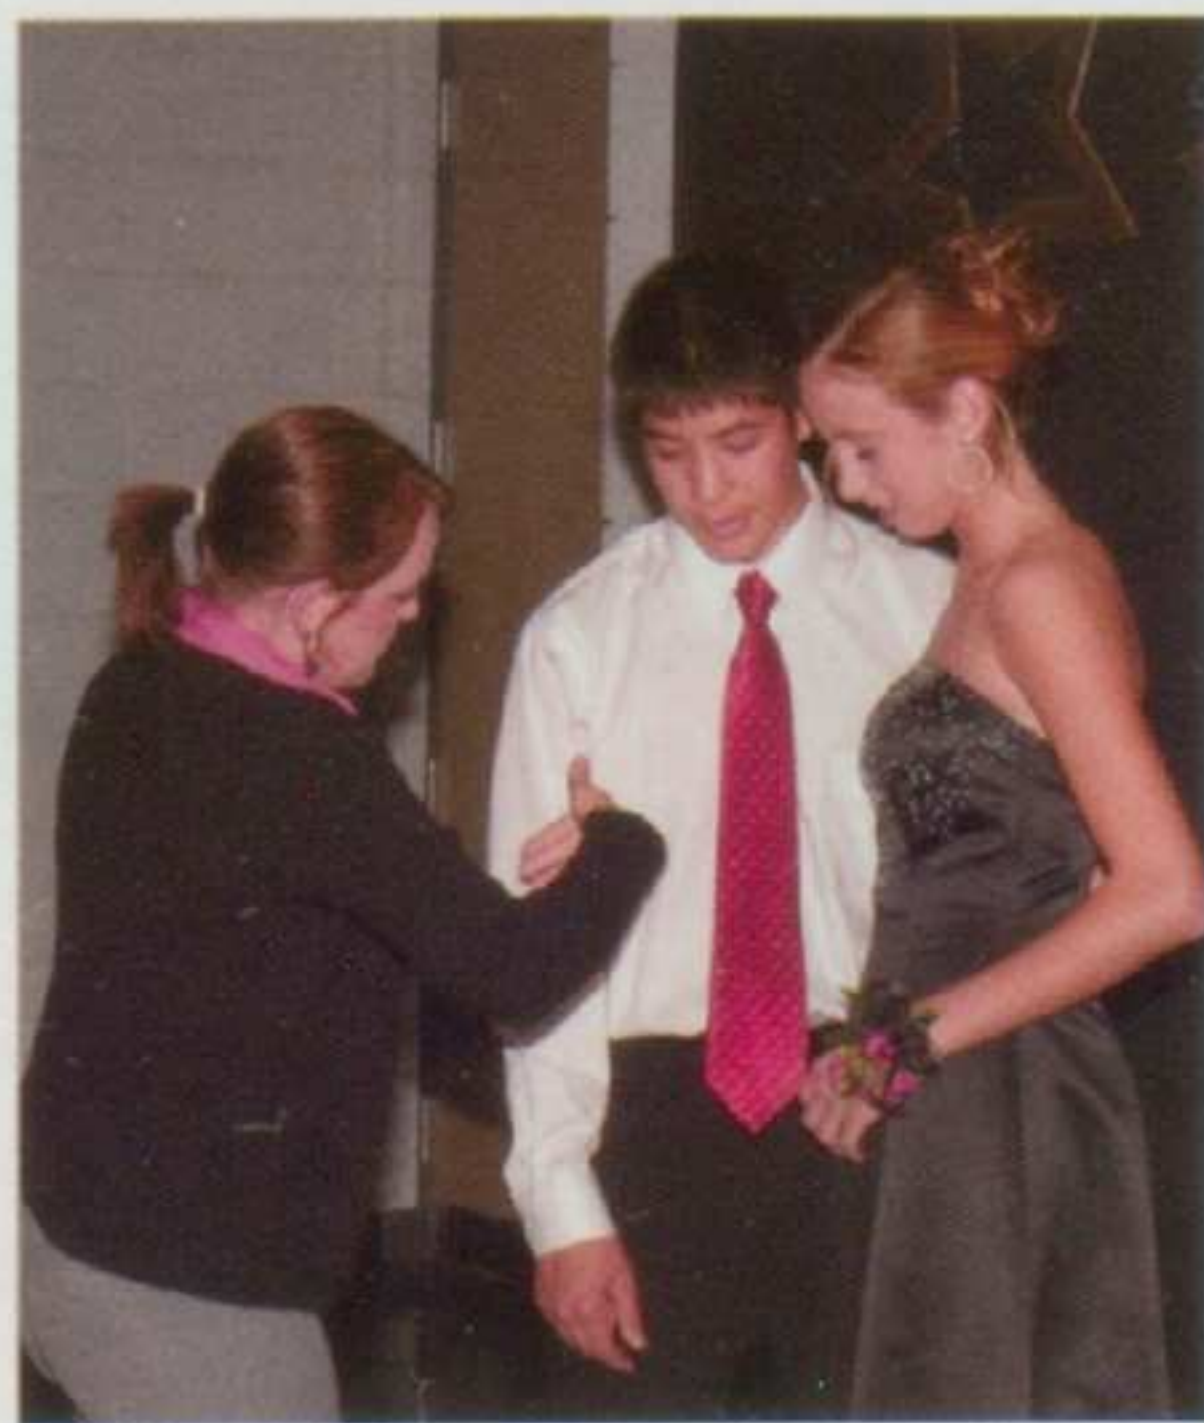

Having a blast together are juniors DJ Prince and Lisa Gray. The homecoming dance is always a favorite of these two.

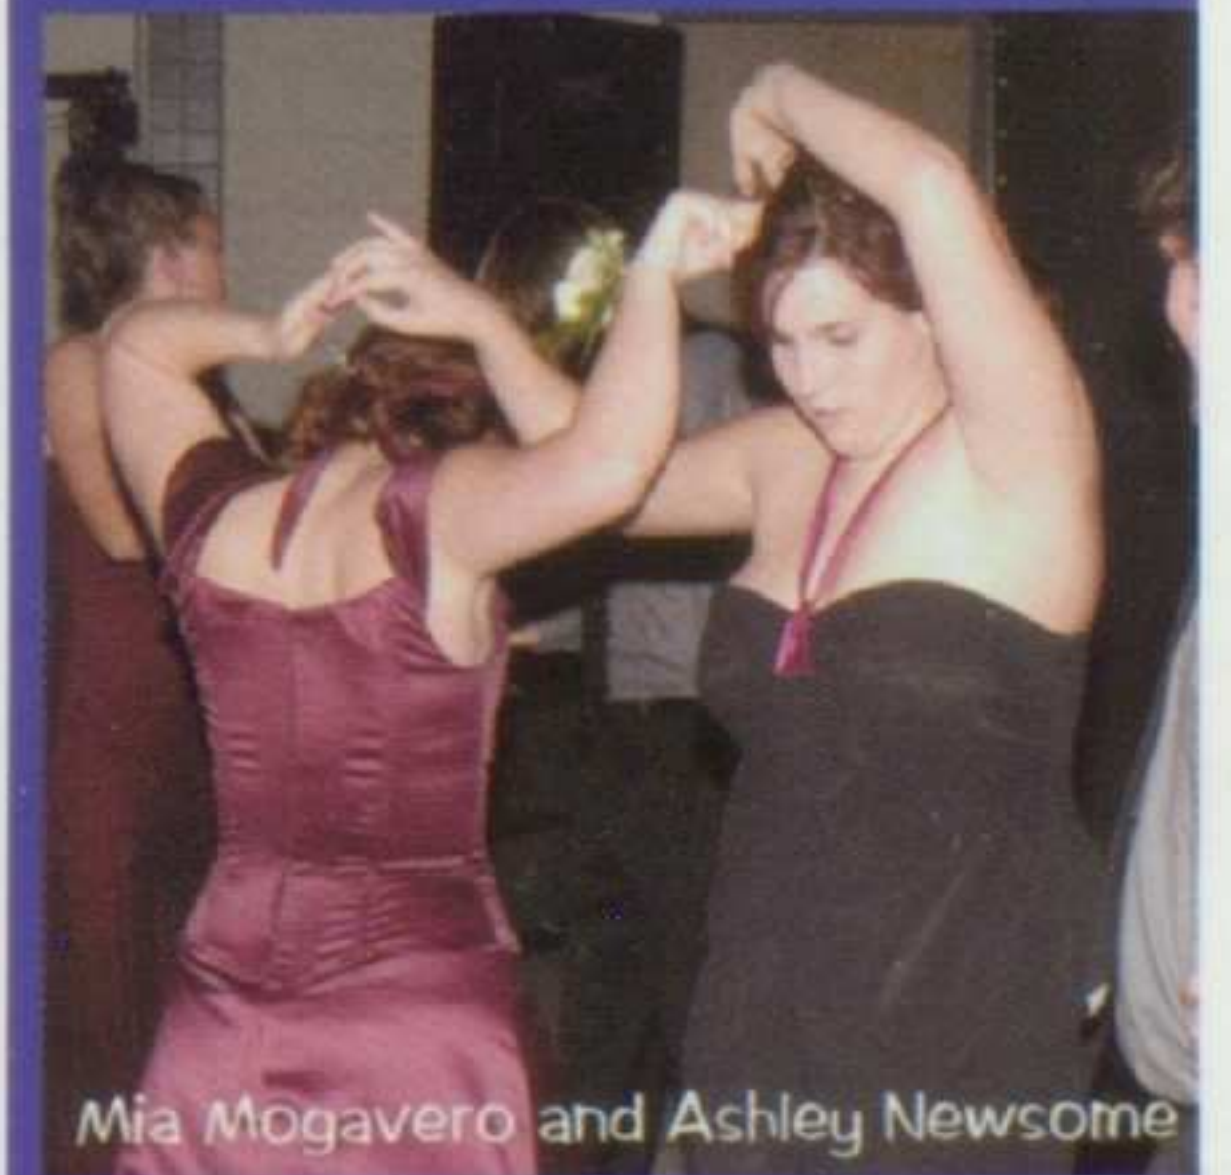

Jessica Forte, Molly Tabernik, and Becca Eving

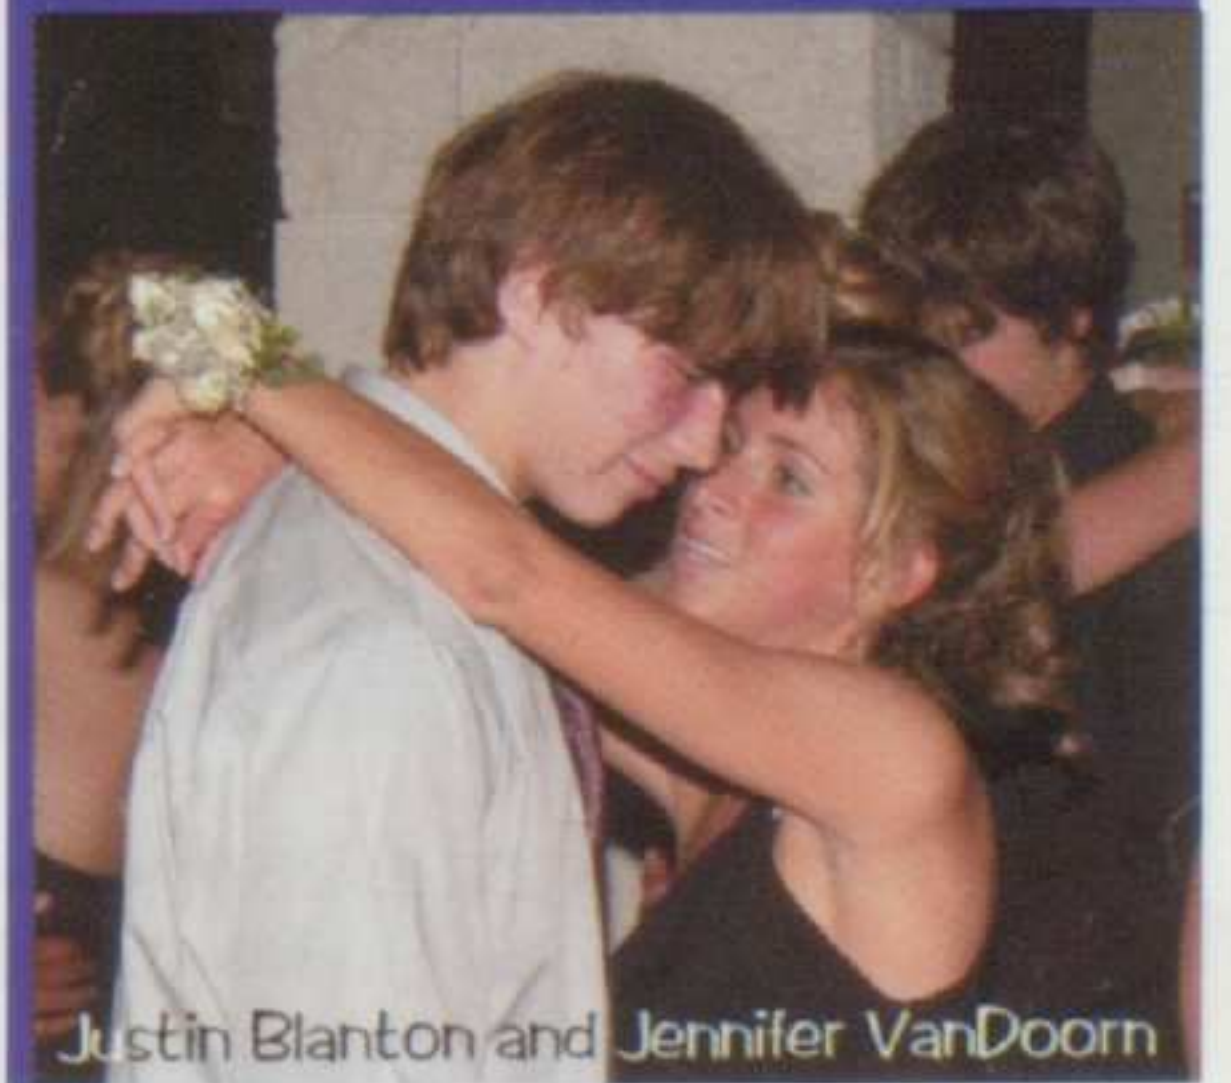

Taking a breather from the hopping dance floor are old friends Michelle Sabo, Carla Muller, and Jimmy Treboni. Jimmy is lucky to have these two best friends on his arm.

OMGSH!! Jim Foreman, you look just like Johnny Depp in that pirate costume... Jim, we're just curious: Can you still Irish step dance with that beard and bandana?

Enjoying the Thriller and what may be the school's last Halloween dance are Sarah Dunkin, Stephanie Abraham, Mindy Smith, Chrissie Garrett, Lauren Andrick, and Kari Ryan. Is that Lucy and Jackie-O?

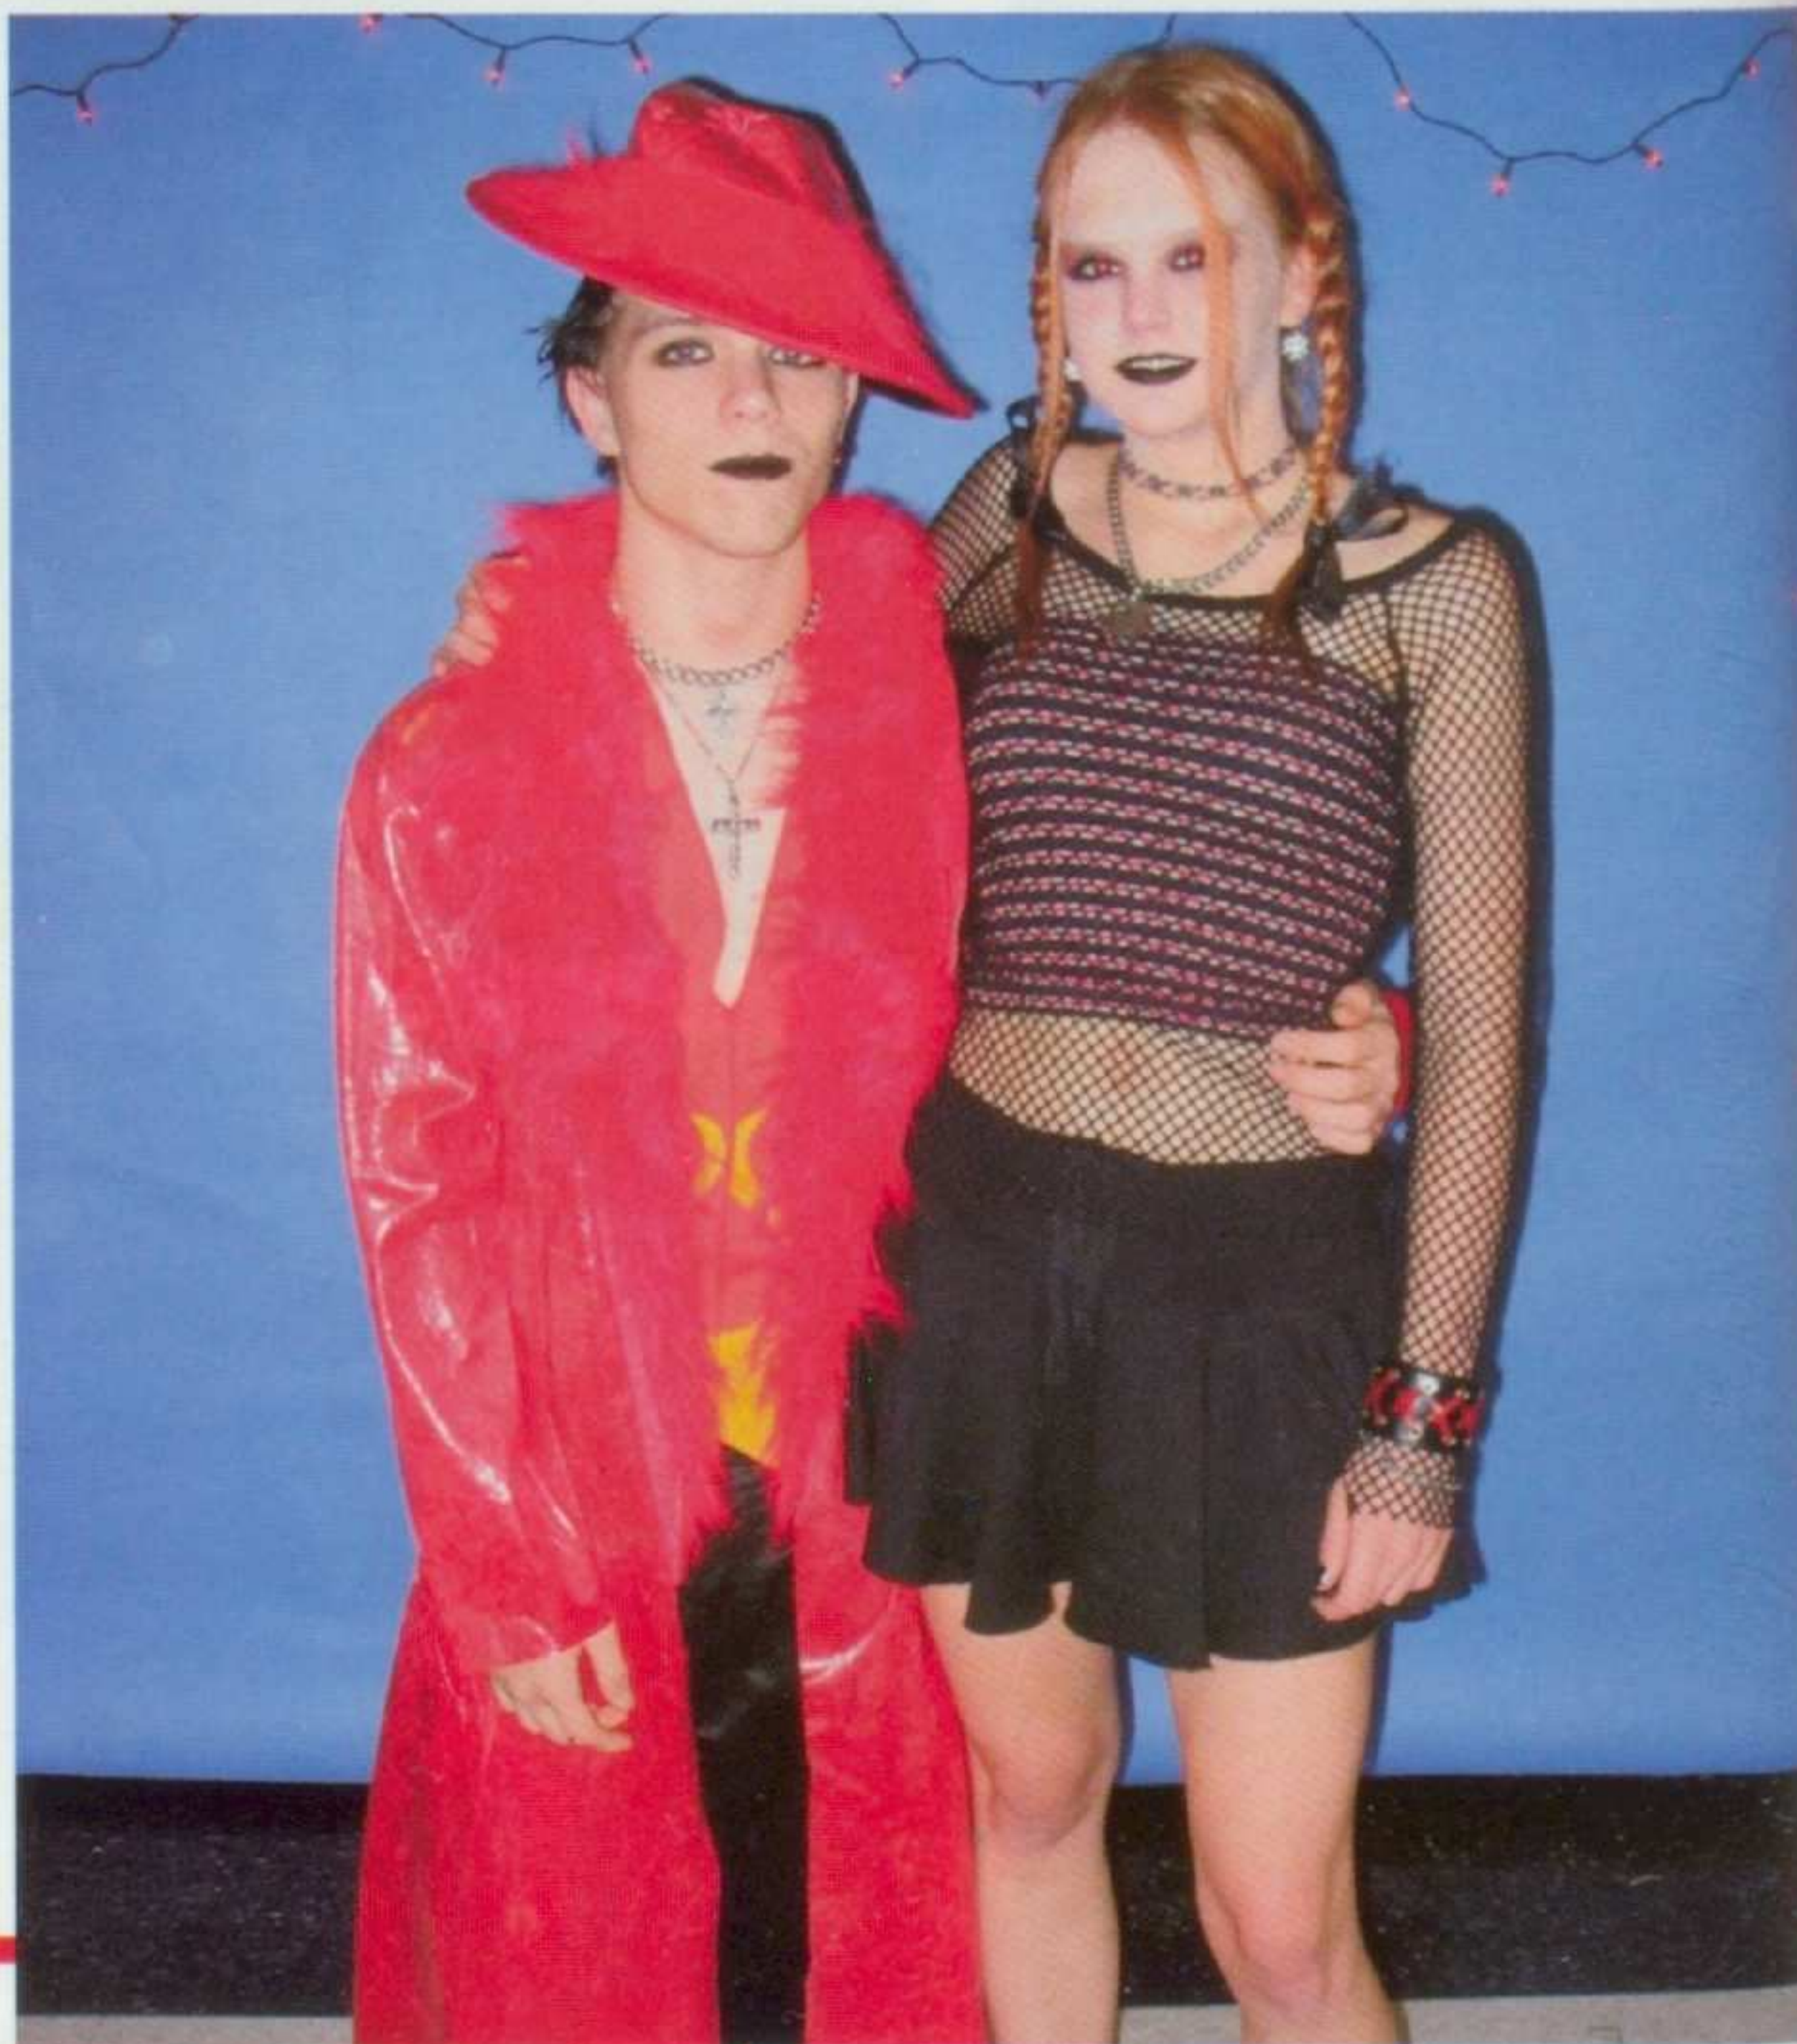

Isn't that nice of Shawn Mohny to take his girlfriend to the Thriller. We get that she's a football player, but what's your costume?

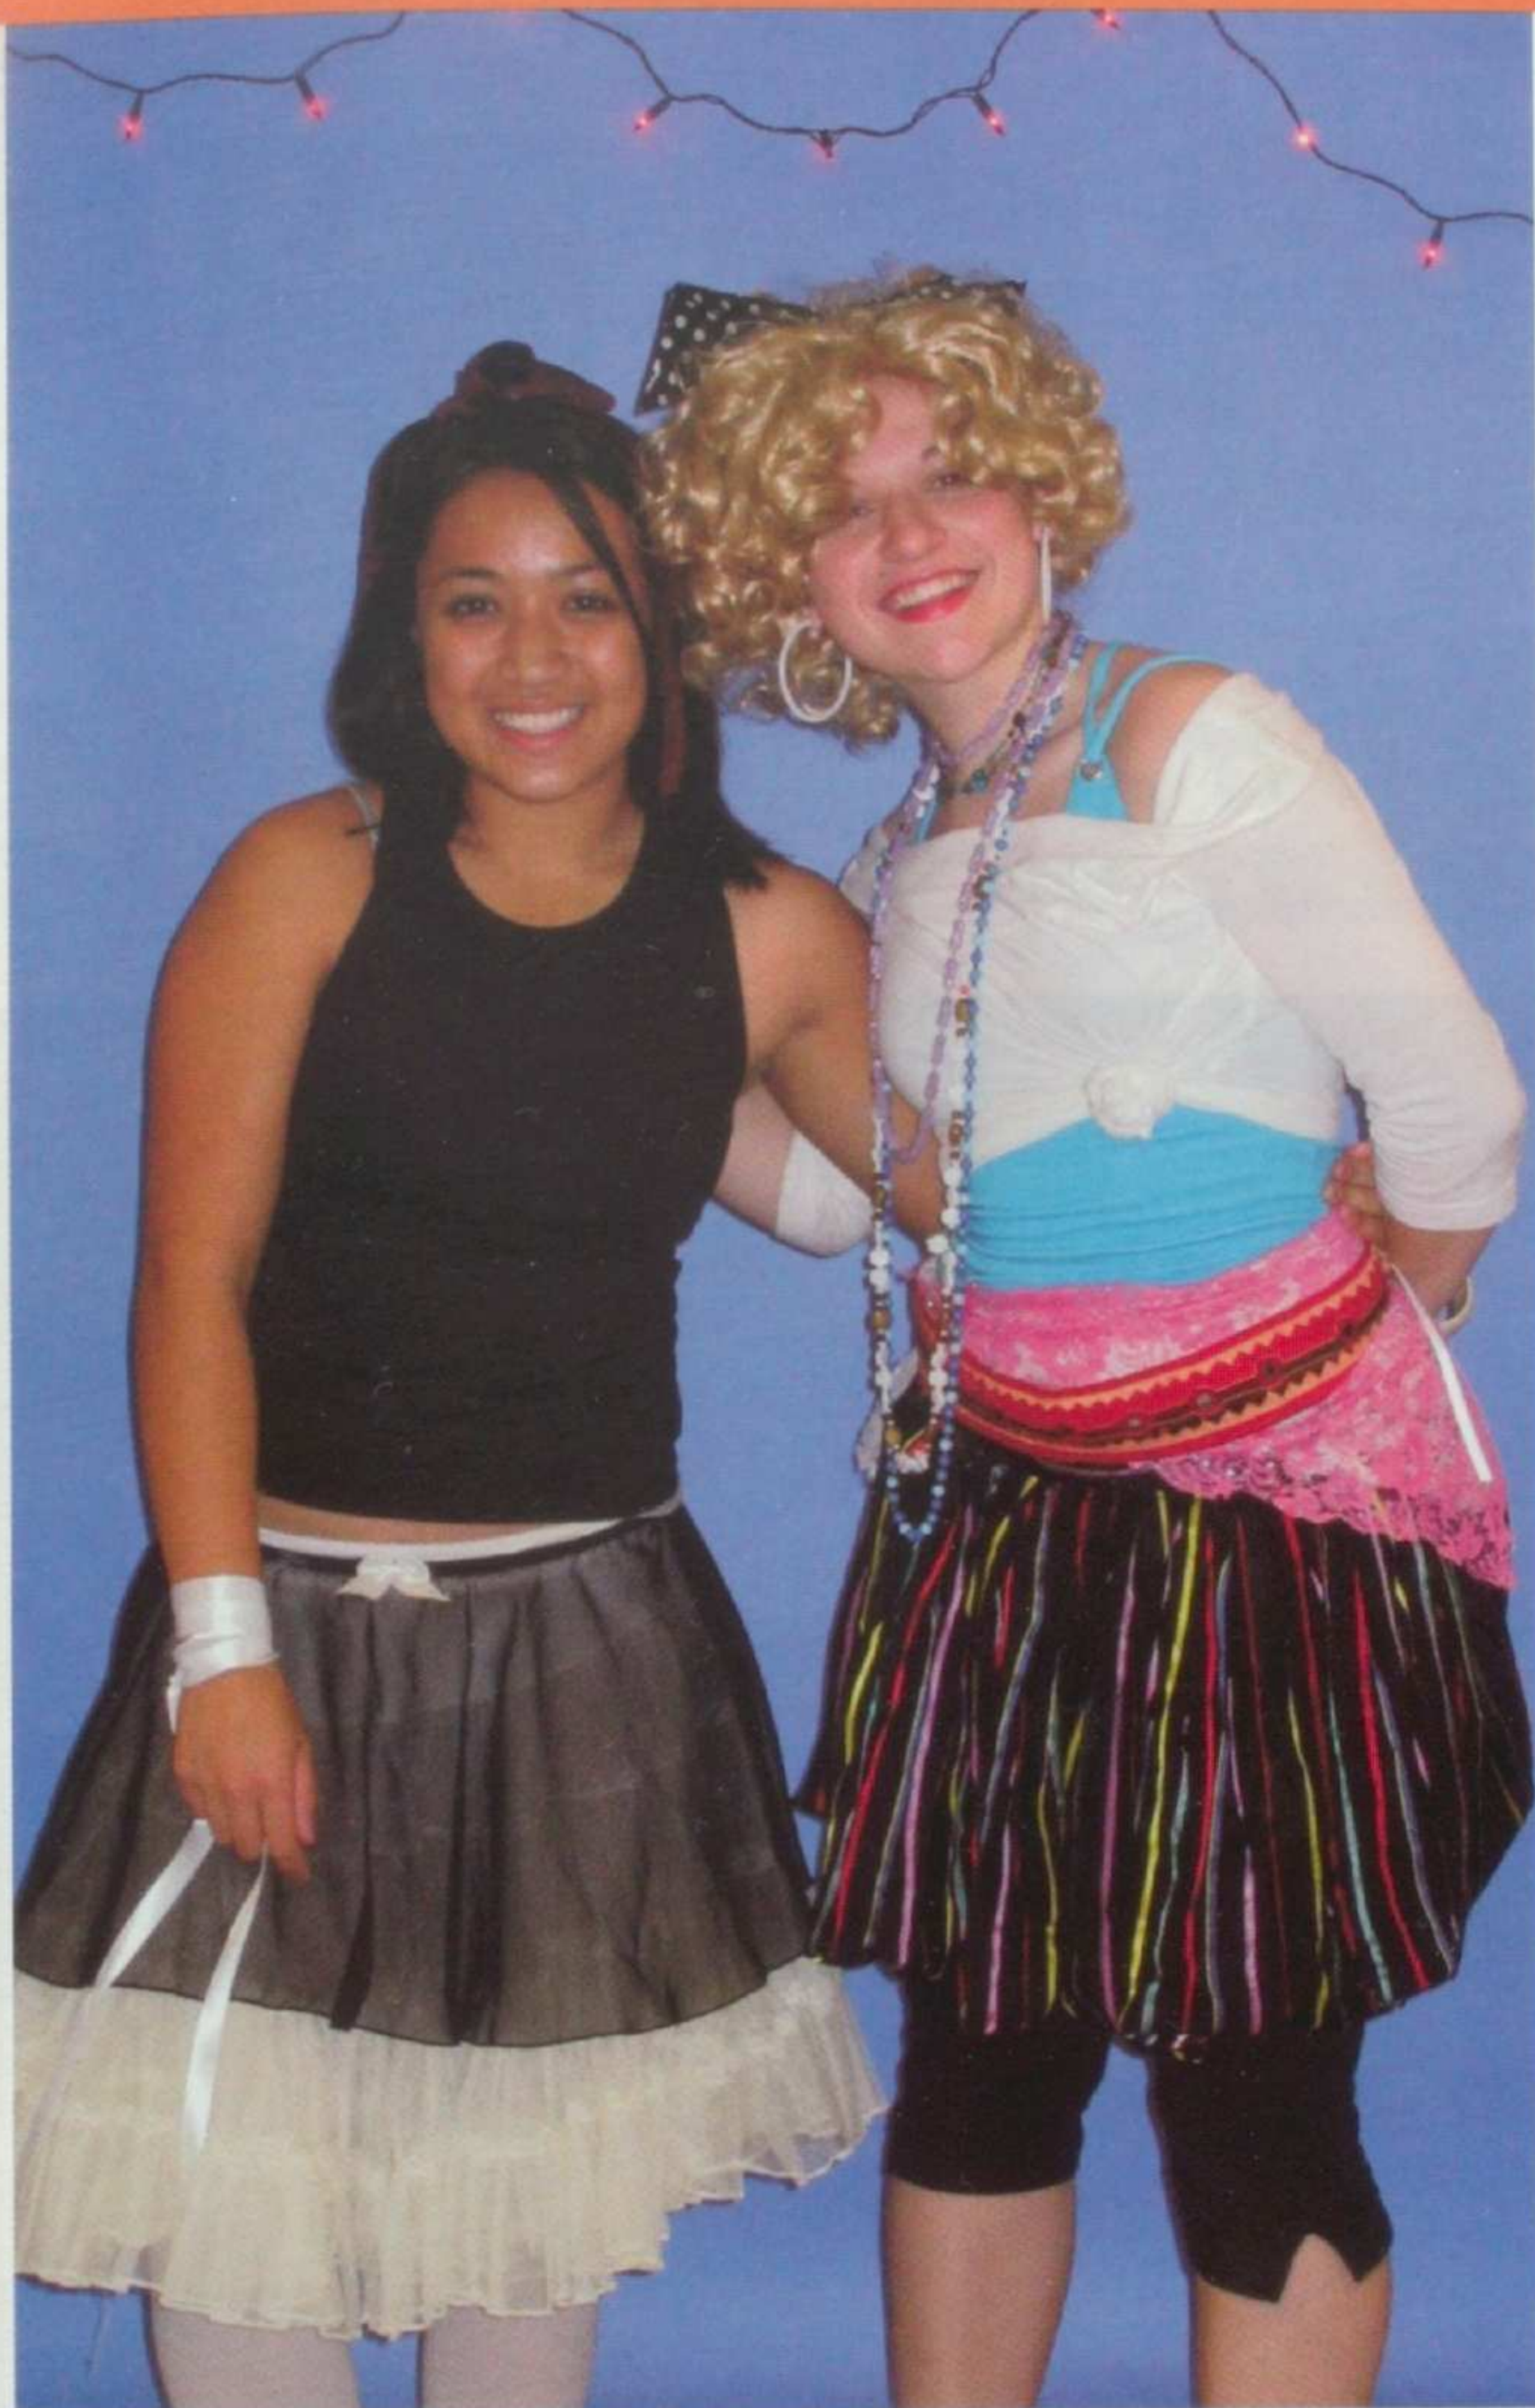

Awwe...look, it's Kilbourne's newest administrators, assistant principal Nally, principal Dunaway, and dean Souder. Ya'll, have fun now.

Huddled together at the thriller are best friends Tracey Farel and Brittany Baker.

Having a spooky good time together are Andrew Andre and Tarra Harris. Is that a robin hood hat?

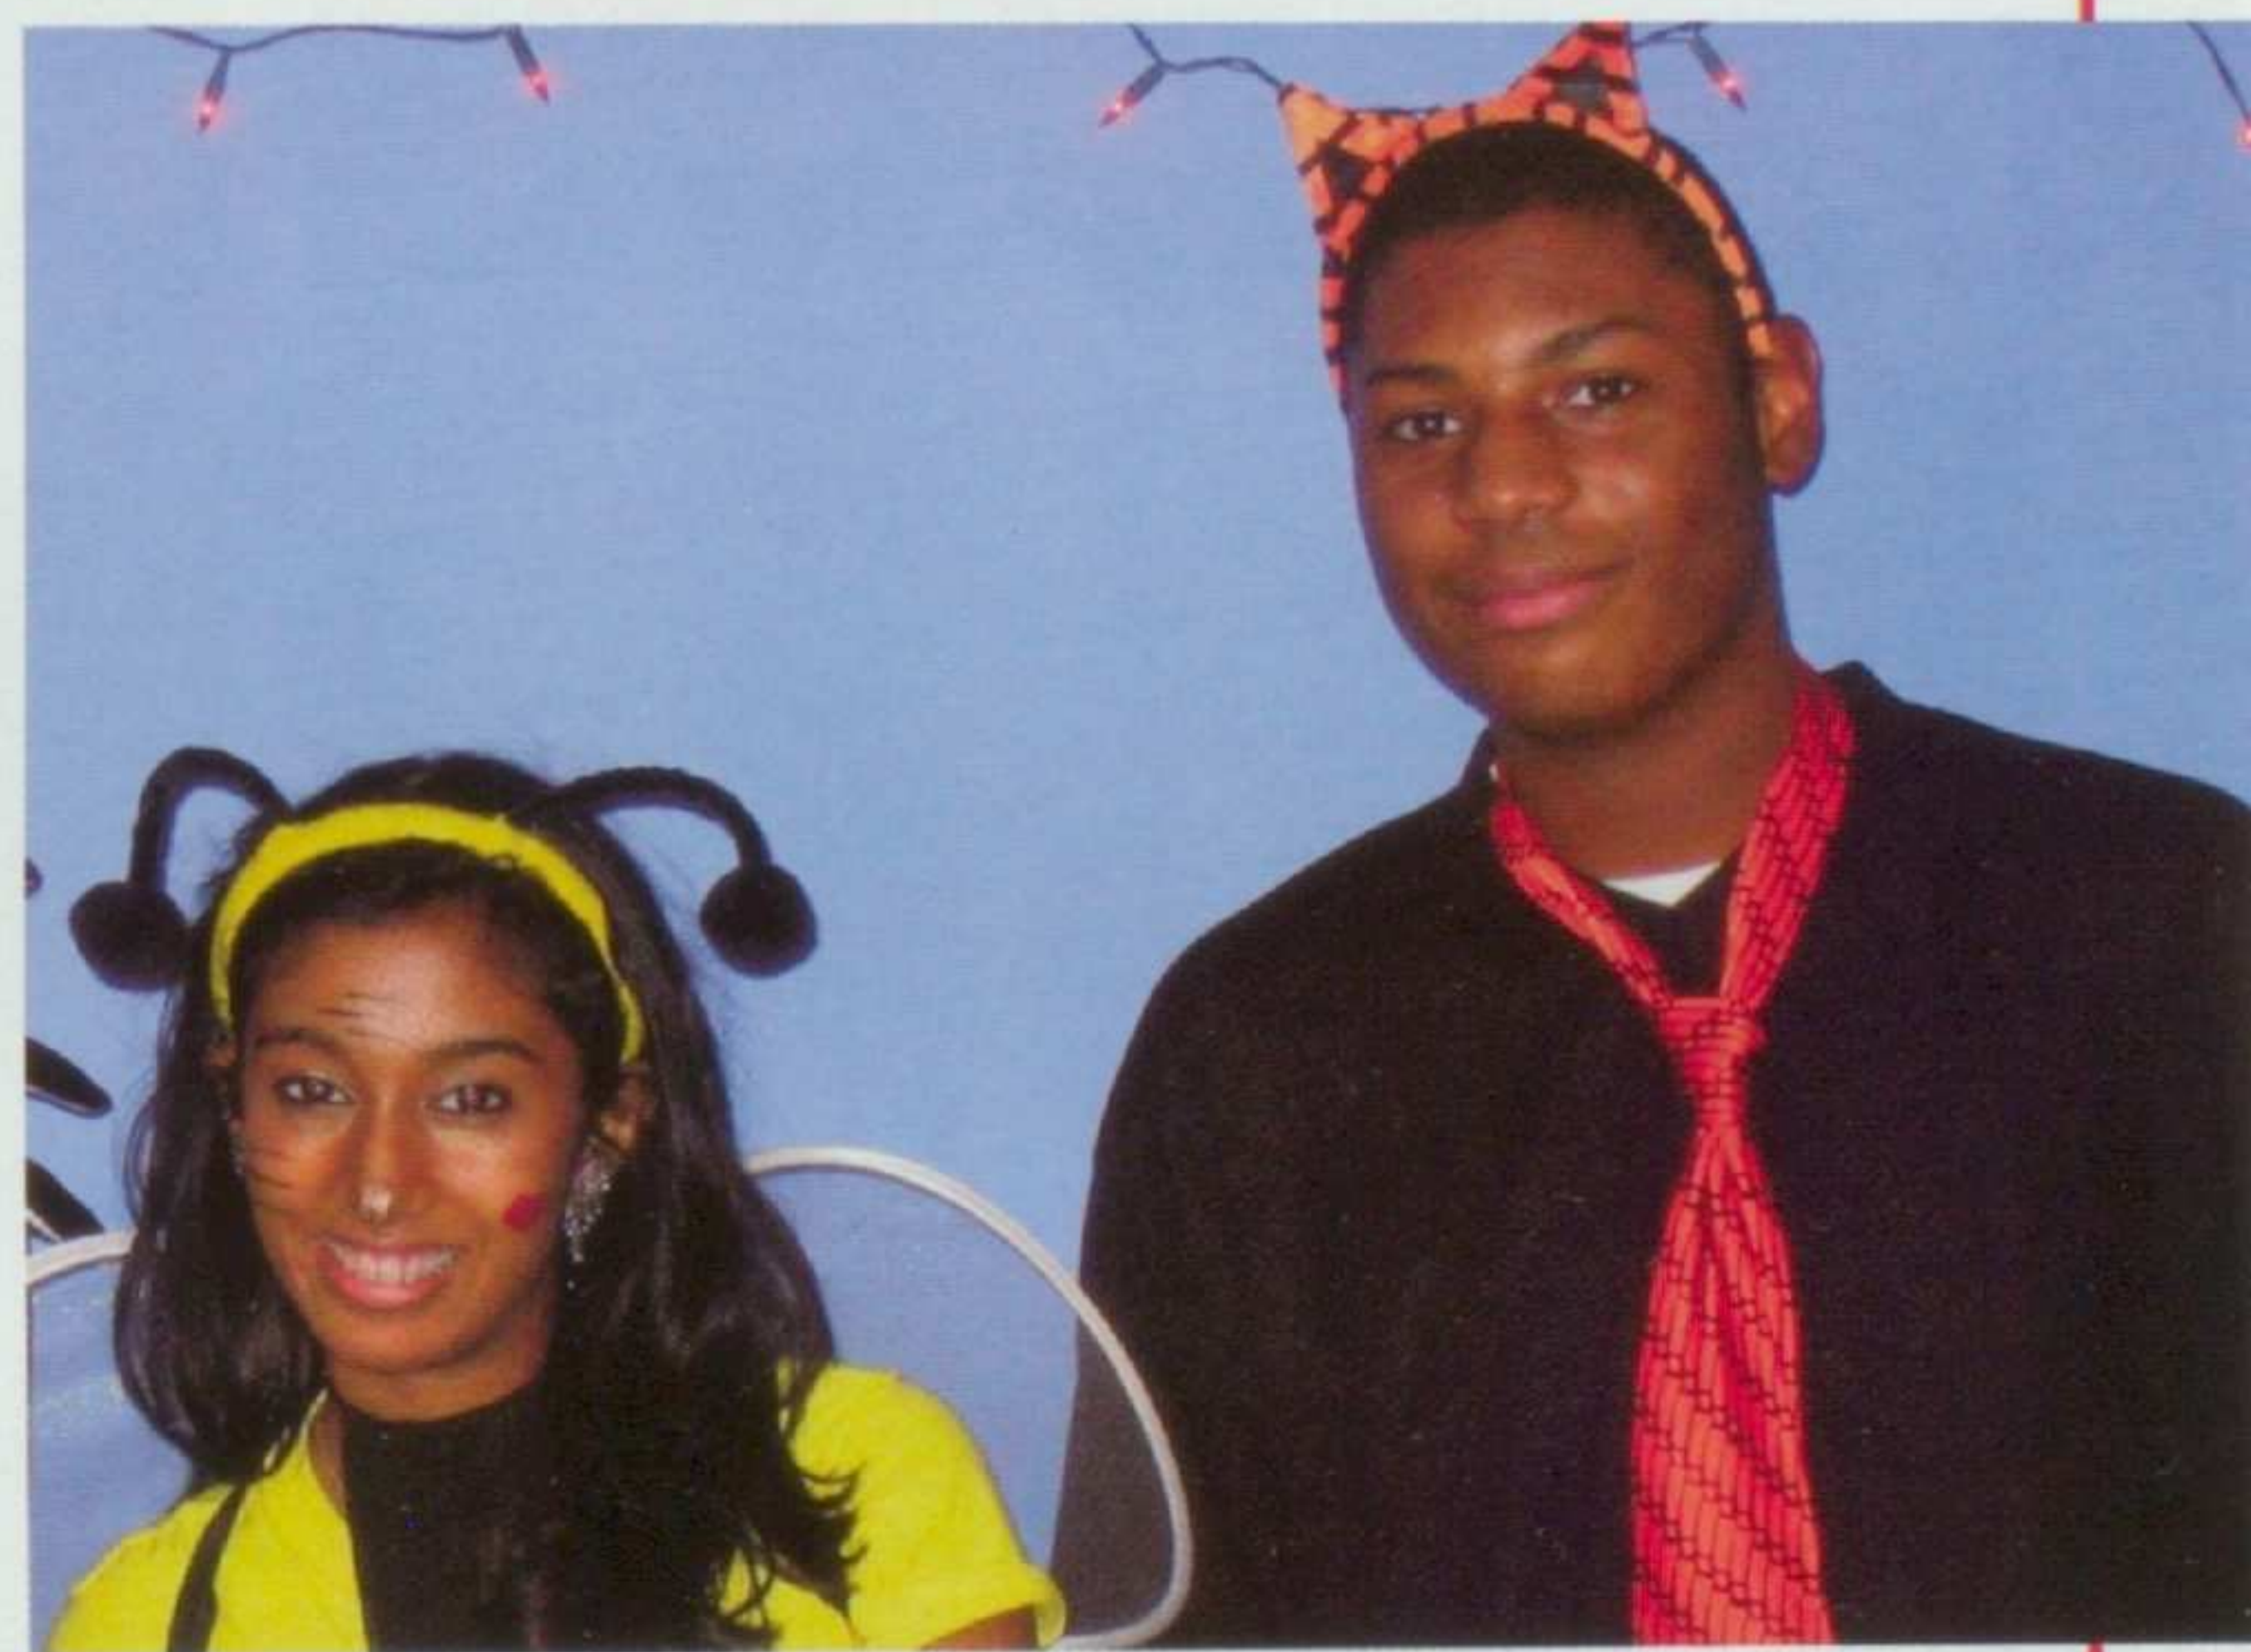

Looking steaming hot in their 80's flash dance gear are Hahn Tran and Pamela Skehan. That wig is sweet as tendies, Pam.

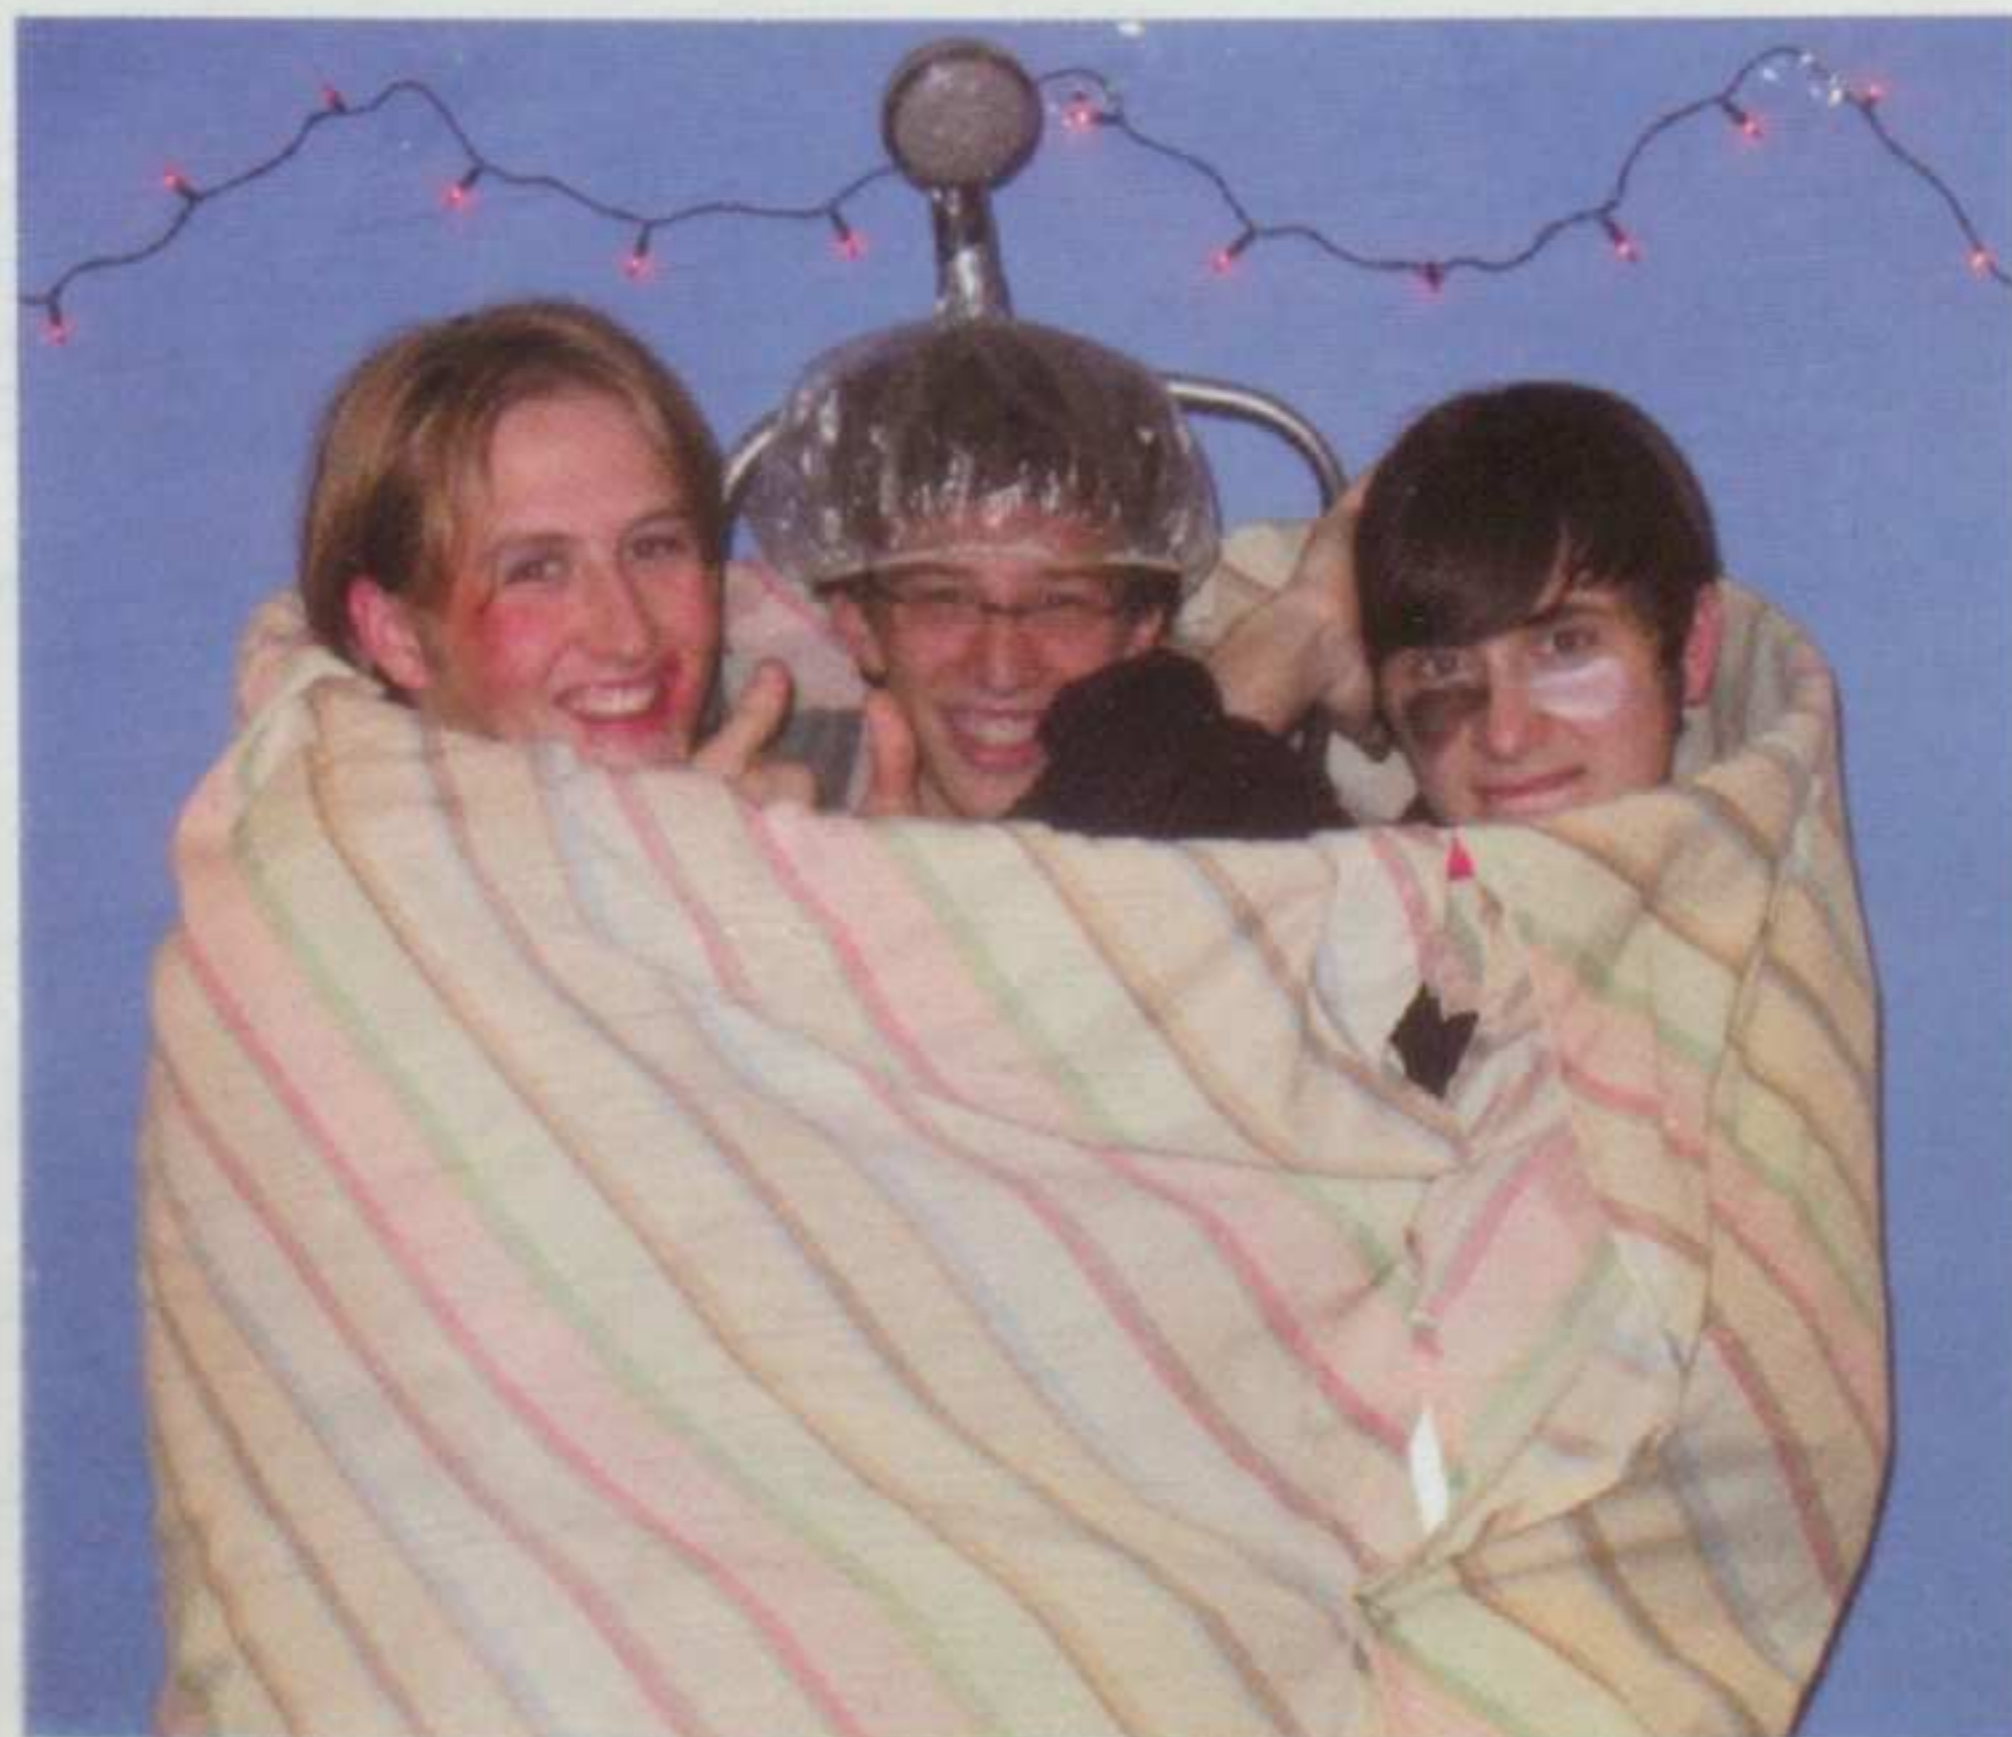

Nice hair, Gabz! Gabriel Ciofani and her boyfriend Jamie Halm got their dance on tonight. That the pale look is in this winter!

As Seth Green tackles the Westerville South player, 36 Bill Chastain comes in to back him up.

Holding tightly to the ball is James Coppeler, giving Westerville South no chance to cause a fumble. Bill Chastain comes in to help

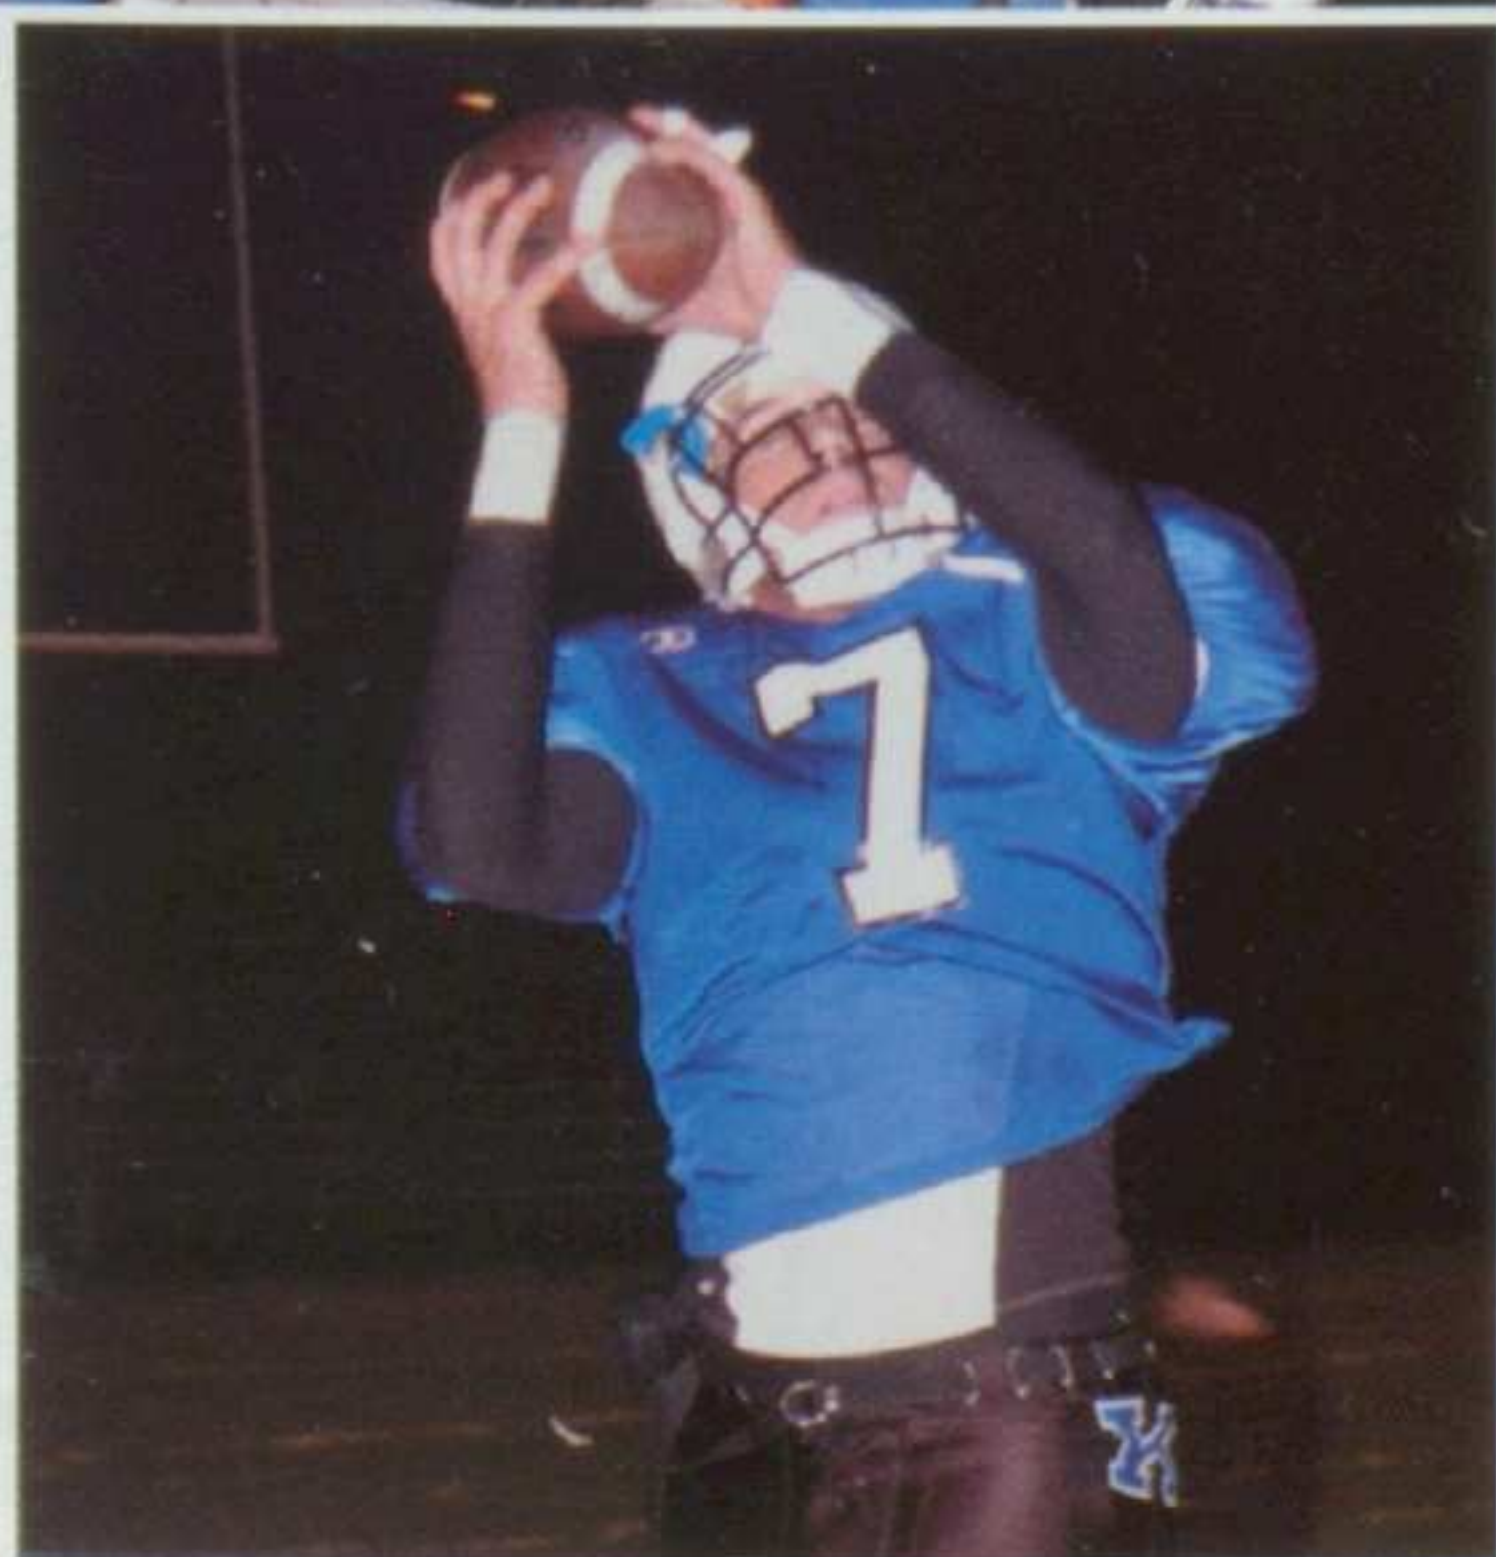

After working hard, 43 Michael Northern, Pat Castoe and 78 Luke Budinot slurp a much needed drink of water.

"Our goal was to get Kilbourne football back to where it is supposed to be. We talked about this in preseason and right before the game against Scioto. This program succeeded and is the best in Ohio. We're capable of competing for state champ," coach Gafford explained.

The numbers support him. This team earned the second best record, 11-3, and went to the final four for the second time in the school's history. Also, in the semifinal they played the eventual state champs, Cincinnati Colerain, and stayed with them the entire game.

Forcefully knocking the Westerville South's runner to the ground are teammates, 3 Andy Campbell, 13 Jeff Thompson, 11 Jordan Gafford, and Brad Sealock.

Catching the football, Brandon Martin makes a first down for the Wolves.

In a three point stance, 13 Jeff Thompson, 36 Eric Burnside, 6 Brad Sealock, 51 Pat Castoe, and 78 Luke Budinot are ready to block a field goal attempt.

Looking ahead, junior Cory Kovanda runs for the end zone hoping to score a touchdown while junior 32 Ryan Dew comes in to block for him.

Ready to show school spirit at one of the pep rallies are Erin Wheat and Annie Schuerman.

Cheerleading...some may say is not a sport, but anyone involved knows it is. These athletes work just as hard as athletes on any other team do. They spend the whole summer preparing for their roles as the biggest supporters of the football team. Memorizing all those chants and dances isn't as easy as it looks!

The competition cheerleaders have been working extra hard preparing for Nationals. Planning to beat the score of fourth place from last year is hard work. Having practice and tumbling almost every day is well worth all the effort.

The senior cheerleaders: Shelley Opremcak, Jill Dritchett, Maria Stasko, Molly Harper, Ashley Garner, and Lindsay Brekus.

Obviously enjoying themselves, Maria Stasko and Kristine Tsirigotis spell out WOLVES during a game.

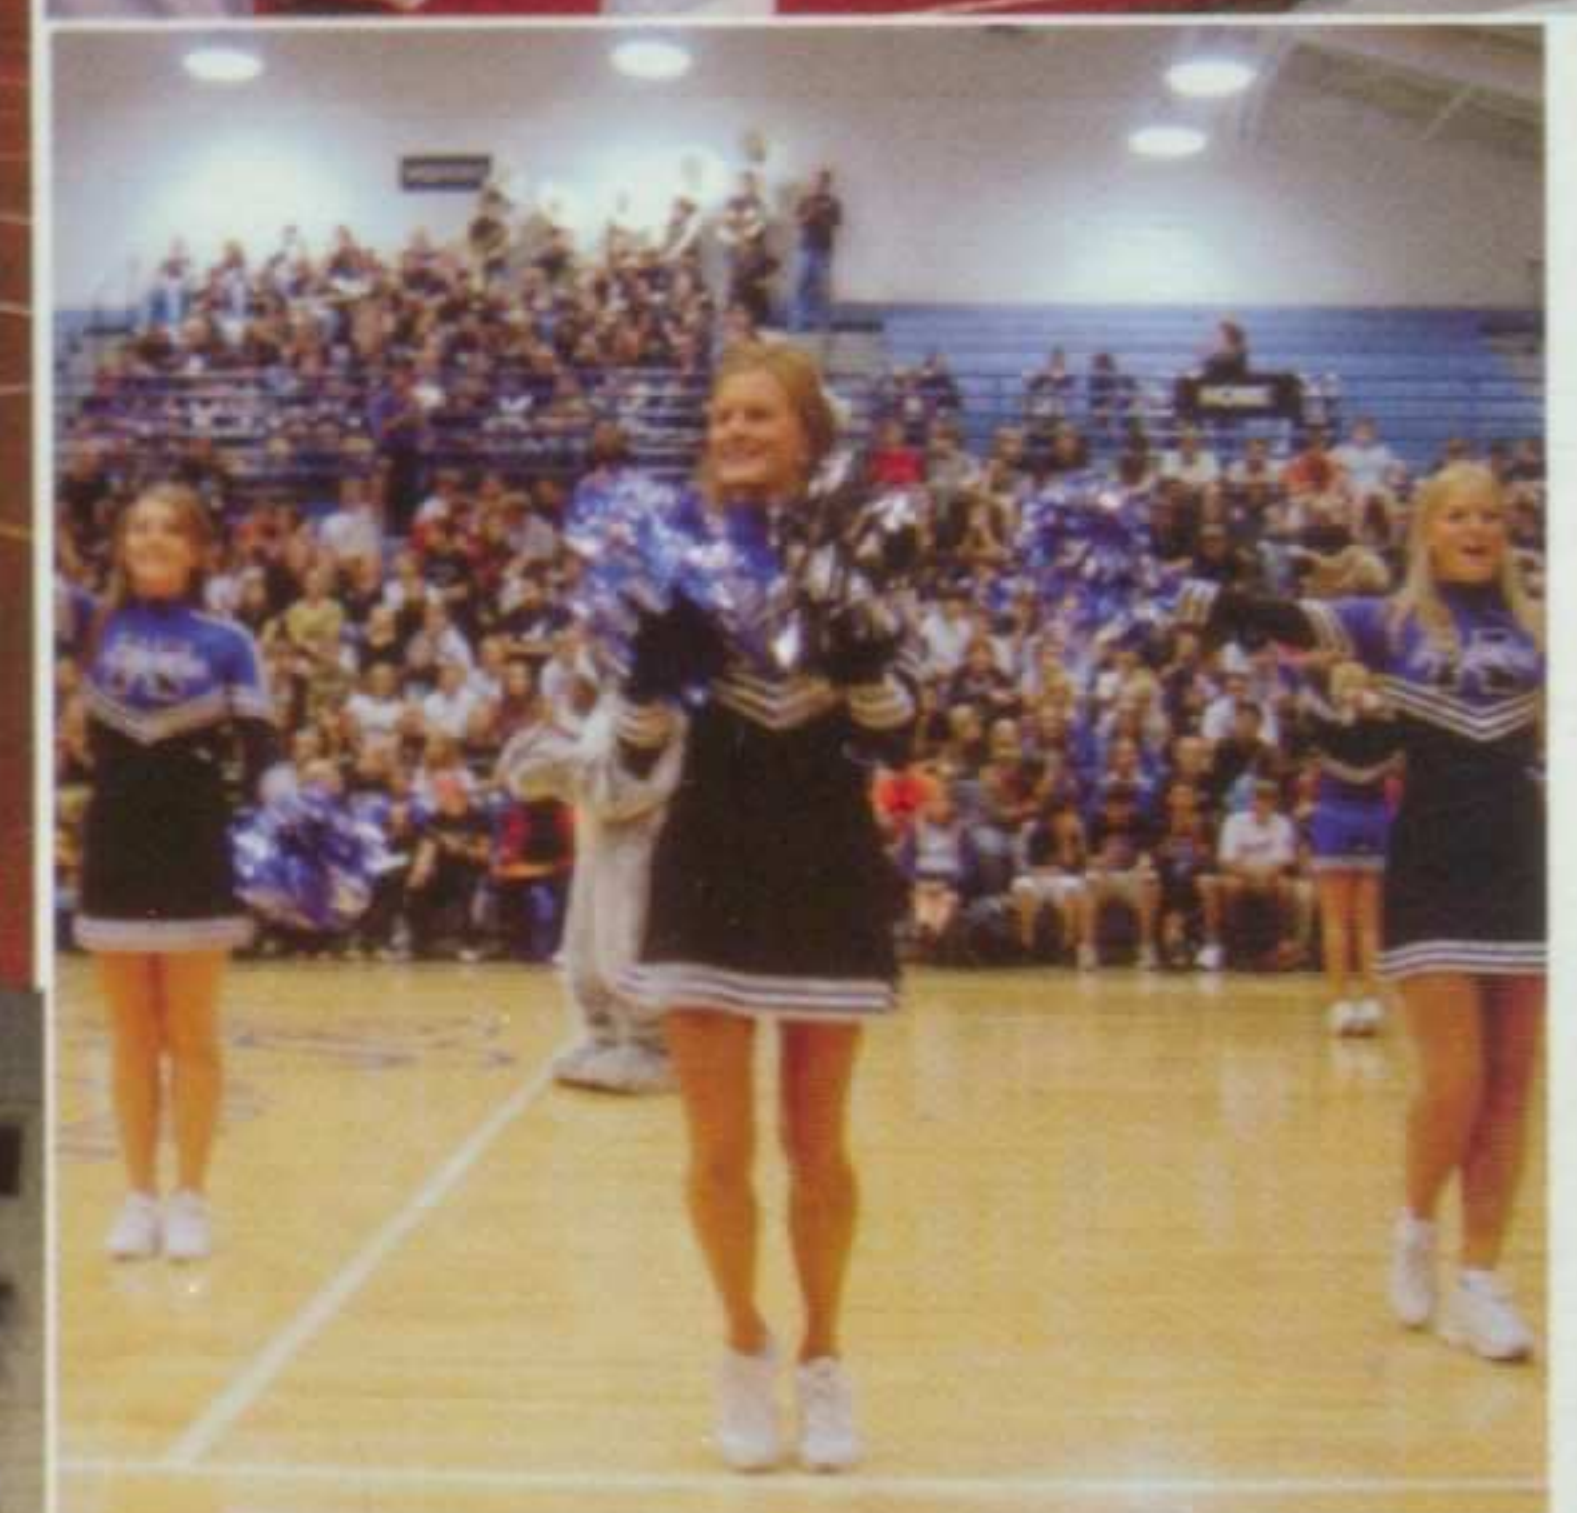

Running the flags after the Wolves score a touchdown are Tim Fry and Kristine Tsirigotis.

Sliding all out for a ball, senior Jeff Rusch shows his athletic ability in this nail-biting game against Dublin Coffman.

has made boys soccer is a step ahead of the rest

Gugi Matejic plays a strong defense.

Out leaping a Dublin Coffman player, senior Harrison Jones proves his killer defensive skills.

"This team has grown together from freshman year on, and that's what helped us be so close. It really helps in the long run," insists Max Maughn.

Boys soccer has a history of numerous OCC titles, district titles, and a state title, so when the team began with a 1-4-1 record, many fans scratched their heads and wondered.

The team could have easily put their heads down and quit, but defeat is not a word in their vocabulary. "We knew we would turn it around and that's what made this year exciting," explained Gugi Matejic. The turning point came with a 1-0 victory at Dublin Scioto. The boys never looked back as they began a 13 game unbeaten streak, rolling over anyone who came in their way including #1 in the state Westerville North. The Wolves made it all the way to the district title game, only to be upset by Dublin Coffman.

With a final record of 13-5-2 and another OCC title, the district runners-up turned around a season that seemed lost.

Finding time to relax. Jeff Rusch, Harrison Jones, and Matt Graves kick back and enjoy popcorn.

Sending the ball back into play, senior goalie Chad Boyd displays his leg strength on this free kick.

persistence

led the girls soccer team to a 15 - 4 - 1 season

The girls soccer team enjoyed a lot of success. The whole team agreed with Katie Miler's choice of highlight of the season - winning the Crew Cup. It was definitely one of the best memories.

The team's chemistry helped them all get along great. Kelly Warner's comments kept the team laughing. Captains Maureen Young, Katie Miler and Stephanie Lawrence lead by example, always keeping the teams' heads up and making the season memorable.

Leaping through two Dublin Scioto players is junior Ciara McClellan. Her high jump helps her accomplish many headers during the games.

Before every game, the team unite in a circle and scream "team" at the top of their lungs in order to intimidate the other team with their unity.

The Crew Stadium is buzzing with excitement as Whitney Denbow and her fellow teammates warm up before a major play-off game.

Making an impressive dive in a valiant attempt to save the game is rookie Sammy Eaken. She has a promising next four years ahead.

Passing the ball off to a fellow teammate is senior Sarah Graham. "It has been an amazing season. I'm so proud to be part of this team. I will miss all of the girls next year."

Making a crucial pass is senior Tiffany Harrison, leading the team to victory in the Crew Cup at the Crew Stadium.

Kelly Warner's comments such as "uppercasing" were the funnest moments.

My highlight was the songs we sang, the Crew Cup, and our pre-season conditioning.

Beating Thomas at home in districts was awesome with so many fans to see us get our revenge.

It takes a lot of practice and just plain skill to use the fancy footwork that senior Caitie O'Rourke displays during a challenging game against our Hard Road rivals Dublin Scioto.

"Any soccer player could tell you" for the love of pete" is coach Irwin's famous quotation. - the team

The girls enjoyed much more success than they had hoped for. They knew when they needed to work hard and when to have fun. Because of this, their experience was one to remember.

*team follows winning tradition
by placing third at states*

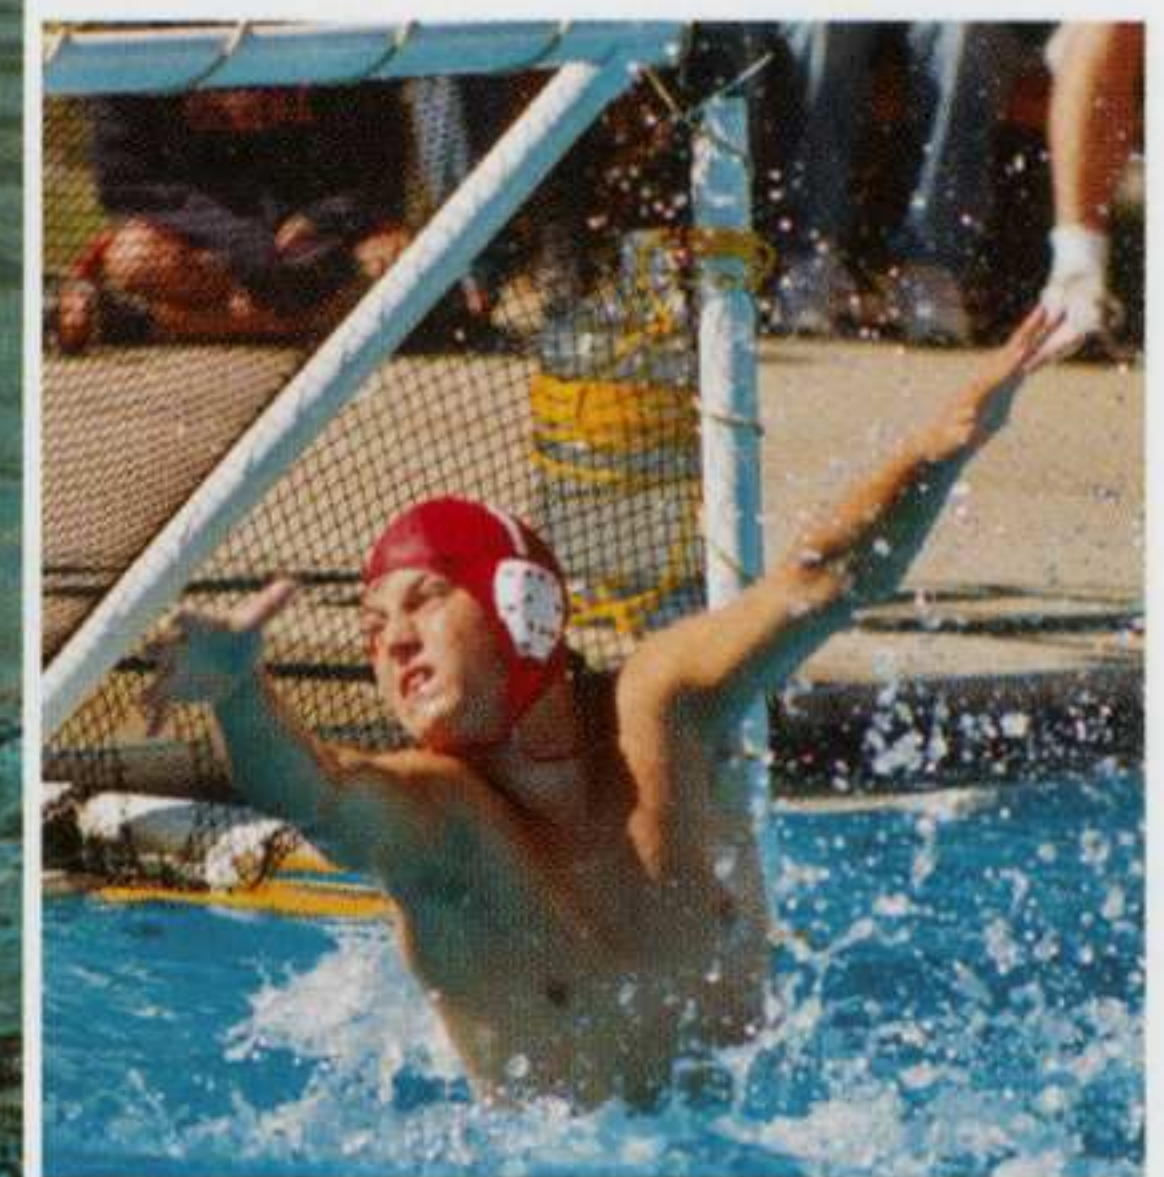

What helped the boys water polo team a lot this season was the numerous juniors and seniors returning from last year's team. They led by example, set a major goal to accomplish, and scored the essential points that led to big wins.

Placing third at states was a big accomplishment. "It was an amazing season. We were able to reach our goal and return to states, yet again," Sam Goldenberg reflected. Advancing to states under head coach Geoff Gear is becoming a tradition.

Trying to stop an opponent from taking the ball too close to their goal is freshman James Andrews.

Rising high in the water to make the save is junior goalie Andy Wolford.

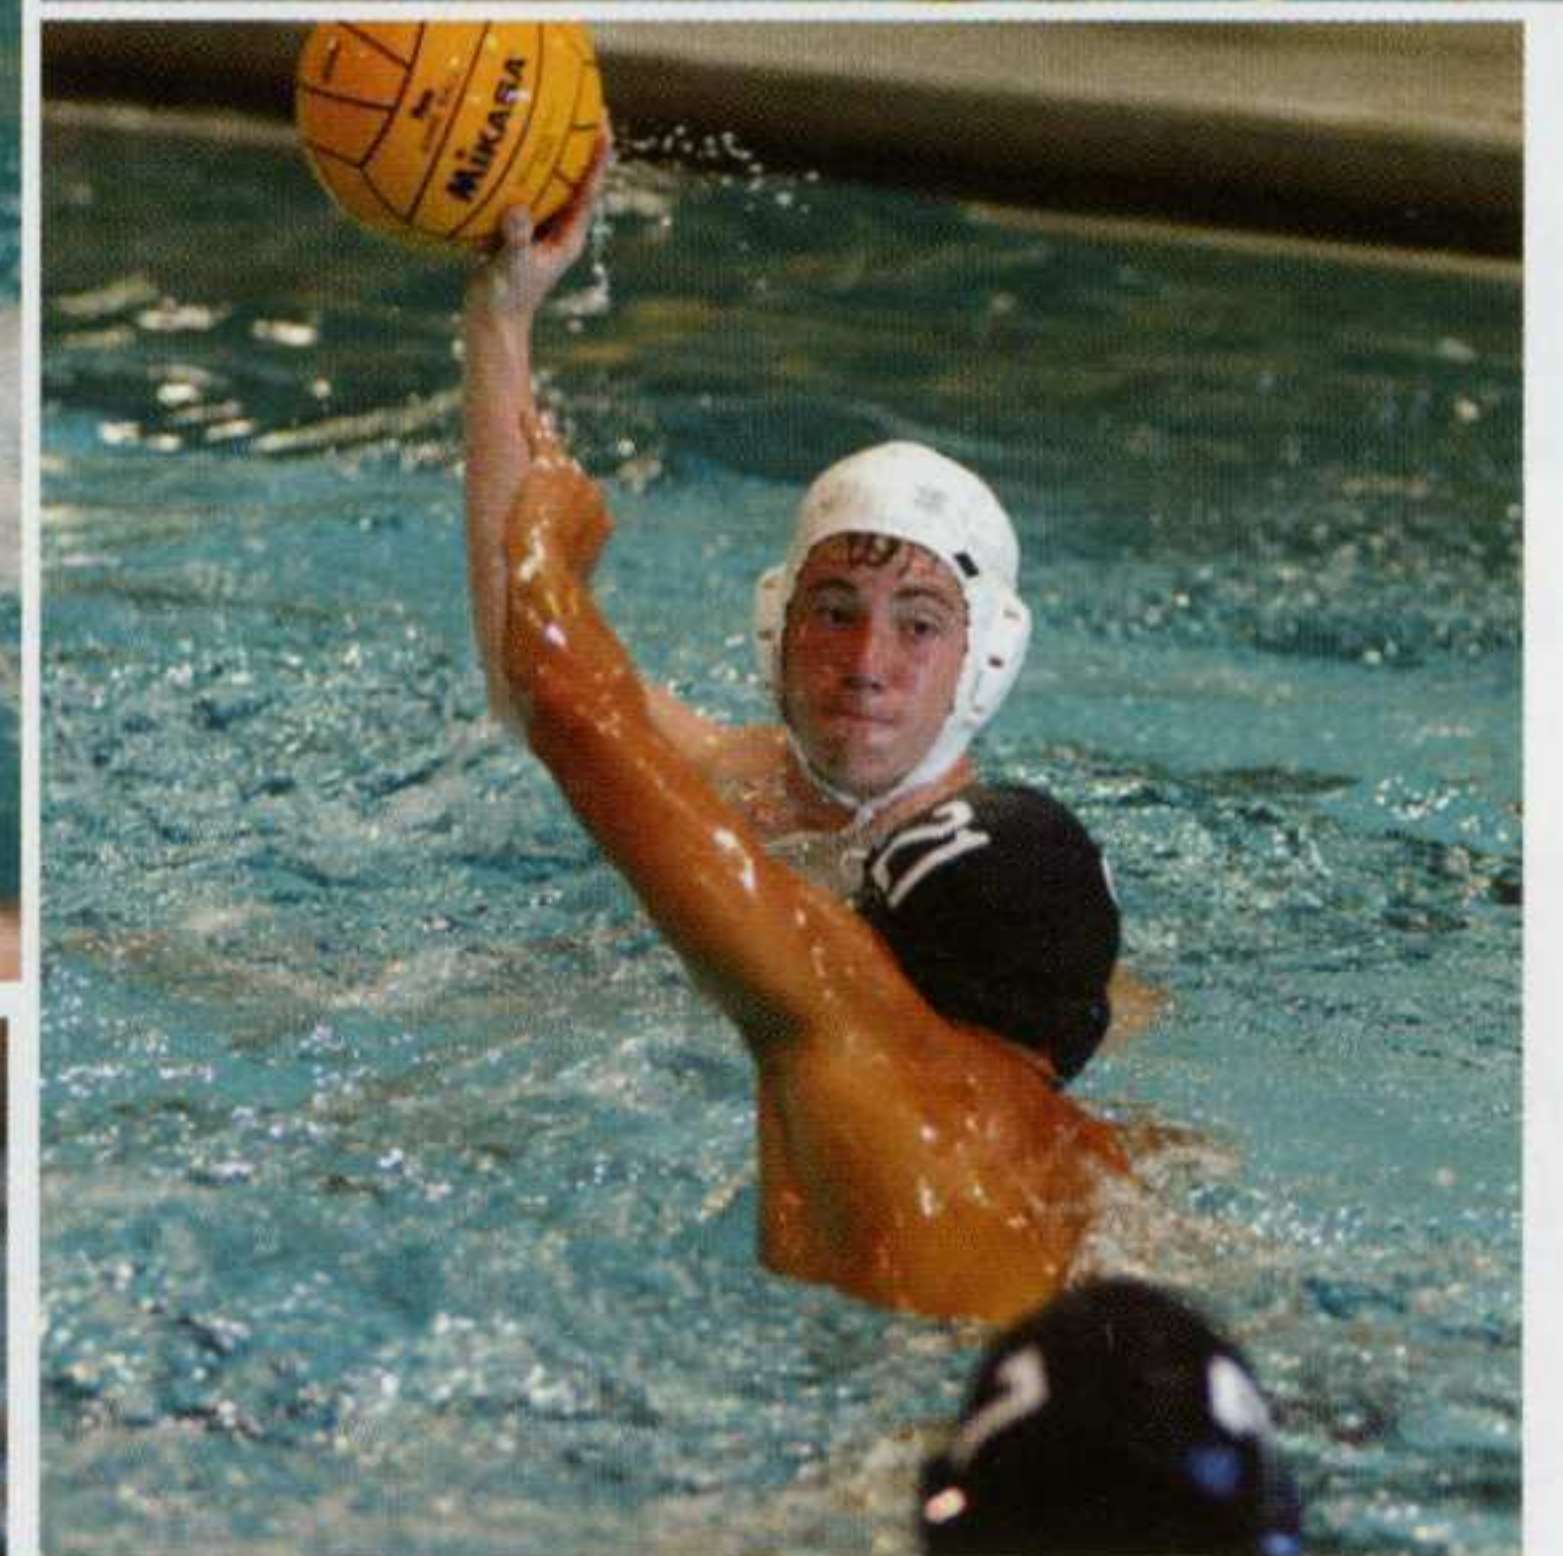

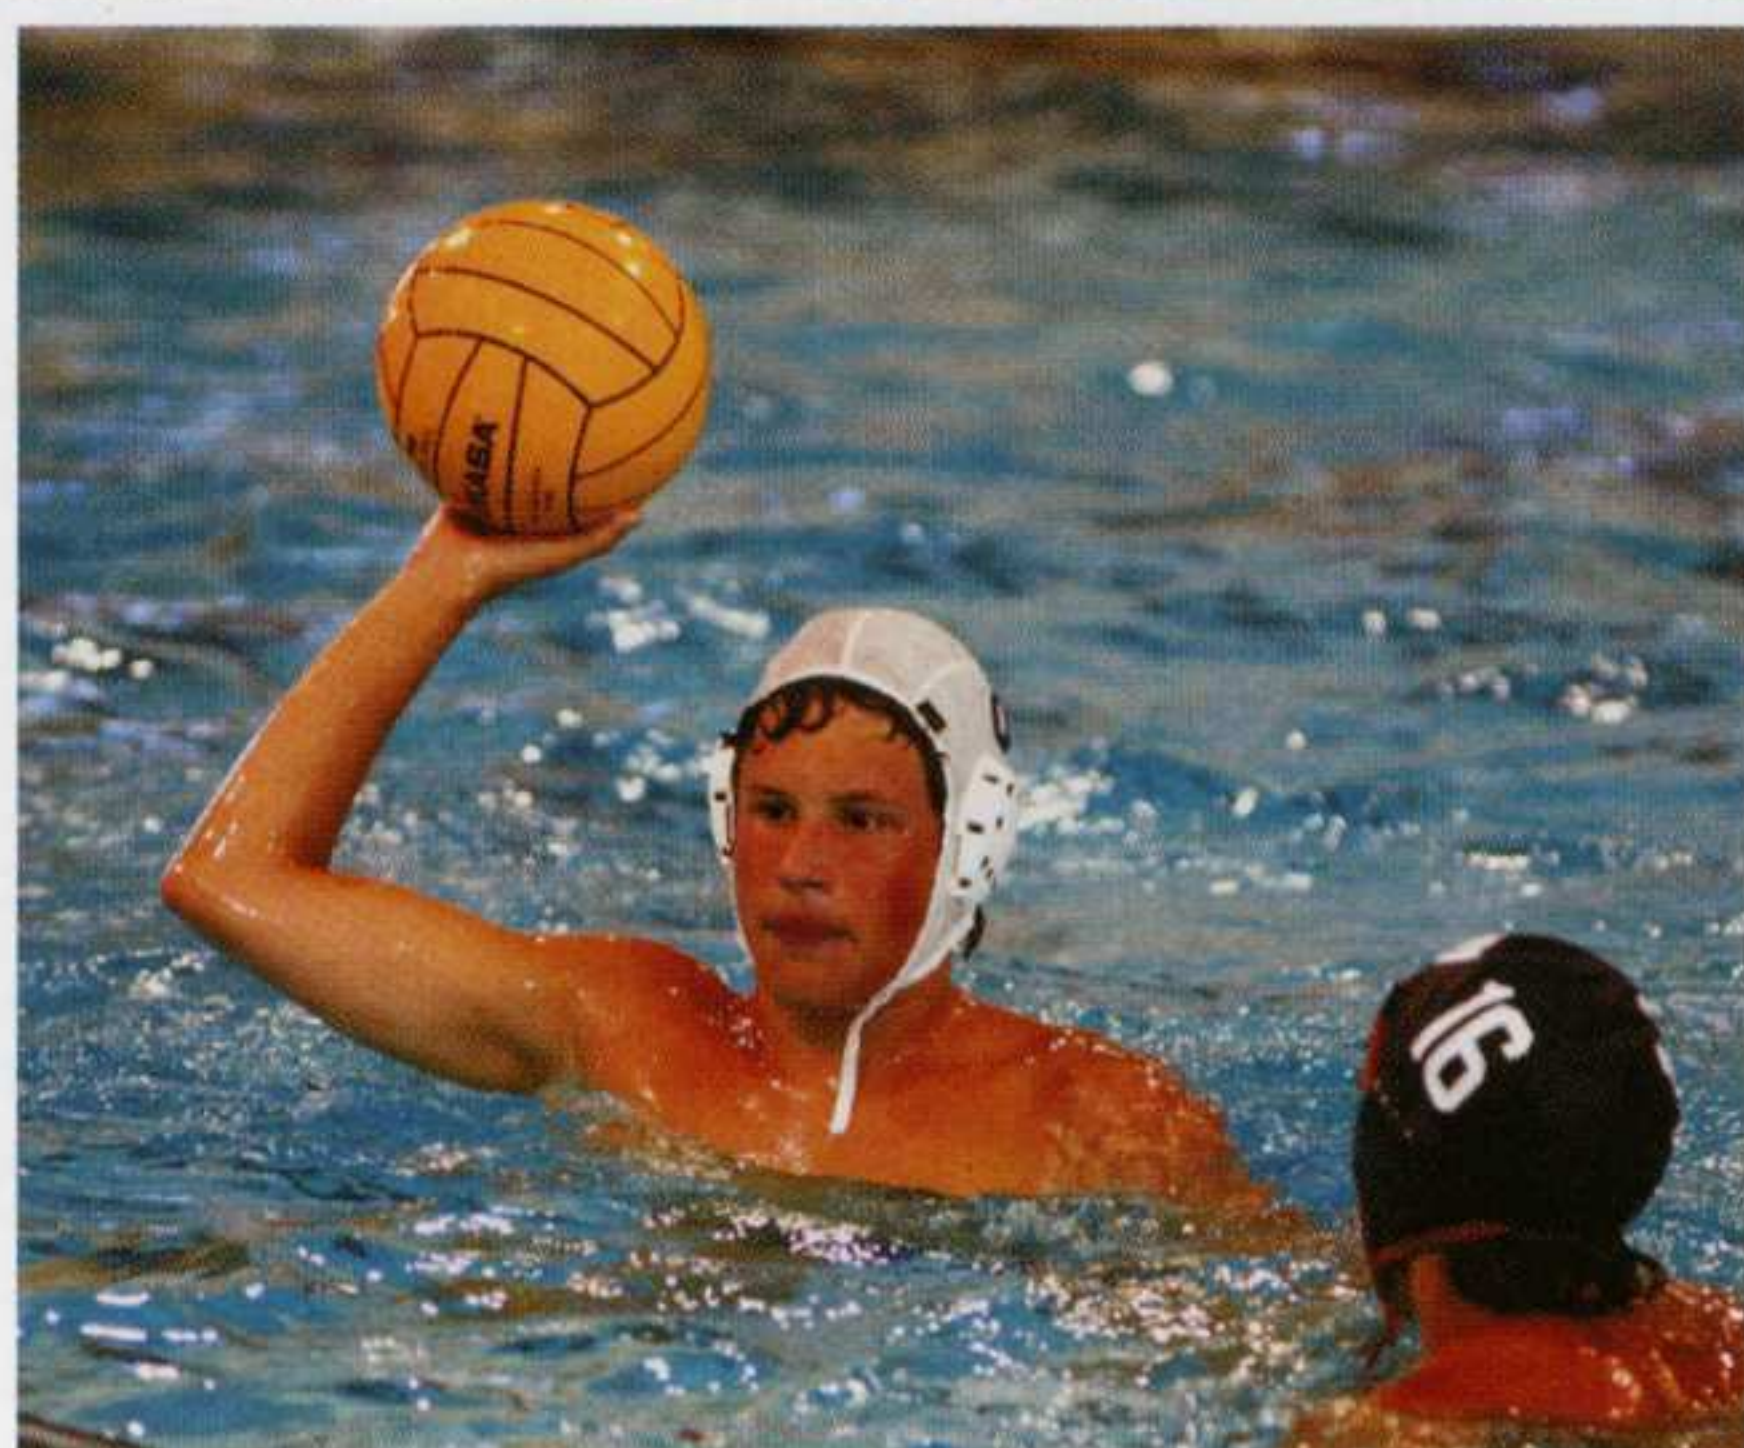

Holding off an opponent so he can add to his 98 goals this season is junior Brenton Keller.

While egg-beating, freshman Casey Tyack waits for his teammates to set up a left side drive or skip shot.

As senior co-captain Steven Mazurek looks for an open teammate, an opponent approaches him to try to take the ball away.

Ready to make a pass after checking for a receiver, freshman Eric Keller refuses to be intimidated.

I can look back now on a great season and see how far we came as a team. I'm proud of the guys and wish them luck next year. As captains, we tried to set good examples for the team.

Rounding up his team for a quick strategy change, coach Geoff Gear gives directions to those in the water while captain Mitch Denti, Brenton Keller, Michael Fu, and Kevin Holz listen intently too.

While opponents try to hold off junior co-captain Mitch Denti and junior Sam Goldenberg, junior Michael Fu comes in for a pass.

Our strength as a team was the majority of us have played together for a while. Our weakness was that we weren't very good at the whole swimming thing.

The girls water polo team, which had a great year, anticipates many more to come. The girls won 22 of 28 games this year with only one tie against Upper Arlington. They worked hard and pushed themselves to the limit to be the best that they could be.

Among their 22 wins was the achievement of the 2004 Ohio Cup Championship in which they defeated Napoleon, 6 - 1. The girls also enjoyed another big win against Napoleon in the North Regional Championship which they won by the score of 10-3.

Bump, set, spike it - that's the way we like it, uh, uh

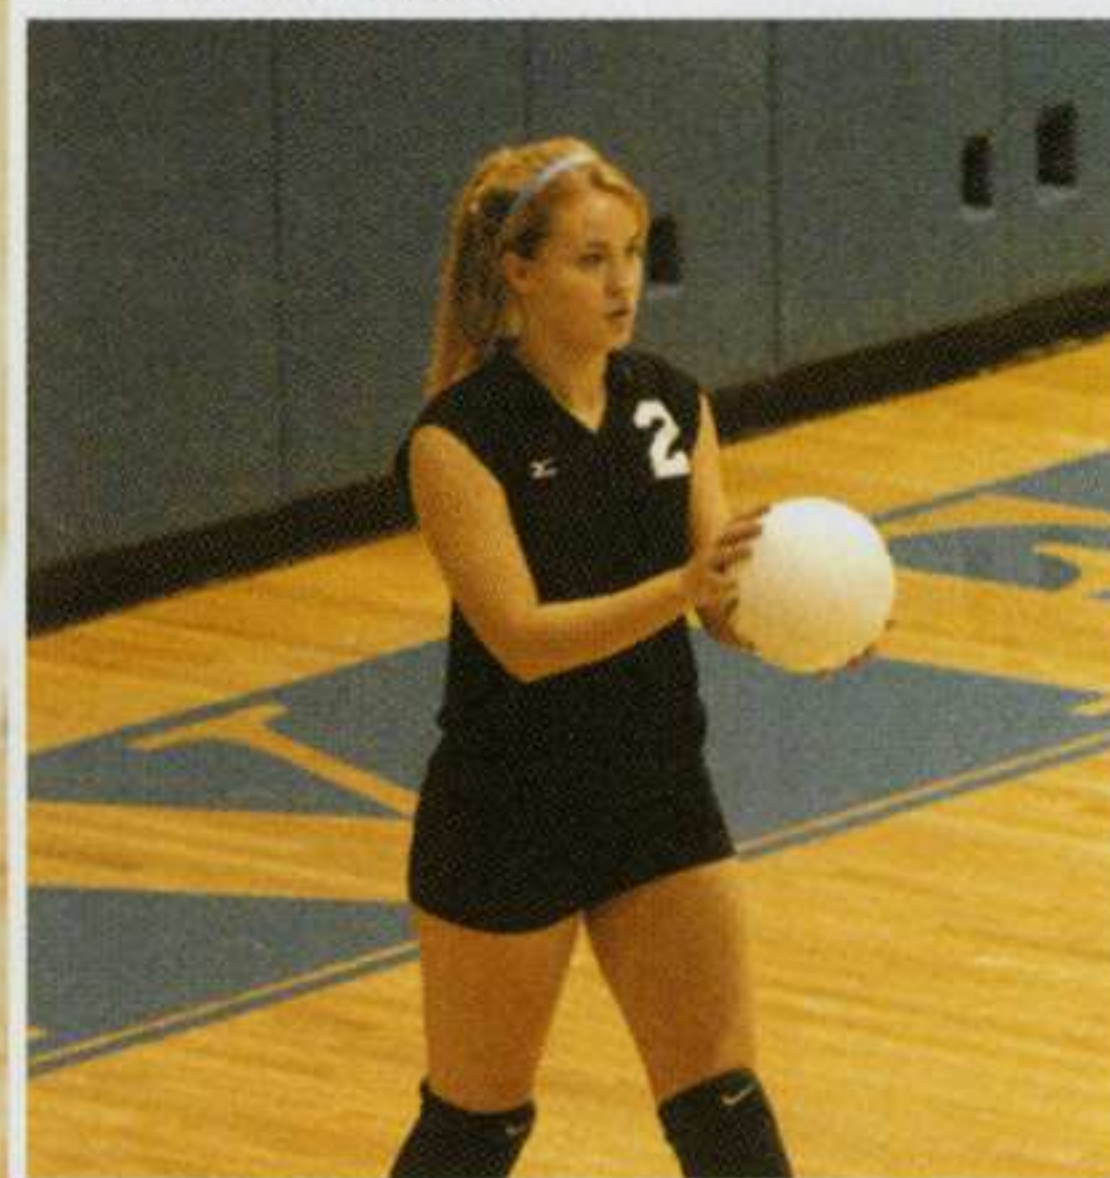

Wins and losses were not the main focus of the 2004 varsity girls' volleyball team. This season they concentrated on team unity and leadership. Junior Emma Parker explained how the team became united. "We all got so close that we were like sisters. It is sad though because we do not get to see each other now that the season is over."

Next year the Lady Wolves intend to increase the number of wins while still maintaining the close relationships they have formed this season. "Good luck next year, girls!" remarked senior Sarah Szymanski.

The follow-through of Michelle Hammond's spike earned the Wolves an important point.

"This season was all that I had hoped for. We played well and made the best of our talents. I'm sad that it's over." Sammy Barber reflects.

"My best memory was at camp when I spent a week running with my best friends," remembers Geoff Buller.

Running with all his might is sophomore varsity member Patrick Brown.

Teammates Andrew Bloom and Chris Wu start the race in the pack which opens up after only a half mile.

The boys cross country team had one of the most successful seasons in our school's history. They won the OCC championship for the first time since 1994. The Wolves placed well in the invitationals, winning two. All of the runners were extremely competitive as a team and as individuals. Only state ranked teams placed ahead of them in regular season. The JV team dominated their competition every time so the future looks bright.

These boys conditioned hard, ran continuously and pushed themselves straight into a job well done and fun season.

for success this season lead the girls to a satisfying finish

The girls cross country team opened a bit shaky by placing fourth at their first meet, the TWHS quad meet. Shortly after, however, they found their legs and placed first at the challenging Marysville meet. Good job! The girls third place at London also won them the Pack award!

The smaller meets prepared the runners for the climax of the season. At the OCC meet, they won second place, then ran well at district, placing seventh. One runner, Natalie Vaas, advanced to regionals as a representative of the entire team.

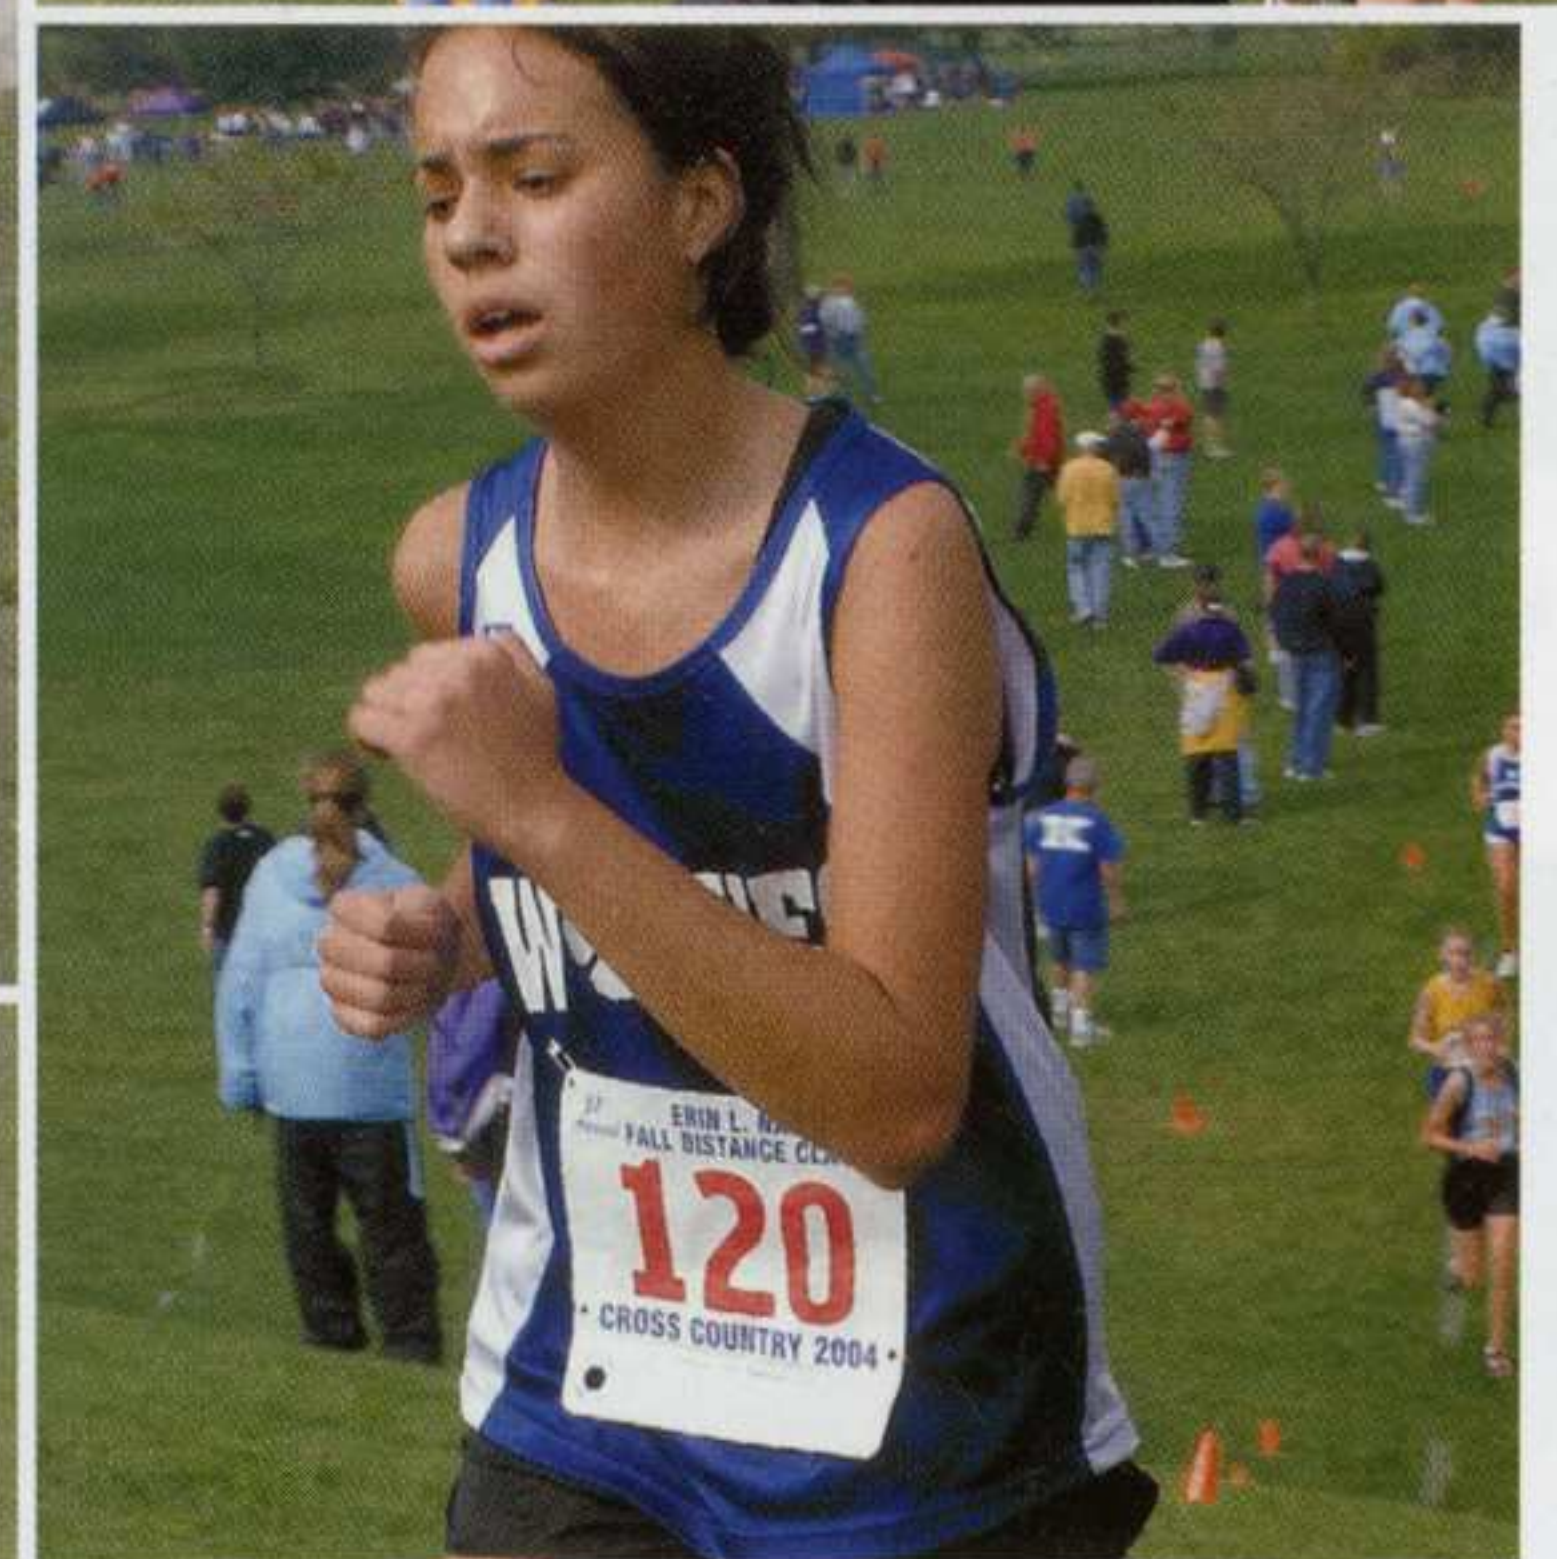

Goooooo. Anna! She's workin' her way up a tough hill at the London meet. Good work!

Passing by her opponent, Julie Strombotne takes the lead to finish in first place!

Striving to do her best at London is Alex Kreiselman. Don't let the runner behind you catch up!

Hanh Tran

"I am going to miss playing with the girls! I've had so much fun in the past four years."

Stephanie Massey

"Motivating the team was my favorite part of being a captain this year."

Niti Shah

"I had a lot of fun. I am going to miss all the girls next year!"

Megghan Shelton

"I really enjoyed leading the team through such a good season. Good luck, girls!"

lookin' good in blood, sweat, and skirts are the Lady Wolves

Clearing the ball from danger, freshman Caitlin Moore makes a hit. The Lady Wolves boasted many first year players with well developed skills.

Ready to assist teammate Teresa Zuniga. Allie Veith runs to back her up.

Waiting on the ball, Caitlin Moore watches as Heather DeSantis takes a shot. Moore says, "The 'Fab 4' seniors were a really effective influence on the team."

Reflections by the players on the field hockey team are positive. They worked hard to improve their record and gained more than just wins. Junior Emily Himmel explains, "We worked hard this year, and our effort and determination created a big improvement in our season."

Although their record may not reveal their skill, the Wolves improved in all aspects of the game. When asked what was their favorite part of the season, the girls' response shared a common theme—their unity.

Battling for the ball is Teresa Zuniga. Zuniga explains, "The game against Thomas was so fun. We really played our hearts out."

To the rescue of goalie Caitlin Kelleher is senior captain Meghan Shelton. Meghan compliments, "Caitlin was one of the best players on the team. She saved our butts at least ten times a game."

As the Lady Wolves gather for a half time meeting, Allie Veith recalls, The captains always found a way to pump us up, even when we had already lost hope."

Junior field hockey player Natalie Holzaepfel worked hard this season to improve the Lady Wolves record. Natalie says she can't wait to lead the team to victory next year.

Happy and proud of his shot, senior Matt Martin eyes his ball all the way back down as it approaches the green.

Boys golf tees off on CCC competition en route to title

Quality teams need senior leadership if they hope to be successful. Made up of four seniors and one sophomore, the boys golf team acted ready to take on the 2004 season. Led by senior captains Tom Christopher and Reed Williams, the boys ran circles around the competition. With an overall OCC record of 3-1 and the tournament championship, the boys were proud of the title. The team supported the one district qualifier, Reed Williams, all the way to a second place finish.

Next year will offer new challenges, but it's safe to say the team will be in good hands in the future.

Captain and senior leader Tom Christopher addresses the ball to line up his shot.

In order to hit his ball out of the rough, senior Reed Williams crouches down, taking the proper approach to this shot.

On the putting greens Mike Schott, Matt Martin, and Reed Williams put in a few extra practice moments to ready their golf game for the big match.

Celebrating a tournament win, the boys pose for pictures after beating out the competition for first place.

Checking scores after a long day at the links, Mike Schott and Reed Williams count their strokes while taking a relaxing water break.

Captains

Reed Williams

I had fun everytime I stepped on the course because of the guys I teamed with. That's what made it special!

Tom Christopher

We had some great times this year and winning OCC's only made the experience better.

for a perfect drive right down the line and a hole in one

"The best bonding moment that I had was with Courtney when we were trying to fix Rusty's trunk. I admitted that I would drive the Rust over any other car because...I love Rusty! RPR." explains Kaitlynn Bock.

Before addressing the ball for her opening drive, Allison Sonnhalter loosens up as she takes a practice swing.

The team is mentally preparing for their match while waiting for their competition.

Webster's Dictionary defines a sport as a physical activity that has a set of rules or customs, often engaged in competitively. Some might say that golf isn't a sport or it's too easy, but these ladies have made it clear that golf is harder than it appears.

During preseason the girls traveled to courses to practice their swings and lower their scores. Once the matches began, they continued to perfect their skills, spending at least two hours a day after school on a golf course. Their commitment is as great as that of any other athlete.

After a round of golf, senior Megan Hasbrouck and junior Kaitlyn Bock take some time to enjoy the scenery at the Safari Golf Club

Taking a break from their grueling practice, Megan Hasbrouck, Cari DeAngelis, Natalie King, coach Riegel, and Kaitlyn Bock talk about their progress.

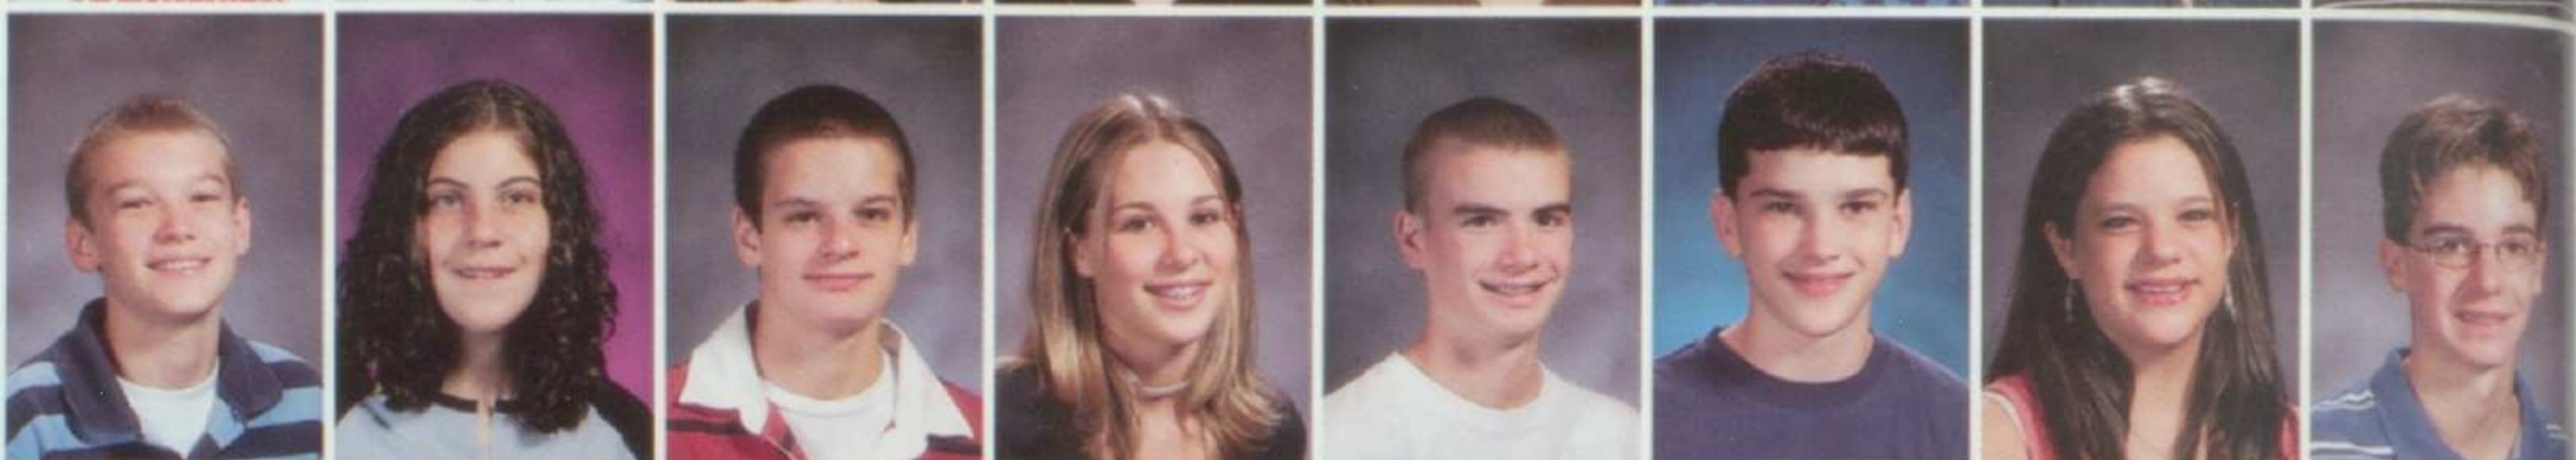

"If I had hit the ball any harder, it would've gone over the hole," says sophomore Kathy Johnston to herself.

Growing Up

Little Women is a heart-warming story about four sisters.

Ben Mooney, 12

"My favorite scene was when all of the girls find out their father is sick and crowd around their mother. They all looked like a real family at that moment."

Molly McPeck, 12

"The best part of working on this show was that we truly felt like sisters since we've been friends for so long. It was the perfect final role for me as a senior."

Mia Mogavero, 12

"I had an amazing time working on Little Women. What girl wouldn't love goofing off with her friends in pretty dresses, every night?"

After Mia Mogavero falls through the ice into the pond, Louise Flavahan, Diane Farhan and Chelsey Anglin surround her to make sure she is all right. They help dry her off and warm her up so that she does not get sick. Diane feels horrible because Mia fell into the pond while she was following her and Ben after they had argued about her coming along.

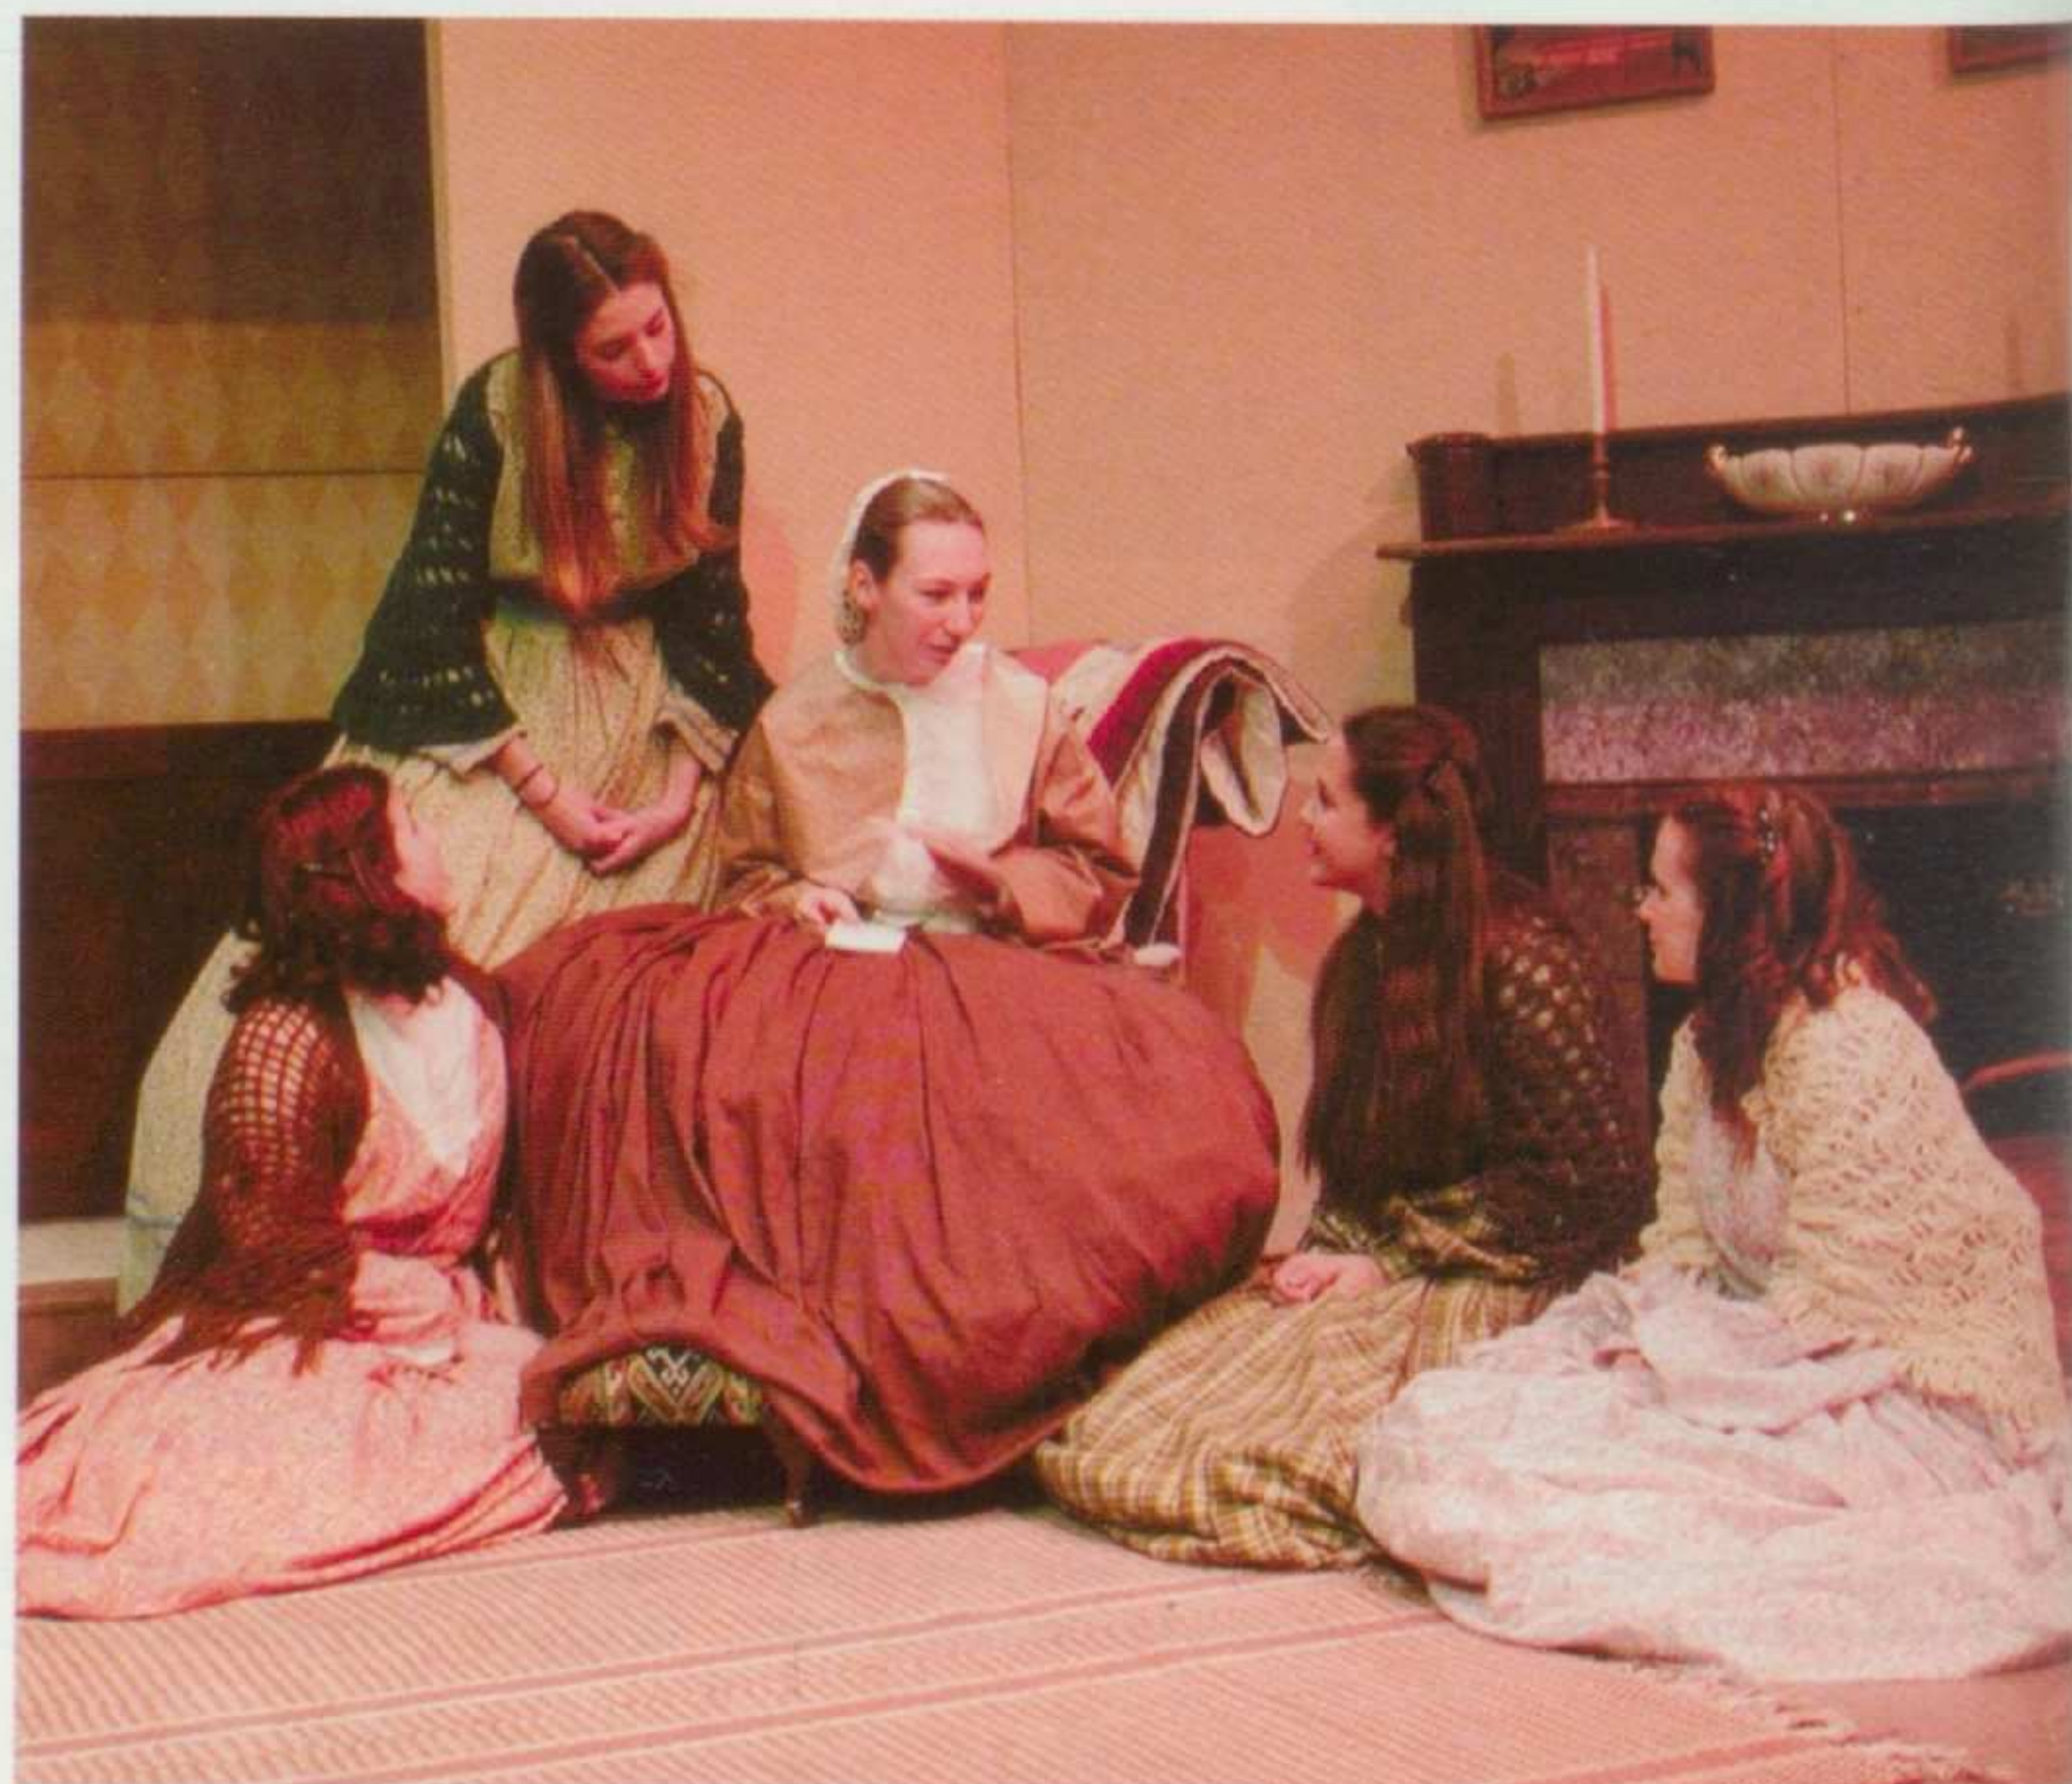

Sitting by the fire, Ben Mooney and Diane Farhan have an intimate conversation. Ben and Diane are next door neighbors who have been in love ever since the first time they met. Ben cannot believe that Diane cut off her beautiful hair, but he loves her anyway.

Cast and Crew

The sisters, Mia Mogavero, Louise Flavahan, Diane Farhan and Molly McPeck, listen intently to their mother Chelsey Anglin as she reads a letter from their father.

The children, Joanna Kreiselman, T.J. Wilson and Alise Merrin, enjoy strawberries as a special treat while they are hiding out.

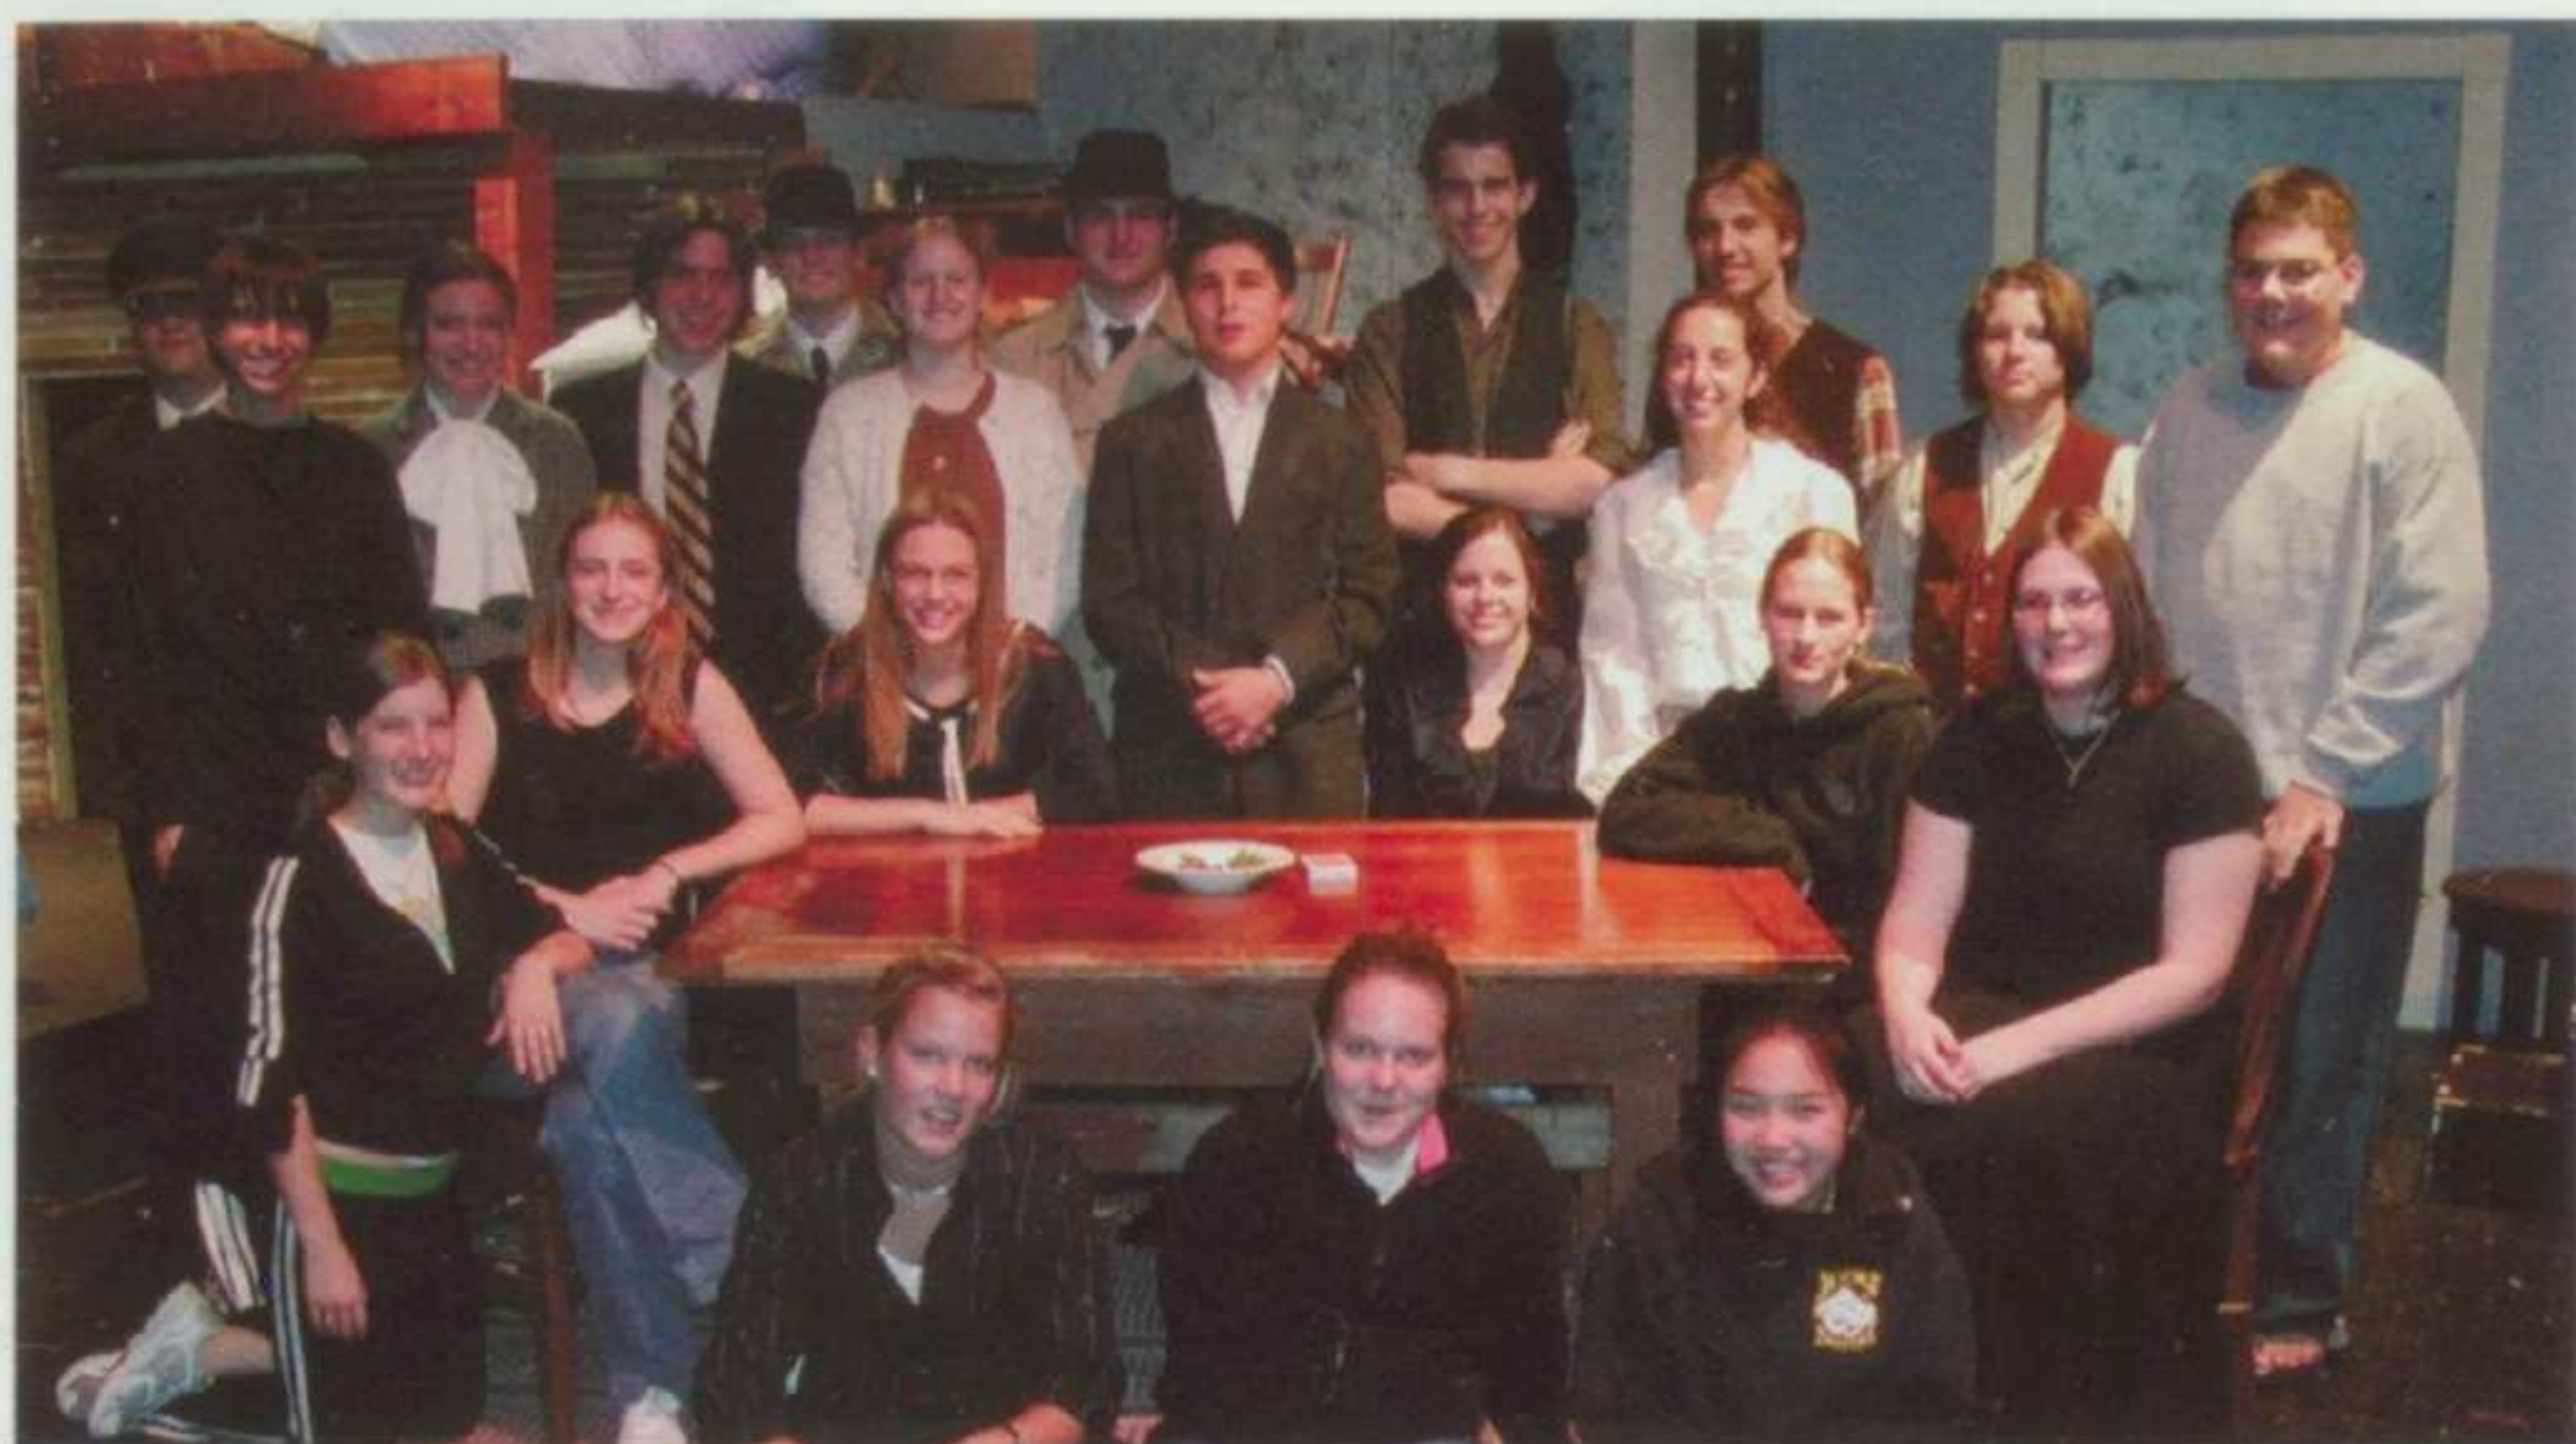

Since she cannot go to school while she and her family are hiding from the Nazis, Joanna Kreiselman as Anne appreciates the help of Otto Frank, played by Benj Mirman, with her homework so that she can keep up with the other children.

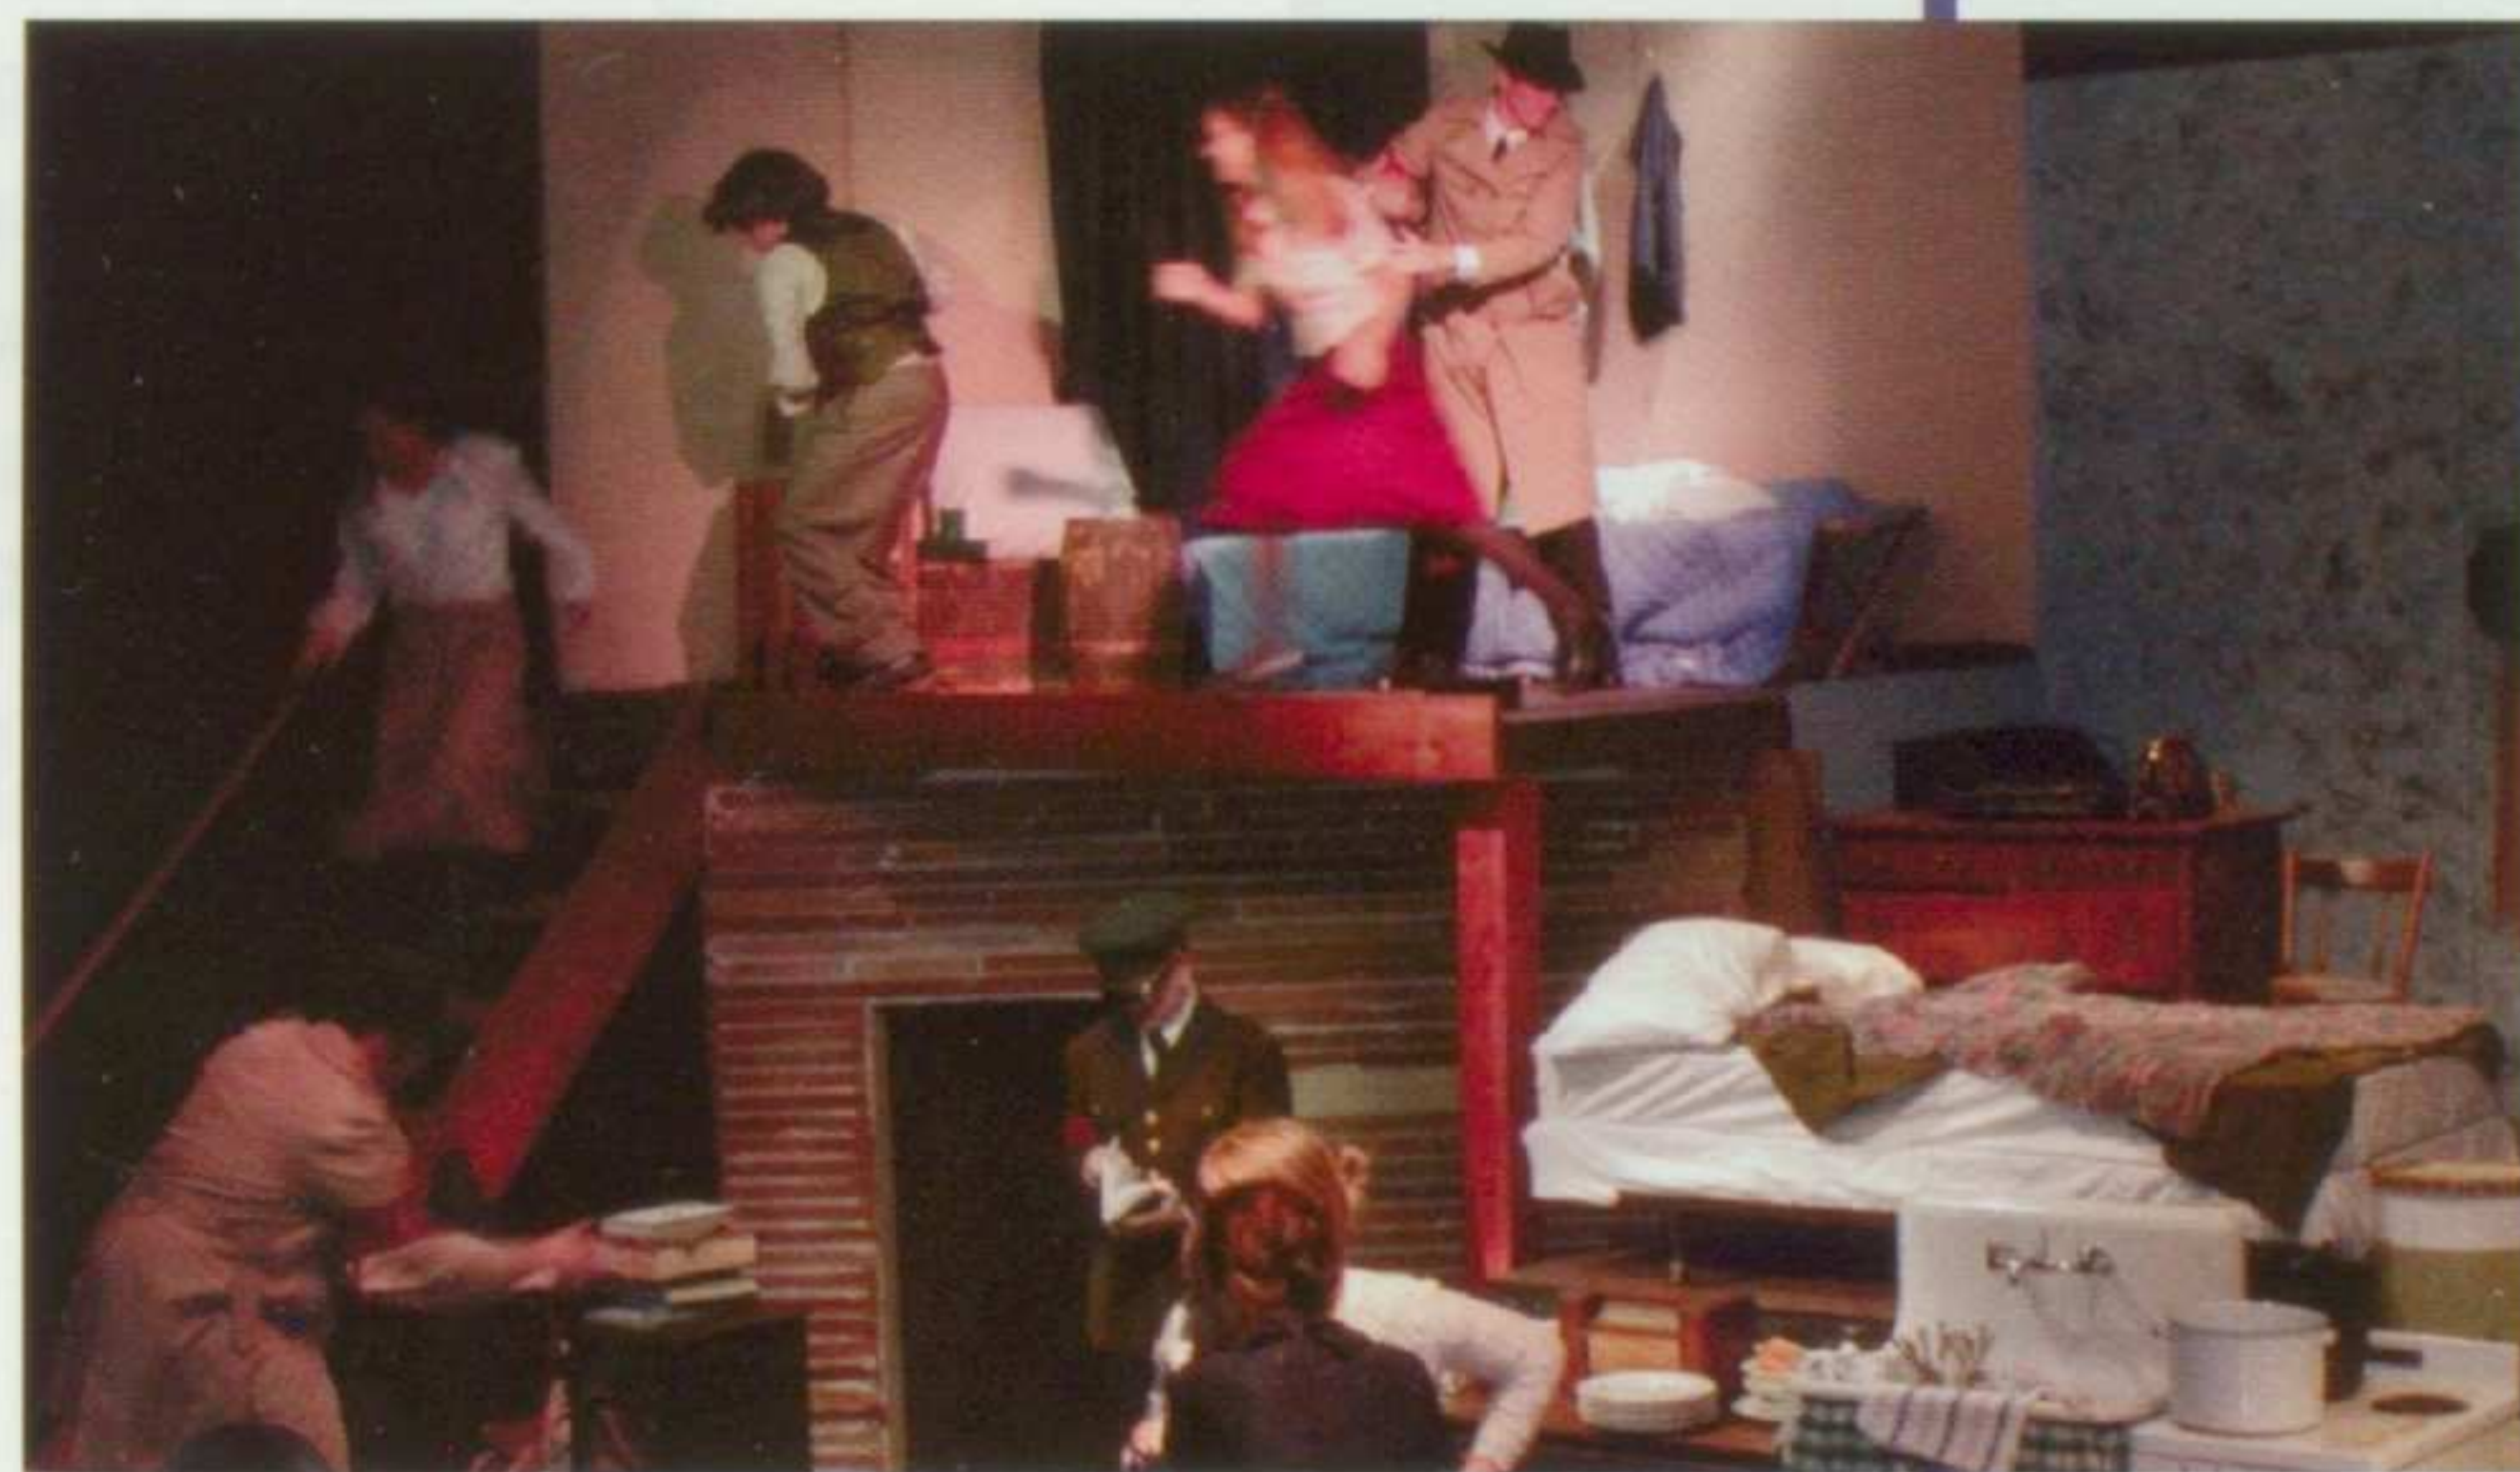

The Diary of Anne Frank is a touching story about the hope of eight Jewish people hiding from the Nazis.

After hiding out for so long, Anne's story comes to a tragic end when the Nazis storm in. Preston Young and David Friedman rummage through the families' possessions as Joanna Kreiselman and T.J. Wilson try to escape down the stairs. Alise Merrin struggles to get away from Andrew Heaton while Aricka Bidwell and Lindsay Gaus huddle in the corner.

Joanna Kreiselman, 12

The most important scene was the final one when the Nazi soldiers storm in, destroy the Annex, and carry the families to concentration camps. It was an experience I will never forget."

Benj Mirman, 11

"Anne Frank was different because the subject matter was so serious. I've never been around a play that brought the actors in it to tears."

Pam Skehan, 12

"My character's name, Miep, is kind of hard to pronounce. One night, Miss Thompson thought Jack Gilbert said 'Thanks, Babe.'"

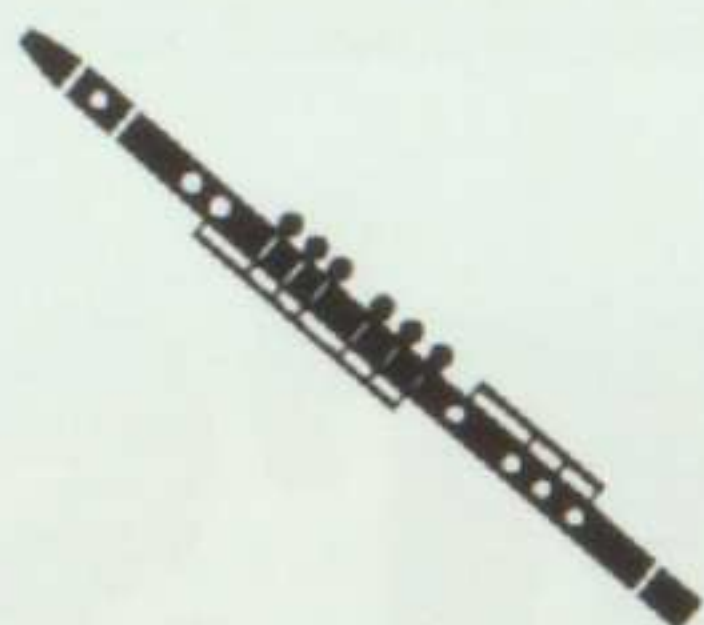

Aricka Bidwell, 12

"The whole cast had a lot of fun. We decided the end was too sad so we joked that the Franks and the Van Daans moved to Antarctica."

Musical Chairs

Diligently practicing her clarinet before the pep rally is senior Meghan Steele surrounded by sophomores Emily Hoffman and Brian Sass.

"During marching band, my favorite memory was the student section chanting "Steppin' Wolves" as we marched past."
Erin Millar

With mallets in hands, sophomore Christopher Ray prepares to strike the xylophone for his part in the wind ensemble's performance.

"My favorite selection of music was The Lion King in the marching band halftime show because I got to play the cow bell!"
Tyler Erdeljac

"Hanging out with my friends and coming together to make music is the best part of band, at least that is what we hope."
Kate Leary

Preparing for their first freshmen and Erin

Performing with jazz band for this year's holiday show are Andrew Kissel, Ryan Parks, and Brian Batchelder.

"I love being in orchestra because it's a fun class and relaxing. The music we've played this year has been new and exciting."
Allie Veith

Enthusiastically playing their saxophones during the holiday show are Scott Dailey, Margaret Deardurff, Katherine Golovin, and Kenneth Burke.

"Orchestra is the best because I get to see all my friends, and concerts are such a good experience."

Abby Hils

At one of his last football halftime shows, senior Scott Gustafson plays for the crowd.

"Band is a blast this year. Every concert gets better and better. I'll be so sad when the year is over."

Evan Beach

Taking a bow and enjoying every minute of the violin is junior Emma Parker ready to play with her orchestra class.

"Thank you, seniors. You set the examples for all bandies to follow. We have really appreciated your leadership."

Tara Armstrong

"My most embarrassing moment was when my pants fell down to my ankles in the middle of the football field during senior night."

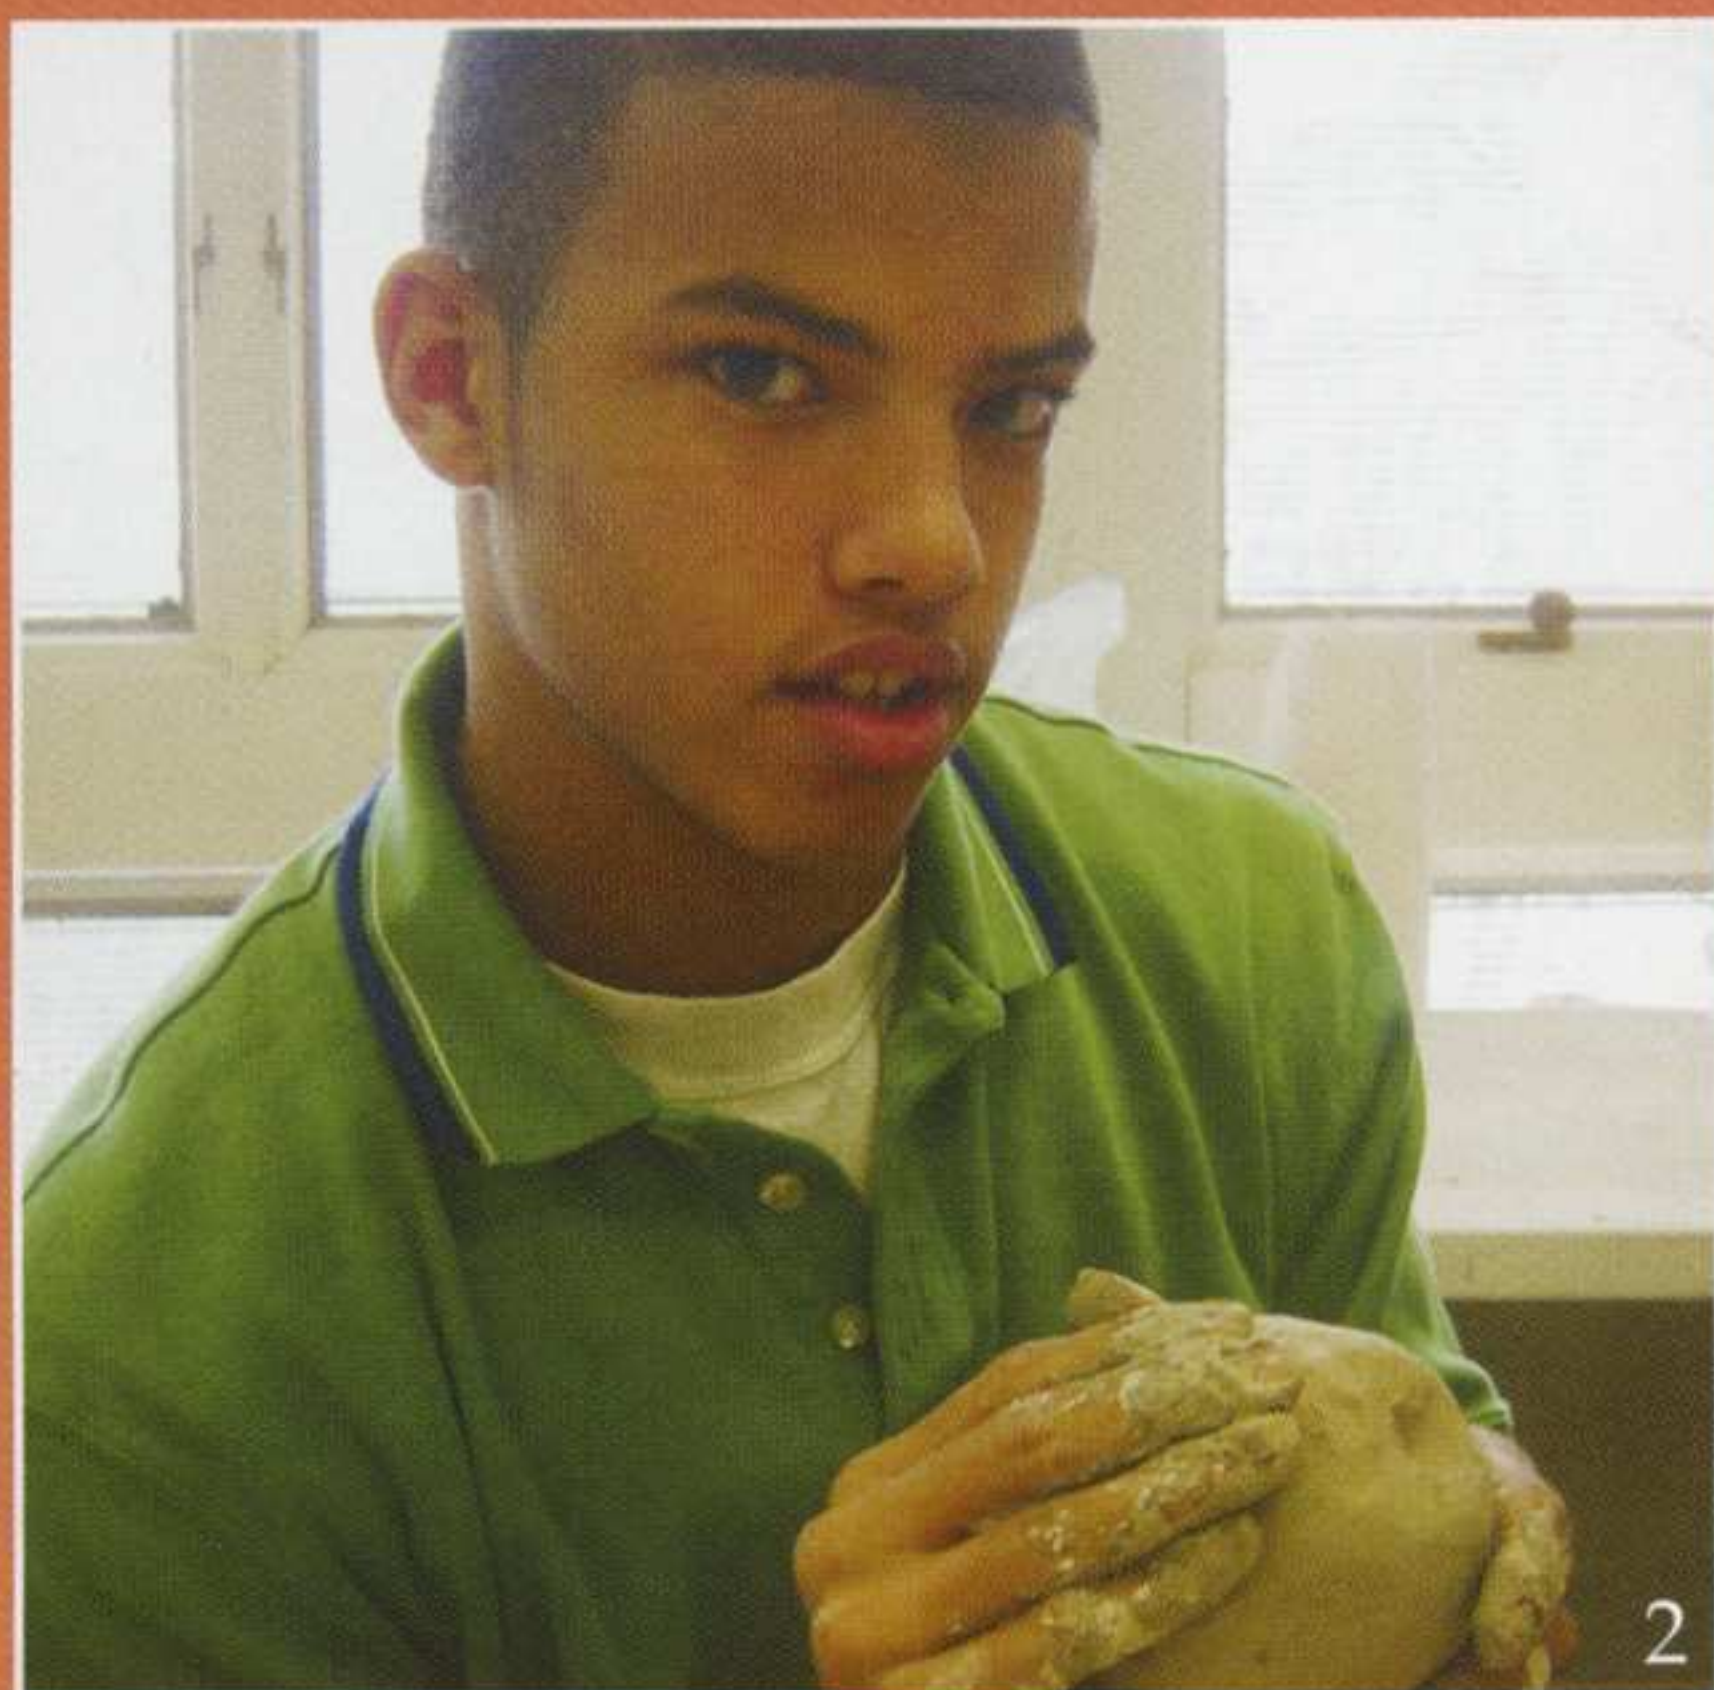

Ryan Parks

Taking a time out during their pep rally performance are AJ Hachtel and Jon Strawser. Keep playing, boys!

CHRIS ANDERSON - 12

"This class is fun, and I am learning how to draw. But the real reason I'm taking it is that I need an art credit to graduate."

MEGAN DENTJ - 9

"I love drawing. This class allows me to express myself everyday. Well, every B-day anyway!"

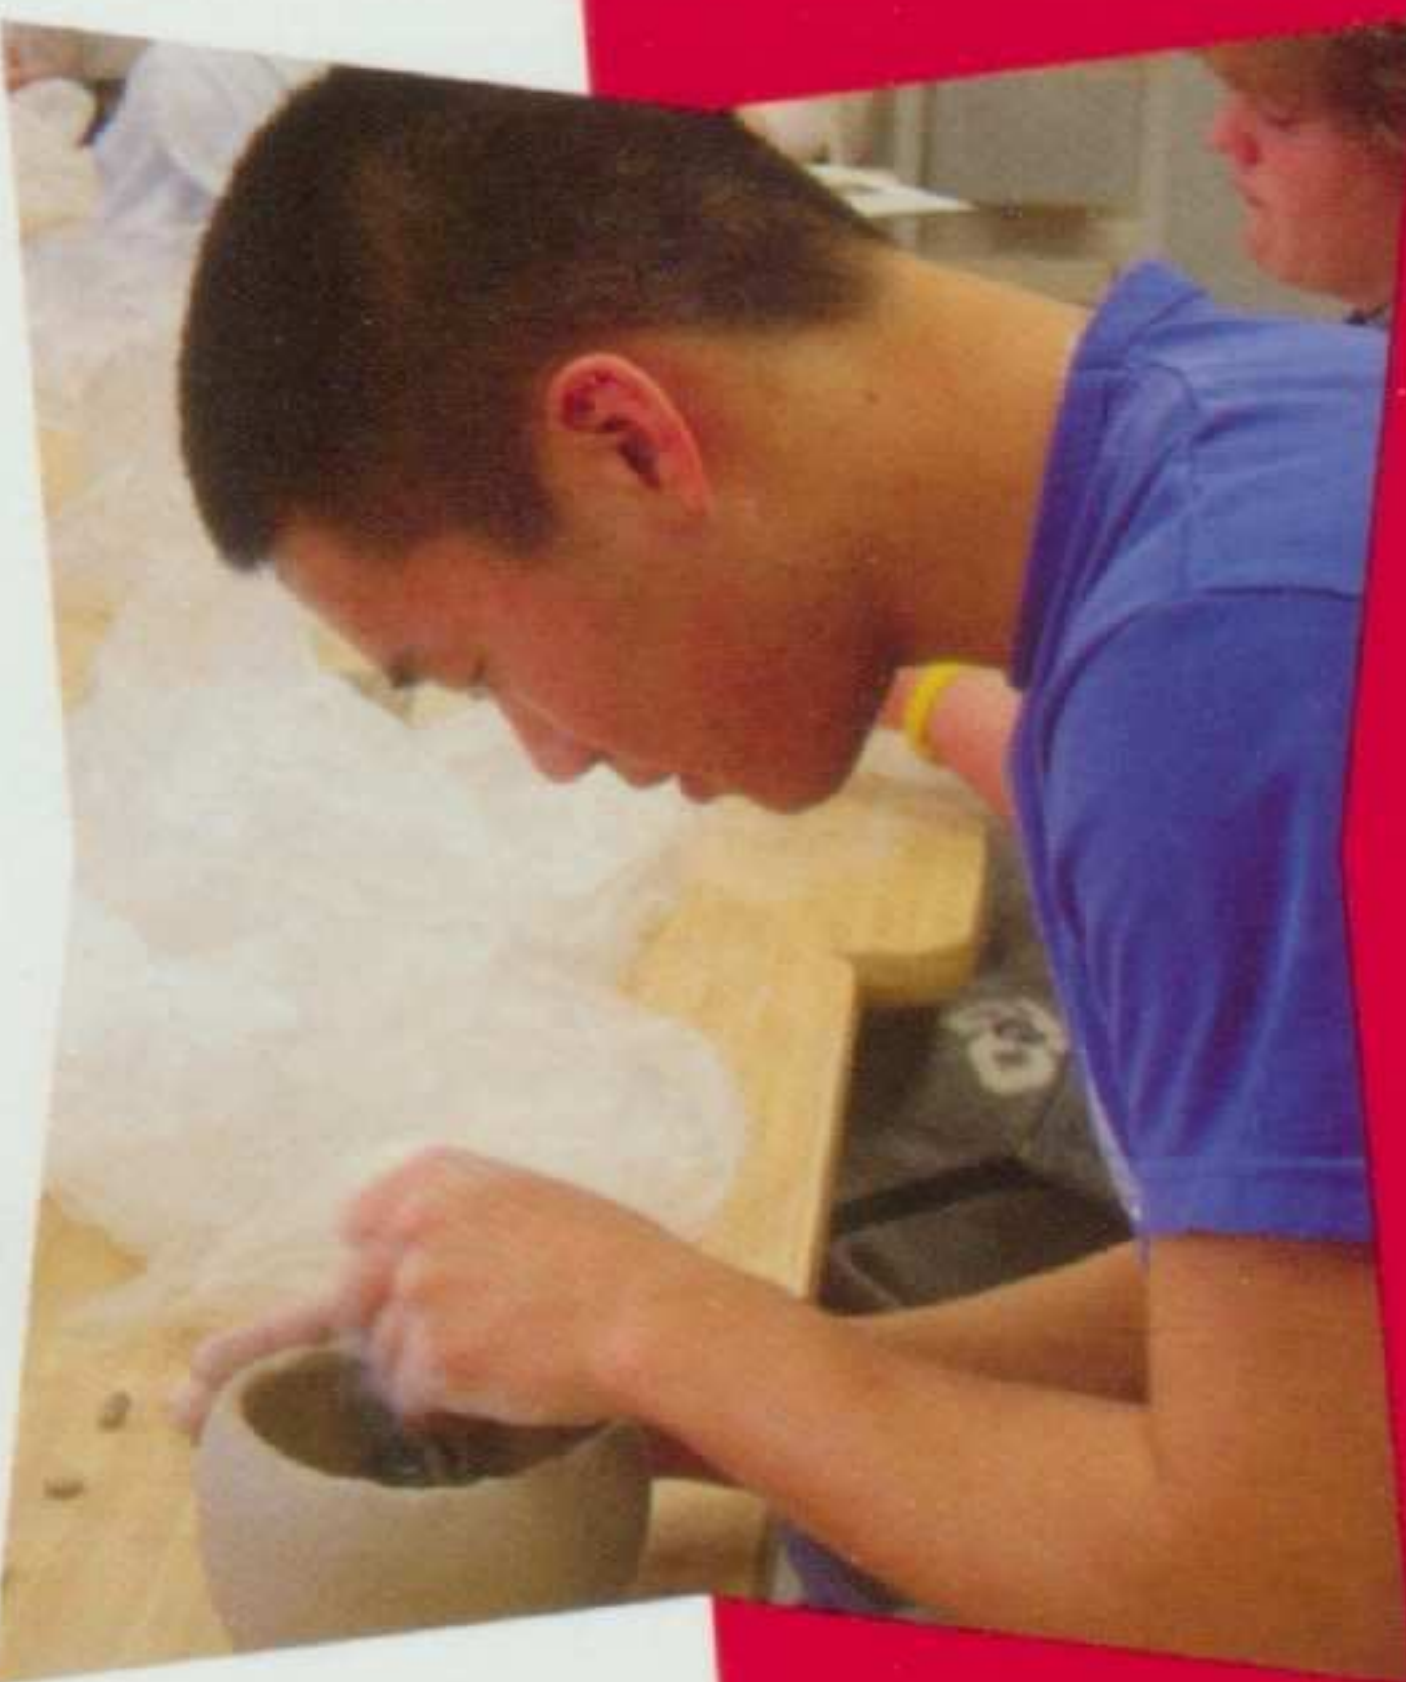

CHRIS HUNT - 12

"I love playing with clay. This class is so awesome because everyday we get to experiment with new things!"

BRITTANY SMYTH - 11

"This class is really fun. The people are great, especially Megghan Shelton, and I love Mrs. Woodrow!"

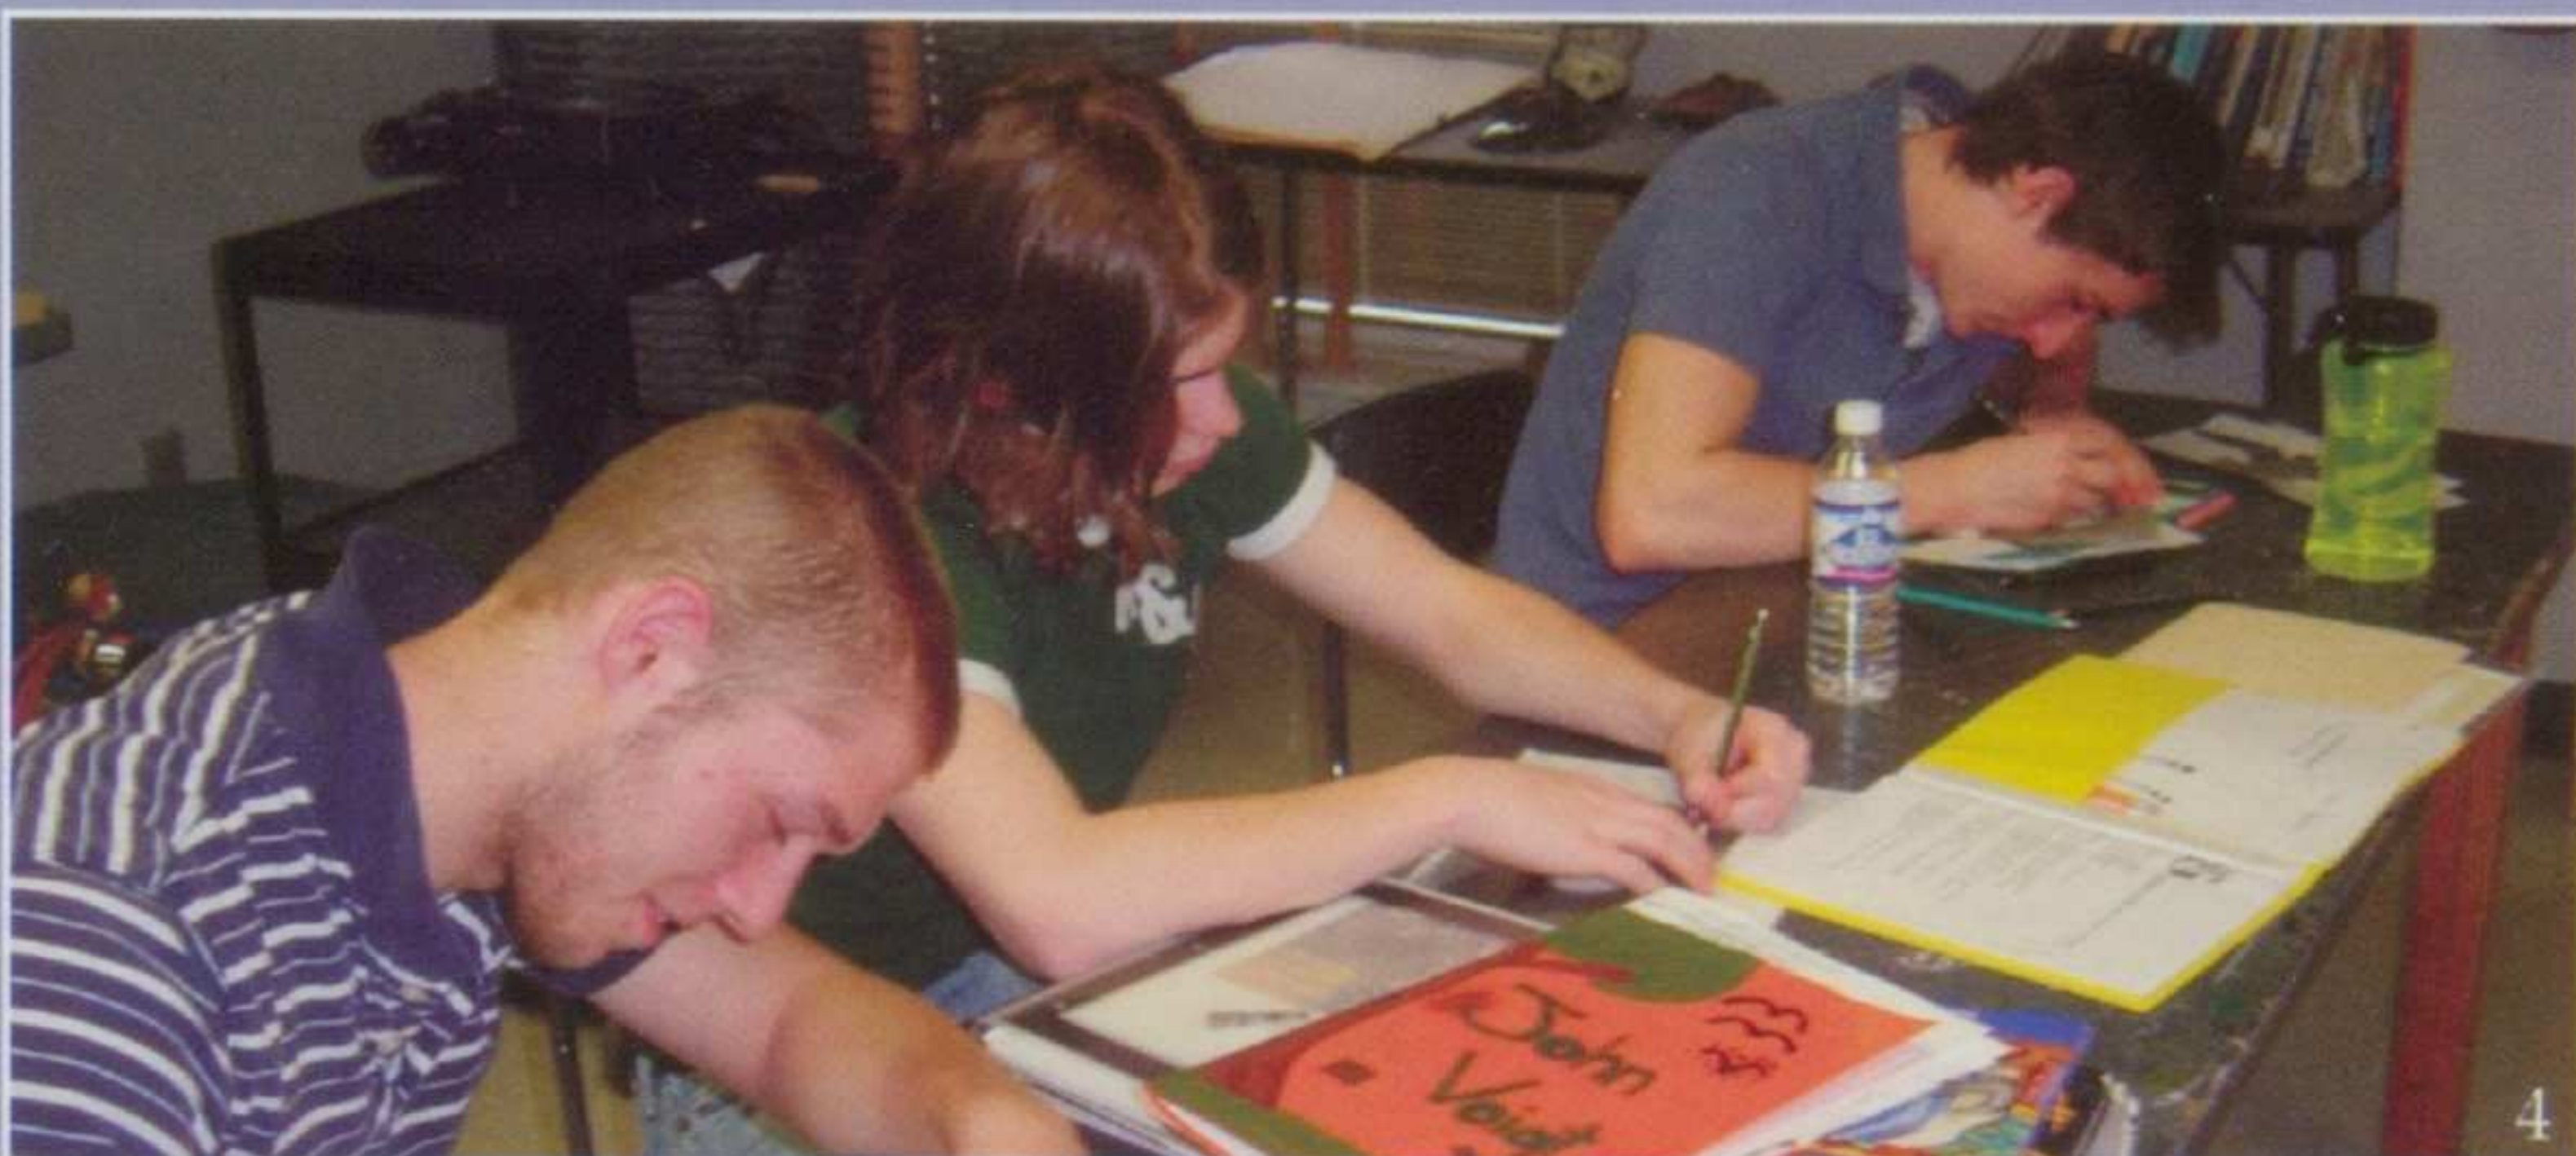

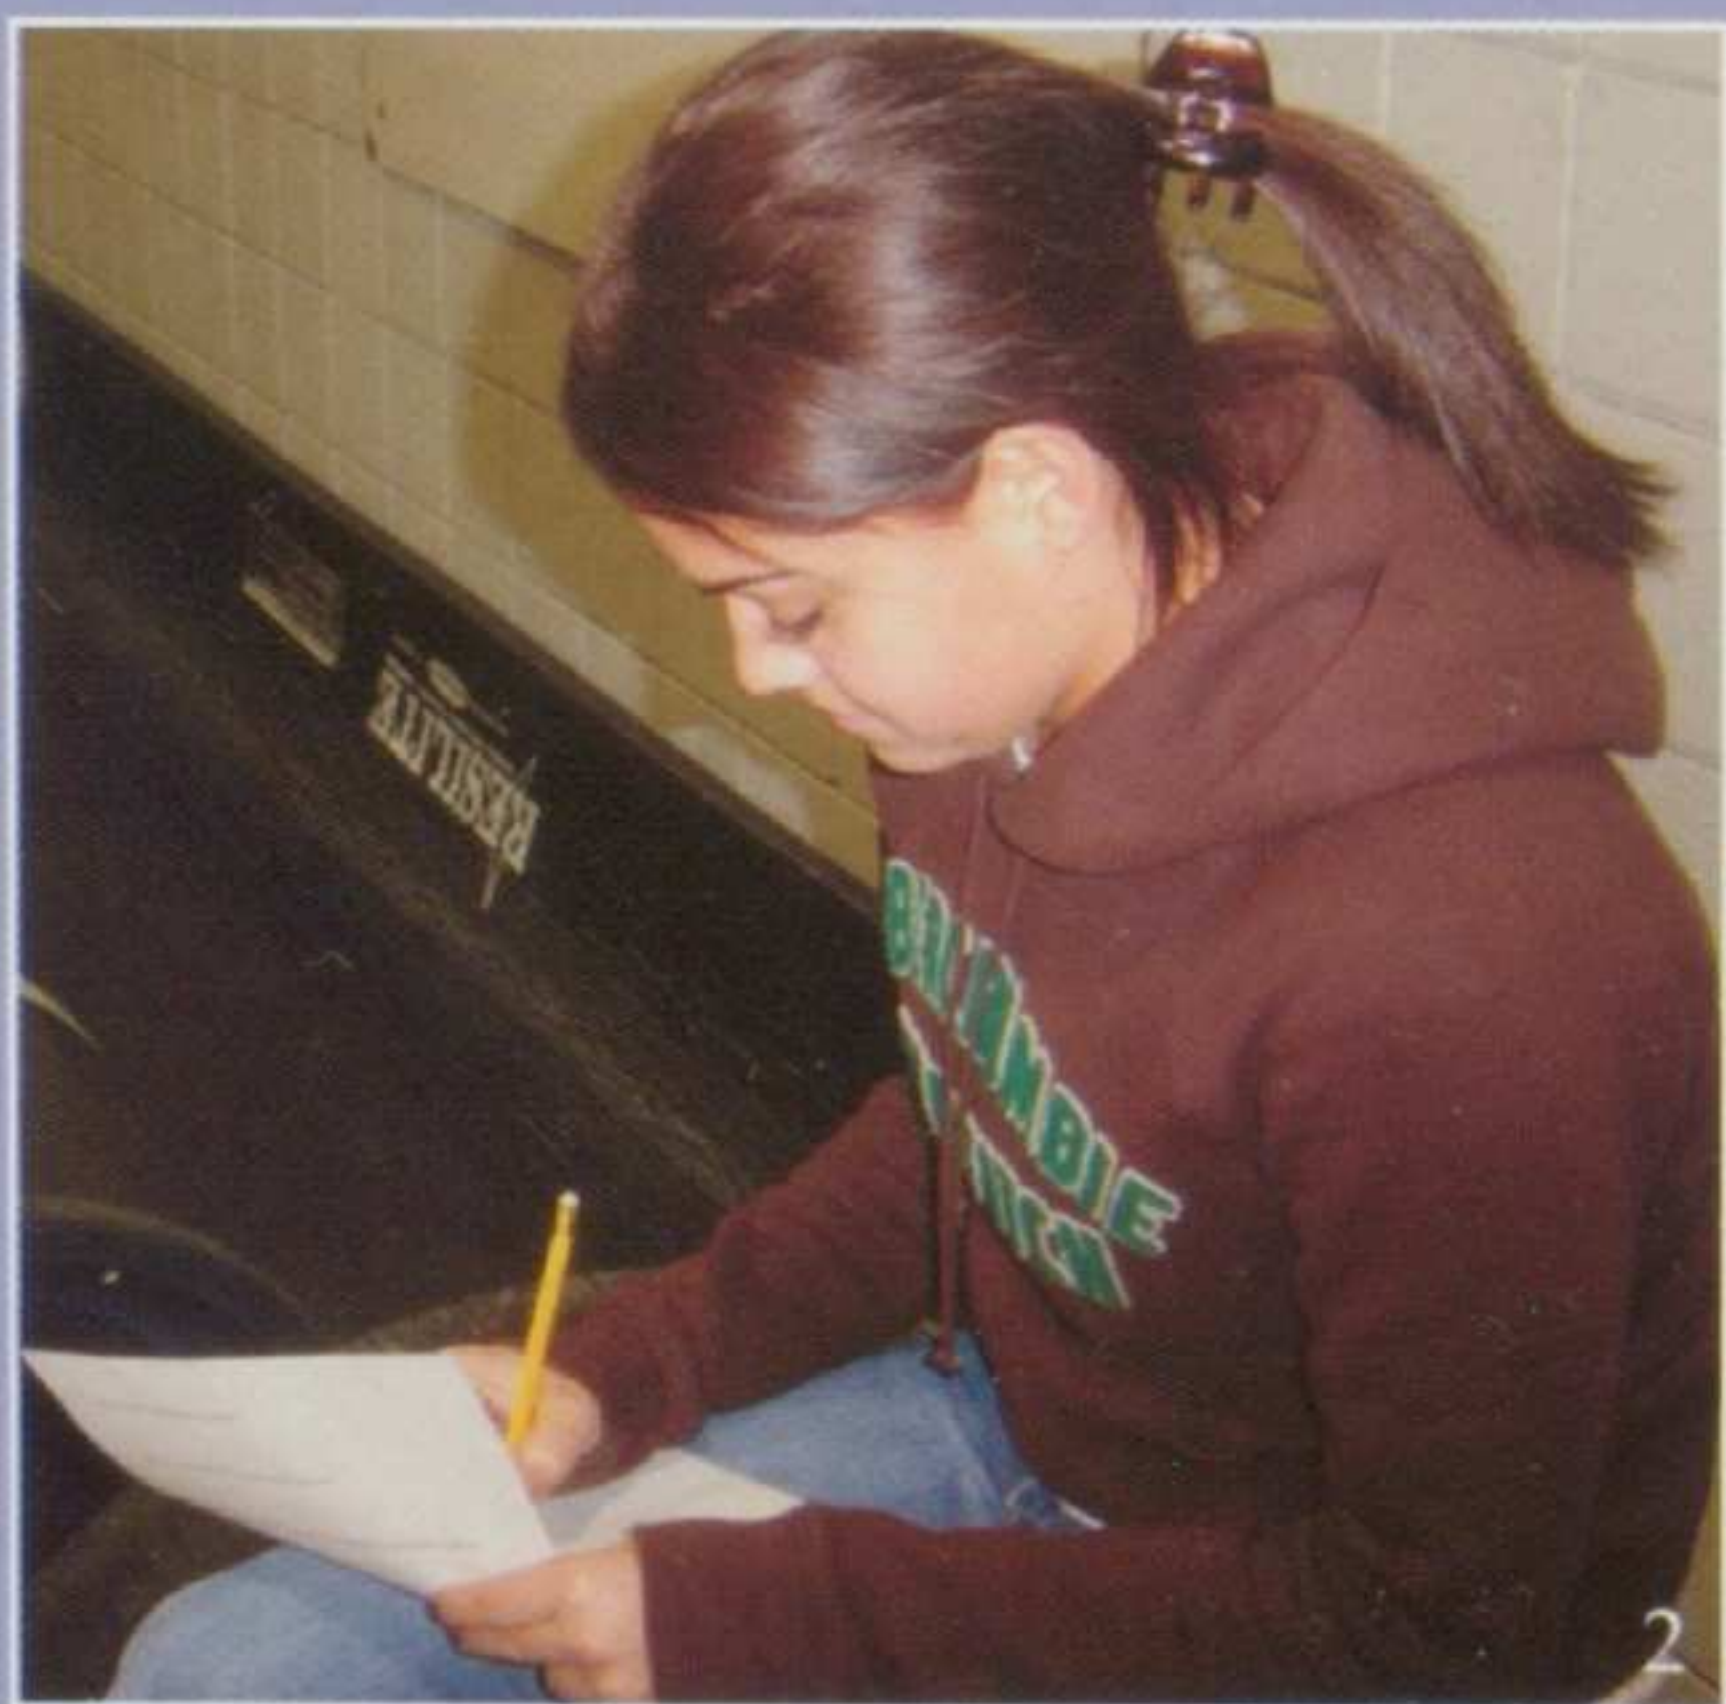

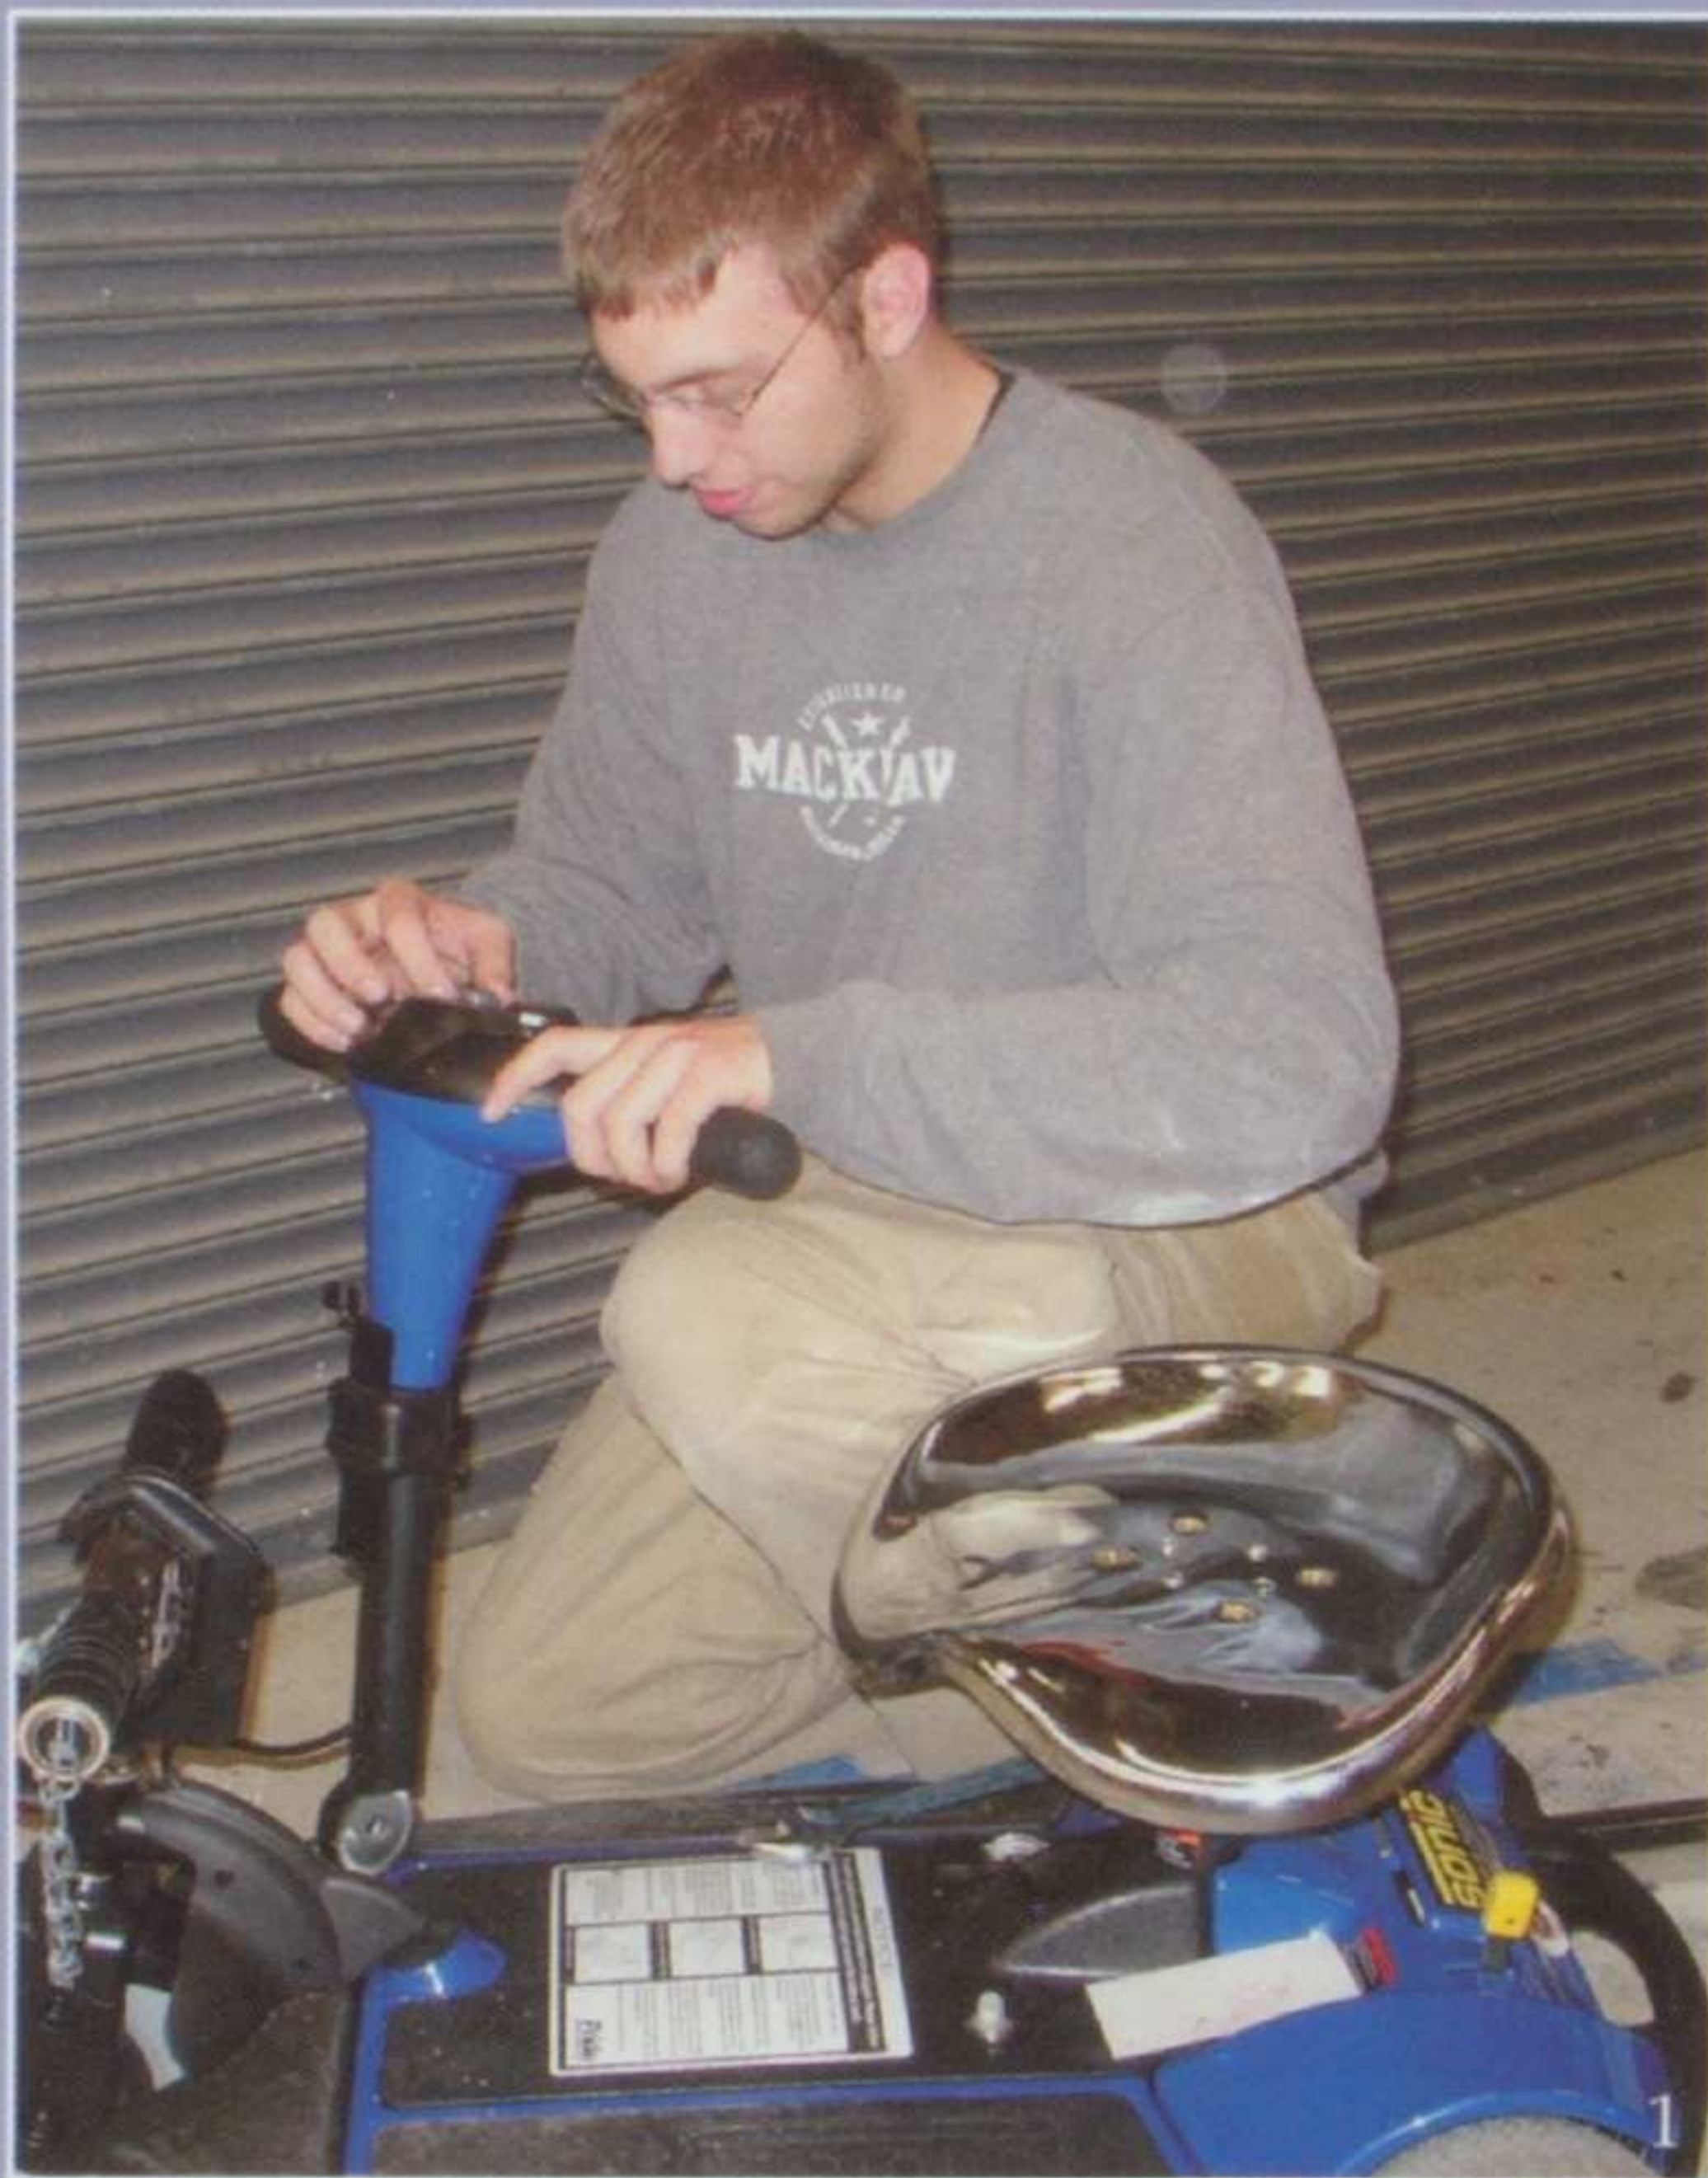

TJM LYN - 11

"Mrs. Woodrow is an awesome teacher. Ceramics is one of my favorite classes. I've learned so much about art, and I have a blast working with the clay."

Farkel!

Students take a chance by rolling the dice in order to find their hobby at school.

1 Constructing a prop for Suessical, the Musical. Chris Wilber tediously puts together the pieces for a bath tub on wheels.

2 Recording points in the statistics book, junior Evann Morgan works frantically to keep up with the fast-paced wrestling match.

3 Making sure all the football players are hydrated, athletic trainer Krysten Brown hands Brandon Welsh some water.

4 Besides sharing lacrosse, John Voight, Colin Igoe, and James Keaney find an after school hobby through Creative Mondays.

Discussing the biggest production of the year, Suessical the Musical, Mallory Long and Bianca Irving brainstorm creative ideas while attending the monthly meetings of the Thespian Society.

Showing off her ceramic skills, Kelli Crowder throws a spectacular pot for the Empty Bowl club. Empty Bowl encourages students to make as many bowls as possible in order to raise money for Childrens Hunger Alliance.

The Funk's M.V.P. Seth Payne takes it to the house in a crucial clutch play against the infamous Hustlers. Thanks to Seth's brilliant playing in the second half, the Funk topped the Hustlers, 69-5. Seth averaged 15 points a game and led the team in slam dunks. Even though he didn't take his team to the championship, he played his heart out and is a hero to everyone.

MELISSA JONES - 10

"We had a lot of fun this year. I was given the opportunity to experience varying degrees of injuries. It was a really difficult but rewarding year. I can not wait for some more great times next year!"

BEN MOONEY - 12

"I had so much fun over the years participating in our plays. All the cast members are close friends, and it's always a good time when we are all together."

LAZIREN ANDRICK - 12

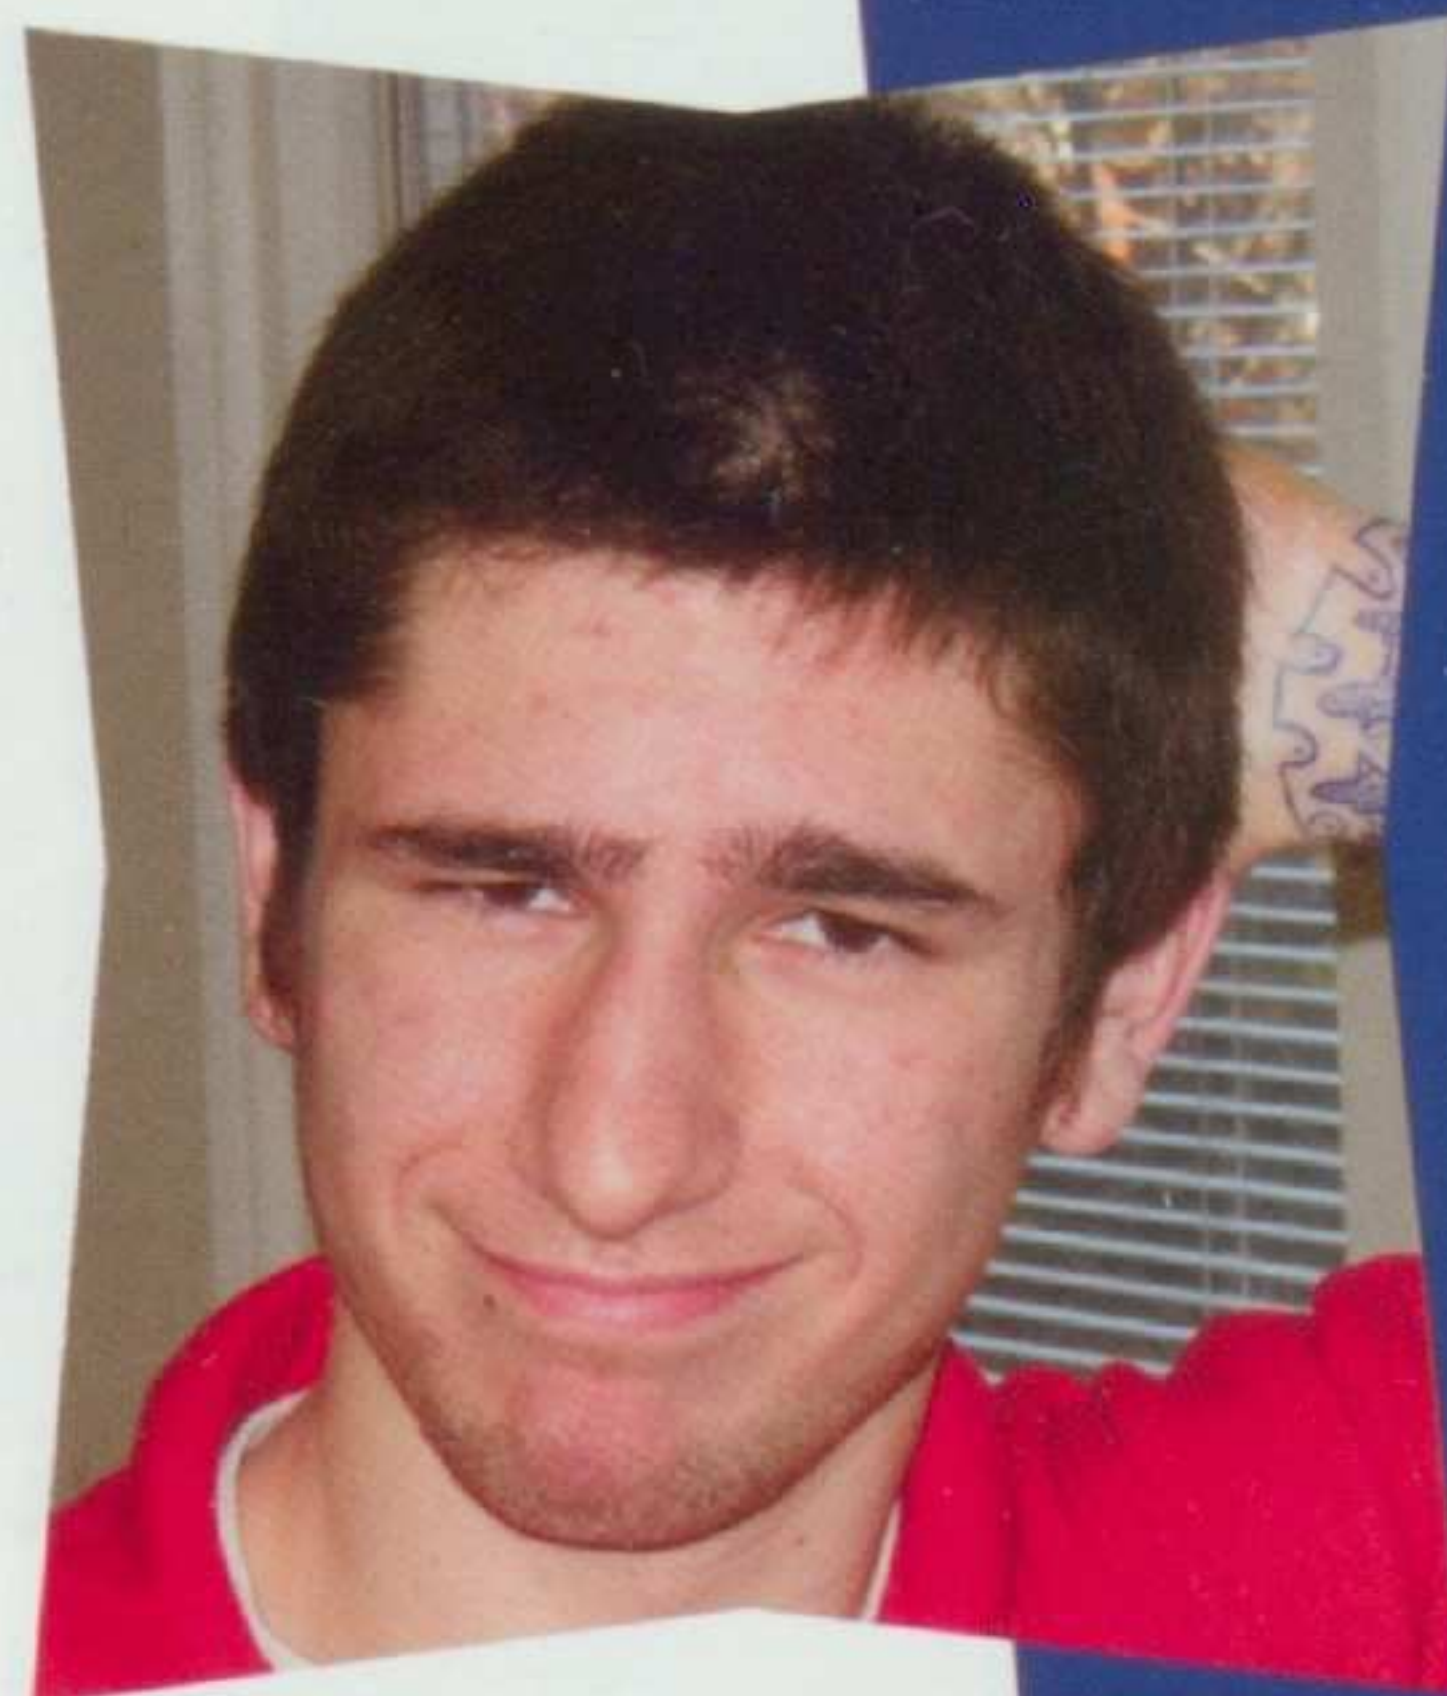

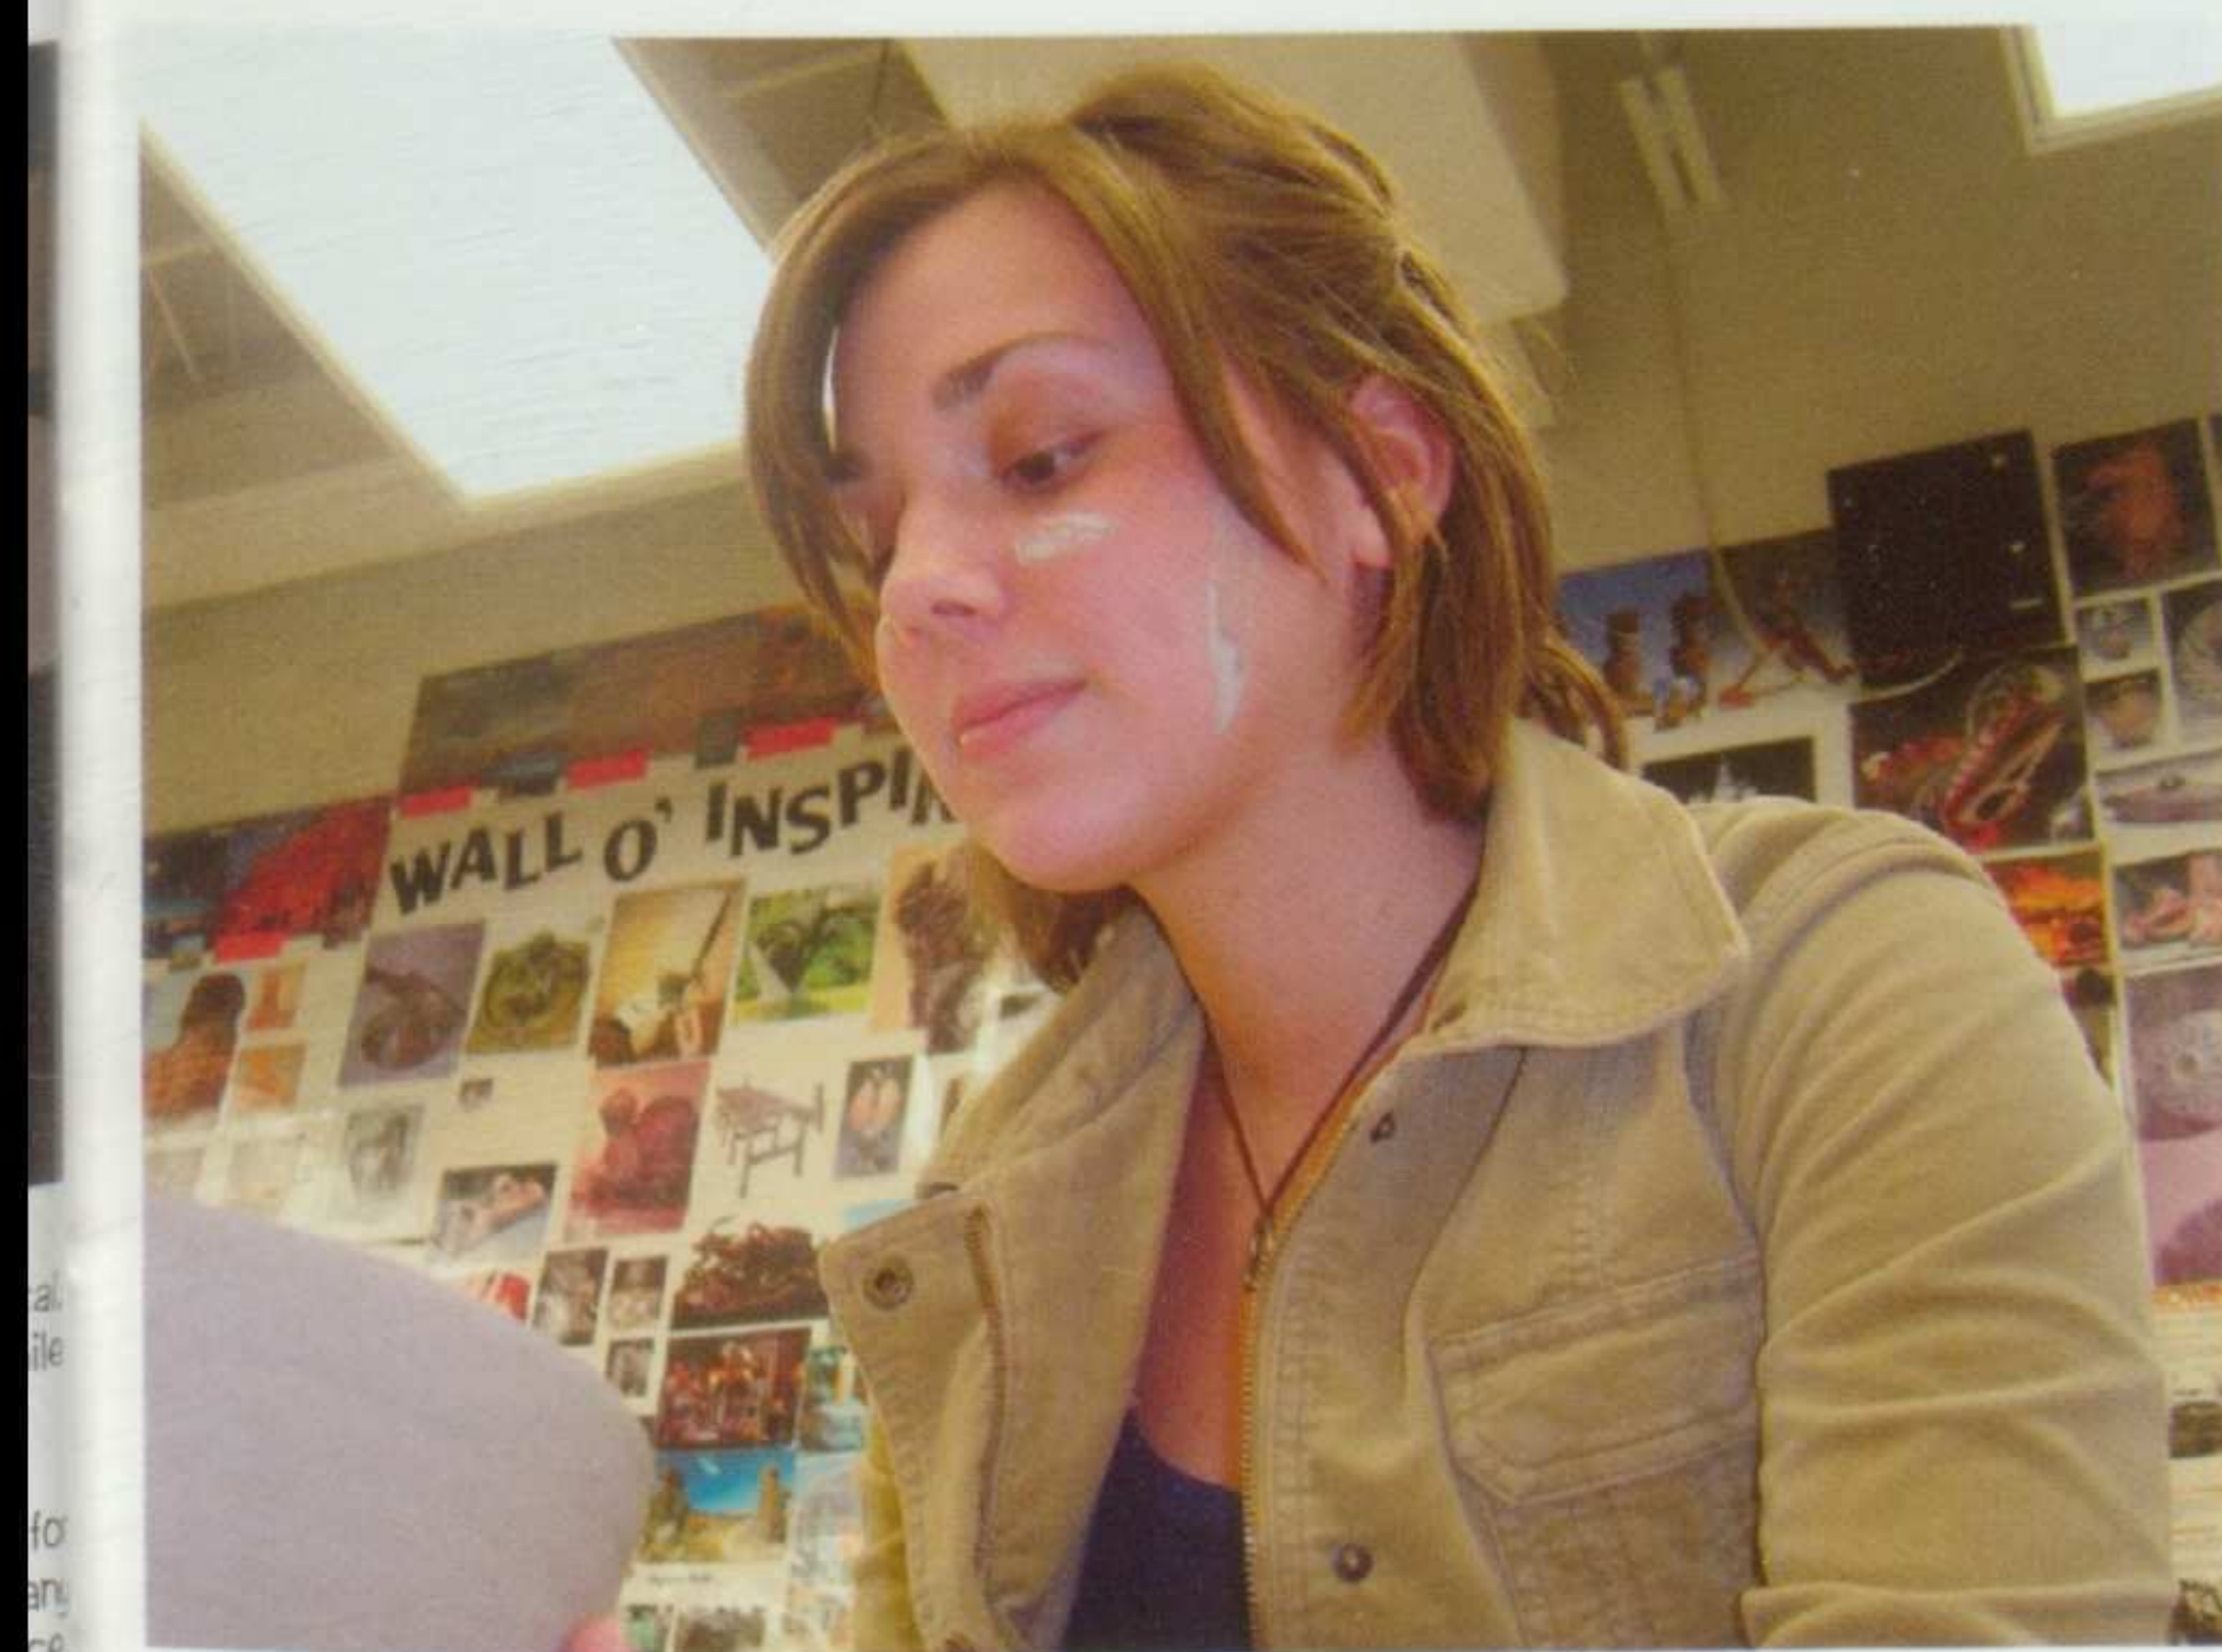

"Creative Mondays allows me to express myself in many different and unique ways. I get to hang out with my friends while making cool crafts. It gives me something to look forward to every week."

KELLY MATKAS - 11

"My brother was involved in wrestling, which helped spark my interest in the sport. I loved helping out the team. All the guys are really nice and dedicated to their talent."

SAM NEWMAN - 12

"I love pottery crew because it helps cure diseases, helps the needy, and promotes world peace. I also feel good when I throw a pot that everyone thinks is awesome! Hopefully, I will have time to continue my ceramic skills during college."

SADUF ZULLAKH - 11

"My best memory of Student Forum was the Activities Fair. I had fun giving tours to the incoming freshmen."

SARAH GRANTAM - 12

"Empty Bowl was my favorite Key Club activity because it was so fun painting bowls, and we made $1000 for the Children's Hunger Alliance. It was our biggest project of the year."

CAITLSEY JOHNSON - 9

"The most rewarding part of Reach is that the kids make me feel great, and Jackie makes me laugh."

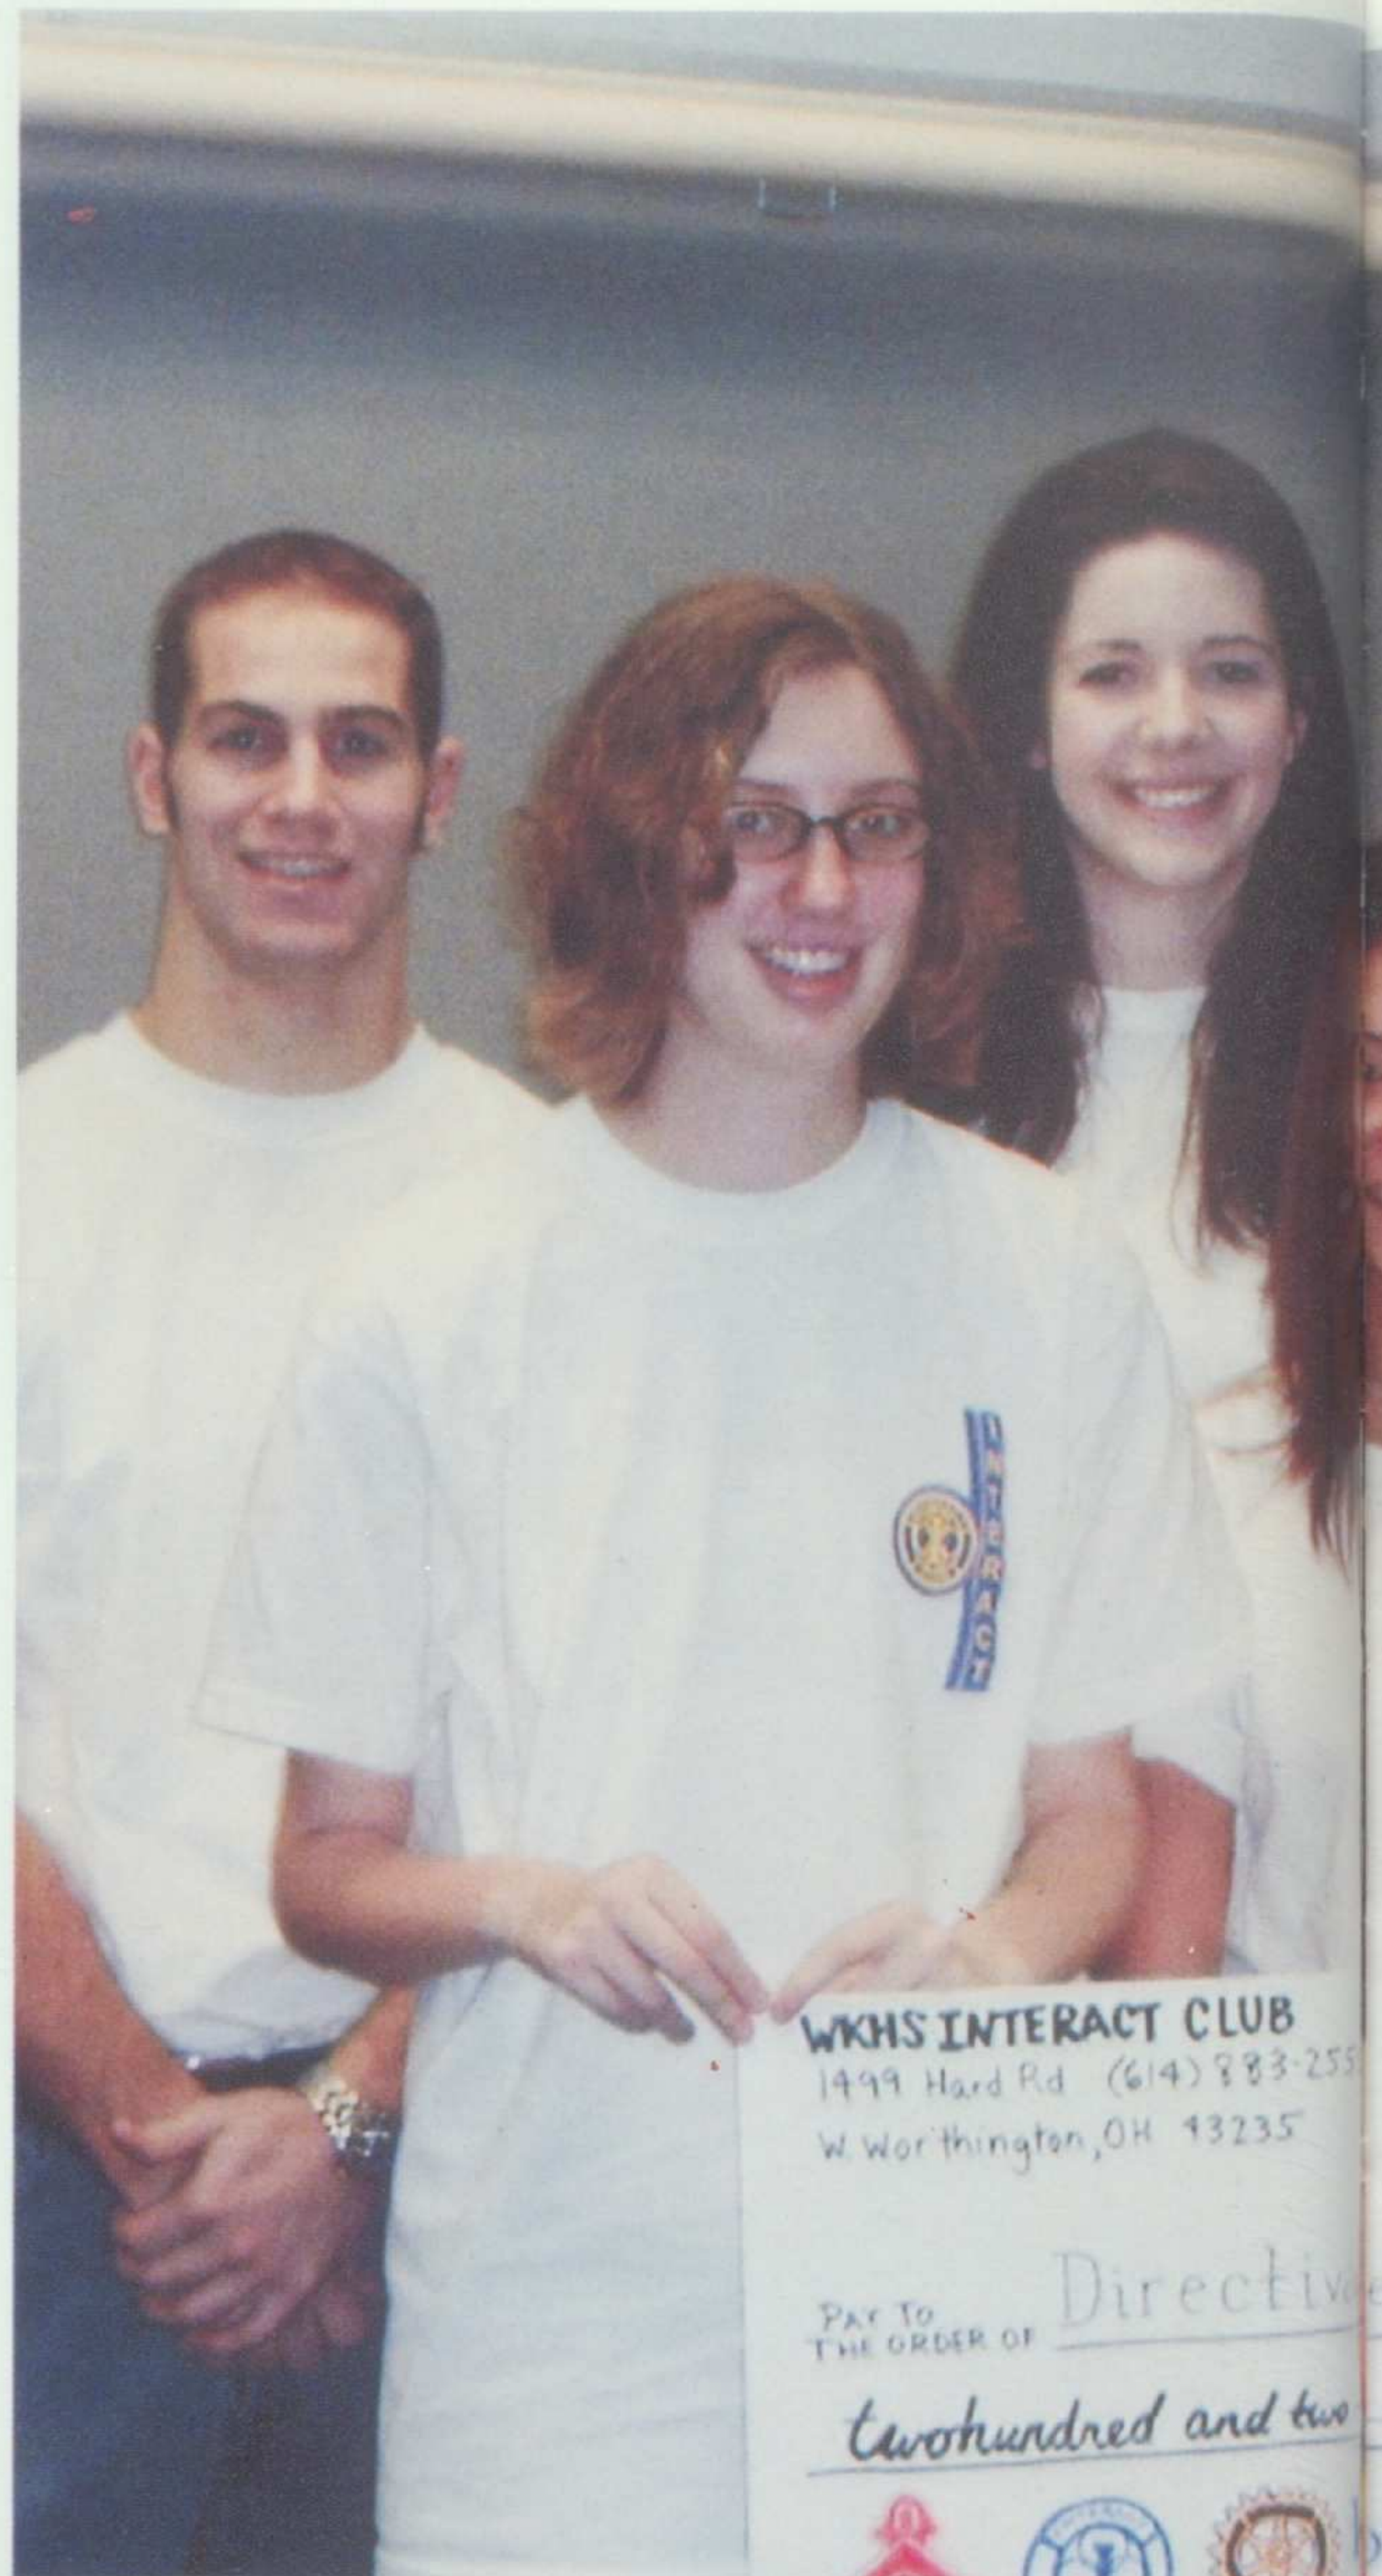

BECCA EBJONG - 10

"I always look forward to going to Fellowship of Christian Students because there is no better way to start my day than with God and fellow christians."

Interact's Bill Mauro, Jackie Best, Rachel Johnston, Carol Lee, and Pam Skehan have a ball Bowling for Books for a worthy cause. Along with the rest of Interact, they raised over $200 for Directiva de Aproveche, a new children's library in the Dominican Republic. Is there any better cause than a child's education?

Hanging out with great kids... is there any better way to start my day? Sarah Peterson and her Wolves for Cubs buddy, Corrine, like to play "Guess Who" in their free time.

Helping the world and helping others to be informed is rewarding for Alyssa Gliatas, Nicole Green, Mindy Powell, and Ashley Seidensticker. They are working hard to make signs for Global Aid's first Culture Fest.

1 Brainstorming. Carla Muller focuses on Student Forum's activity fair which helps next year's freshmen learn about what WKHS offers.

2 At Roots and Shoots spaghetti night held to raise money for tsunami victims, Courtney Rutledge serves hungry guests.

3 Excited during Freshmen Day skits that encourage freshmen to join SSAPP, Lauren Jaffe resorts to her wacky but lovable behavior.

4 Reach members Ryan Jacobs, Alyse Schwartz, and Joey Spadafora, take a break from playing an exciting game.

CARLY MILLON

"I feel more comfortable here. Everybody knows each other."

MONICA RODRIGUEZ

"I have more responsibilities with more freedom."

SARAH JOHNSON

"Small community ...size really makes a difference. Everybody respects each other."

CRISTA MCCORMACK

"The teachers treat us more like people. we are not only students to them."

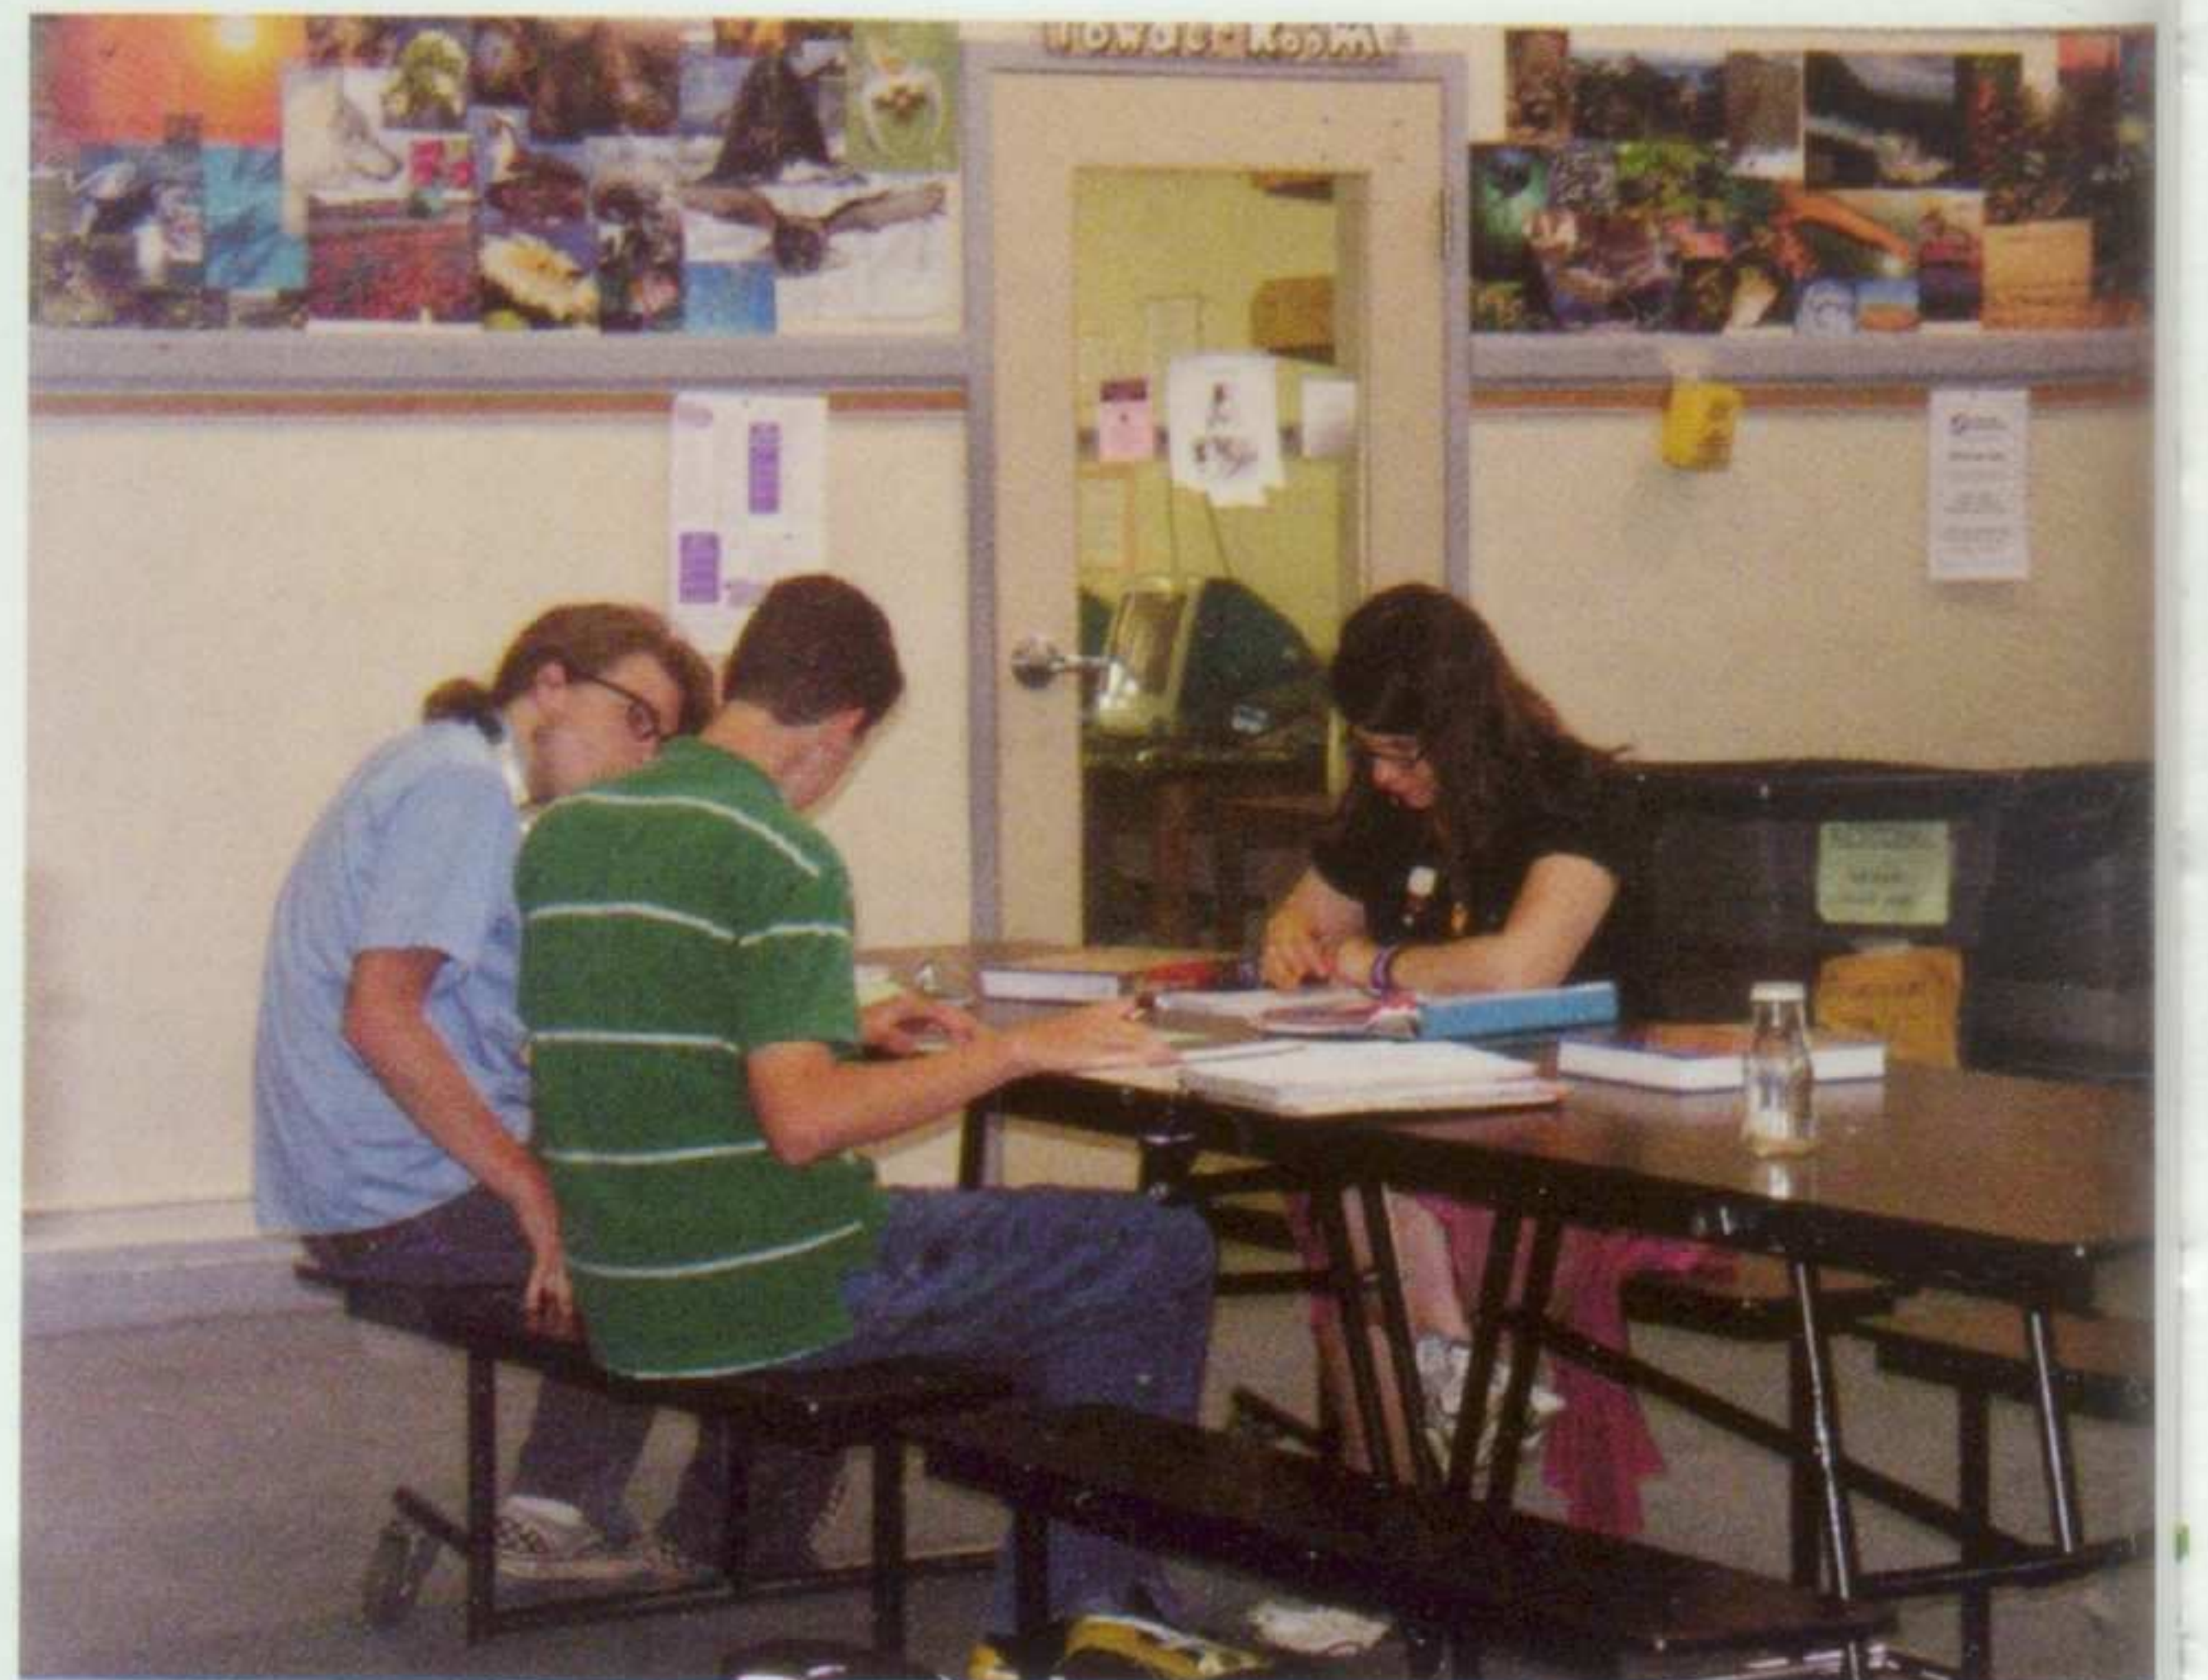

MICHAELA STURJANO

"I have a lot more freedom, and I feel that the teachers trust me more. I'm not being hovered over."

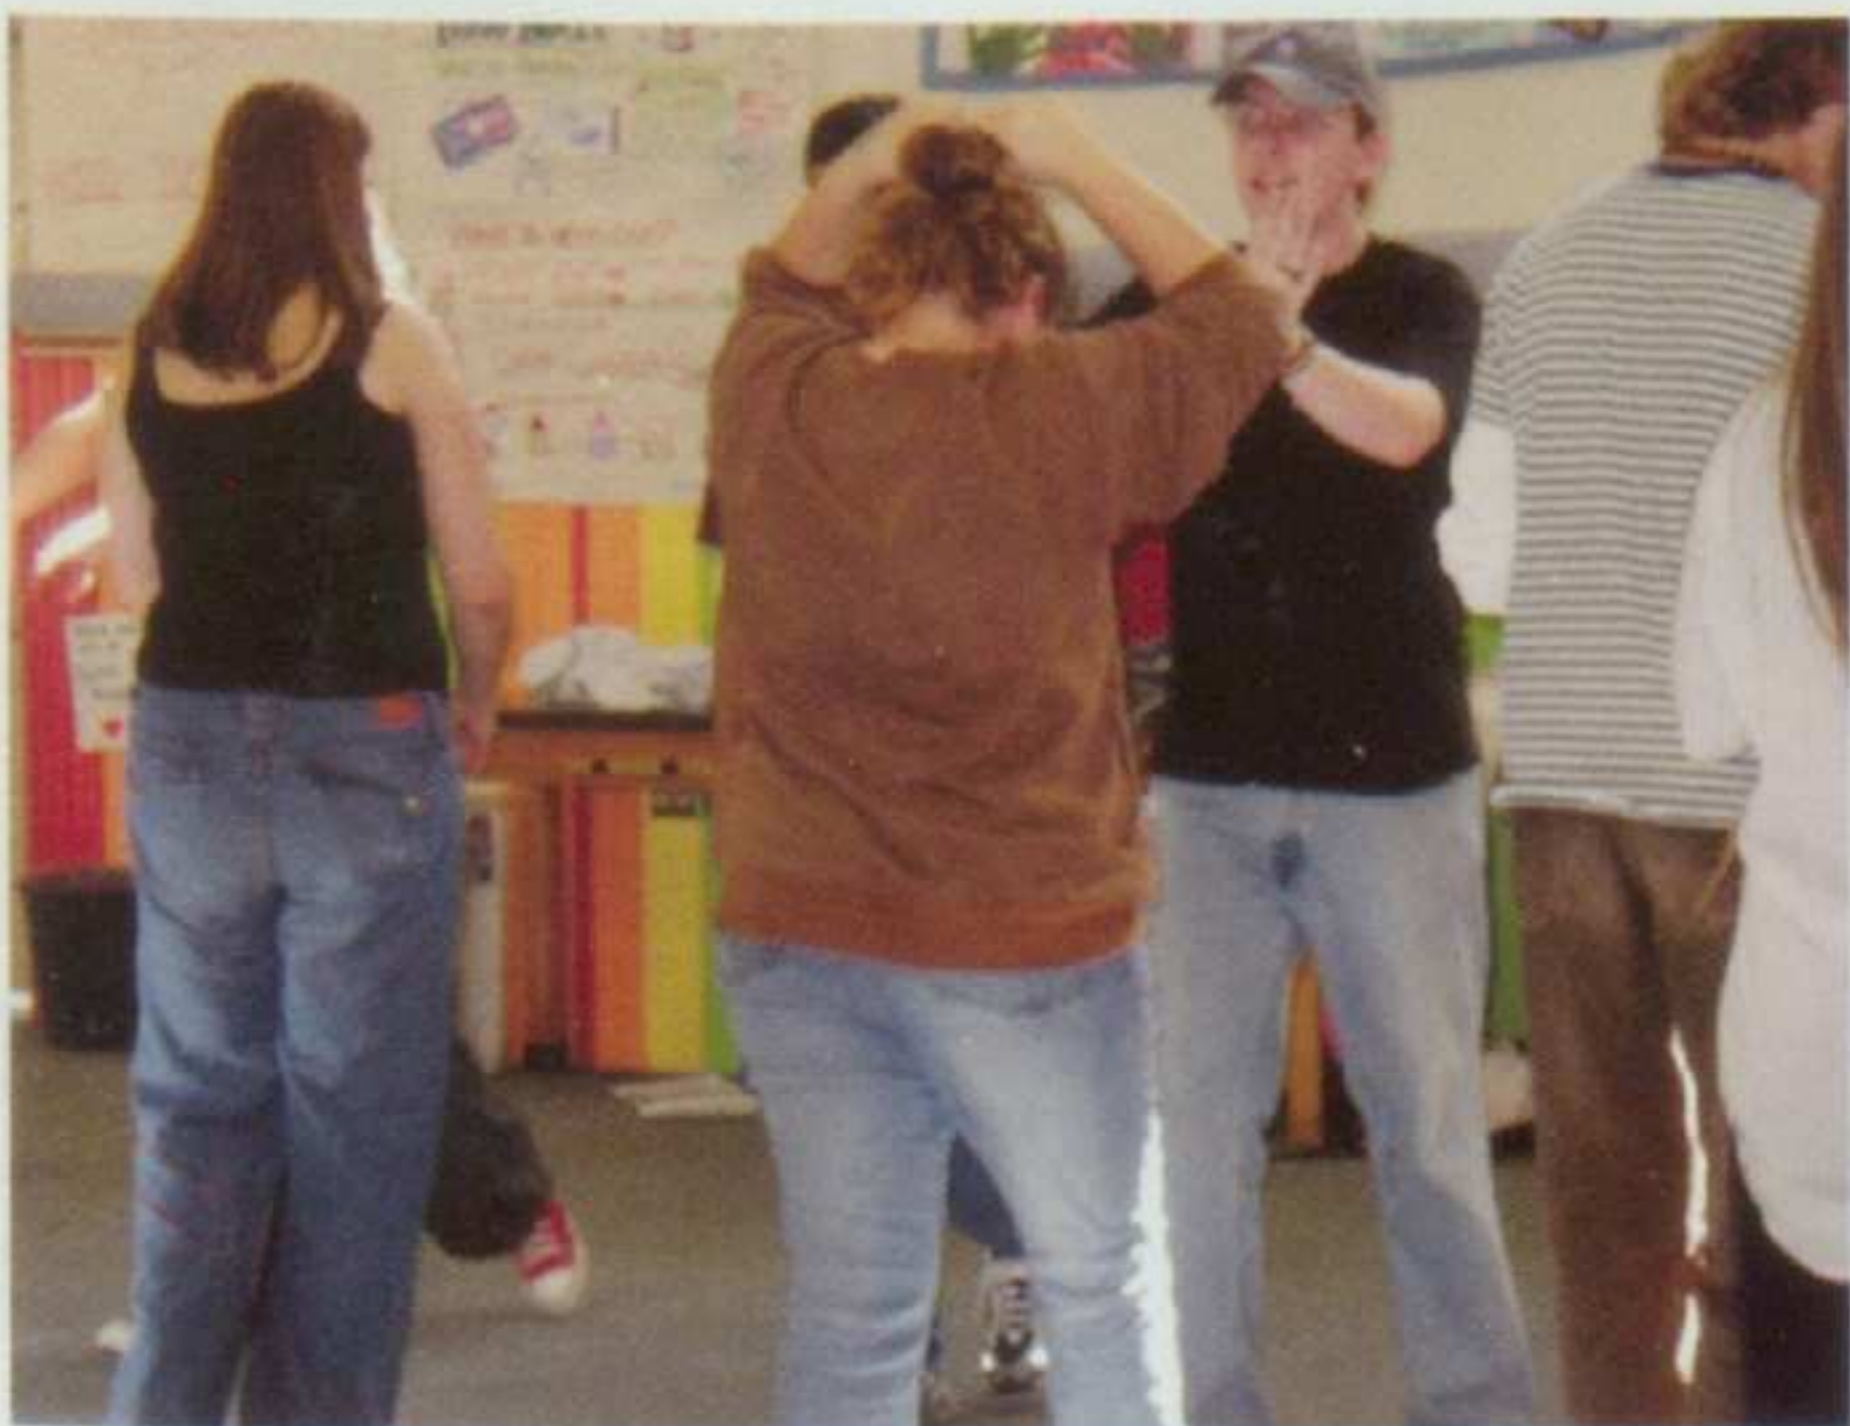

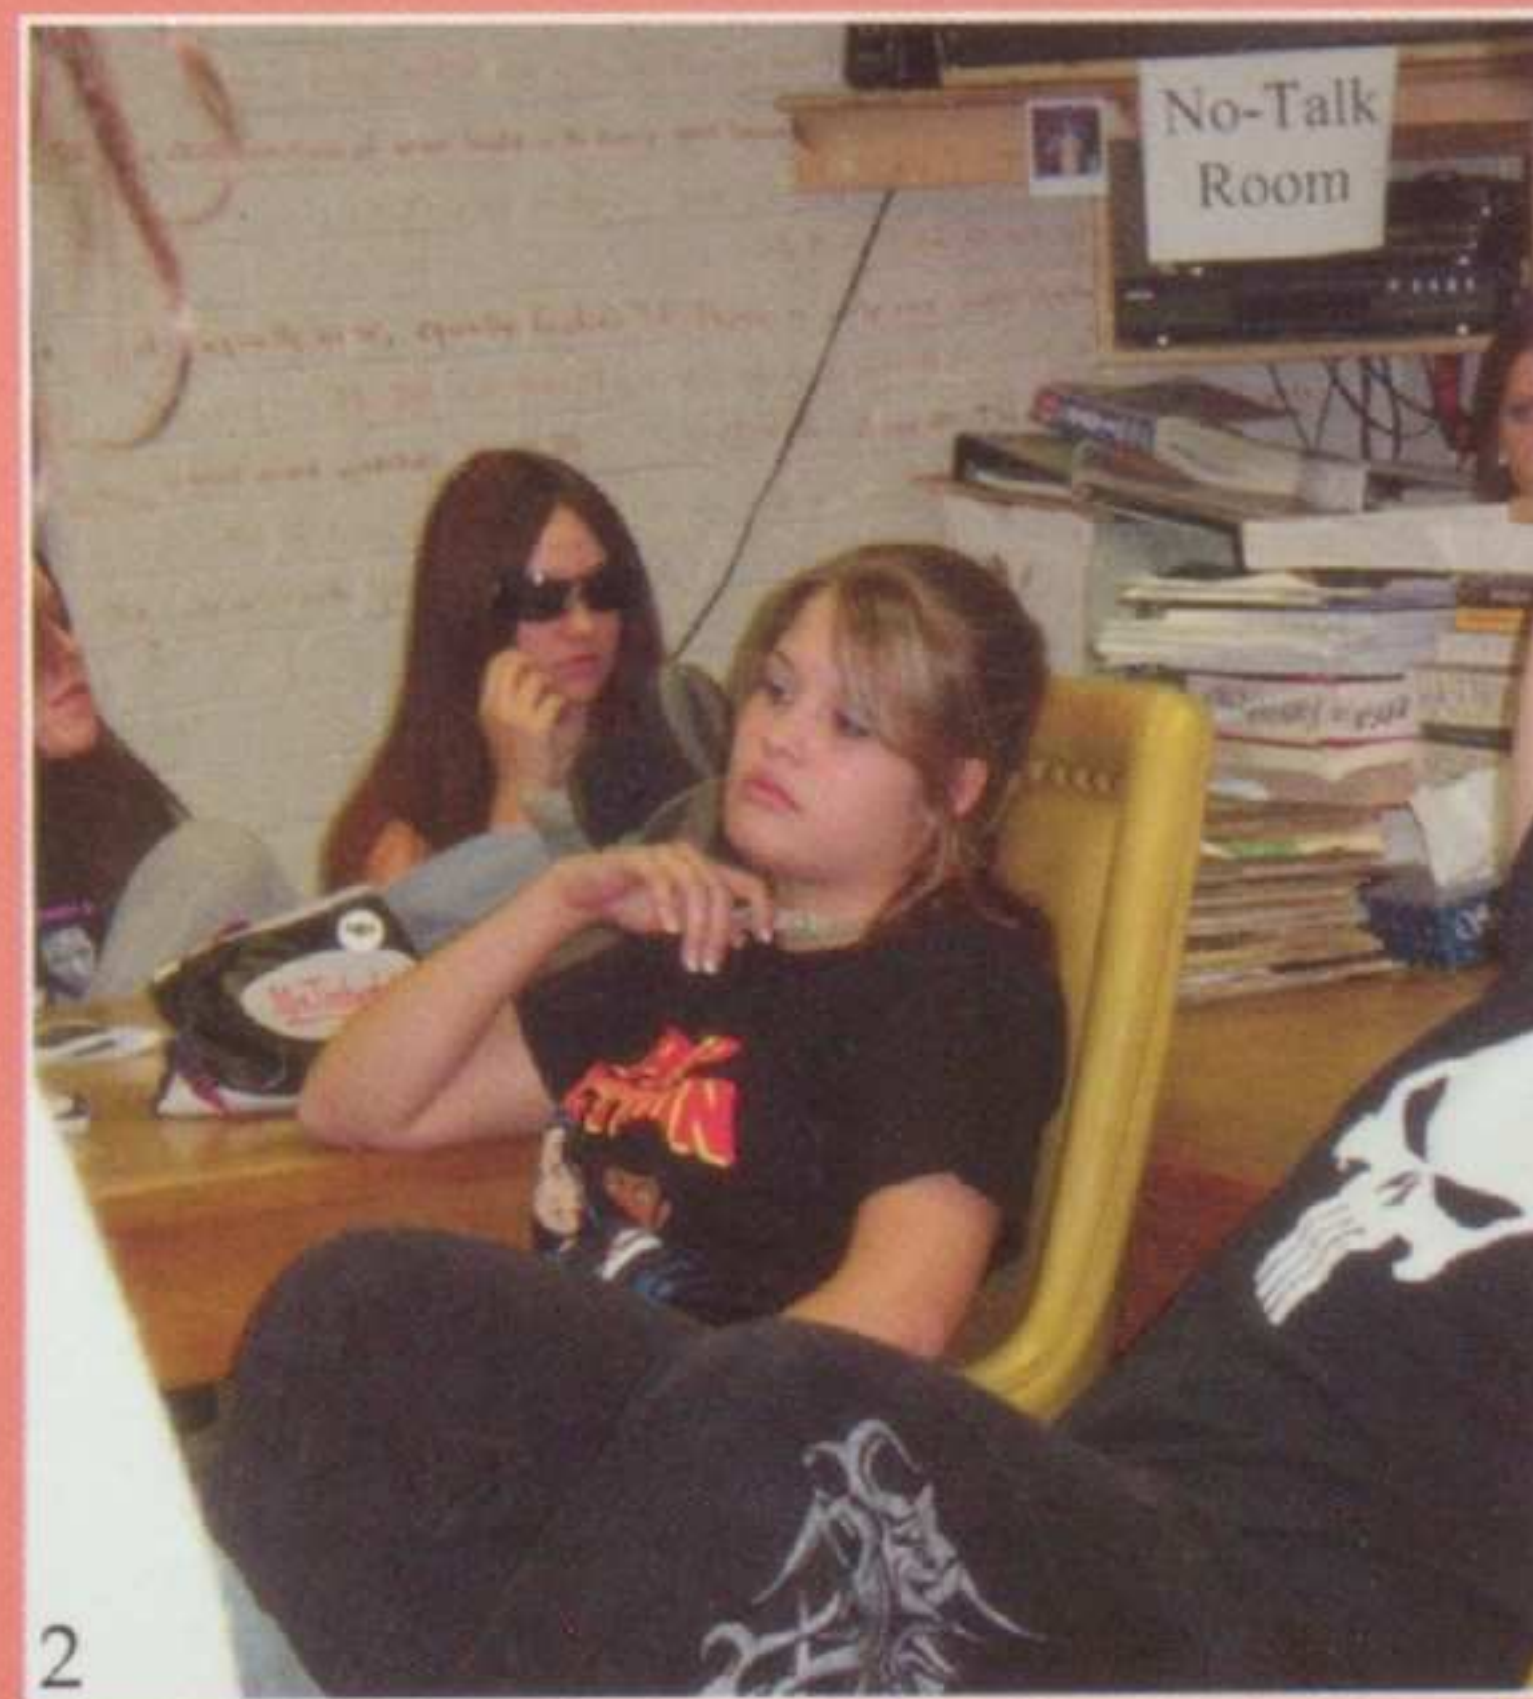

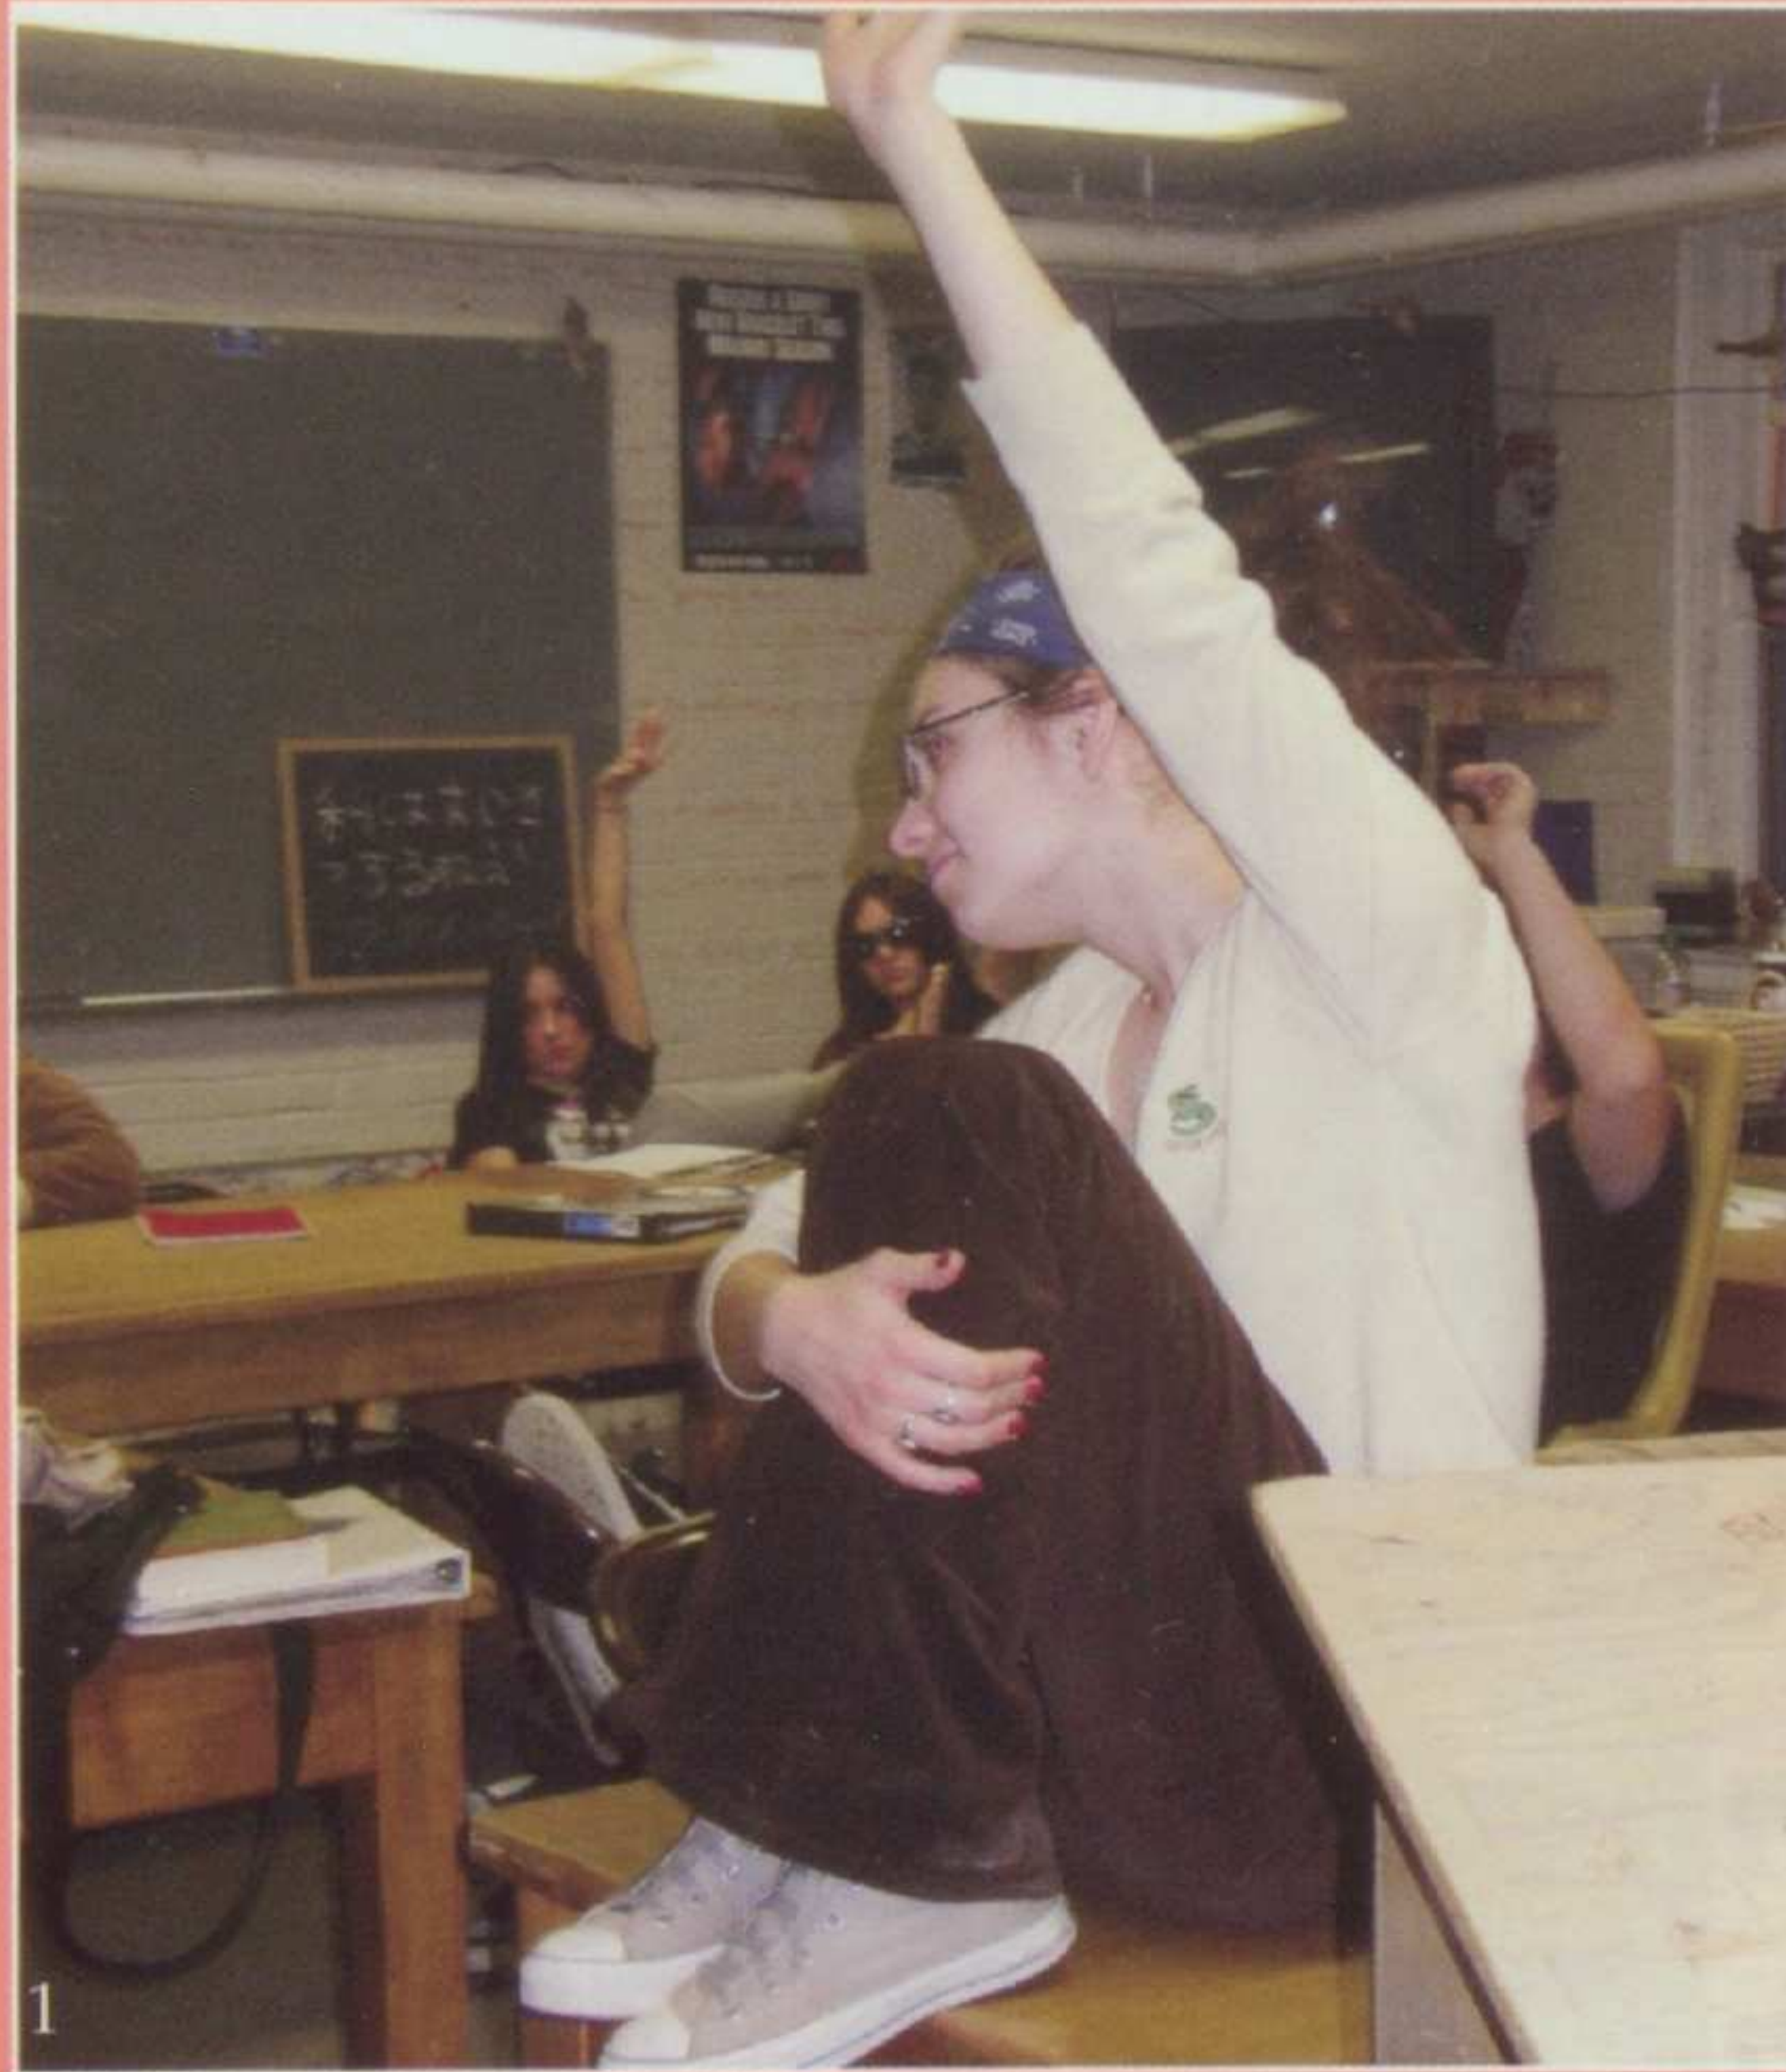

Linworth teacher Chris Hasebrook explains class materials to students Ande Bell, Keegan Murphy, and Frederik Vielhaber.

BrainQuest

Learning is not just all about the books.

The biggest benefit of Linworth is the different approach to learning. This English class seems to be enjoying themselves during a class activity.

Students can often be seen doing their homework or even cramming in some last minute studying just before class.

1 Eager to answer a question is senior Ali Weida.

2 Kelsey Walton, a senior, appears to be highly entertained during class.

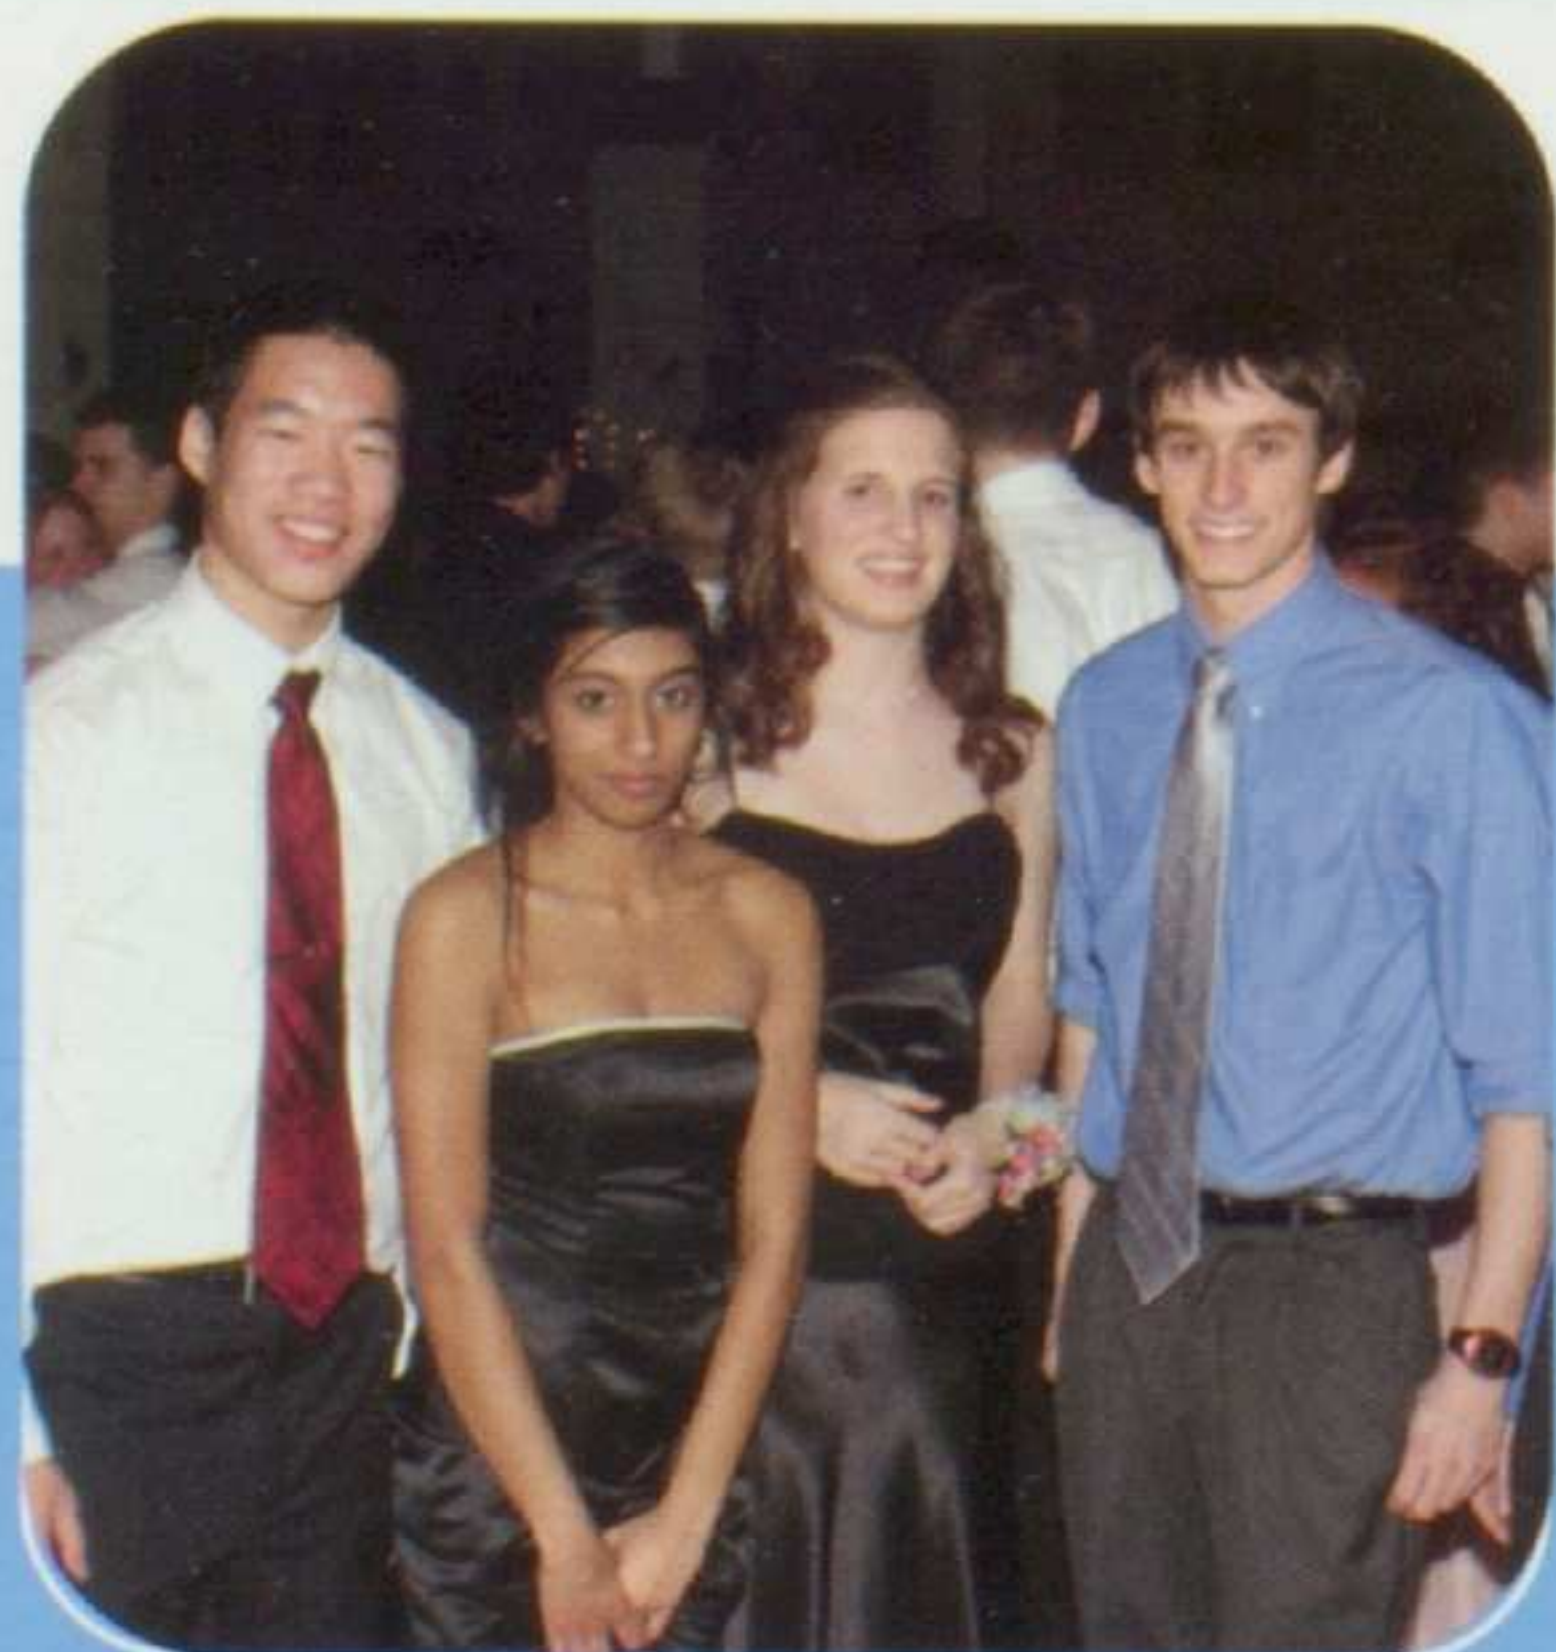

3 Taking some time to relax and goof around between classes are Liz Holsinger and Carly Million.

Jingle Jam

Keeping with the reputation of her family name, Katie Belton is struttin' her stuff on the dance floor.

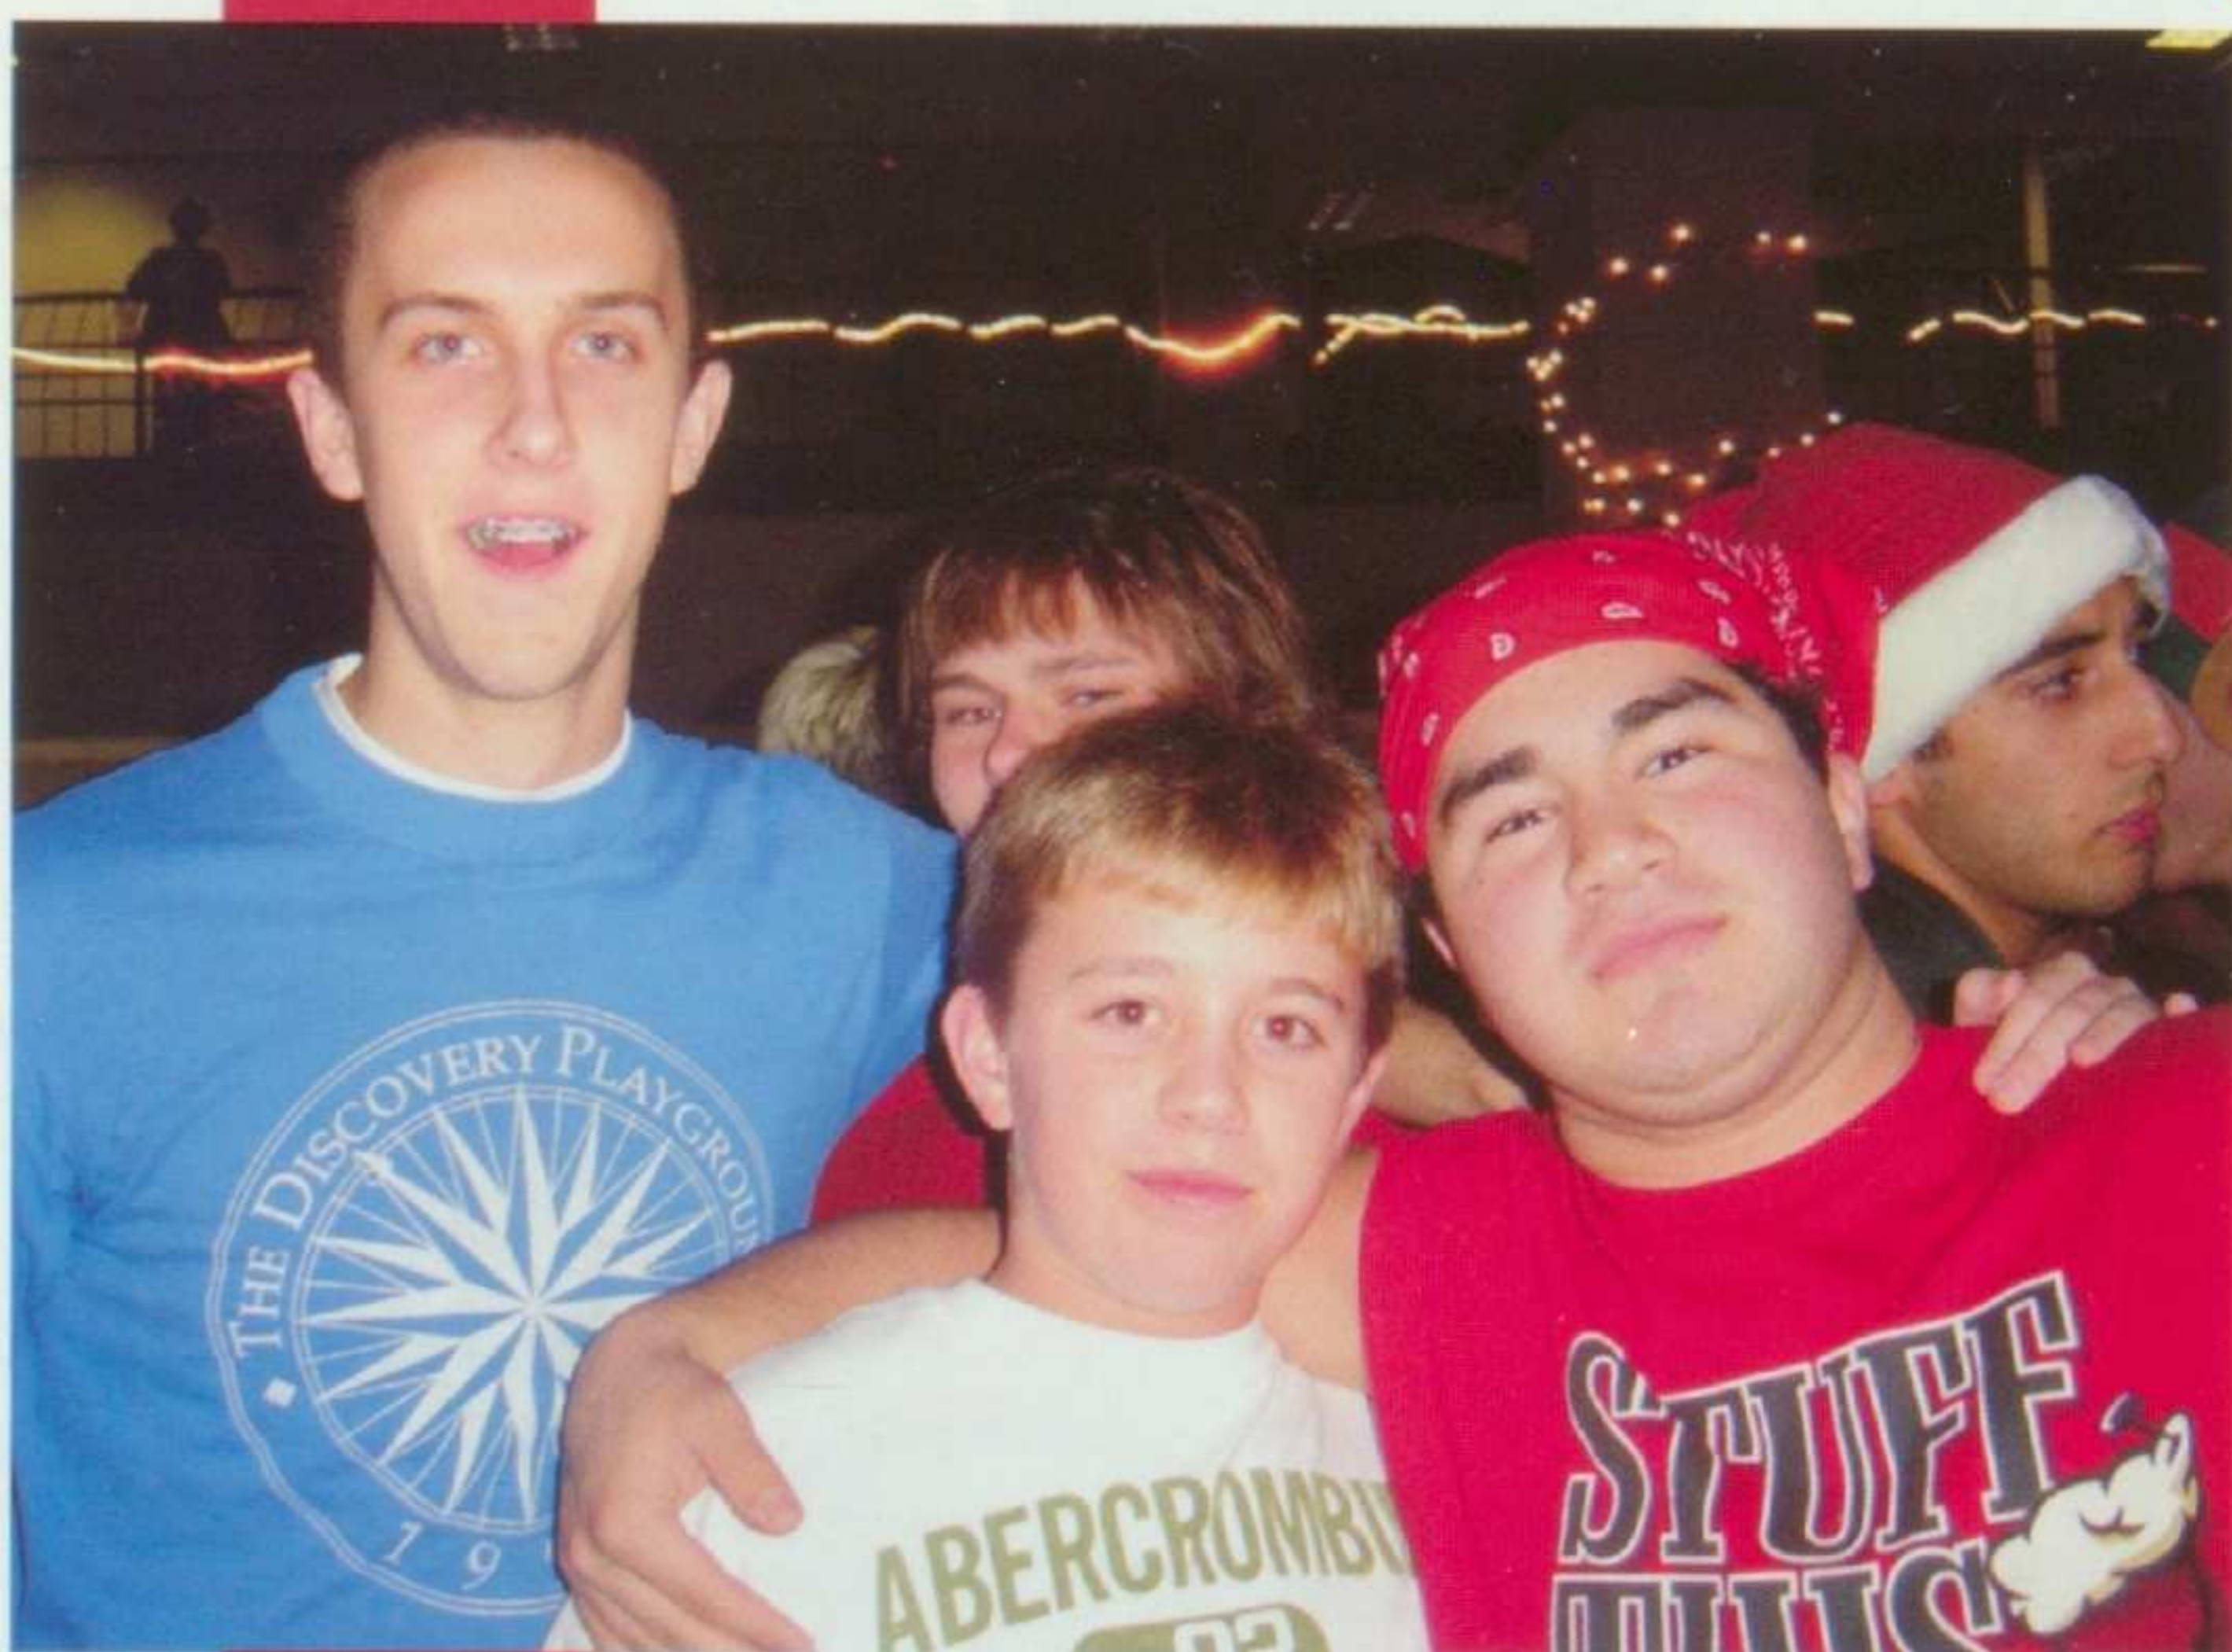

Few things are hated more than slow songs at the Jingle Jam, but Renee Miller and Adrienne Knox make the best of it by proving that boys are over-rated!

Wondering where all the fellas are, Christy Wolfe and fellow cheerleader Lindsay Brelus are just too cute! Guess all of the guys are just too intimidated... It's okay, we understand.

Coloring on tee shirts is always a clever way to show our holiday spirit! Just look at Ashley Decatur, Kiersten Pasternak, and Ashley Scudder.

Making last minute plans the day before are Marcus Nelson and Burke Treboni. Are you guys making matching outfits too?

Isn't it nice of Kevin Lookabaugh and Jeff Capella to protect little Cory Leggett from all those big scary girls. Keep up the good work, fellas.

Taking a breather from working the dance floor are Shelley and Jessie Opremcak and Annie Cicone.

Looks as if Matt Graham accidentally got dressed in his sister's closet! Come on Collin Veryser, shouldn't you have been looking out for a friend?

Who says the underclass have no style? Heather DeSantis, Abbie Grimes, Kristina Cassidy, Ali Besser, and Morgan Augur's t-shirts may not be in the spirit of the holidays but their accessories are.

Showing the boys how it's done are (front row) Emily Clemons, Allison West, Kathy Johnston. (row 2) Nick Marsh and Jason Clark. You boys had better be taking notes.

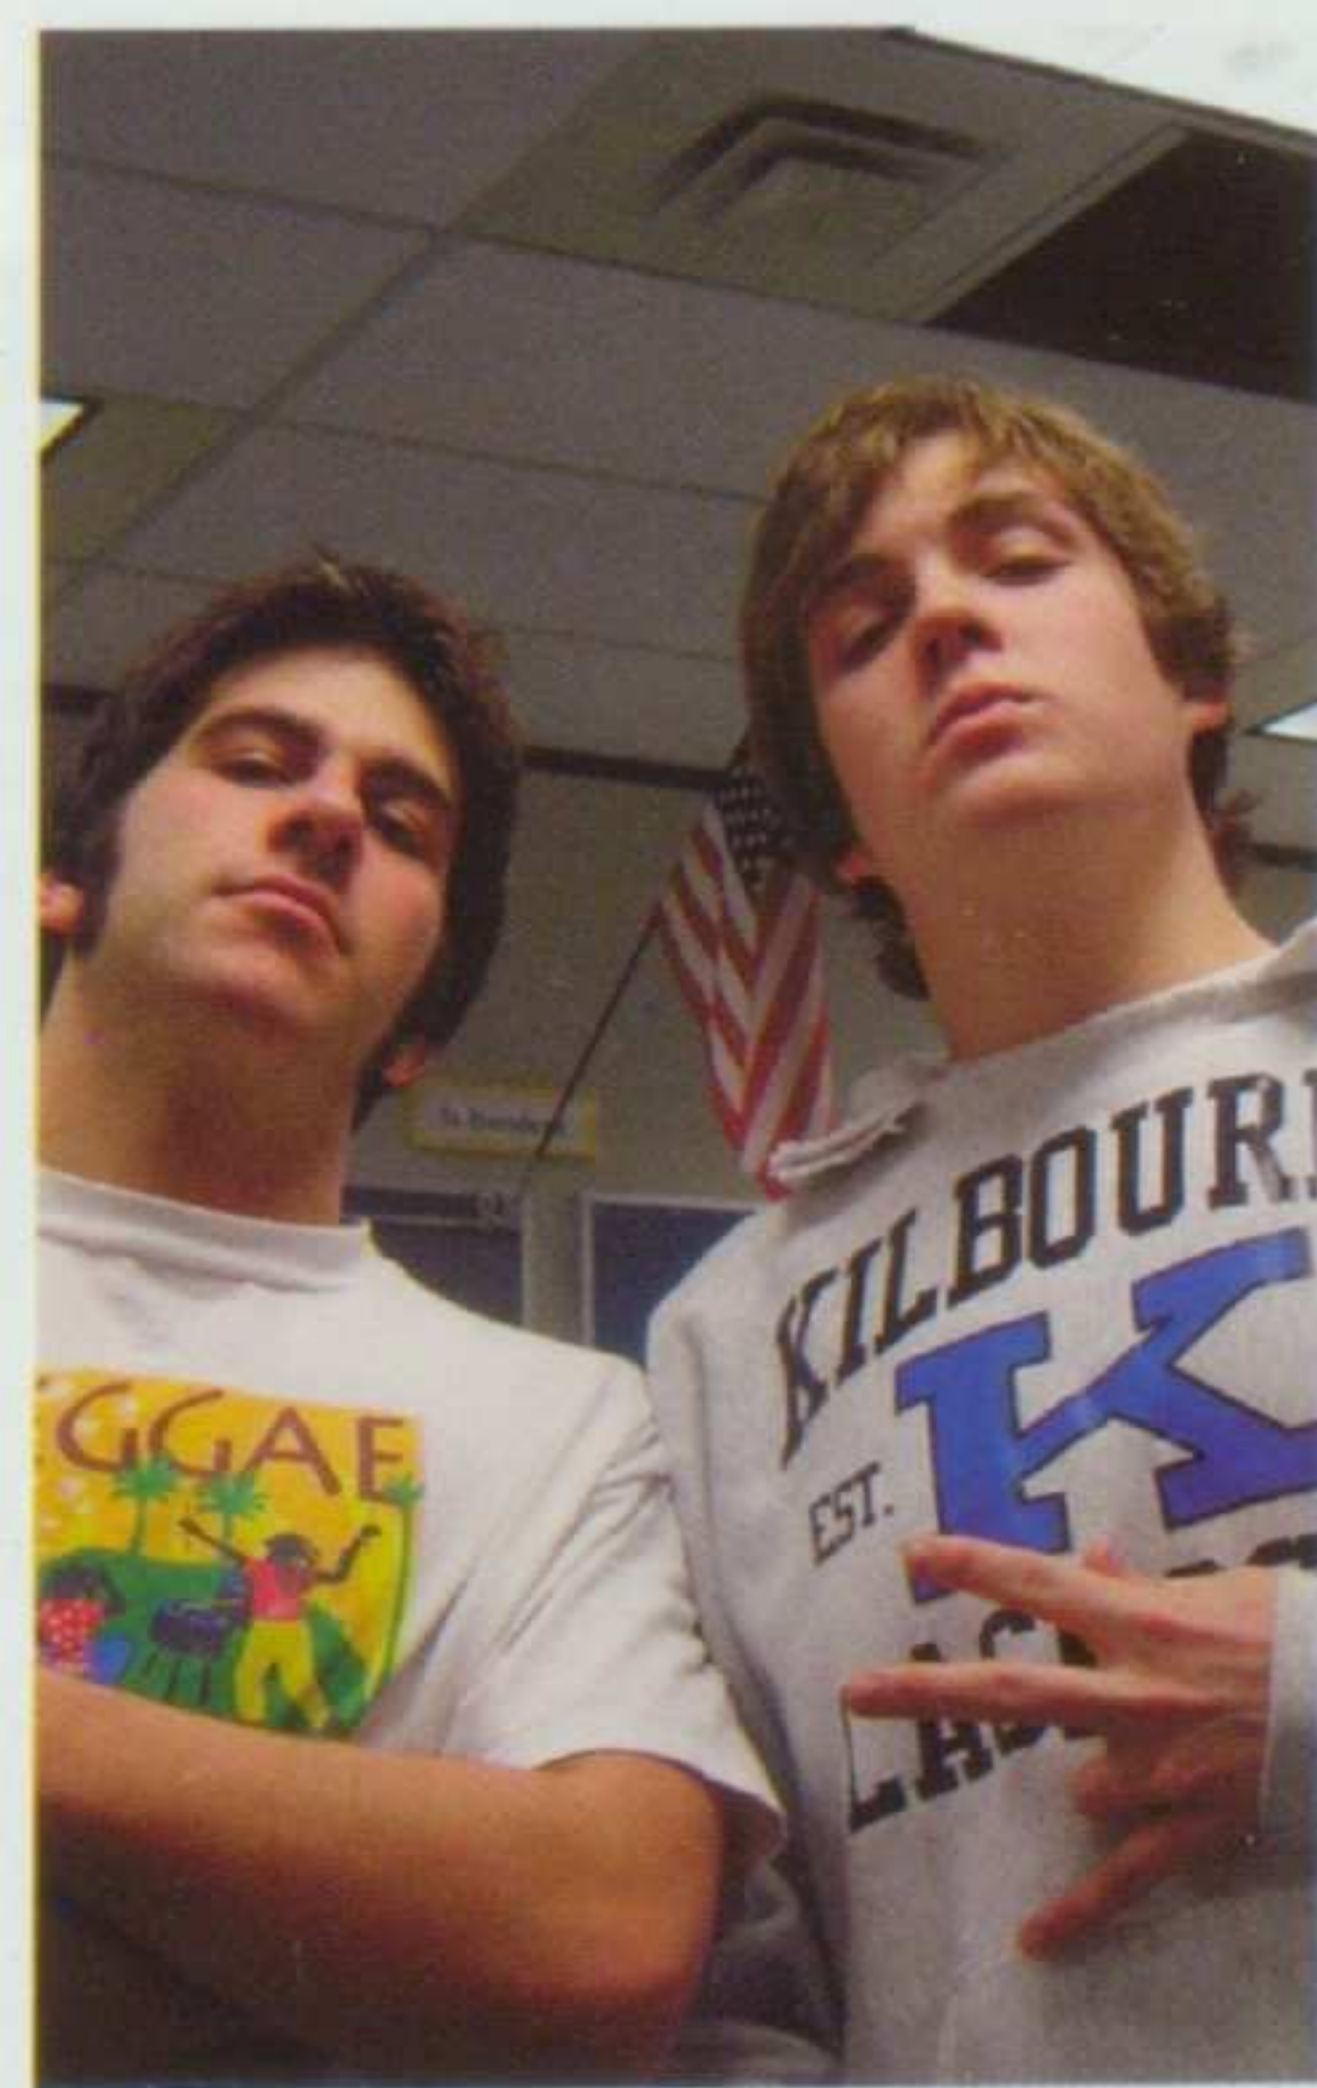

Double Trouble

A lot of girls and guys like to get ready for the Jingle Jam together at a friend's house, and Melanie Shingledecker and Jackie Spicer are no exception. Lookin' good, girls!

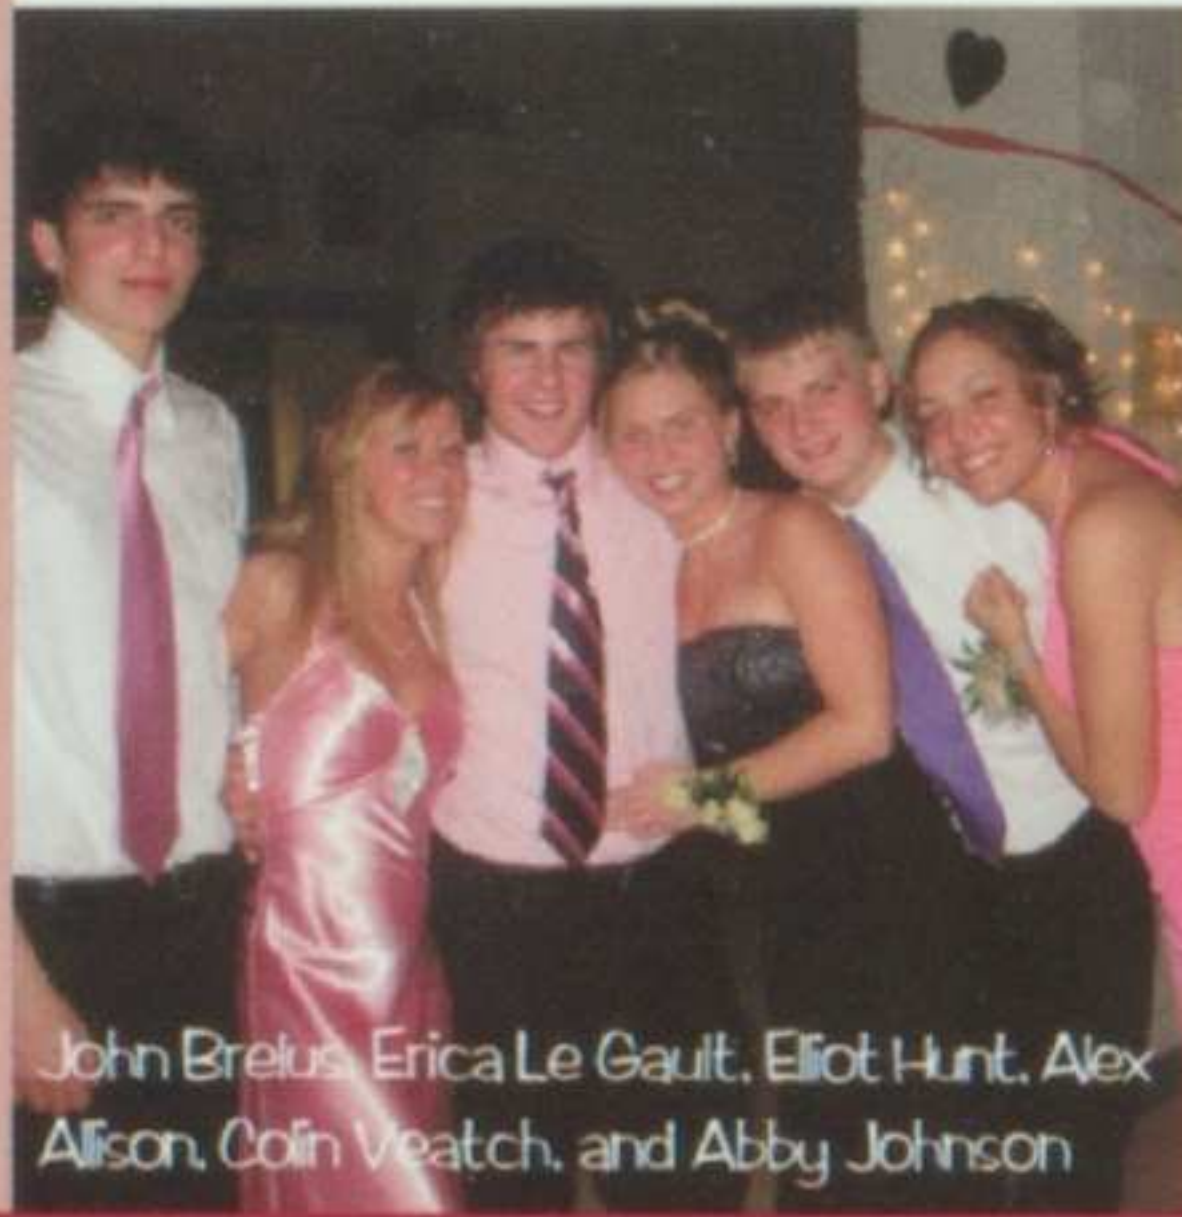

Enjoying their first Jingle Jam as freshmen. (front row) Ladin Sutin and Lisa Philip. (row 2) Allyssa Overbee, Joslyn Moore, Nicole Hammond, Anna Hamilton dress the part. Hope you had fun at this done! It might also be your last!

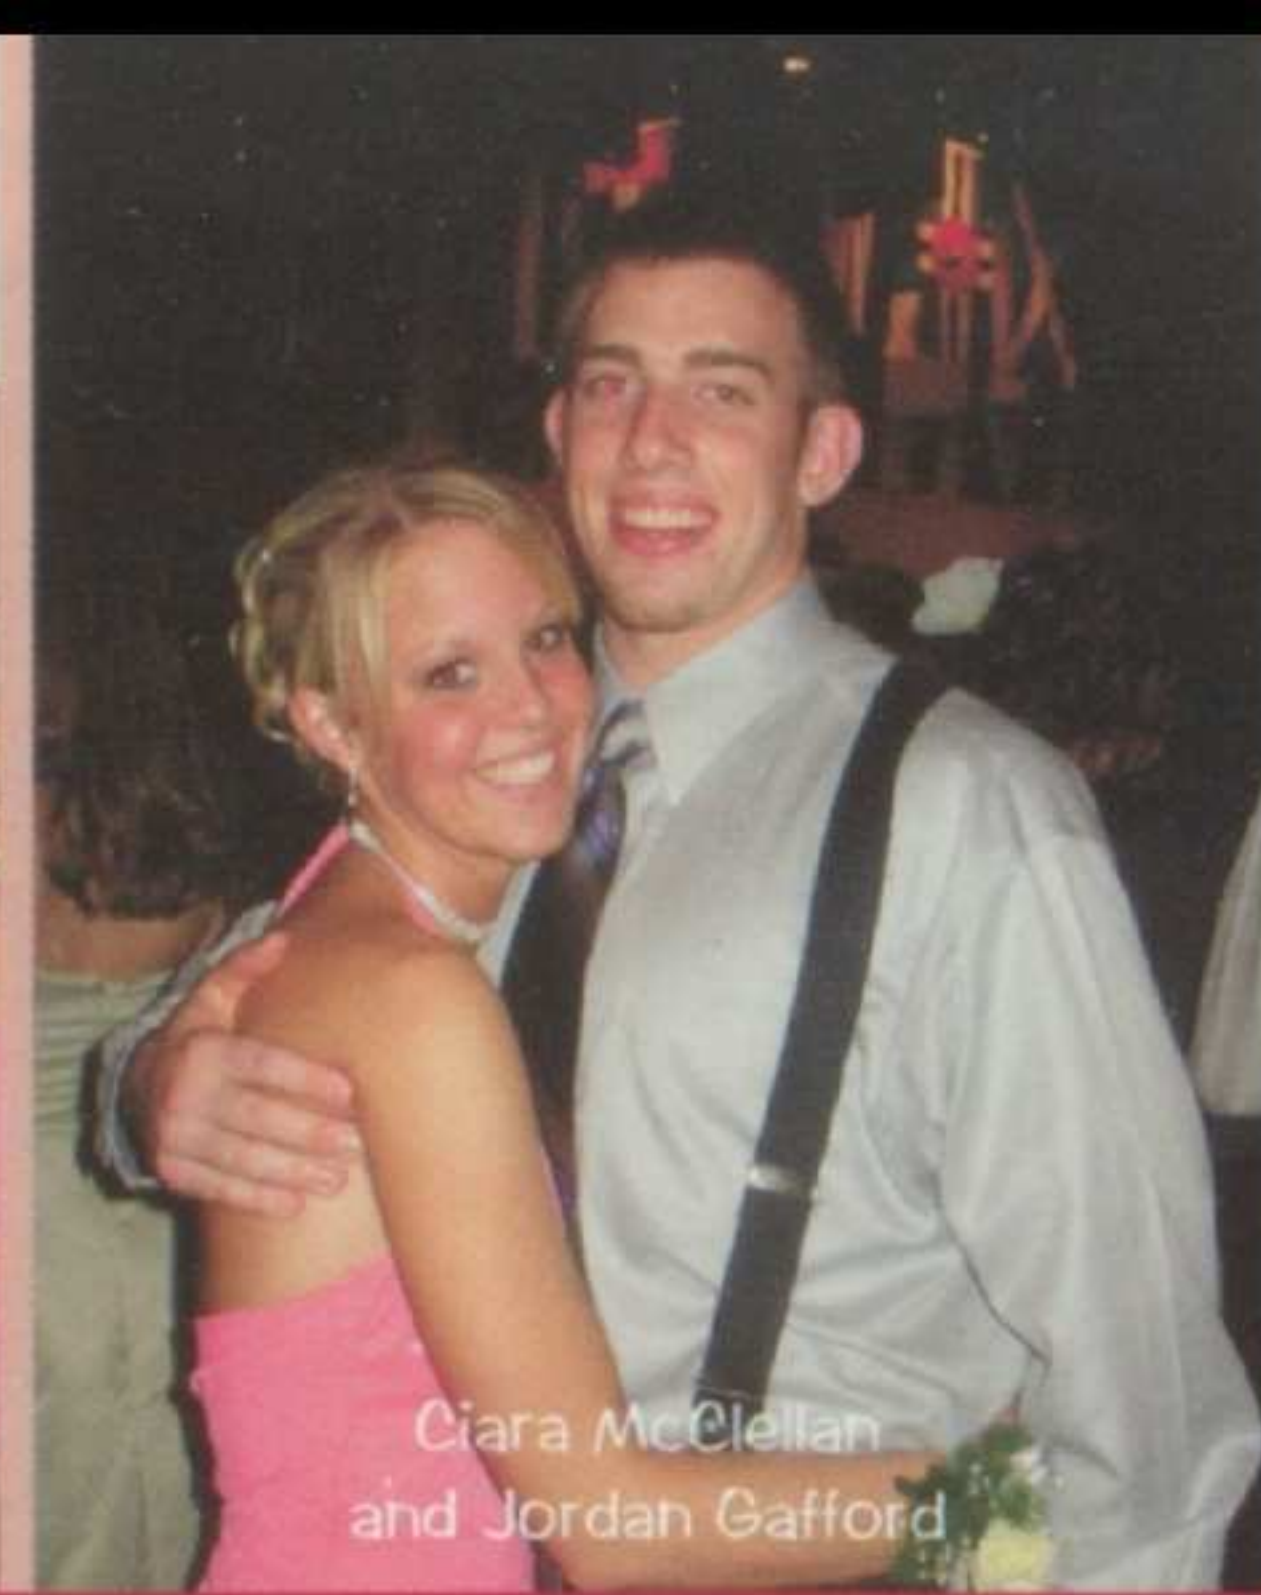

Looking fine before the dance, Seth Payne, and Ryan Beattie would make nice Christmas presents for two lucky ladies!

TAKE NAME OF THE SAME IS LOVE, FRIENDSHIP AND FUN WITH THE ONES YOU CARE ABOUT THE MOST

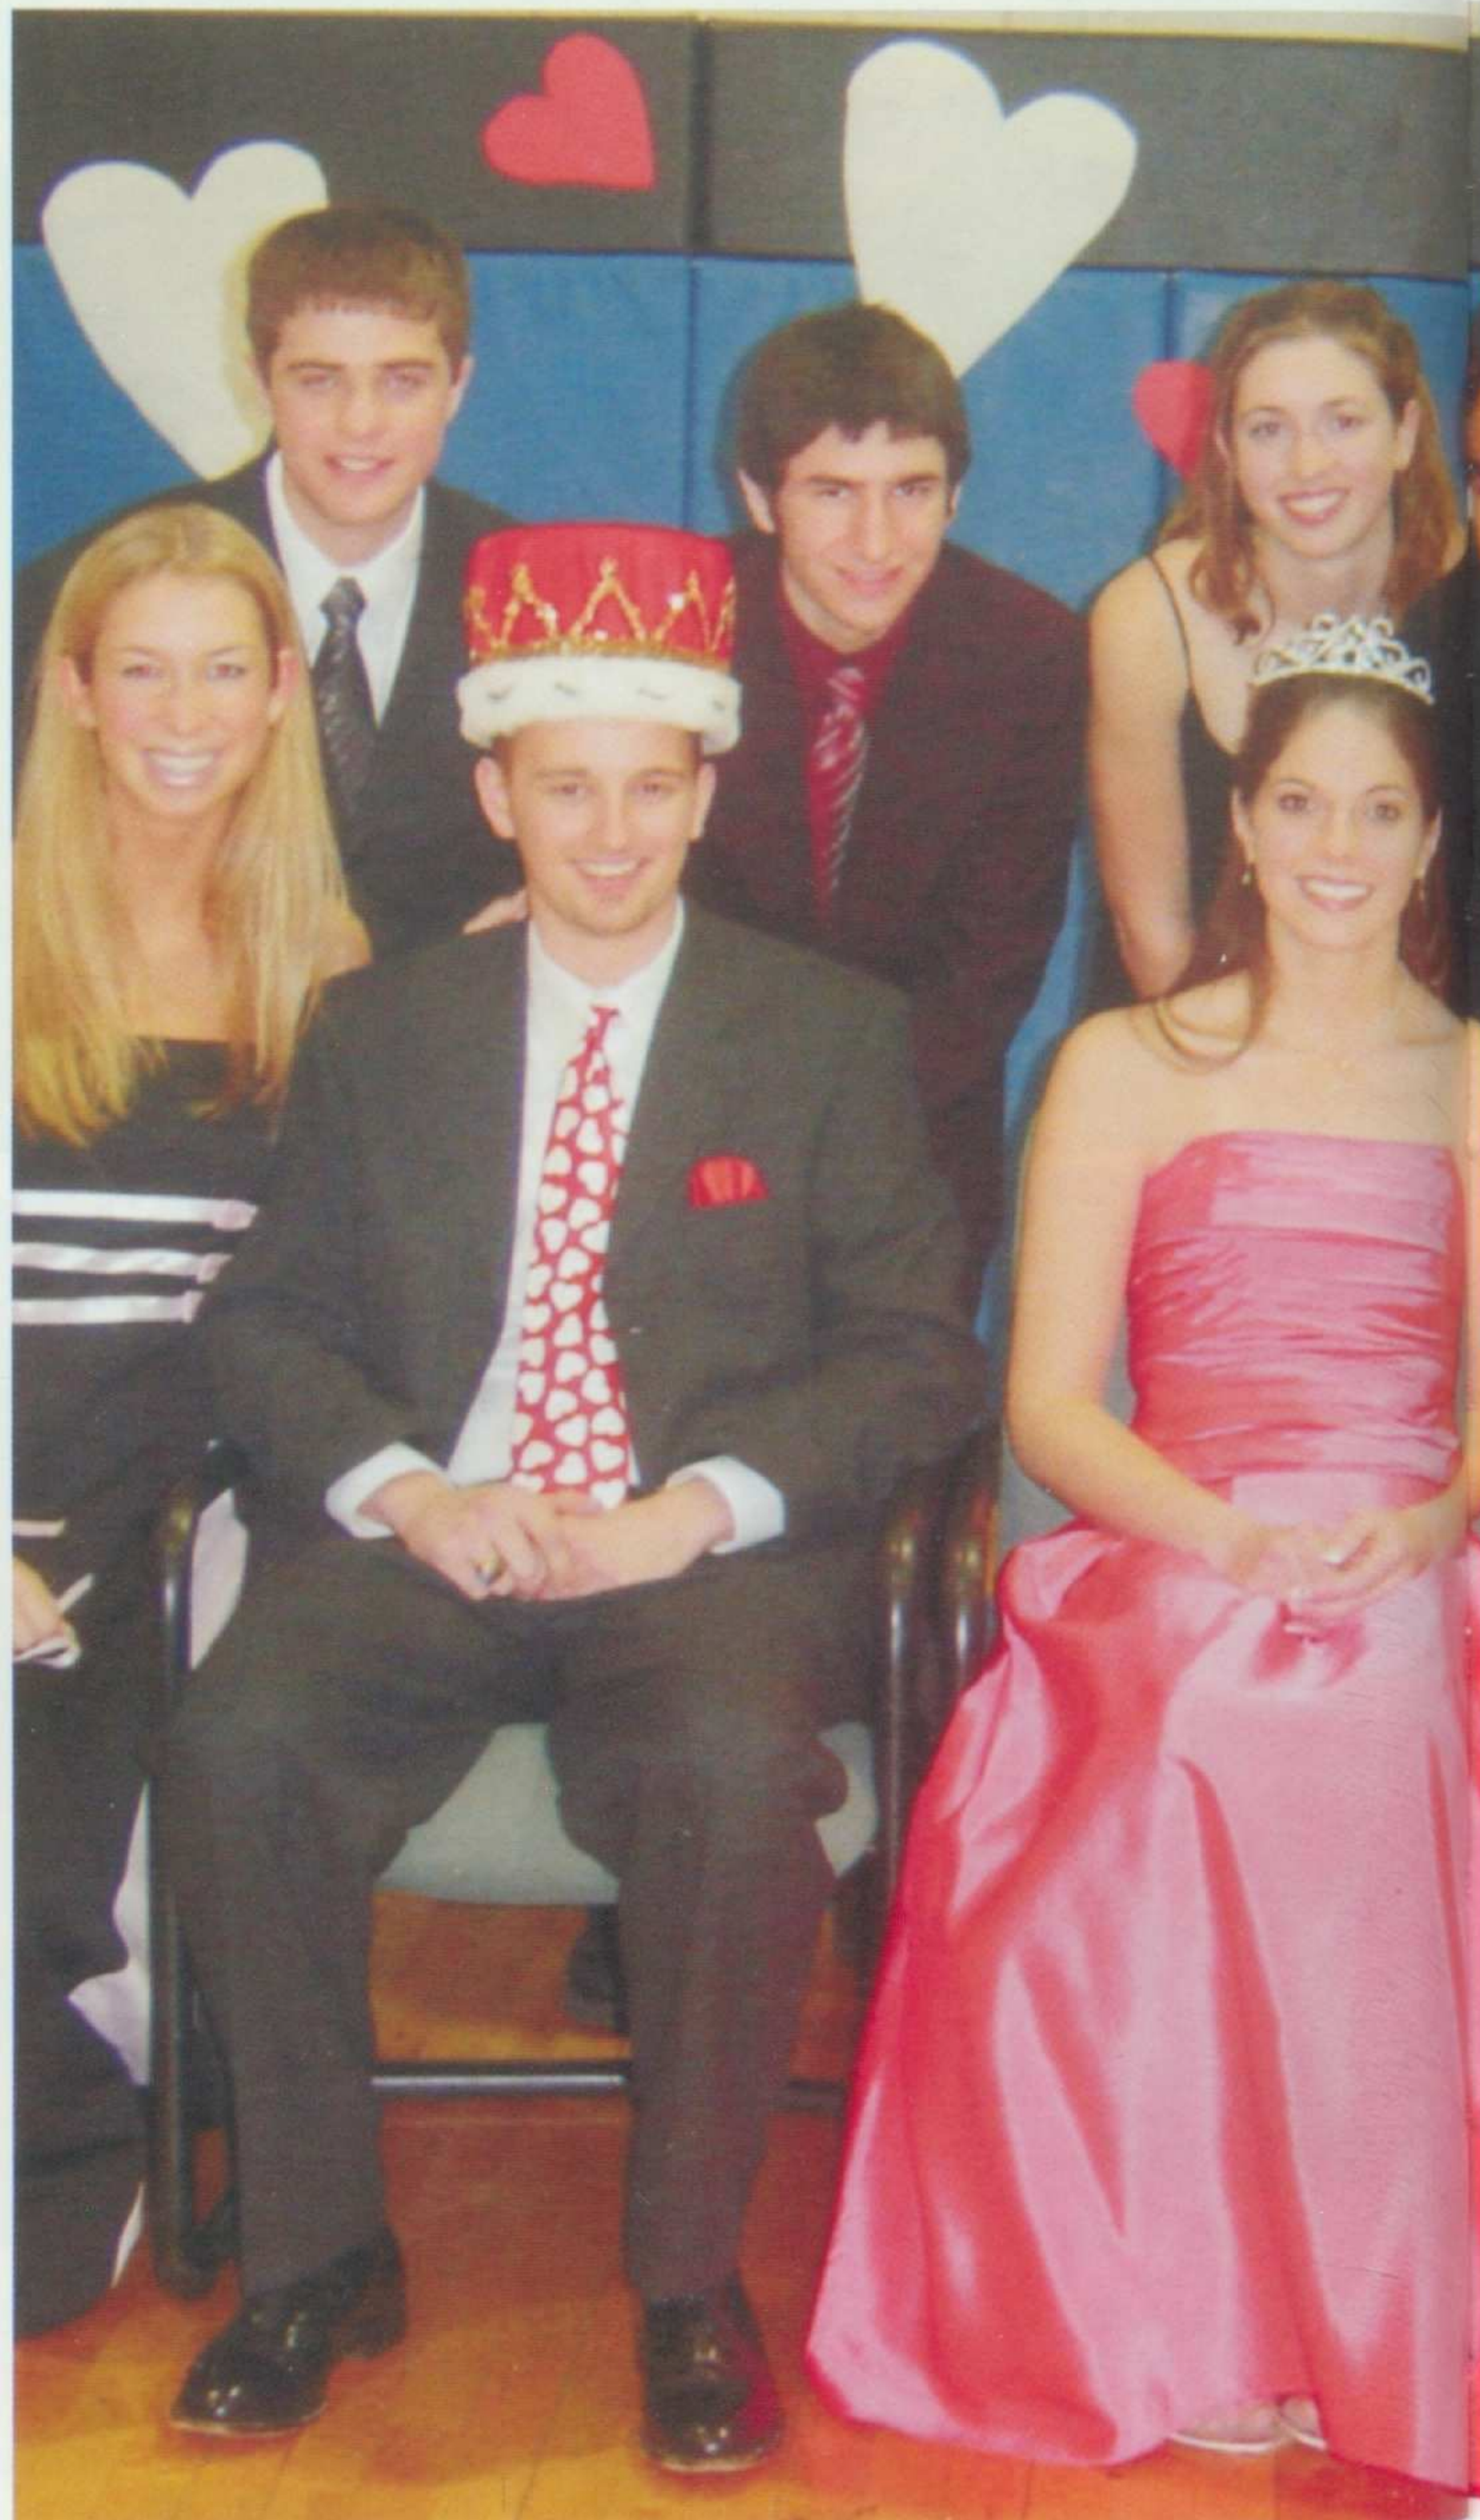

Taking a breather from dancing with their true loves are Danielle Dusing, David Thian, Kirsten Pallas, and Pat Rein. These freshmen are experiencing Valentine's from the angle of love.

Candidates (front row) Angie Franks, Tommy Stiver, Andrea Dowler, Jennifer Smith, (row 2) T.J. Luttrell, Sam Newman, Britney Andrews, and Chris Hunt collected donations for queen and king benefiting the Stephanie Spielman Breast Cancer Research Foundation.

Loving every minute of this year's Valentines dance are Michelle Barry, James Keaney, Zach Smith and Whitney Harrington. They're taking a quick breather before returning to groove to the music.

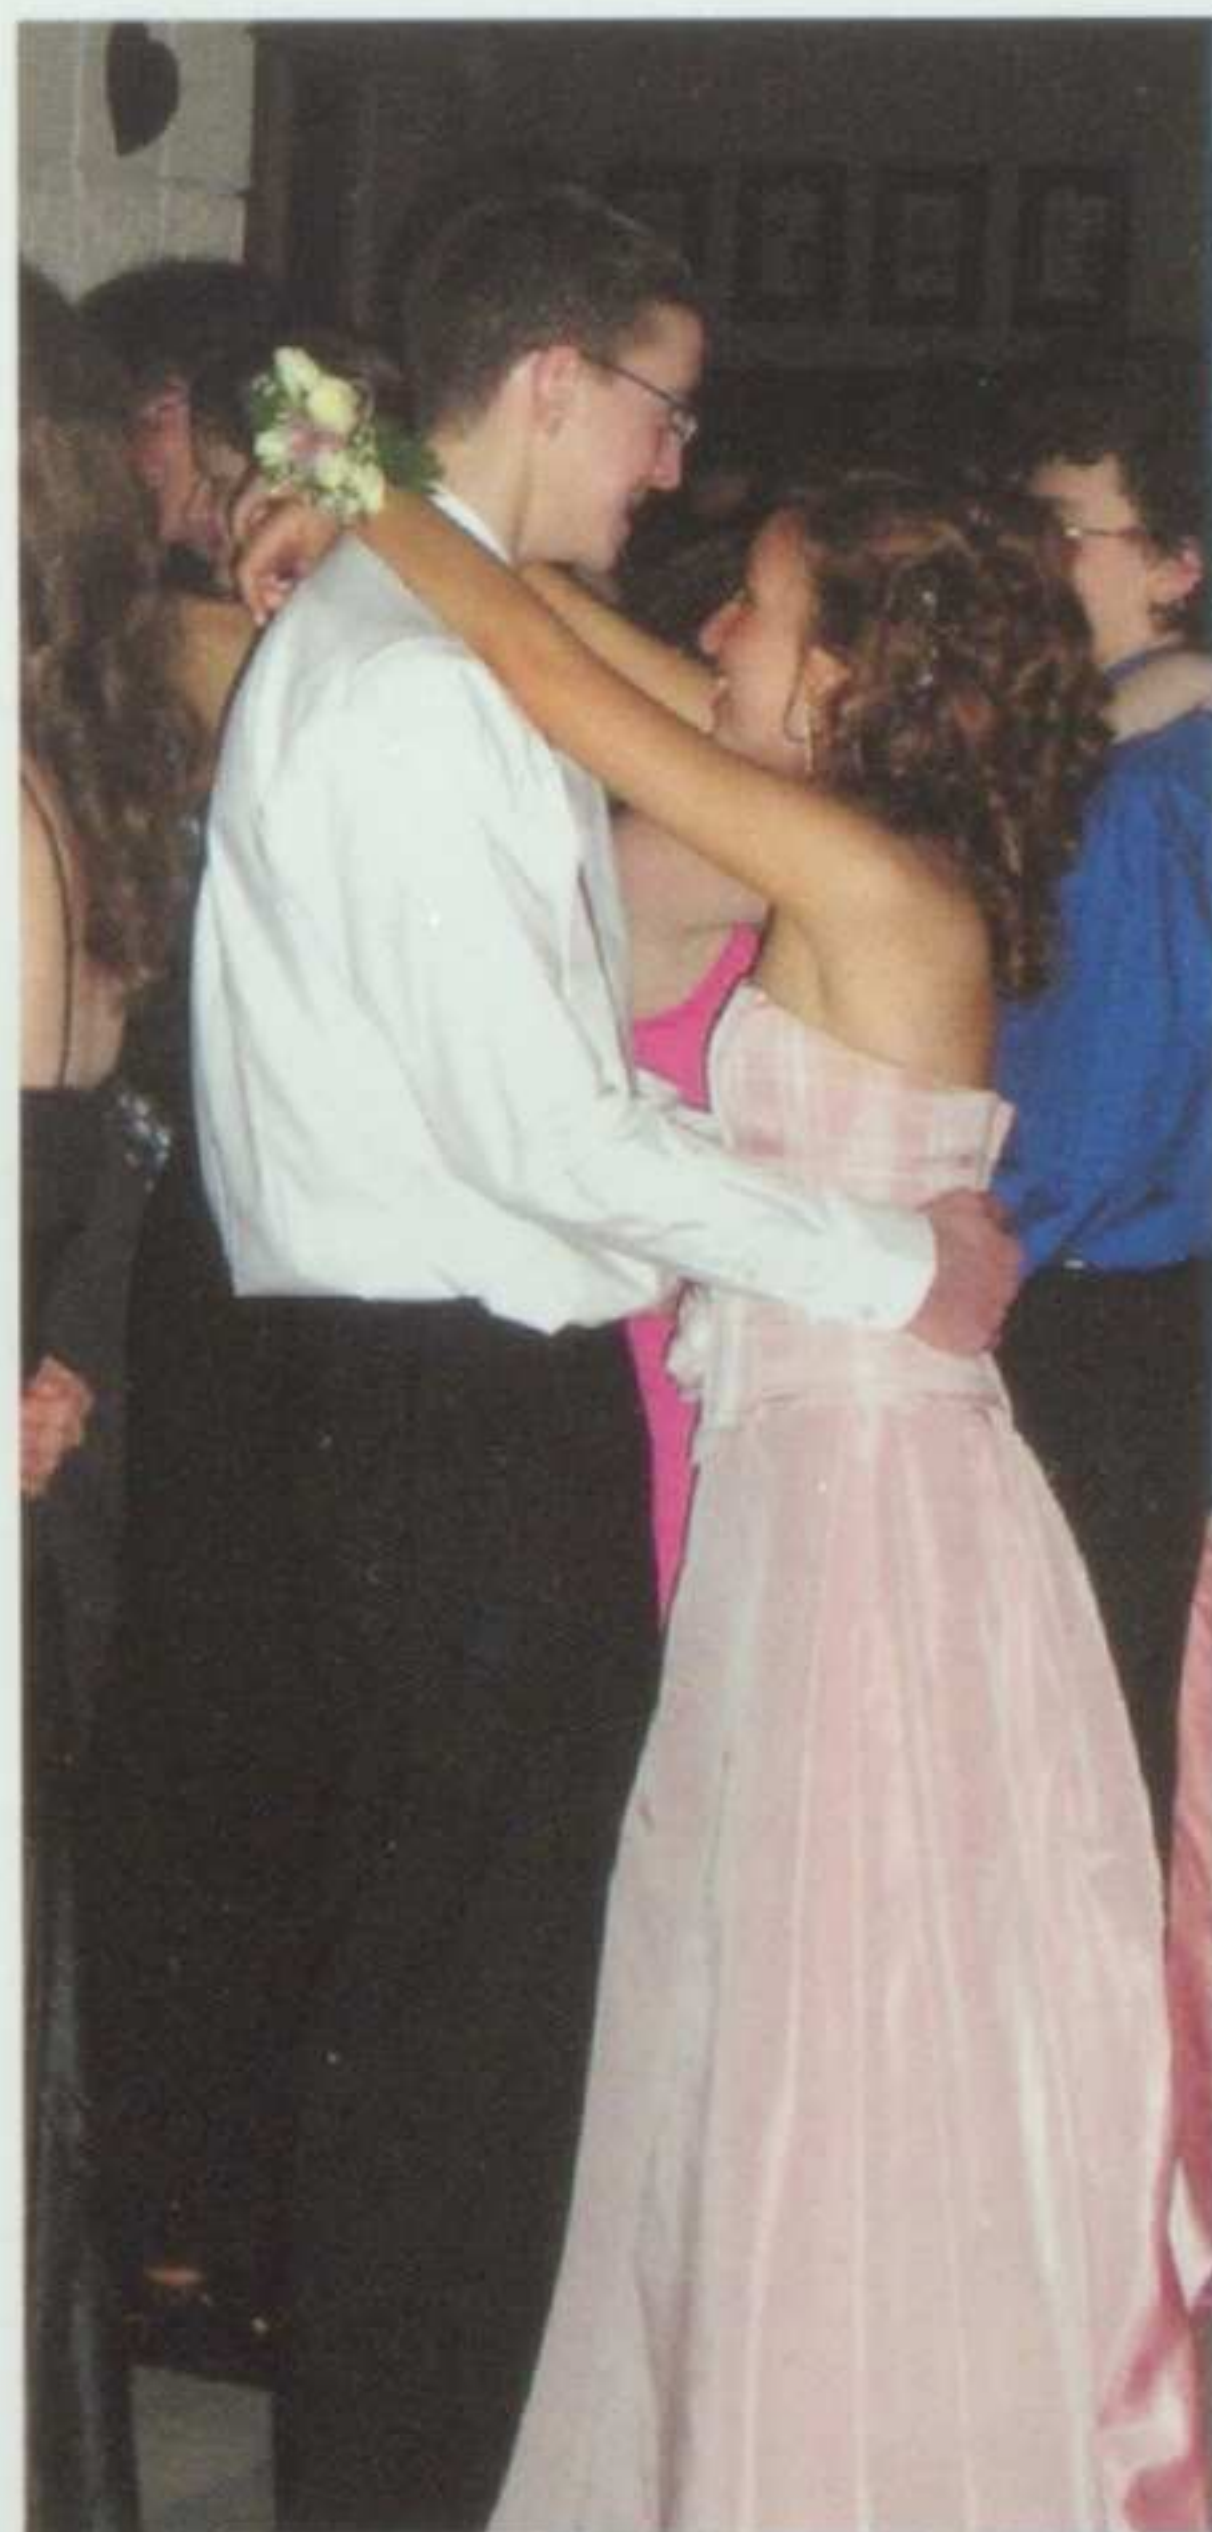

Valentines is time well spent with old friends by reflecting on child hood memories. Ryan Parks and Jessie Bucilla from Canton do just that by standing hand in hand as they once did so many years ago.

COUPLES DANCED TO THE THEME "ALL MY LIFE" AT VALENTINES

Dancing to the theme song, "All My Life" by Kasie and JoJo are John Coleman and Emily Knecht. This couple is glad to be in each other's arms caught in the moment of Valentine love.

Going with friends is the way to have the best time. Sophomores Allison West, Brian Sass, Ellie Smith, and Shawn Mohney did just that and had a fantastic time.

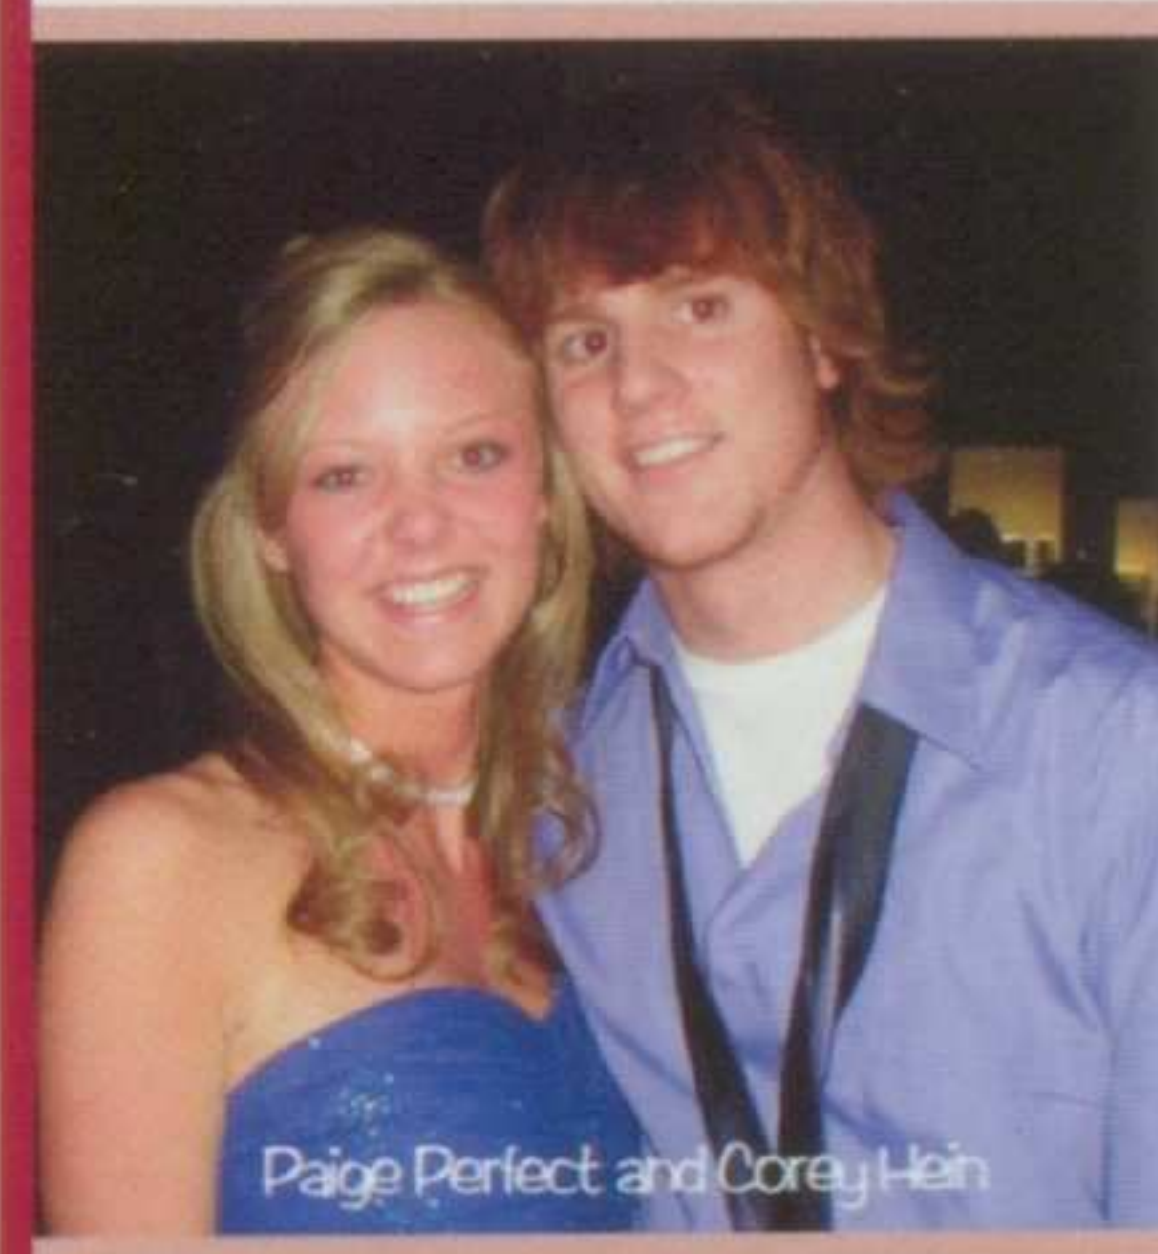

See the family tie between cousin and sisters are Andrea, Megan, and Sarah Dowler? Love is the theme of Valentines and sometimes family love is just as important as romantic love. Family really is the sweetest thing.

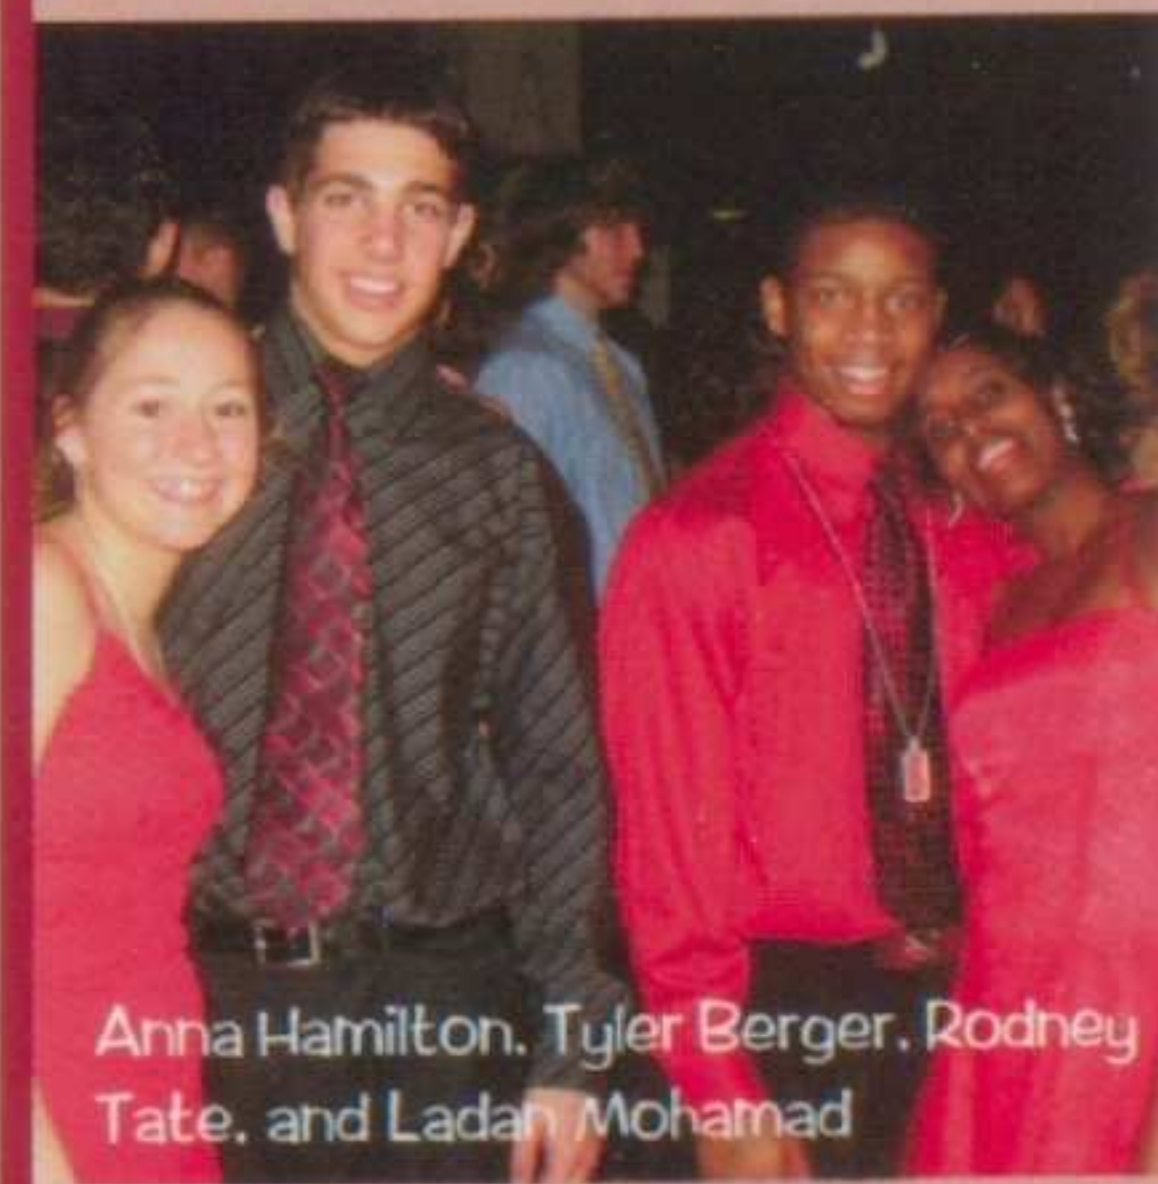

Gazing into one another's eyes are Hann Tran and Nick Champoux, enjoying their last Valentines as seniors. These two love birds have really been hit by cupid's arrow, loving every minute of dancing in each other's arms.

The senior class once again embraced the tradition of nominating candidates who then raise money for a selected organization to win the crown. This year we chose Stephanie Spielman Breast Cancer Research in honor of one of our own, Mr. Troutner's wife. At our prep rally Andrea Dowler and Tommy Stiver were crowned Queen and King of Hearts.

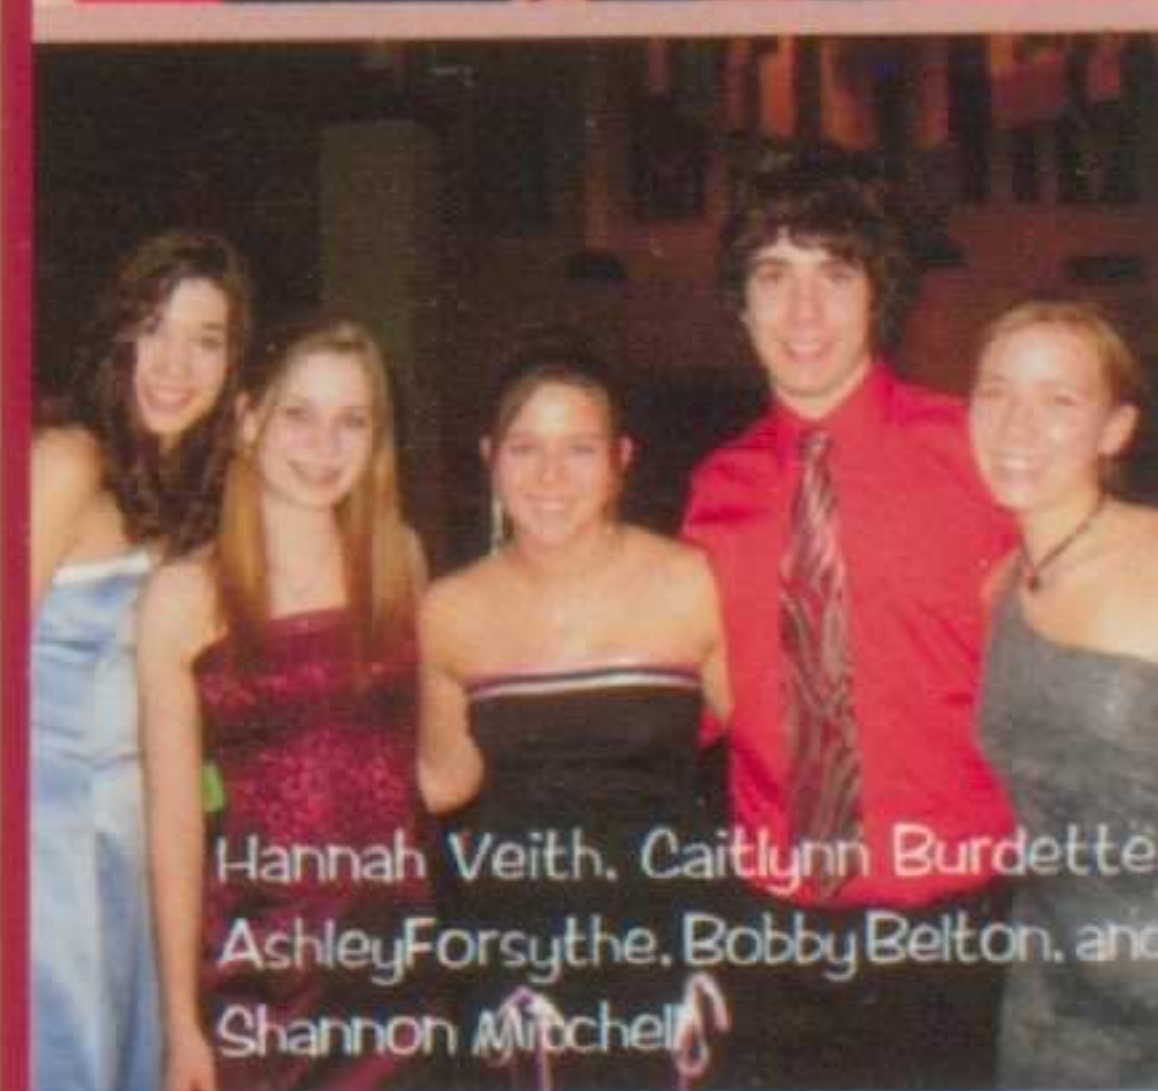

The dance theme was "All My Life" by early pop group Kasie and JoJo. Despite the limitations on the dance, a great turn out enjoyed a wonderful night.

senior Nana Nyen

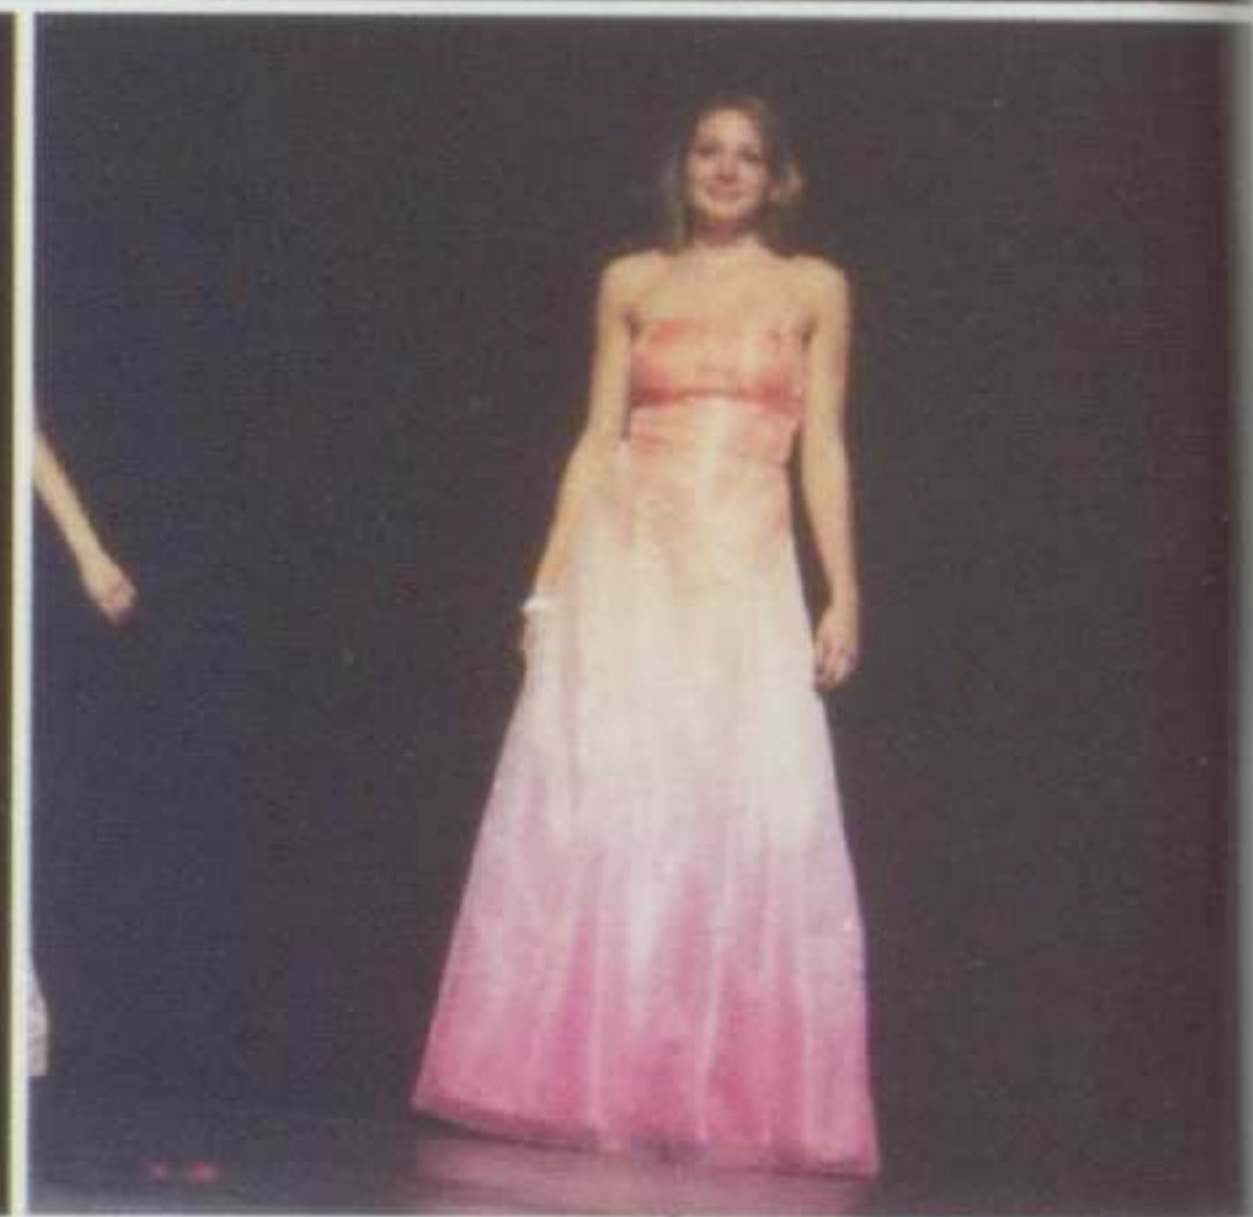

Striking a sassy pose, sophomore Kristen Nooks keeps a calm face in front of the huge crowd during the 2005 prom fashion show teaser.

Who says two aren't better than one? Senior Michelle Barry snags two fine gentlemen, juniors Corey Graft and Nathan Palmer, and wraps them around her finger.

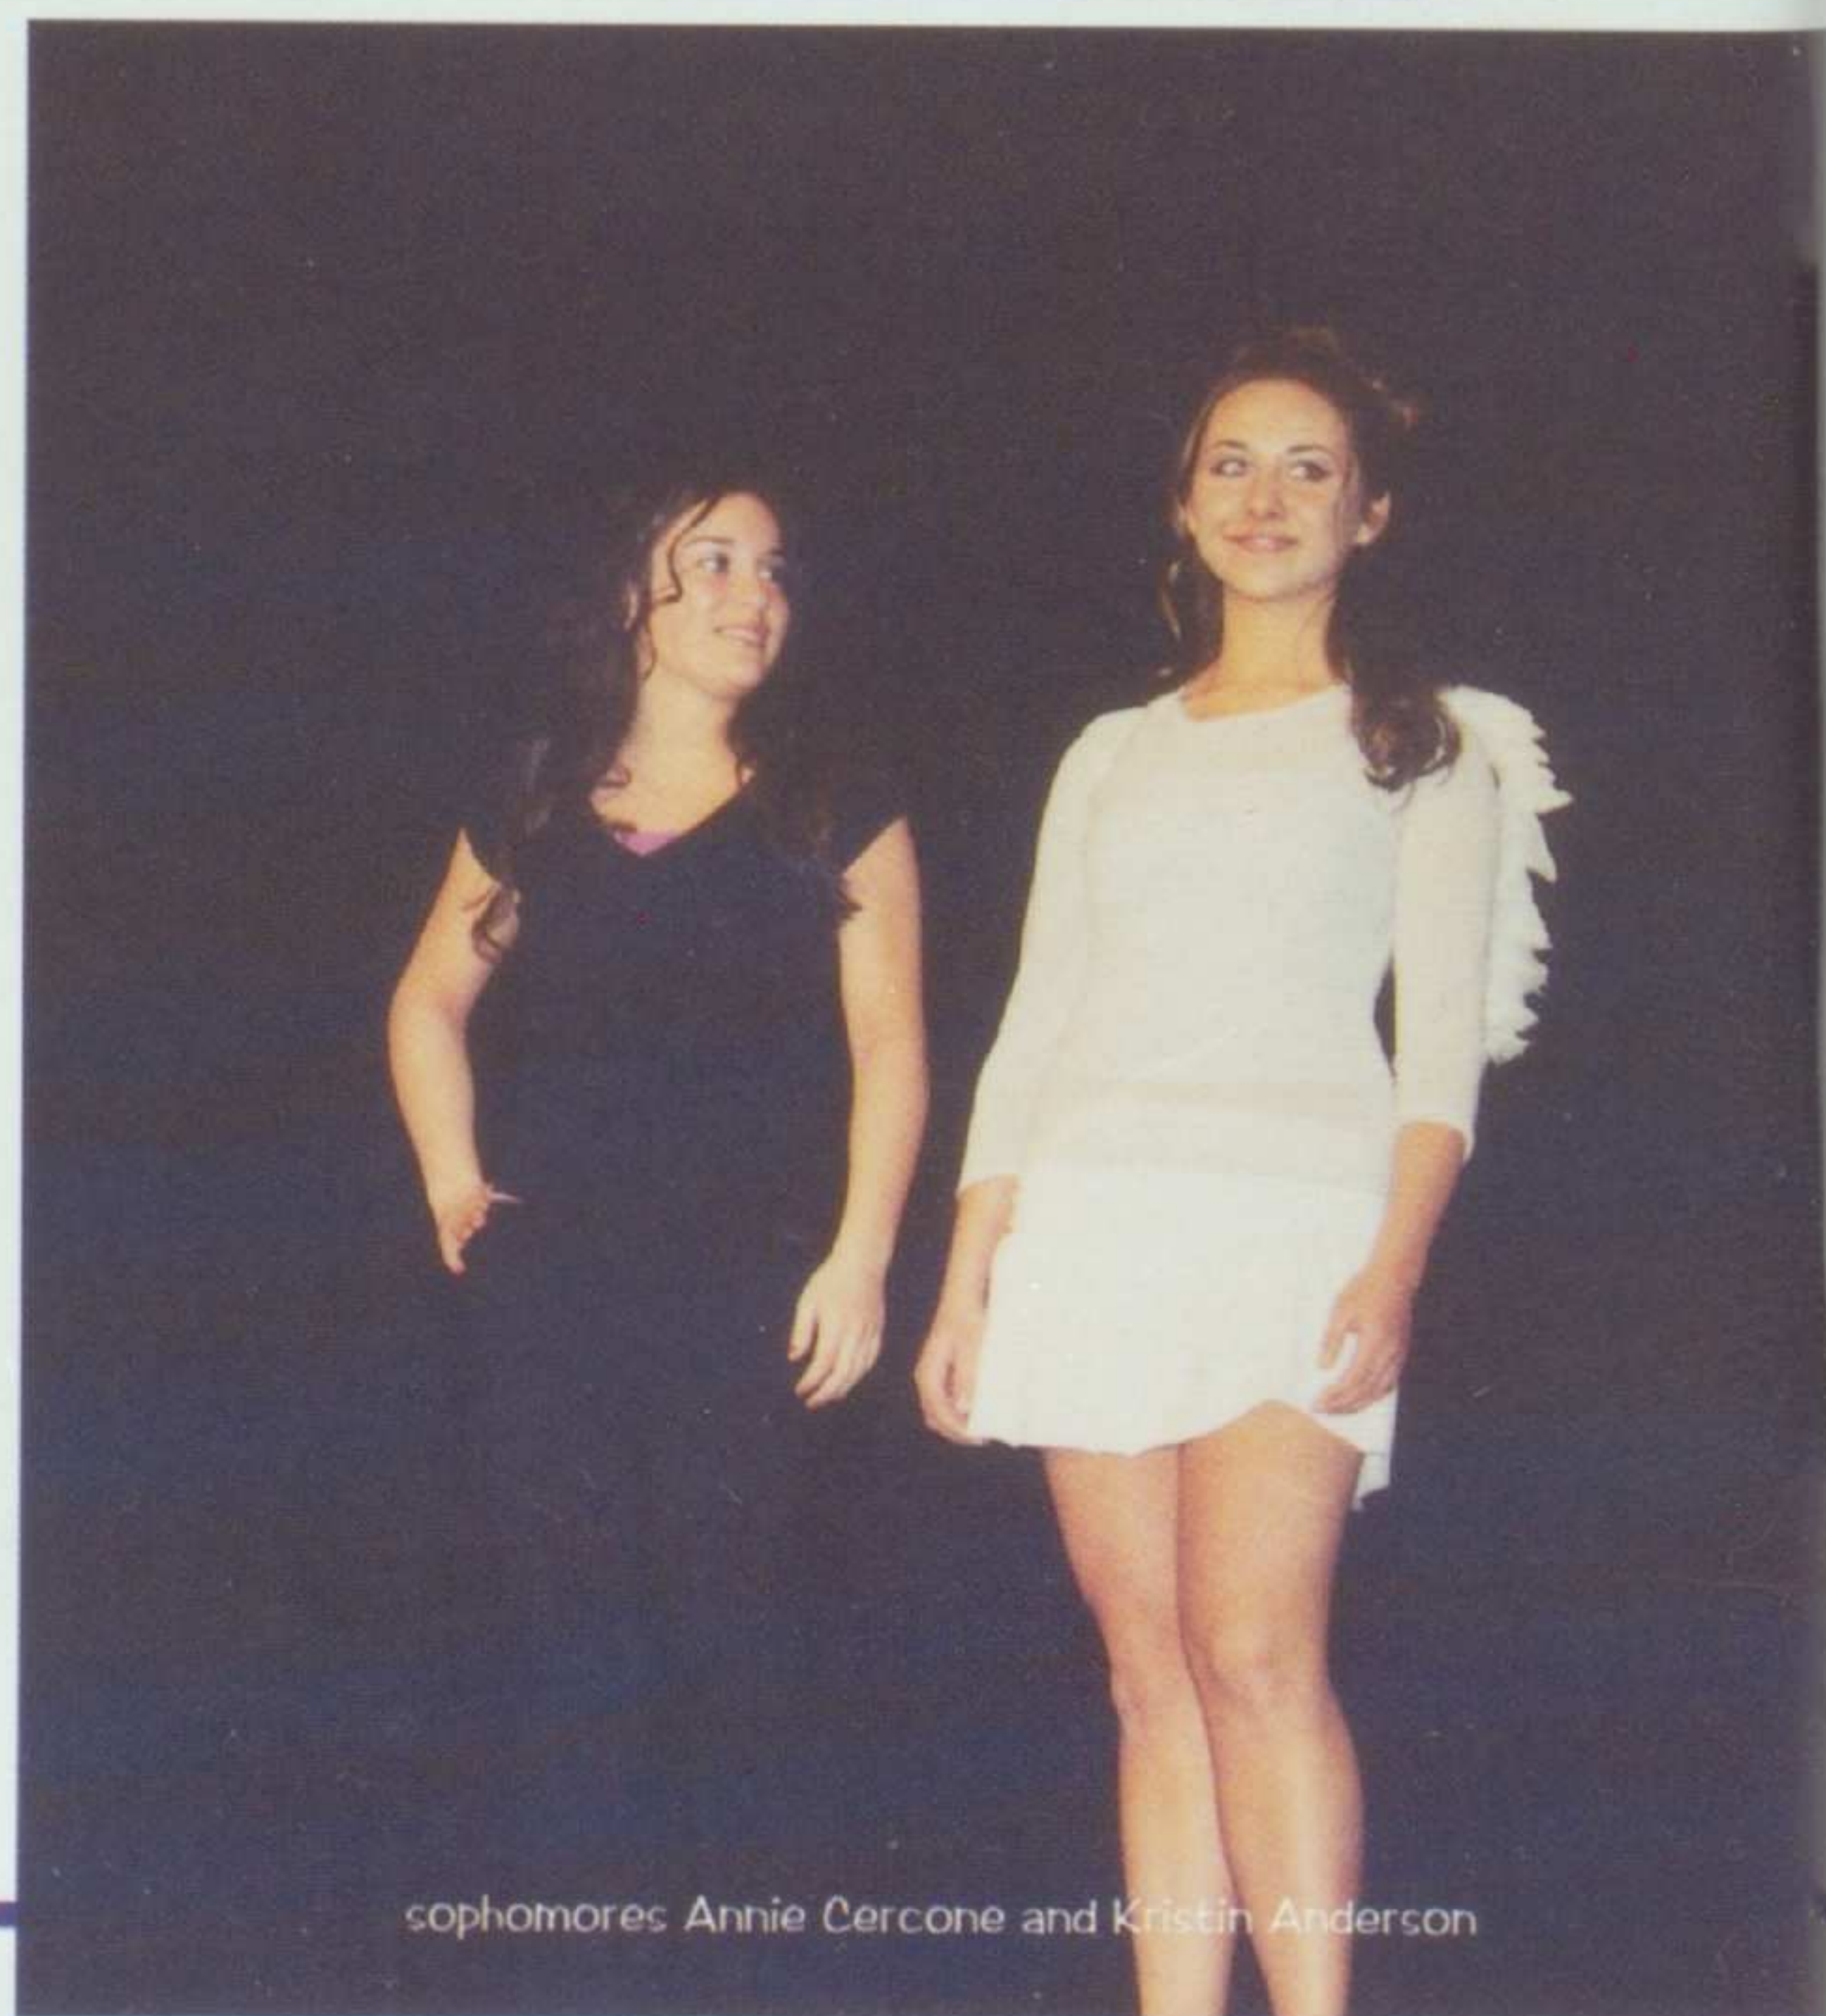

Sporting options for after-hours outfits, junior Whitney Harrington and senior Ashlea Fox work the runway in their coordinated clothes.

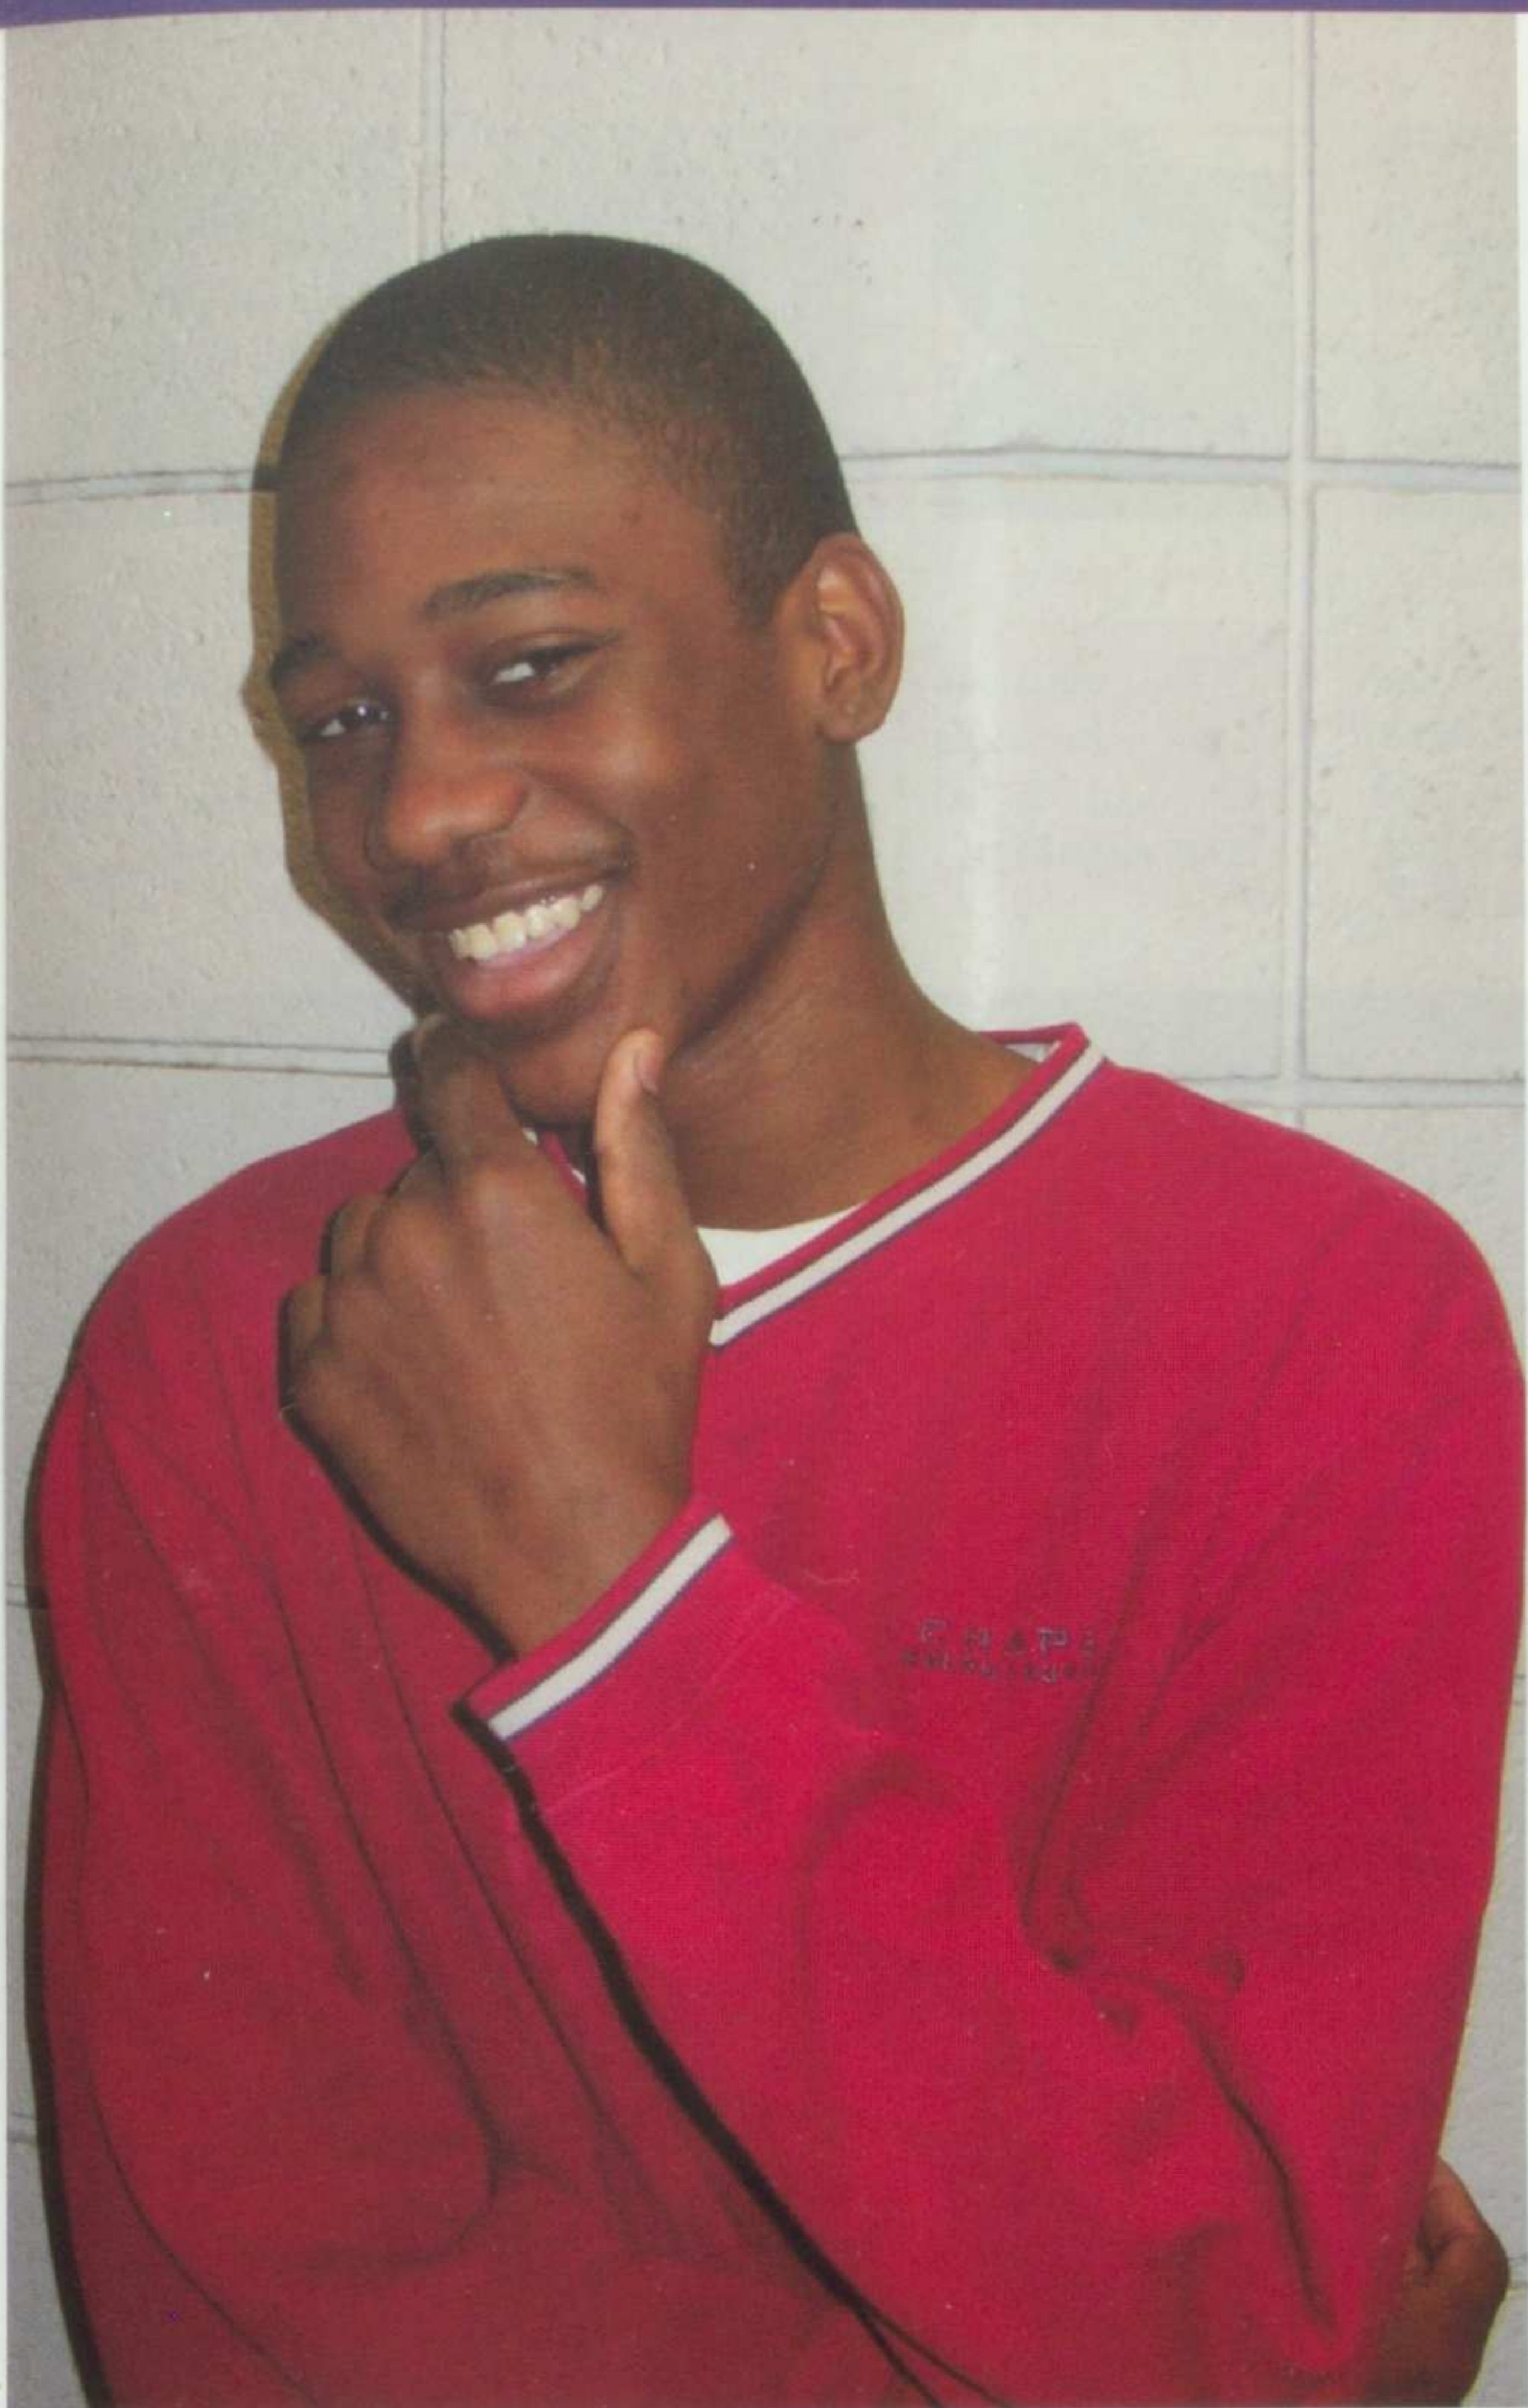

Wearing one of the most popular dresses of the evening, sophomore Ashley Coen displays the stunning beauty of her pink and coral prom gown.

Commentators for the fashion show, junior Jerica Irwin and senior Alissa Curtis give the audience information about the dresses the girls can buy and tuxes the boys can rent for the prom which will be held at the Franklin Park Conservatory.

sophomores Annie Cercone and Kristin Anderson

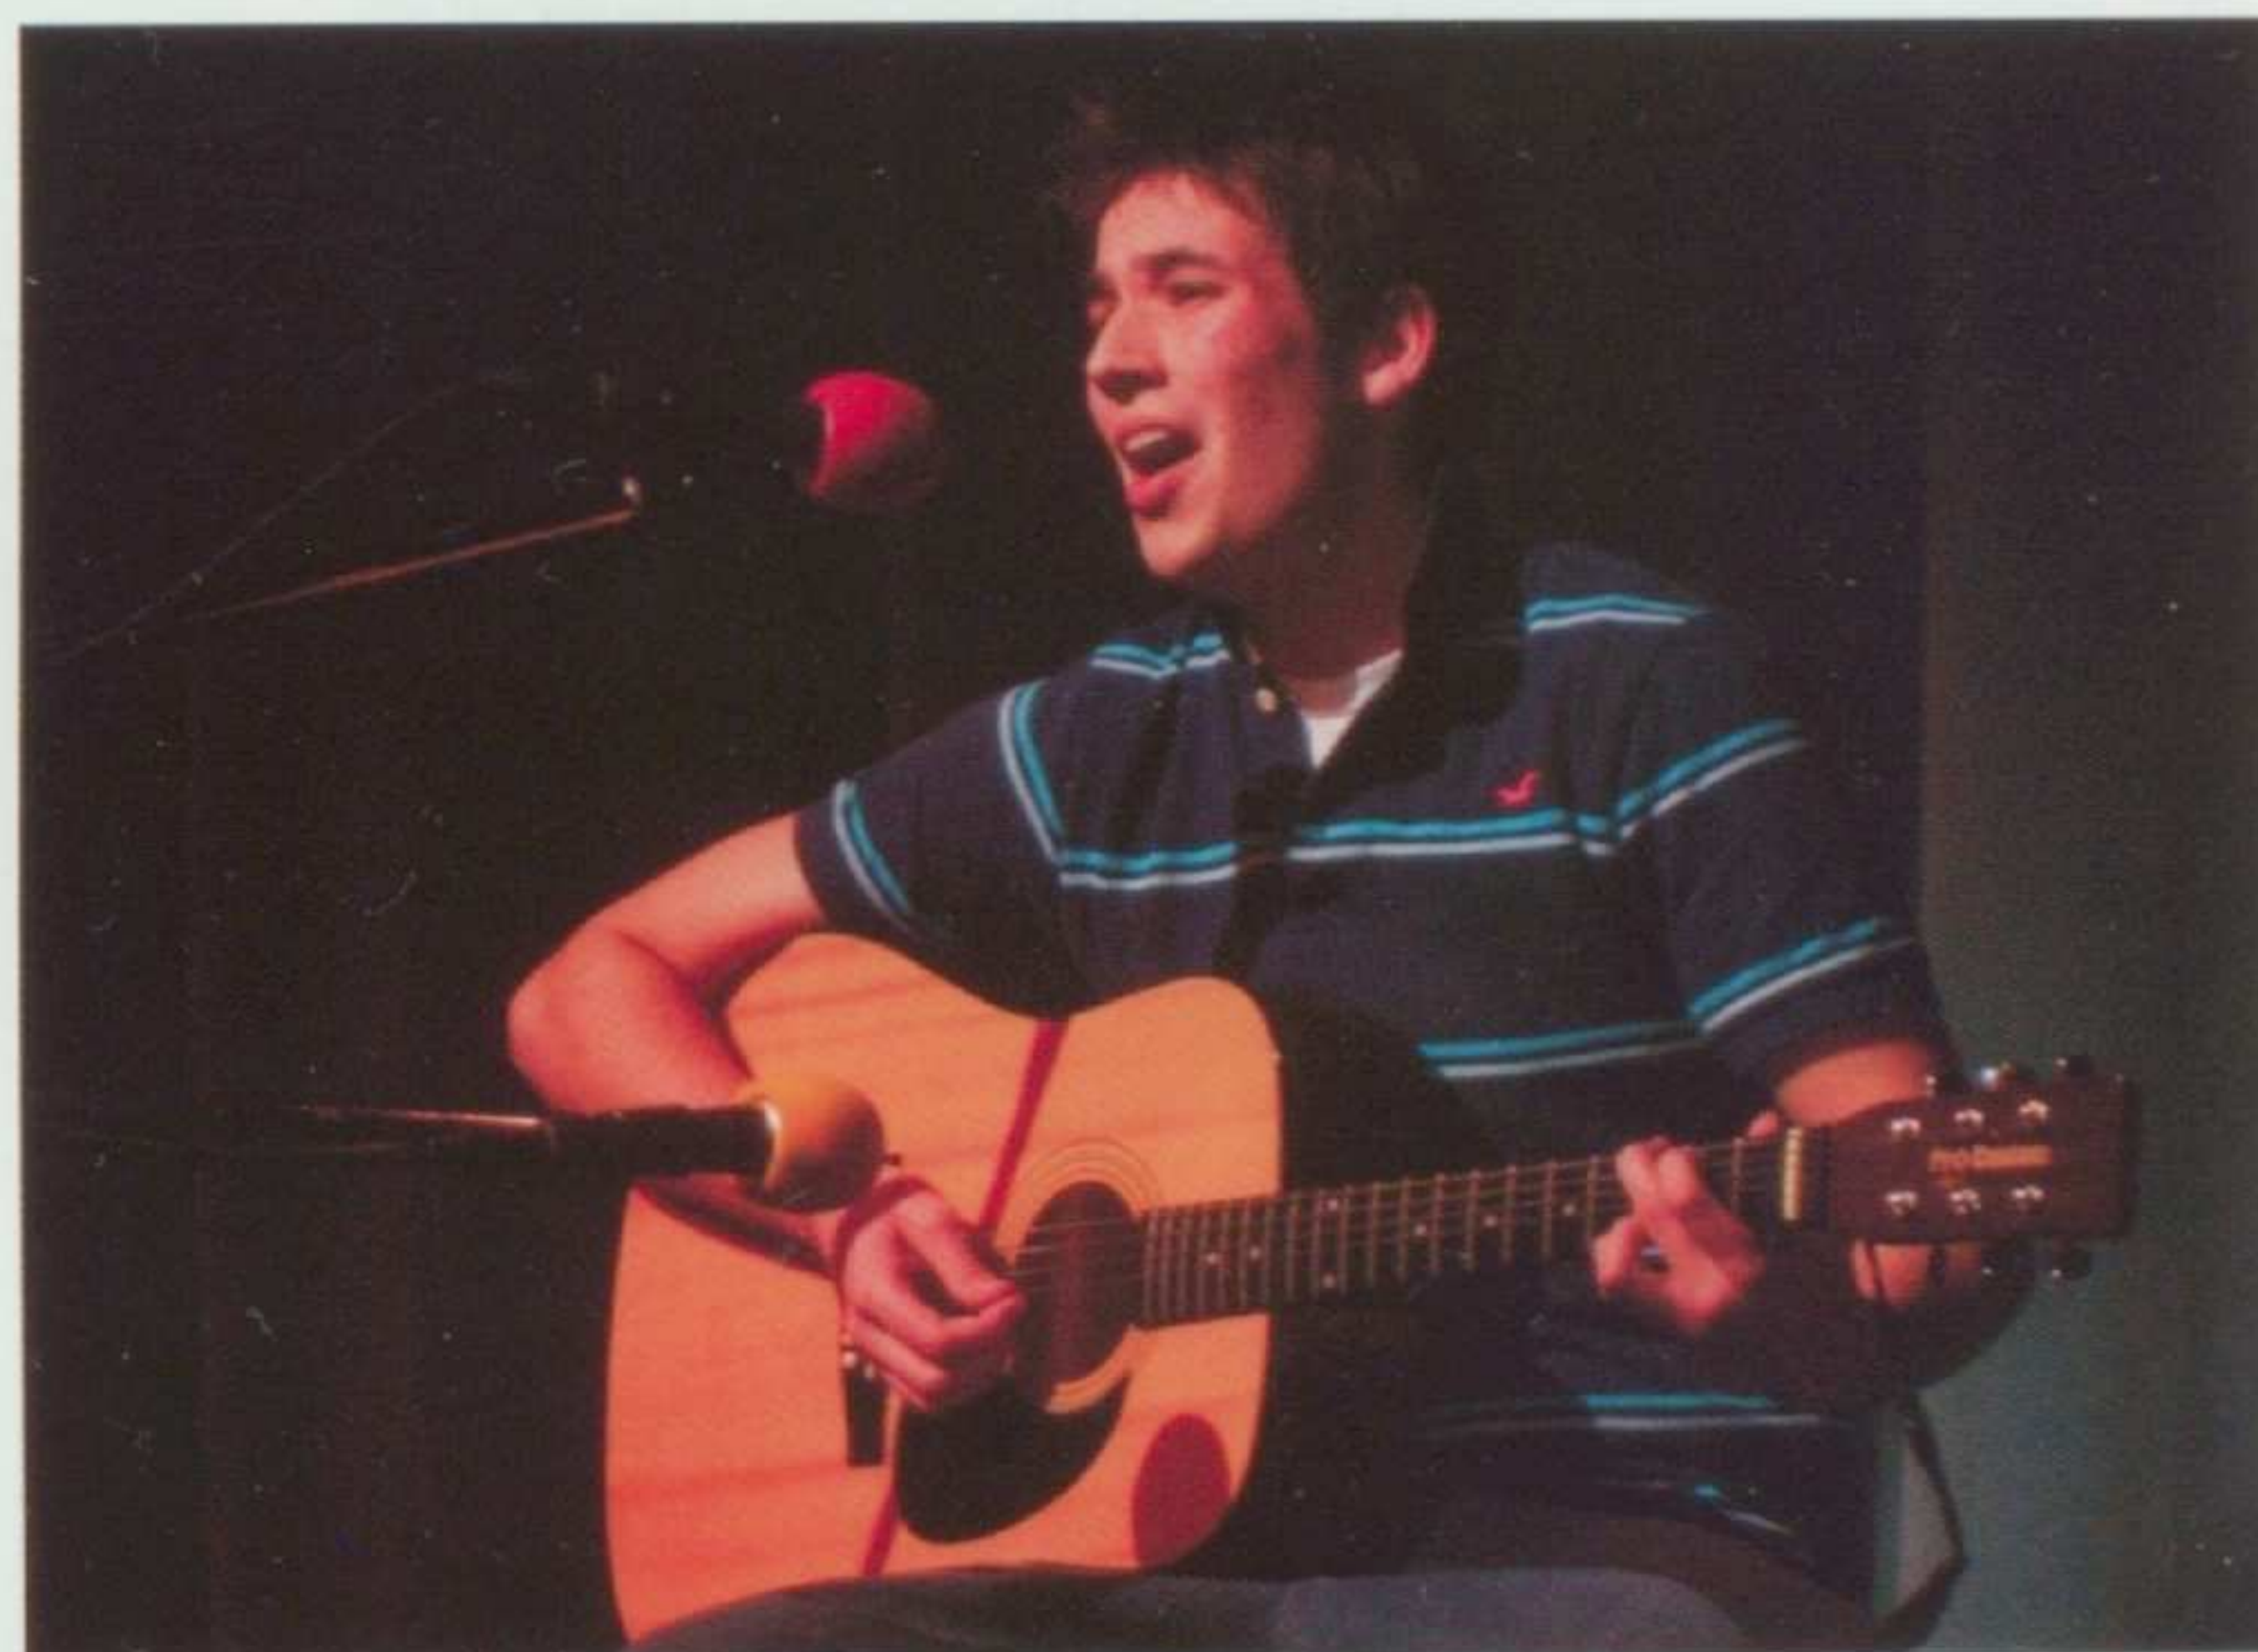

Beat boxing his way to the top, sophomore Aaron Campbell, swooned the audience for the 2005 talent show. His smooth rhythm and stunning sounds from the "Mario Brothers" landed him first place.

Andrew Bloom interviews potential rock star Matt Anthony, who answers questions and makes comments after his sound breaking guitar solo. Matt was truly crowned the "Speed Demon."

One of the most awakening performances of the night comes when senior Chris Collier pours his heart out to the audience. The sensual lyrics in his original composition "Distant Sunset" scores him brownie points with the ladies and a date to prom.

Our "American Idols"

Talent show veterans and seniors Ben Mooney and Andrew Gordon live up to audience expectations with their fresh guitar and tabla duet of "Teach Your Children Well."

Life experiences have given sophomore Kristen Anderson inspiration for her original piece entitled "Distant Star," which revealed her range of poetic expression and musical collaboration. This girl is a "star" on the rise.

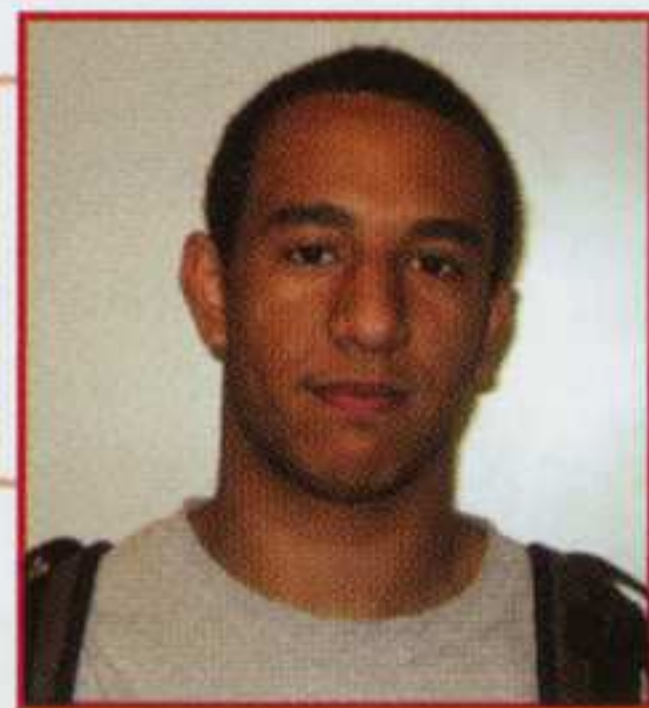

Warming up before the big show, junior Jessica Watters tunes her voice with notes from Avril Lavigne's "Nobody's Home."

strong team chemistry lead the team to a great season

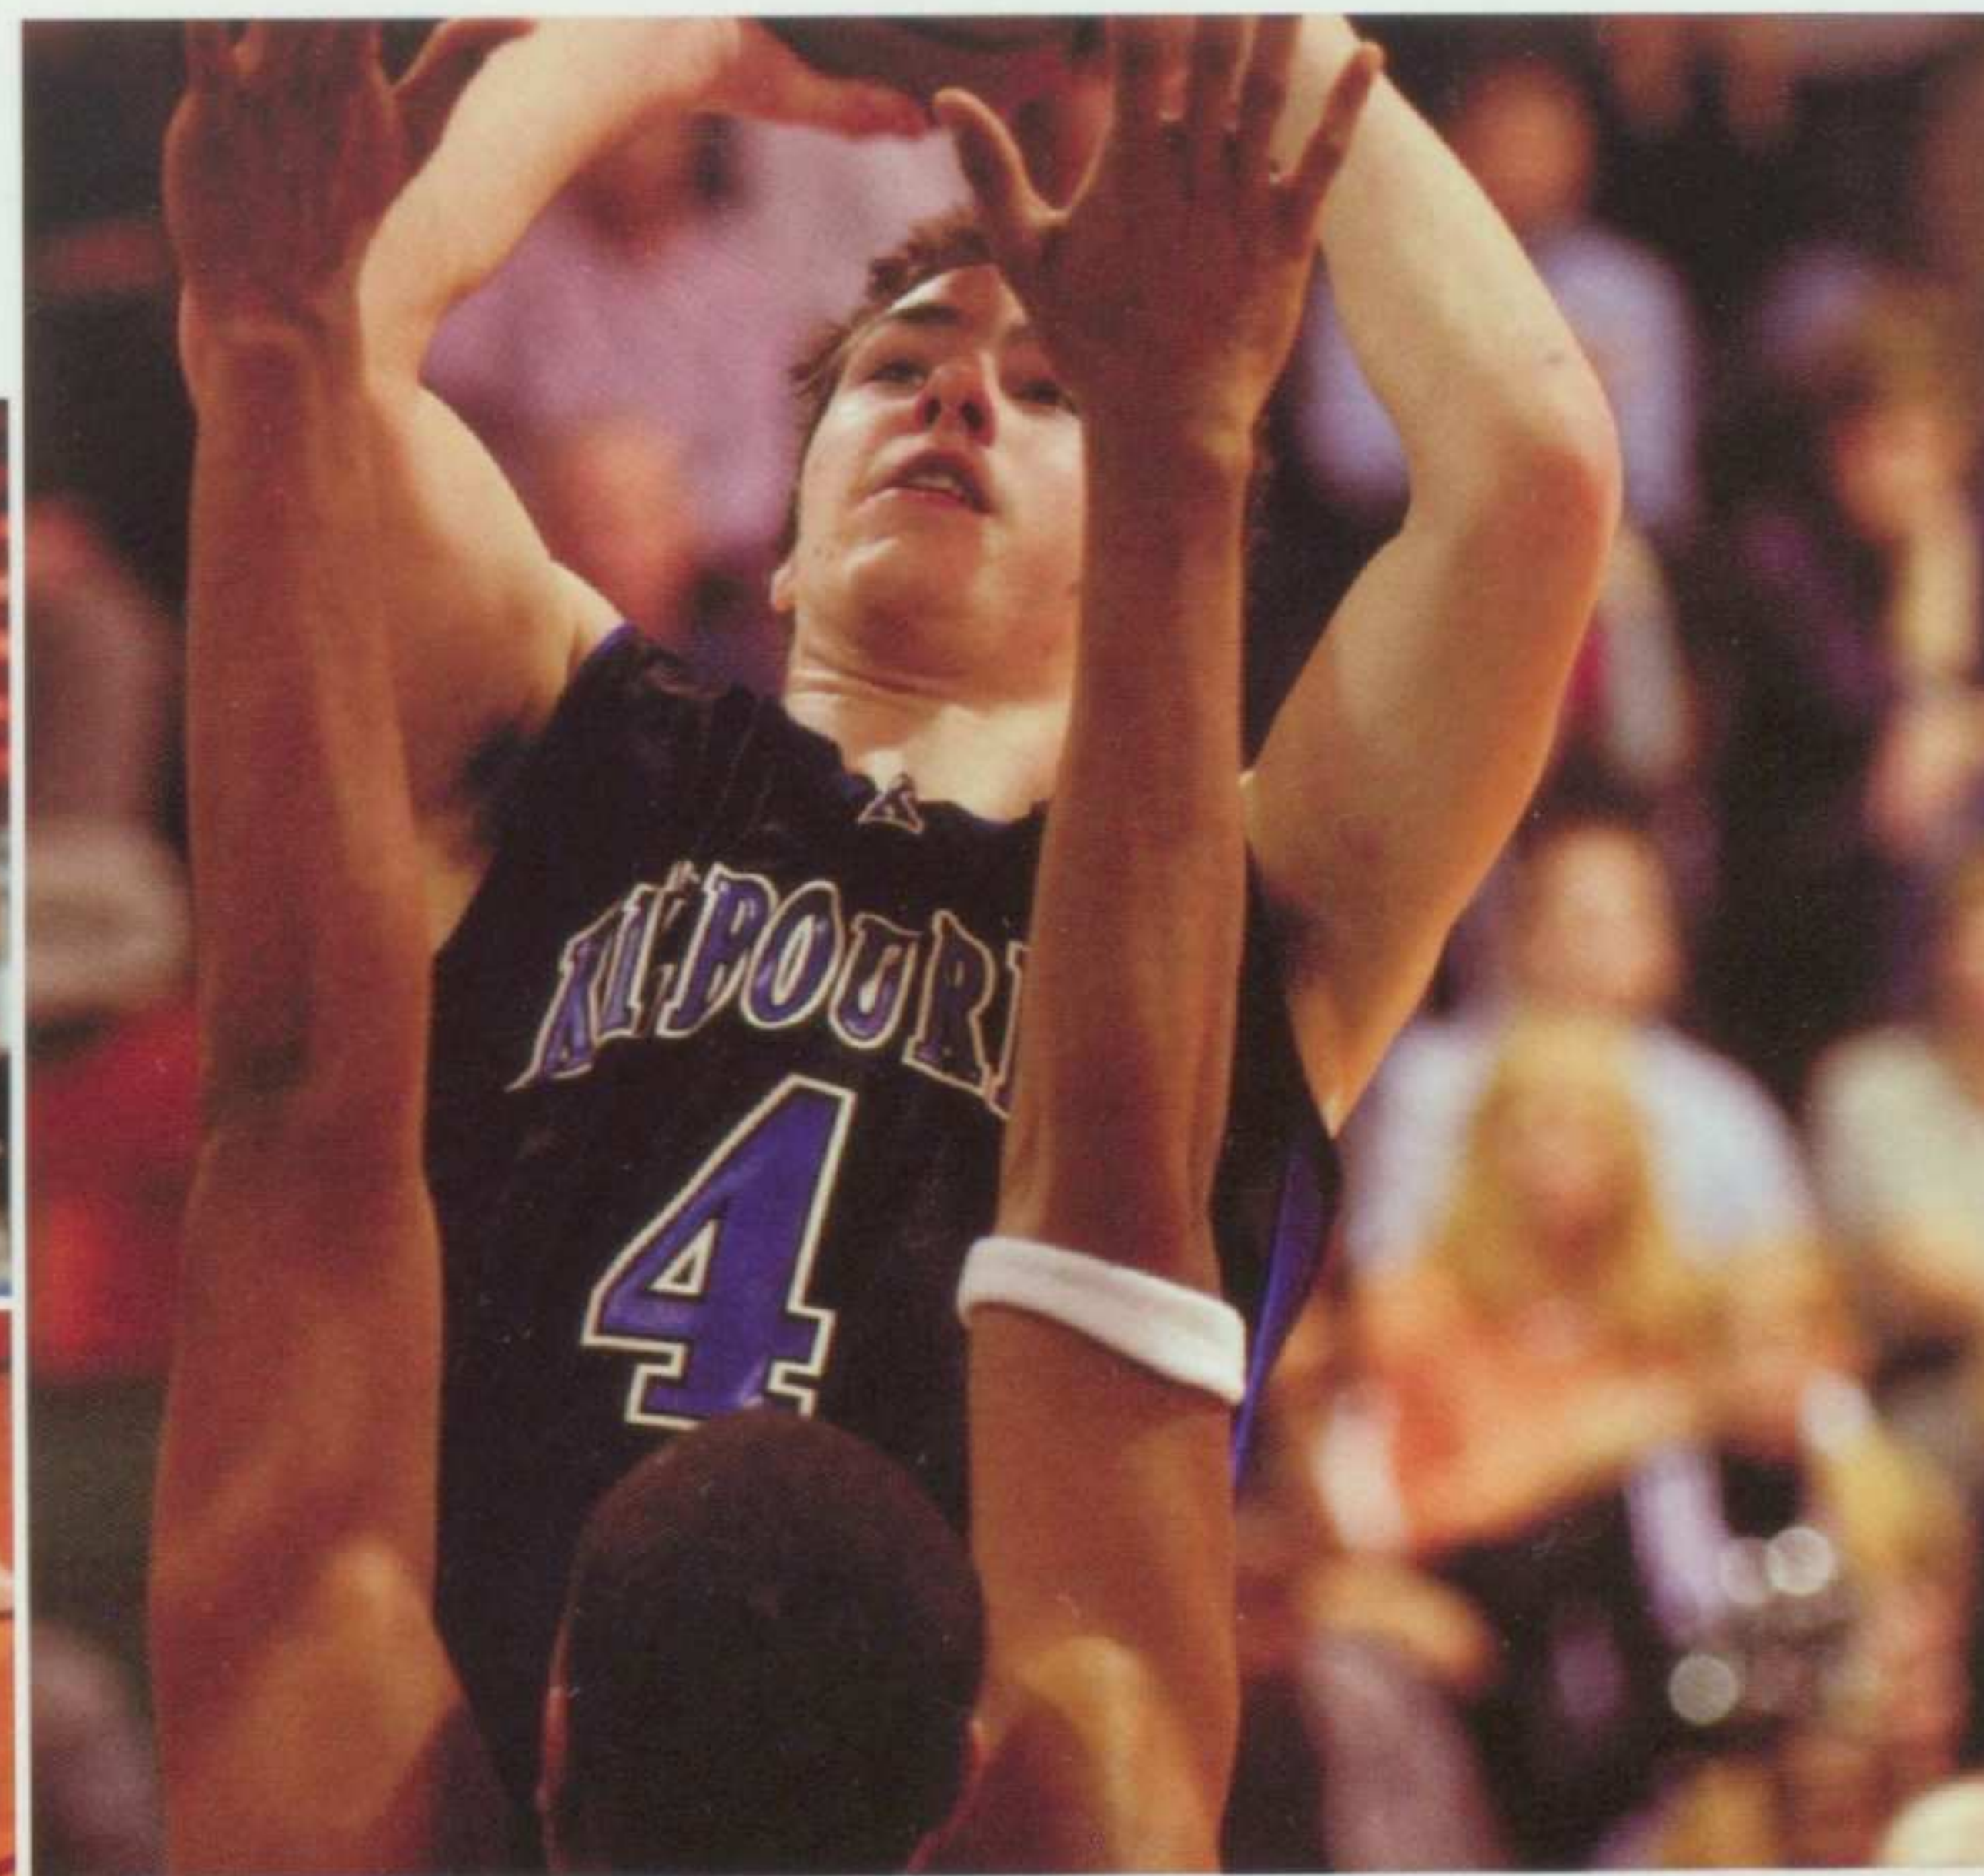

Dribbling past a Grove City player, junior Austin Dahn appreciates the backup from Mounir Benzegala.

Battling his opponent for the ball is senior Seth Green.

Rejecting the block of a Dublin player, Ben Jekeli looks for an open team mate to complete the play.

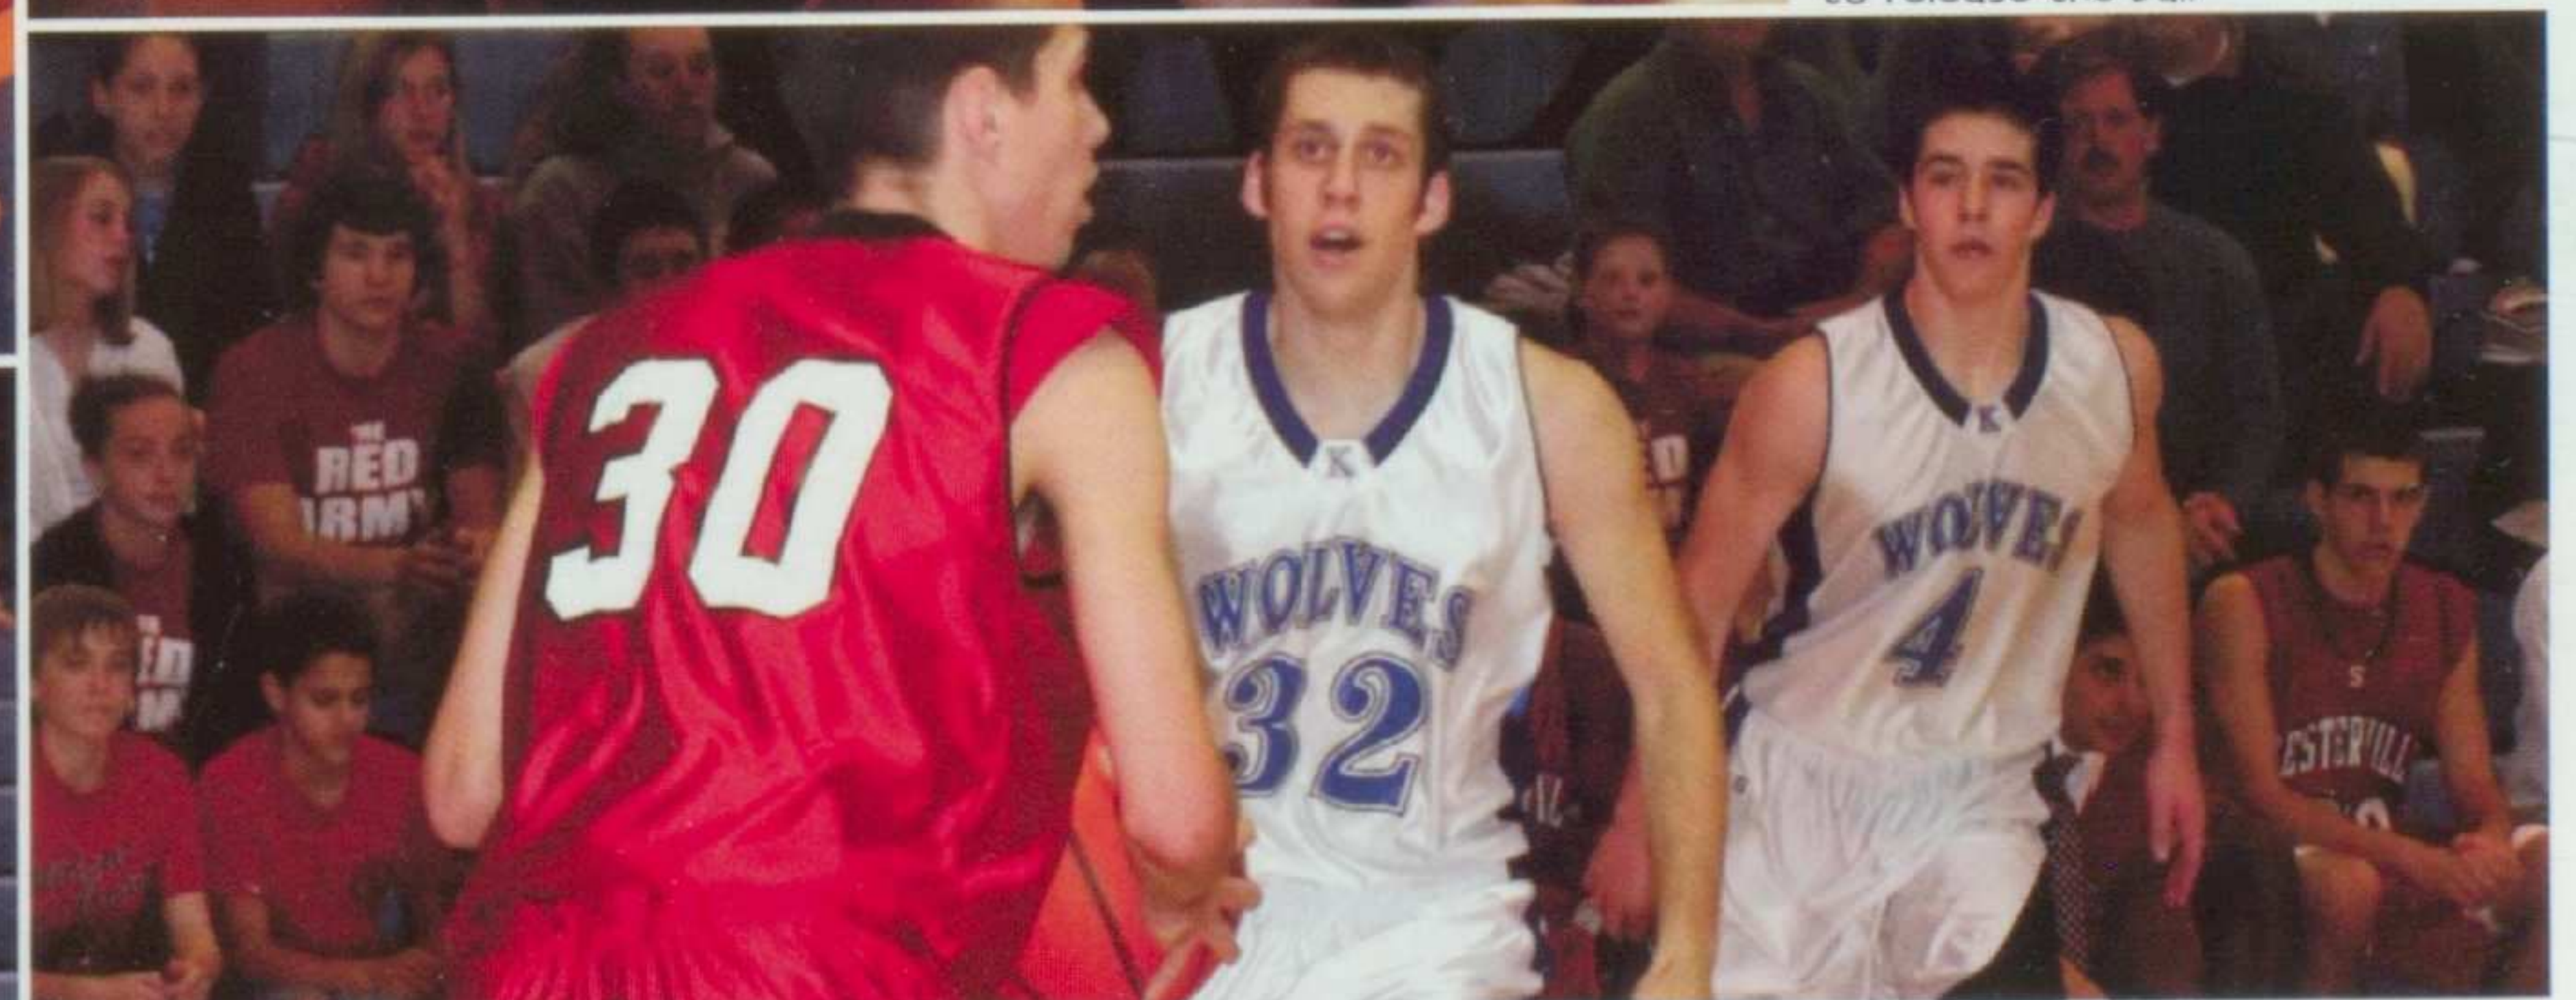

Great team chemistry was the common theme this year, leading the team to an 11-9 season.

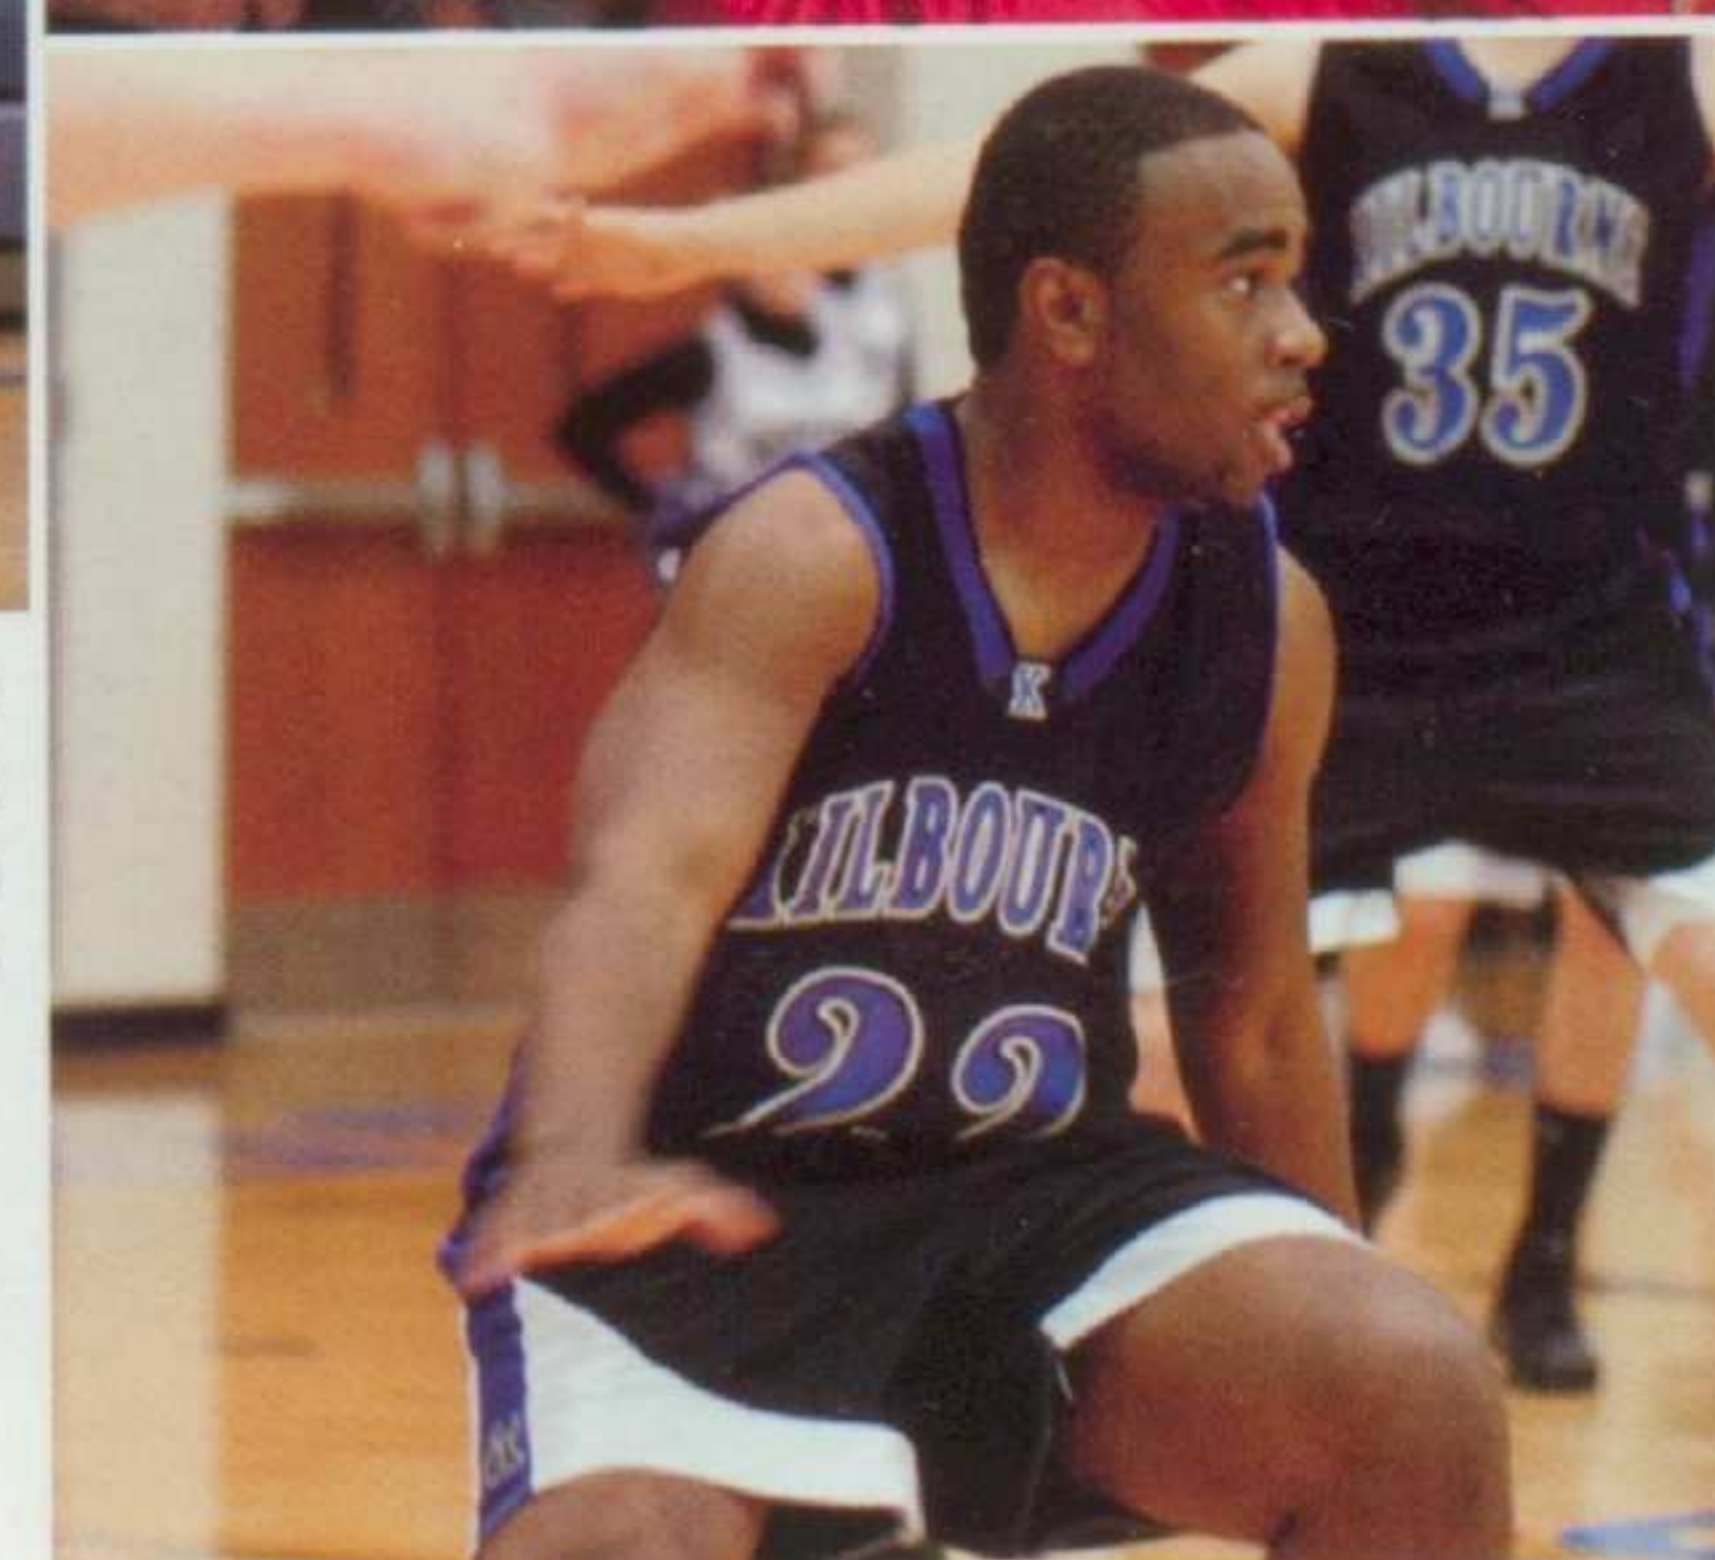

Coach Souder said, "The 2004-2005 team will forever remain in the history of WKHS. They were the first team to post 11 wins. More importantly, I enjoyed working with these outstanding young people on a daily basis! They were committed to each other and had fun while competing at the highest level. I look forward to helping the underclassmen strive to new levels while wishing the best for the seniors."

Congratulations, guys, and good luck next year!

Successfully shooting over his opponent, senior team captain Dan Scheaf is ready to release the ball

Double teaming the opponent and blocking his shot, Seth Green and Dan Scheaf work together to steal the ball.

Stayin' low and trying to catch his fall is Arthur Poindexter. Watch yourself!

Offering some insight about her last season, seniors Mina Ananth and Ashley Gueth explain. "The seniors gave 100 percent throughout the season and set a good example for the team."

into next year as the lady Wolves work on basic skills

Even though the record wasn't great and the season was less than perfect, the team bond was amazing. Losing only three seniors to graduation, the team will have a lot of returning letter winners next year.

Katie Kizer, Ashley Gueth, and Mina Ananth led the team not only in points but also in team unity. They are looking for the underclassmen to step up and bring Kilbourne a better season in the future. They all agree they will miss the seniors and their leadership, however.

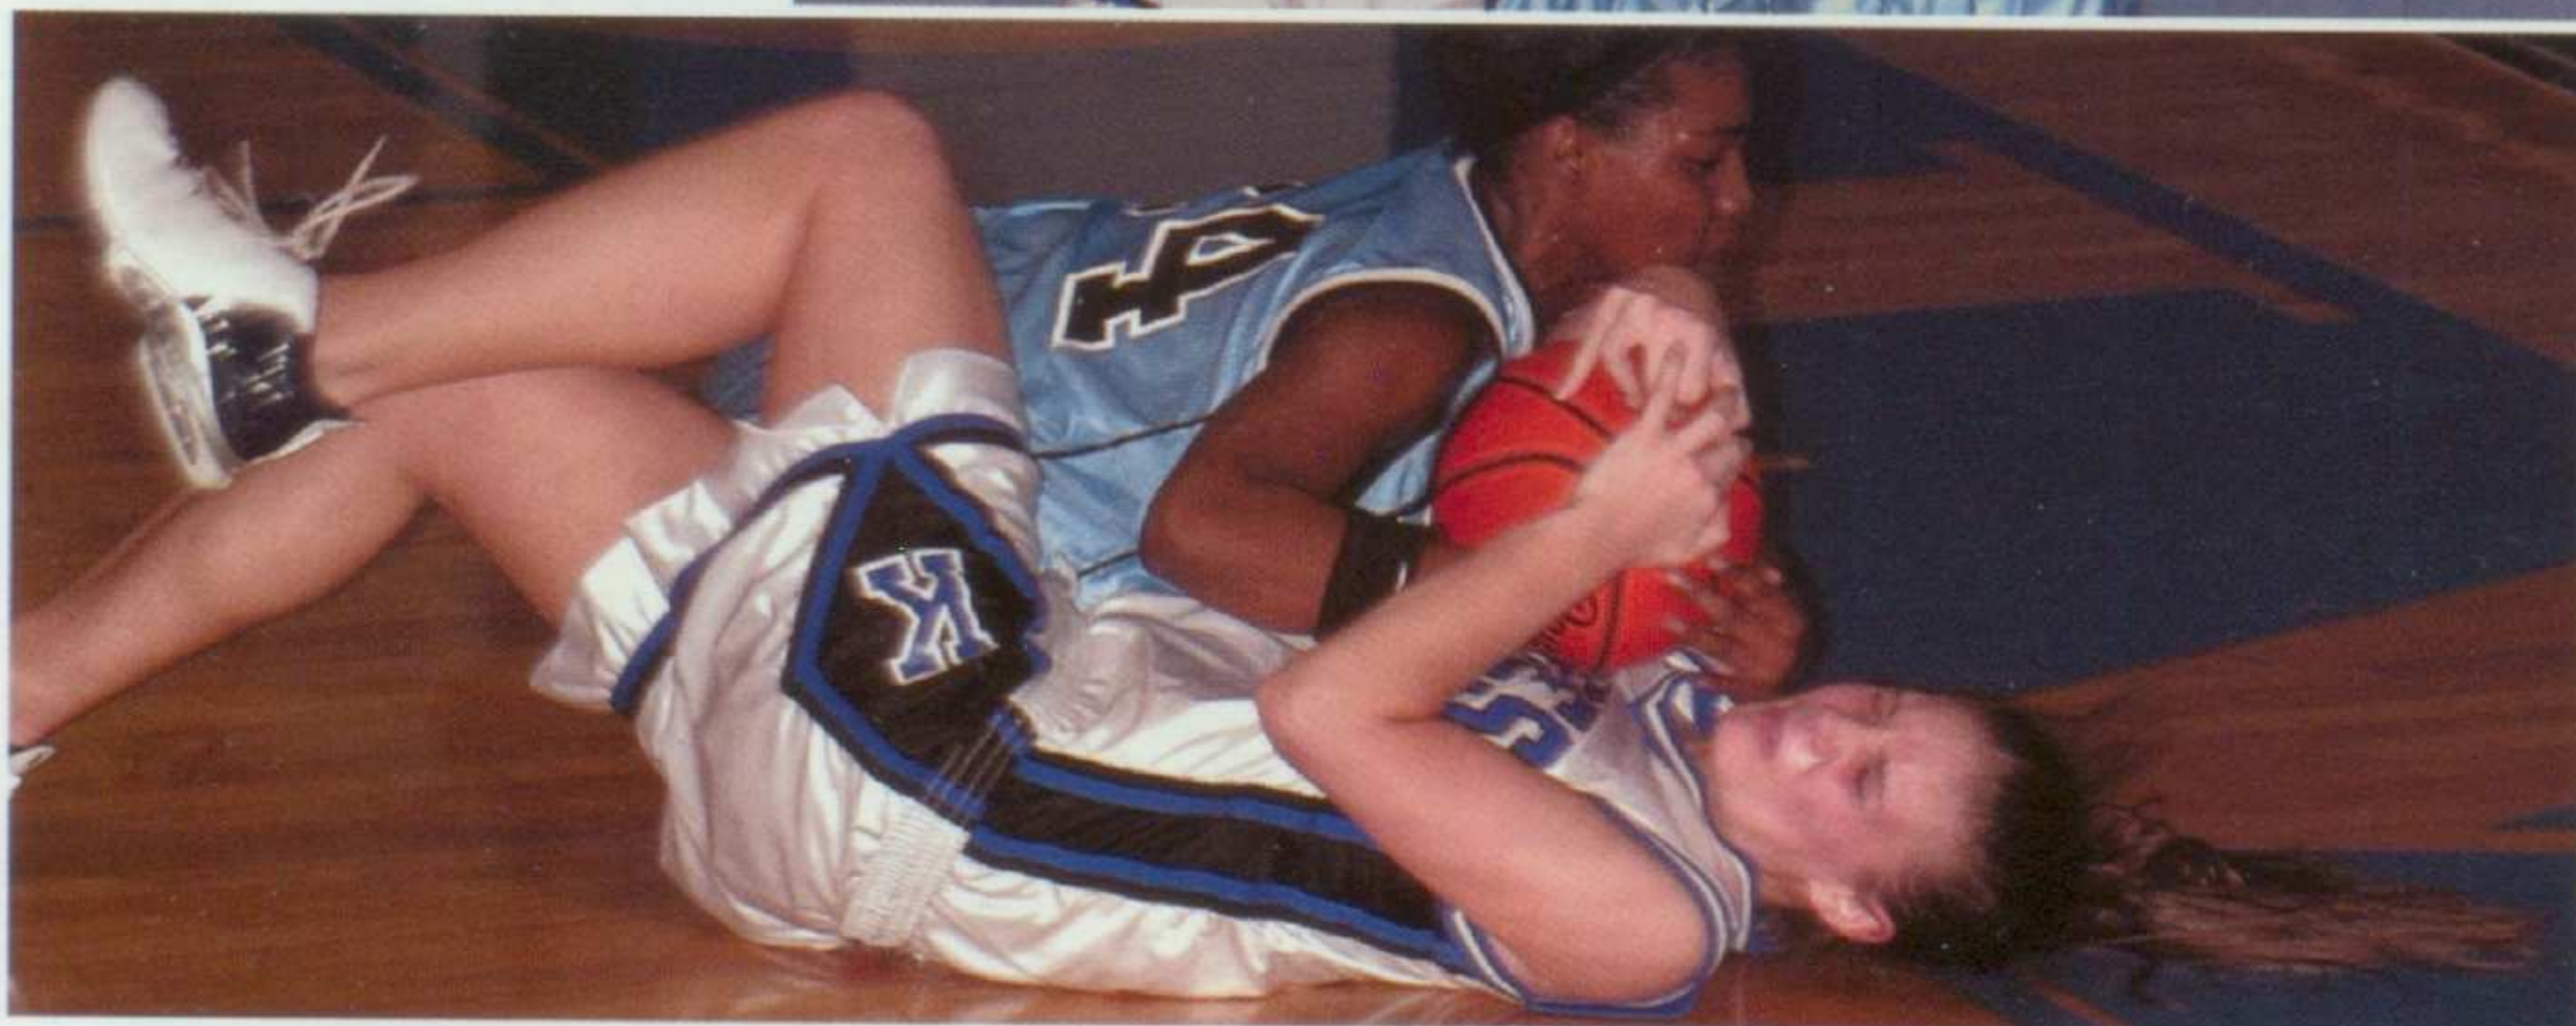

Jumping with all her power to block her opponent from making a shot is senior Ashley Gueth.

Showing her skills, senior Mina Ananth attempts to pass to a teammate around her opponent.

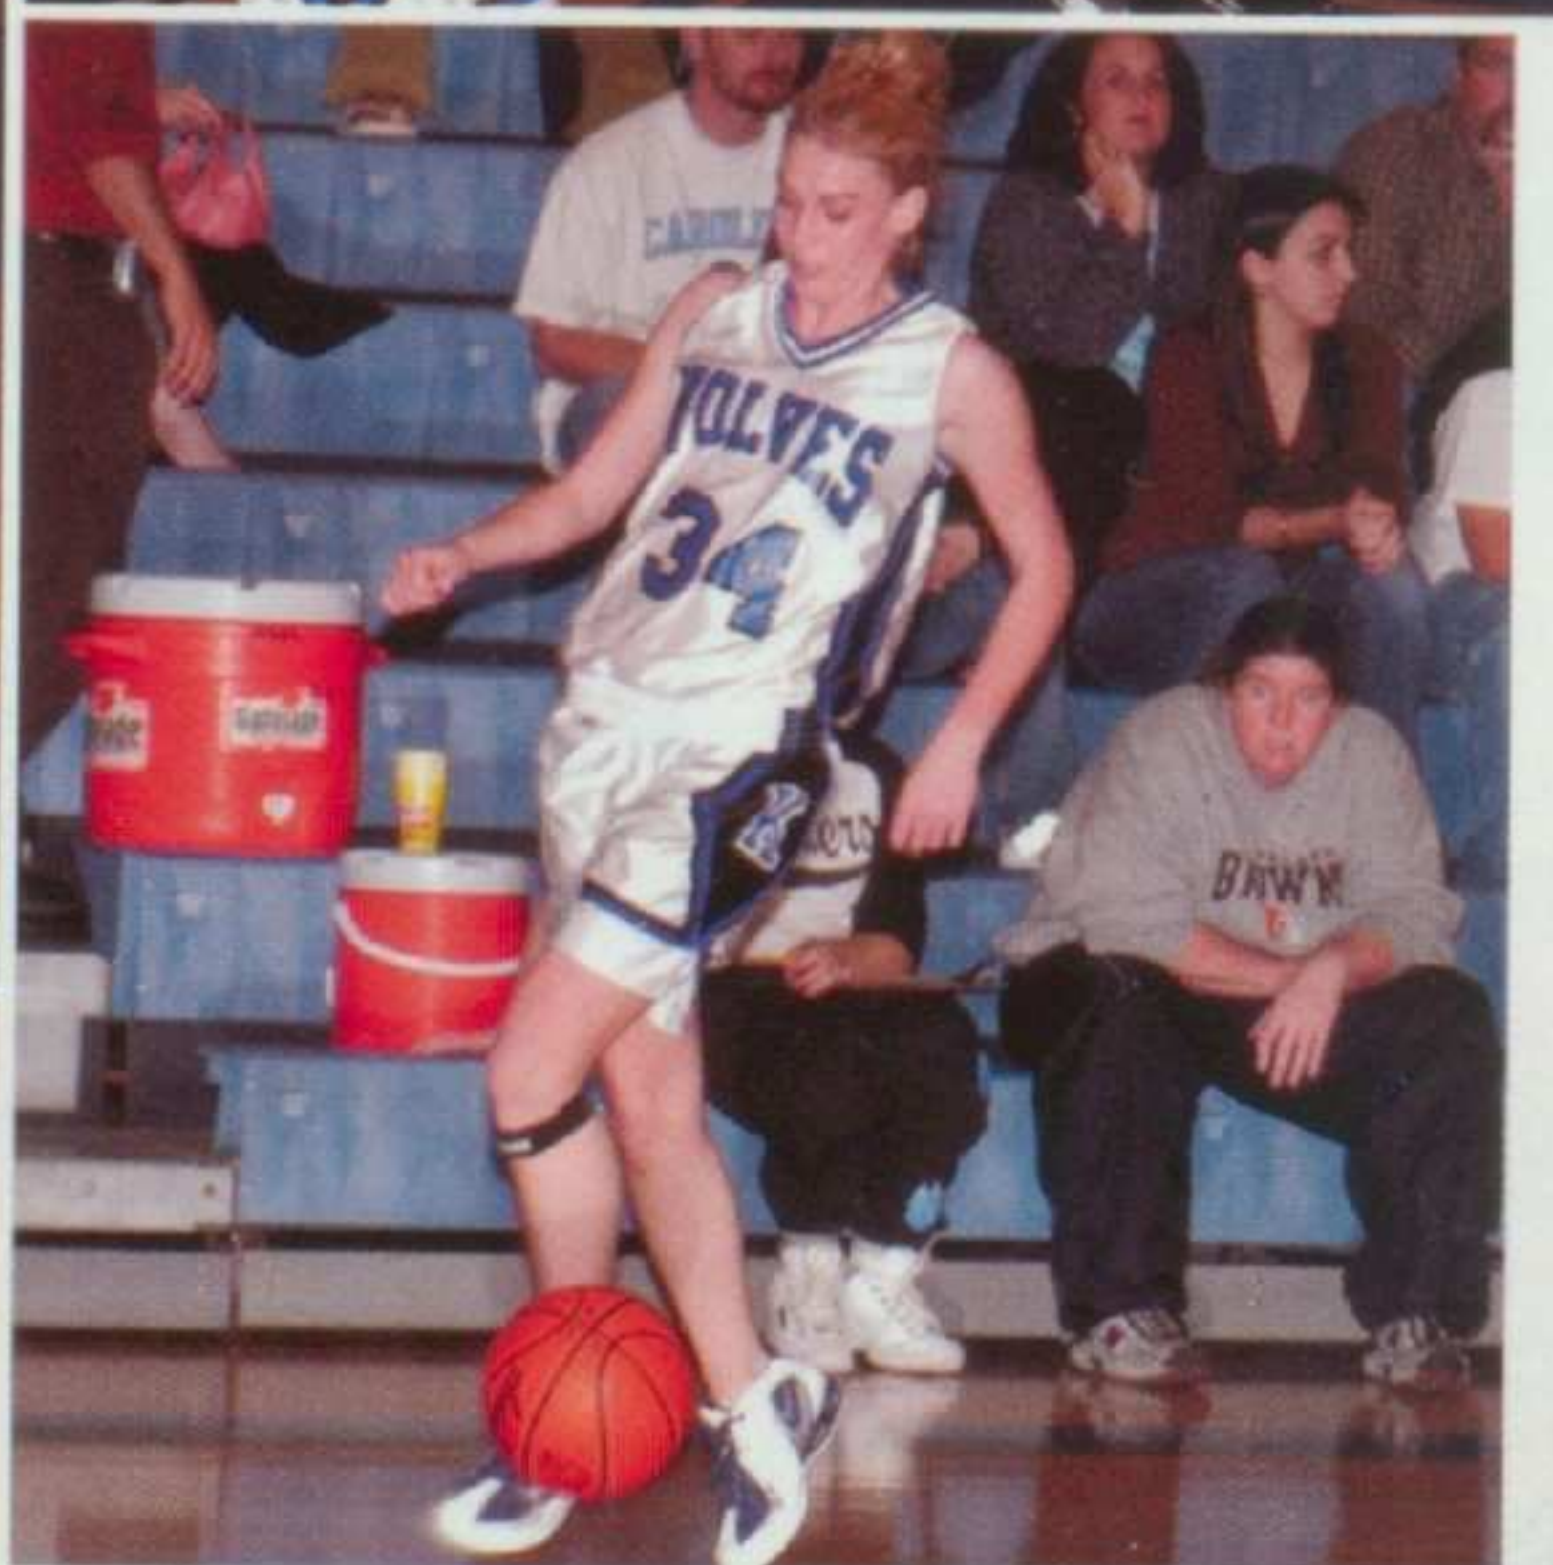

Tossing the ball into play, junior Lyda Sprague insists. "I'm proud of the collective effort of the team put forth."

Getting dirty and showing her strength on the ground, senior Katie Kizer holds on to force a jump ball call.

Pivoting space and faking out her opponent is junior Reene Miller.

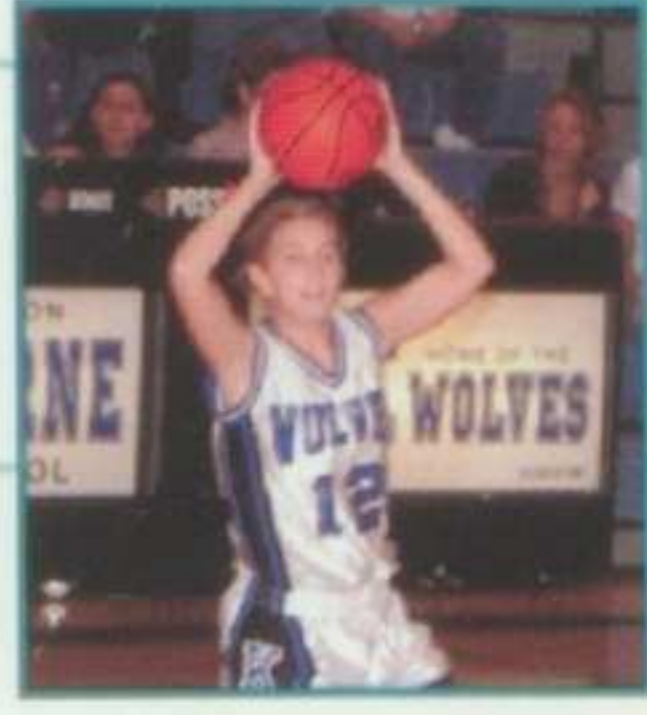

Waiting on the ball to roll out of bounds, junior Reene Miller says she is "sad to see the seniors leave."

With her teammates behind her, Dawn McFarlin takes the ball to the hoop. Dawn says, "We really helped each other through the tough practices and intense games. I am going to miss our seniors next season."

It was a tough season as far as the practices and the games, but the team really bonded which was great.

the Wolves skate their way through another season

"The team worked hard throughout the entire season. I had so much fun playing with the guys. I can't wait until next season." Kilbourne sophomore Grant Patmon explains.

Waiting for a pass is junior Graham Clark. "My favorite game this year was our last game against Thomas when we finally won."

Freshman defender Nick Carney collapses to the ground after a difficult game. The team showed a lot of unity on and off the ice.

We may not think that ice hockey team had a successful season if we were to look just at the records. All of the players made it clear their season was not about the score. Sophomore Colin Veatch explained, "Everyone got along really well together. We also know each other well which helps us play together more efficiently on the ice."

The guys ended their season with a memorable final game against Thomas Worthington, bringing home a final win.

As forward Dan Petke waits for his chance to score. He explains, "I had so much fun playing this season, but we are going to miss Eric."

"I'm really going to miss playing with my brother Eric next year. We have always played hockey together," junior captain Pat Koenig explains.

Working in tandem are Austin Clouse and Craig Meyer. "We really came together and worked hard this season," Meyer explains.

We are the Wolves "Woo woo," and we are the best!

The winter season of cheerleading was a success. The girls did an awesome job of pumping up the crowd while helping lead the team to victory. Not only did the girls get to cheer for one of the best Kilbourne basketball teams to ever come through, but the competition squad enjoyed many achievements.

They took first place out of twelve teams early in the season and then on a trip down to Orlando, Florida, they brought home fourth in the nation. To complete their 2005 record, they won OCC's!

Every game the cheerleaders greet the varsity basketball team onto the court.

"Give me a W!" "W!" "Give me an O!" "O!" "Give me a L!" "L!" "Give me a V-E-S." encourages Ashley Coen, Maria Stasko and Lindsay Brelus.

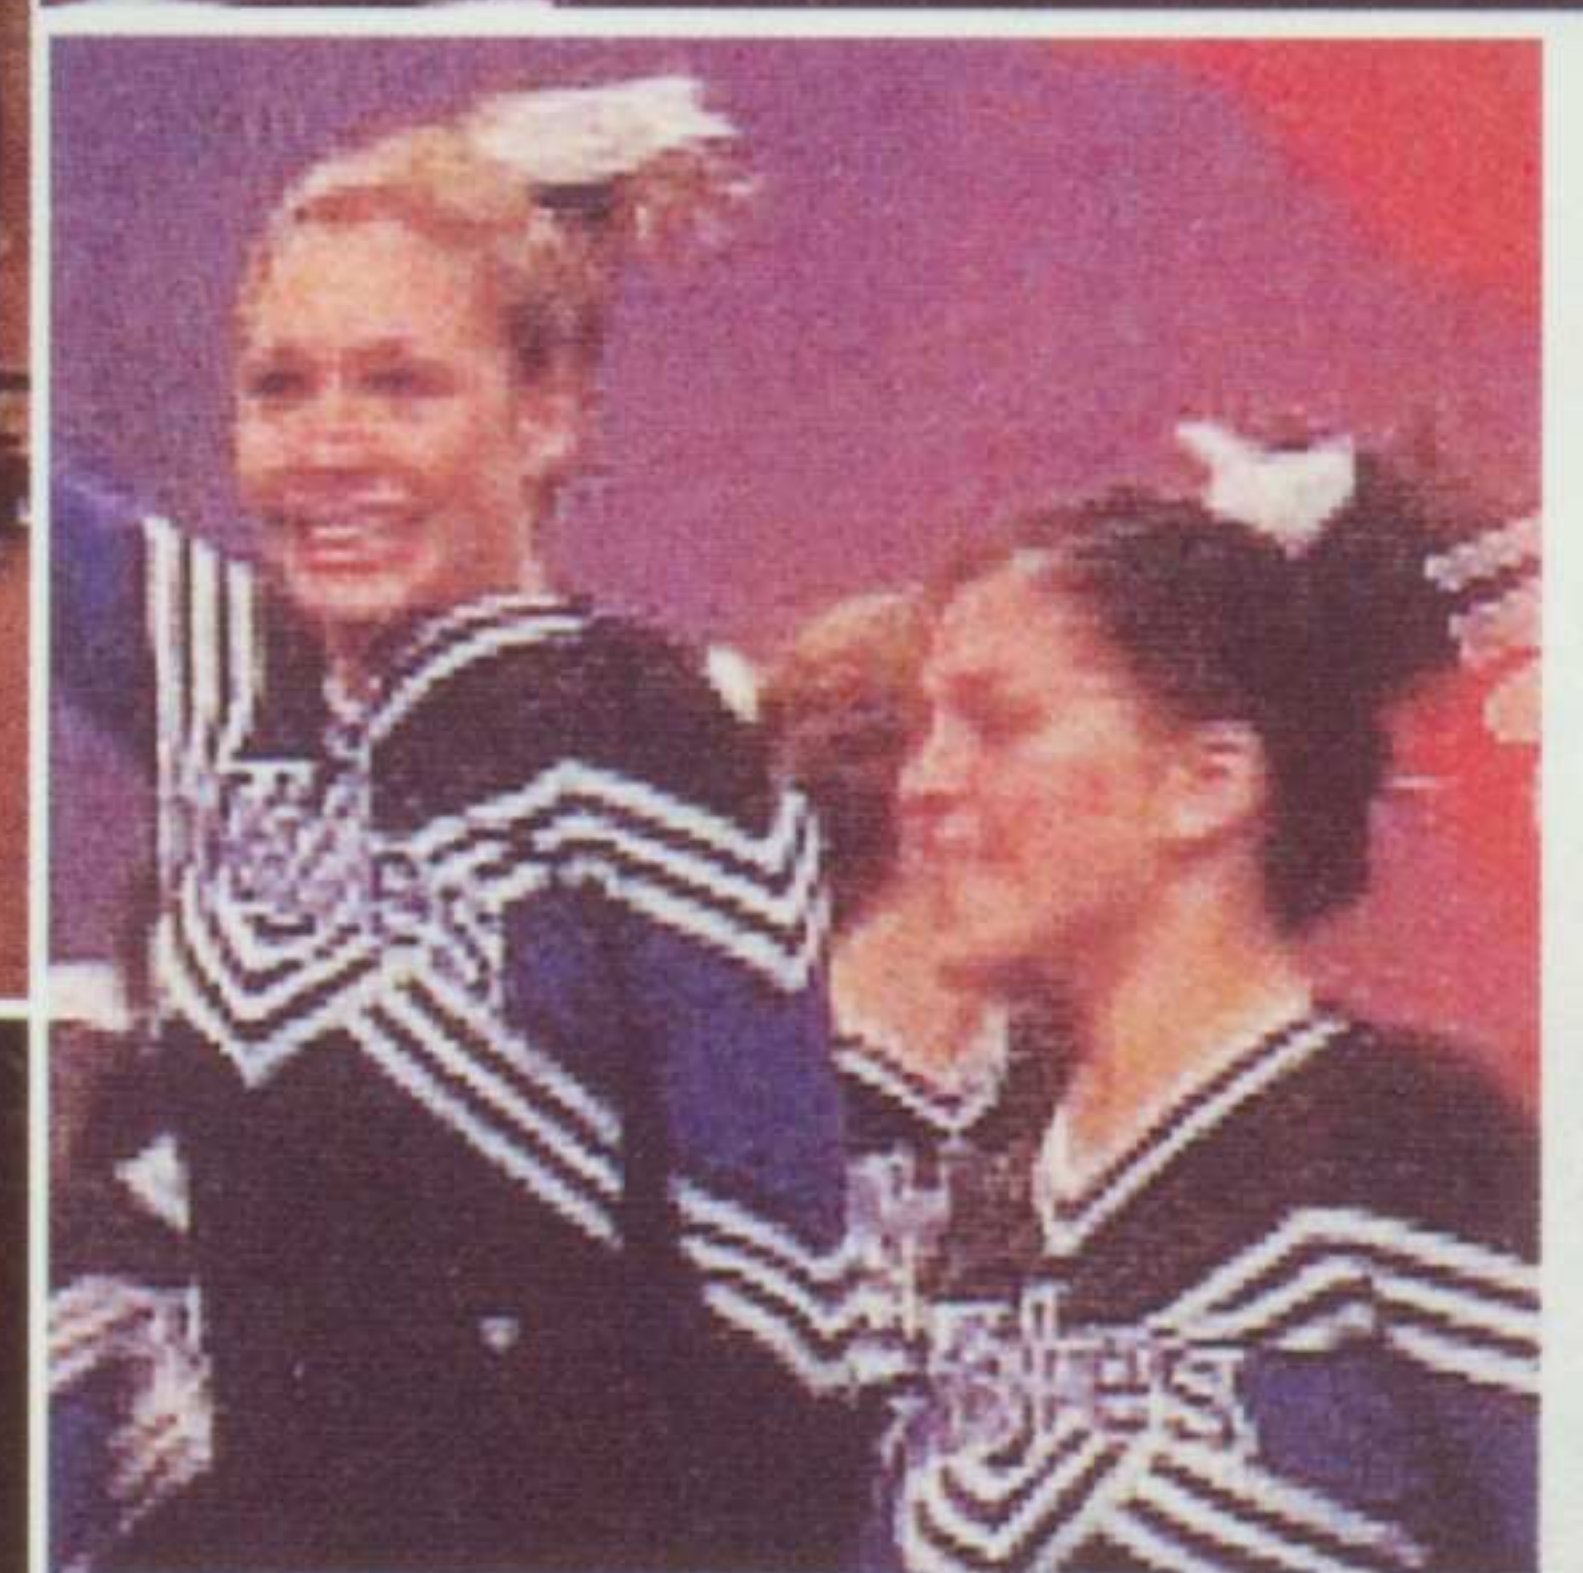

Dancing their way to the top are Kristen Nooks, Tina Fry and Sarah Sterbenz.

Doing a cheer between quarters is the junior varsity squad, Kristin Anderson, Erin Wheat, Lindsay Curtis, Annie Cercone, Katie Abate, and Kristen Nooks.

Dancing during a time out is varsity member Ashley Coen.

Turning on the charm while showing their personality at Nationals are Jill Pritchett and Ashley Garner.

"I don't know if it's the morning swim practice at 5 A.M. or shaving my legs for districts, but something about all of this made my four years in swimming great," reflects Philip Bunting

Boys relay team carries Kilbourne tradition to states

Visualizing his form and entry into the water, swimmer John Coleman leads the way.

Crouching down and enjoying their last night in the pool, these swimmers enjoy senior night festivities before jumping into the water for the last time.

For years now the boys swim team has been one of the most successful programs in school history, whether it was Worthington Kilbourne or old Worthington High School. Recently, spectators had been wondering where the great swimmers had gone. This year was truly the return to glory for the guys.

With Mike Schott, Brian Bunting, Mike Fu, and Mitch Denti, the boys relay team battled through sectionals, districts, and states to put on a show. On the final day of states, the boys placed 16th overall to make a name for themselves as some of the best swimmers in the state.

After qualifying for states, the swimmers are right to be proud.

Just like the United States post office, rain nor snow nor sleet can stop these varsity swimmers, even at the 5 A.M. practices.

Showing his power and determination, junior Mitch Denti flies through the water with his butterfly stroke.

Slicing through the water, Ryoma Ishii performs his best in the breast stroke, representing Kilbourne proud.

Contemplating both their own performance and that of their opponents, Claire Durkin, Ami Saji, Rachel Neiger, and Abby Lochtefeld wonder how their team is scoring.

dive in just keep swimming, just keep swimming, just keep swimming

The girls' swimming and diving team was outstanding! They demonstrated their commitment to the sport every morning at 5 A.M. when they dove into the calm pool, regardless of the cold outside. All the girls pushed themselves to swim their absolute best every meet. Winning first place in the OCC's was the pay off.

The team garnered second in both the sectionals and districts, and ninth place in states. Congratulations on such a terrific effort and the numerous sterling swims throughout the season.

Keeping her head above water, junior Megan Alexander swims a strong backstroke.

Hoping to move ahead of her opponents, Lindsey Freel glances around to check her position.

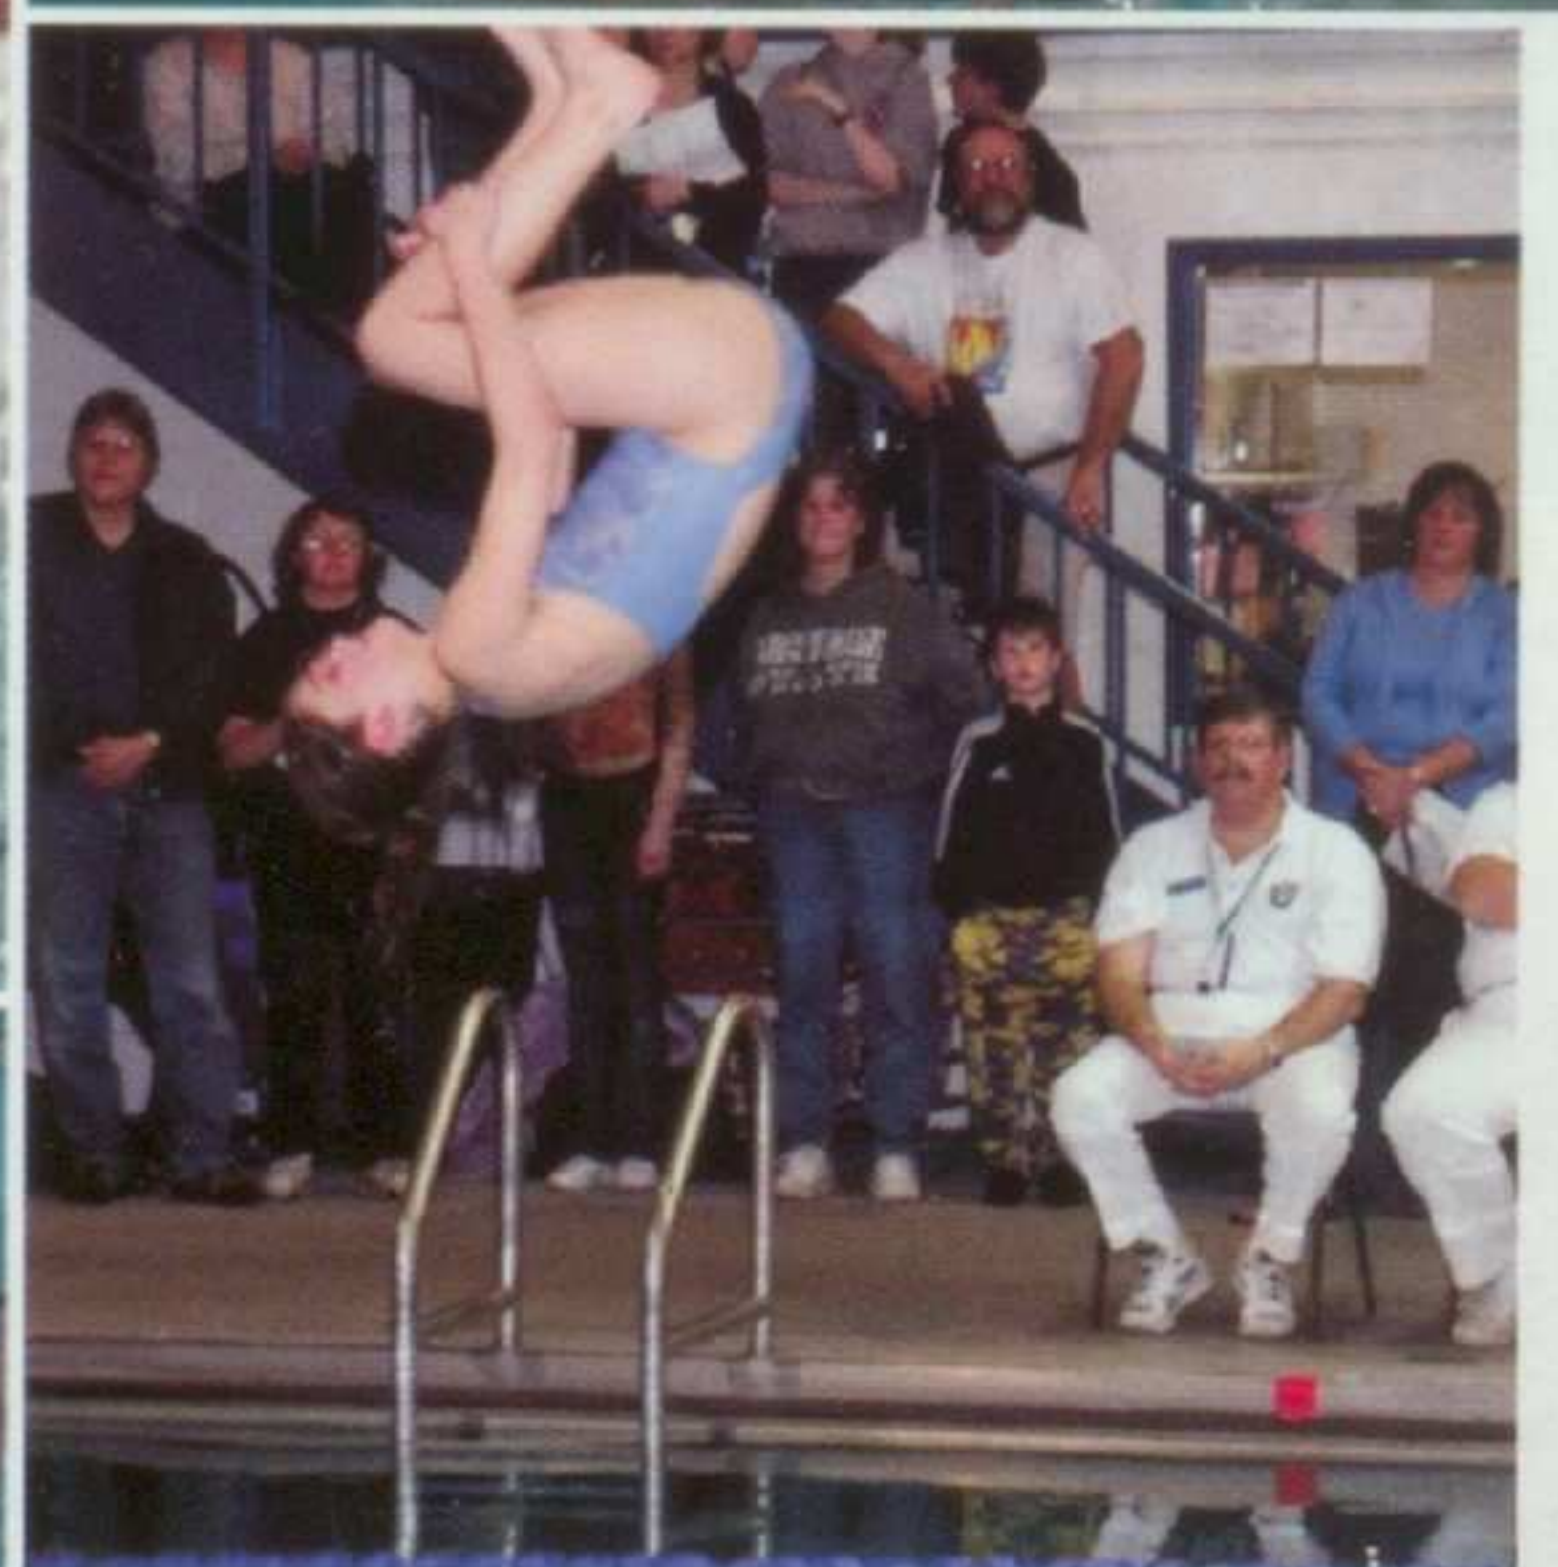

Up for some air during the breast stroke, Rachel Neiger keeps up the pace.

Racing to the finish line with a strong butterfly stroke is senior and captain Sarah Russell.

Taking off from the side and heading back down the lane, freshman Brittnay Dahn swims with proper form in the backstroke.

Coming out of a tuck on a back dive, junior Lauren Cipicchio hopes to cut the water with a perfect entry.

Captains

Bill Mauro

My favorite part of this season was when I pinned a Thomas player in 17 seconds.

Jeff Janacek

I was excited I got to play this year. I'm going to miss it next year at college.

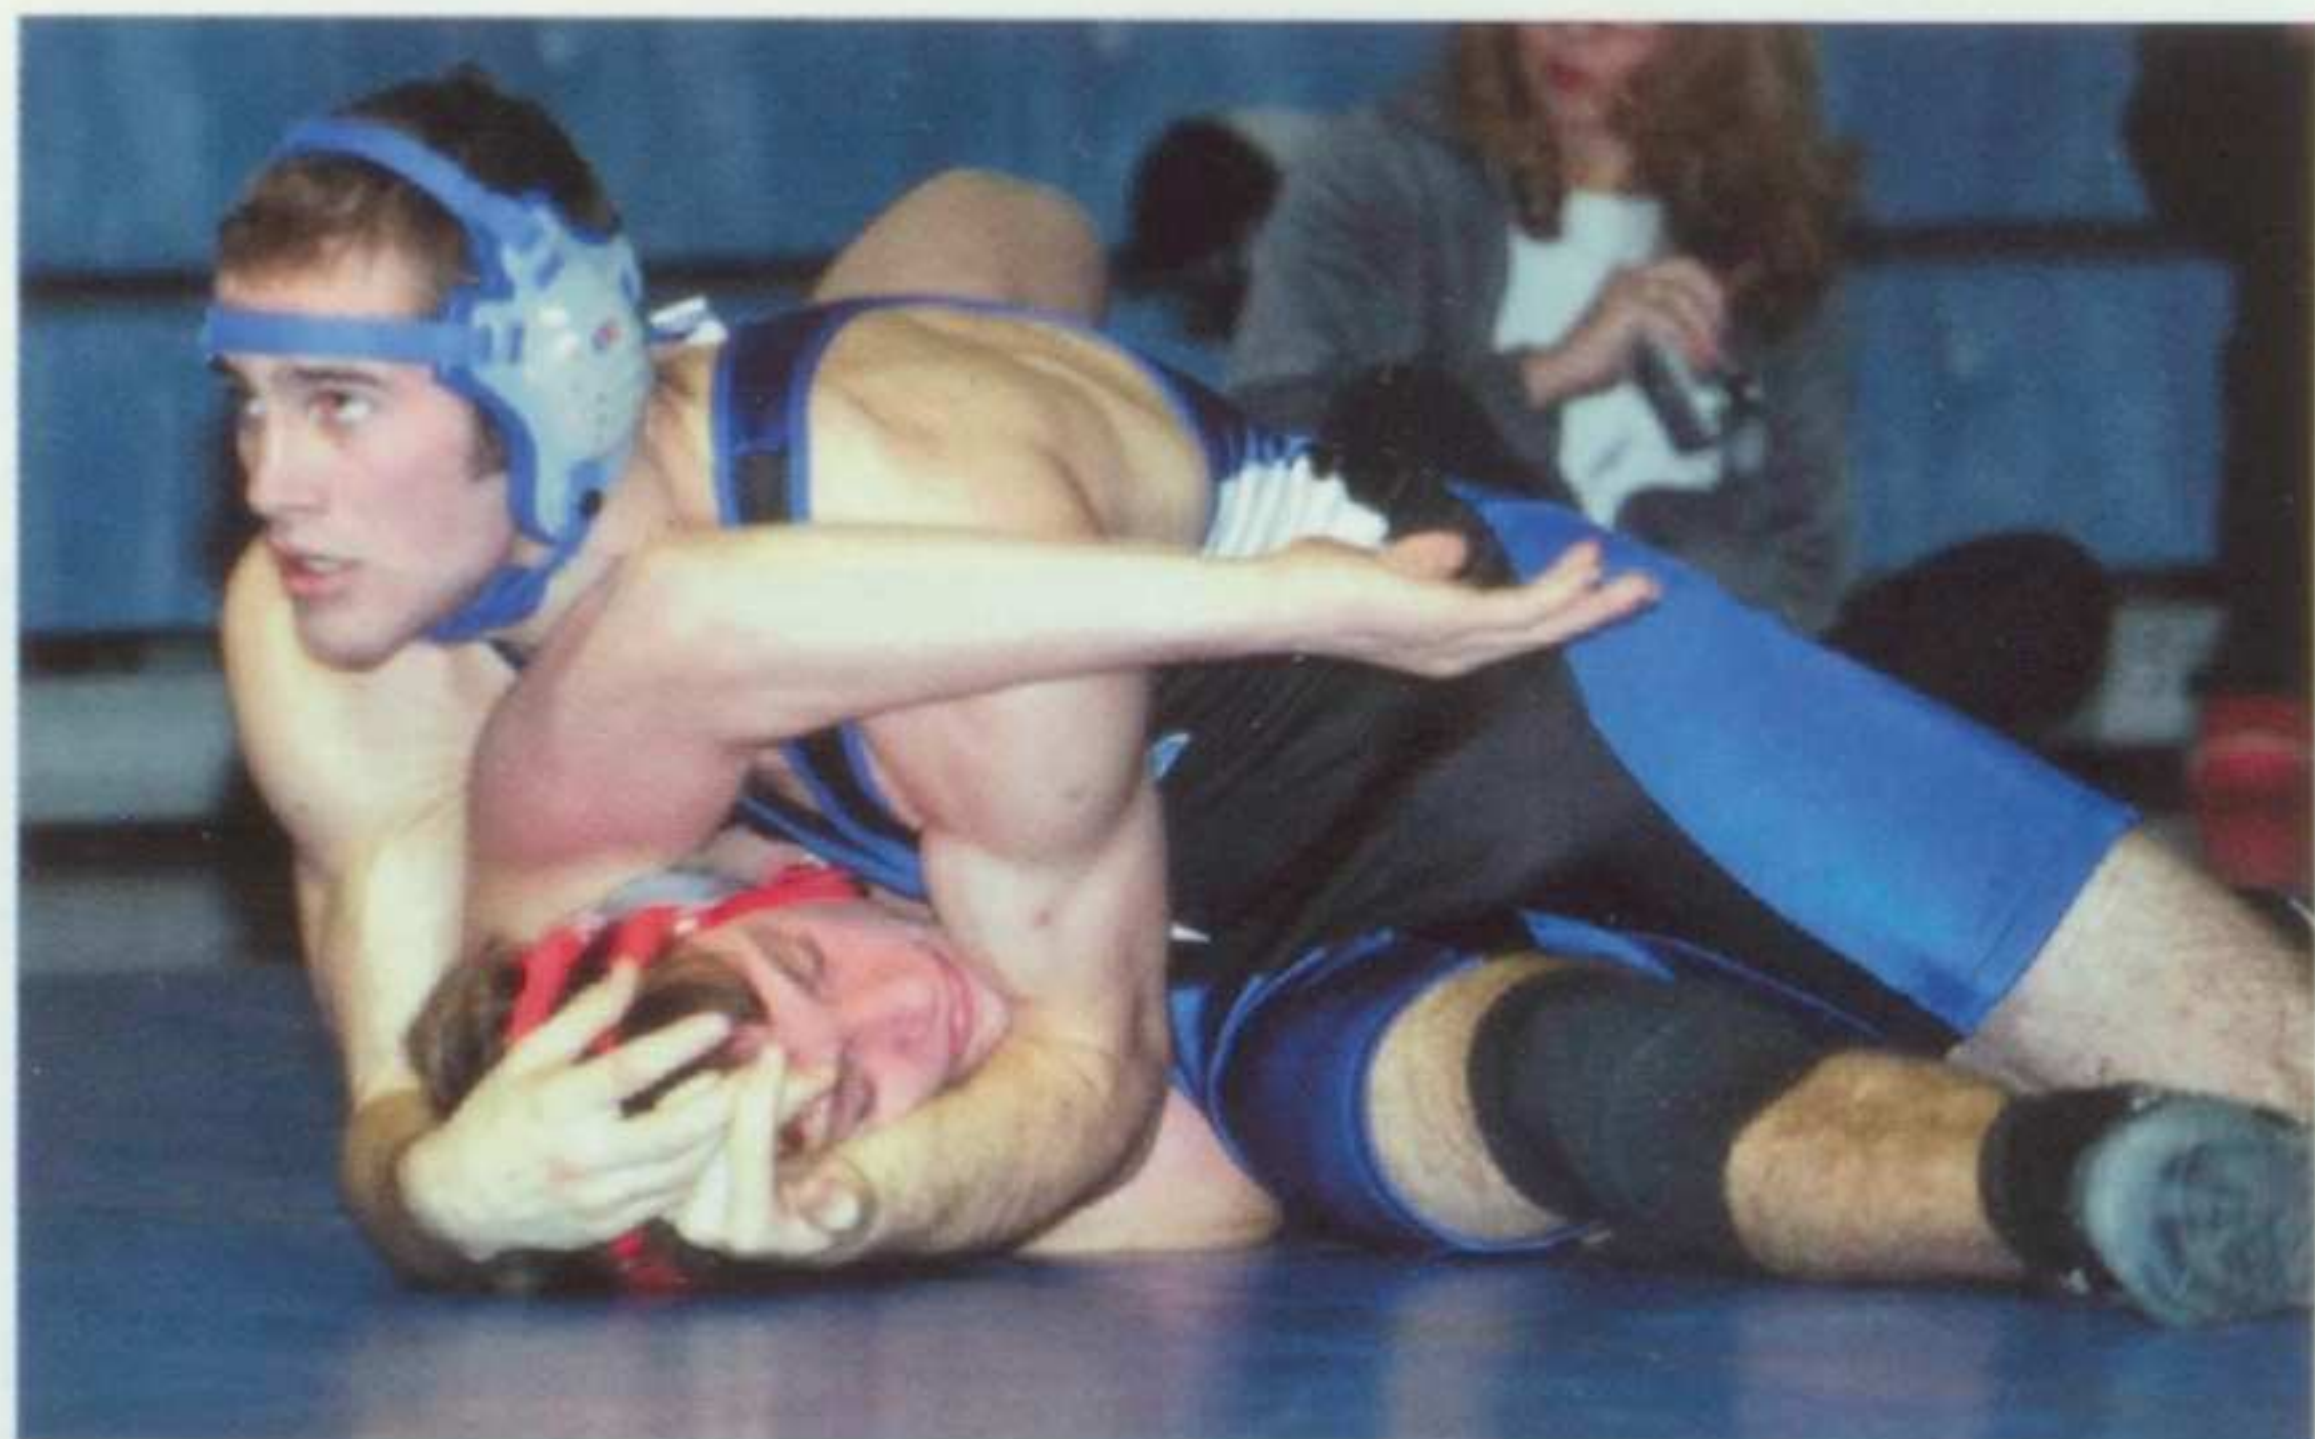

Andy Ritzenthaler

My best memory was when I was asked to be in the 'go to' match for districts.

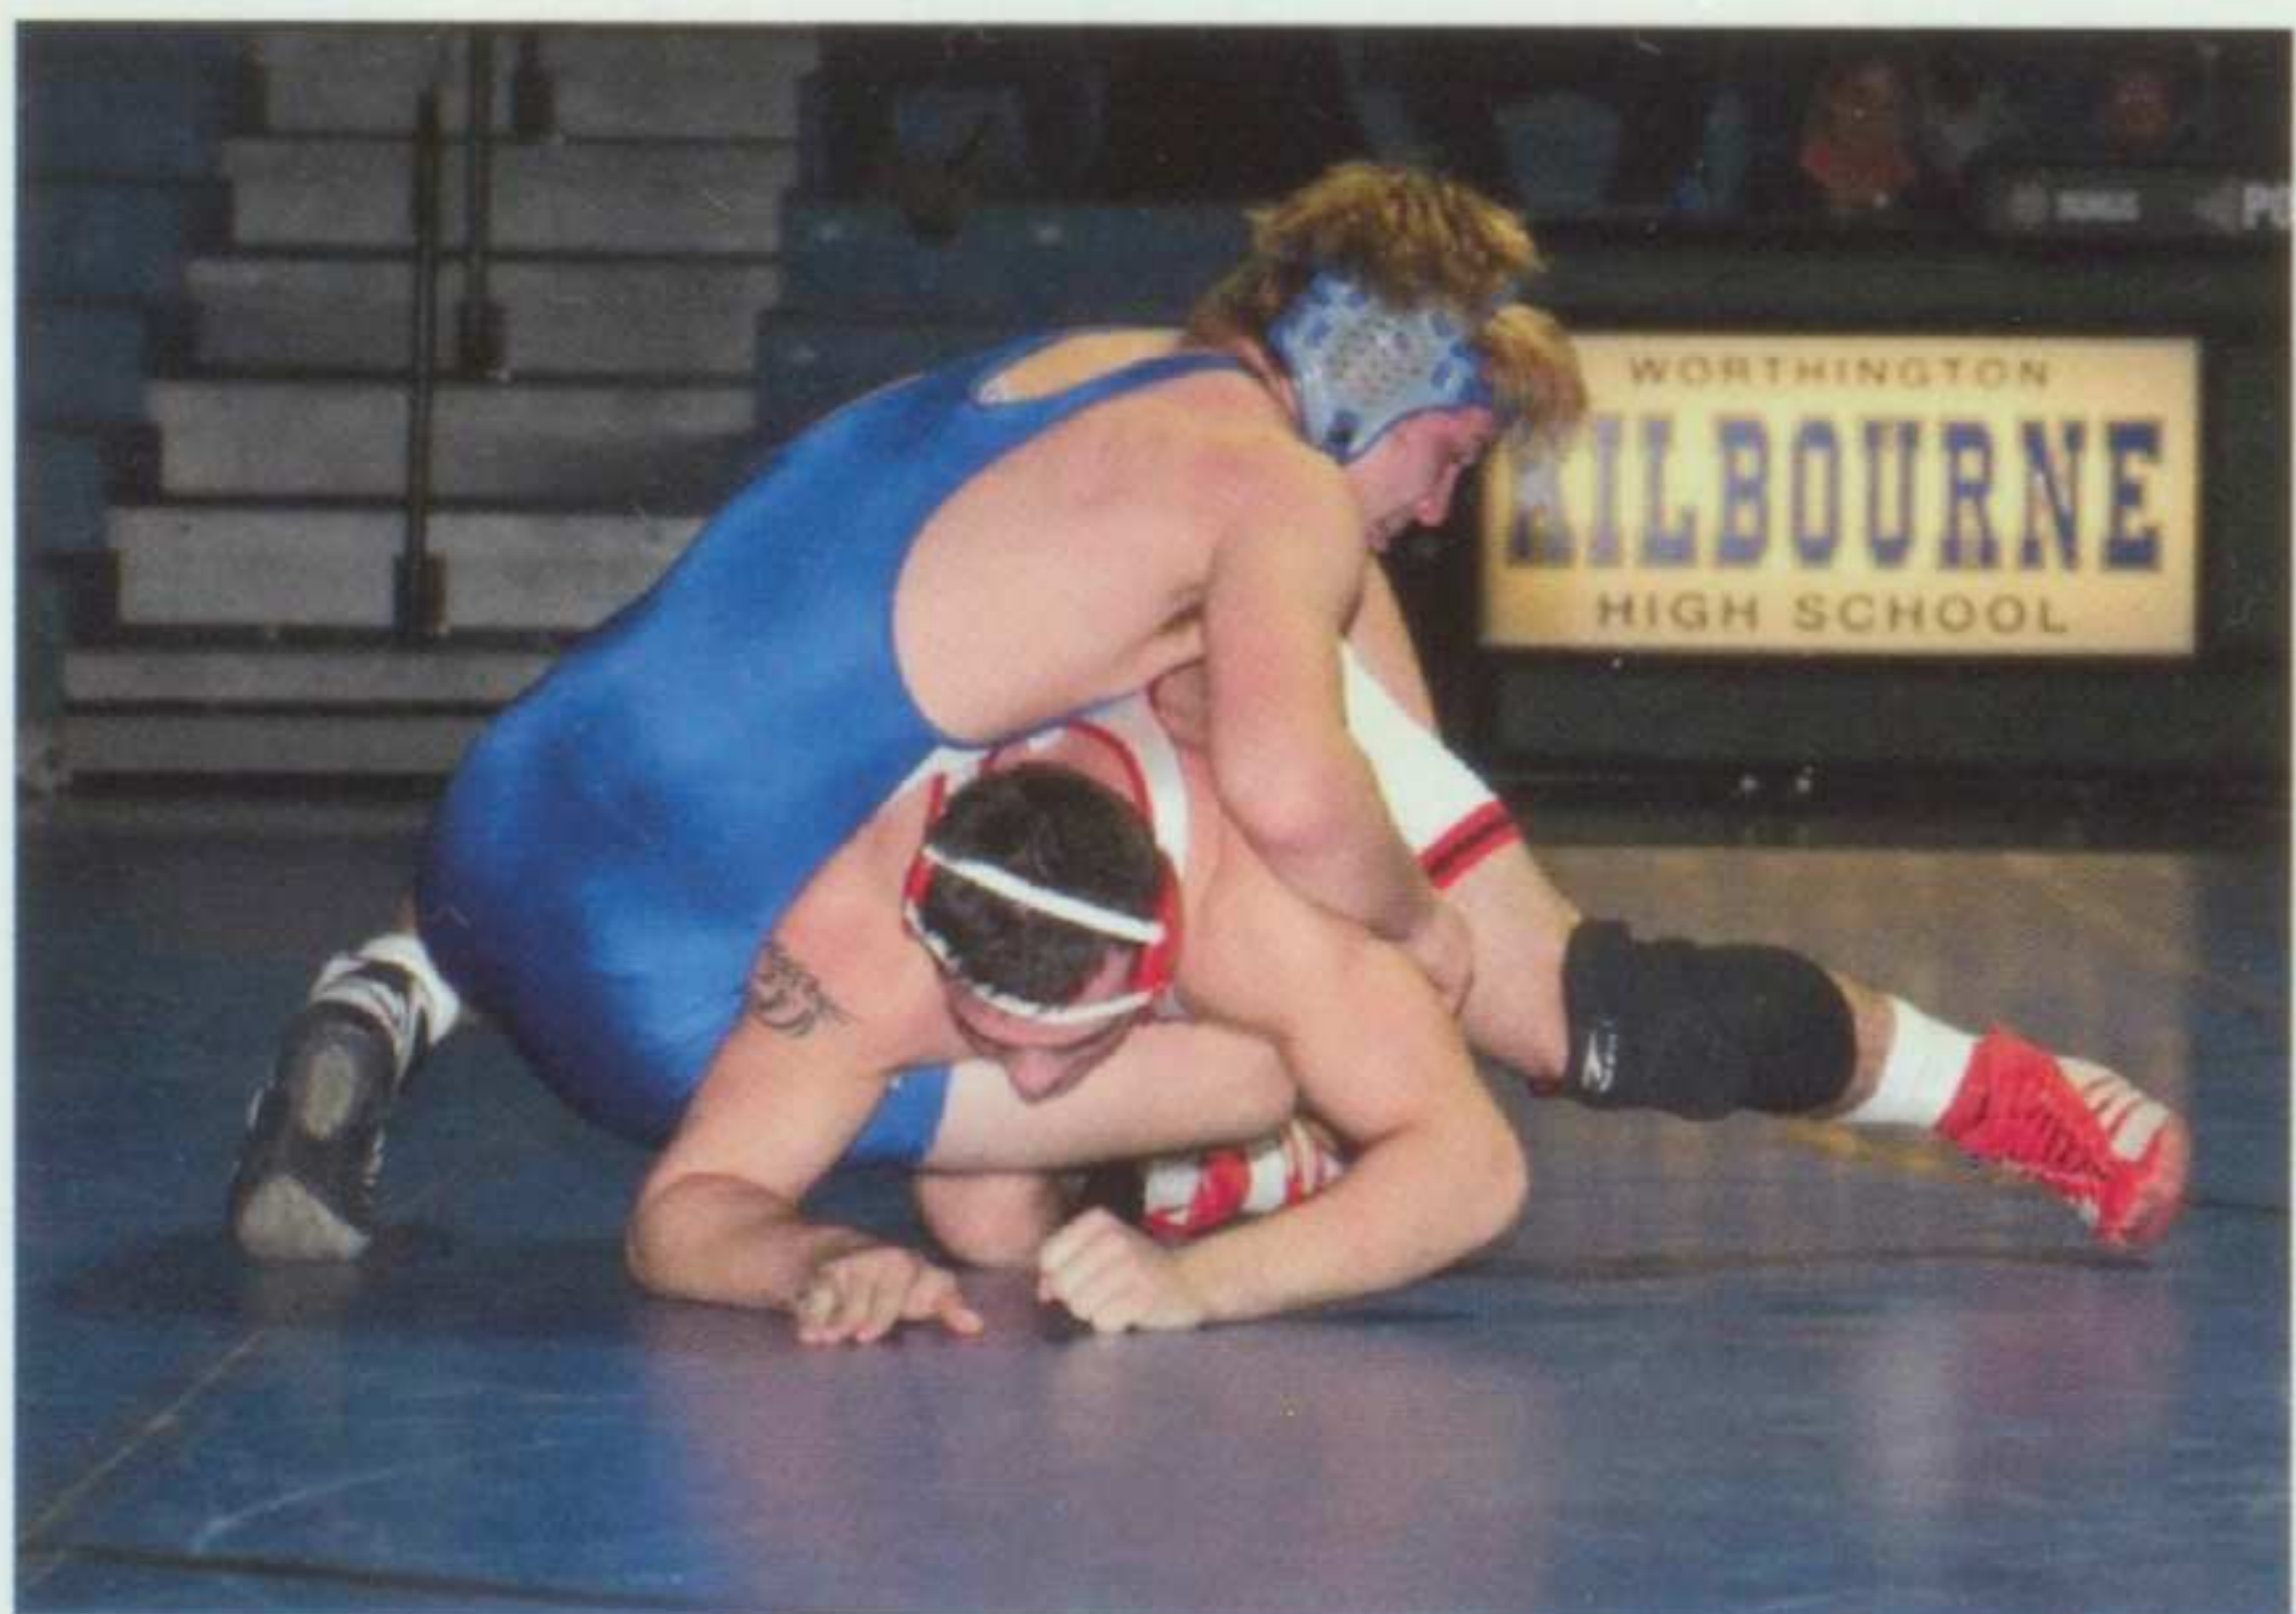

Andrew Schmitz

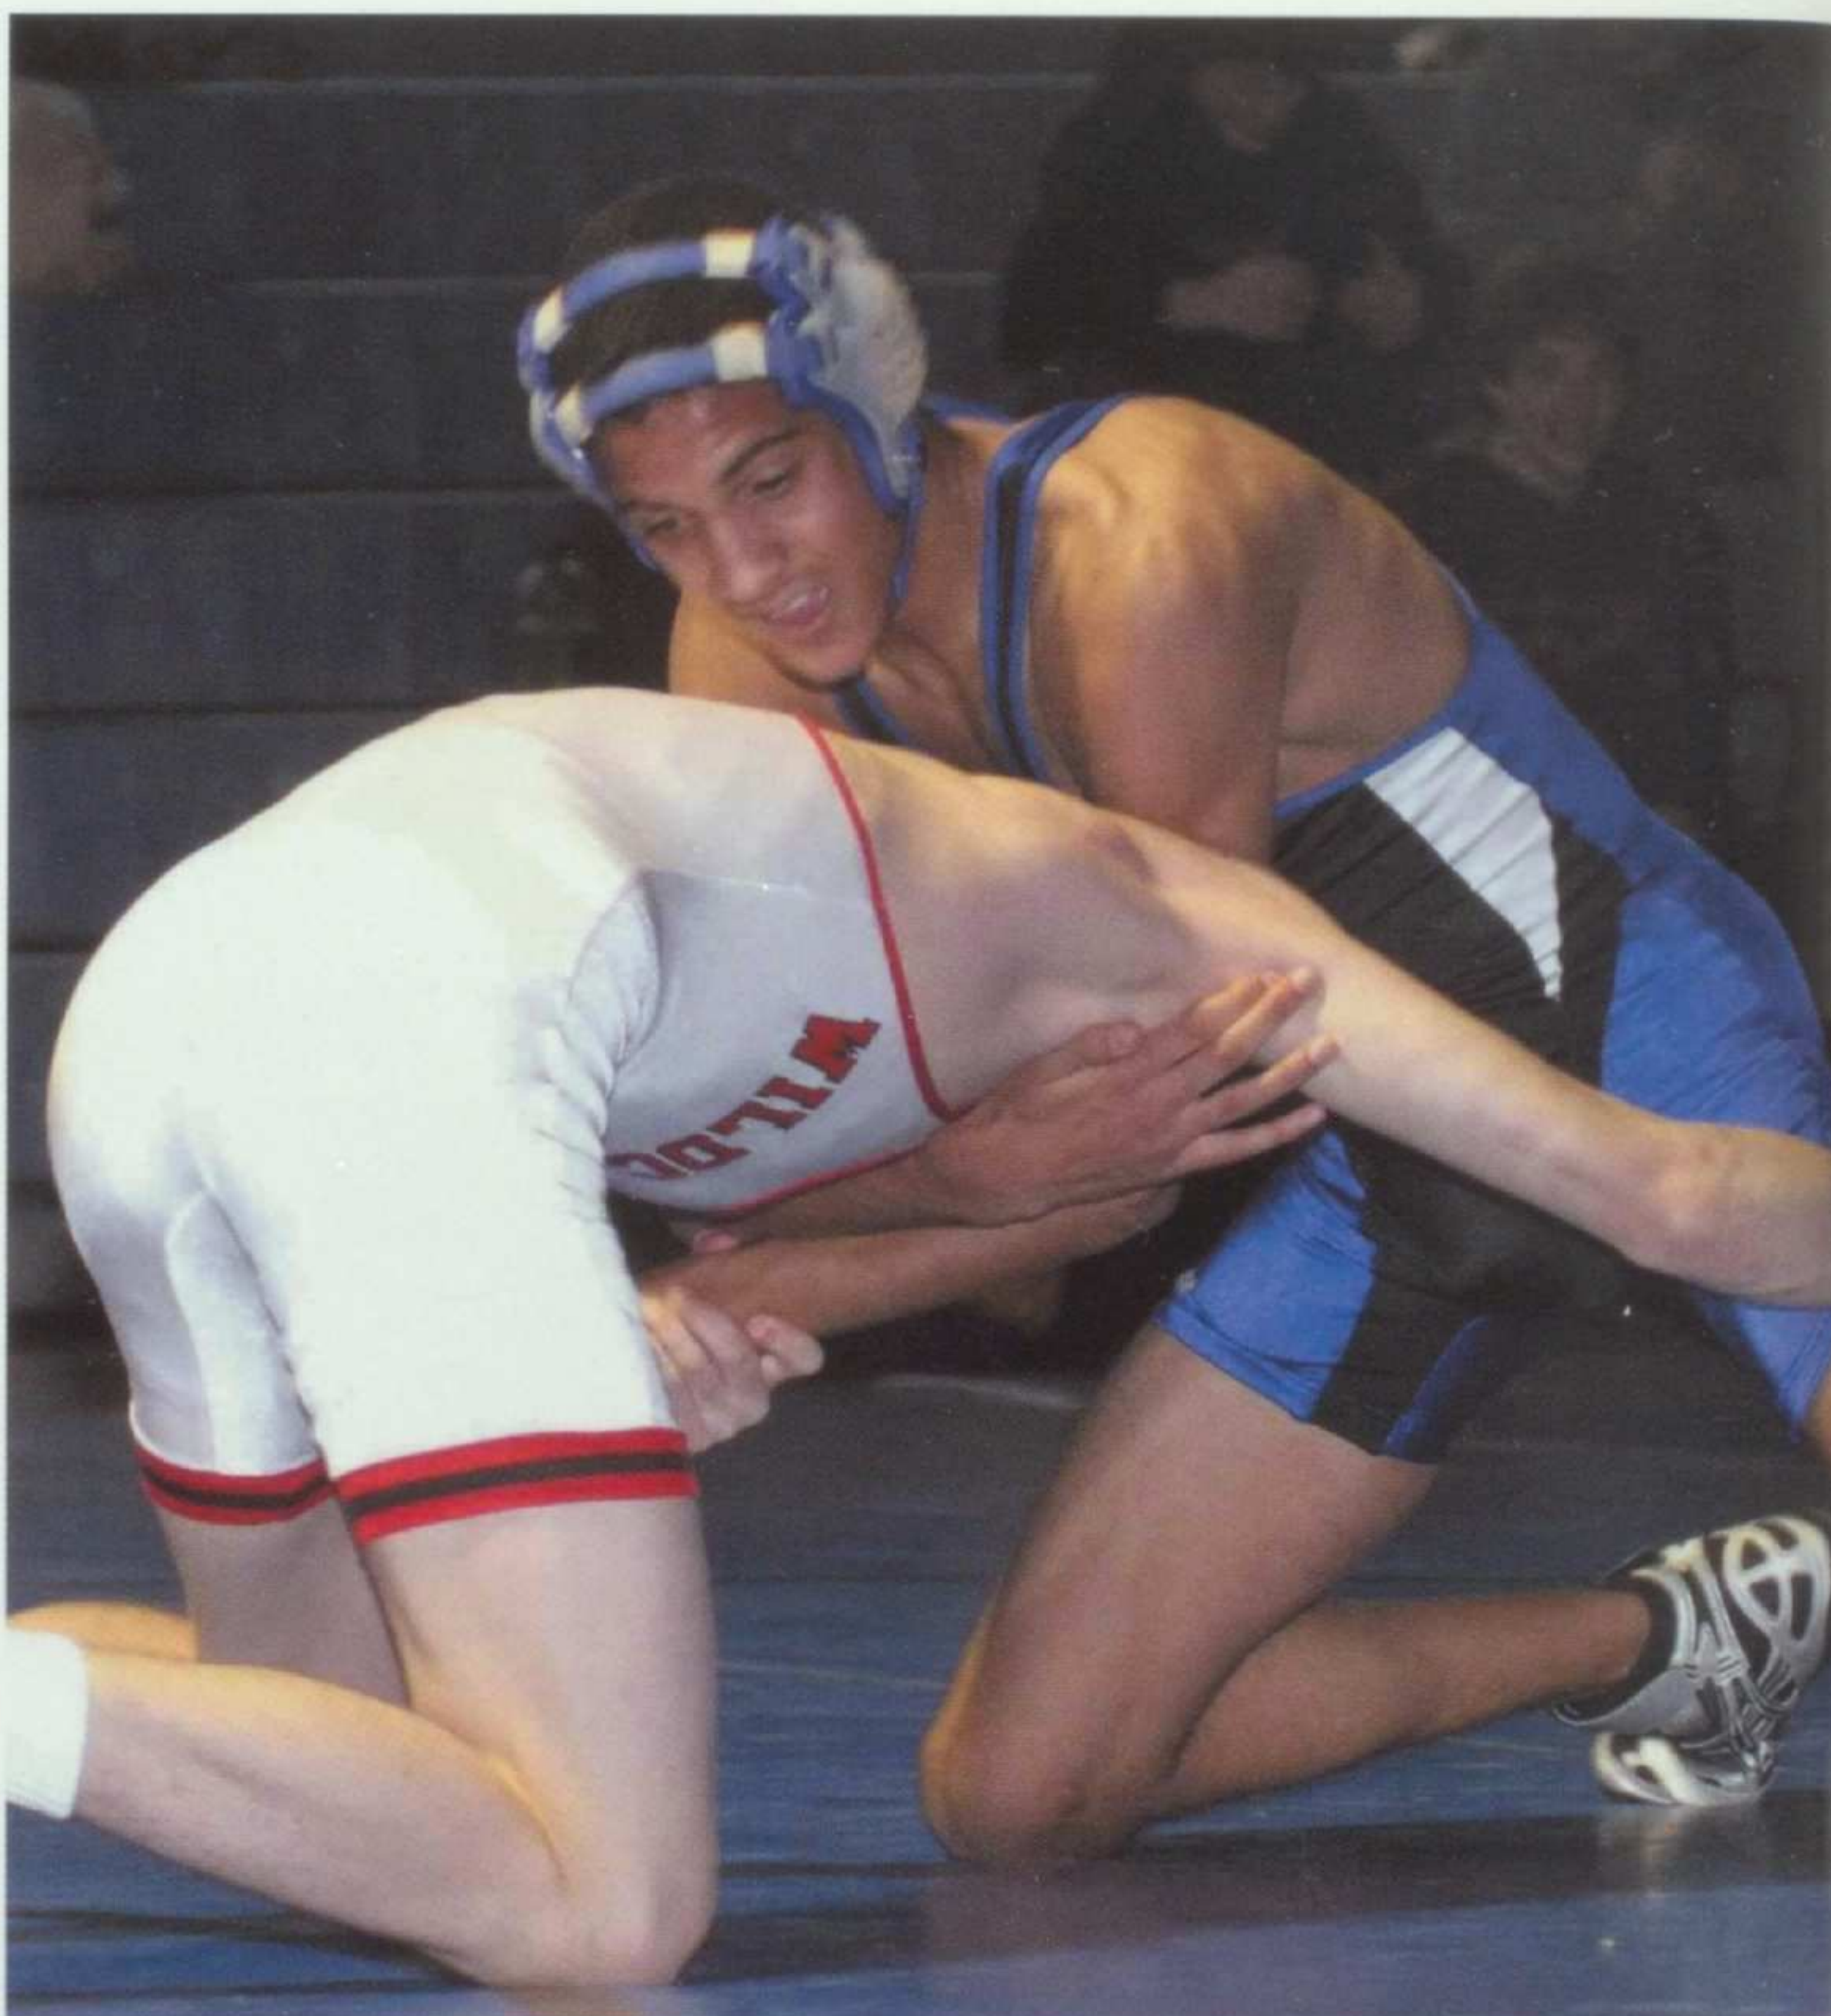

This season was so sweet. I worked really hard and it paid off, I can't believe it's over!

Waiting for the umpire to call him the winner, senior Bill Mauro explains, "This season was really fun. We all did our best and helped each other improve with each match."

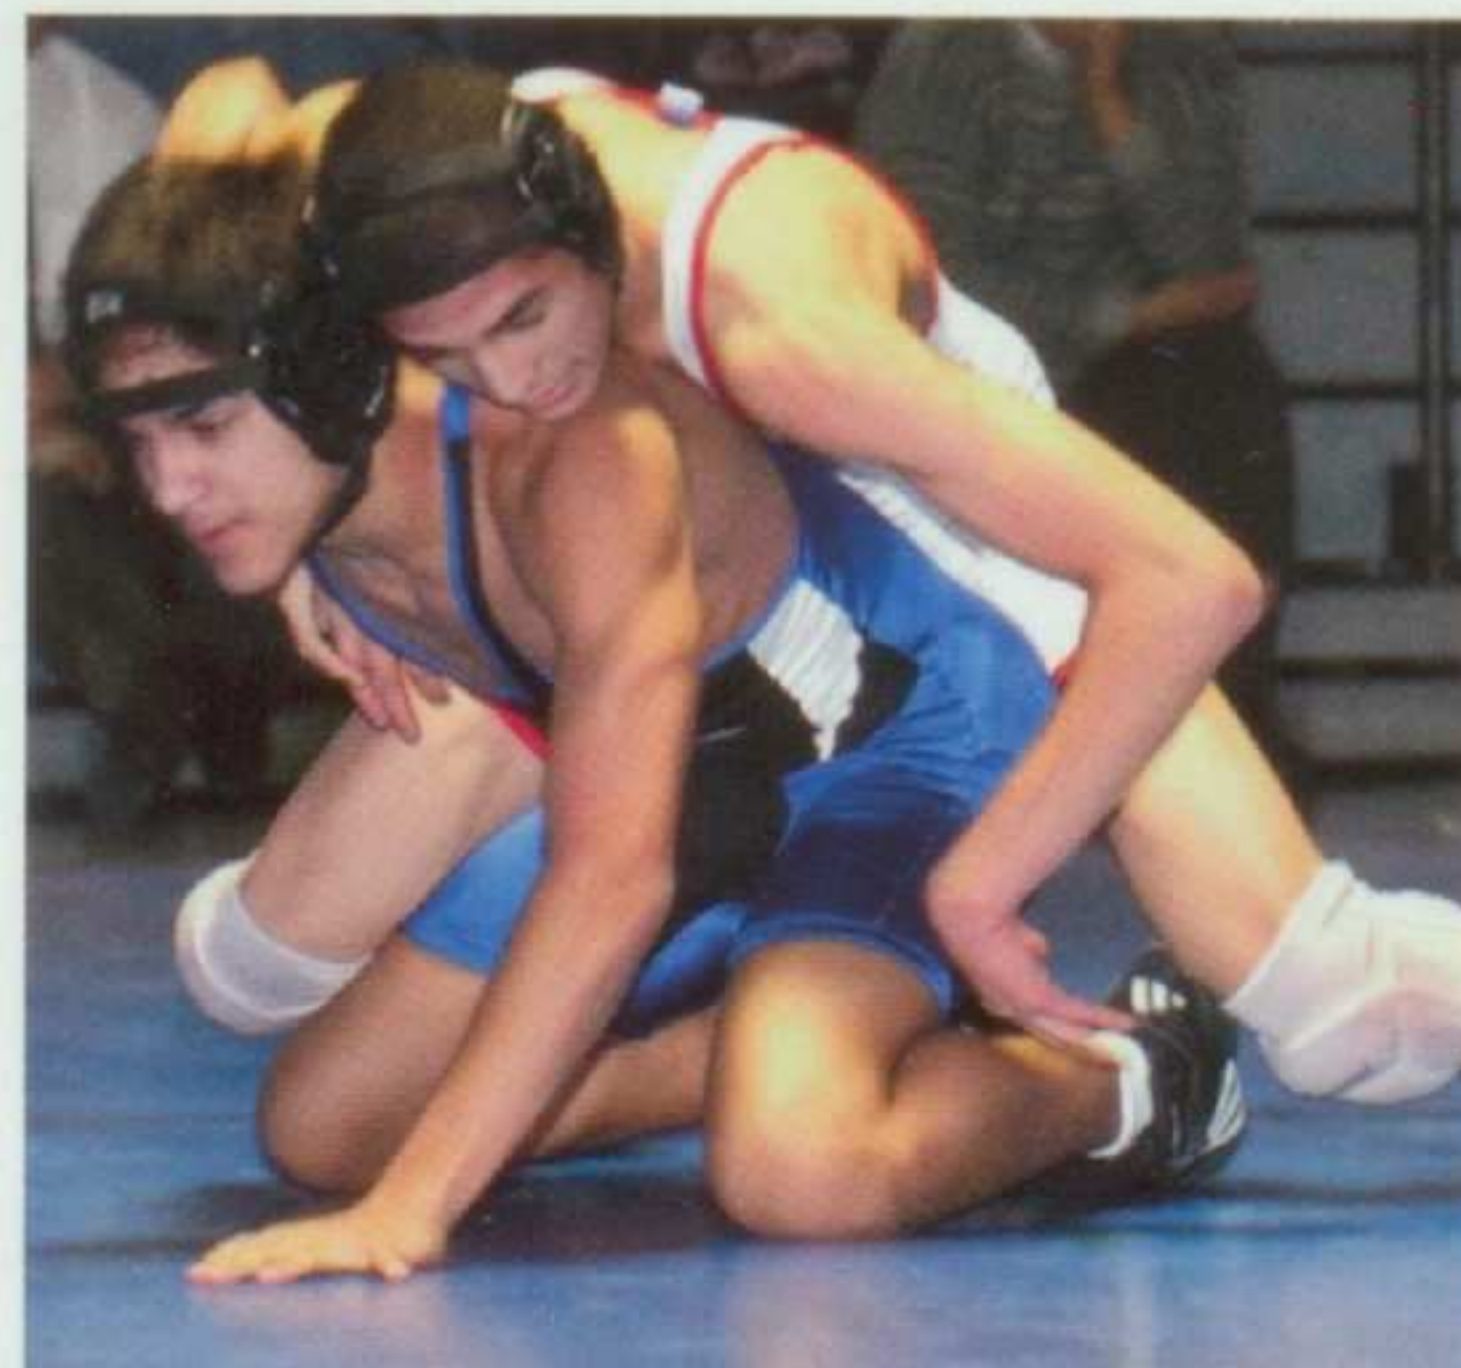

With all his strength Christian Hallam wrestles his opponent from Westerville South to the mat. "I was really proud of that match. I showed him who's boss," Hallam emphasizes.

Concentrating on making sure that the Westerville South opponent doesn't break free is senior JJ Cole who went to Russia for a wrestling camp the previous summer.

The look of concentration on freshman Ian Cooke's face exemplifies a season that coach Bukky explained as "tough, focused, and determined."

Waiting for the right moment to over take his opponent is senior Andy Ritzenthaler.

With extreme effort sophomore Christian Hallam uses his body weight to hold down his opponent.

Concentrating in a tough match is Andy Ritzenthaler who says, "We did really well this season, intimidating other teams with our strength."

The wrestling program has enjoyed success throughout the years despite its demands. The season which begins in the summer and continues until March reflects the wrestlers' commitment.

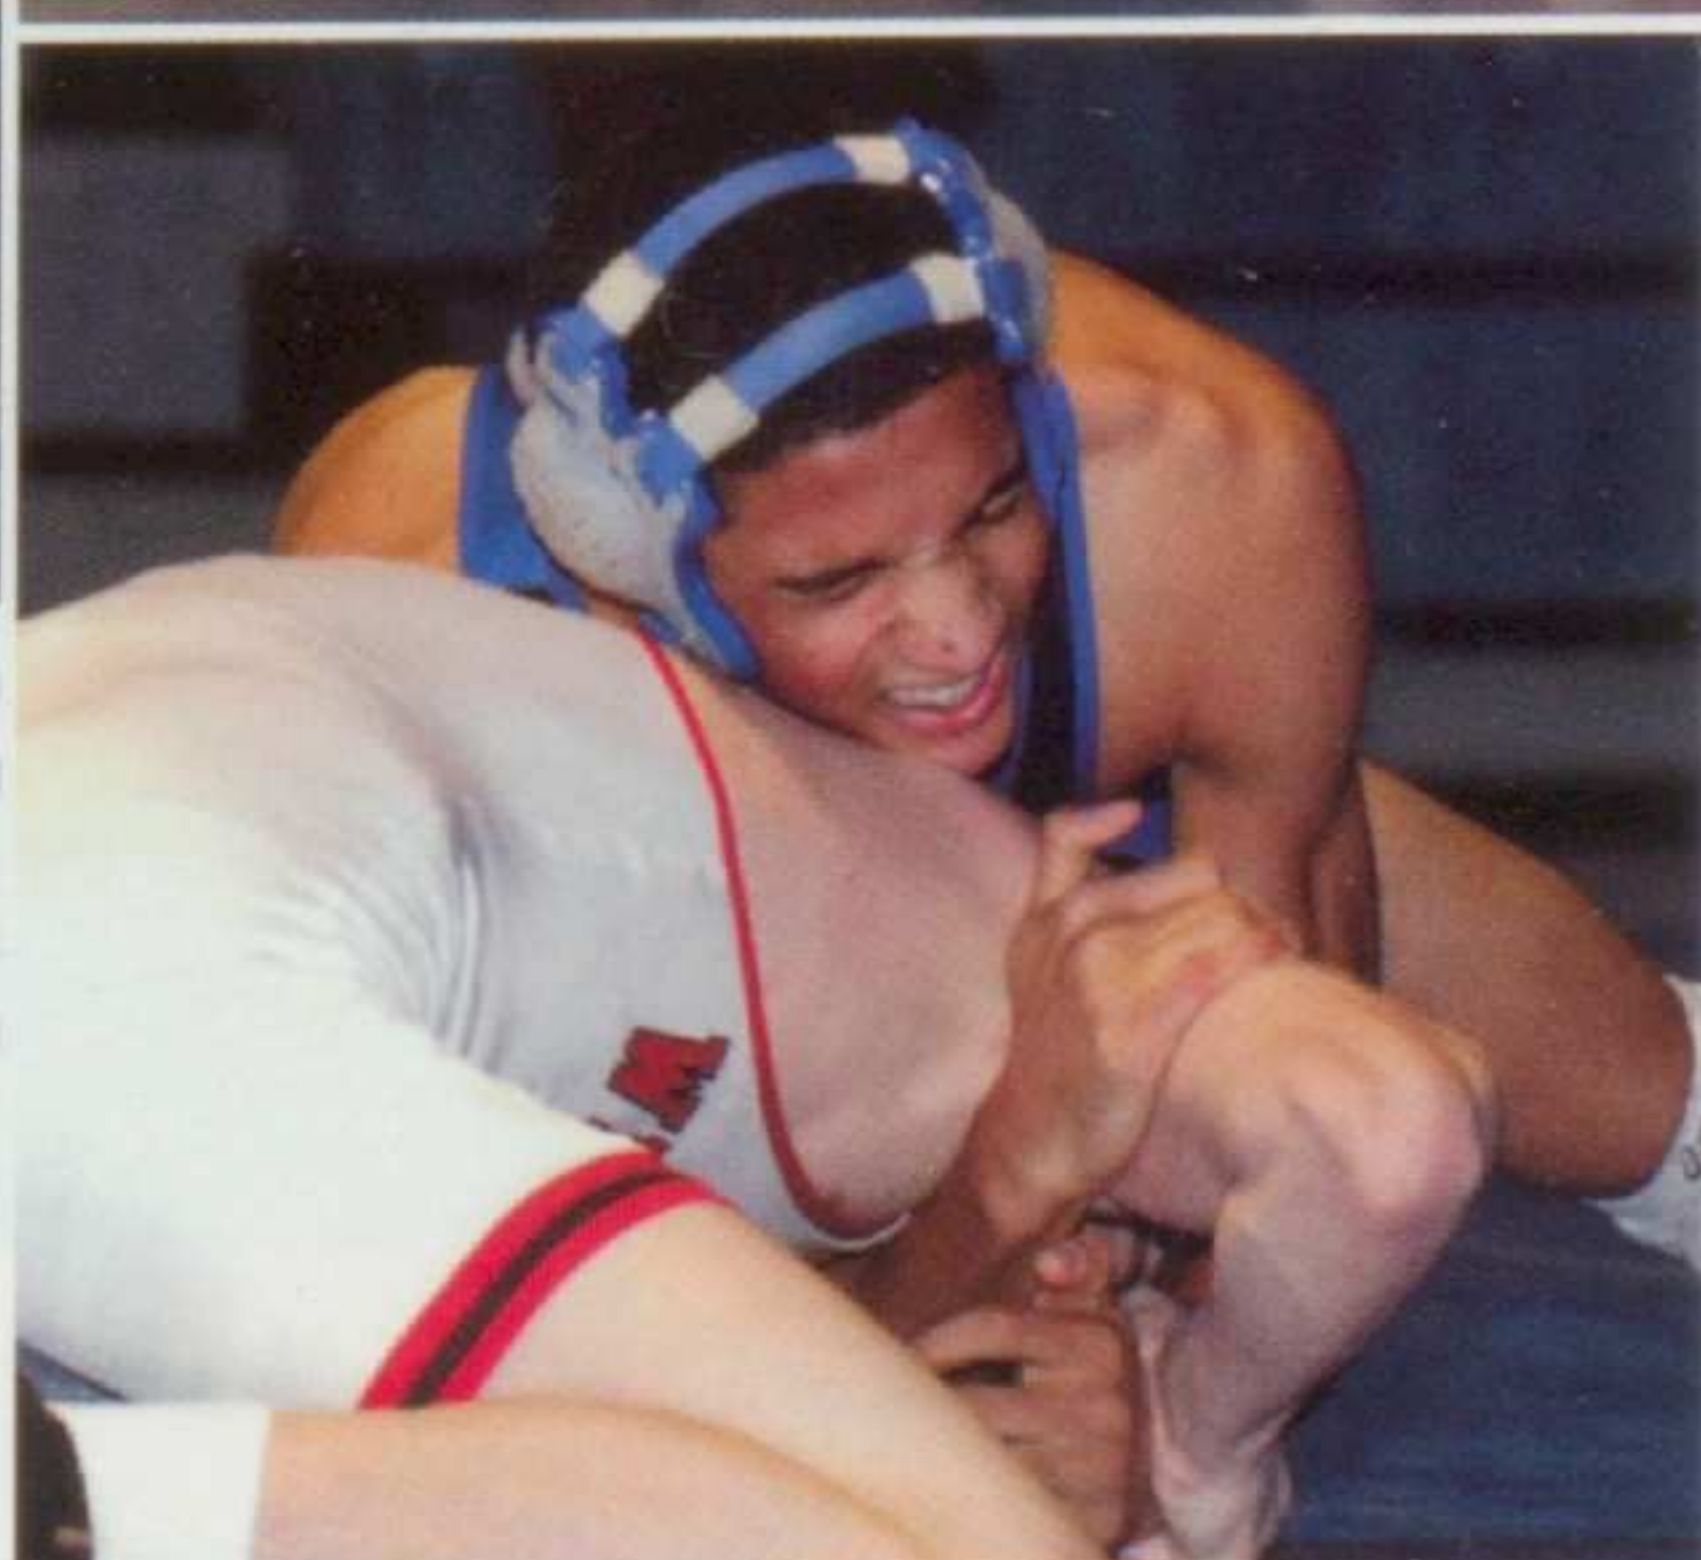

Wrestling is a grueling sport, yet the WKHS wrestlers are out on the floor for only a short time compared to the time football players spend on the field. The mental state that wrestlers must achieve is what makes this sport especially difficult. Wrestlers must be calm but also very pumped in order to pin their opponents.

The team kept their positive attitude in each competition, and coach Bukky was proud of their success.

Making sure that the Westerville South opponent doesn't break free of his grip is senior Bill Mauro.

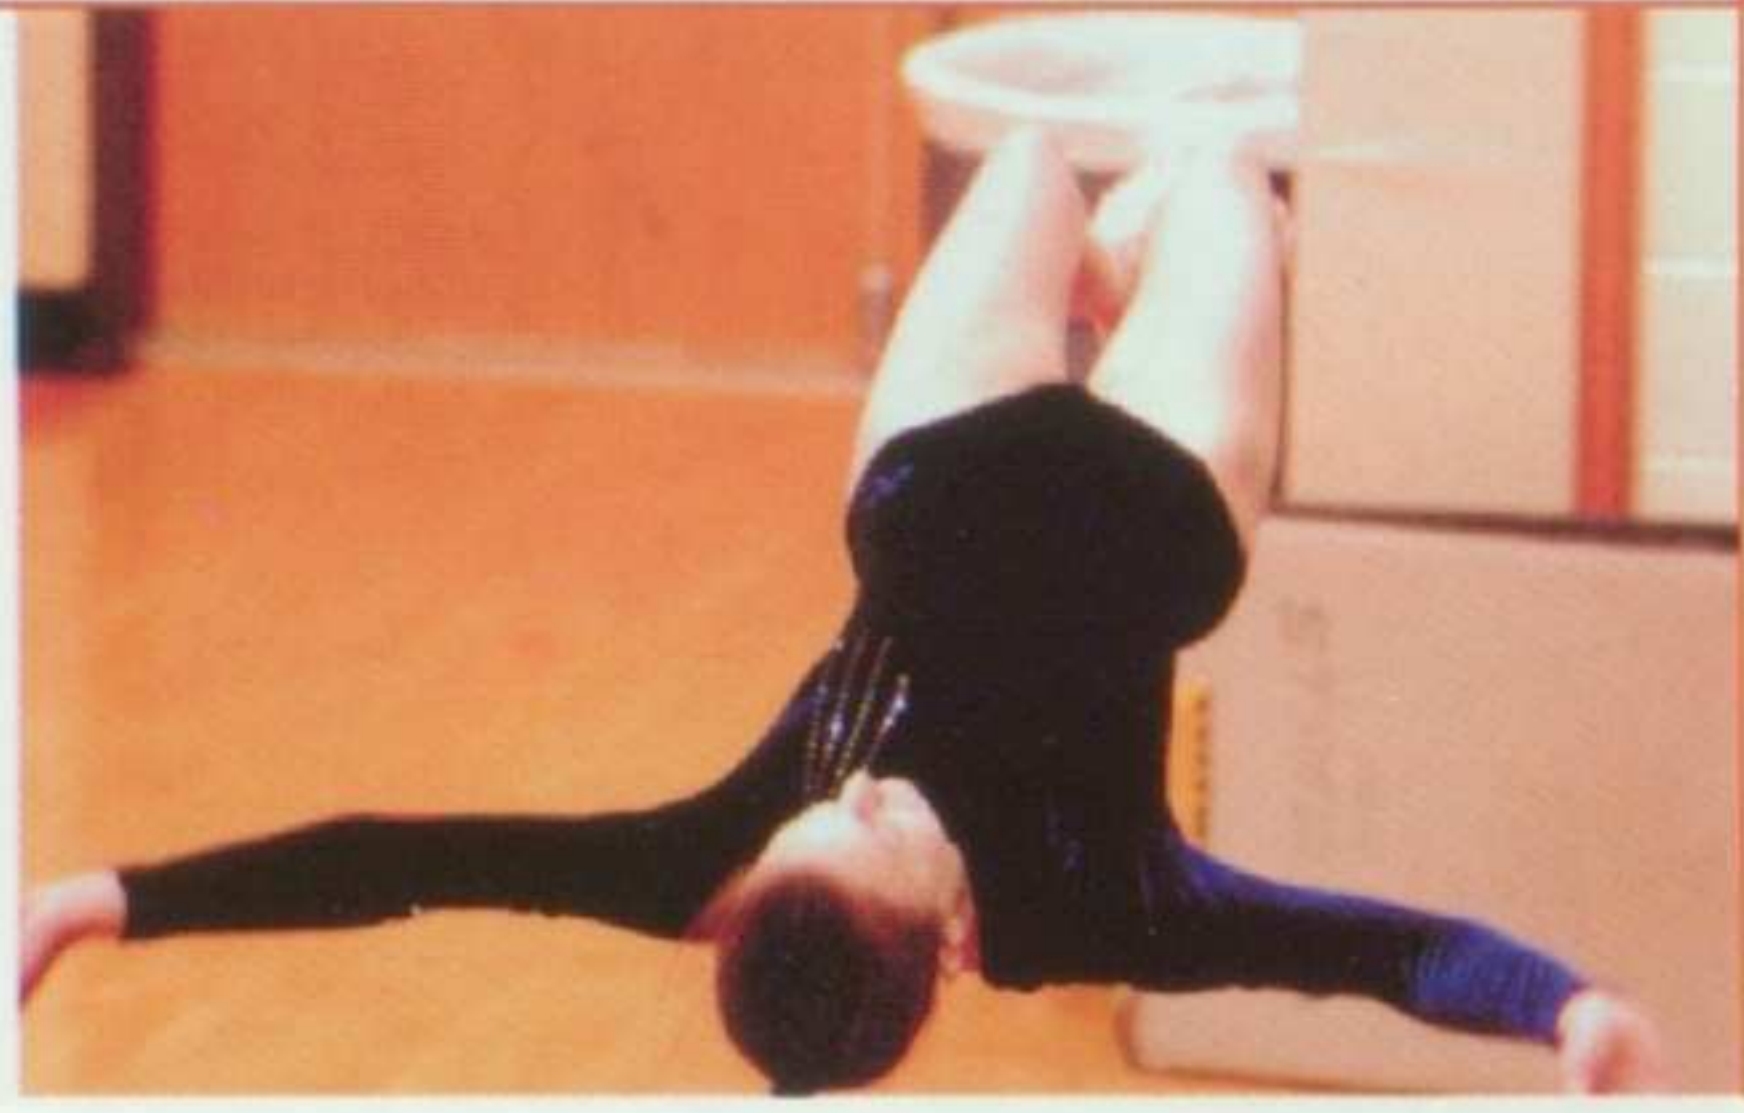

Keeping his opponent on the floor and hoping to score a point is freshman Ian Cooke.

With a grimace on his face that shows his discomfort, senior JJ Cole holds tightly to his opponent. Cole said he was "sad to see the season end."

balance

Dismounting the vault, sophomore Taylor Brown flips, hoping to stick it.

and coordination led the girls to an outstanding season

The sport of gymnastics requires balance, flexibility, coordination, and focus. The girls gymnastics team's success this season showed they have all the necessary skills. The girls earned outstanding results through their hard work and determination.

They demonstrated that gymnastics is a demanding sport which they managed through hard practices and tough competitions.

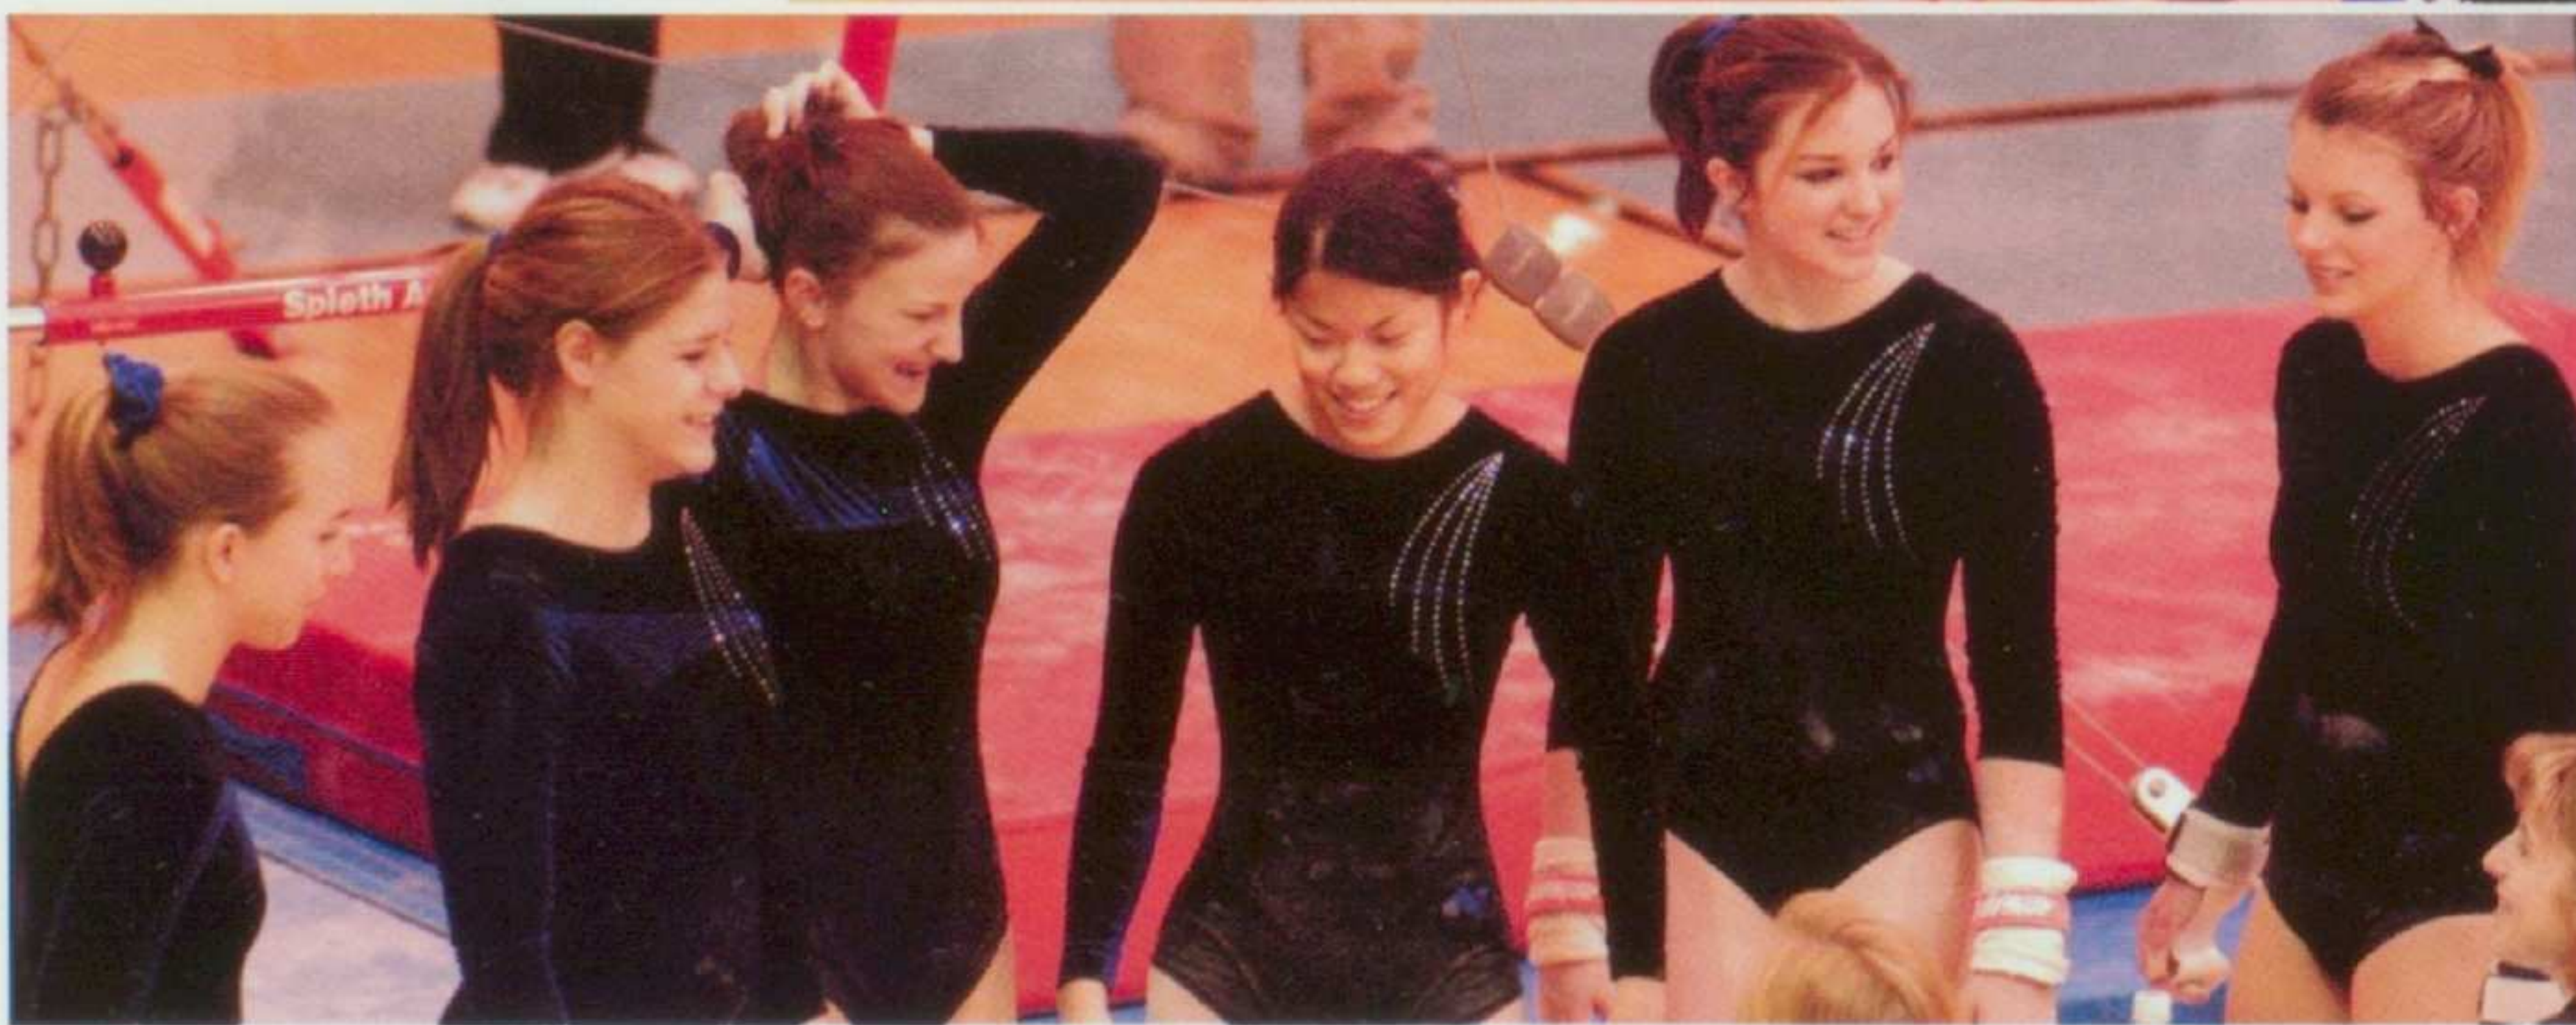

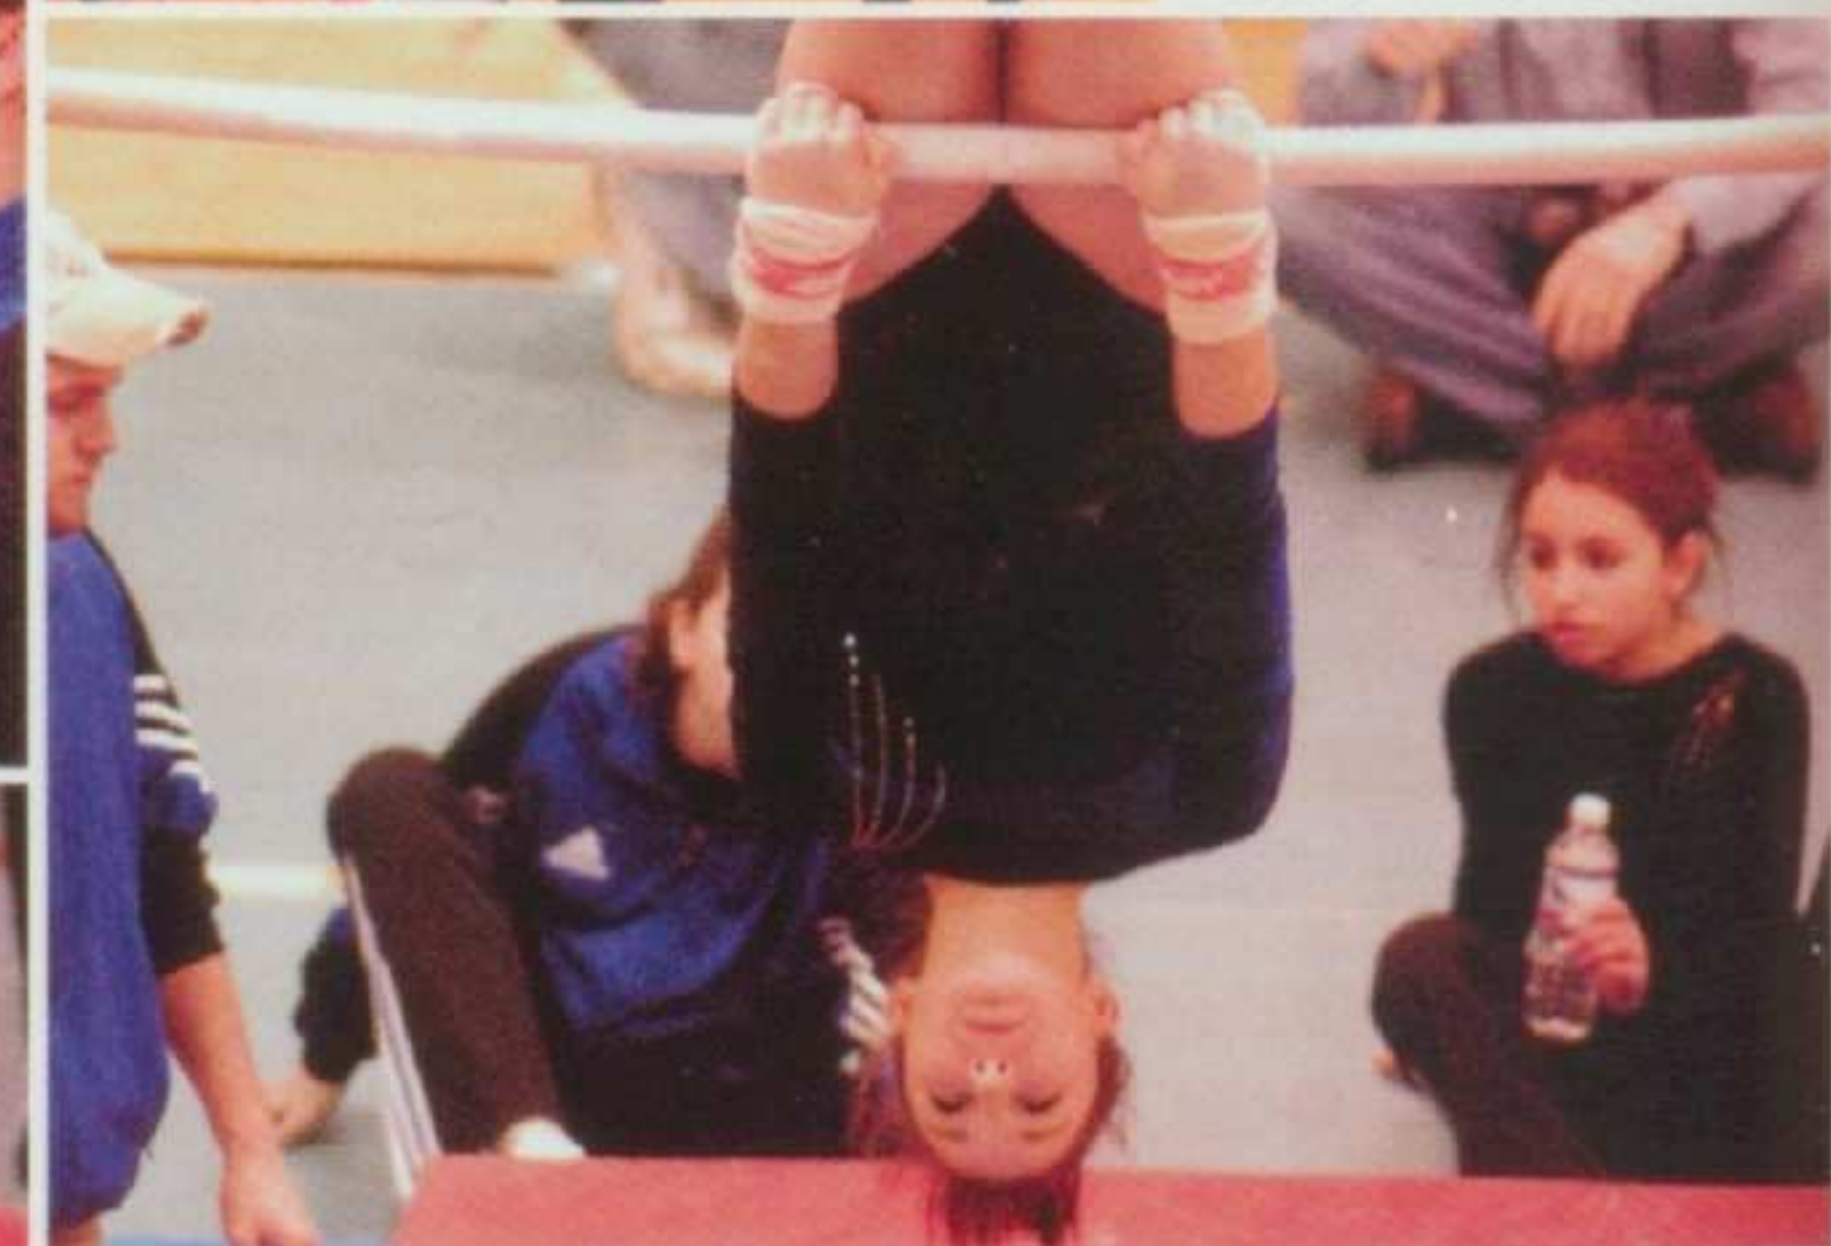

Appreciating support from fellow teammate sophomore Taylor Brown and one of the coaches, sophomore Carmen Clark prepares for her vault routine.

Consistent all this season, freshman Elaina Corrova works on her routine on the uneven bars.

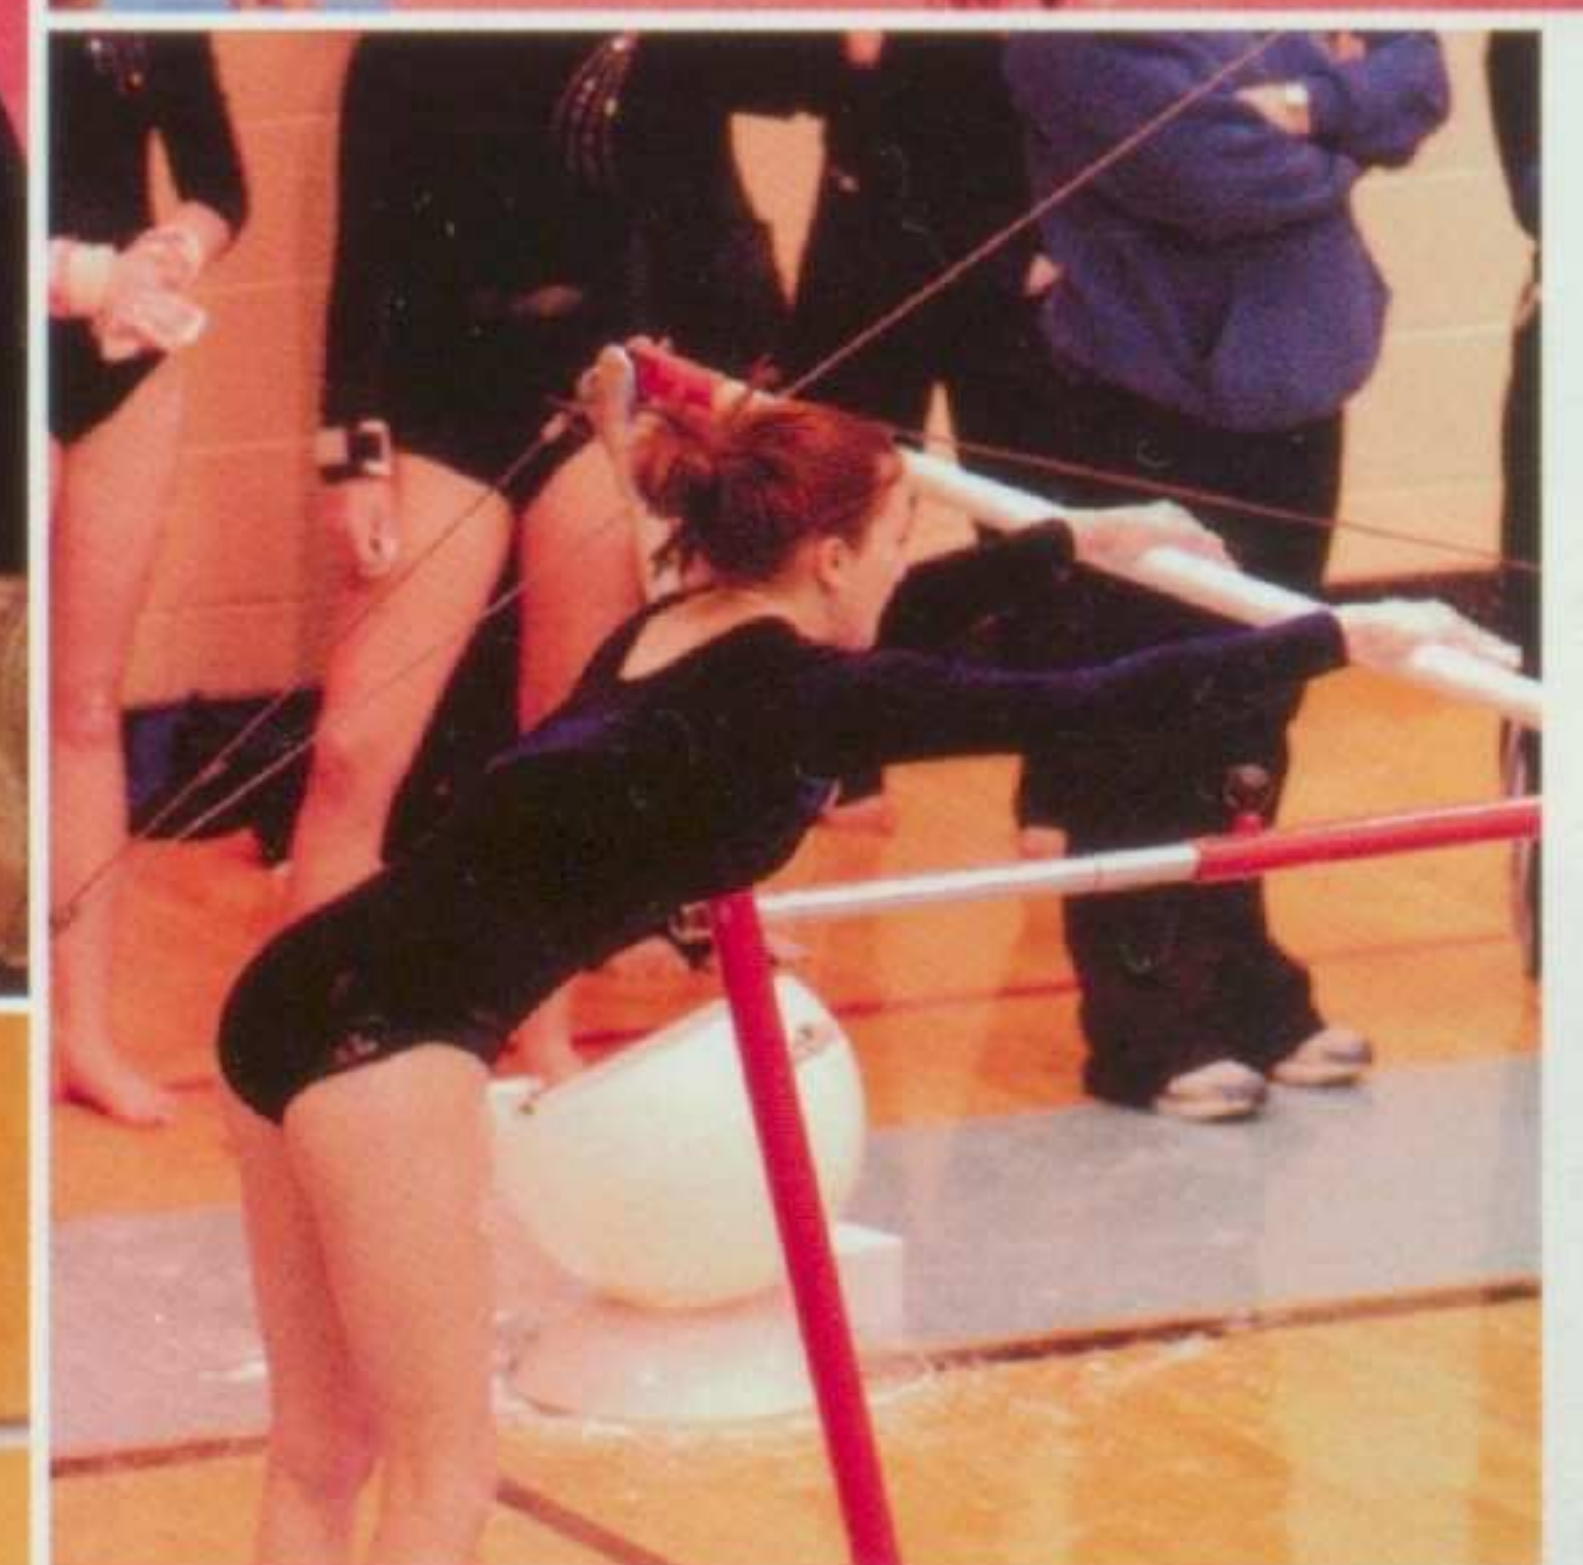

While being watched by Alyse Schwartz and her sister Elaina, sophomore Alyssa Corrova is about to end her routine.

Anticipating their scores after a tough meet, Taylor Brown, Heather Gillenwater, Kelly Morgan, Yukiko Seino, Alyssa Corrova, and Katelyn Sweeny await their results.

Getting a running start for her vault is junior Liona Chan.

Approaching the uneven bars, senior Kelly Morgan hopes to set the standard for the younger gymnasts.

Captains

"I had a great senior year. Also the team made some huge improvements."

Kelly Ringle

"This year was a great way to end my high school gymnastics."

Kelly Morgan

"This season was great, and the underclassman really stepped up."

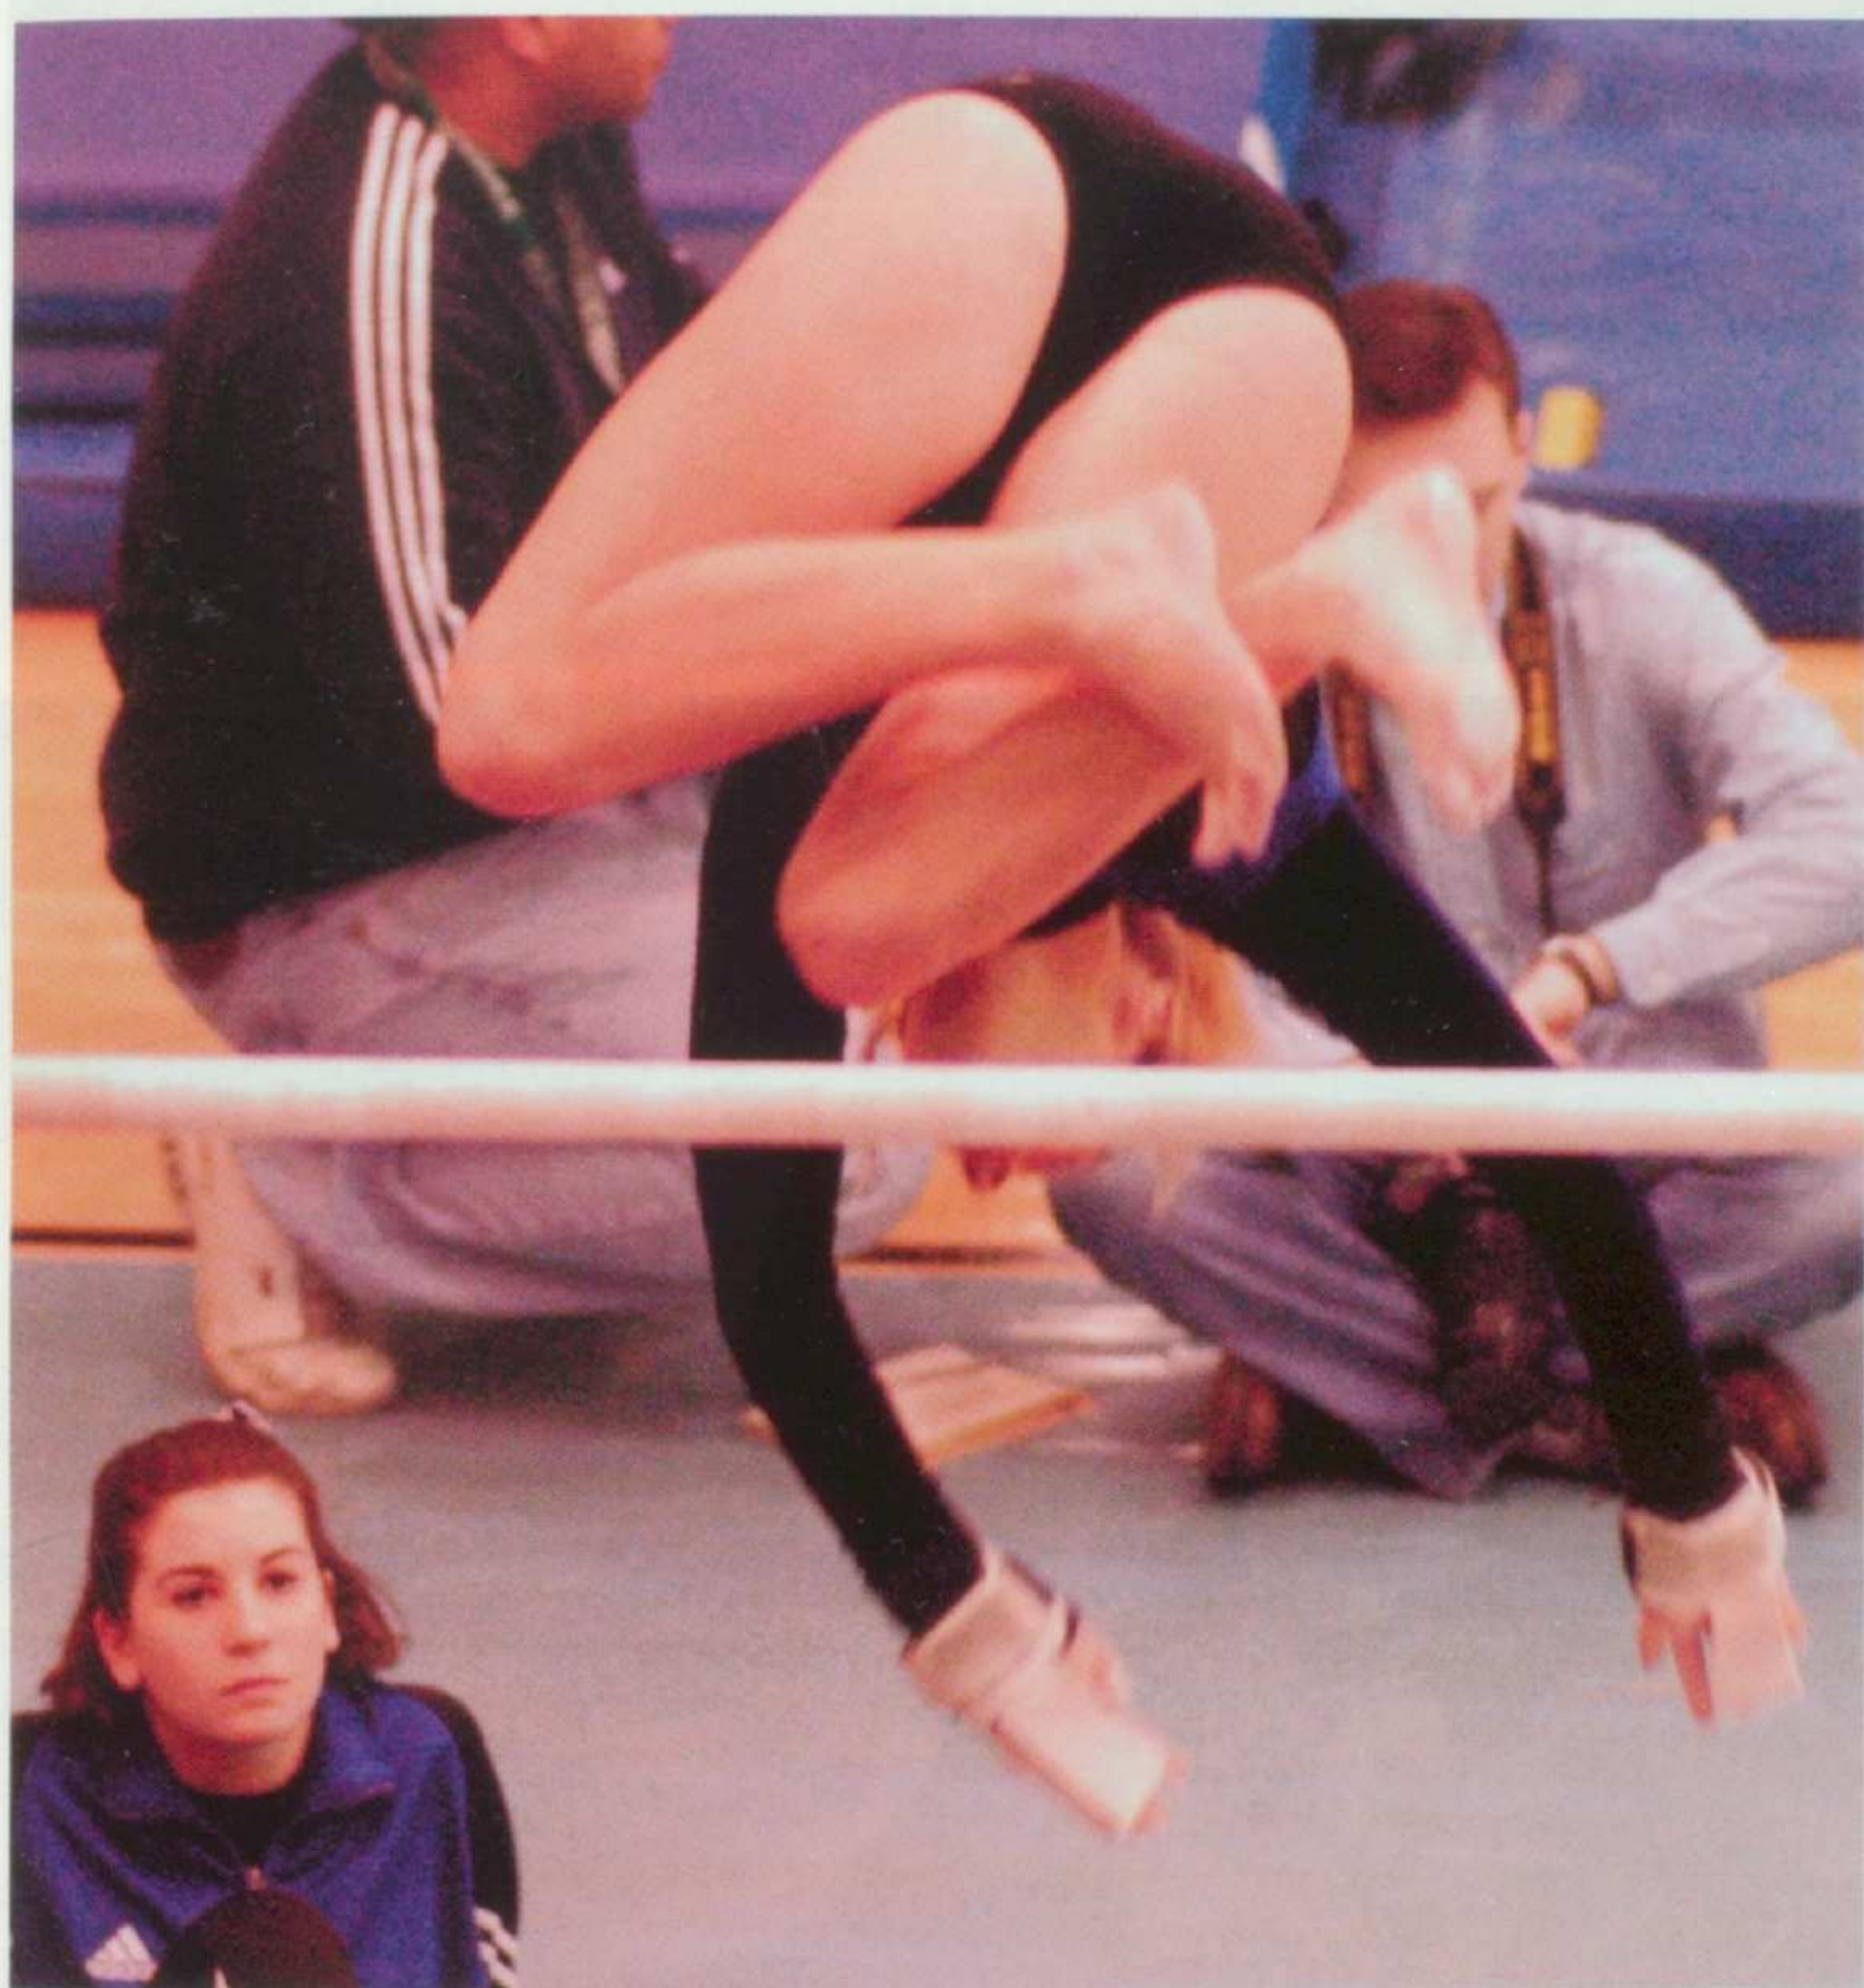

Yukiko Seino

"We all struggled with parts of our routines, but in the end we pulled through as a team."

Alyssa Osbourne

"All of the girls worked hard this year and we achieved our team goals for the season."

Watching is junior Alyse Schwartz as her teammate, sophomore Kaitlyn Sweeny, ends a perfect routine with a flip in her dismount of the uneven bars.

Teacher's Hope

The Corn is Green is about the opening of a school in a mining town.

Kaitlyn Darr, 12

"As I was walking, I went too far and accidentally tripped off the stage. Everyone laughed at me!"

Jennifer Duann, 12

"Well, Miss Ronberry is desperate when it comes to men...sounds a bit familiar!"

Peter Kleinhenz, 9

"Nick Mooney and I stood up when we weren't supposed to. We looked around and then just slowly sat down. This was in the middle of a scene."

Everyone is excited that a new person will be moving into town. Miss Ronberry, played by Jennifer Duann, helps Mrs. Watty and Bessie Watty, played by Mary Zedella and Jessica Bruce respectively, move in Miss Moffat's things. Mrs. Watty is Miss Moffat's cook, and Bessie is Mrs. Watty's daughter. Miss Ronberry is surprised to discover that the person moving in is a woman. The Squire Jim Foreman also comes to greet the new members of the community and help them move in.

After finding out that she is pregnant, Bessie Watty threatens to tell Morgan that he is the father and not allow him to go to Oxford after earning a scholarship. John Jones, played by John Harris, tries to save the day by proposing to Jessica Bruce so that she will marry him and not tell Morgan that he is the father. Mary Zedella watches and hopes that her daughter Bessie will say yes and allow Morgan to attend Oxford.

As a child, Lucerna, played by Micaela Savage, is in love with Greg Busch. They want to marry each other until Lucerna finds out that she has to pay off her father's debt. She decides that she cannot marry him and instead will become a teacher.

After surgery, two of her former students, Nick Marsh and Calvin Griffin, visit Miss Dove. Her nurse Ashley Kvitko tells them that they can only visit Miss Dove for a few minutes so that she does not get too tired.

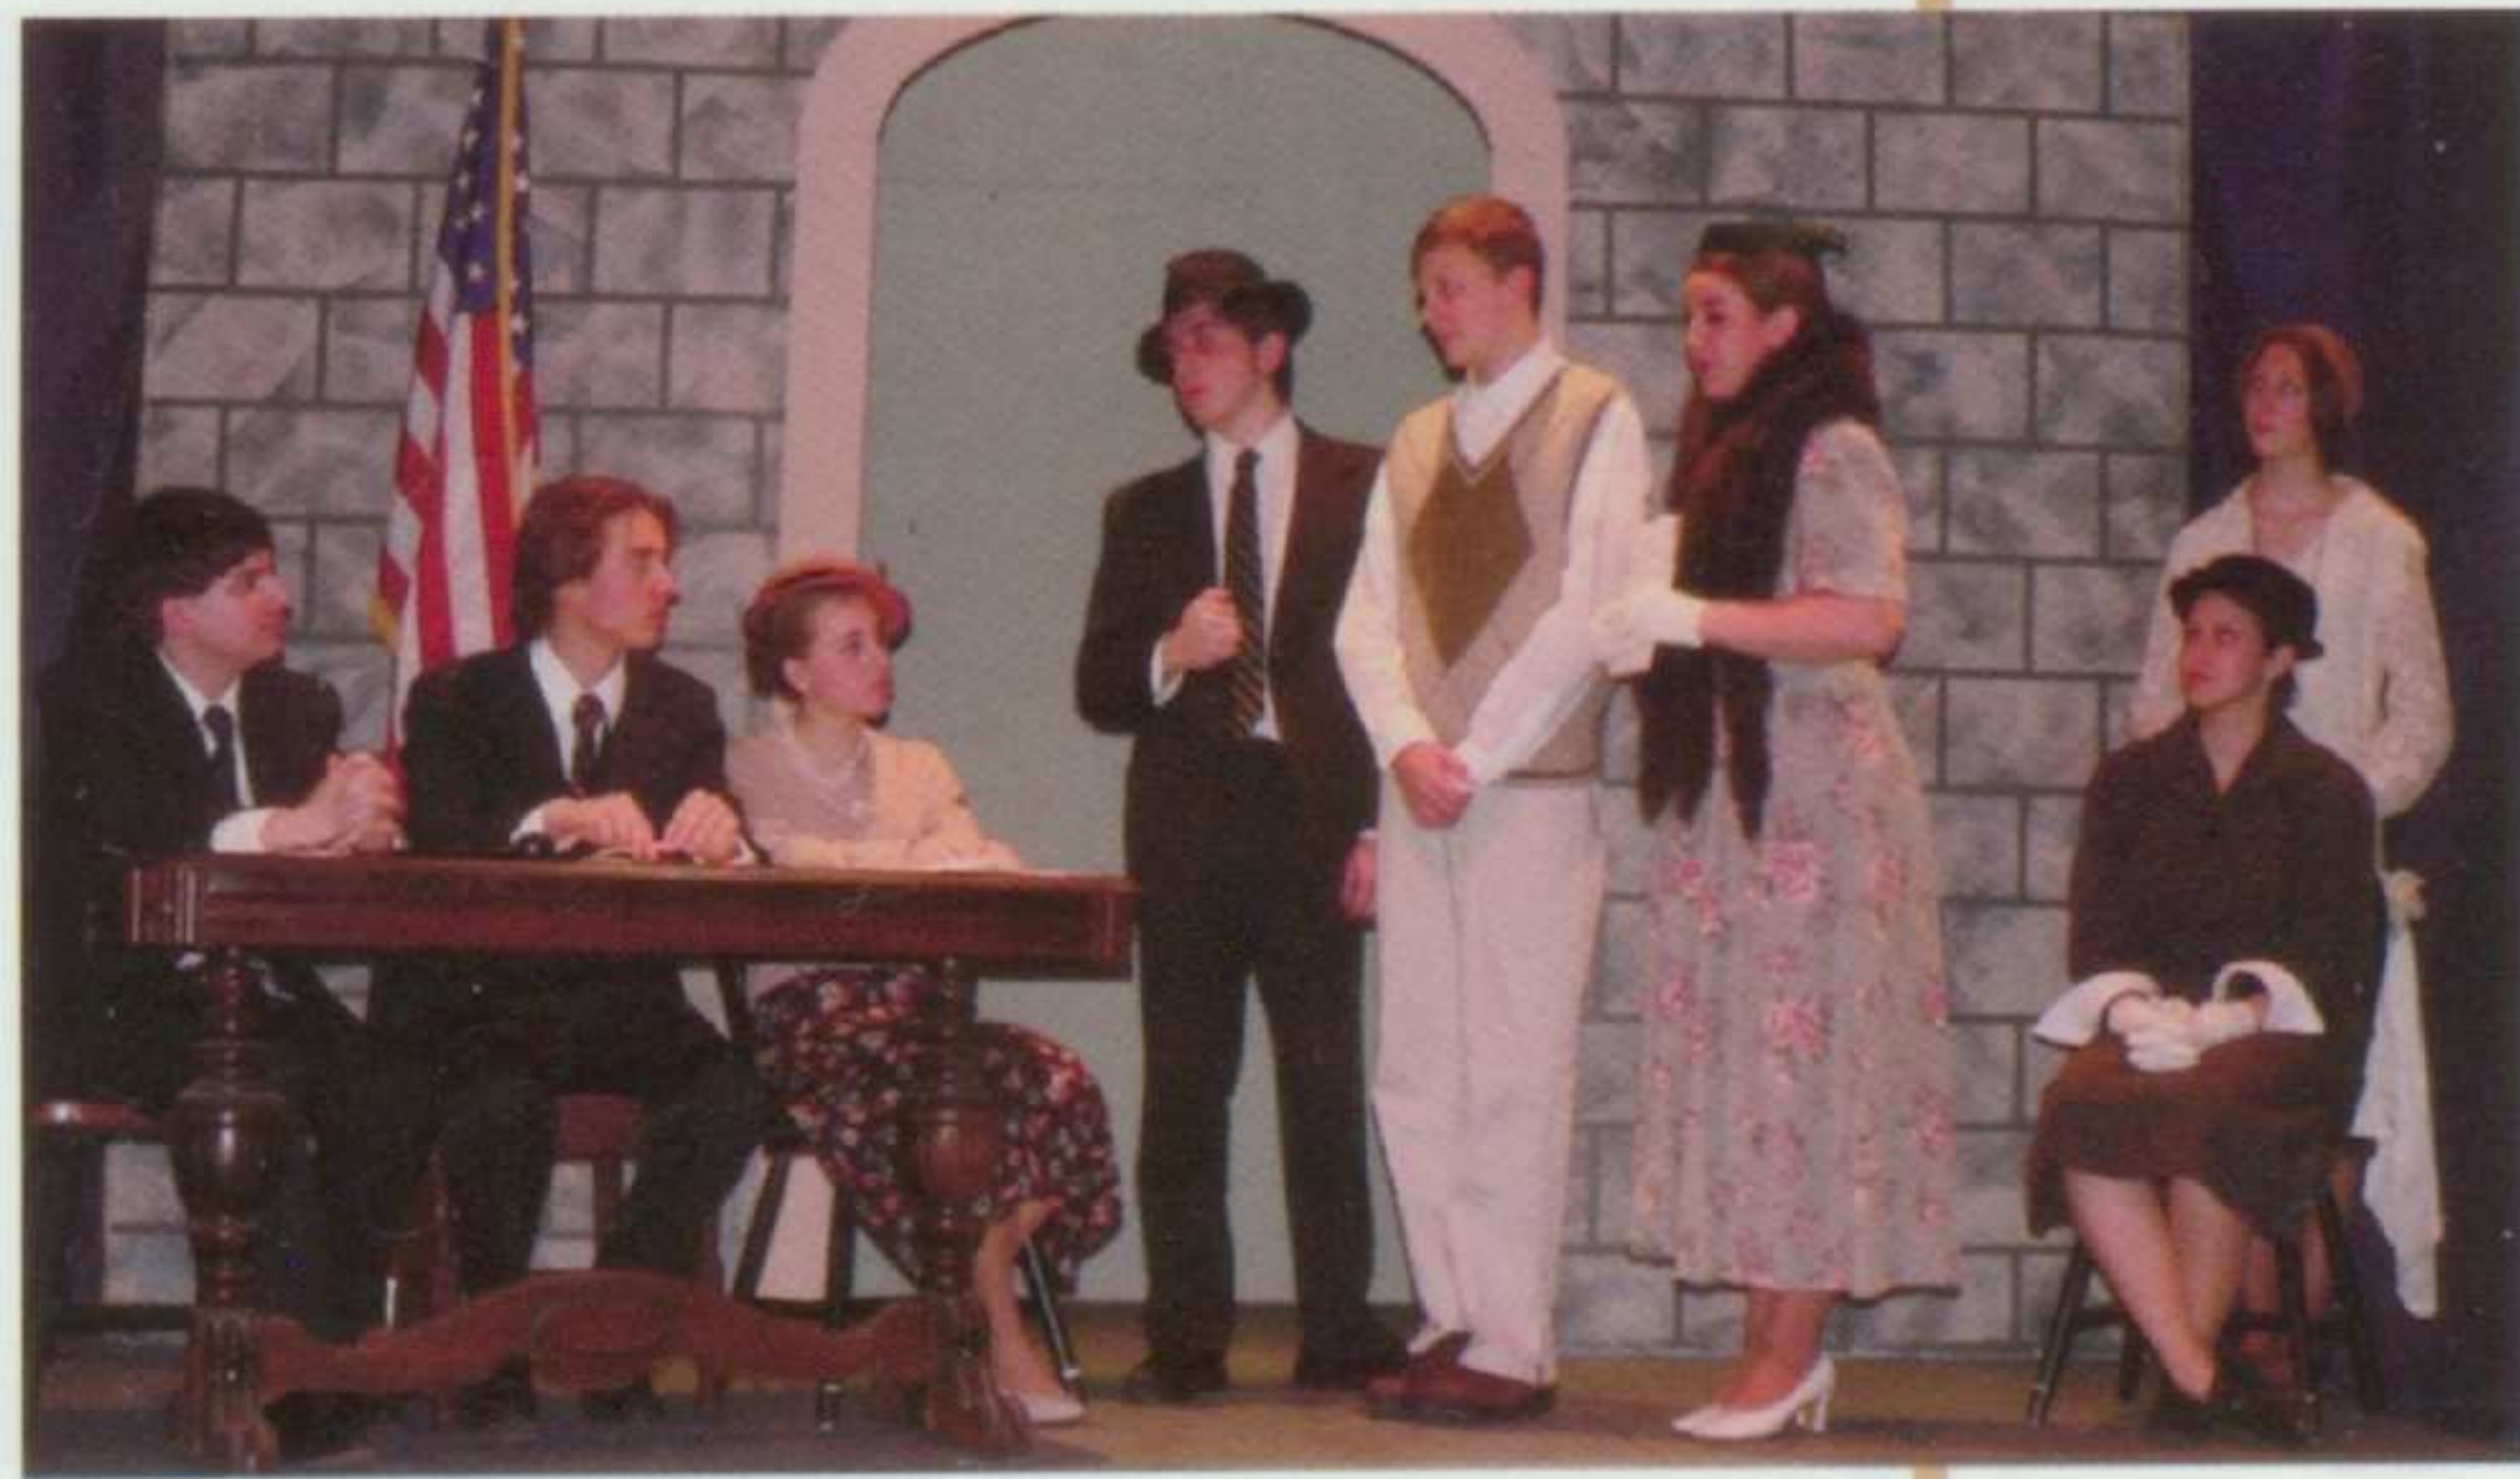

In Good Morning, Miss Dove a teacher's inner child tries to show her how to be herself.

(row 4) Lauren Holz, Ben Mooney, Drew Amer, Calvin Griffin, Mary Zedella, Melanie Cheng, Nick Marsh, Jackie Nourse, Kim Jones.

Judges Dave Friedman, Jim Foreman and Taylor Brown listen to Danny Gibbons, Greg Busch and Melanie deBear plead their case. They feel that Miss Dove should be fired because she is too strict. Patty Morton sits and listens as her inner child, played by Micaela Savage, tries to give her advice on how she should defend her case.

Ashley Kvitko, 11

"It was hard to pull the show together because it was after Seussical, but we did it somehow. I had a great time."

Taylor Brown, 10

"This was the first show that I had a bigger role in. It was nice to get to know everyone and have the camaraderie that we did."

Nick Marsh, 11

"The best part of being in the play was the great cast. Everyone but the leads spent their time sitting in the girls' dressing room. We hung out and it was all around fun...especially Jack's stand-up routine."

Micaela Savage, 10

"I related to my character quite a bit because she's very stubborn and determined, but she's also innocent and giggly."

Be Yourself

Melanie deBear, 12
 "Seussical was an amazing experience that created many lasting memories and friendships."

Andrew Gordon, 12
 "I couldn't have asked for better cast mates. We were all on the same page, and everyday was a new day for hilarious madness."

Jennifer Duann, 12
 "Seussical was a ton of fun but totally worth it because I got to play the Amazing Burlap Sack!"

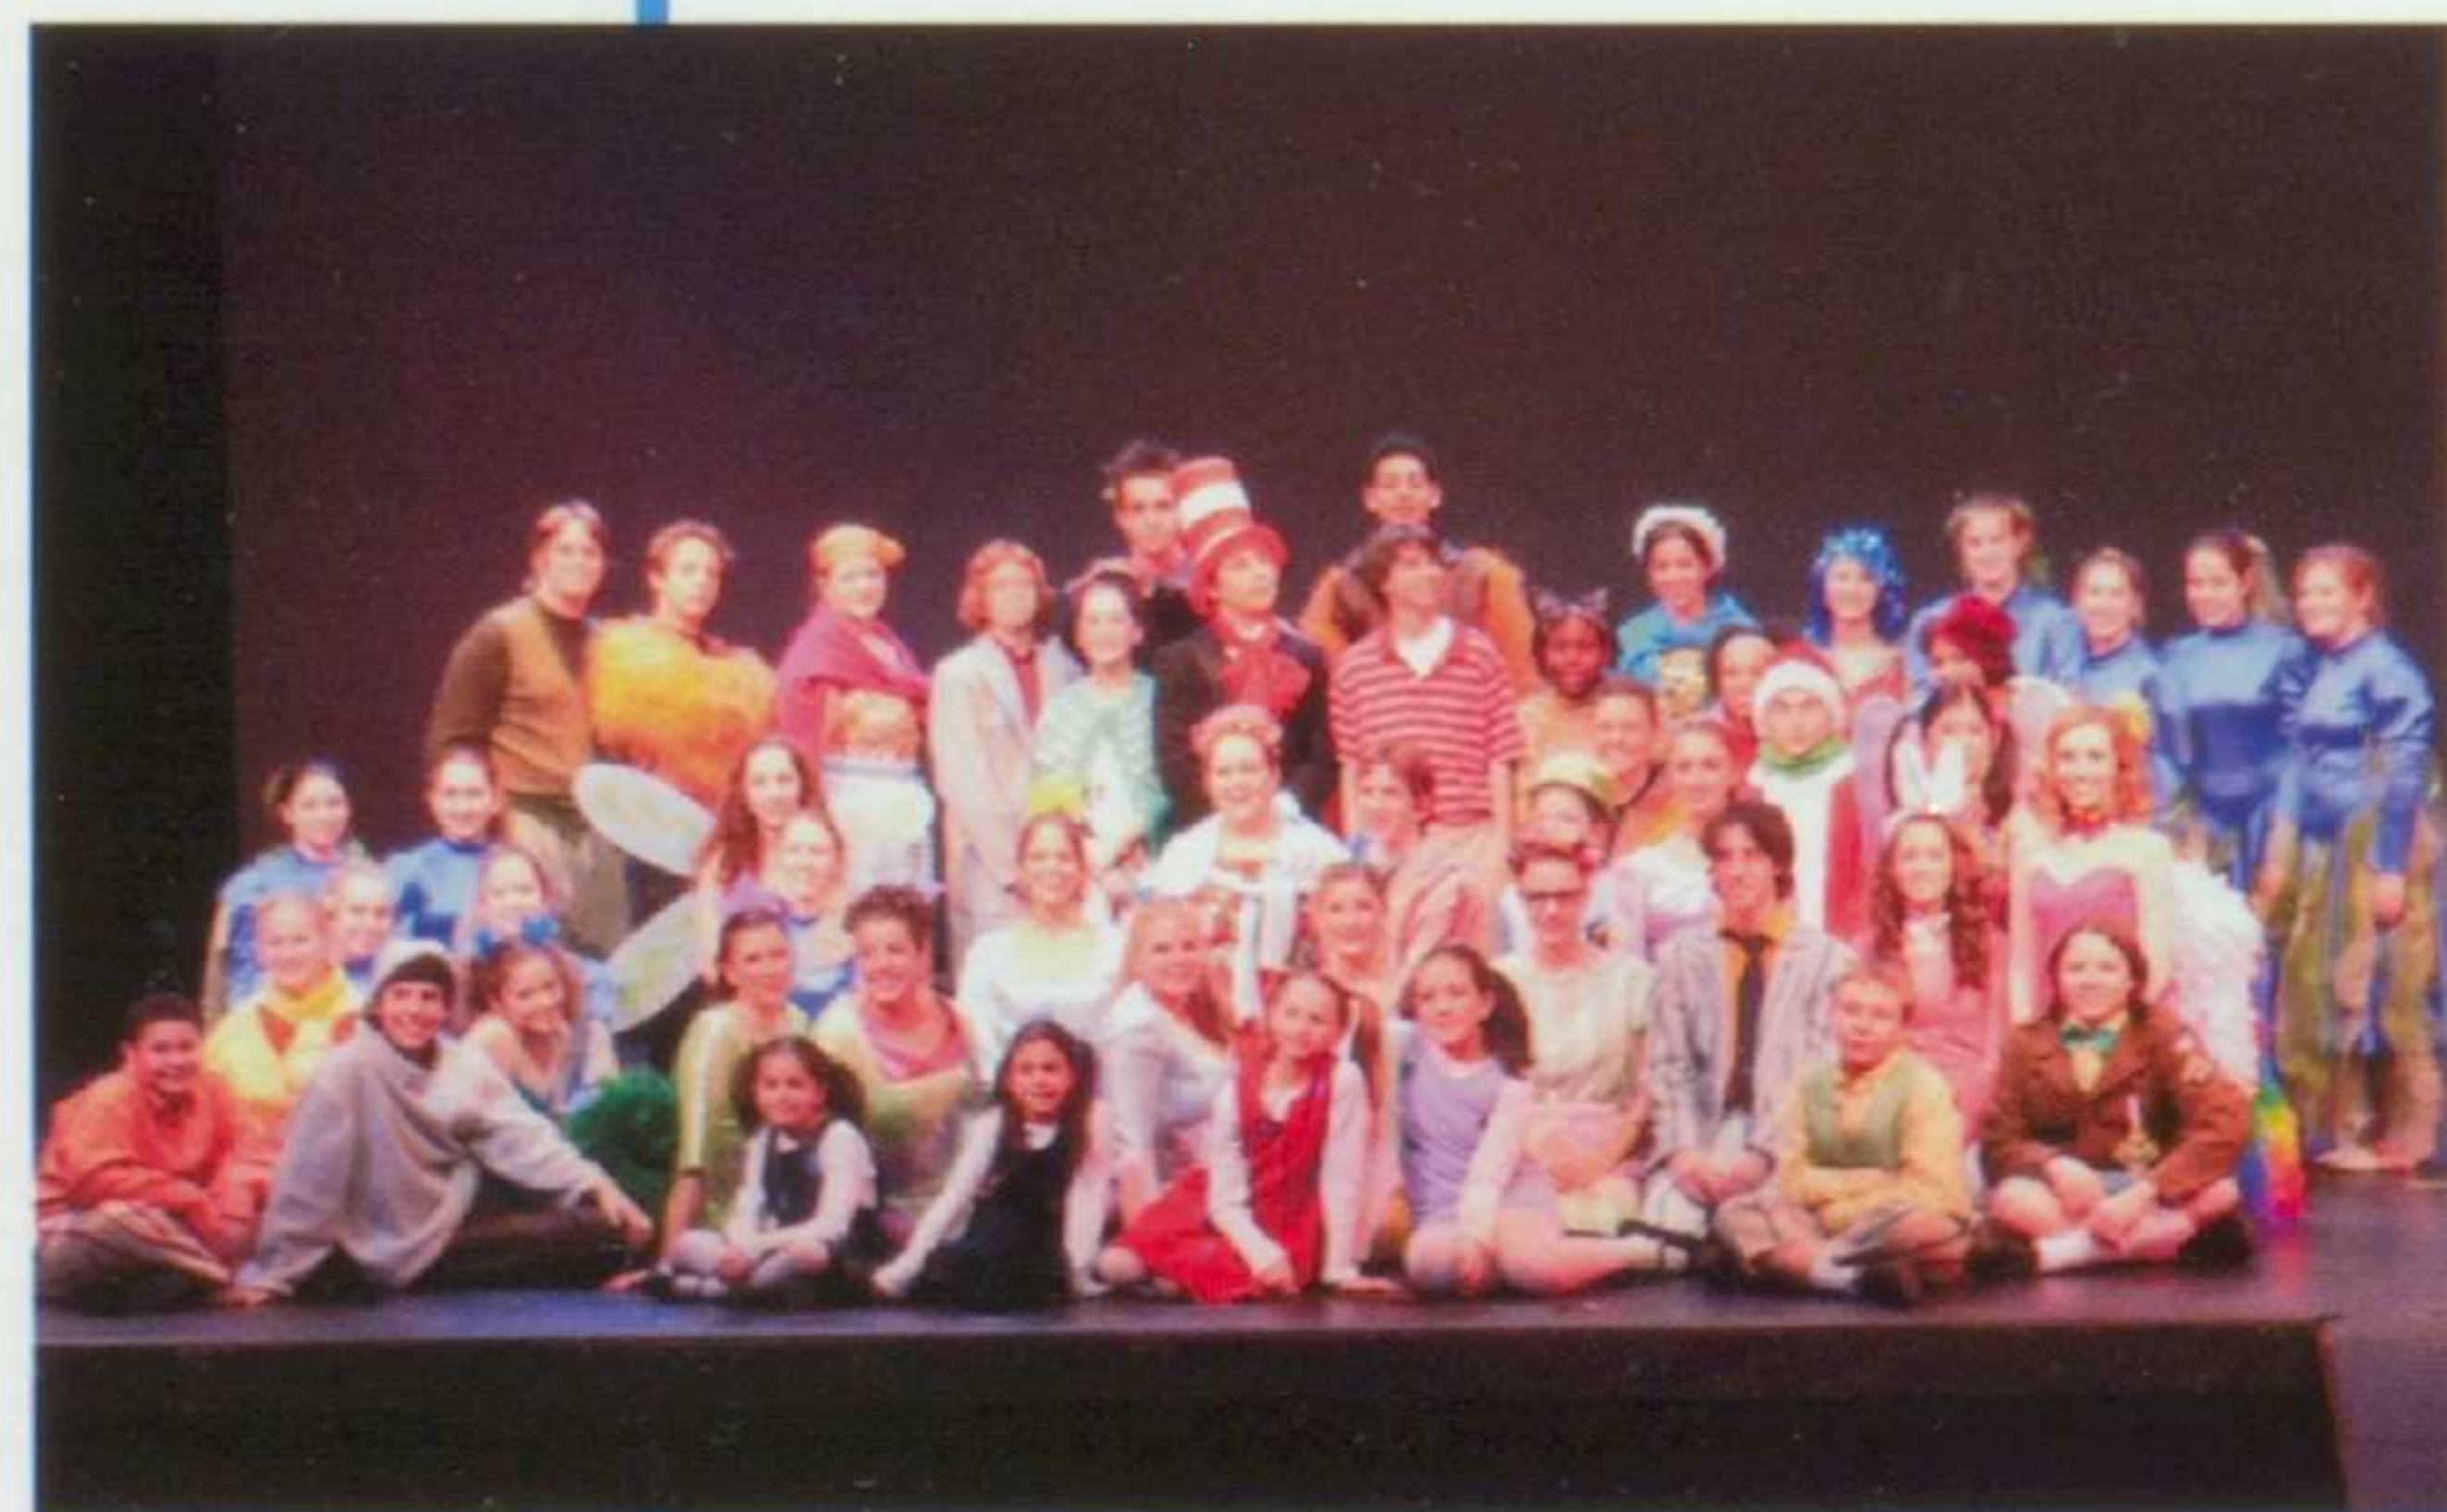

Jordan Collins, 12
 "This was my first time being in a play so I wasn't sure what to expect. It turned out to be a lot of fun and even though I am not a very good singer, I enjoyed the music. This experience has encouraged me to try out for some plays in college."

After Horton the elephant, played by Ben Mooney, discovers a tiny planet of little people on a red flower, everyone thinks that he is crazy. David Johnson, Calvin Griffin, and Greg Busch try to take the flower away from him, but Horton tries his hardest to save it because even the tiniest person is still a person that deserves to be saved.

The birds live in the jungle with Horton. Melanie deBear, Ashley Kvitko, Julie Bland, Mary Zedella, Andrea Dowler and Caitlin Seitz dance with Kaitlyn Darr, the most popular bird in the jungle. She has a really big tail and all of the other birds want to be just like her.

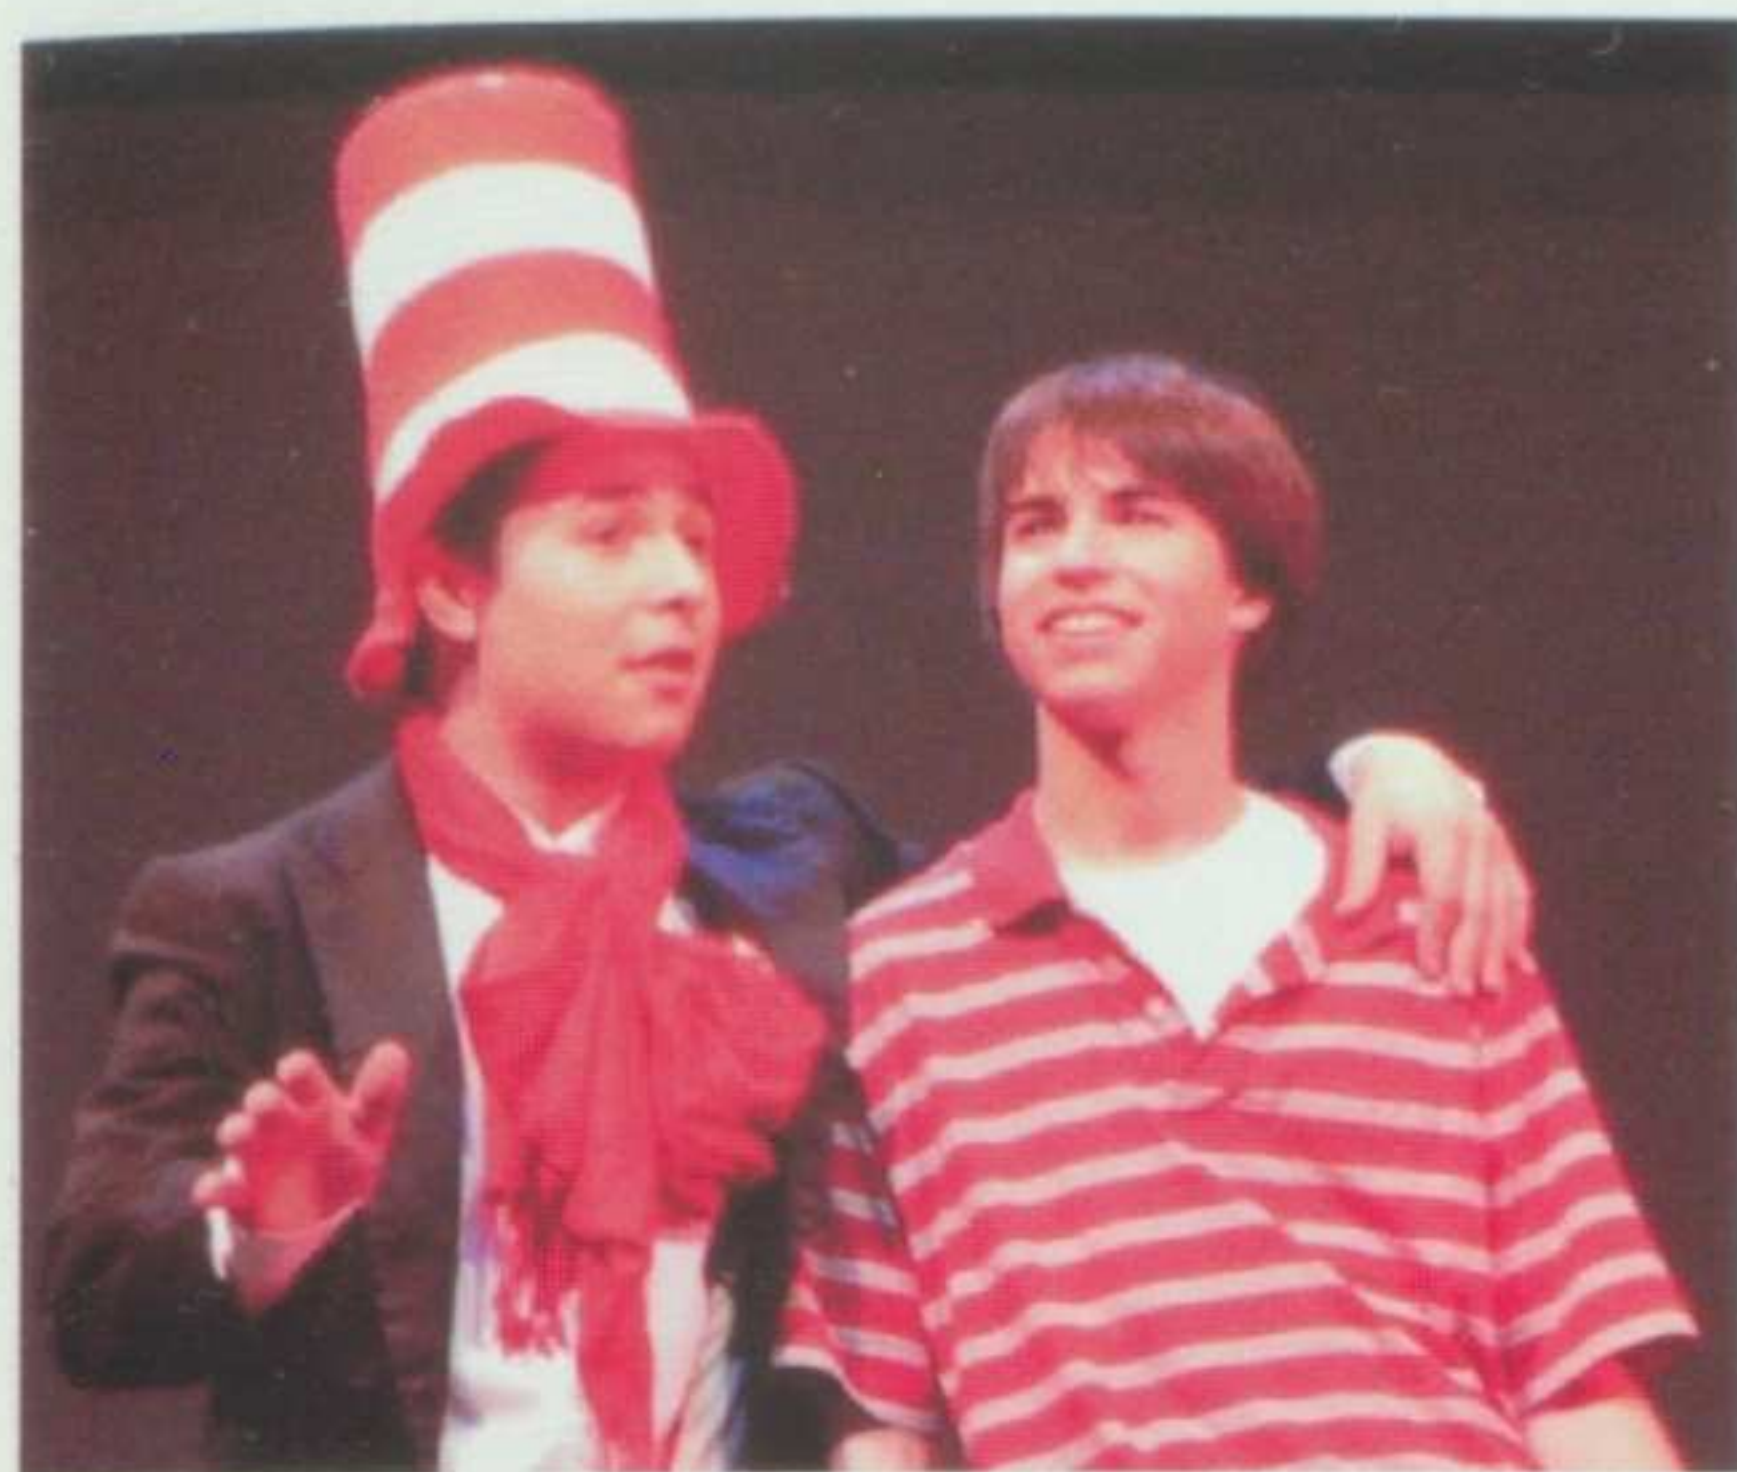

The Cast

One of the families living on the flower called Who-ville is Alise Merrin, Emily Ewing, Scott Sanville and Andrew Gordon.

Trying to help him, the Cat in the Hat, played by Benj Mirman, gives Scott Sanville advice. He constantly reminds Scott of all the things he can think, and Scott is always getting into trouble for thinking big thinks.

After offering to sit on Mayzie LaBird's nest so that she can go on a short vacation, some people catch Horton and take him to the Circus McGurkus. Ben sits with the egg for everyone to see while Brittany Long, Dimitri Khrakovsky, Ali Besser, Maureen Mason, Jillian Jacobs, Patty Morton, Jordan Collins and Jennifer Duann perform in front of him.

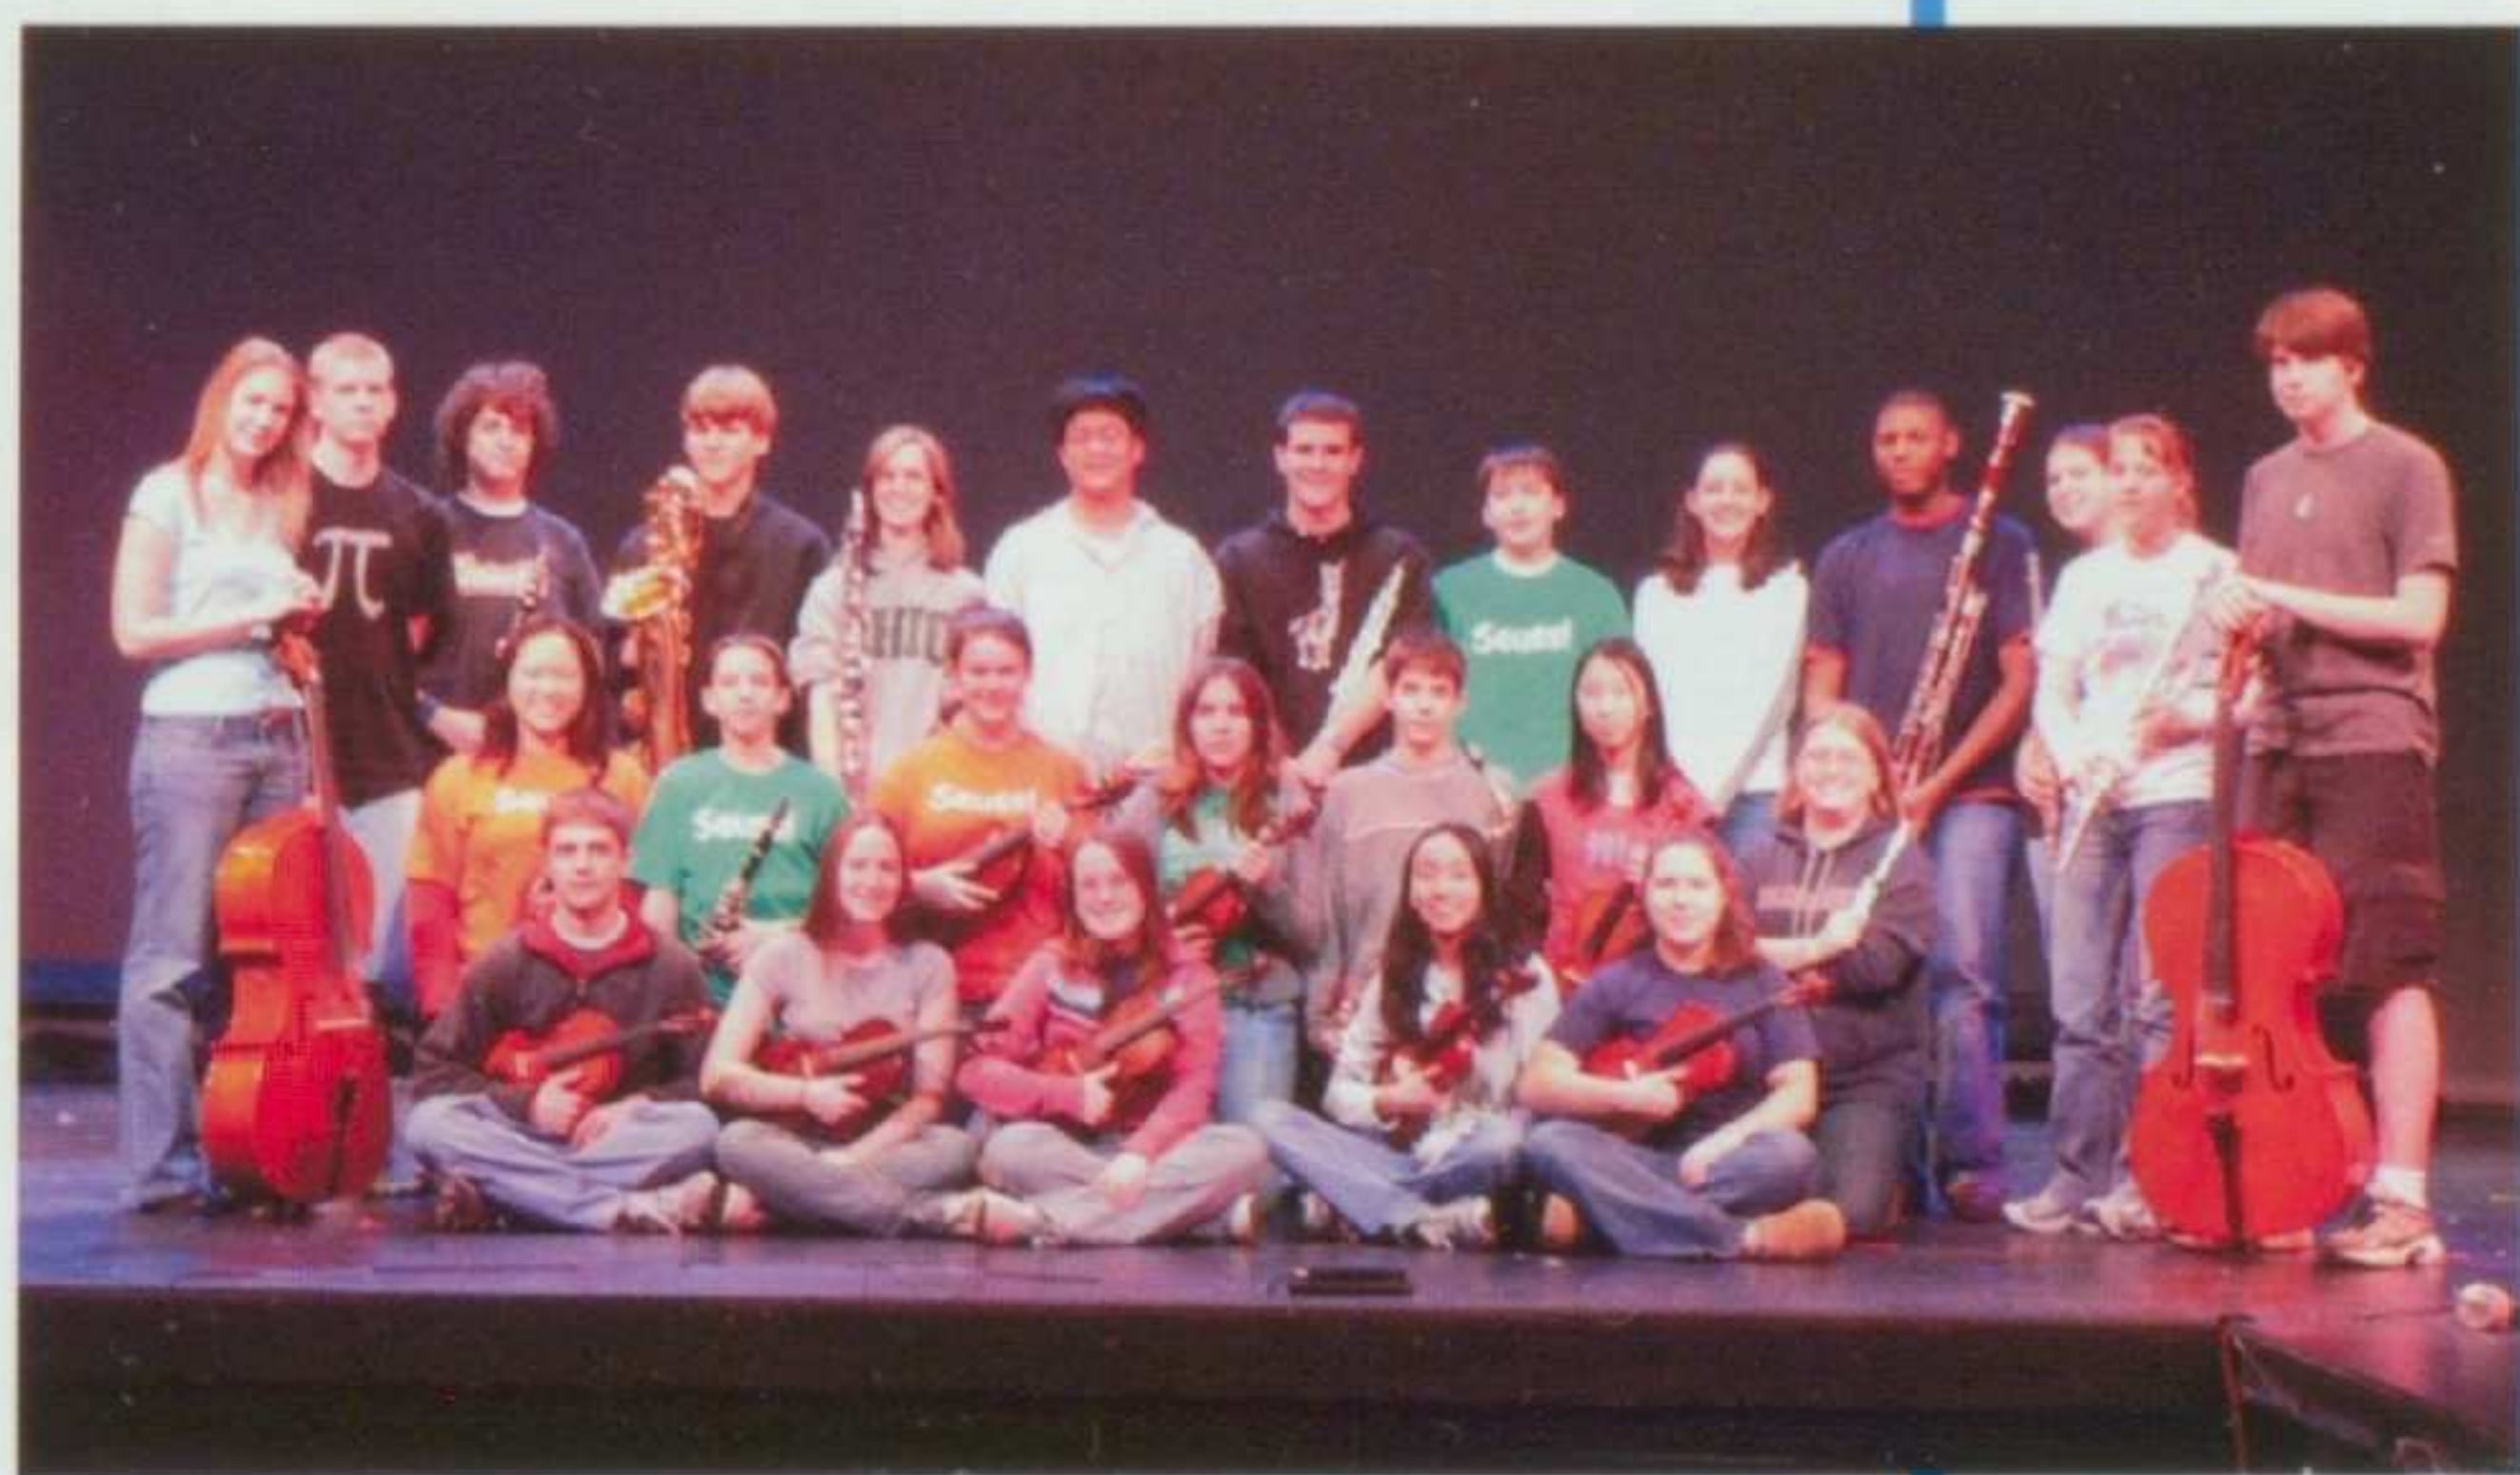

In Seussical the Musical, Horton tries to save a tiny planet on a flower while facing a lot of difficulties.

Throughout the show, Jessica Bruce tries to get Ben Mooney's attention. After being taken to the circus, Ben loses his flower and the little planet on it, so Jessica finds it for him and finally catches his attention. They fall in love and are so excited when Mayzie LaBird's egg hatches because it is half elephant, half bird.

Meg Wax, 12

"From helping out with the cast in Seussical, I learned that I like working with props and that maybe someday, I would like to have a part in a play."

T.J. Luttrell, 12

"One time during rehearsal I kept saying thermometer instead of fermata, and I couldn't understand why the rest of my section didn't know what I was talking about."

Singing the solo, "He Never Failed Me Yet," is junior Jessica Watters. Jessica is a member of Kilbourne's Ladies First and was chosen to sing this gospel song for their concert.

Practicing for a symphonic choir concert are members (front row) Bianca Irving, Shannon Fox, Melanie Shingledecker, (row 2) Sheema Masood, and Erin Wheat.

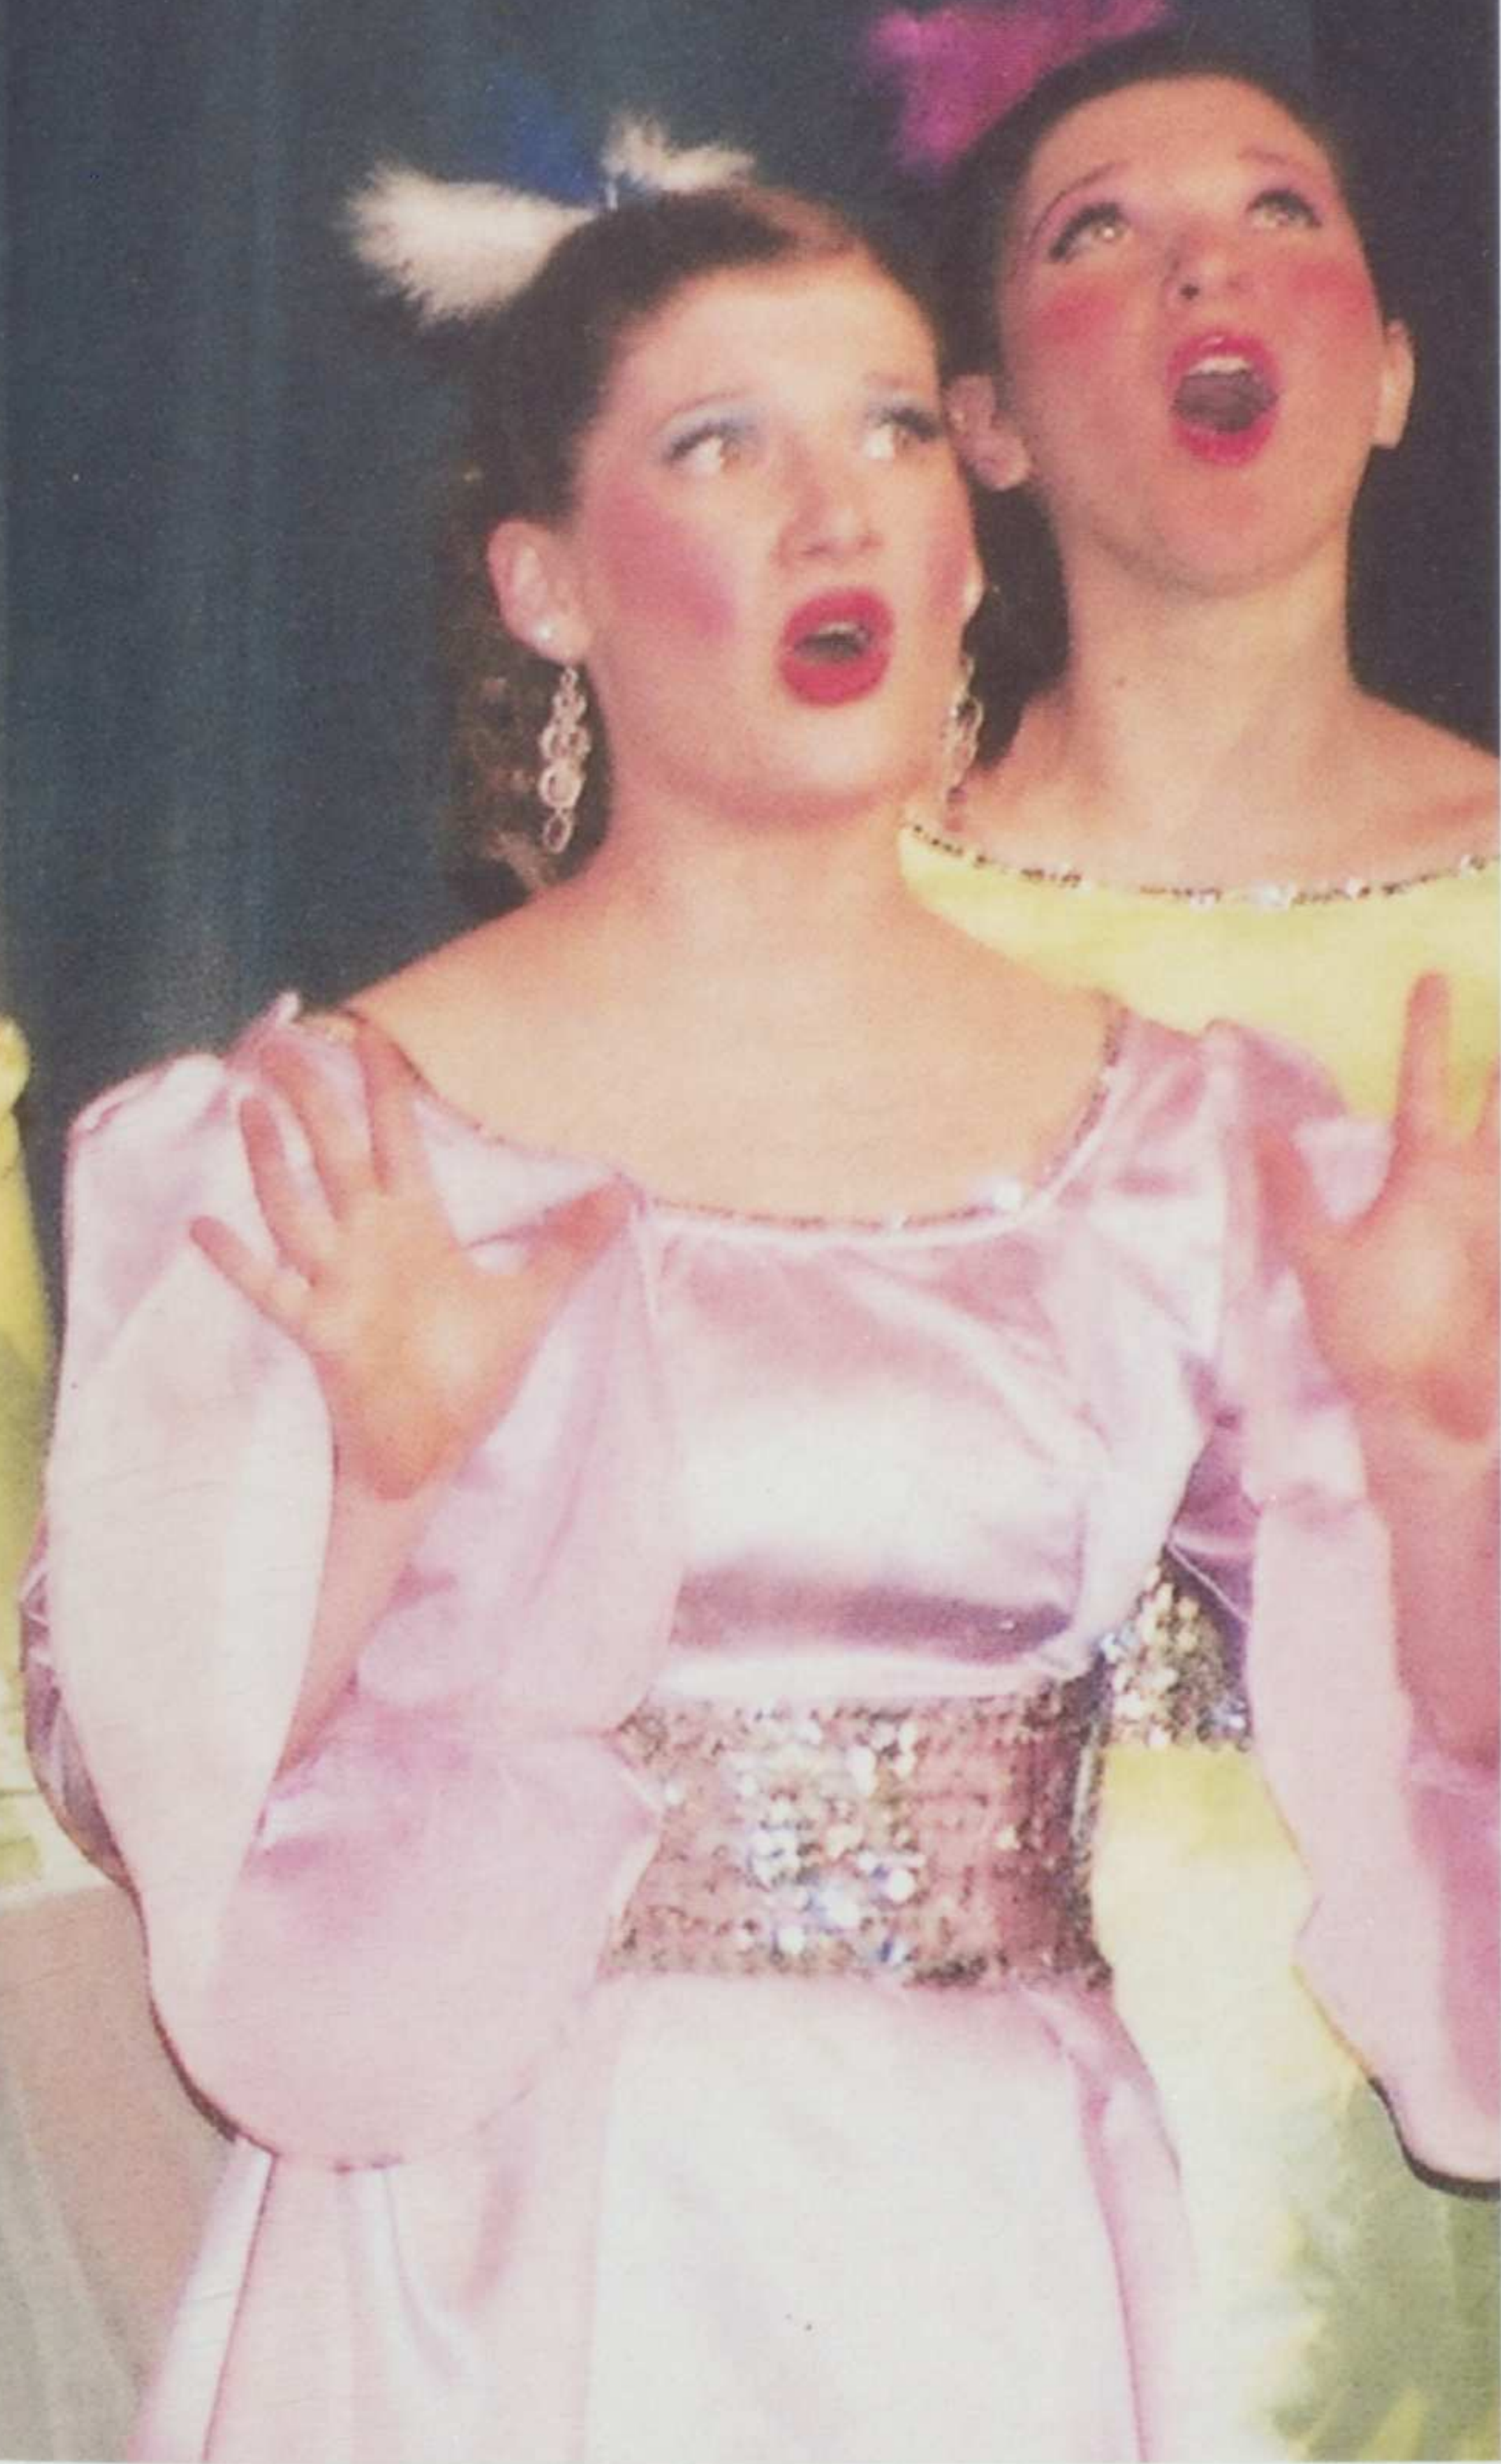

Harmonizing on a holiday song are Danny Saunders, Danny Gibbons, Nikrad Mahdi, Calvin Griffin, Scott Sanville, Calvin McCammon, and Trevor Edge. These boys are members of Acafellas.

Playing the bongo drums for the spring choir concert is junior T.J. Wilson.

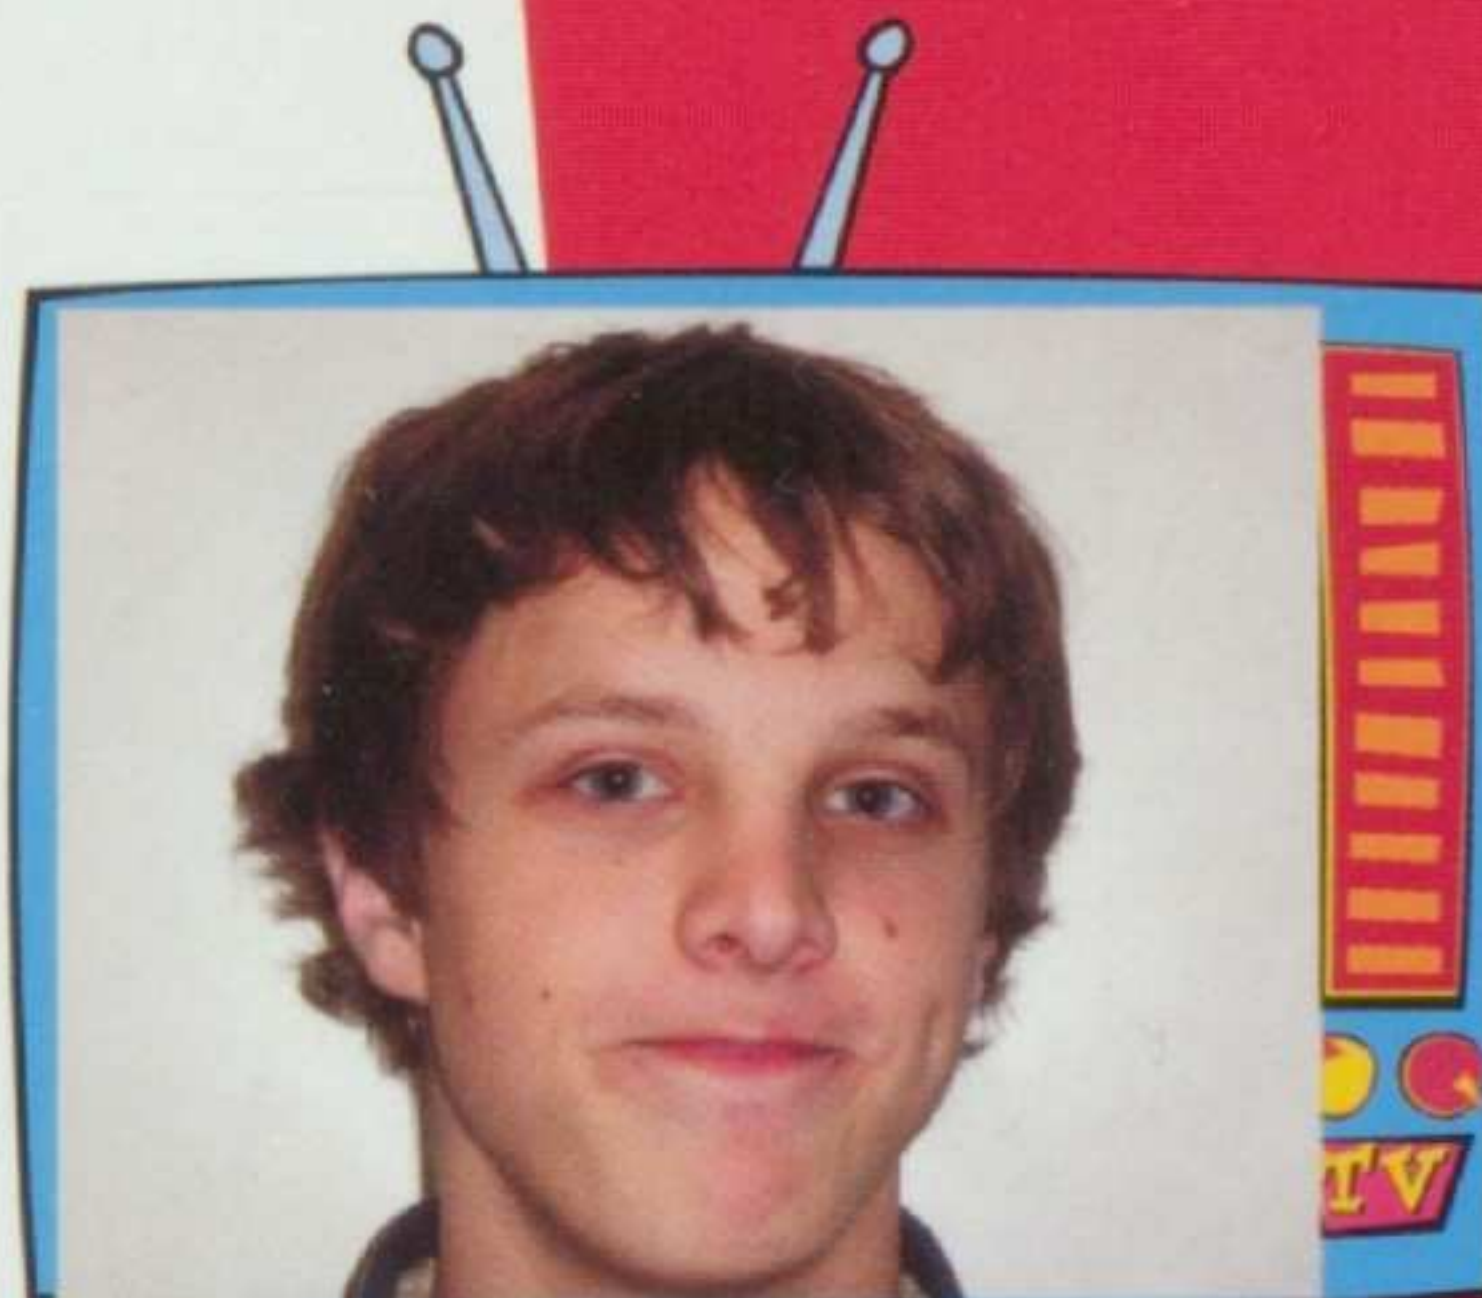

Name That Tune

"If I could say one thing to any senior, I would say to Sarah Graham: 'You've given everything you have to choir. I hope it was worth it.'"

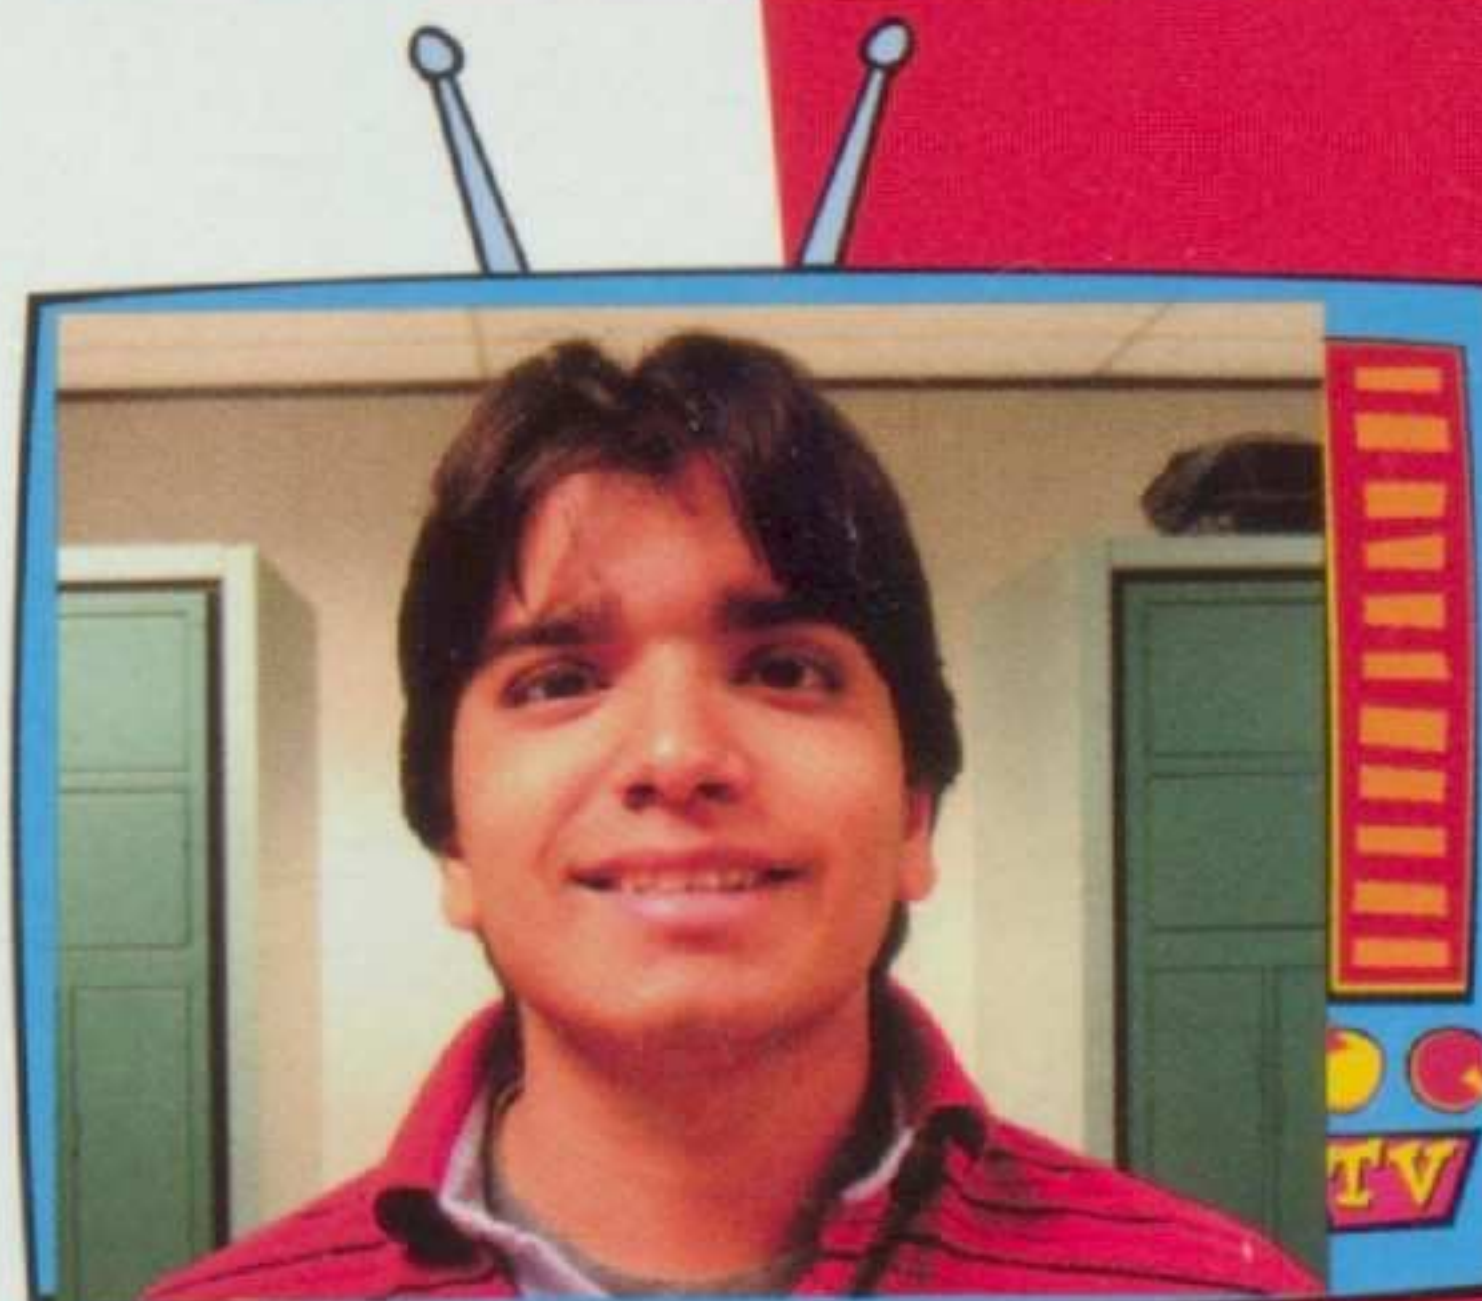

DAVID JOHNSON

"My favorite selection of music this year was 'I've Got a Robe,' because of the really cool motions."

ASHLEY DAWSON

"The best part about choir is that really cool feeling you get when all the notes are perfectly done and there is beautiful harmony, and you're like 'Oooh!'"

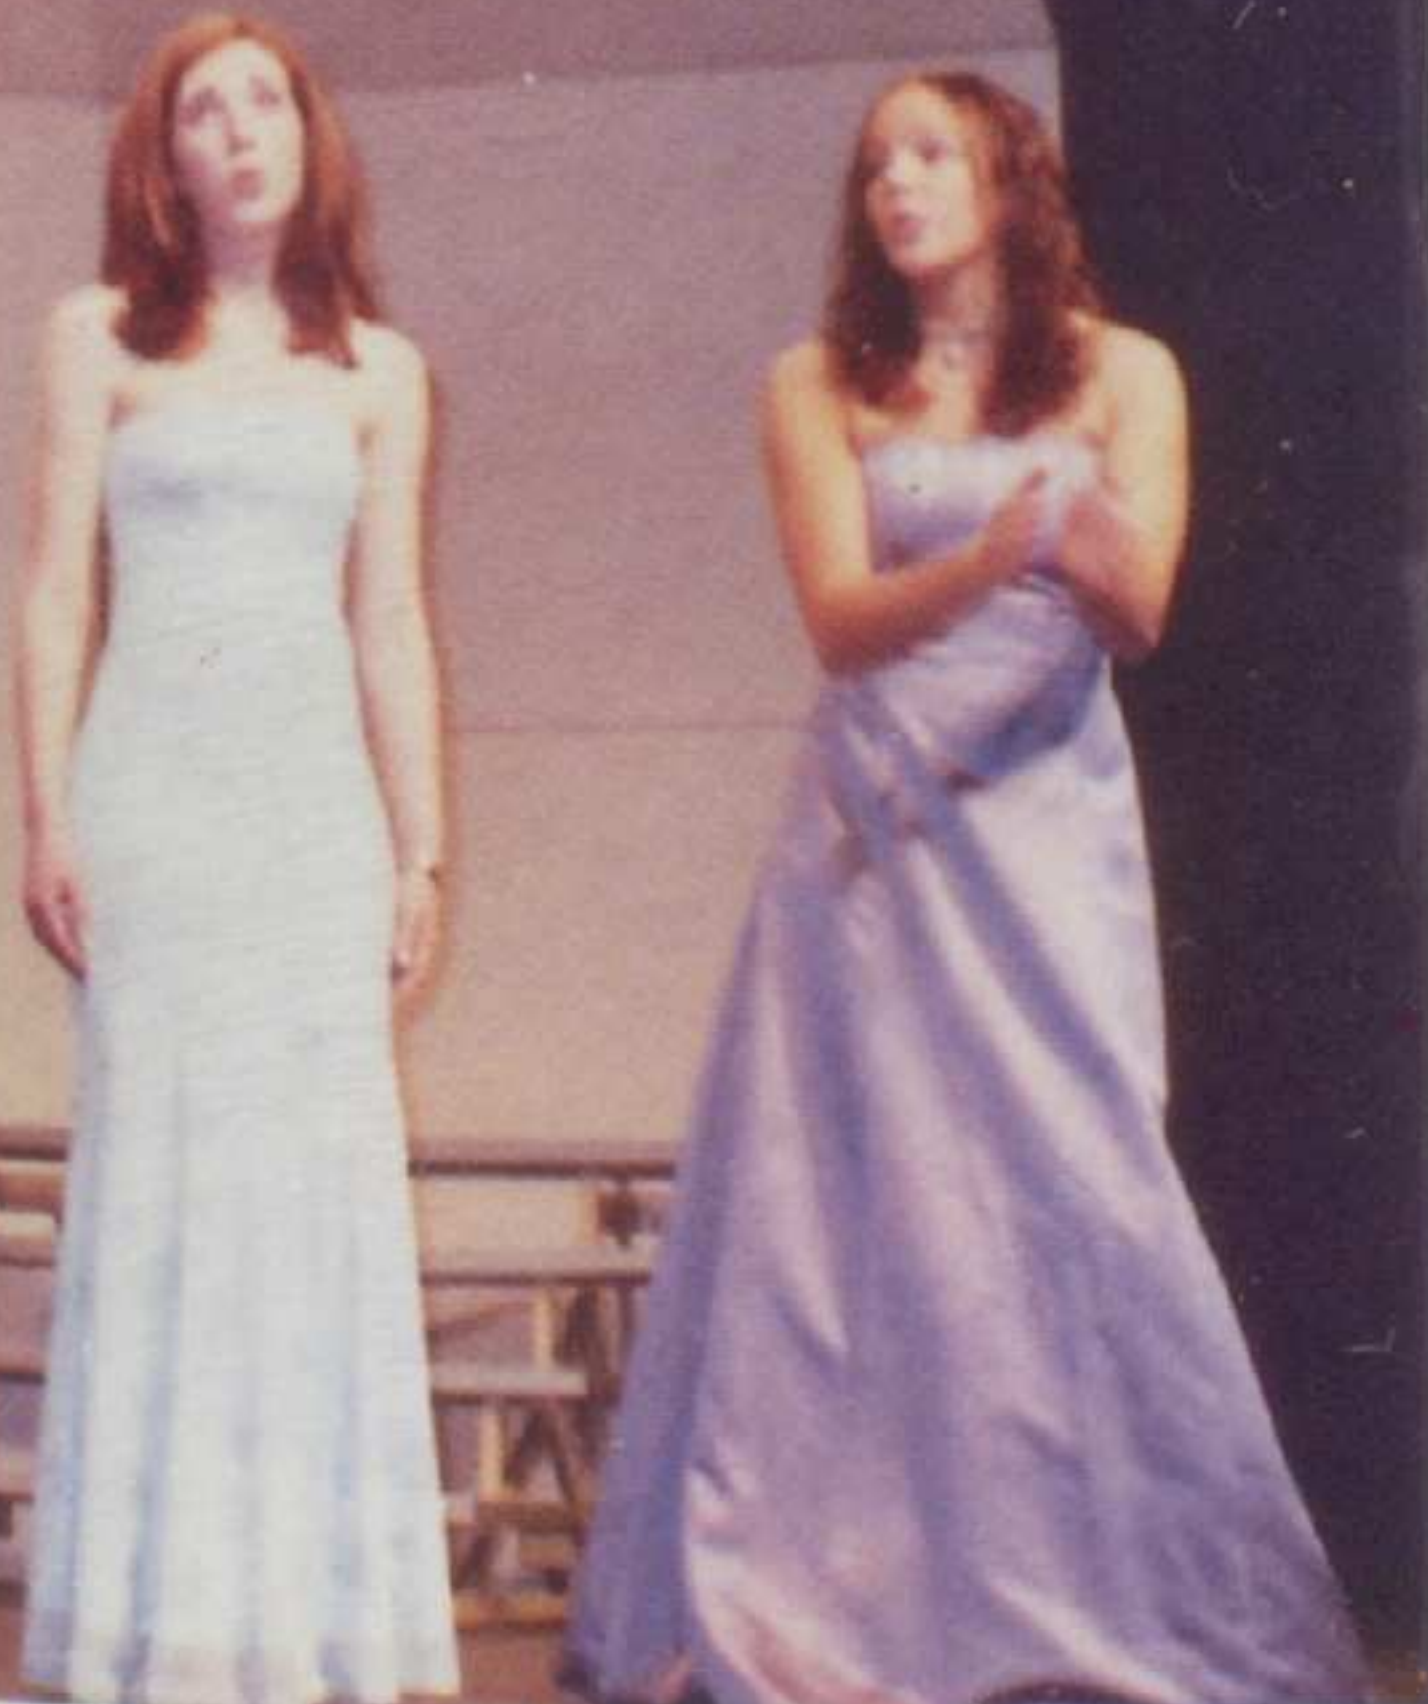

DEEPAK AGARWAL

"My most embarrassing moment in choir was tripping every single time when we were performing 'Come to the Water.'"

Performing in Suessical, The Musical are choir members, Ashley Kvitko, Melanie DeBear, Mary Zedella, and Julie Bland. These baby birds sing and dance to their own beat as their fluorescent gowns shimmer in the spotlight.

Encore girls, Erica DiPaolo, Caitlyn Seitz, Andrea Dowler, Meg Thompson, Kaitlyn Darr, and Jessica Watters, are harmonizing at their March performance.

We're used to seeing Mr. Dunaway in the hallways, talking to students like Sam Goldenberg.

Welcoming our new principal Mr. Dunaway and his positive attitude about our school, Ryan Beattie, a senior, gives him positive feedback.

Are you hip and with the times?

"Yes, sort of. My kids complain that I watch too many shows on MTV for a person my age."

-Mary Lou Himmel

"Most of the time my hips work well and even together, getting me to most places on time."

-Mr. Miller

"I was a hippie once. Does that count?"
-Bev Graves

"The times may not be hip enough to be with me."
-Brian Riegel

ON SATURDAY, MAY 7TH, STUDENTS POURED ONTO THE DANCE FLOOR TO ENJOY A NIGHT OF ELEGANCE

Having an enchanting evening, Allison Bowman, Reed Williams, Marisa Catalino, Joey Babka, Emily Valasco, and R.J Lindquist enjoy their last prom.

Doing a little dance on the terrace of the Franklin Park Conservatory are Bill Chastain, Dave Bolton, and Josh Thornton.

Bringing new company to our school, Allison Cox and Sarah Gleich are accompanied by one of the many dates from different schools.

Looking cute at their senior prom David Jackson and Emily Clark snuggle up to each other for a picture.

In the Secret Garden

NORTHINGTON KILBOURNE AGAIN THROWS ANOTHER GREAT PROM NIGHT

Secret Garden was the theme for the 2005 junior-senior prom. The junior student council did a great job transforming the Franklin Park Conservatory into a romantic terrace. The beautiful decorations and well chosen music attributed to the excitement of the night.

Those attending the dance voted Seth Payne and Joanna Mitchell as prom king and queen.

The dance is only half the fun. Picking out attire, eating dinner, and going to After Hours adds significantly to the event. After Hours this year was at Super Games.

Ending the night with a slow dance to our prom's theme song "Secret Garden" by Bruce Springsteen are Juniors Katie Bolton and her date Brian Smith.

Proving that they can still have fun at prom without a romantic tie are good friends Matt Graves and Maureen Young. "It's all about what's fun," says Maureen. "Matt was a great date."

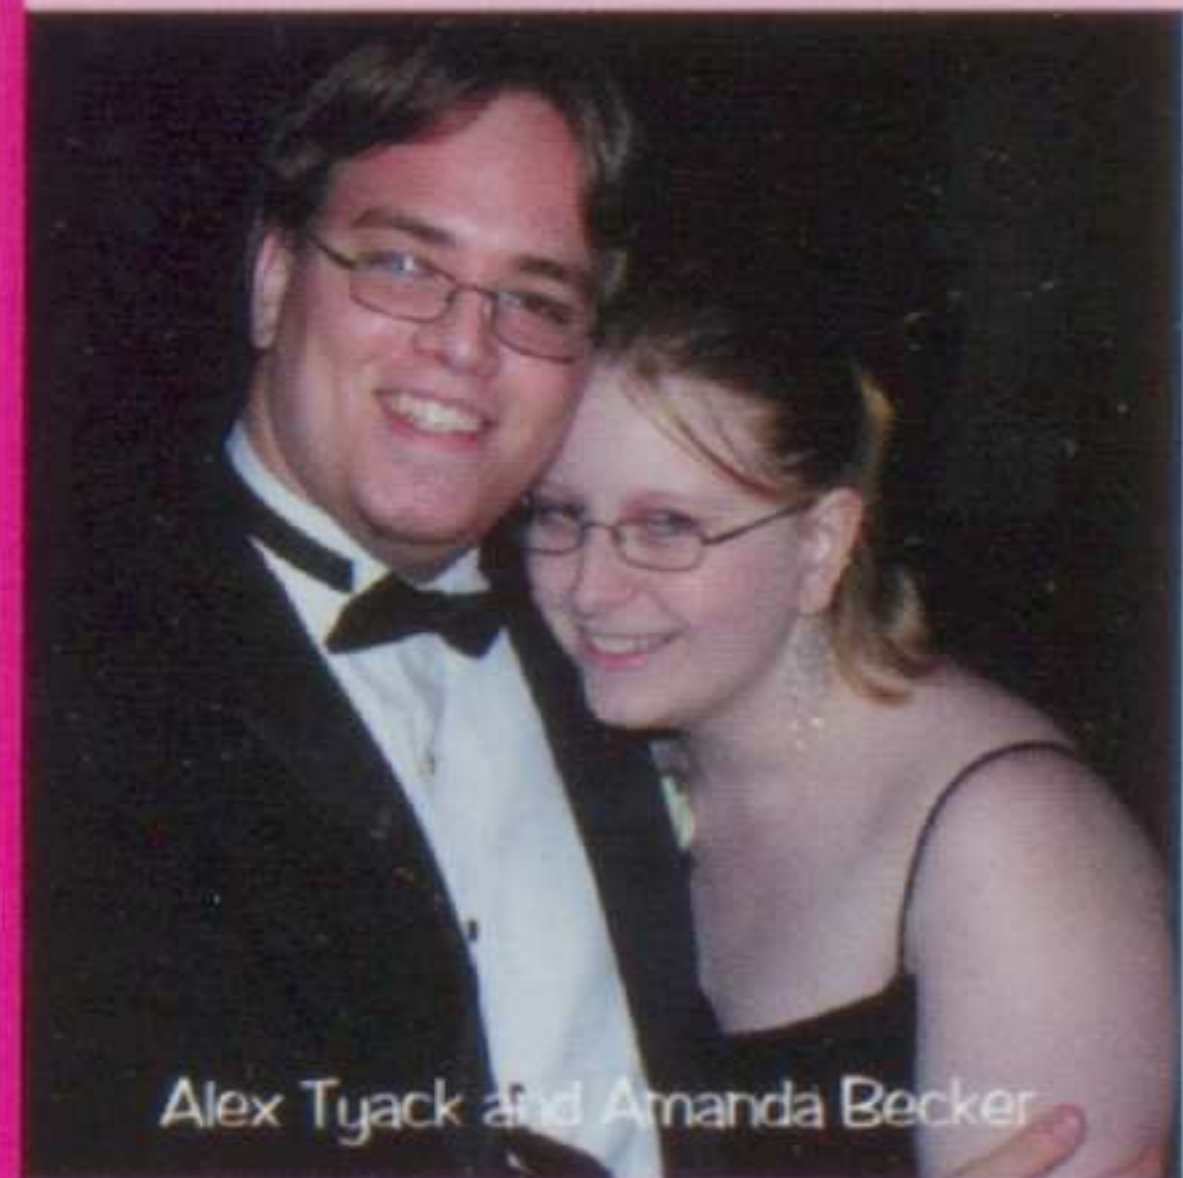

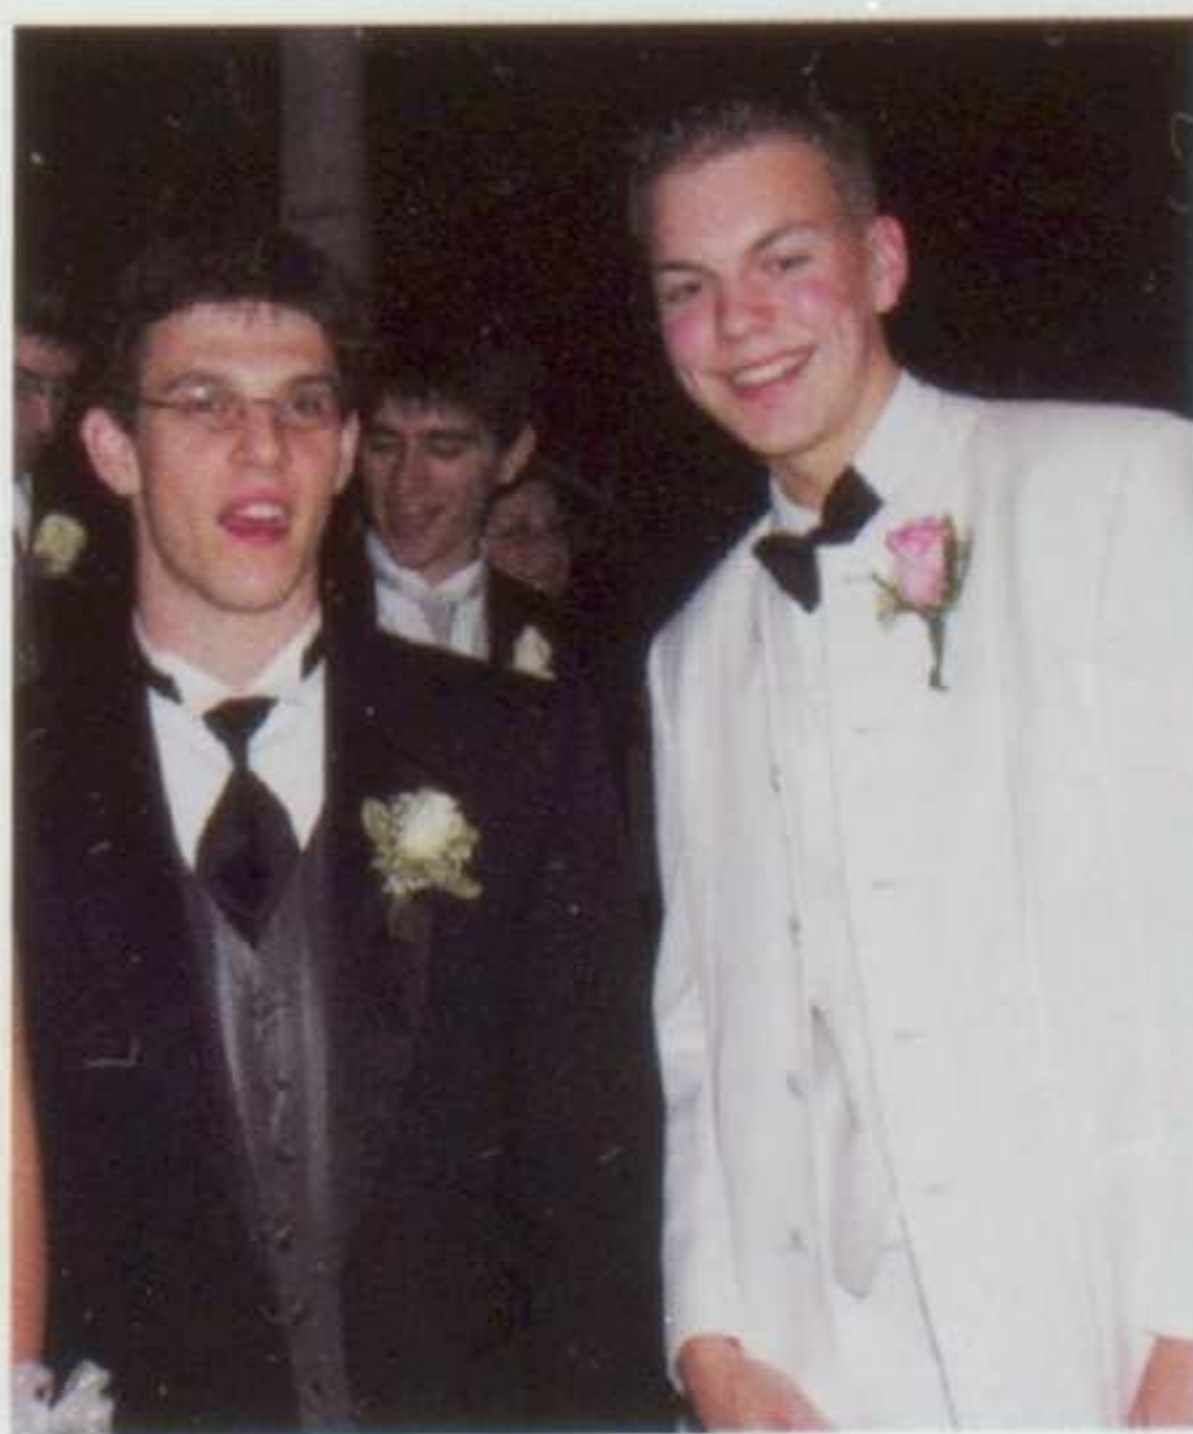

Roxane Robertson, Brianna Bond, and Britney Andrews

A coach Rice tradition is gathering the guy's volleyball team together for a picture. Jordan Lookabaugh, Kyler Denbow, Phil Moore, Nick Baehr, and Kevin Lookabaugh are an example of the closely knit sports teams we have here at Kilbourne.

Making this night to remember at their last prom ever are Corey Clark and Tommy Schlaegel.

Alex Tyack and Amanda Becker

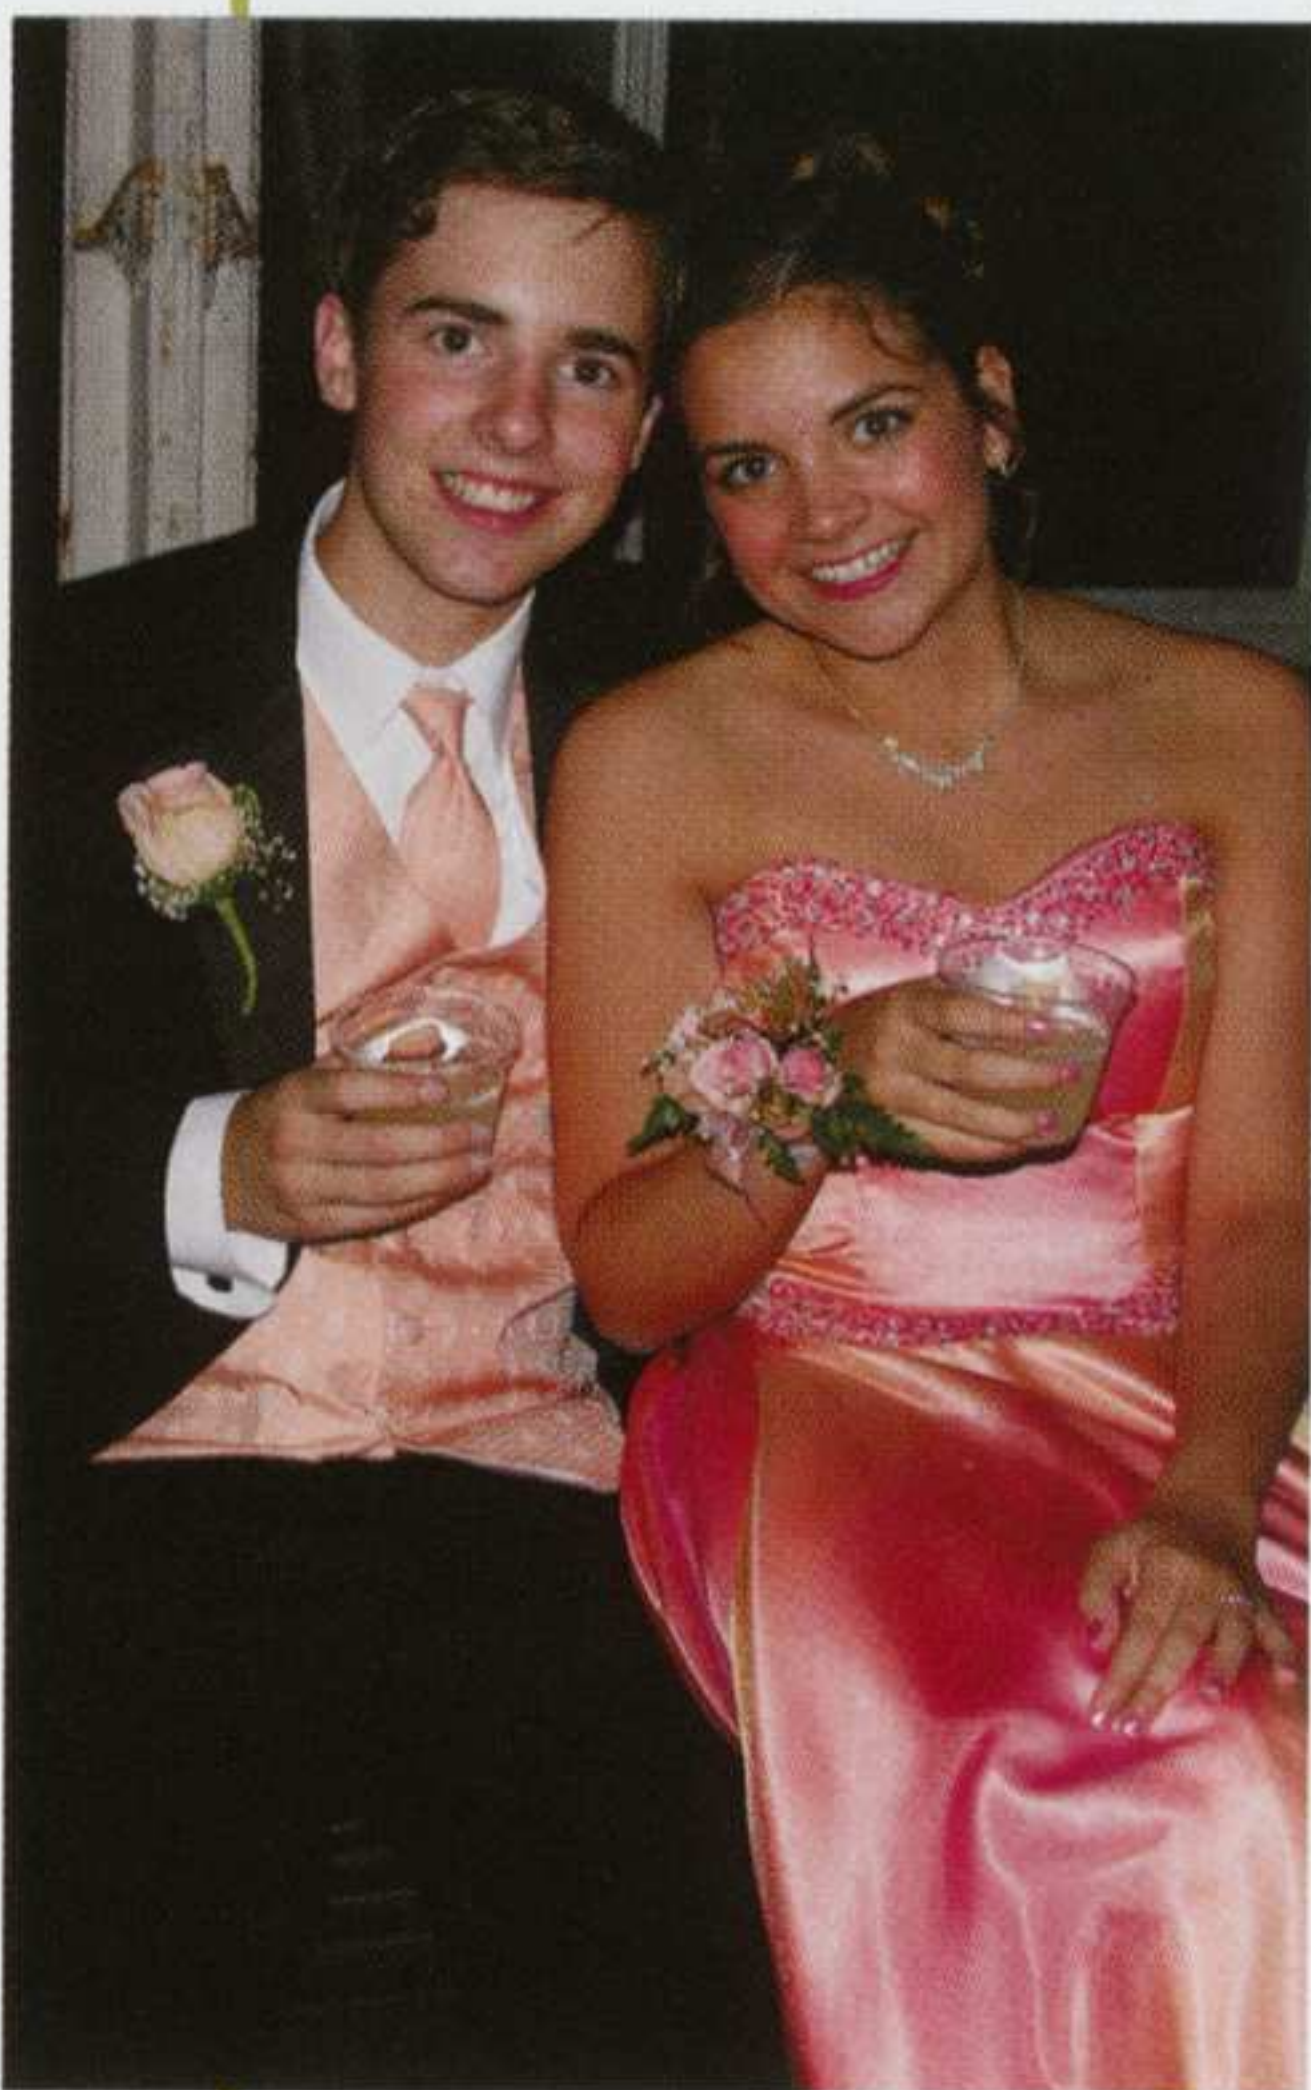

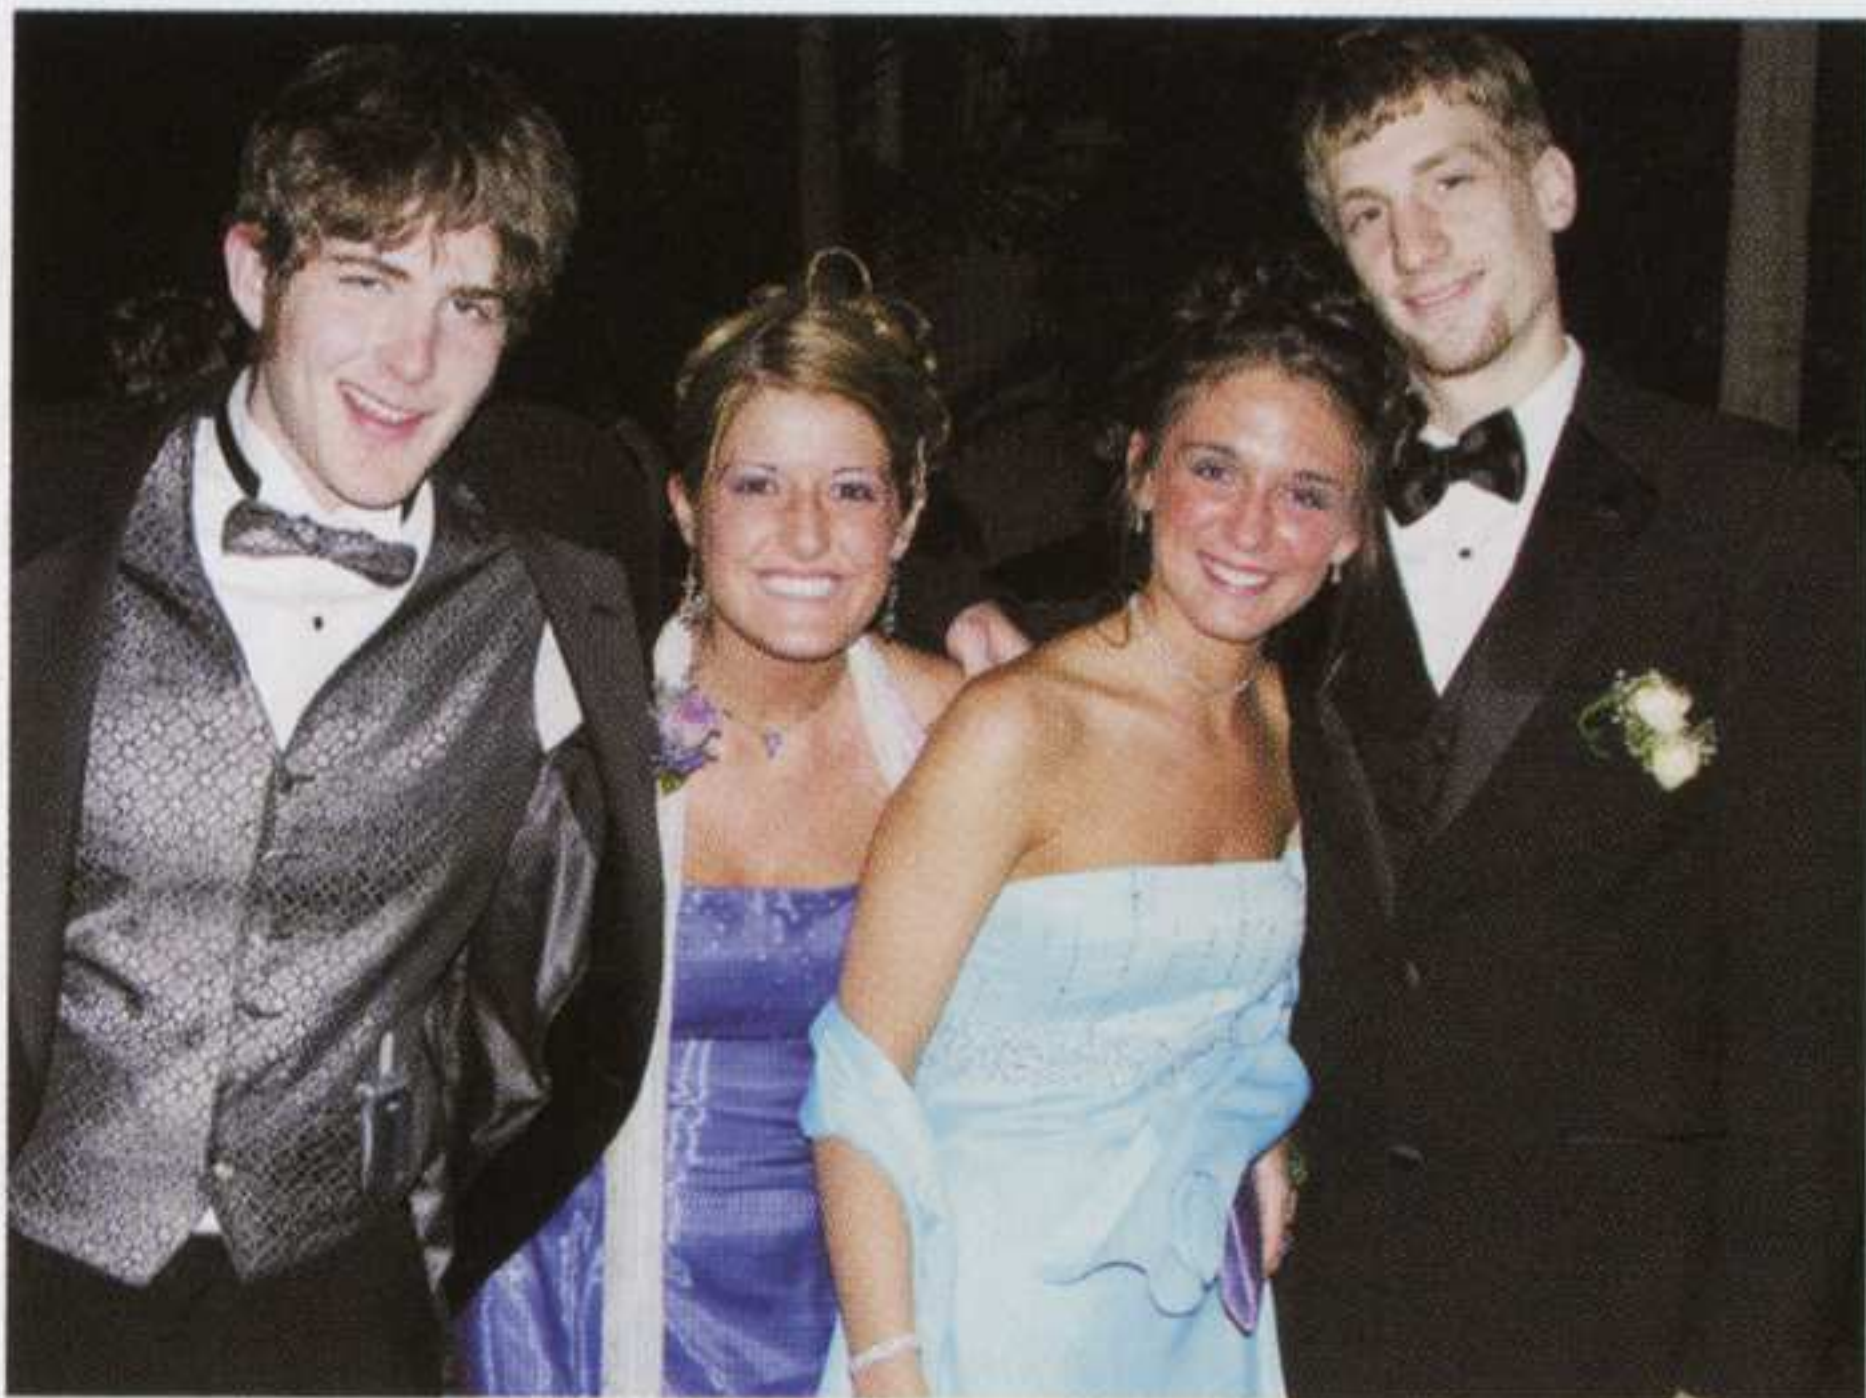

Seth Payne and Joanna Mitchell

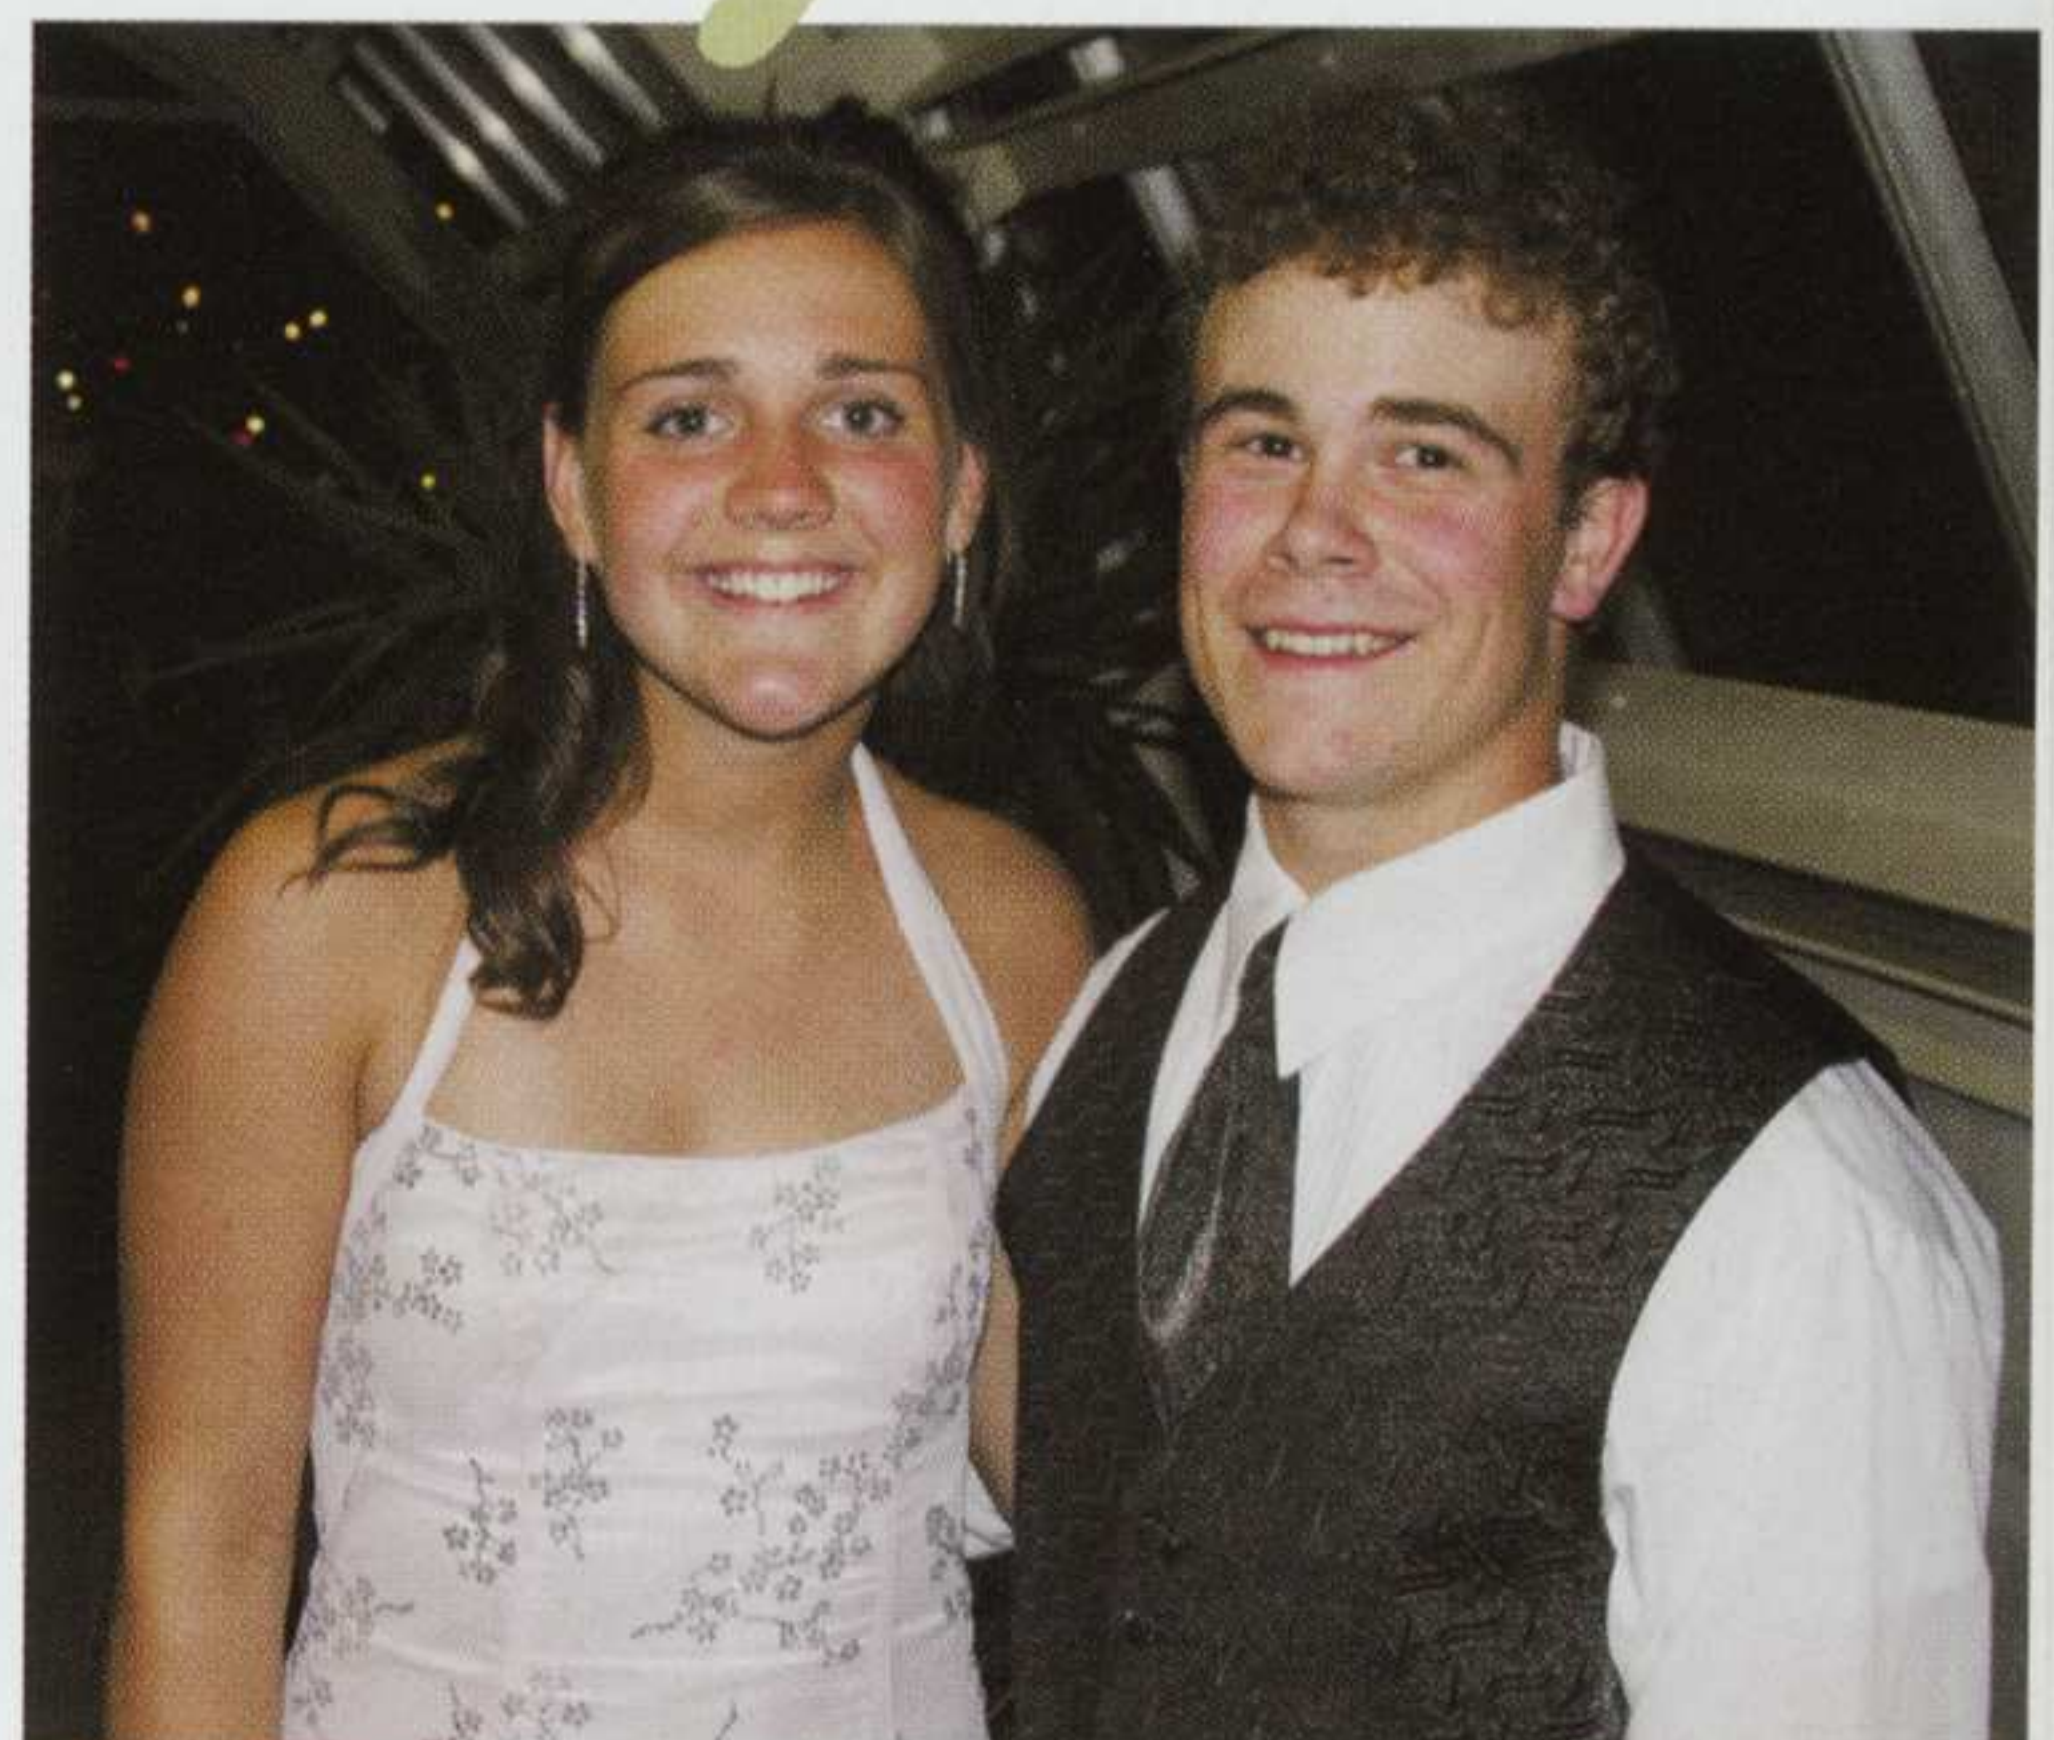

This gorgeous couple, Alex Hettinger and Ashley Coen, have only great memories about their first prom together. "We both had a good time, and Ashley looked amazing," declared Alex.

Heading back to the limo to get ready for AfterHours are Ross Johnson, Valerie Keiter, Ali Burke, and John Groeniger. Don't get into too much trouble!

Looks like this group, Justin Blanton, Jennifer Van Doorn, Heather Walbright, Chris Andreas, Hilary Campbell, Mitch Denti, Alise Merrin, and Calvin Griffin, are ready to groove on the dance floor after a hearty meal at Bravo.

A Night of Perfection

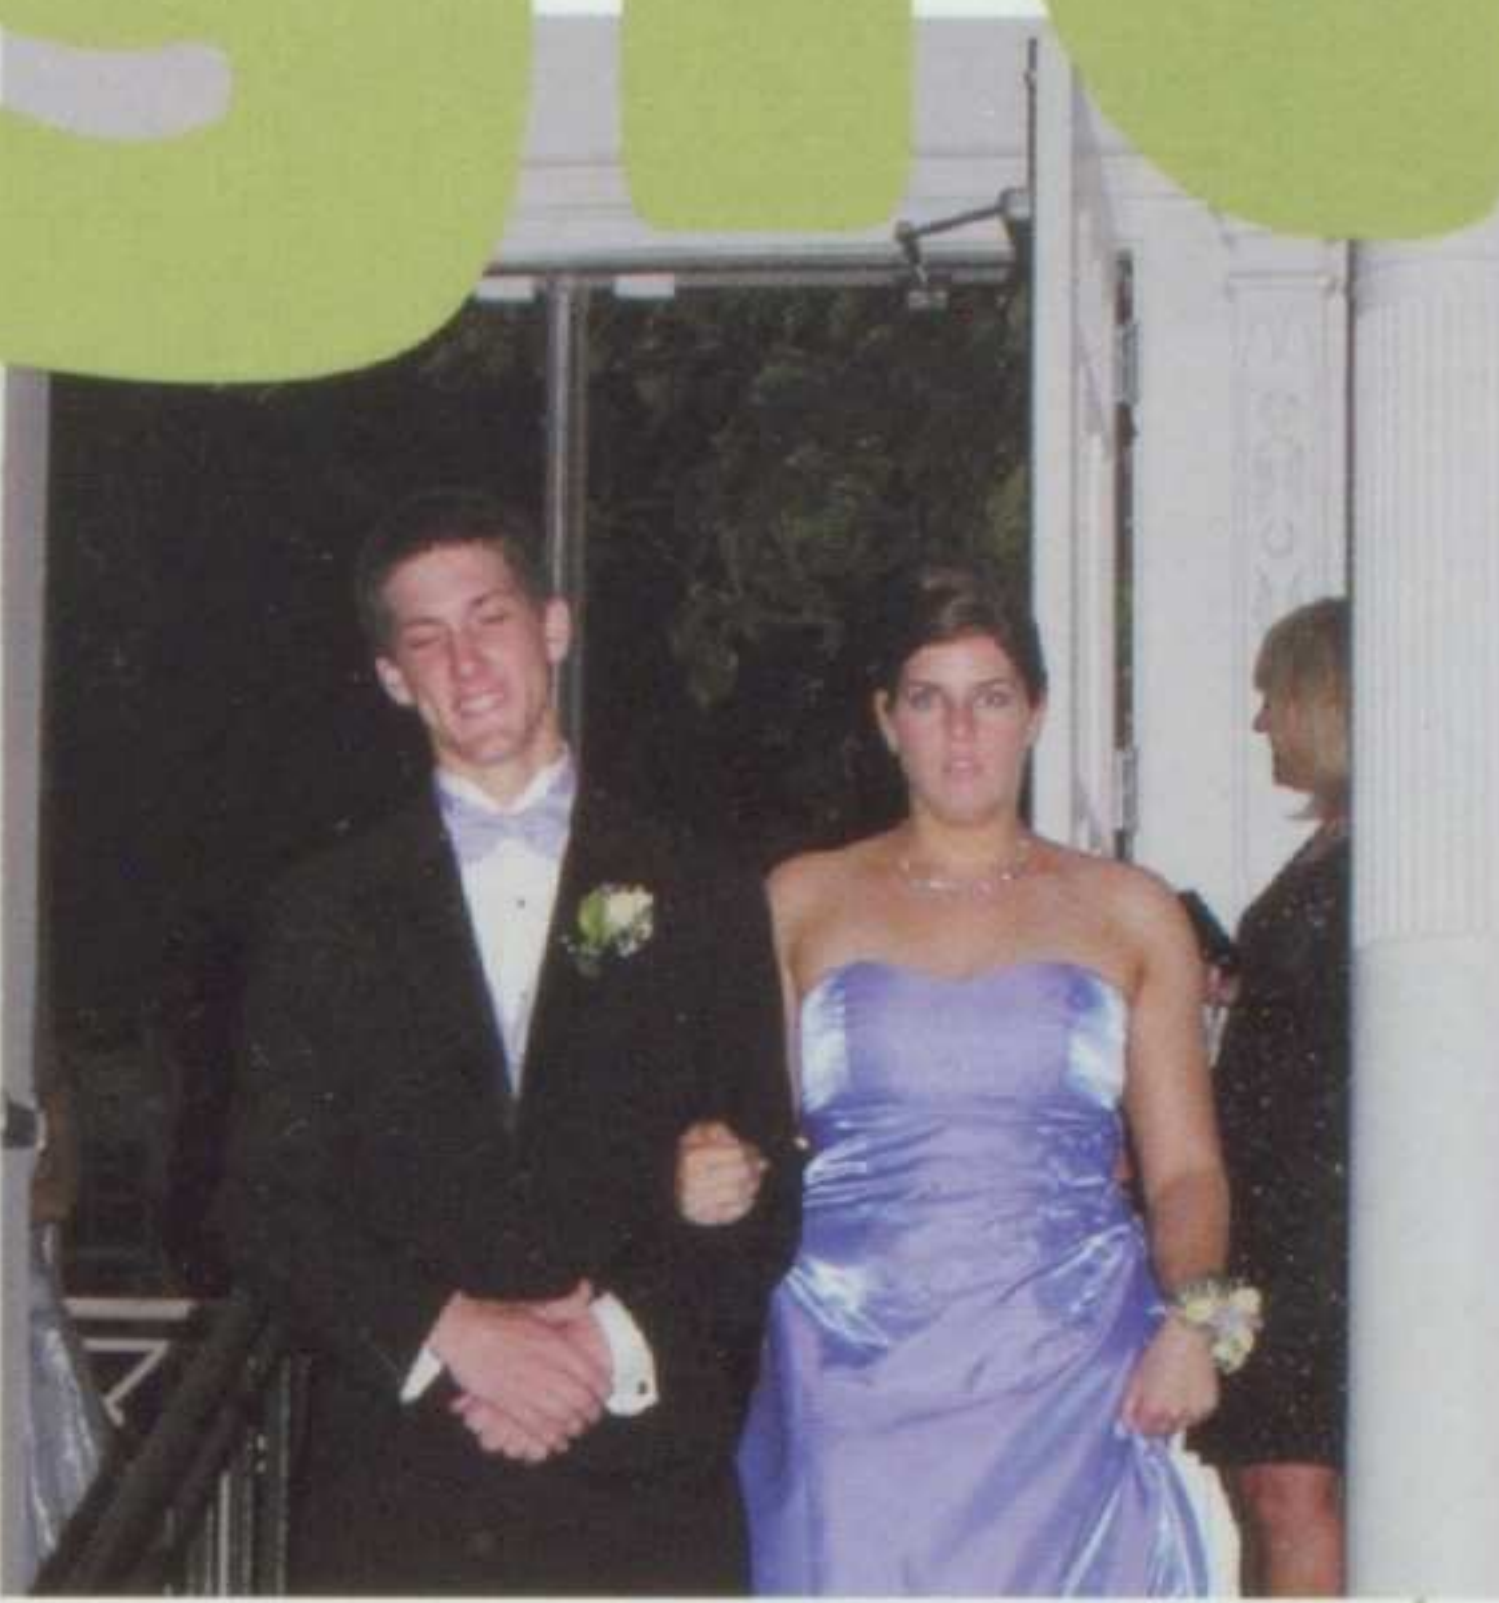

Sipping the delicious lemonade, couple Ben Mooney and Jessica Bruce sit and enjoy the refreshments at the dance.

These fine fellows, Brian Mathess, Marcus Nelson, Andy Wasson, Burke Treboni, Collin Veryser, and Ryan Beattie, gather in their formal wear to sport the latest fashion trends for prom. A top hat and cane...perfect!

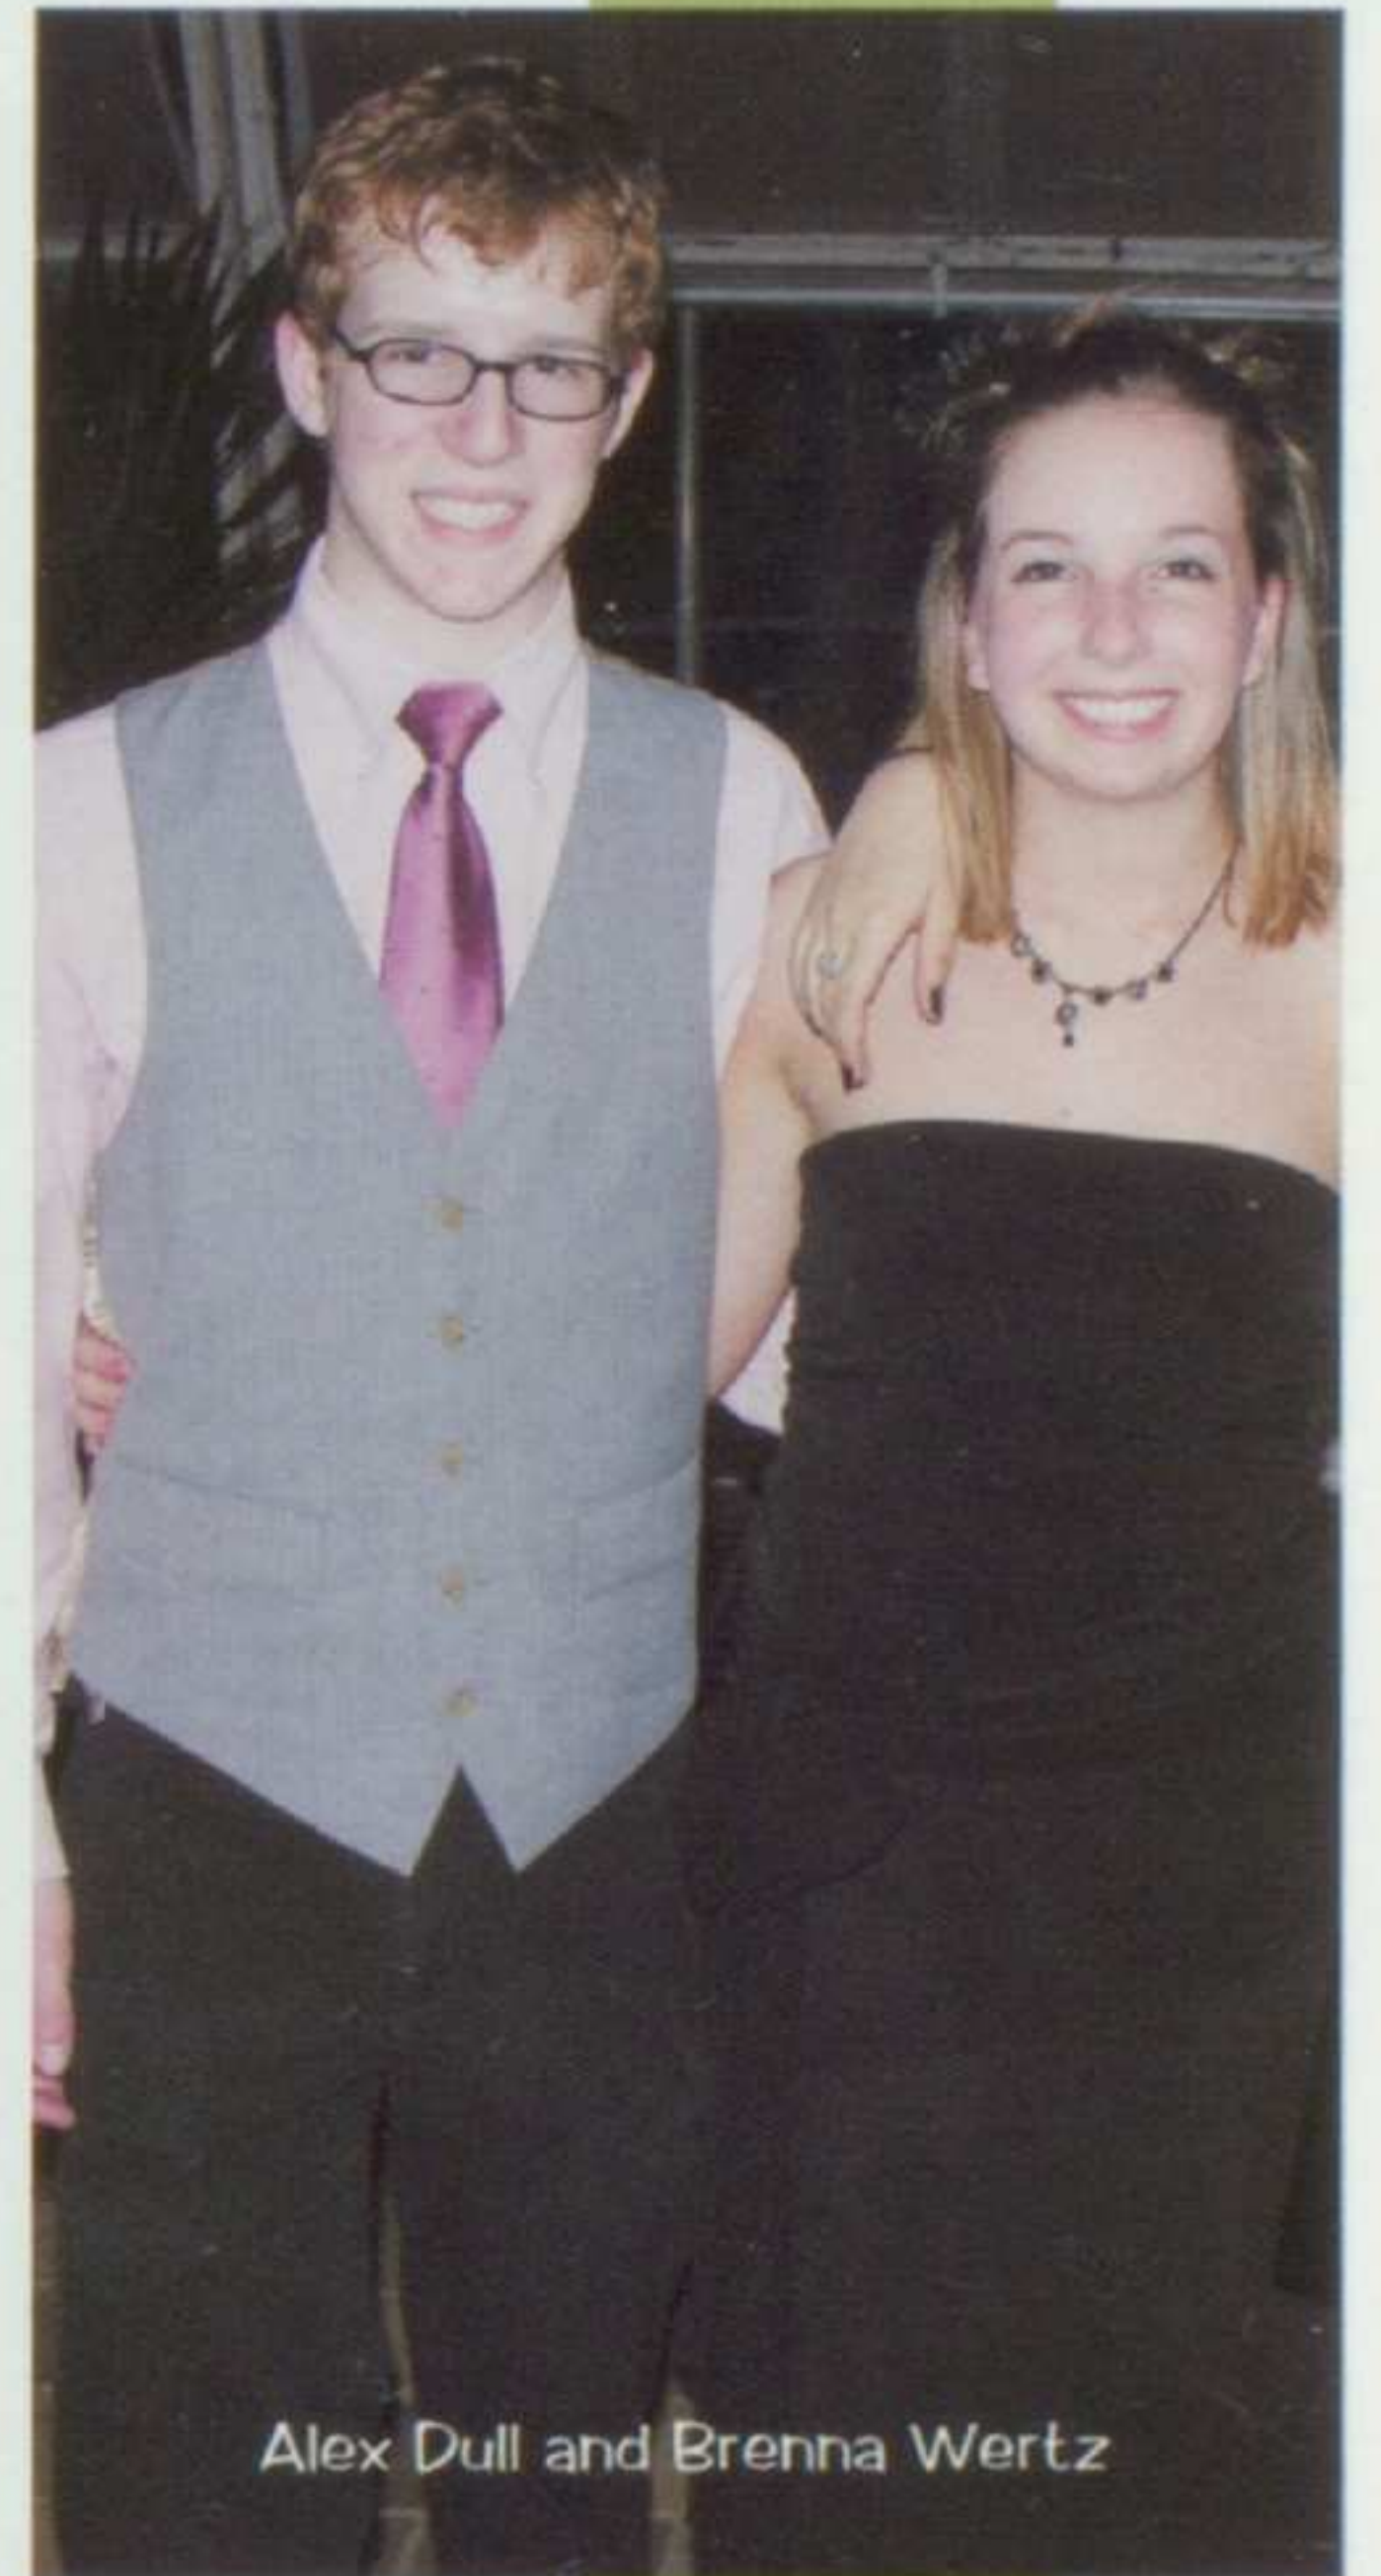

A sky full of stars and a cup full of lemonade set the mood for a romantic evening at the prom for these two lovebirds Megan Hasbrouck and Mike Lippert.

Walking down the stairway is this glamorous couple Andrew Bloom and Christy Wagner. "I am so excited to hit the dance floor!" announces Christy.

Girlfriends Liza Crocco, Kelsey Seiple, and Mindy Powell show off their vibrant dresses. Work the camera, girls!

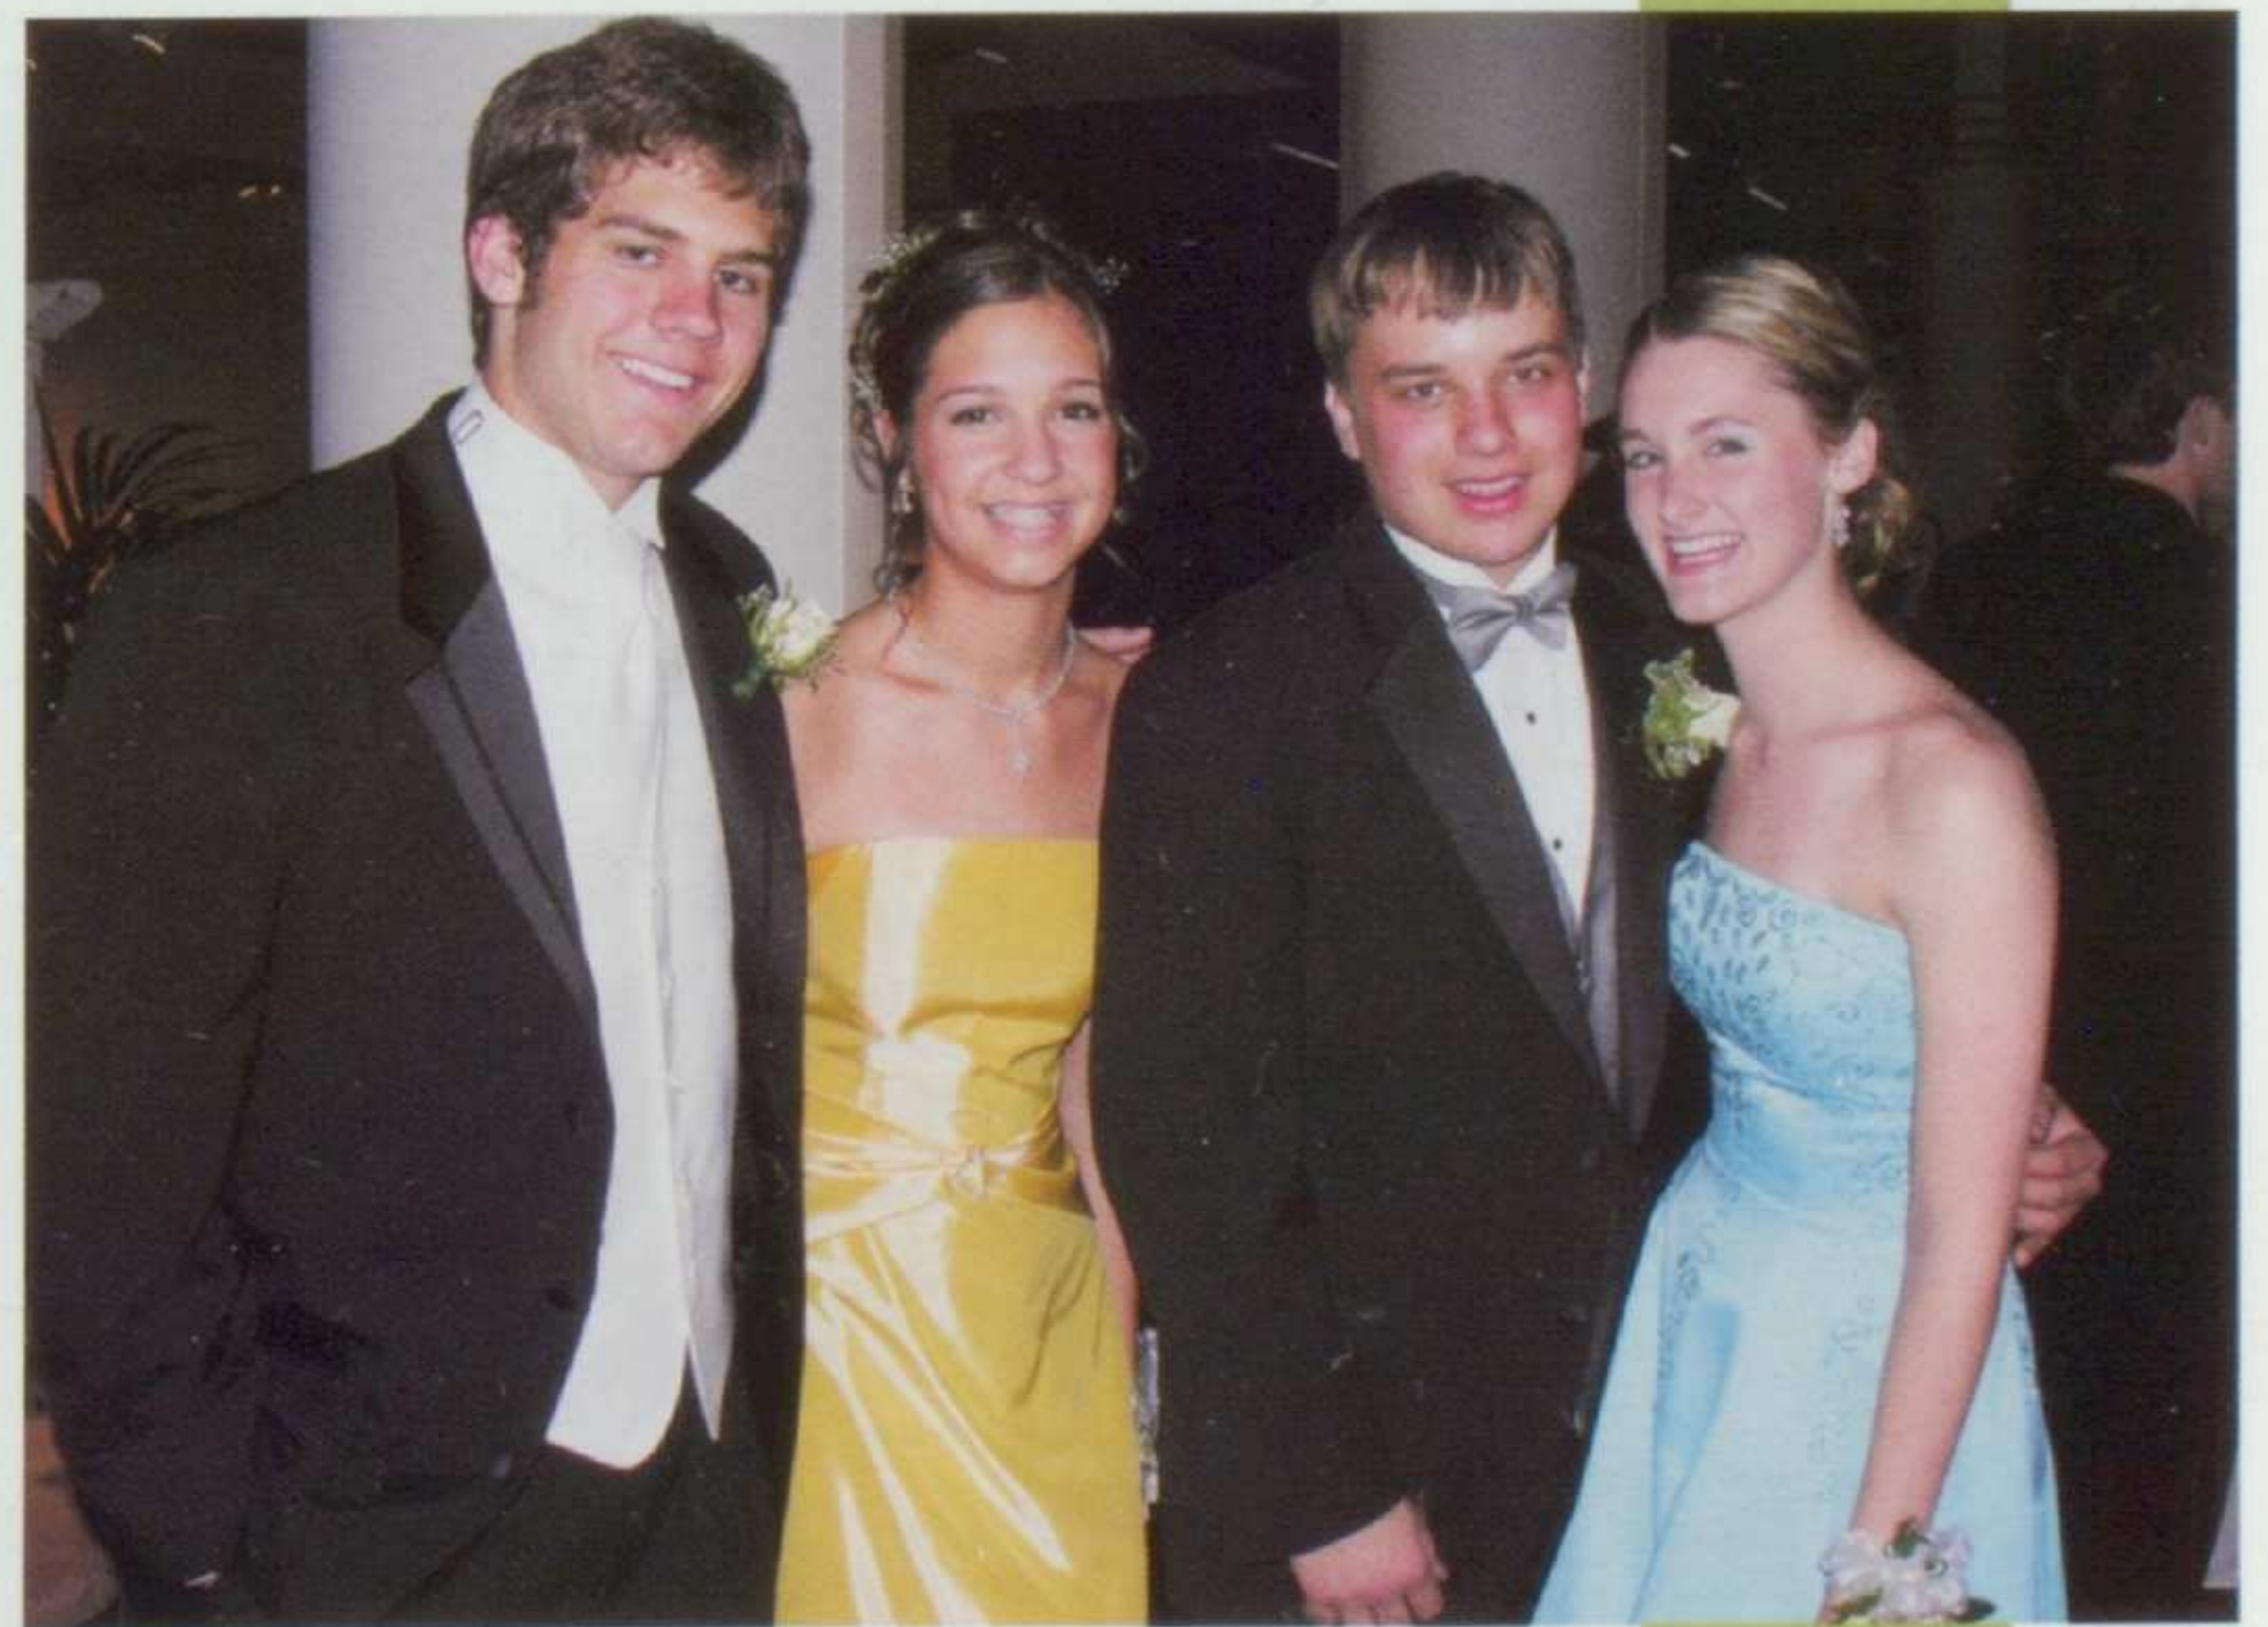

Alex Dull and Brenna Wertz

Wow! Nick Englehart is glowing as he shows off his date Renee Miller. Aren't they the cutest?

Dancing the night away, Kelly Ringle and Eric Doyle, shake it on the dance floor. It was shoulder to shoulder couples all night long.

Best buddies. Andy Baloy, Kristin Gunter, Ben Willis, and Kelsey Straker, pause on the dance floor to share a precious moment at their first prom.

This crazy bunch, Heather Gillenwater, Chris Stevens, Melanie Cheng, Jimmy Lewnes, Pat Castoe and Heather DeSantis, are excited to be at their first prom.

Boys tennis headlines CCC's with team championship

"I think our season was successful for one reason. That was we all knew what we needed to do to win, so we got down to it," explains Chris Wiet

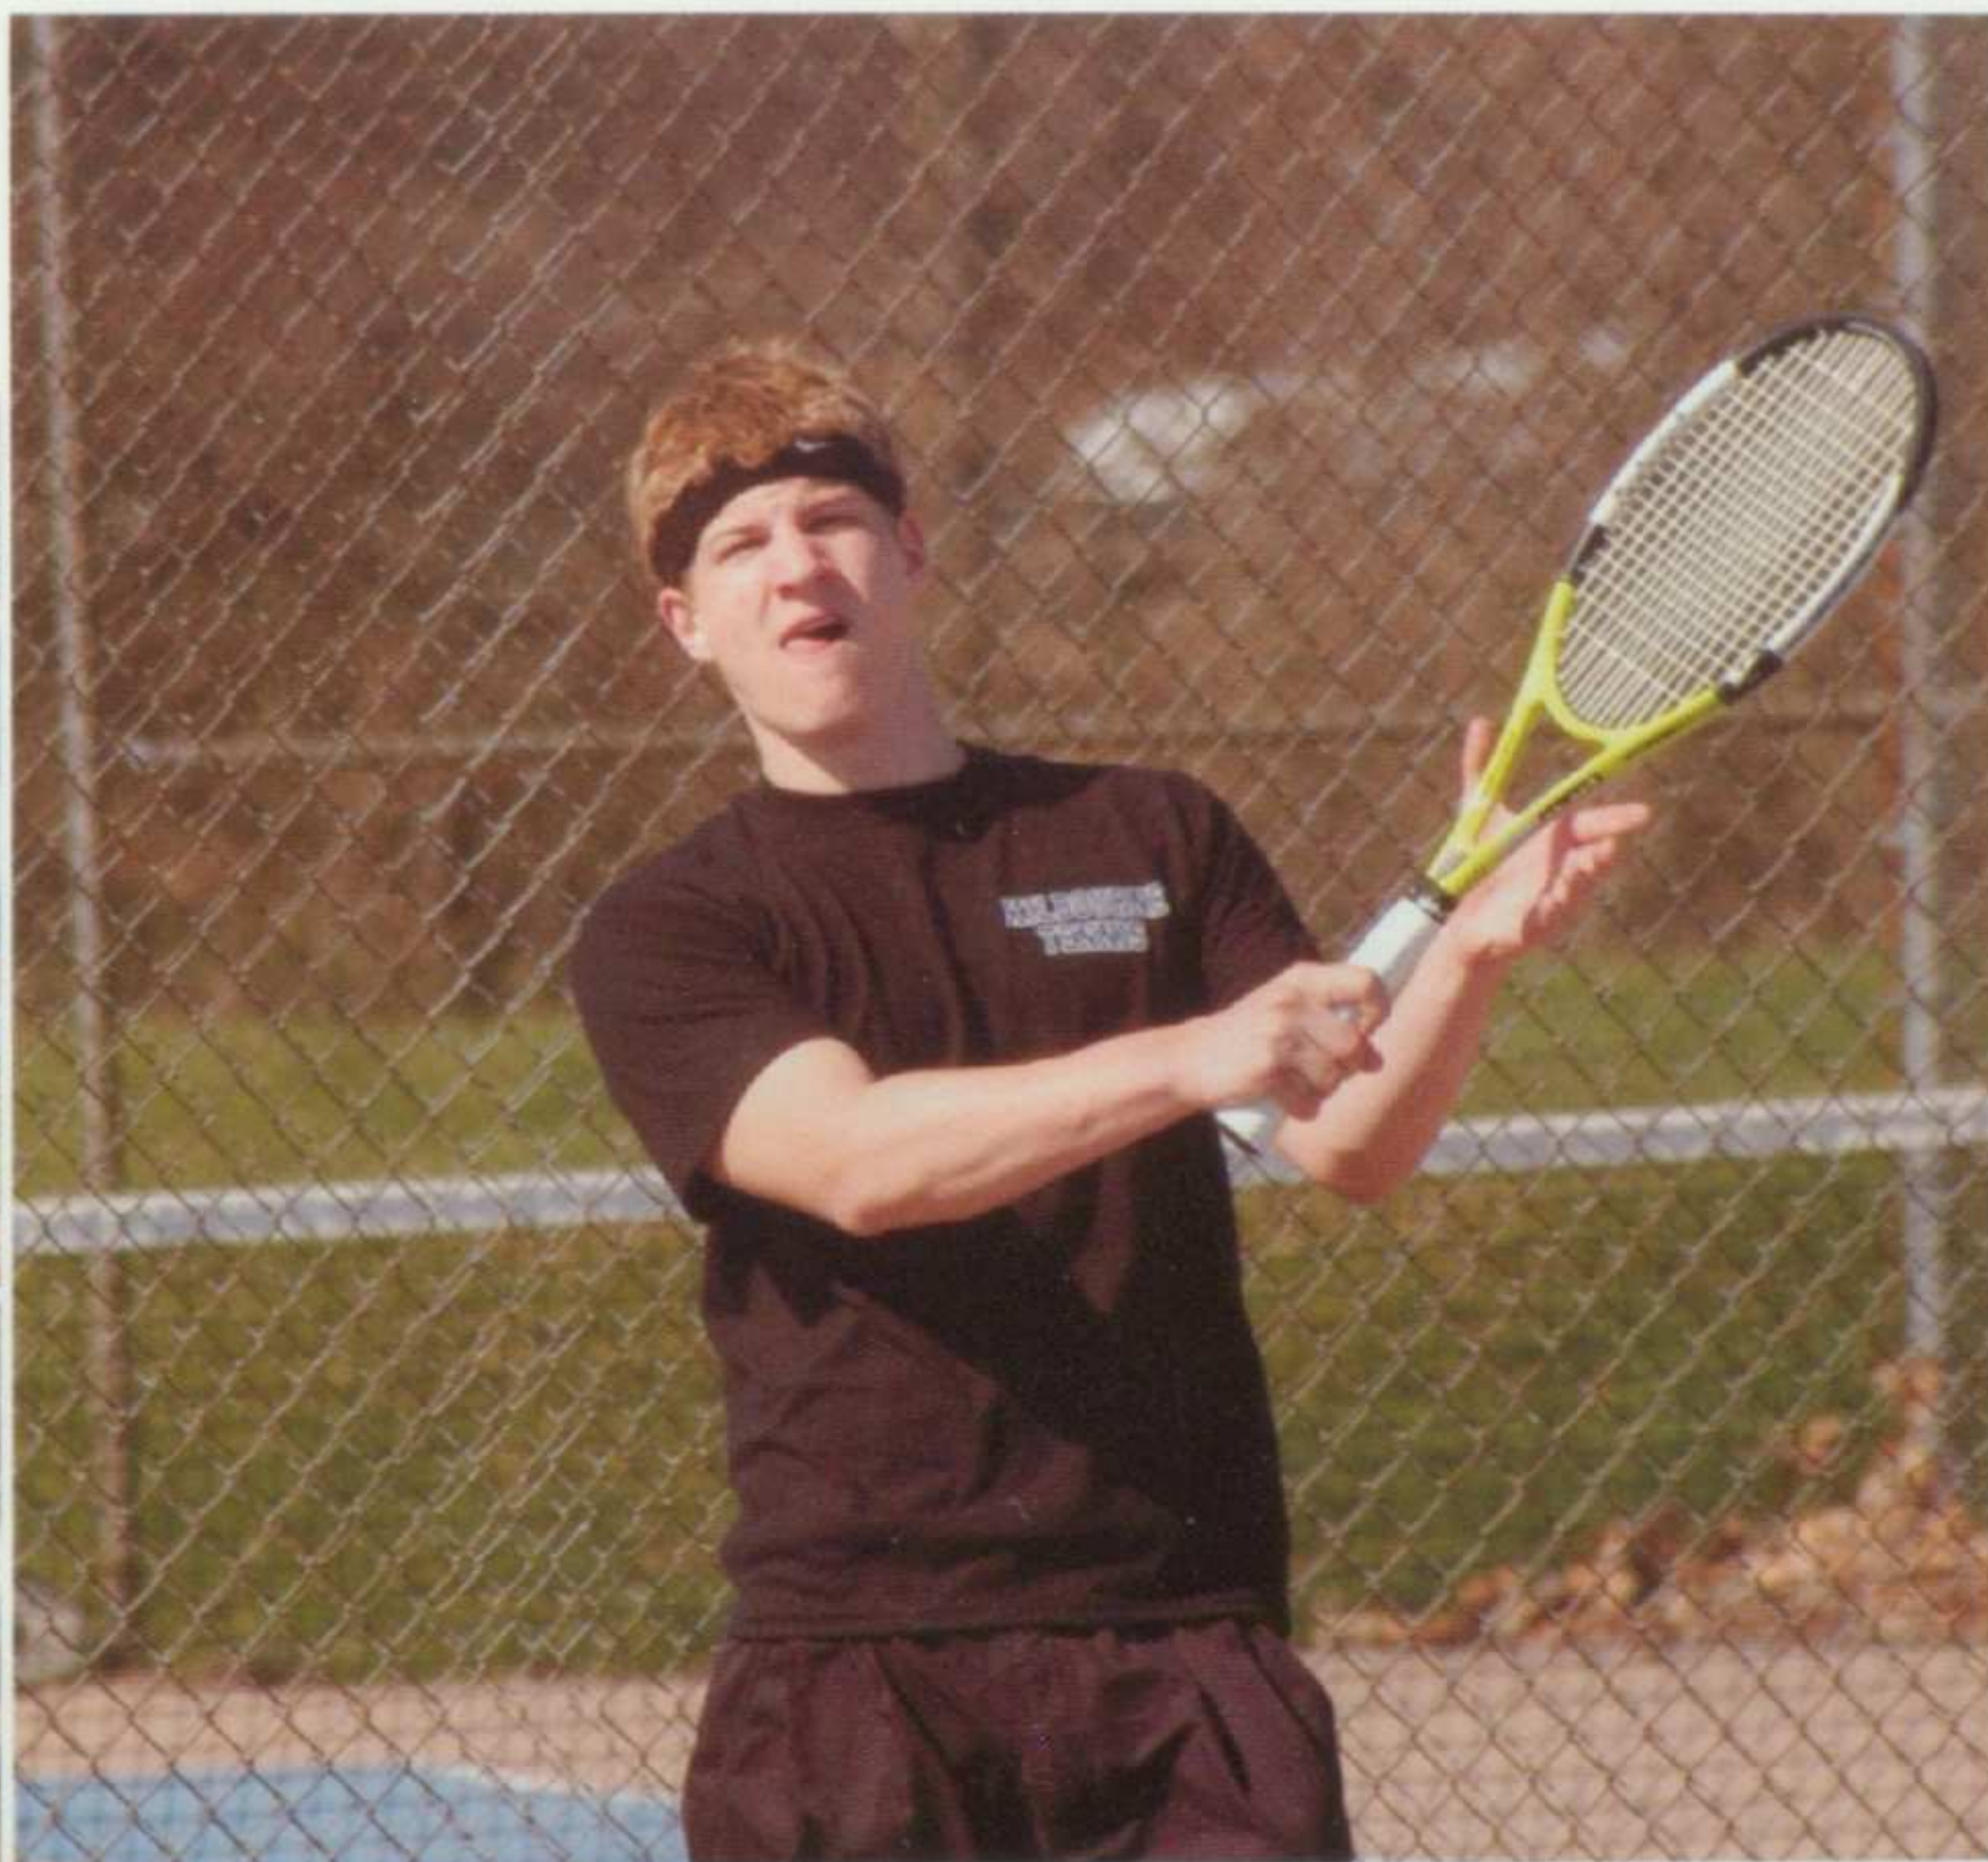

Flexing to intimidate his opponent. David Yoon shows his fierce tennis game face to whoever wants it.

Anticipating the hit, Ian Bahsen demonstrates perfect form and serious intensity.

Crouching to return an opponent's shot. Chris Wiet is out to protect himself as well.

The tennis team represented Kilbourne great this year. After starting out slow the tennis team went on a roll, winning 12 of its first 15 team matches. The boys exemplified what a team is made of. With players of all ages, the boys steam rolled through the competition. "Not having the chance to defend our Worthington Cup due to weather was a little let down, but I know the guys can do it next year," explained senior Jason Pedrick. The boys' taste of victory makes the sky the limit next year.

Following through with precision and grace, senior Jason Pedrick shows all the rookies how to hit the ball.

Practicing a little one-on-one before a match, Jason Pedrick knows that practice makes every player great.

Keeping his eye on the ball and totally focused on his game, David Yoon gets ready to smash the tennis ball.

stickin'

"Our record this year was so good. I just hope we can be just as successful next year," states junior Andy Baloy.

with tradition, lacrosse players score all the way to states

Lacrosse is said to be one of the most difficult sports, but the boys almost made it look easy with their determination, focus on skills, and team work. After losing so many seniors from last year, the boys weren't quite sure how they would do, but they ended with a near state championship.

The boys made it to the state finals which is a huge achievement. Their second place finish in the state made them proud of their hard work. "It was a really great season, one that I don't think I will ever forget. We will miss the seniors though," junior Colin Igoe says.

Catching the ball, captain Coleman Proctor shows off his cradling skills.

Making sure that the Wooster player doesn't take the ball, captain Ross Hackett makes a turning move.

Moving to the cage, Colin Igoe doesn't let the defense deter him.

In position for blocking a shot to be taken on him, goalie Tony Kvitko anticipates the throw.

Running to greet the coach, Eric Keonig is ready to start the game.

Making a big play as they save a goal are Andy Baloy and Tony Kvitko.

Crossfire

*it's not just for guys any more,
But it's all part of the game*

This year's team has shown great improvement from the years before. After losing many excellent players to graduation, the girls still showed how they can play on. They lost only six games, and those losses were to teams that were at the top of the state.

At the awards banquet, the girls realized the team had achieved more recognition than it had in previous seasons.

The girls were proud of their success, especially beating Thomas, NYC! Finishing eleventh in the state, Troutner says, "was good, but he couldn't ask for a better group of girls!."

Attacking with the drive to score another one of her head-turning goals is junior starter Allie Veith.

Making another excellent save is junior goalie Caitlin Kelleher.

Dashing down the field while narrowly escaping her opponent, senior Chrissie Garrett runs for the goal.

Along with captain Megan Hasbrouck, juniors Emily Himmel and Hannah Smith and fellow senior Chrissie Garret quadruple team their Hilliard opponent, leaving her with no chance. These girls don't play around!

Sprinting back to stop a Darby opponent, senior captain Heidi Knoblock is determined to stop the play.

Making a sharp, clear pass up to her midfield, senior captain Megan Hasbrouck avoids a punishing hit from her opponent.

Captains

Megan Hasbrouck

The best moment of the season was the win against Thomas Worthington.

bumping,

setting, and spiking all the way to third place in states

The volleyball team had an awesome season again this year. As coach Rice always says before a game, "Earning success takes hard work." These boys have shown how much effort they exerted this year. Making it to the final four shows how once again, their hard work paid off.

Being led by seniors Nick Baehr, Kyler Denbow, and junior Kevin Lookabaugh, the team bonded well together. They have every right to be proud of what they have done.

They hope to achieve the same success or better next year.

Hitting the ball straight across the net is senior Kyler Denbow.

Jumping high into the air, junior captains Nathan Palmer and Jordan Lookabaugh block the ball from hitting on their side of the floor.

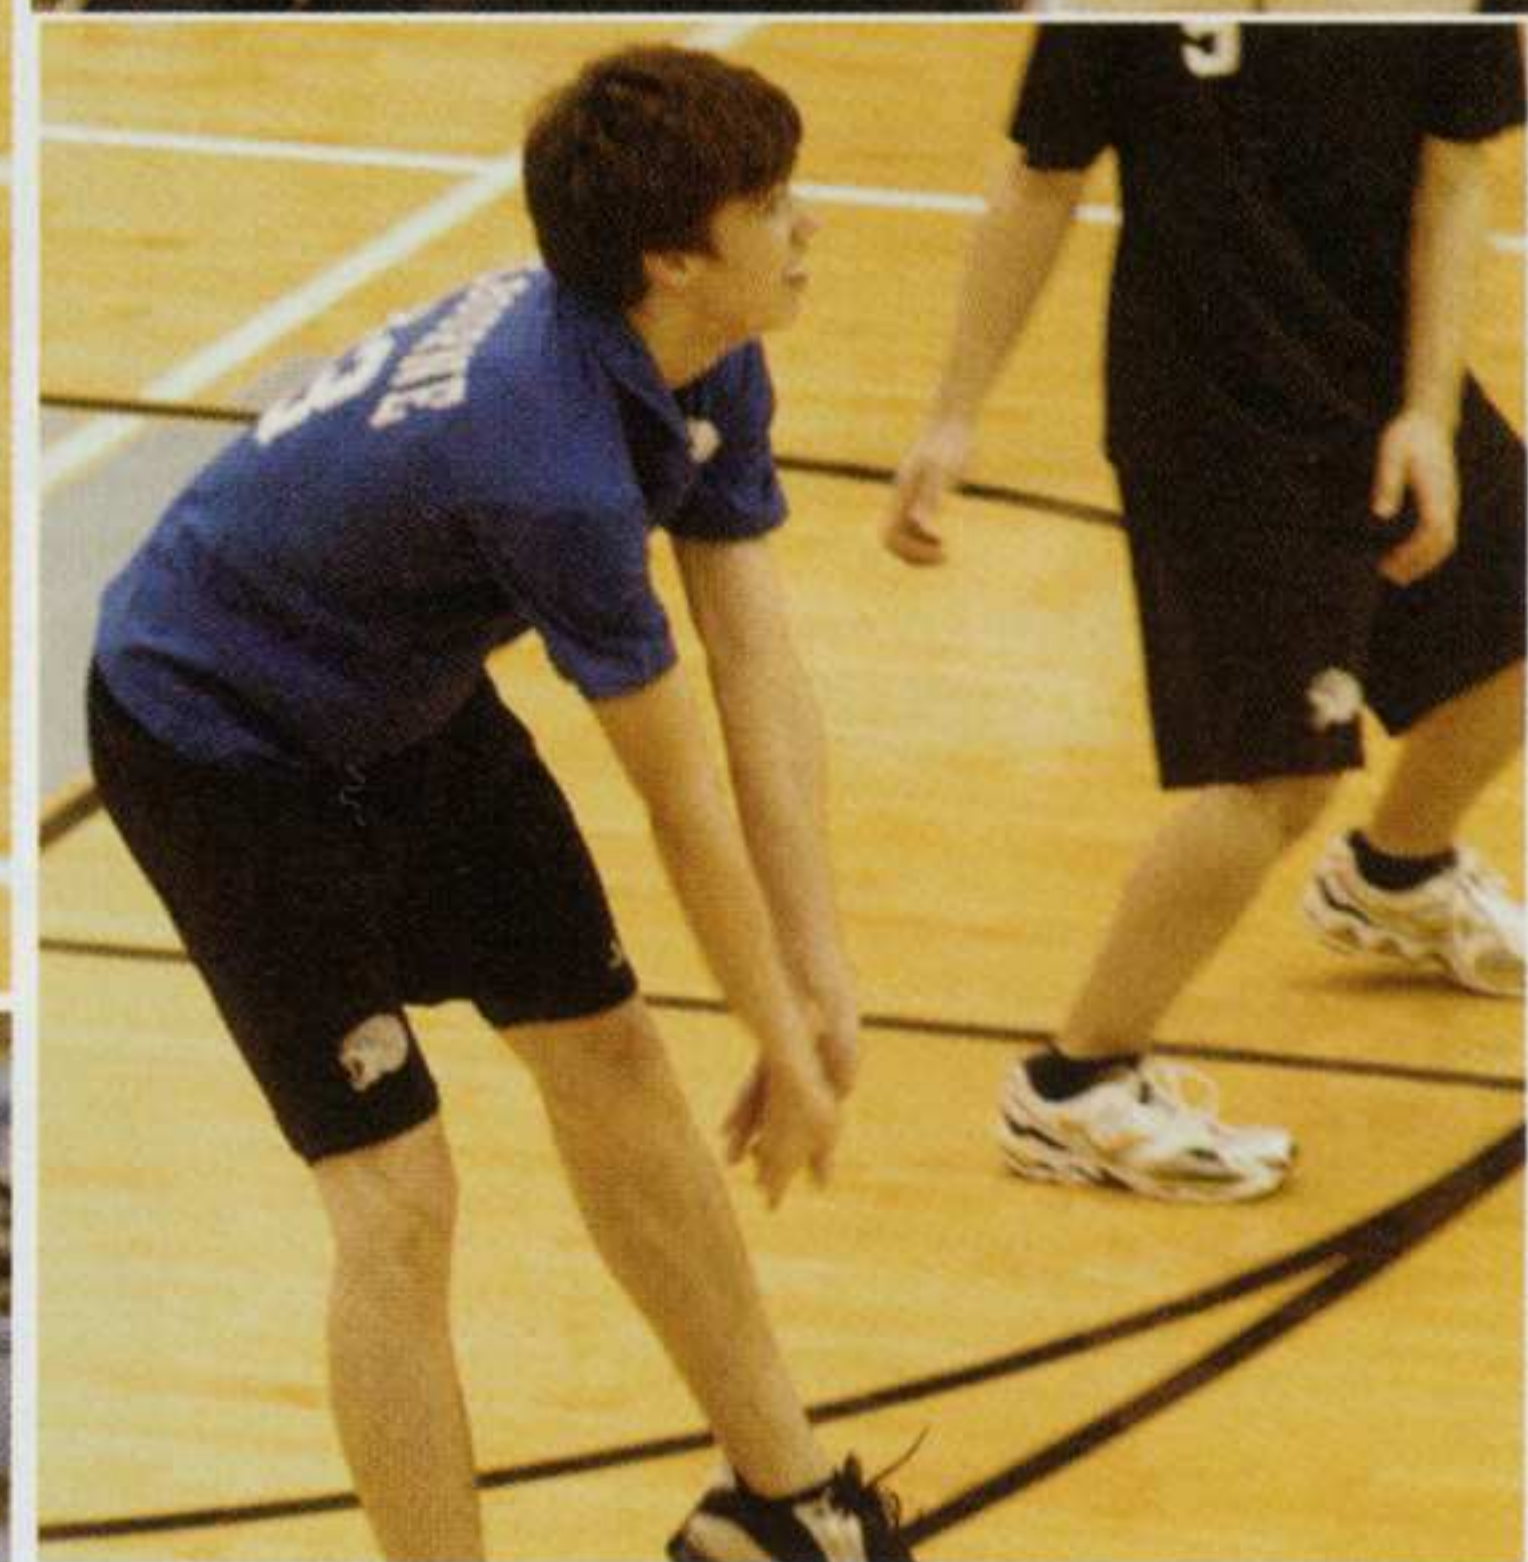

Using a jump serve to hit the ball with brute force is junior captain Kevin Lookabaugh.

Before the game begins, the starters huddle up to hear about being a team and staying strong, no matter what happens.

Making sure that the ball stays on the other side of the net, senior captain Nick Baehr jumps high to save the point.

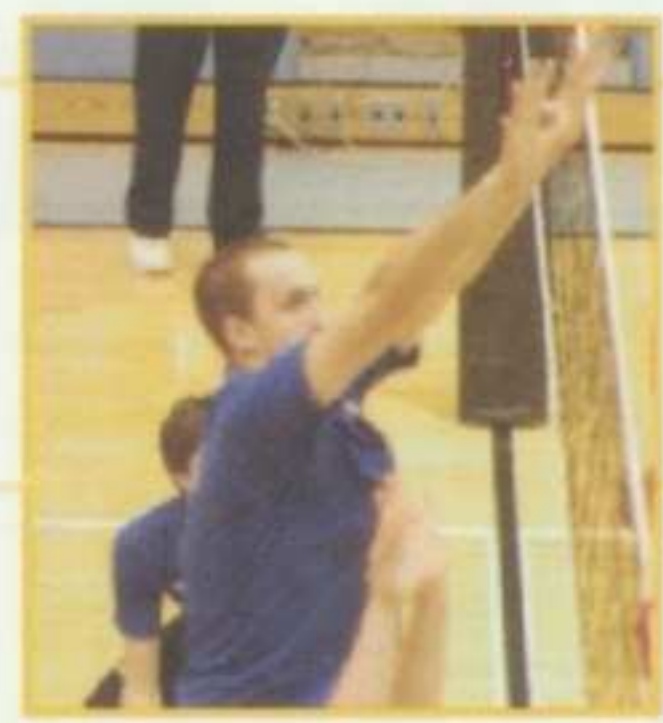

Concentrating only on the ball to make sure he places it correctly for the setter is sophomore Jon Jekelli.

Captains

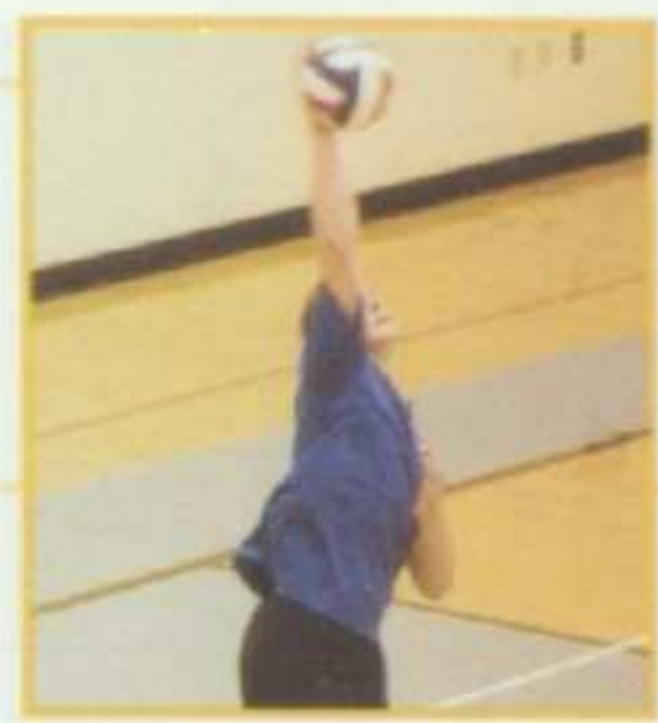

Nick Baehr

All the hard work really paid off and made it a great, fun-filled season.

Jordan Lookabaugh

It was funny when I smacked a ball in another player's face and he fell down hurt.

Whether it's jumping over hurdles or running a relay, senior Andrew Bloom shows his unwillingness to lose to any of his opponents.

Getting a strong start off the blocks in the 100 meters, Matt Graham, Thor Winston, and Tom Elliot help the team beat Marysville.

Captains

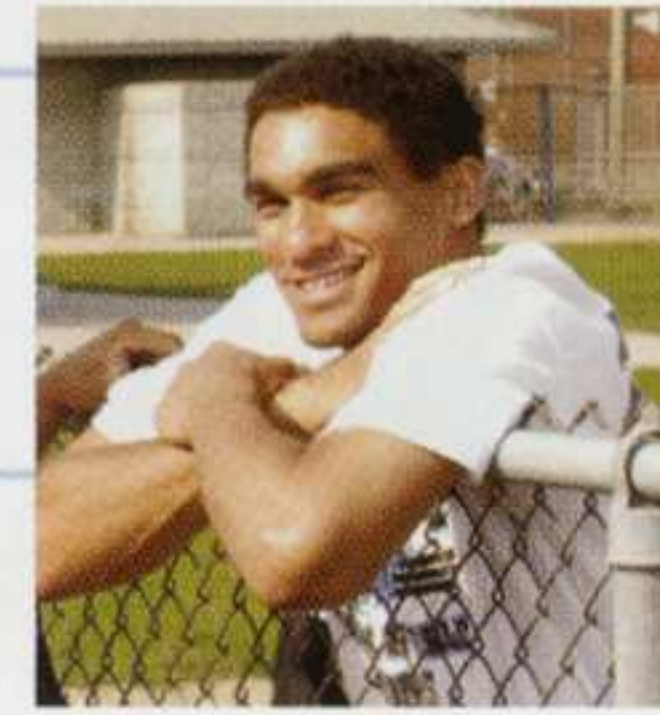

Andrew Bloom

My favorite memory was when we won districts by more than 40 points.

Mike DiBartola

We're taking seven guys to state. We've never done that before.

Chris Hunt

I cried when we won districts. It was the happiest moment of my life.

Thor Winston

We surpassed all expectations, and we're optimistic about the team's future success.

Being a great contribution to the team in the discus as well as shot put, senior captain Chris Hunt even accomplished his career goal this past season by breaking the school record in the discus at 157'3".

-captain Frank Swiatek

do it great is the saying that has led them to winning the CCC's

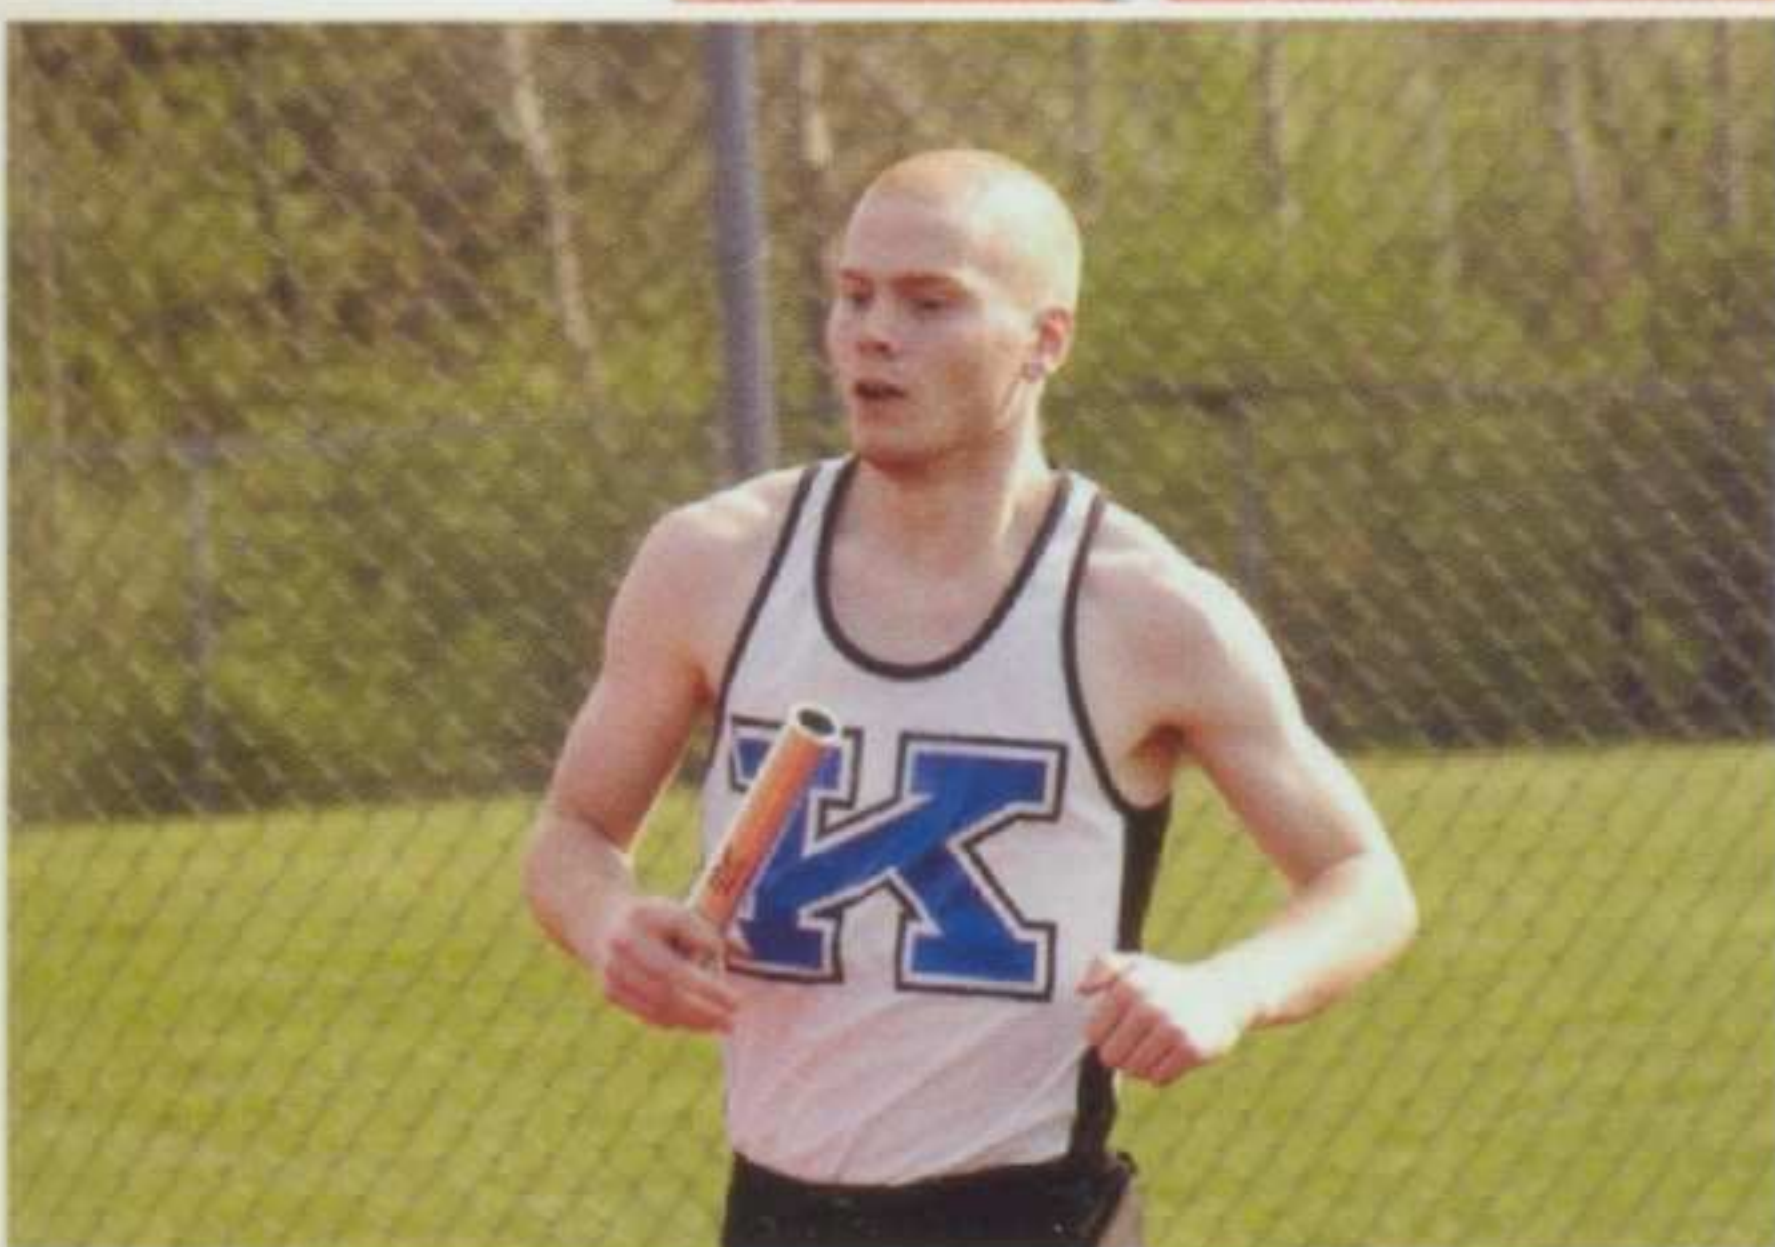

Getting ready for a hand-off on the 3200 meter relay, senior Joey Babka recalls his favorite memory as "when Zelch gave us $20 and told us to run down to the Hills Market and get some ice cream."

Helping out the 4x3200 meter relay team, freshman John Batchelder surprised many people this season with his speed.

As the second leg in the 4x1600 meter relay, junior John Harris quickly pulls away from his opponent.

This season was the best the boys have ever had. For the first time in ten years the boys captured the district title and the OCC title. In the OCC championship meet, the boys outscored their opponents by over 40 points. During the season they went undefeated in dual meets.

The team has never taken more than five boys to state. This season seven boys qualified for numerous events, including senior Frank Swiatek. He accomplished his career goal at the state meet by tying the school record of 14'.

Being a huge addition to the boys team, especially in pole vaulting and high jumping, is freshman Damian Ventresca.

Running the 100 meter hurdles, Matt Graham greatly improved his hurdles times throughout the season.

In the middle of a long race, Dan Mearhoff, Dustin Ubbing, Chris Wu, Nathan Veith, Alex DiBartola, Malcolm Durkin, and Matt Graham are all running hard in order to beat Marysville.

Long jumping is a tough task to undertake, especially for those new to the team. Junior Alex Staniskis has stepped up and helped out the team a lot this season.

Making it over the last hurdle and heading towards the finish line is freshman Daniella Tovar who's determined to finish first.

git'er done

run hard, sprint fast, jump high, and throw far

The girls track & field team started out slowly because of the graduation of many fine athletes, making this the time for the underclassmen to step up. Points started to show up in areas that had never been noticed before. As coach Zelch said, "This team is like a puzzle. Some of the pieces fit perfectly already. The other pieces are still needing some work but are beginning to fit."

The girls enjoyed being with each other, even through the worst weather. The leadership was strong and helped the girls enjoy a good season.

Listening to coach Wisard is senior Julie Strombotne who is trying to understand what she has to focus on during the meet.

Looking stylish in her sunglasses but still working hard, junior Liza Crocco perfects her form.

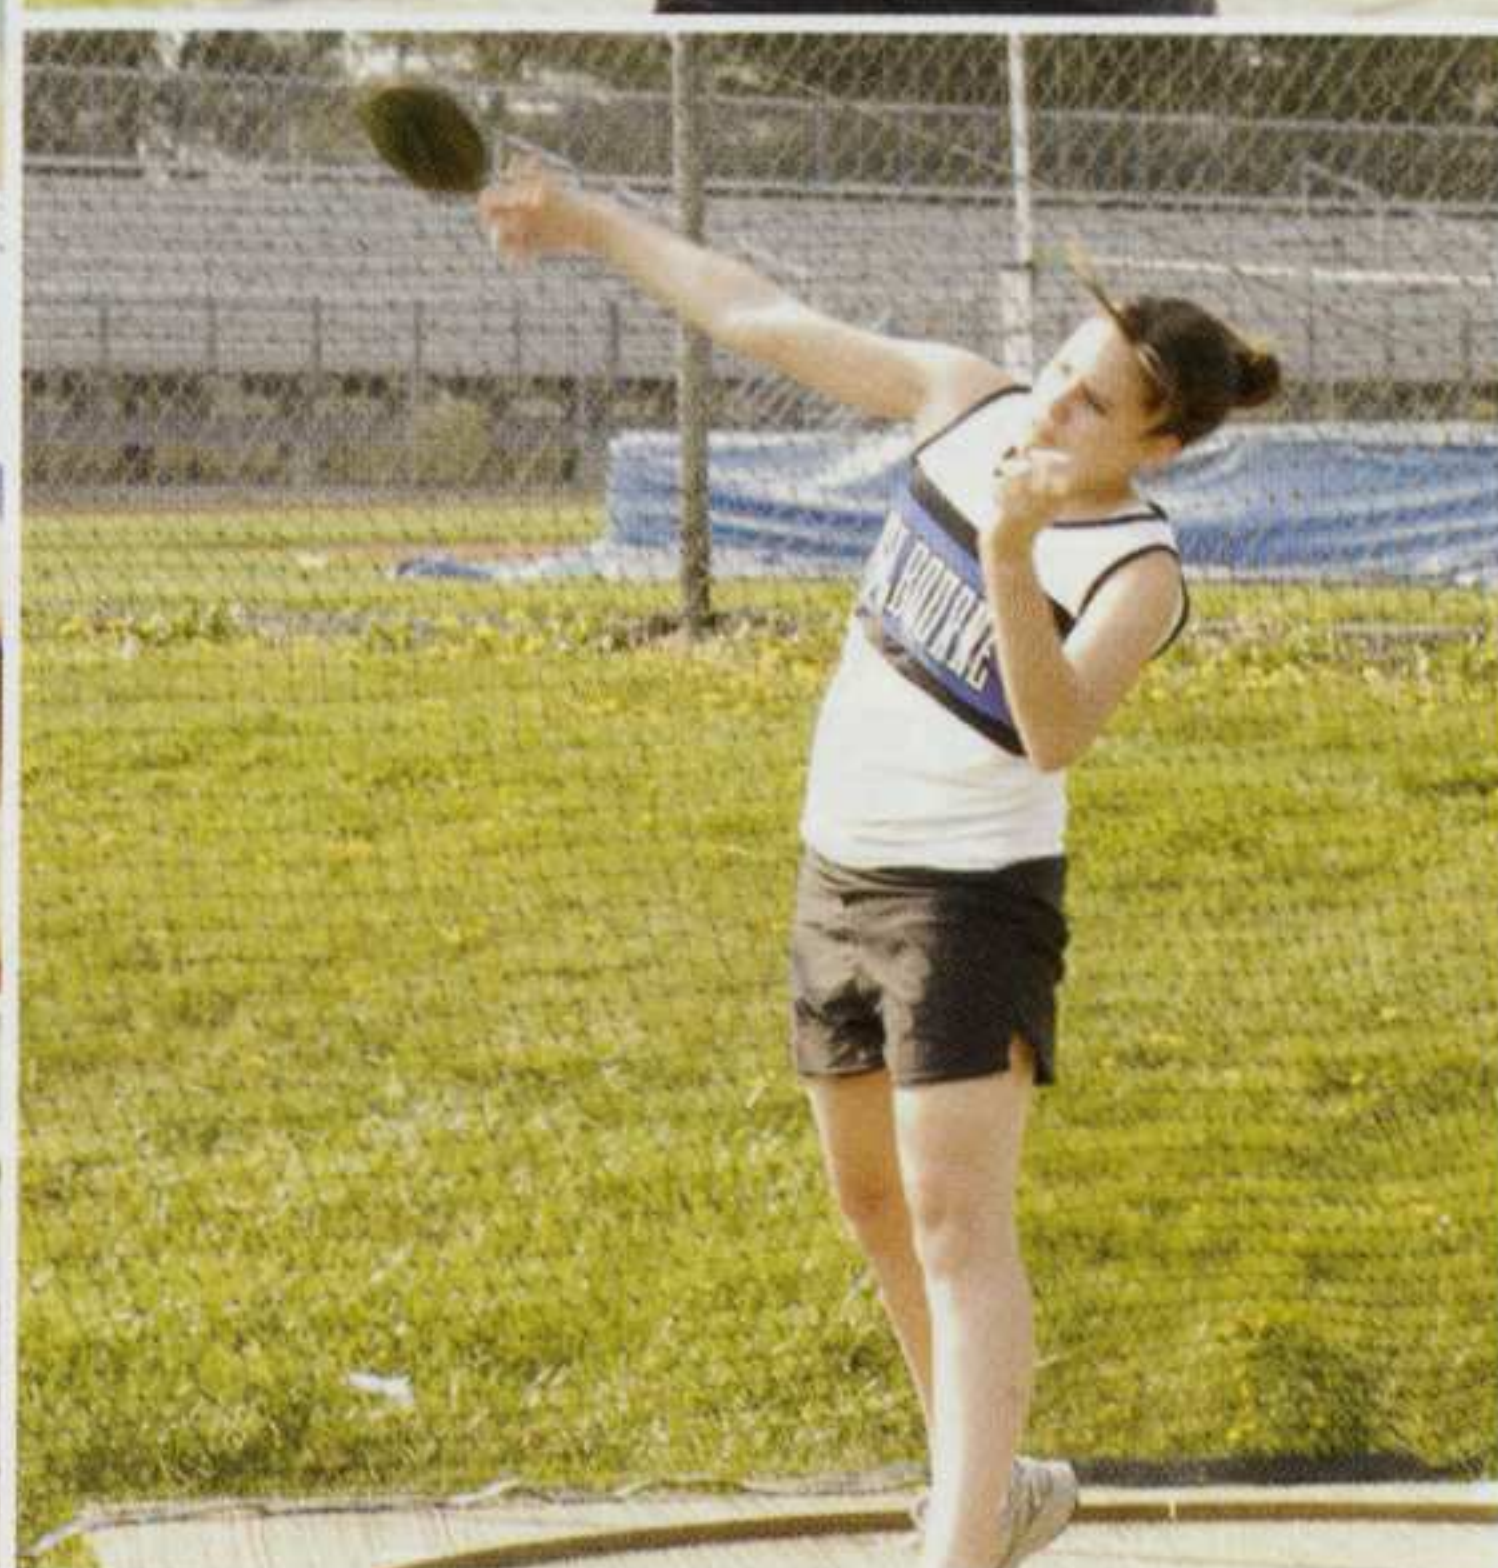

Sprinting towards the next member of the 4x4 team, junior Evann Morgan is ahead of all her opponents.

Beginning as a group after the starter's shot are these Kilbourne sprinters, Kathleen Croyle, Sasha Lee, Adele Weaver, Kathryn Dutton, and Shamain Richardson, seem to determine their times.

Relaxing but listening to her father tell her what she needs to work on is junior Maddie Greene.

Continually attempting to break her personal record, freshman thrower Hannah Pease eventually succeeds during the meet against Westerville South.

Captains

Natalie King

There was a team bond, which made us strong, especially the balloon toss team bonding!

Julie Strombotne

Run equals fun. Yeah track! This was a fun season, even though I fell many times!

Hanh Tran

We believed in ourselves, in our team, and we are all sweet!

Team

Front row: Liza Crocco, Cate Goodall, Laura Ward, Anne McFarlane, Natalie King, Julie Strombotne, Hanh Tran, Lauren Jaffe, Stephanie Mako, Ashley Gonzalez, Sarah Snyder. Row 2: Lauren Jensen, Evann Morgan, Abbery Das, Natalie Vass, Tara Kautman, Abby Hill, Heather Meena, Jojo Jing, Sarah Barret, Sarah Blaine, Adele Weaver. Row 5: Coach Kevin West, assistant coach Holly Bullock, assistant coach Ryan Beck, head coach Mike Zeich, head coach Todd Deischer, assistant coach Jole Fleeman, assistant coach Chris Brown, and coach Tom Wizard.

The OCC and district champ of the long jump and the open 400, sophomore Whitney Denbow listens to the team scream her name which gives her more energy and support.

With a strong group of underclassmen, everyone came together to complete the job. Success will come easy next year!
-Stephanie Mako

Fresh off the blocks and running with all the strength that they can muster to beat the Westerville South runners are freshman Ashley Morgan and sophomore Alex Allison. Look at the determination on their faces.

After warming up and getting her mind set for high jump, junior Adele Weaver makes it over the bar.

batter up

'cause it's one-two-three strikes you're out

Passing the ball to a teammate after catching it, junior captain Cory Kovanda forces an out.

Prepared to catch a fast ball, Cody Wilson squats.

Throwing the ball back to the infield, Jared Strayer hopes to prevent a run.

Attempting to make the batter strike out, senior Drew Semke winds up for a pitch.

For the second year in a row, the boys had an awesome season. To warm up, they took a trip to Florida over spring break. That's when they realized they were going to be a good team.

The boys opened the season with a 12 run win and ended with a 13 run win. They made it to district finals after beating Central Crossing in semi-finals, finishing as district runner-up.

It was one of the best baseball teams to come through Kilbourne, a great group of guys.

Swinging hard while batting, Ryan Dew follows through with the hit.

Giving a pep talk between innings, coach Palliotto discusses a play with Joe Knipp.

Running the bases after a big hit is senior Jeff Thompson whose batting average is high.

Catcher Rachel Beach enthusiastically throws her hand in the air to show she caught the ball. Great play, Rachel!

hardball

these girls know how to play it with the best

The 2004-2005 softball team began with a rocky start, losing 2-5 to Davidson, but quickly recovered with a 17-4 win over Gibbs. This was followed by a four game winning streak. Not too bad, girls!

Senior captain Cecily Earls said, "Everyone worked really hard this season even though our record wasn't as good as we wanted it to be. Better luck next year, girls!"

Although the season was a little bit shaky, the girls managed to pull together and work hard, ending up with a 13-11 record.

Junior Amanda Seely quickly tags her opponent, leaving her no chance at getting on base!

Go ahead, give it your best shot! Jessica Osbourne is ready for anything! Hit it out of the park!

Proving she deserves to be on the varsity team her sophomore year, Amy Hosgood plays hard. Look at her swing. That one is going far!

Gathering together for a mid-game huddle. Cari DeAngelis, Heather Orr, Tara Montenegro, Rachel Beach, and Jessica Osbourne create a plan of attack.

Junior Captain Cari DeAngelis watches closely for the ball. Watch out, it's coming your way!

Showing the opponents what she is made of, senior captain Cecily Earls hits one out of the park.

Captains

Cari DeAngelis

This season was tough, but we all managed to pull together and do our best. Plus there is always next year.

Cecily Earls

This year was different than we expected. All the girls worked hard, but we did not have the greatest record.

Congratulating each other on a game well played with a couple of high fives are team members Tara Montenaro, Cari Deangelis, Amanda Seely, and Jessica Osborne. Congratulaions, girls!

This year's team was great because everyone got along, and we all worked hard. I can't wait until next year.

Enjoying lunch, Saduf Ullah, Amanda Seely and Farahana Afrin take time to catch up.

Trying to figure out when the period is over are Jared Siculan and Jordan Kutanon.

It looks as if Mike Rupp is ready for Christmas as he eats his candy cane and grins. Does Catherine Holmes want a bite?

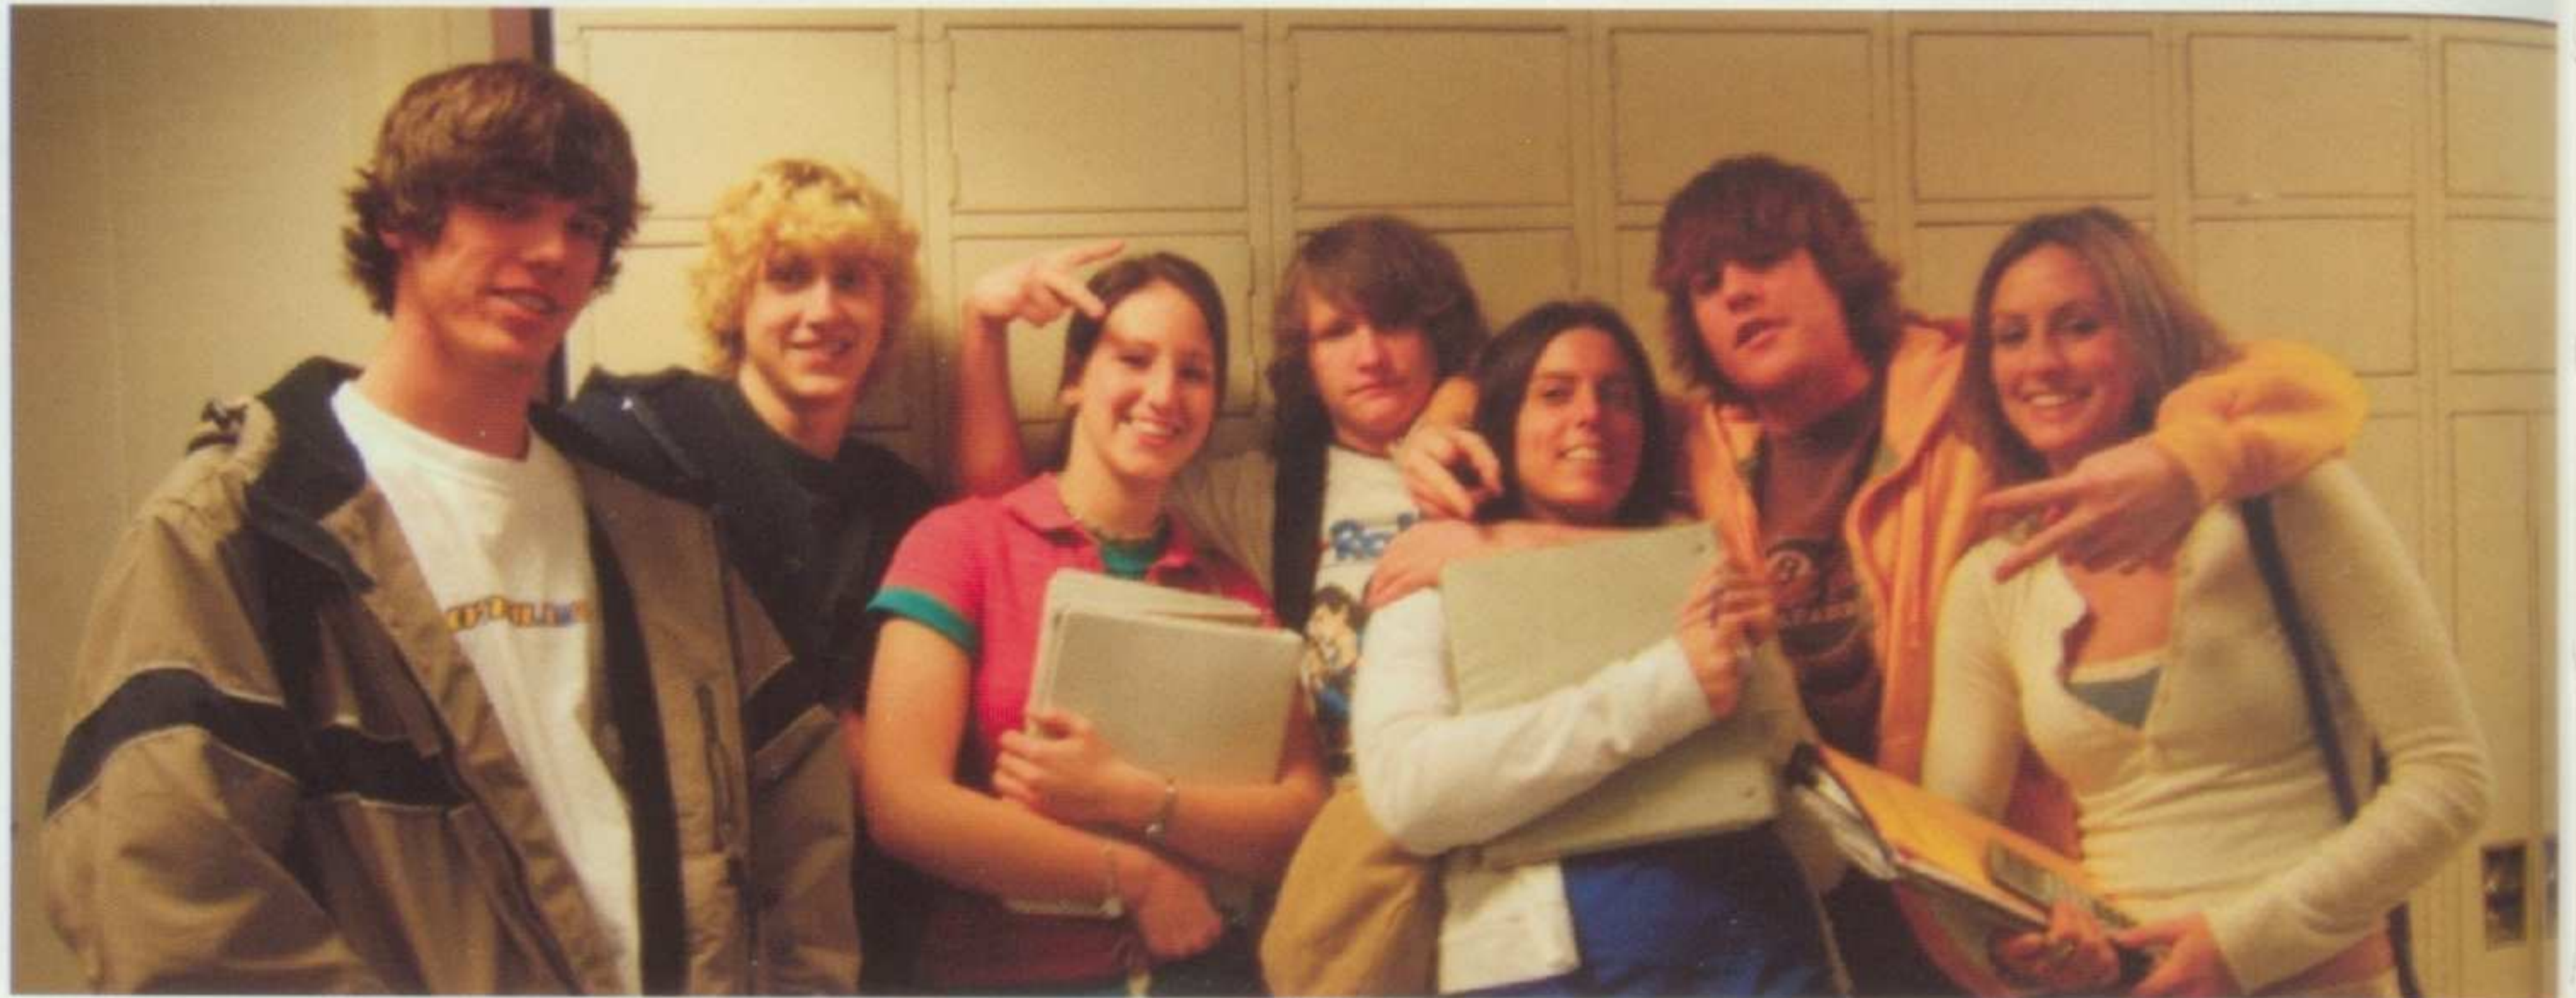

Good friends: Ashley Barton, Renee Miller, Catherine Holm, and Natalie Holzaepfel spend time in by the lockers before class.

Chatting or flirting? Valerie Scott and Nick Tracy enjoy the time together in the commons. Don't be late to class!

Always cracking jokes. Andrew Wolford and Ben Willis flash their pearly whites.

Hanging out in their locker row are Scott McCarron, Nick Englehart, Morgan Katz, Brian Kaufman, Julie Ackerman, Corey Hein, and Amber Miller. These rascals always have a good time when they're together.

"I always have to set my alarm clock so that the numbers end in three's."

Showing their St. Patrick's Day spirit. Ashley Kvitko, Patty Morton, and Ben Mirman wear green.

Always happy. Kristin Gunter and Allie Veith can brighten anyone's day with a just a simple smile.

Enjoying casual conversation are Danny Gibbons, Julie Adams, and John Harris. We're lucky to have a good place to relax between classes.

We can always find best friends. Kelly Mathias, Kensey Lacy, and Emily Wallace hanging out together. We can even find them going to class together.

Working hard. Elizabeth Walcutt and Alyssa Gliatas enjoy themselves in photography class.

Looking guilty. Kate Varney and Jack Gilbert wander the halls. Get back to class!

Looking over their notes. Tara Kaufman and Chris Knecht study for a test. Hurry up, guys, you don't have much time.

Chatting about their short stories. Andres Del Olmo, Emily Nolan, and Kia Abbigy share ideas of different endings. With such freedom to write they surely appreciate their creative writing class where they grow as writers.

"When I walk on the sidewalk, I always have to walk with both my feet inside each square."

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you
For a little while,
Please do not grieve
and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow
to you through the years.
But start out bravely
with a smile:

And for my sake
and in my name
Live on and do
all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness
on empty days,
But fill each waking hour
in useful ways.

Reach out your hand
in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near.
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!

Preparing for another challenging lab in chemistry, Jessica Osborne and Eddie Parker ham it up.

Hanging out during their break, Steven Kyle and Michele Hammond enjoy the down time between classes.

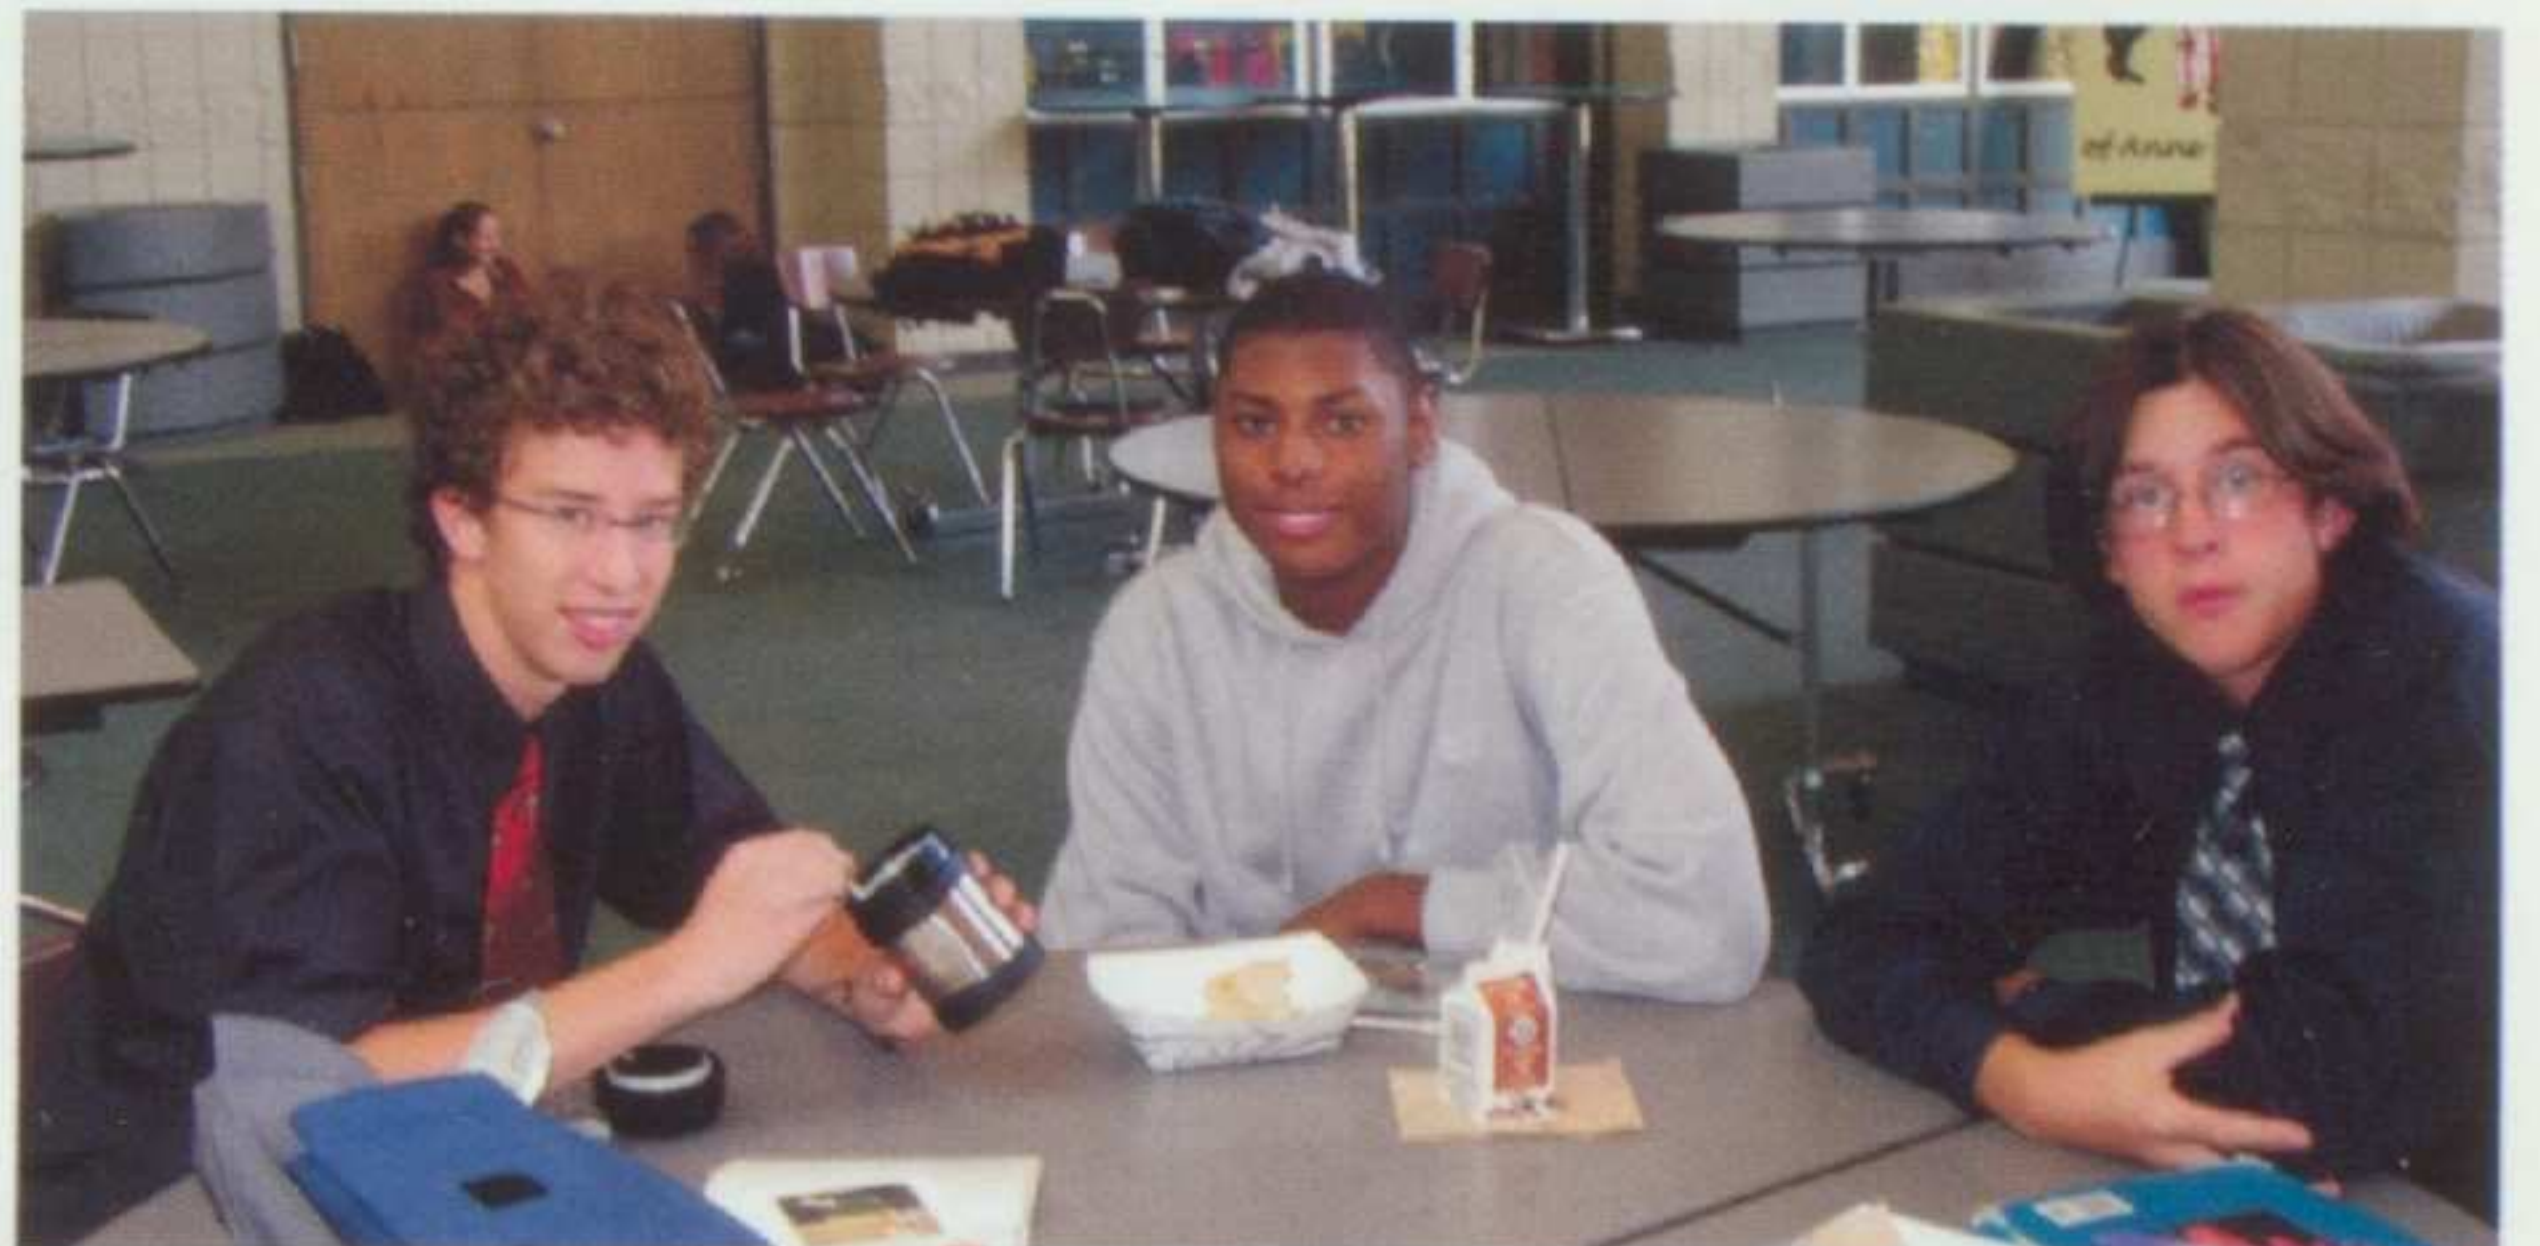

Taking a break from studying for their test next period are Andy Leider, Dan Bellinski and Phil Moore. The relaxed atmosphere is one of the best parts about Kilbourne even when students have tests to study for and projects to complete.

Chatting about how their day is going are Todd Mumford, Ben Link, Josh Jaffe and Casey McDaniel. Such positive body language suggests that you guys are happy with our school.

While trying to make the rest of the day go by faster, Kevin Monnett, Andy Johnson, Katie Joseph, David Tultman and Nick Johnson are still having fun.

Finishing their lunch before the bell rings are Andrew Kissel, DJ Prince, and Nathan Veith.

"George Clooney is a great actor and he is so HOT."
- Kelsi Hutchinson

"My favorite celebrity would have to be Orlando Bloom, not just because he's gorgeous, but he's also a very talented actor."
- Sammy Barber

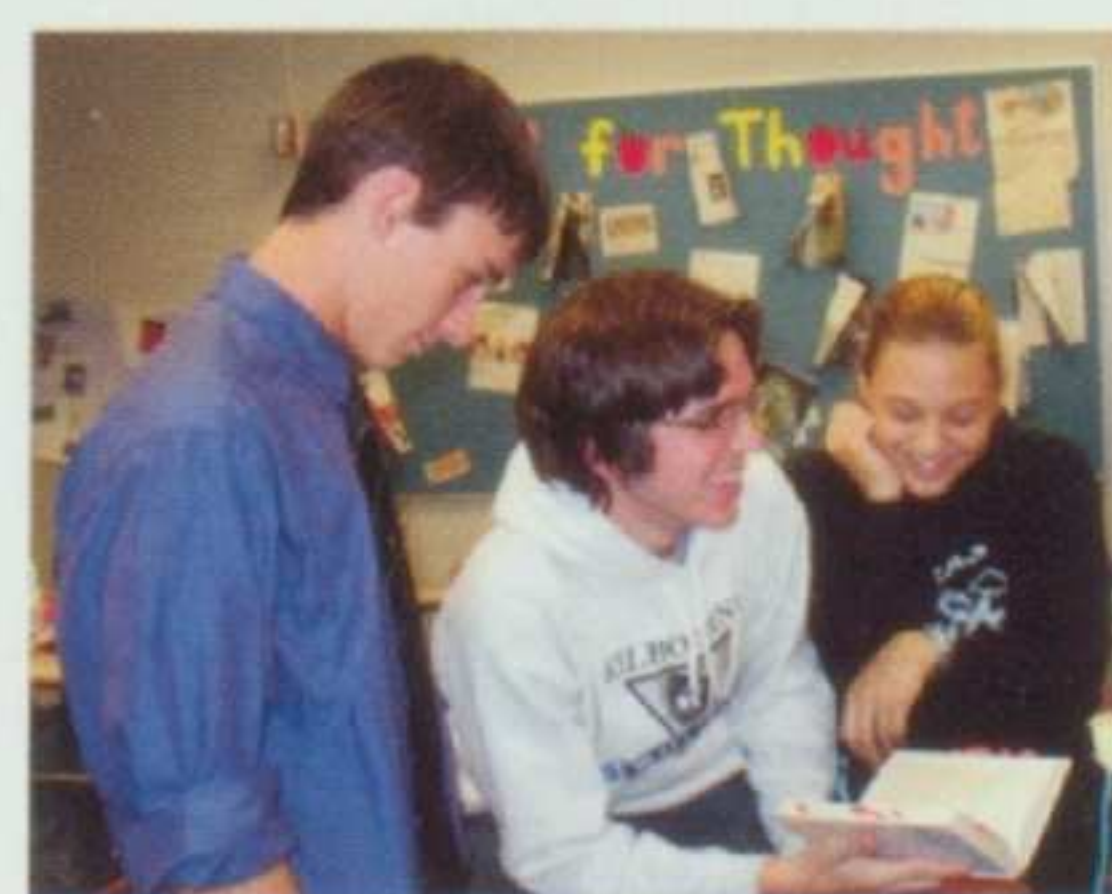

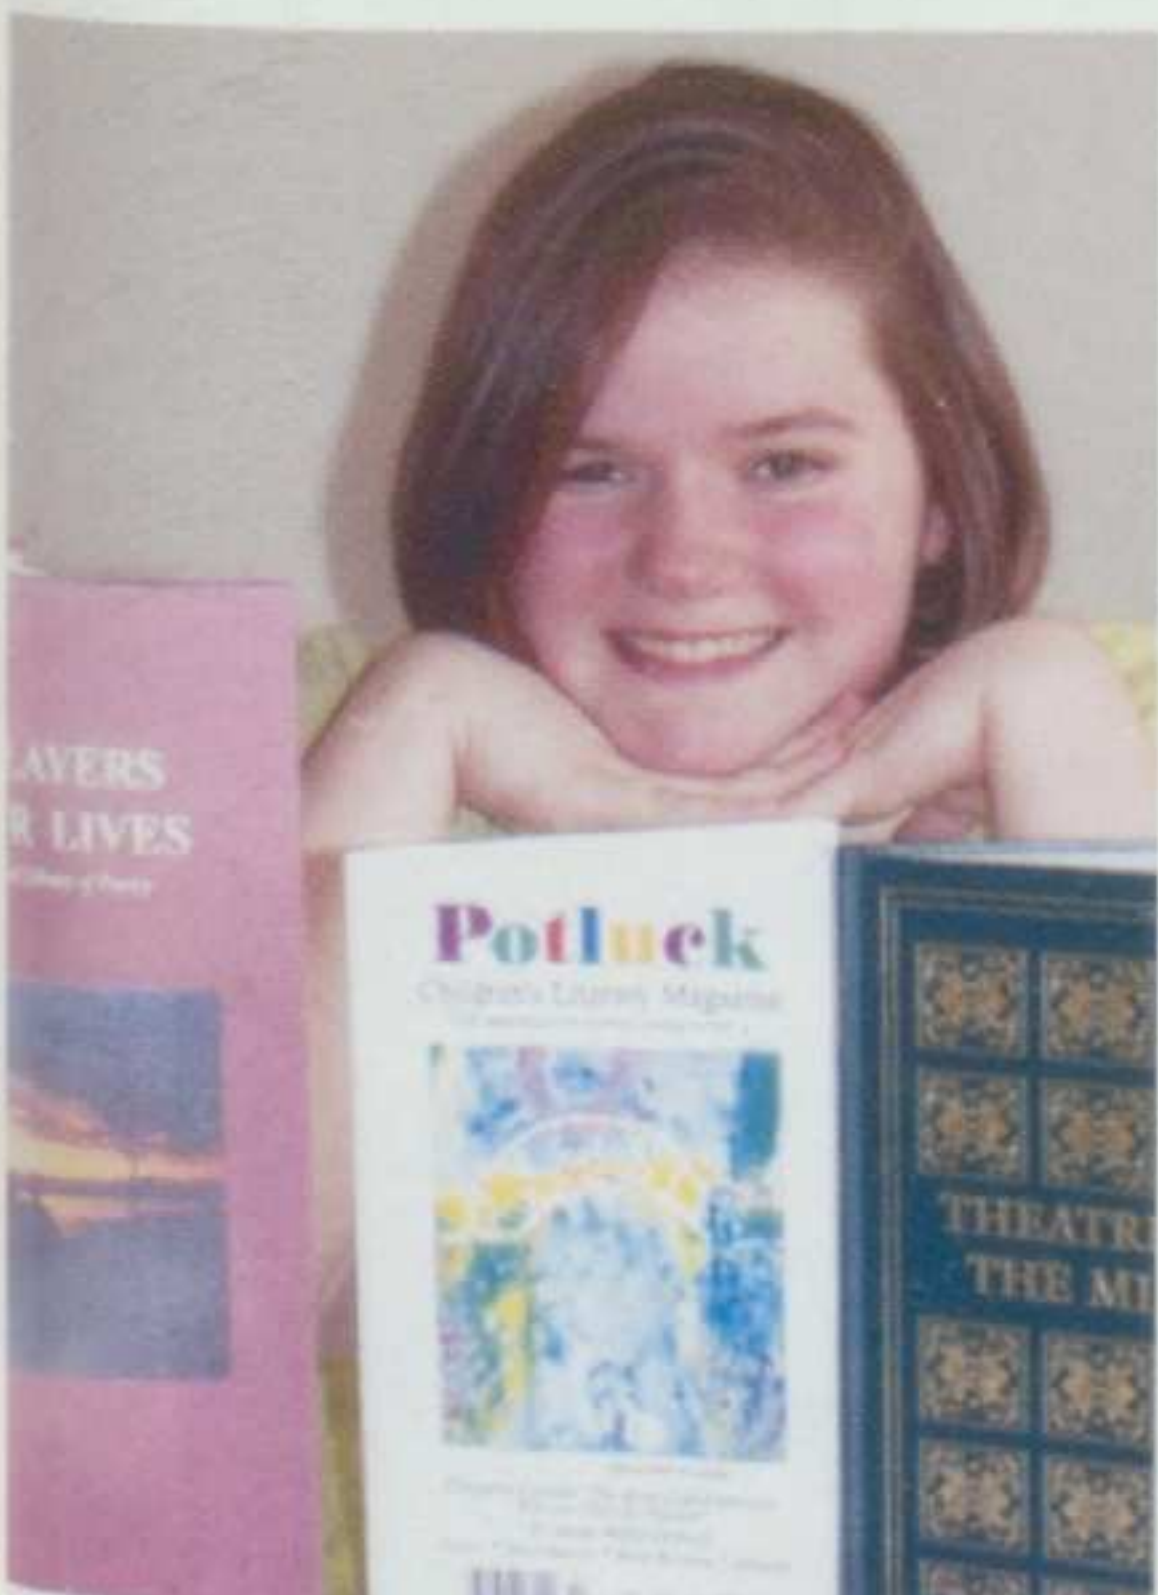

"My favorite celebrity is Drew Barrymore because I love all of her movies."
- Clay Hertenstein

"I've always liked Adriana Lima because she is beautiful and a great model."
- Brian Smith

"My favorite celebrity would have to be Natalie Portman, She's beautiful, talented and smart."
- Clark Seiling

Are Chris Knecht, Danny Gibbons and Alise Merrin really trying to study?

An example of many talented writers at Worthington Kilbourne. Jessica Raby has been published in magazines and books such as in her most recent publication Potluck.

Sitting around during their option is Sarah Blaine and Clint Christman catch up with one another.

Before they hurry off to class, Whitney Harrington and Rachel Mauer share some girlish secrets.

True Love

In Sabrina Fair a woman returns from Paris looking for love.

Olivia Mongeau, 10
 "My character was really flirtatious and that is not how I am, so it was really fun to be someone else for a day."

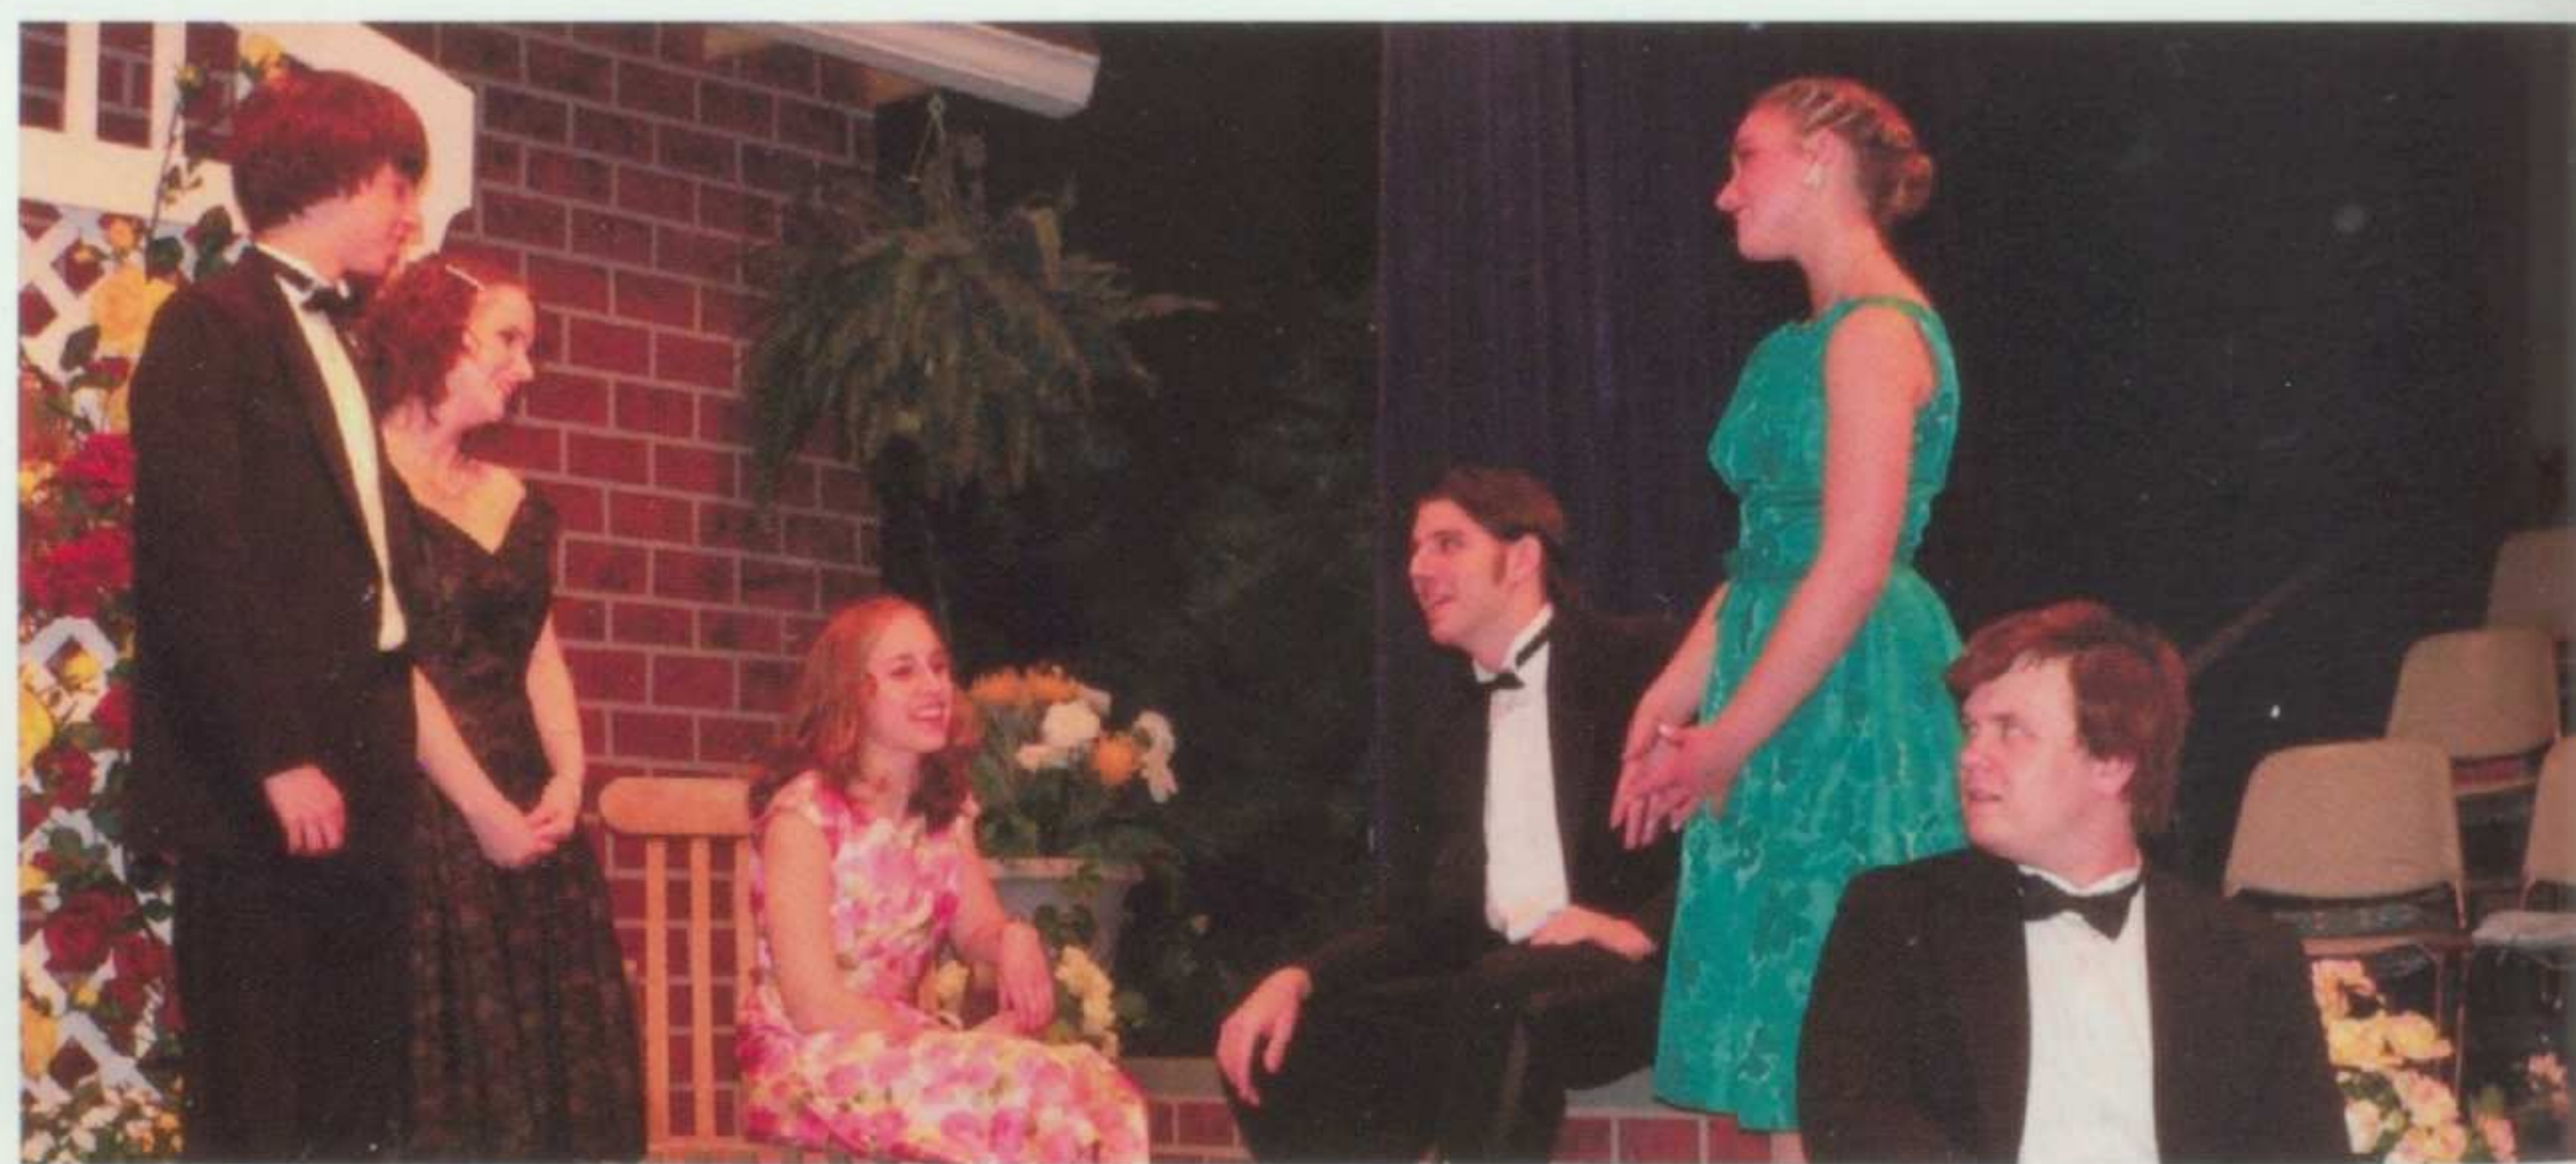

Louise Flavahan, 12
 "My character was definitely one I could relate to. One day I would love to be Maude Larrabee."

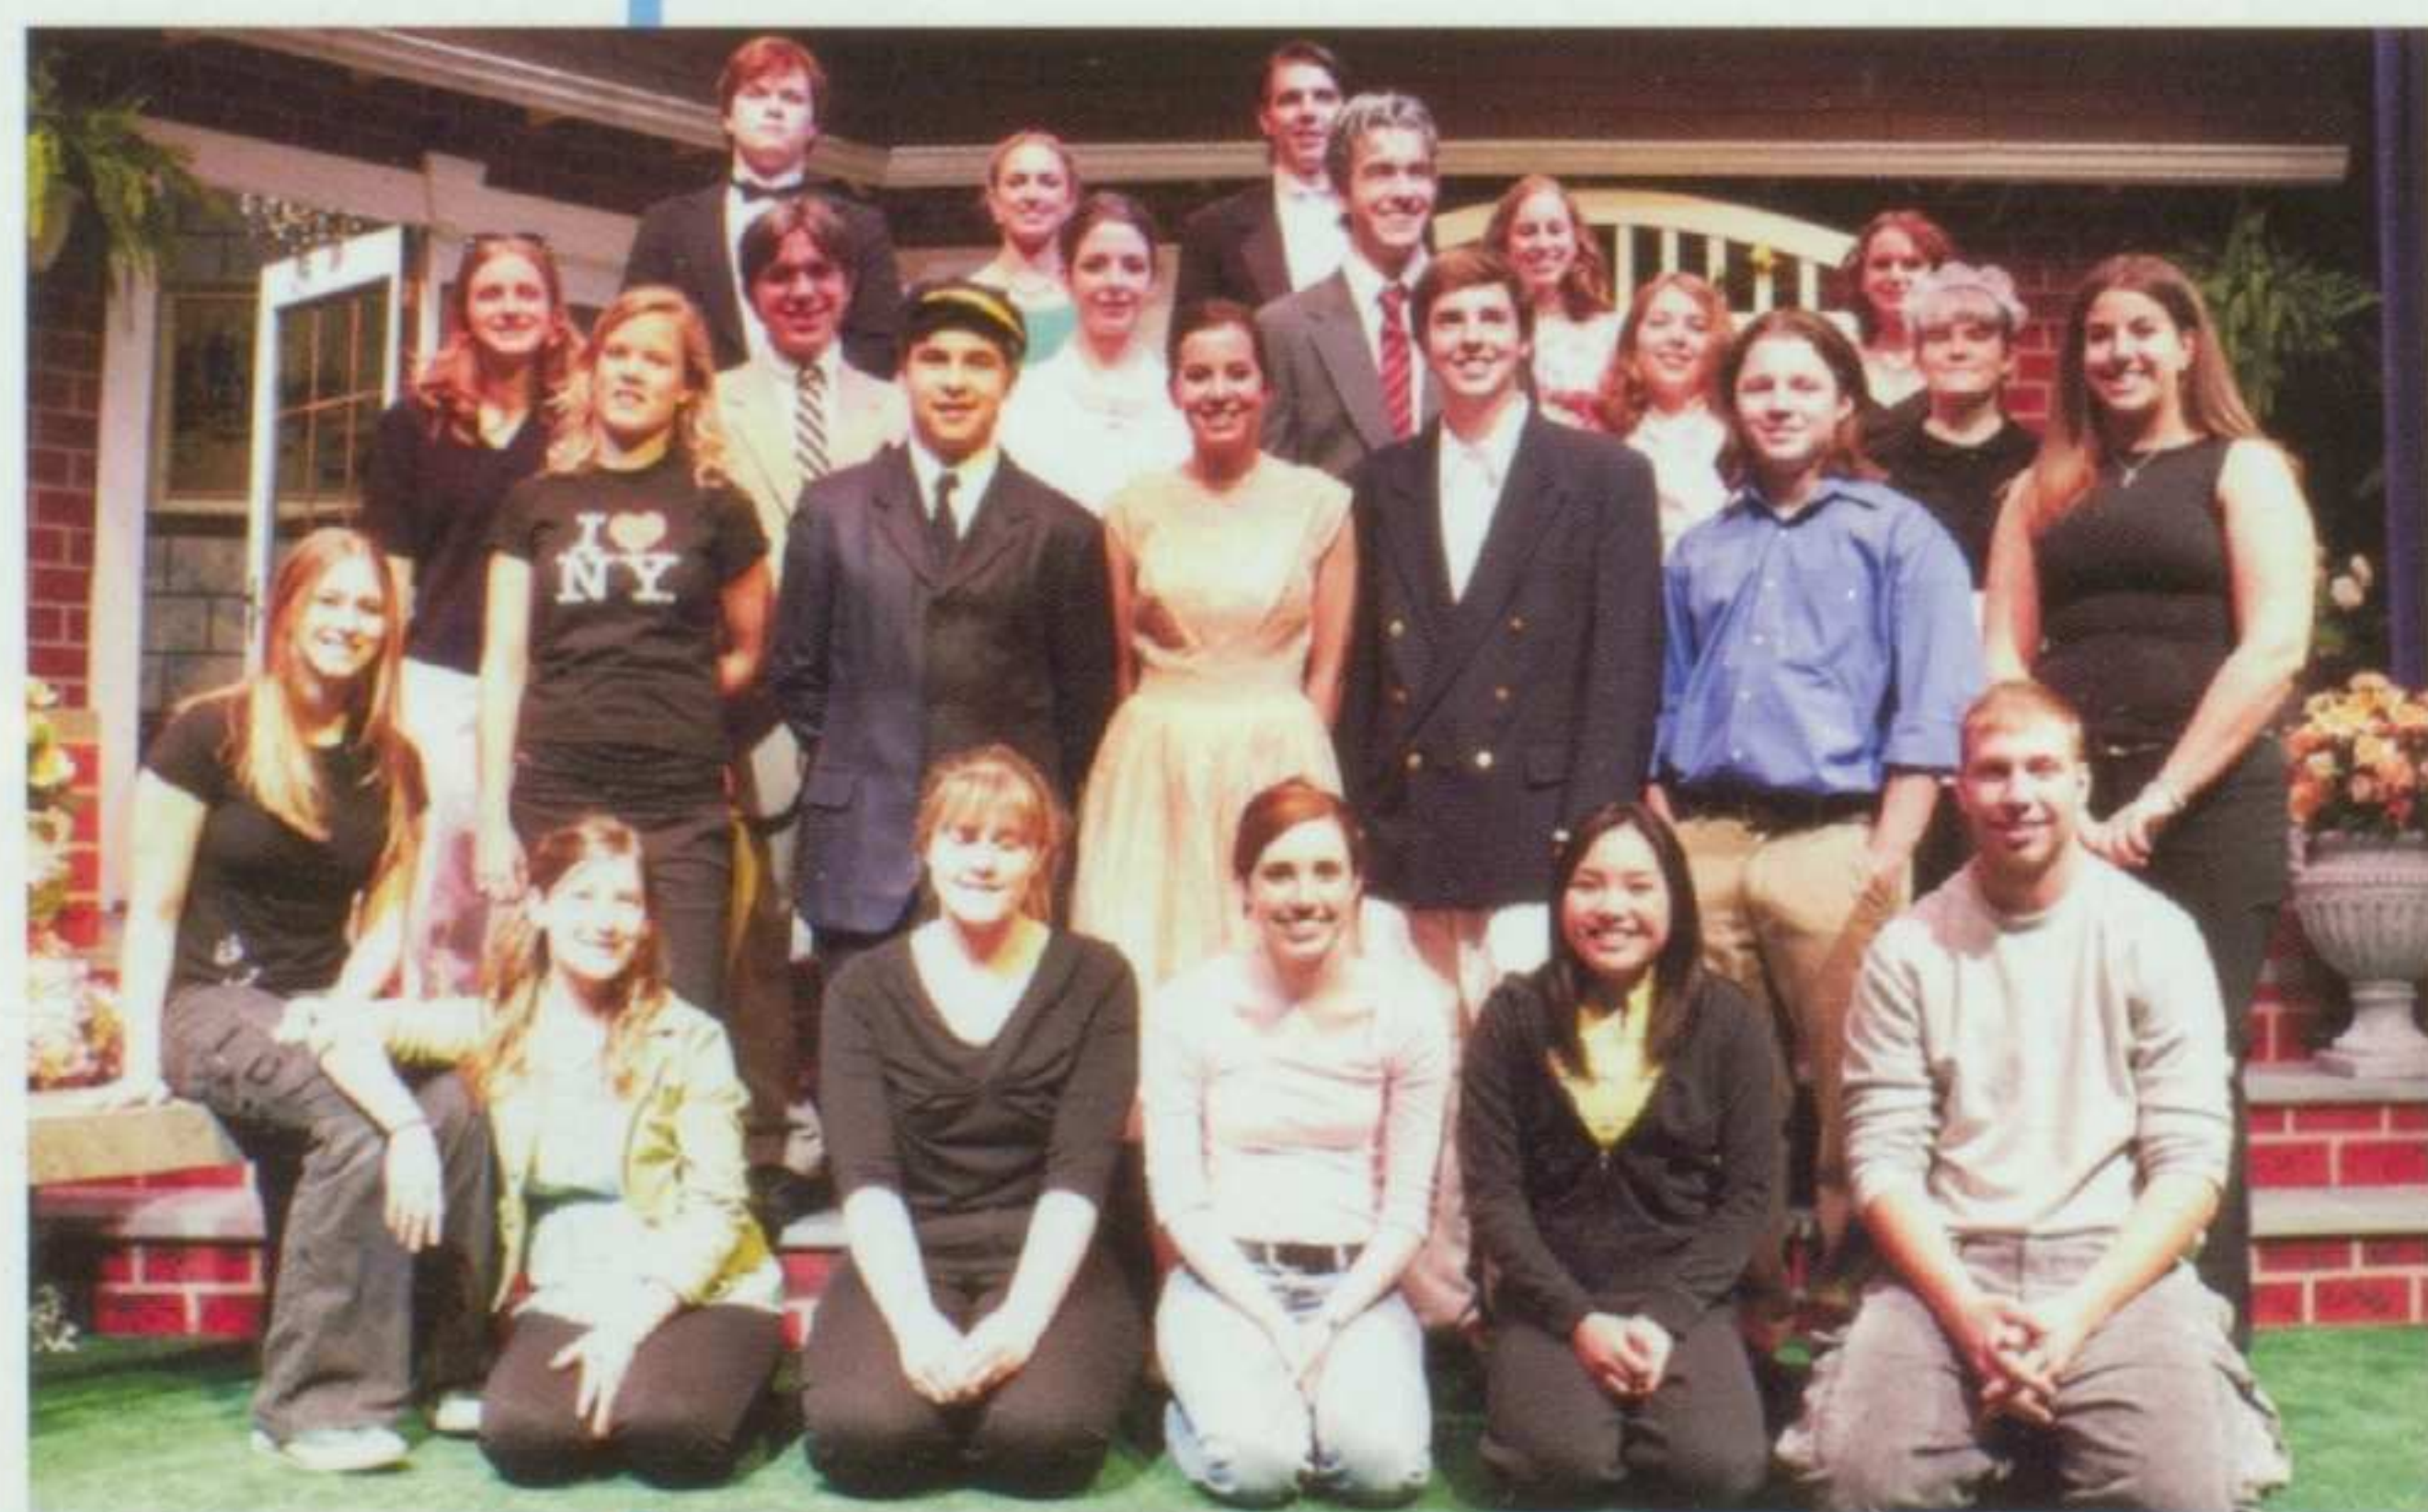

Jillian Jacobs, 11
 "The costumes were really fun to wear because some of them were vintage and made the play come alive. It was also fun with all the guys. I had three love interests, and some of them were my good friends. That was fun to play around with."

Sitting outside having a conversation are Louise Flavahan and Roxane Robertson. Roxane is resting because she just had surgery. She is very tired and cannot walk. She is staying with Louise so that Louise can take care of her while she gets better.

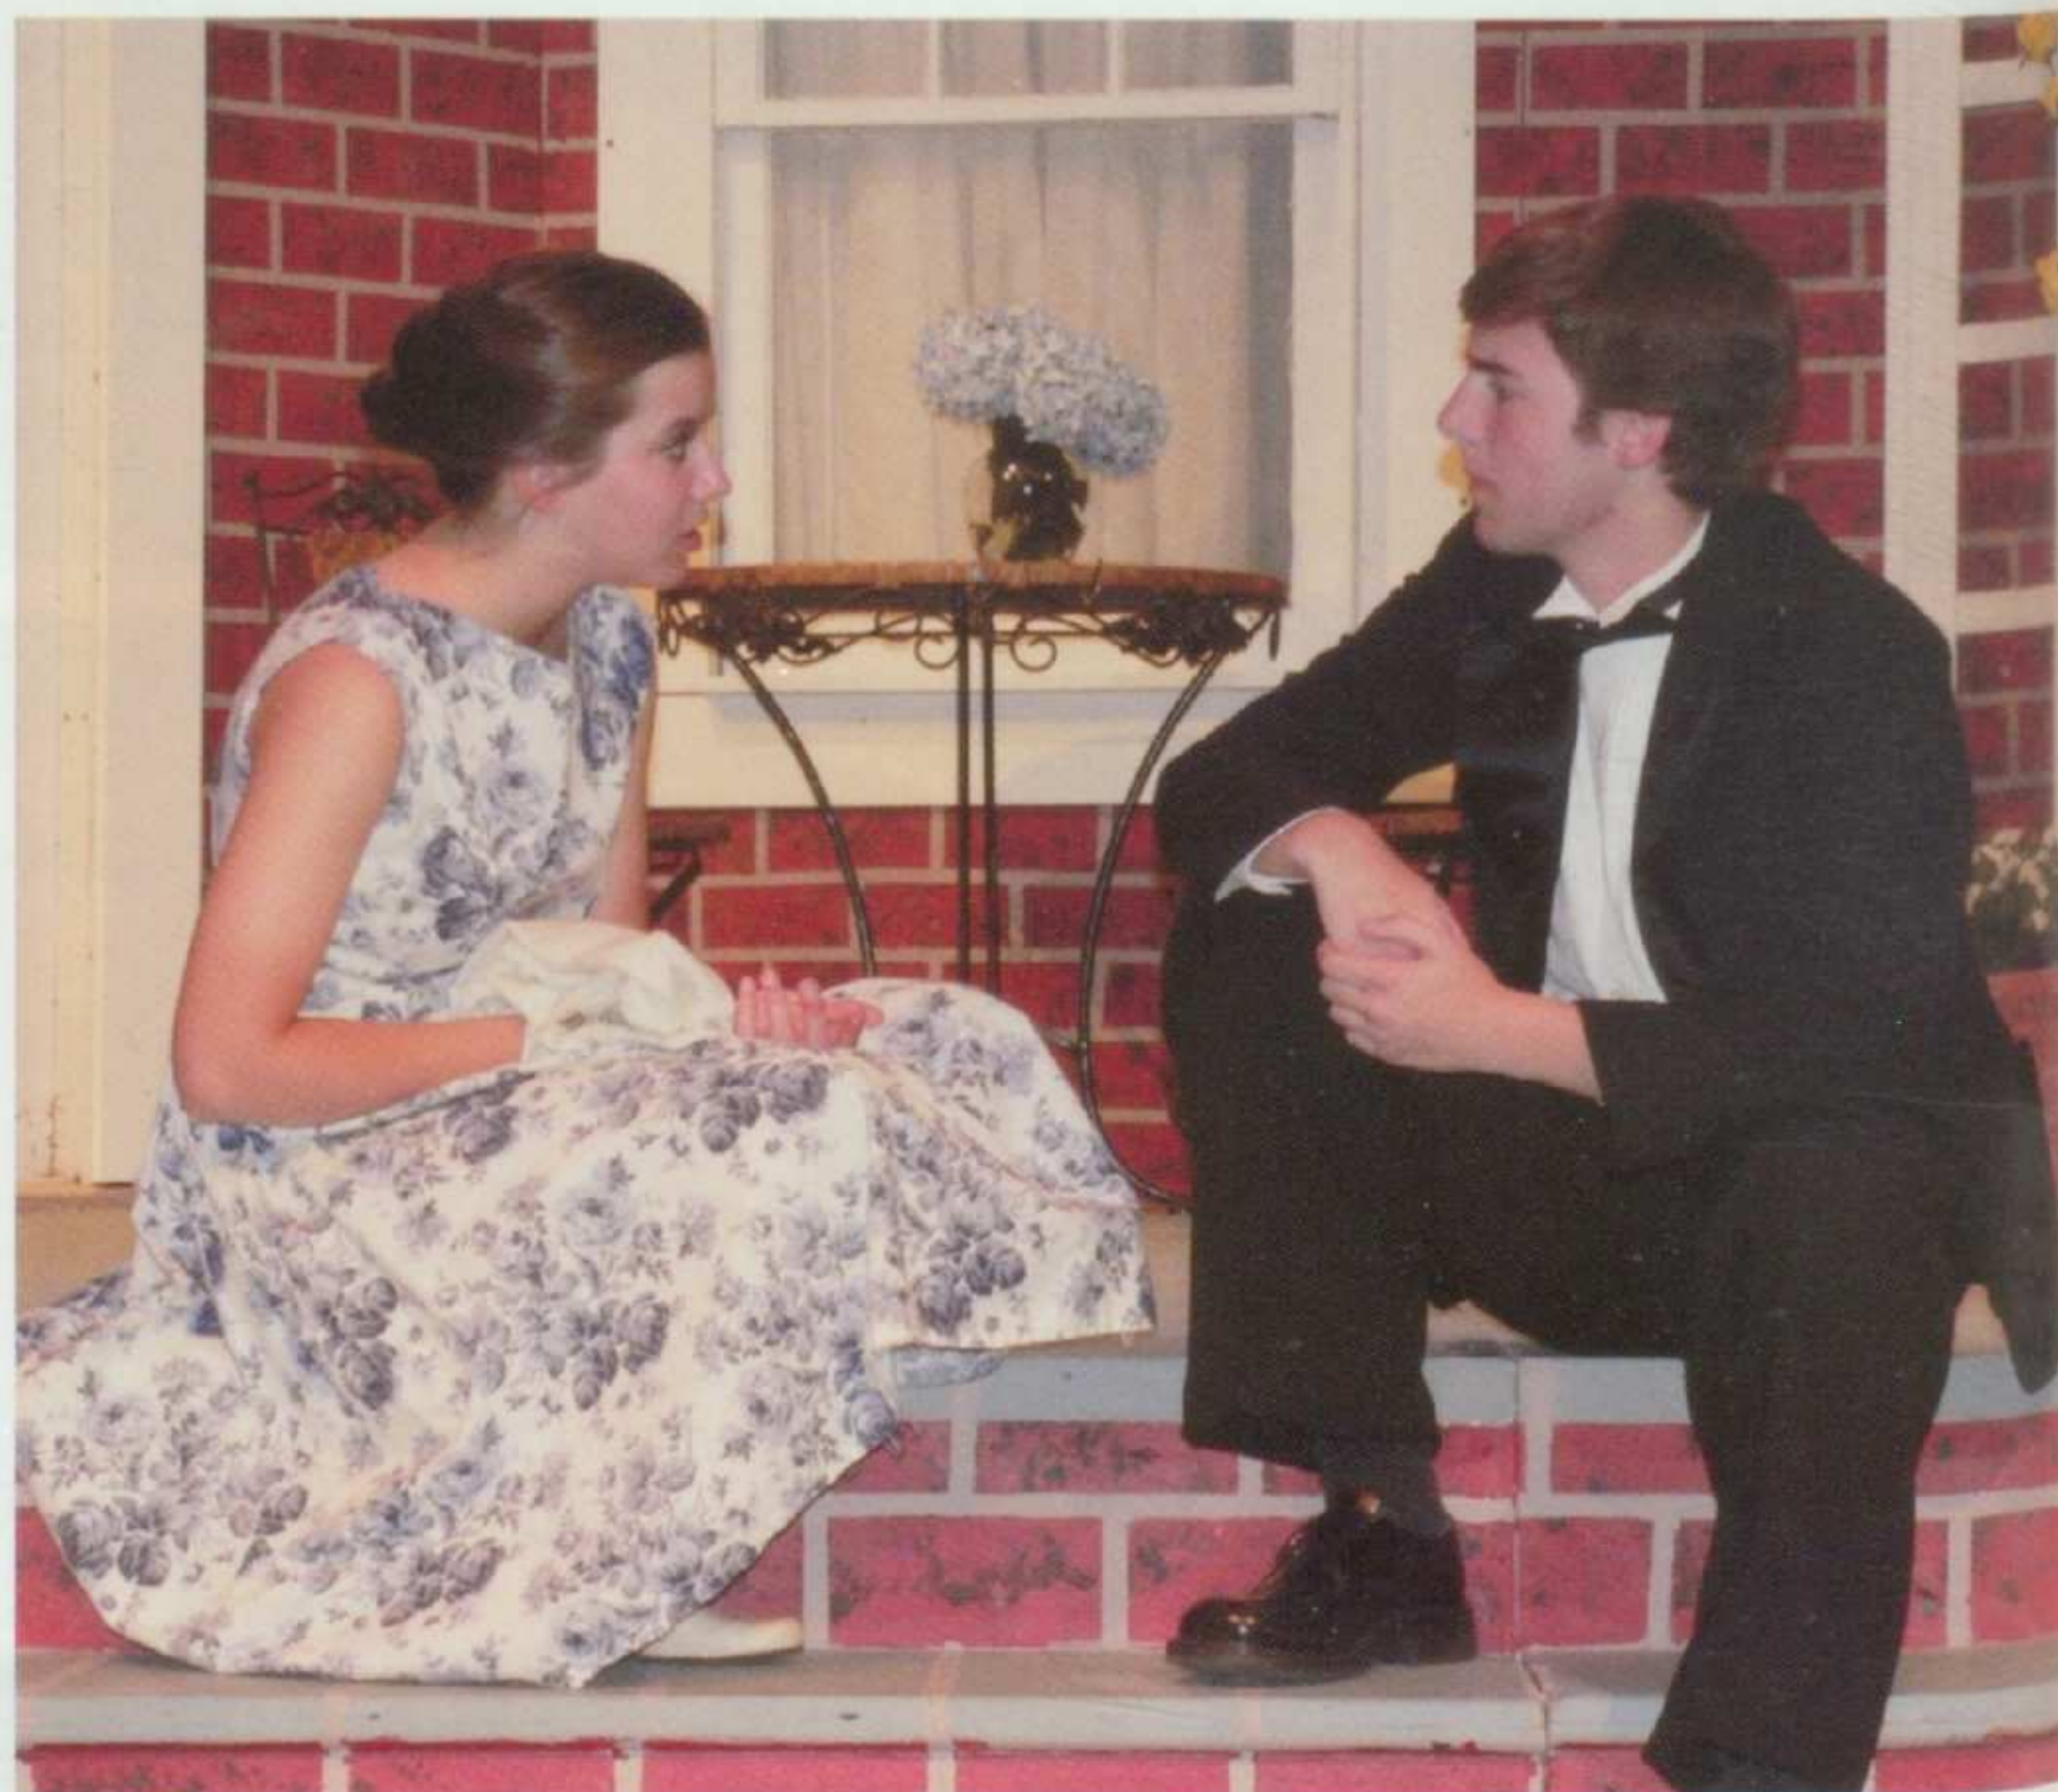

Gathered on the porch are Scott Sanville, Molly McPeek, Taylor Brown, Josh Thornton, Caitlyn Seitz and Drew Amer. They are at the Larabee's party. After hours of dancing, they decide to take a break and rest their feet. Everyone is having a great time socializing.

Discussing being domesticated are Jillian Jacobs and Ben Mooney. They discuss marriage, and Ben decides to ask Jillian to marry him shortly after this.

Working on their political magazine Fallout Magazine, Benj Mirman takes phone calls from readers while Dan Gibbons writes the articles. Dan was the smartest in his class, and he is an excellent writer.

After meeting their next door neighbor, Dan Gibbons falls in love with her and watches her everyday through the window. Benj Mirman tries to stop him from looking through the telescope, but Dan just can't help it because he is so in love.

In The Star-Spangled Girl two men who are writing a political magazine fall in love with the same woman.

After Dan bothers her at work and gets her fired, Benj decides to hire Pam Skehan because he feels bad. Dan is not writing anymore because he is so love struck that he cannot concentrate. If Pam is around and smiling at him, then he will keep writing and they will make it to the print deadline.

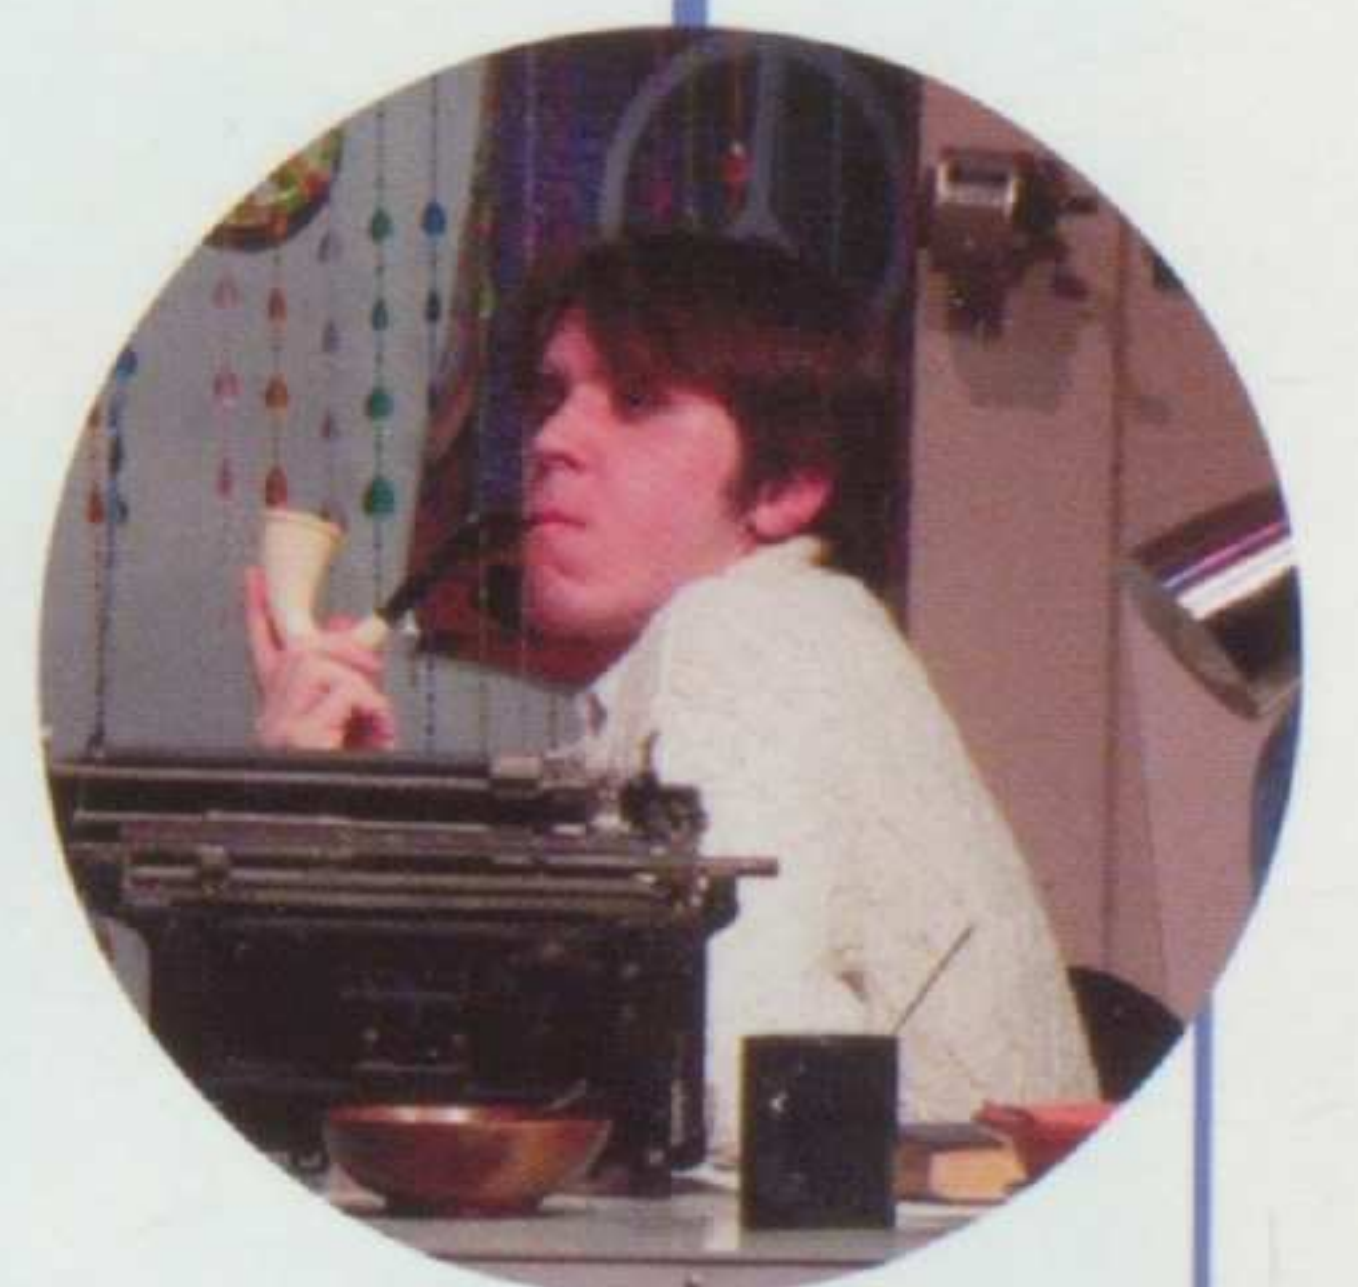

After Dan discovers that Pam and Benj might be in love, he is very mad. He decides to leave and get a job at a real newspaper, but Benj will not let him. They decide to fight to see if Dan will leave to work at a different newspaper or continue to work for Fallout Magazine. Benj Mirman stands with his fists up, while Dan Gibbons gets into a karate position, ready to fight.

Benj Mirman, 11

"I tried to throw an apple out of a window, and I missed. I hit the window sill, and it came back and hit me."

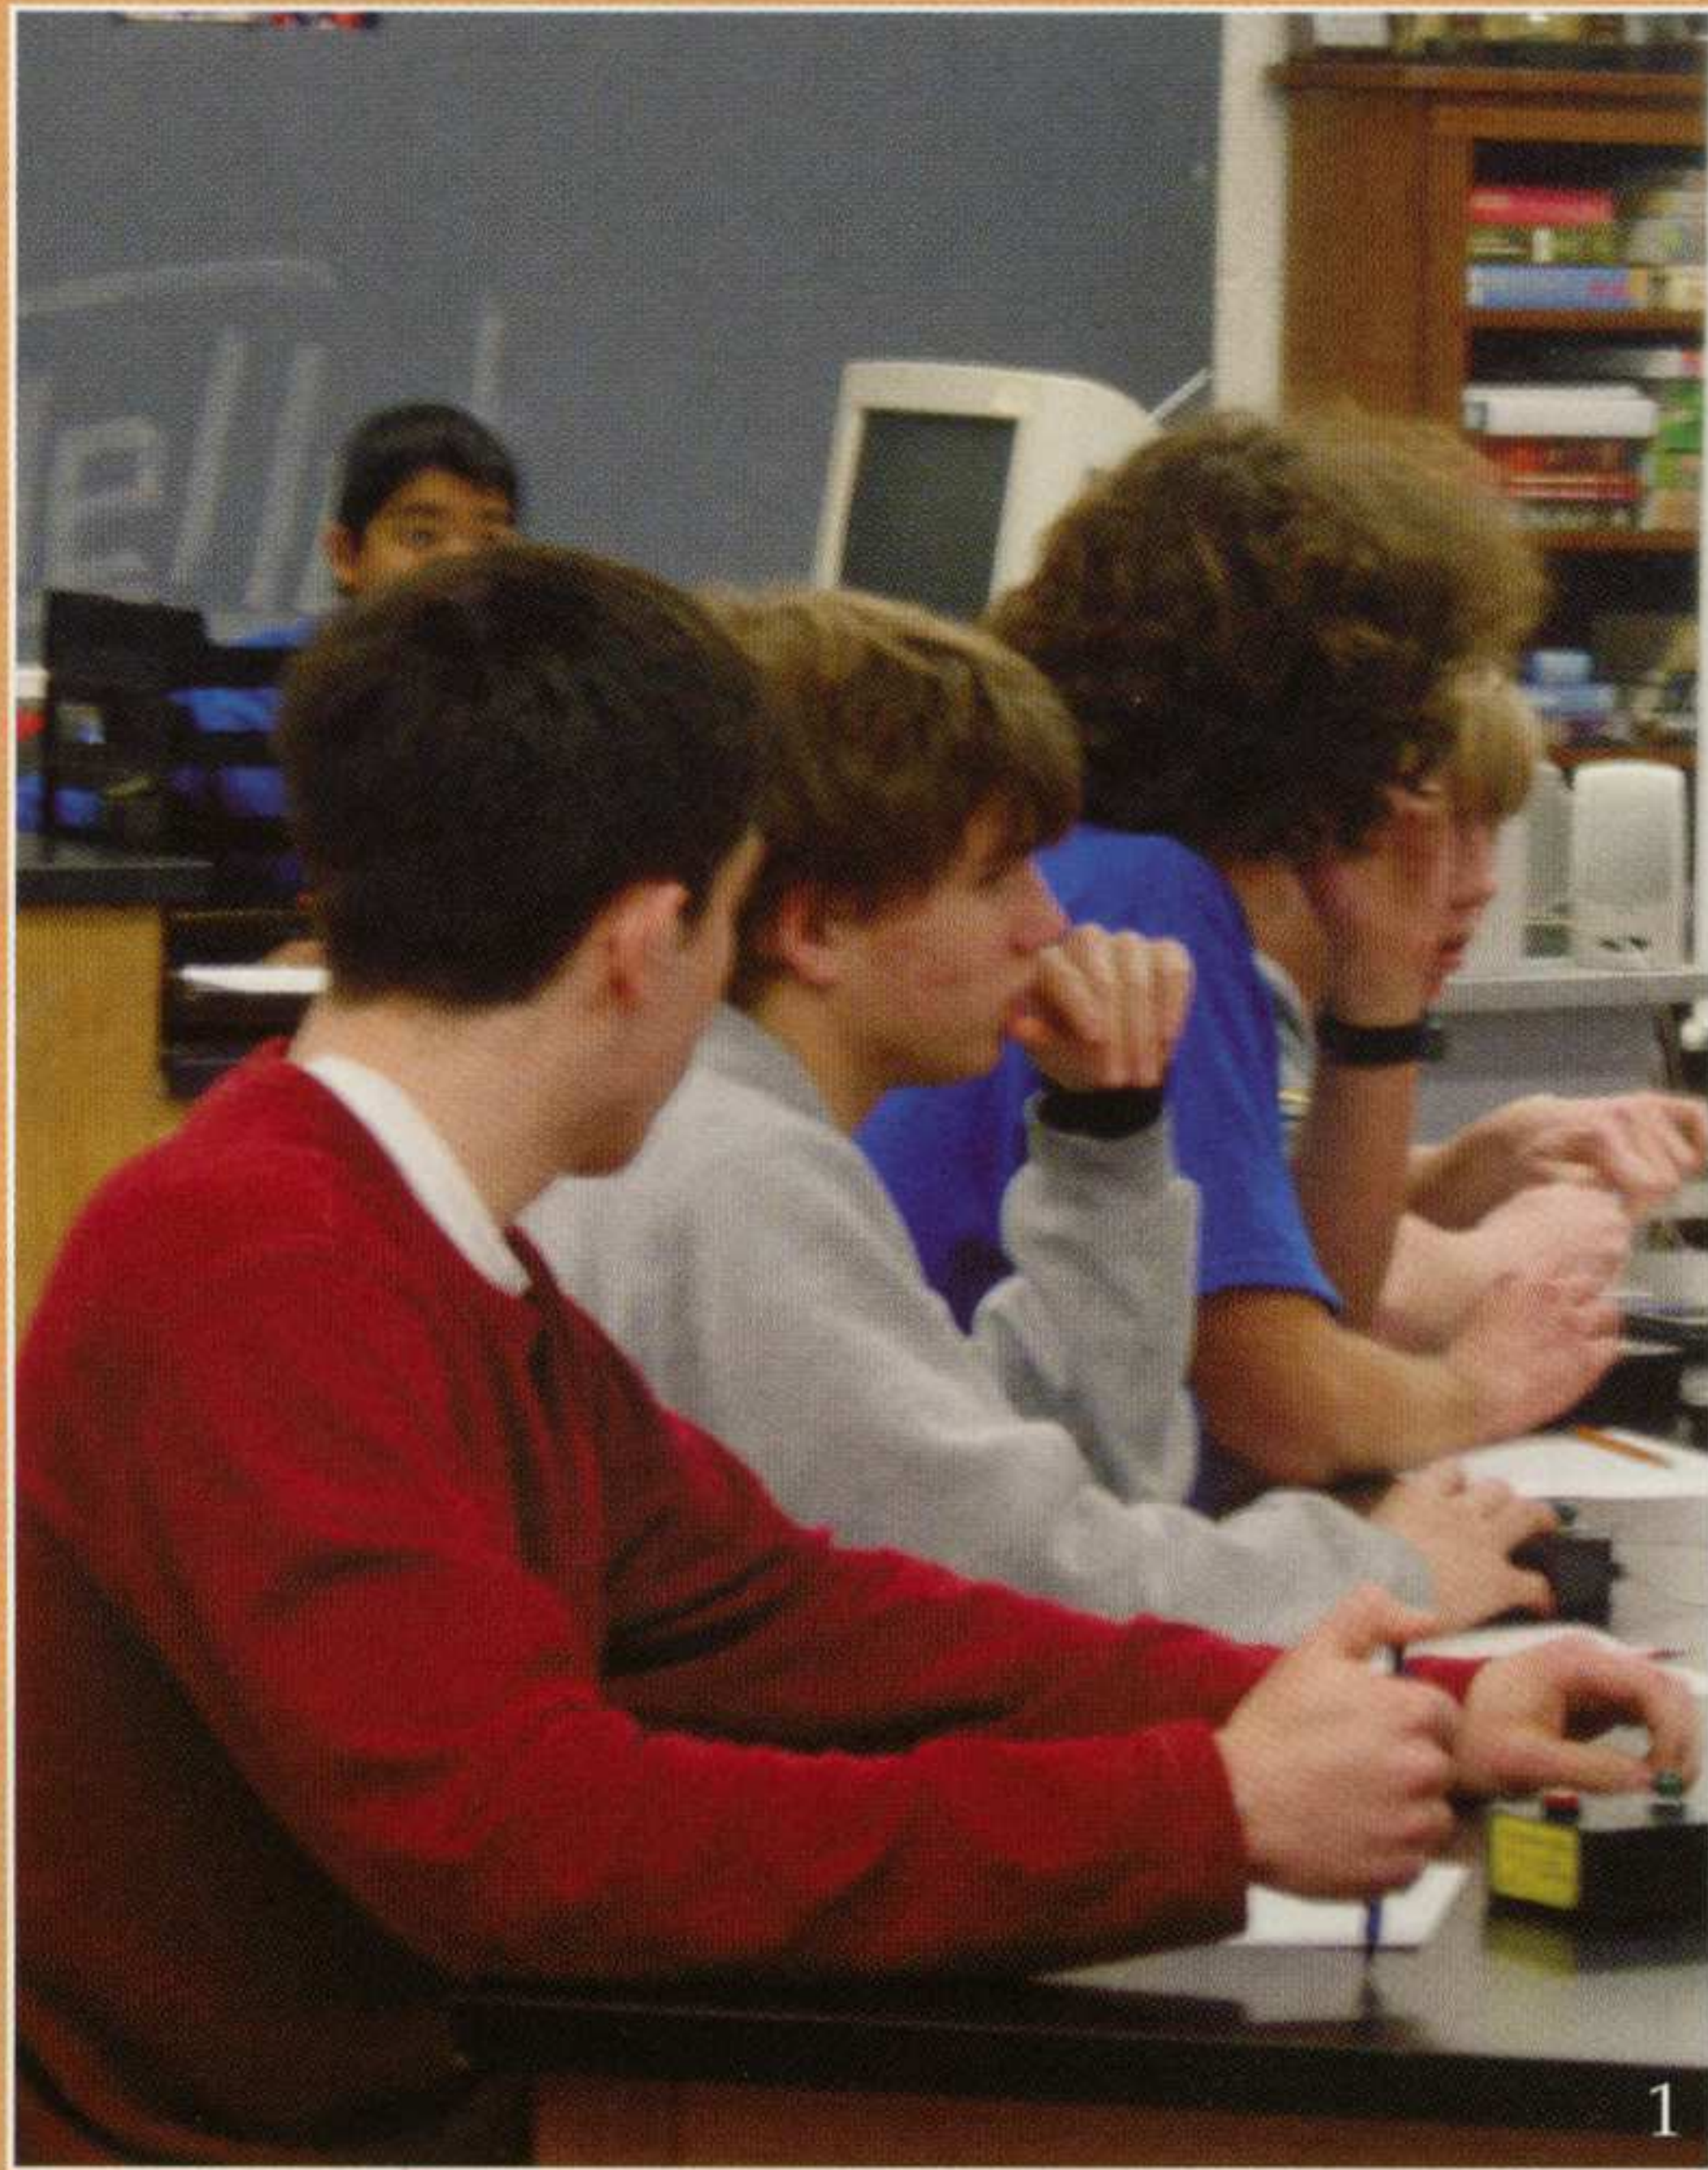

Dan Gibbons, 11

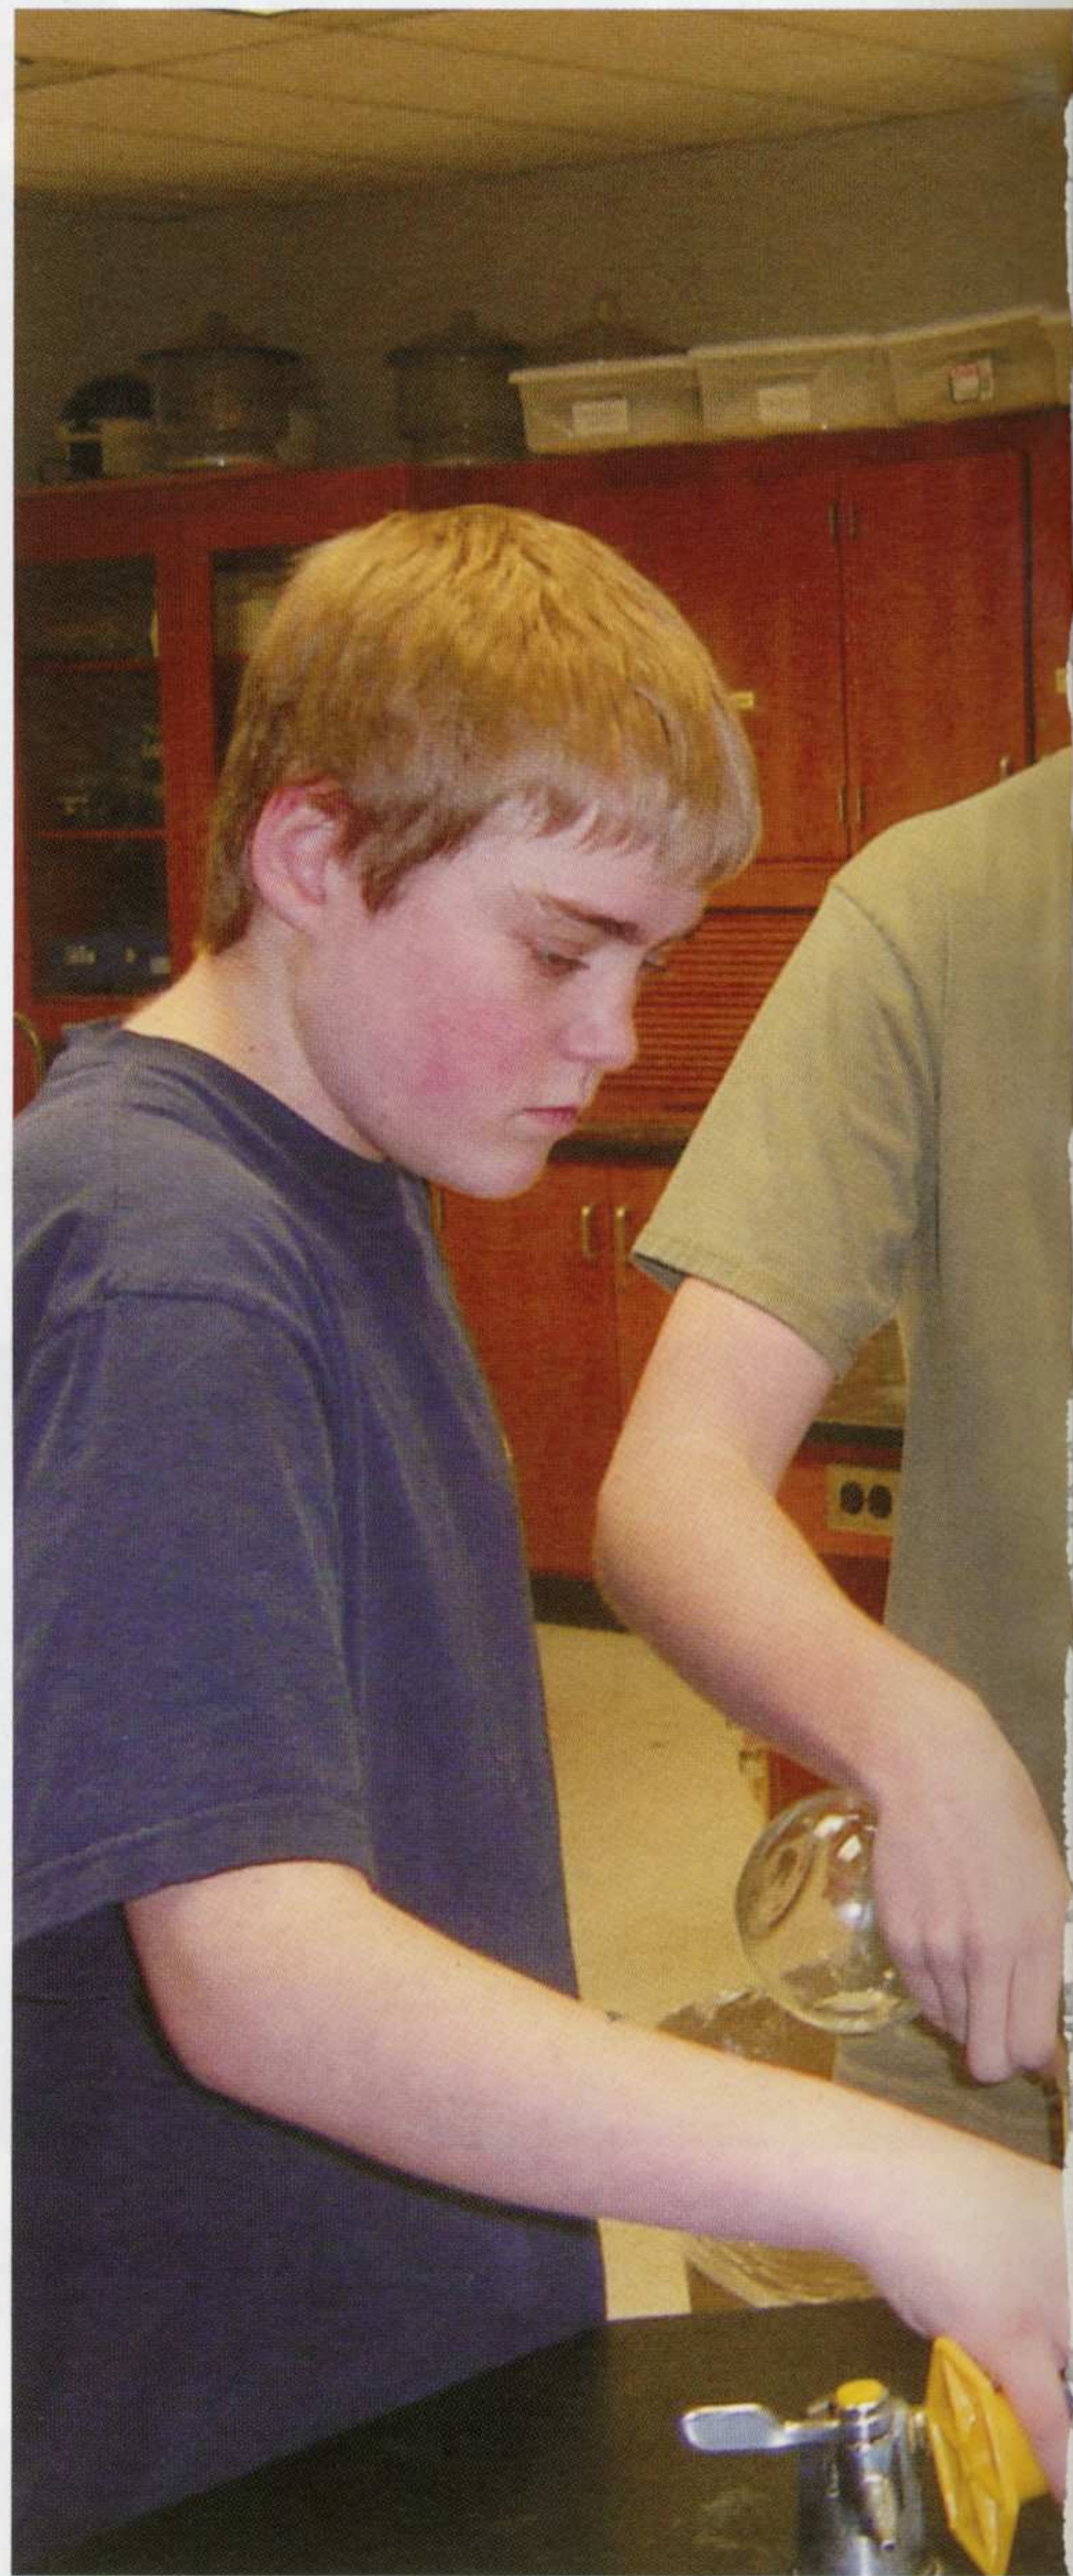

"My favorite scene was definitely the fight scene between me and Benj."

1 Preparing for another stimulating match are David Gerard, Alex Knoblock, Geoff Buller and Cliff Baseler. "If we don't know the question, then we're not 'In-The-Know,'" jokes David Gerard.
 2 Working on a project for Science Olympiad, Malcolm Durkin experiments with milk cartons, copper sheets, and wooden planks.

3 Bowling during a field trip for WECEP, Dan Silcott rolls a strike using perfect Fred Flinstone form. Ya-ba-da-ba-doo! See... school isn't all work and no play!
 4 Preparing for the Mock Trials are Mrs. Wax, David Wilson, Ambrose Wu, Ashlea Fox, David Heame, Sarah Lusk, Geoff Buller, and Andrew Bloom.

Taking one of the state-wide Ohio Math League tests is Math League member Michael Hirsleifer. All types of students are in the league. A benefit of being in the club is that members may possibly receive extra credit.

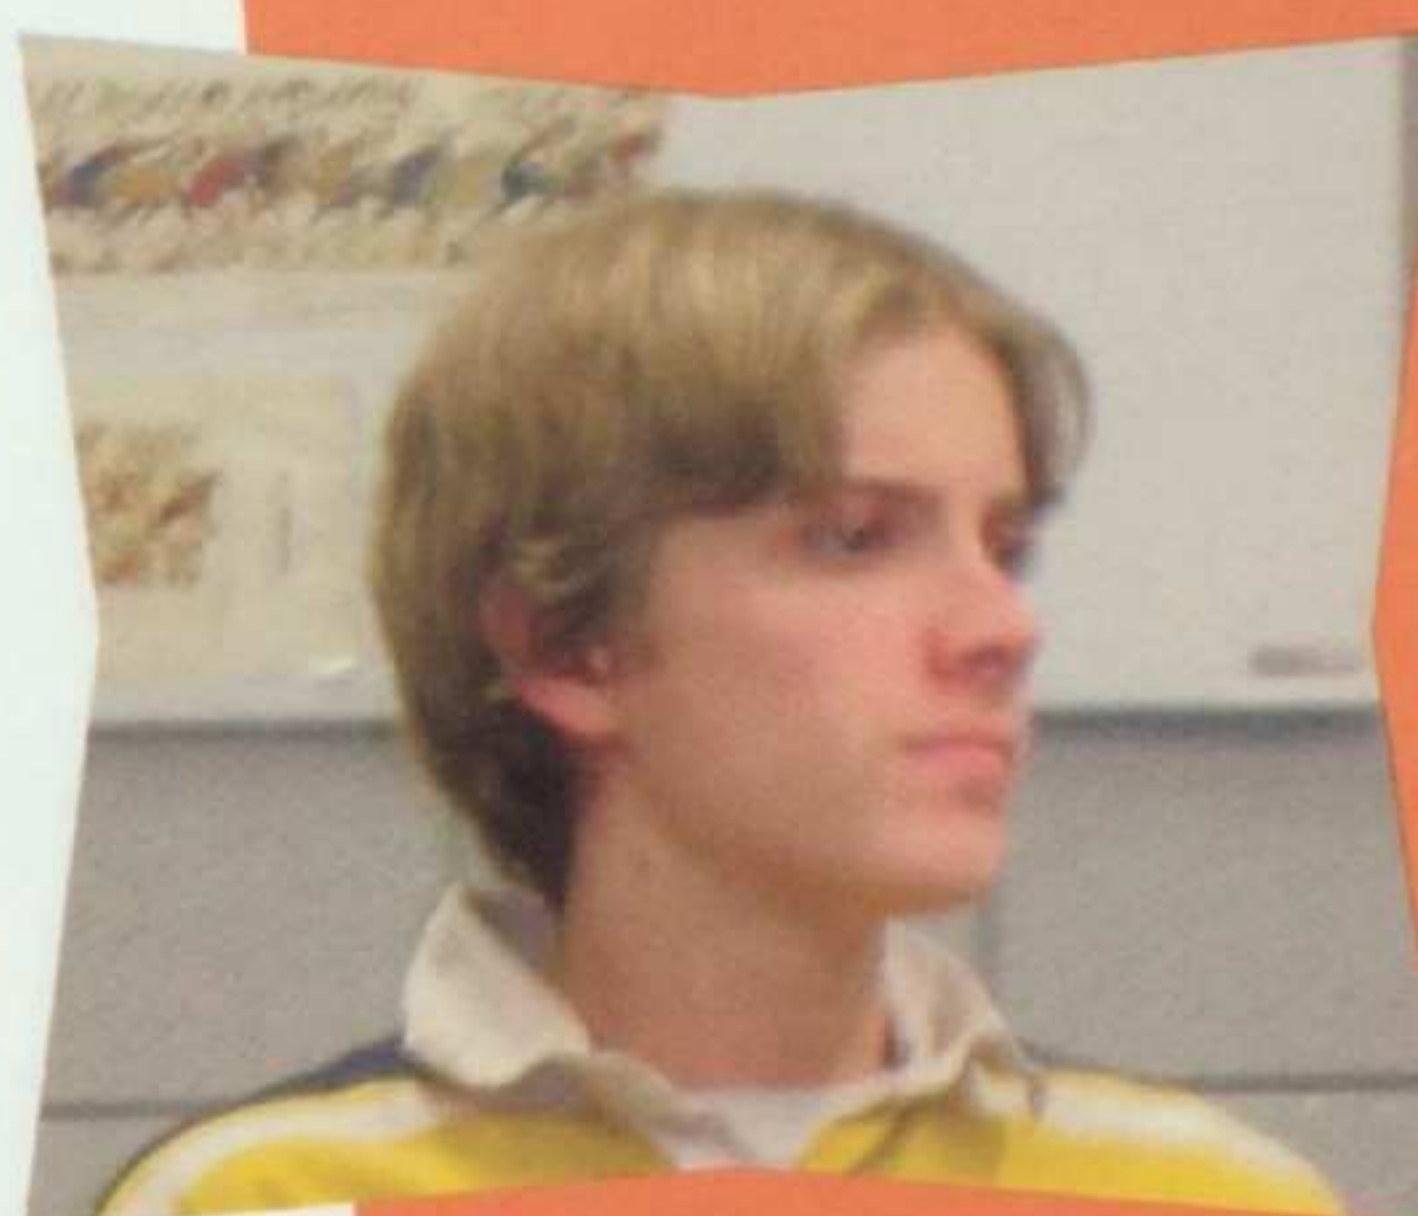

Trying to balance a scale in order to weigh part of his self-made Science Olympiad project is Myung Kuh. This competition includes consideration of all sorts of odd parts.

Mixing all types of liquids with beakers and test tubes as part of Chemistry Olympiad experiments, members David Gerard, Brian Batchelder, and Peter Leatherman work together and share the results.

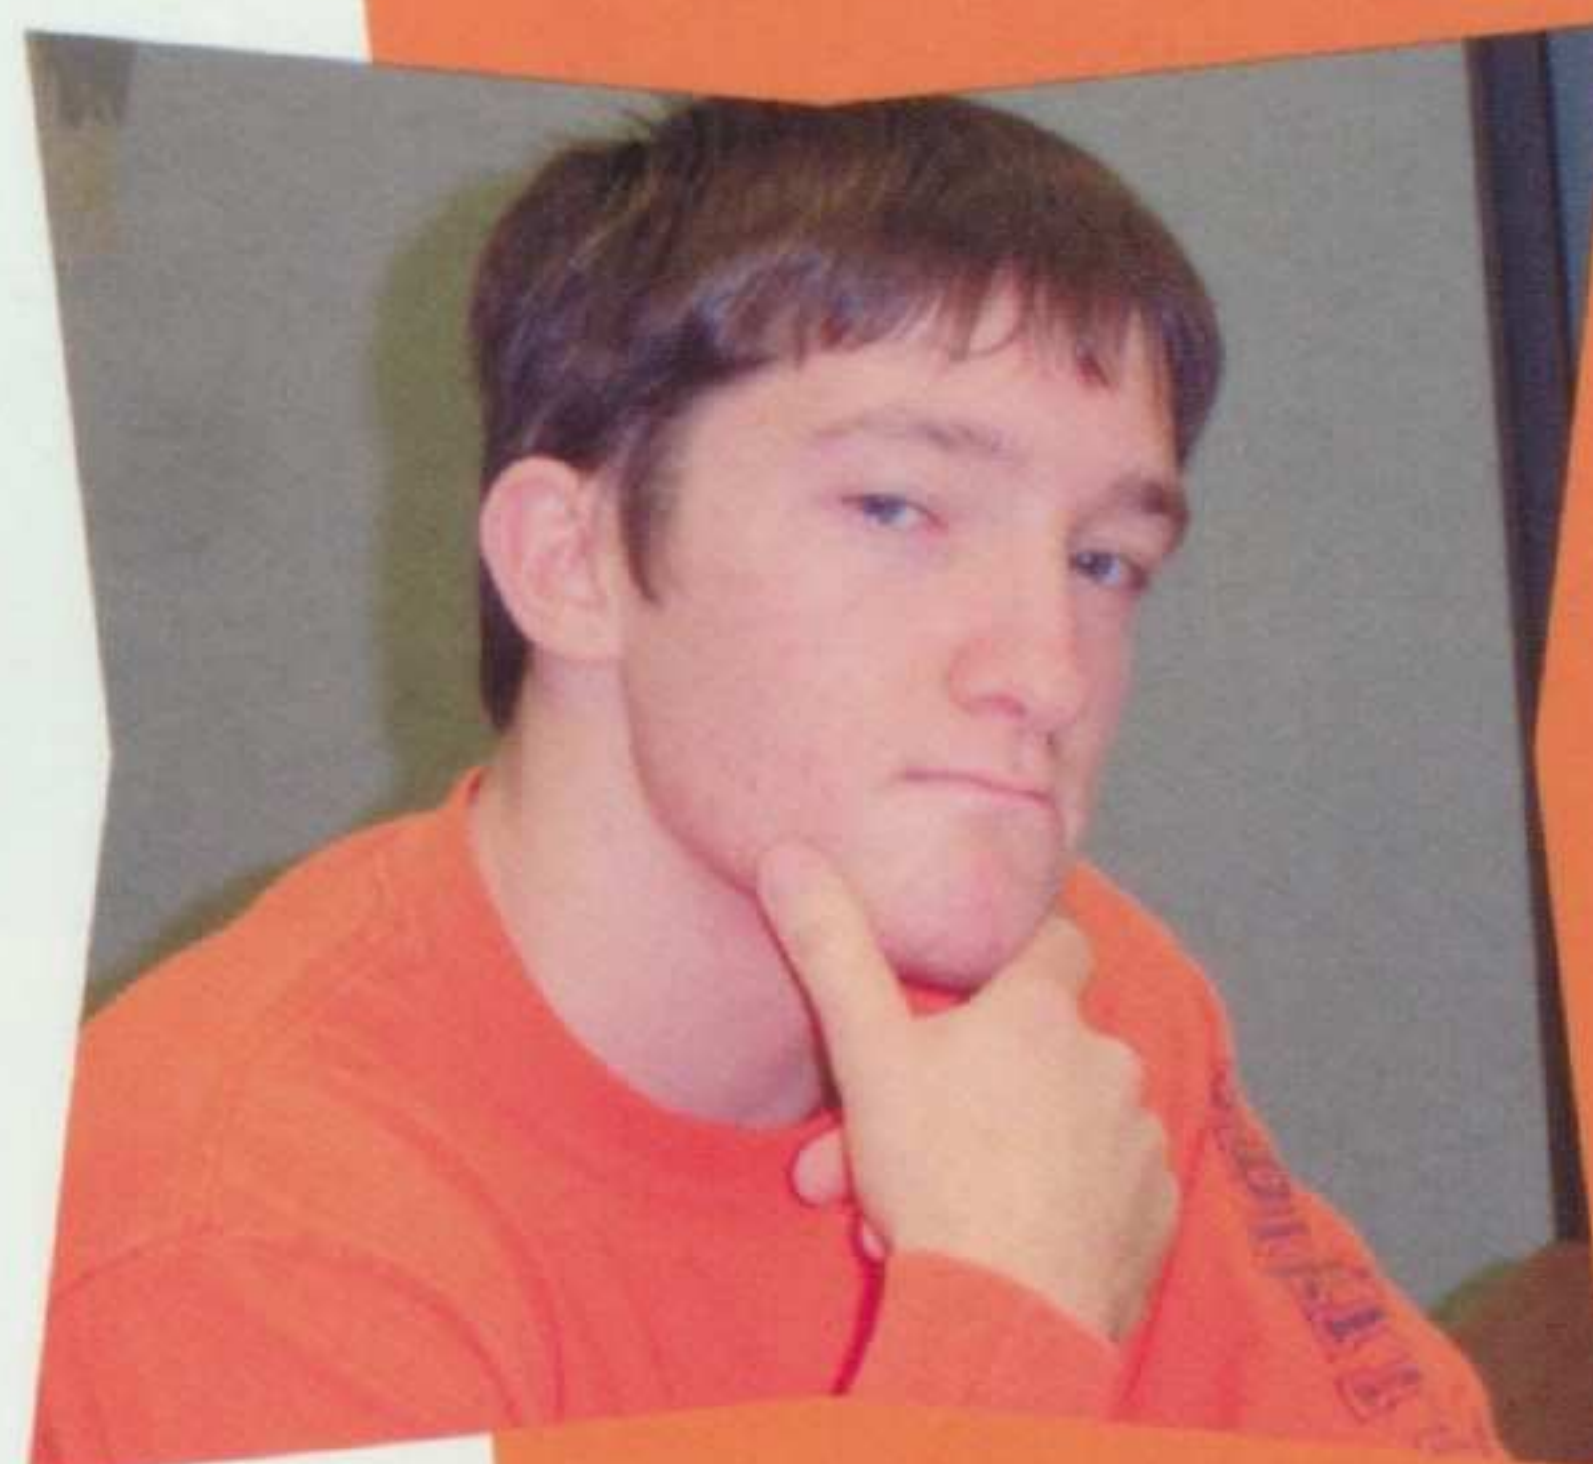

MALCOLM DURKIN - 11
VS. ANDREW JONES - 10

A fierce battle engages as "the unstoppable force," Malcolm Durkin takes on "the immovable object," Andrew Jones. "I like to try different attacks," strategizes Andrew Jones.

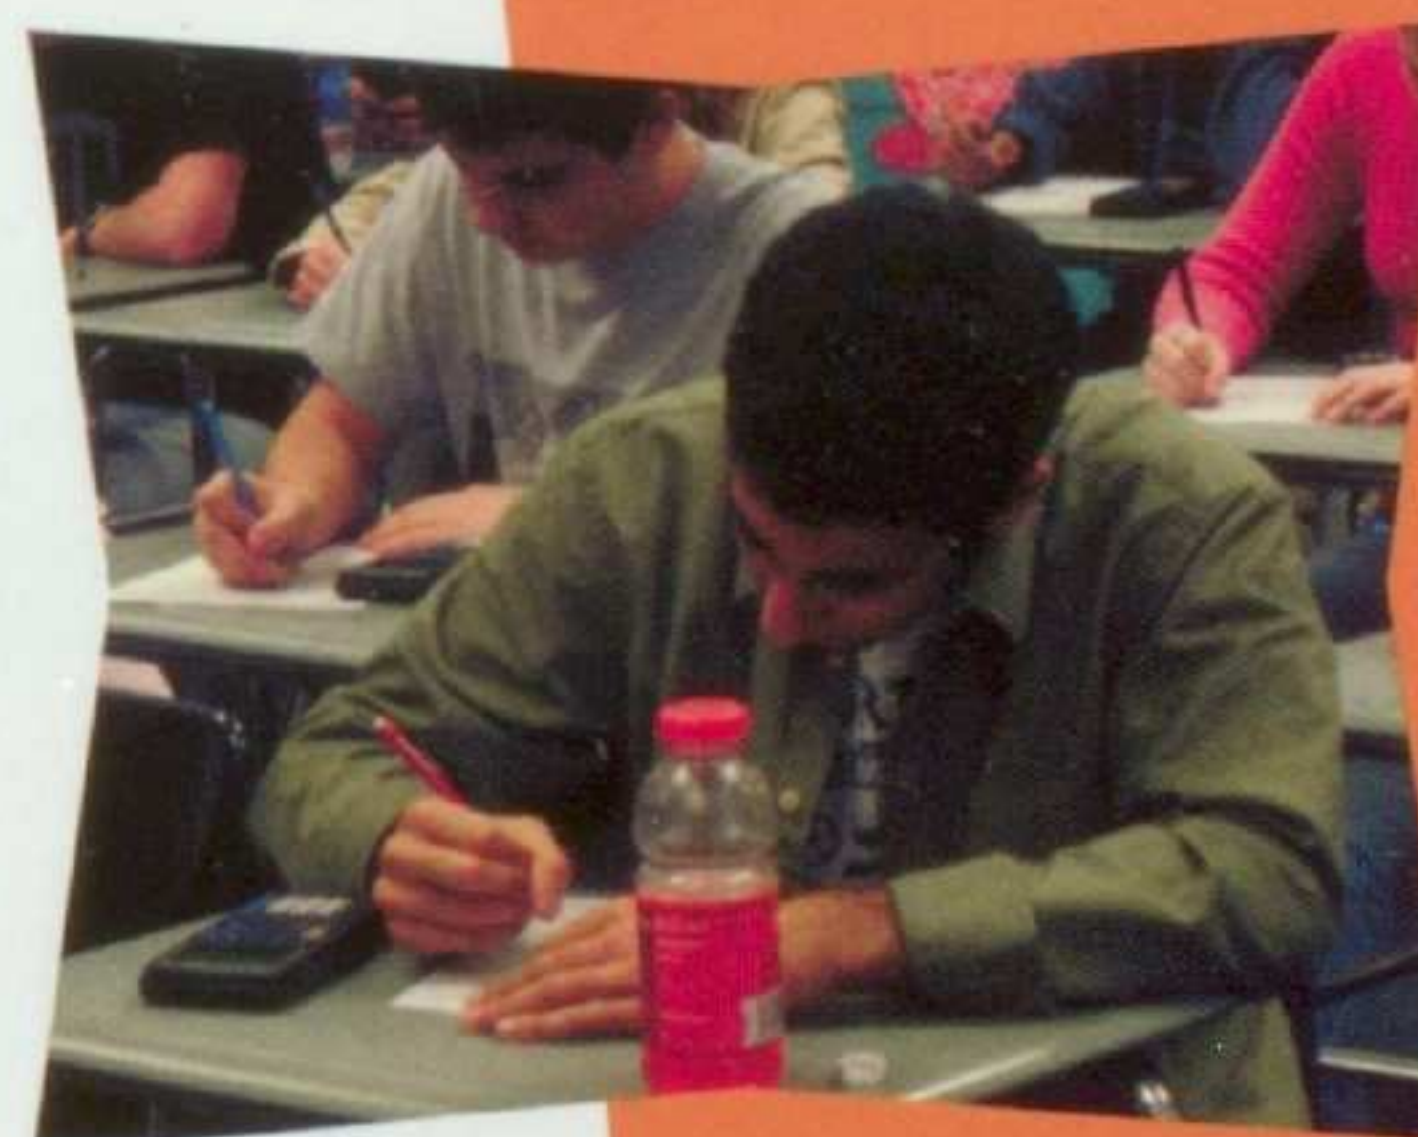

DAVID HEARNE - 11

Listening to a lecture on the uses of "hearsay" and timely objections, David Hearne explains, "I like going to Mock Trials because if I ever end up in a court, I can know what's going on and what to do to help myself in a case."

JESSE LYCAN - 10

Striking the "intellectual pose" is Jesse Lycan while playing the game of chess. "The different skill levels to the variety of moves determine which best advantages to use to beat opponents," he insists.

NIK MAHDI - 12

Taking a Ohio Math League test, Nik Mahdi is in deep thought over the problems. "I like coming to Math League because of the extra help I can get," he reflects.

YOUNG BIN KIM - 11

"I like being a part of stock club because I'd like to have lots of money," explains Stock Club member Young Bin Kim, who is working as part of a team for his Stock Club group. Being part of Stock Club has its benefits: competing in a state-wide tournament where the winning team earns $150. "That's my goal- to win the money."

ALEC VOLPE - 12

"Prospice is a fun place for people to be creative and let their minds run wild."

LISA GRAY - 11

Wondering why people get involved in The Ravine? Well junior Lisa Gray tells us why she joined the team. "I love the journalist writing style, and I love Mrs. Riegel and the class atmosphere."

JARED STRAYER - 11

In filming the WKHS news, no one's perfect. Junior Jared Strayer shares his favorite blooper. "Chris Andreas messed up and started dancing on the 50 yard line on the OSU practice field after interviewing Kyle Turano."

BRITNEY ANDREAS - 12

Student mediation is a great club for learning how to care for others. "Student mediation taught me to be respectful and caring of my friends and classmates feelings." It is a peaceful way to solve a situation.

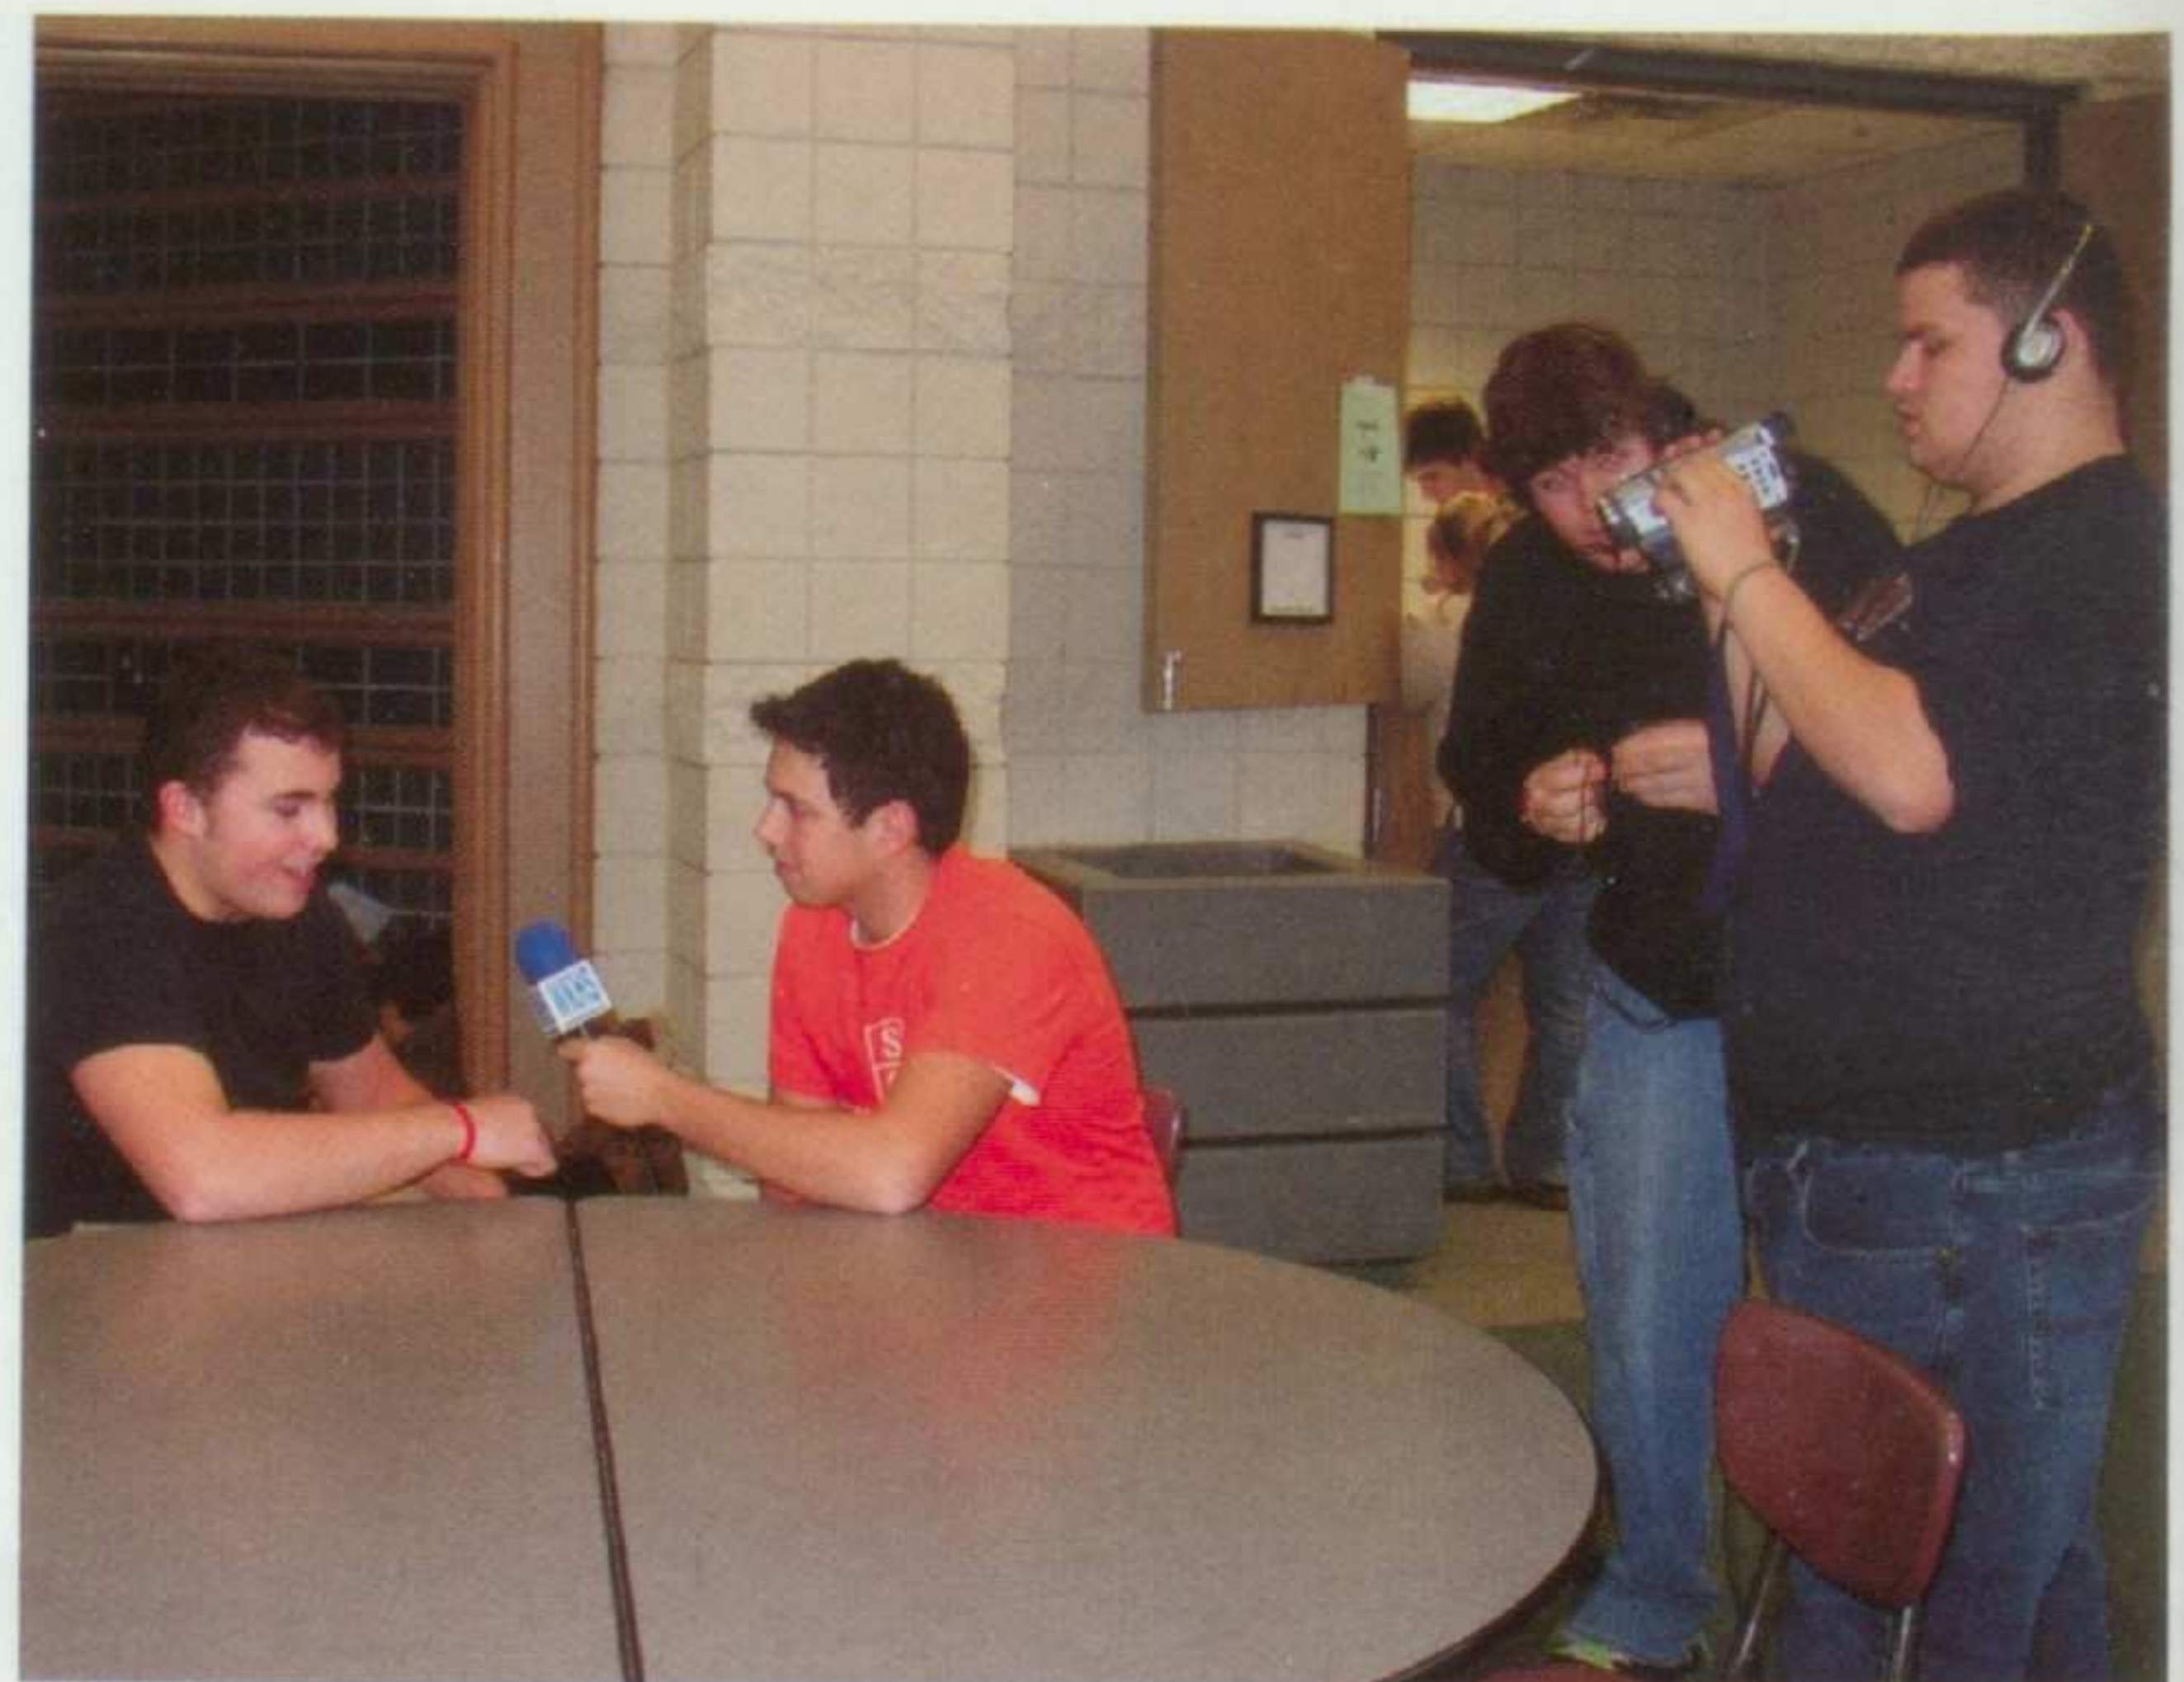

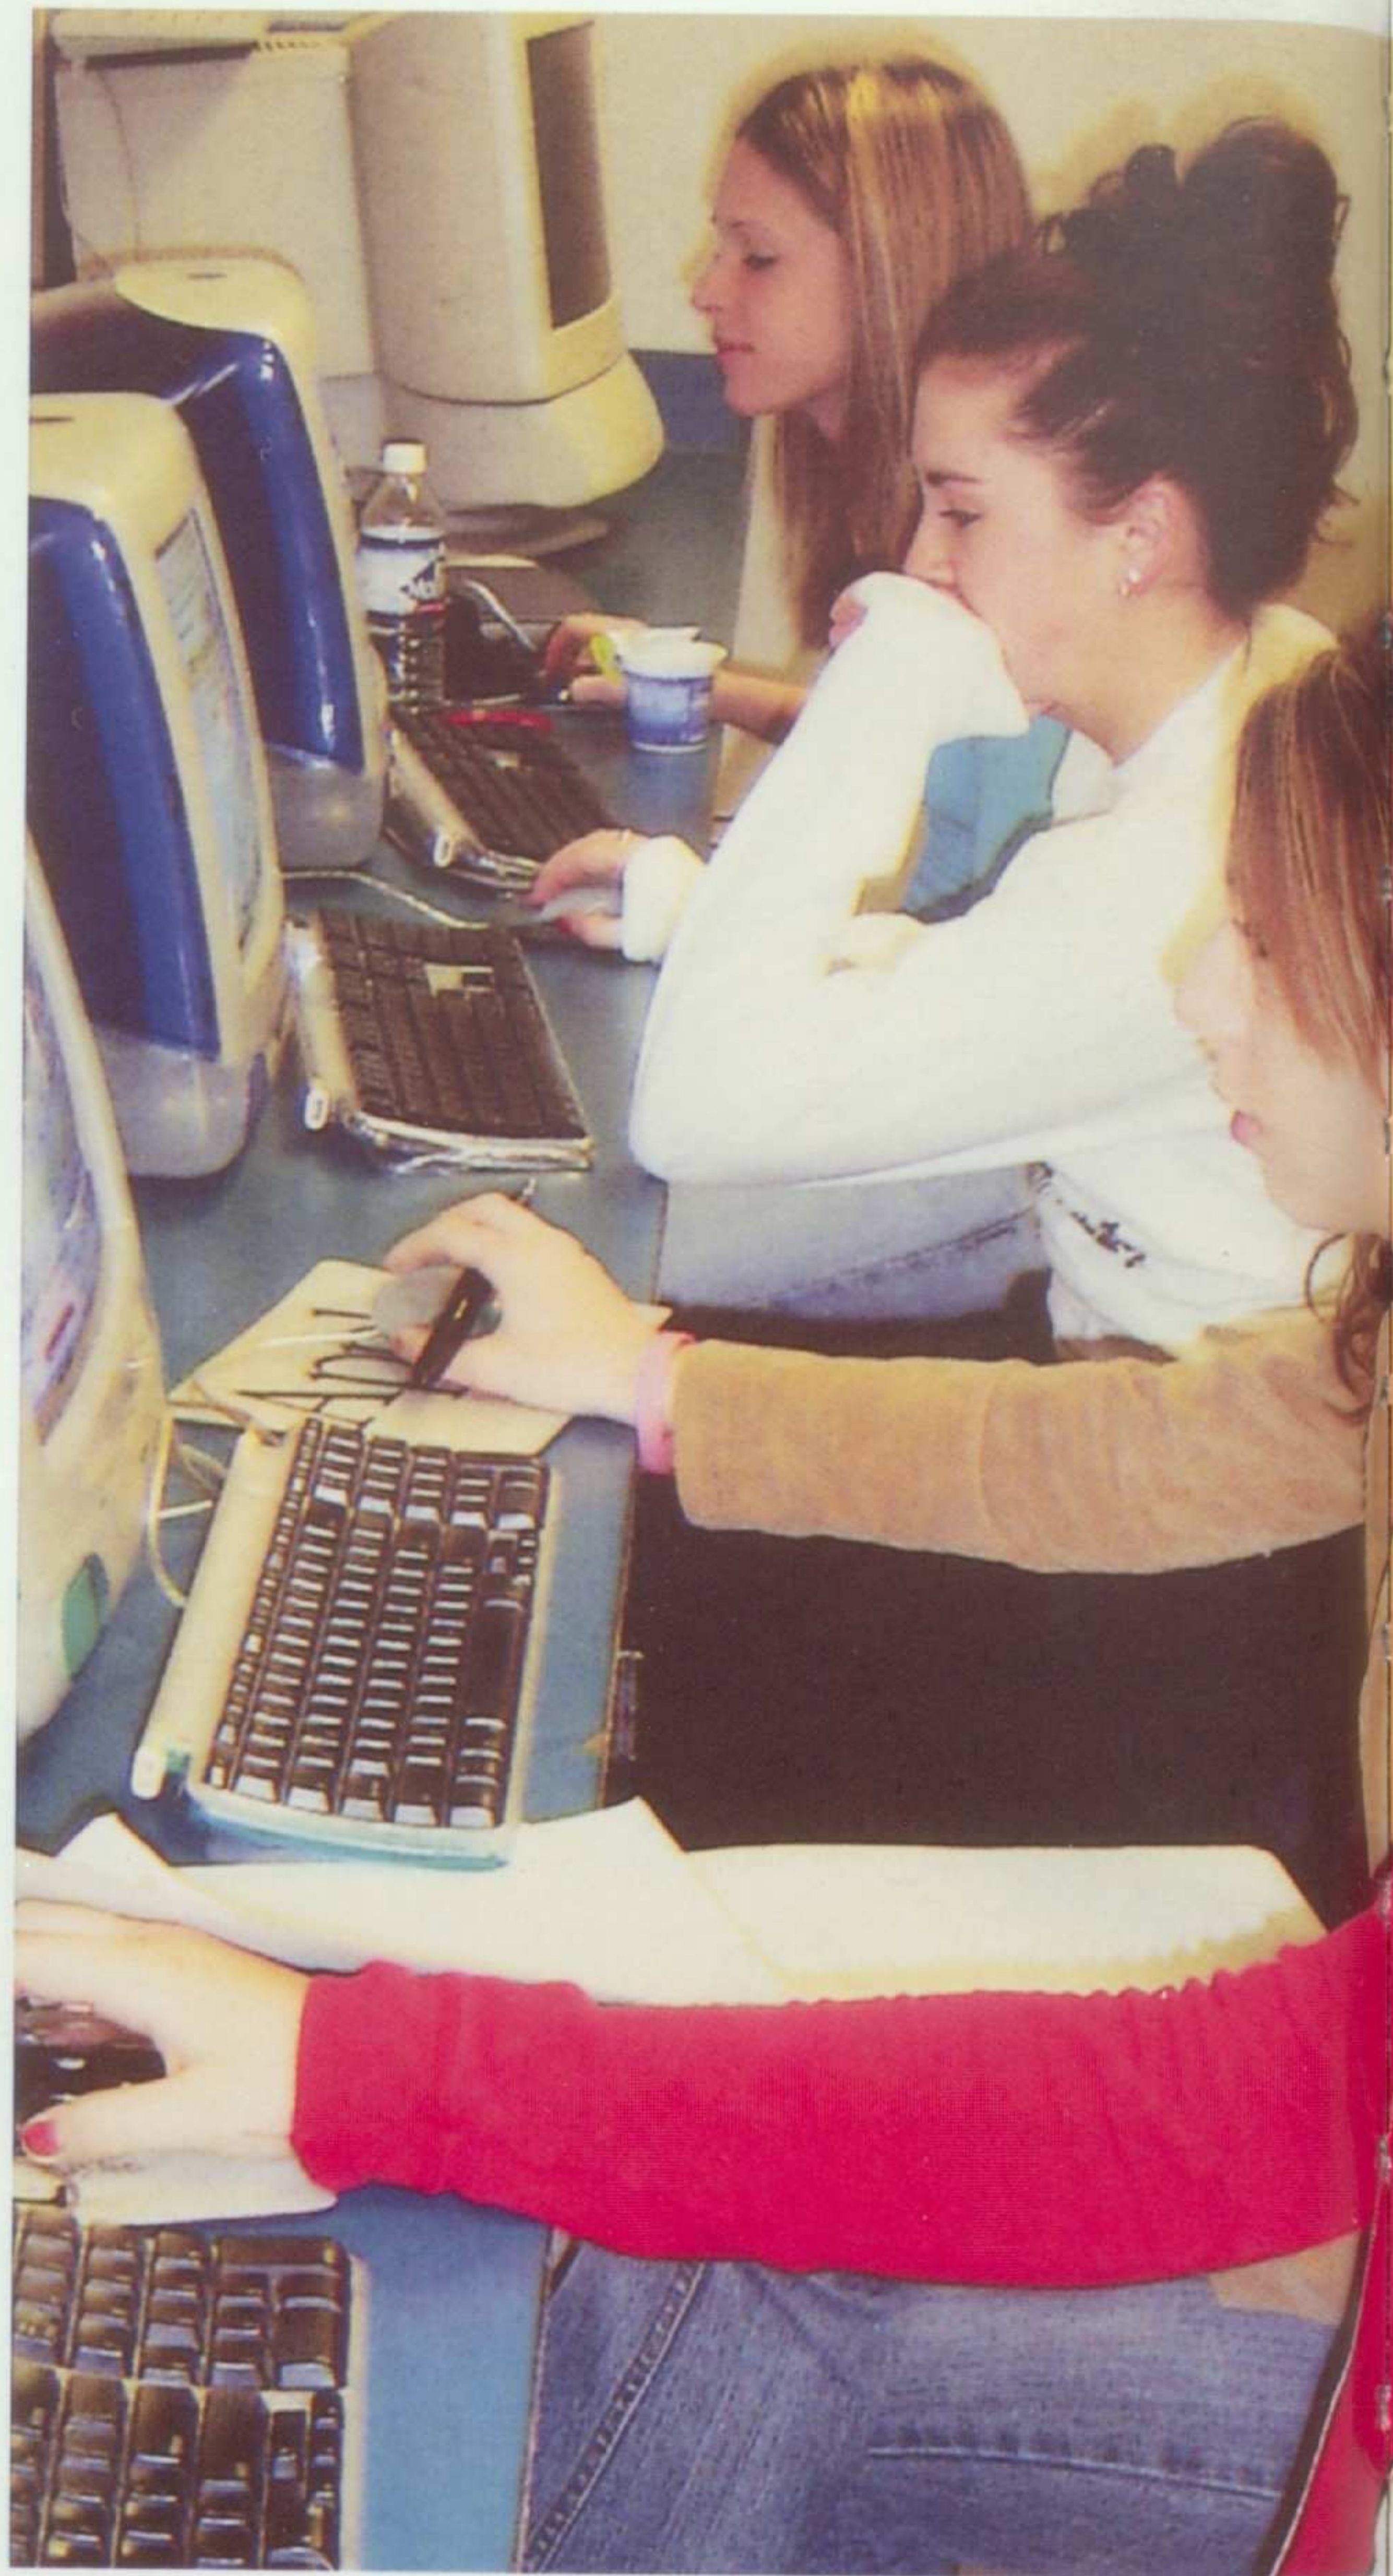

AMANDA BLACKWELL - 12

The best event of the year for the sign language club was the ice cream social. "We had a huge SILENT ice cream social. Everyone had to use the signs they learned to communicate with each other."

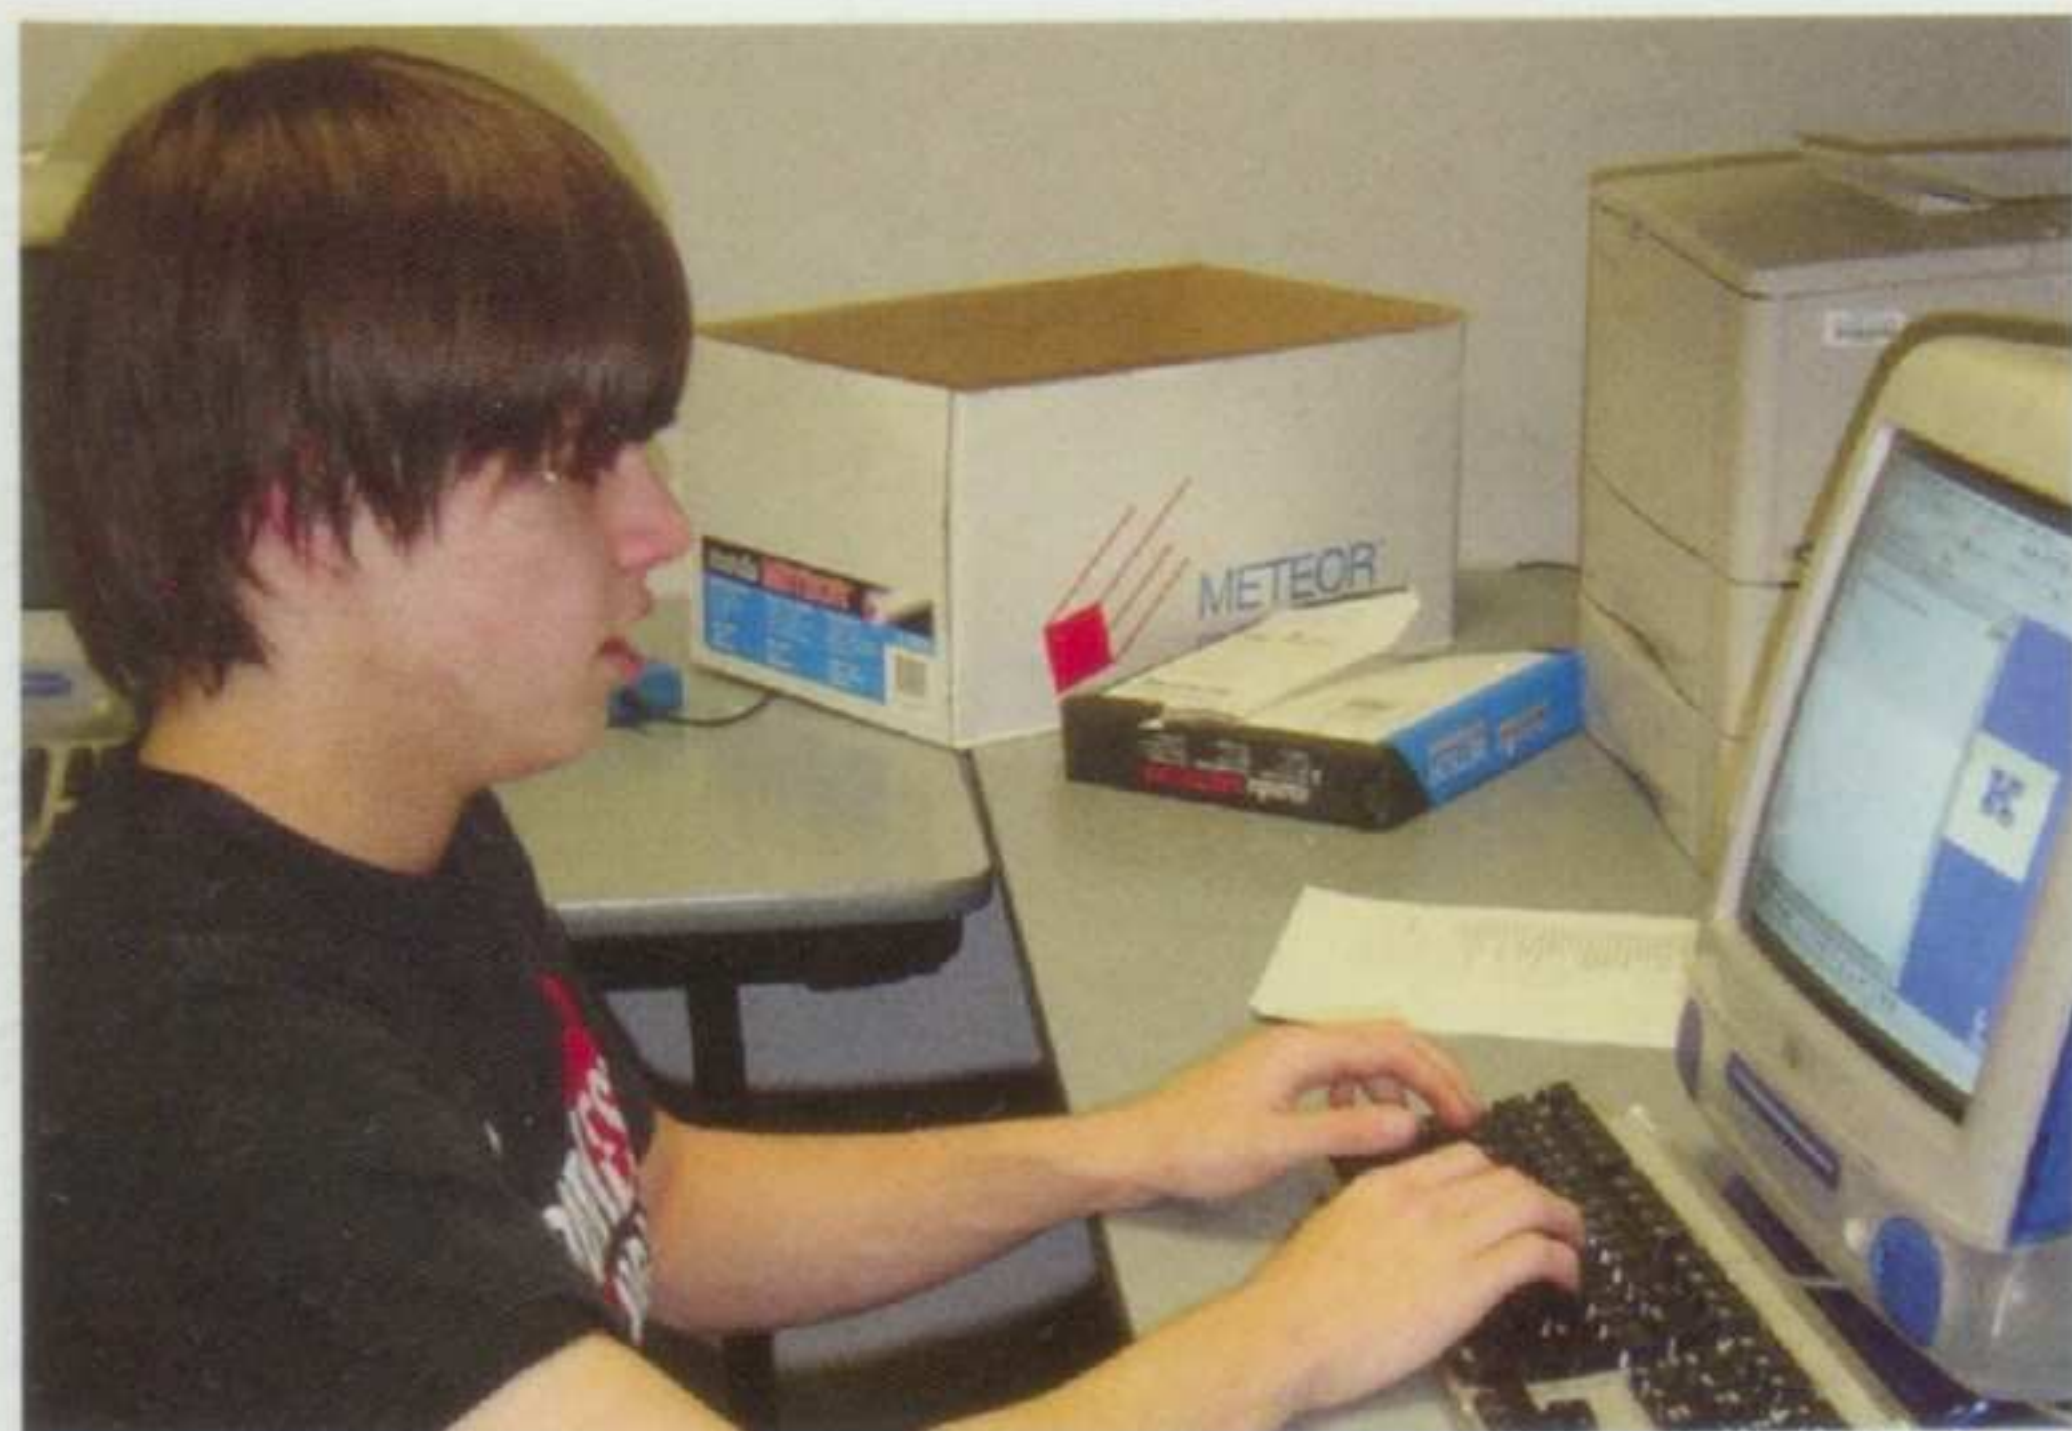

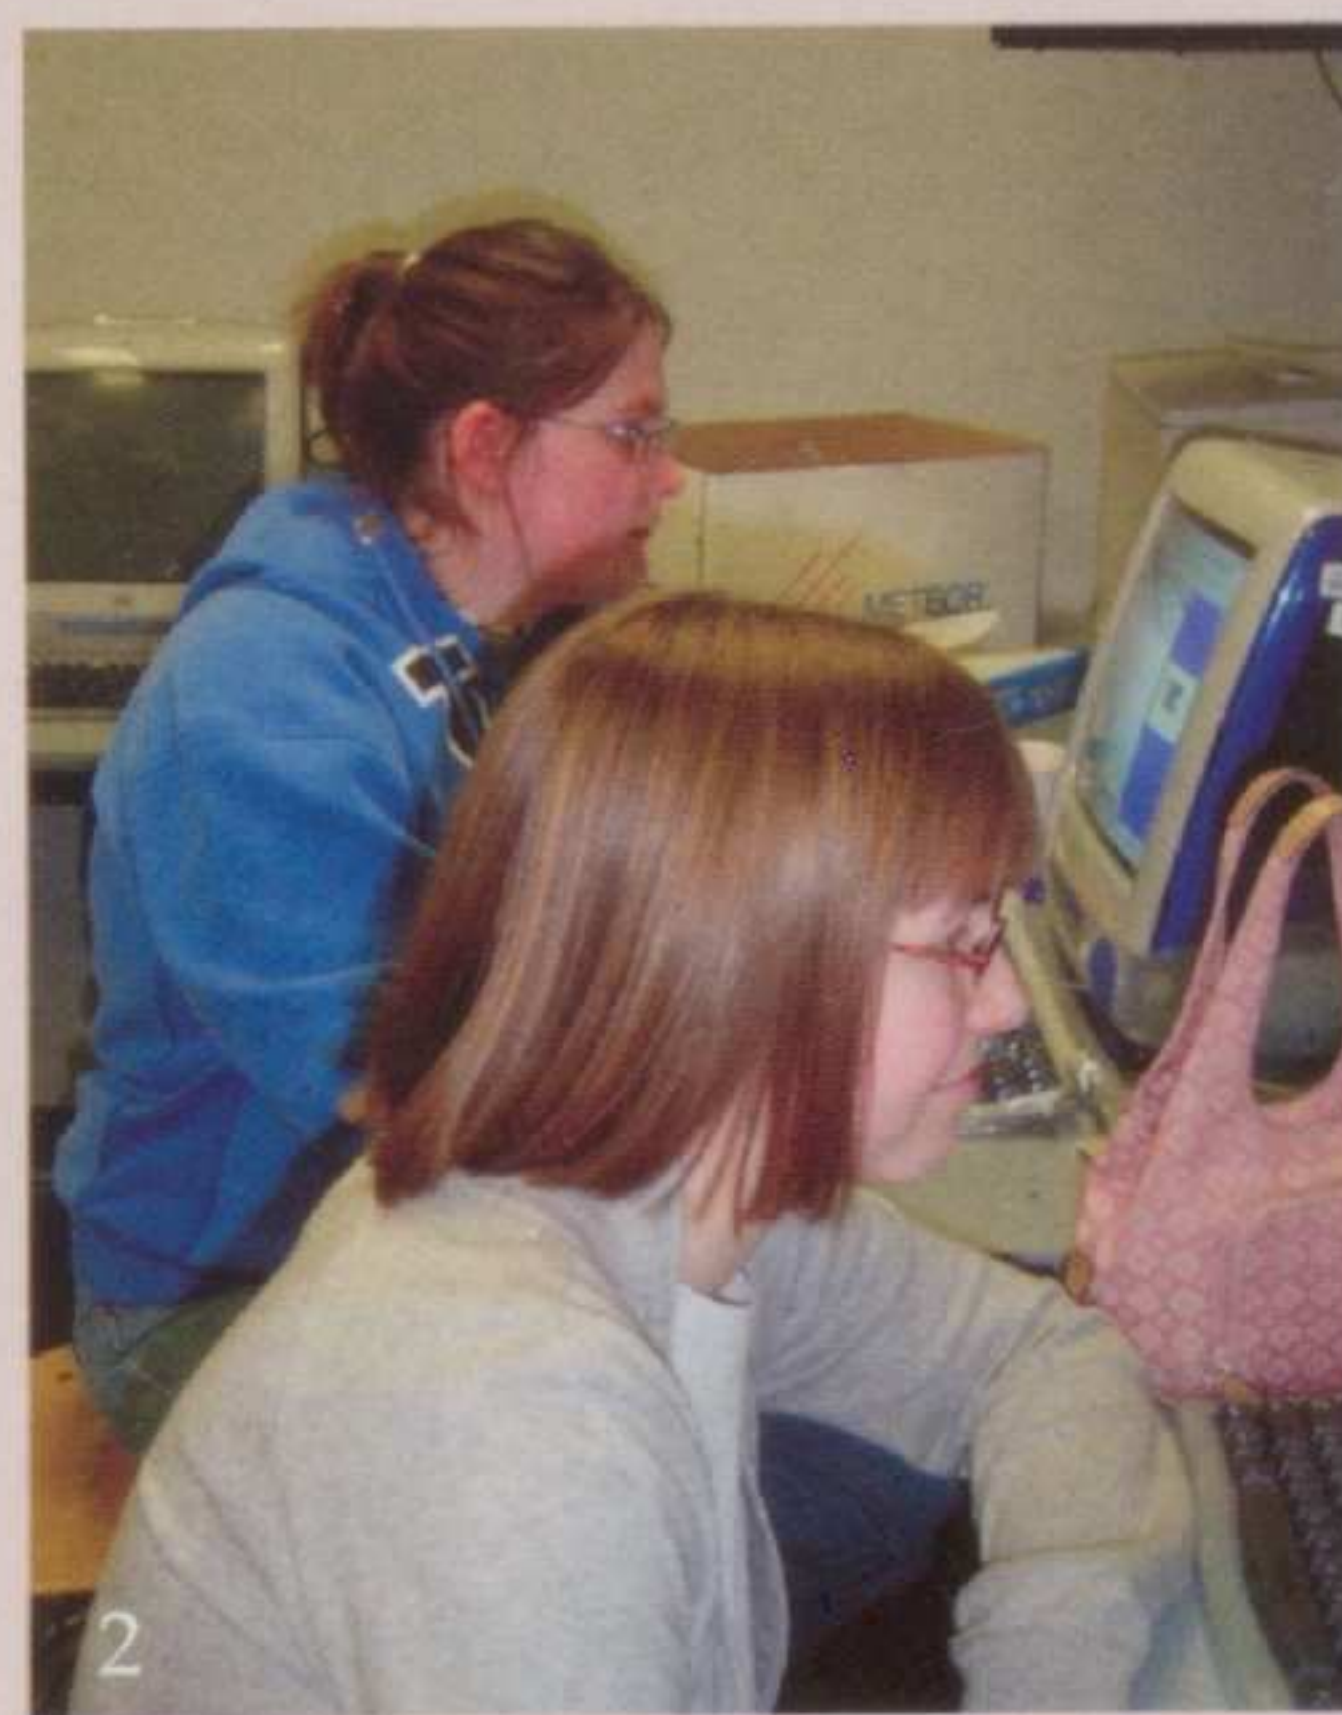

The seniors from the morning yearbook class, Carly Hilliard, Tiffany Harrison, Gina Forte, and Kelly Tobey, are working hard to finish the pages. One of the best outcomes of yearbook is that students learn publishing skills that they can use later in life. Some former yearbook students have joined college staffs and been paid for their expertise.

I Spy...

With my little eye, a group of people working hard to get the inside scoop.

Working hard to meet the Ravine deadline is senior Kyle Reese. He is trying to finish the year with a big bang.

Senior Scott Gustafson is asking junior Mike Vandewalle a couple of questions, while sophomore Harrison Watkins video tapes them for the WKHS news.

1 The afternoon yearbook staff is working hard to meet their deadlines to create the best yearbook yet.

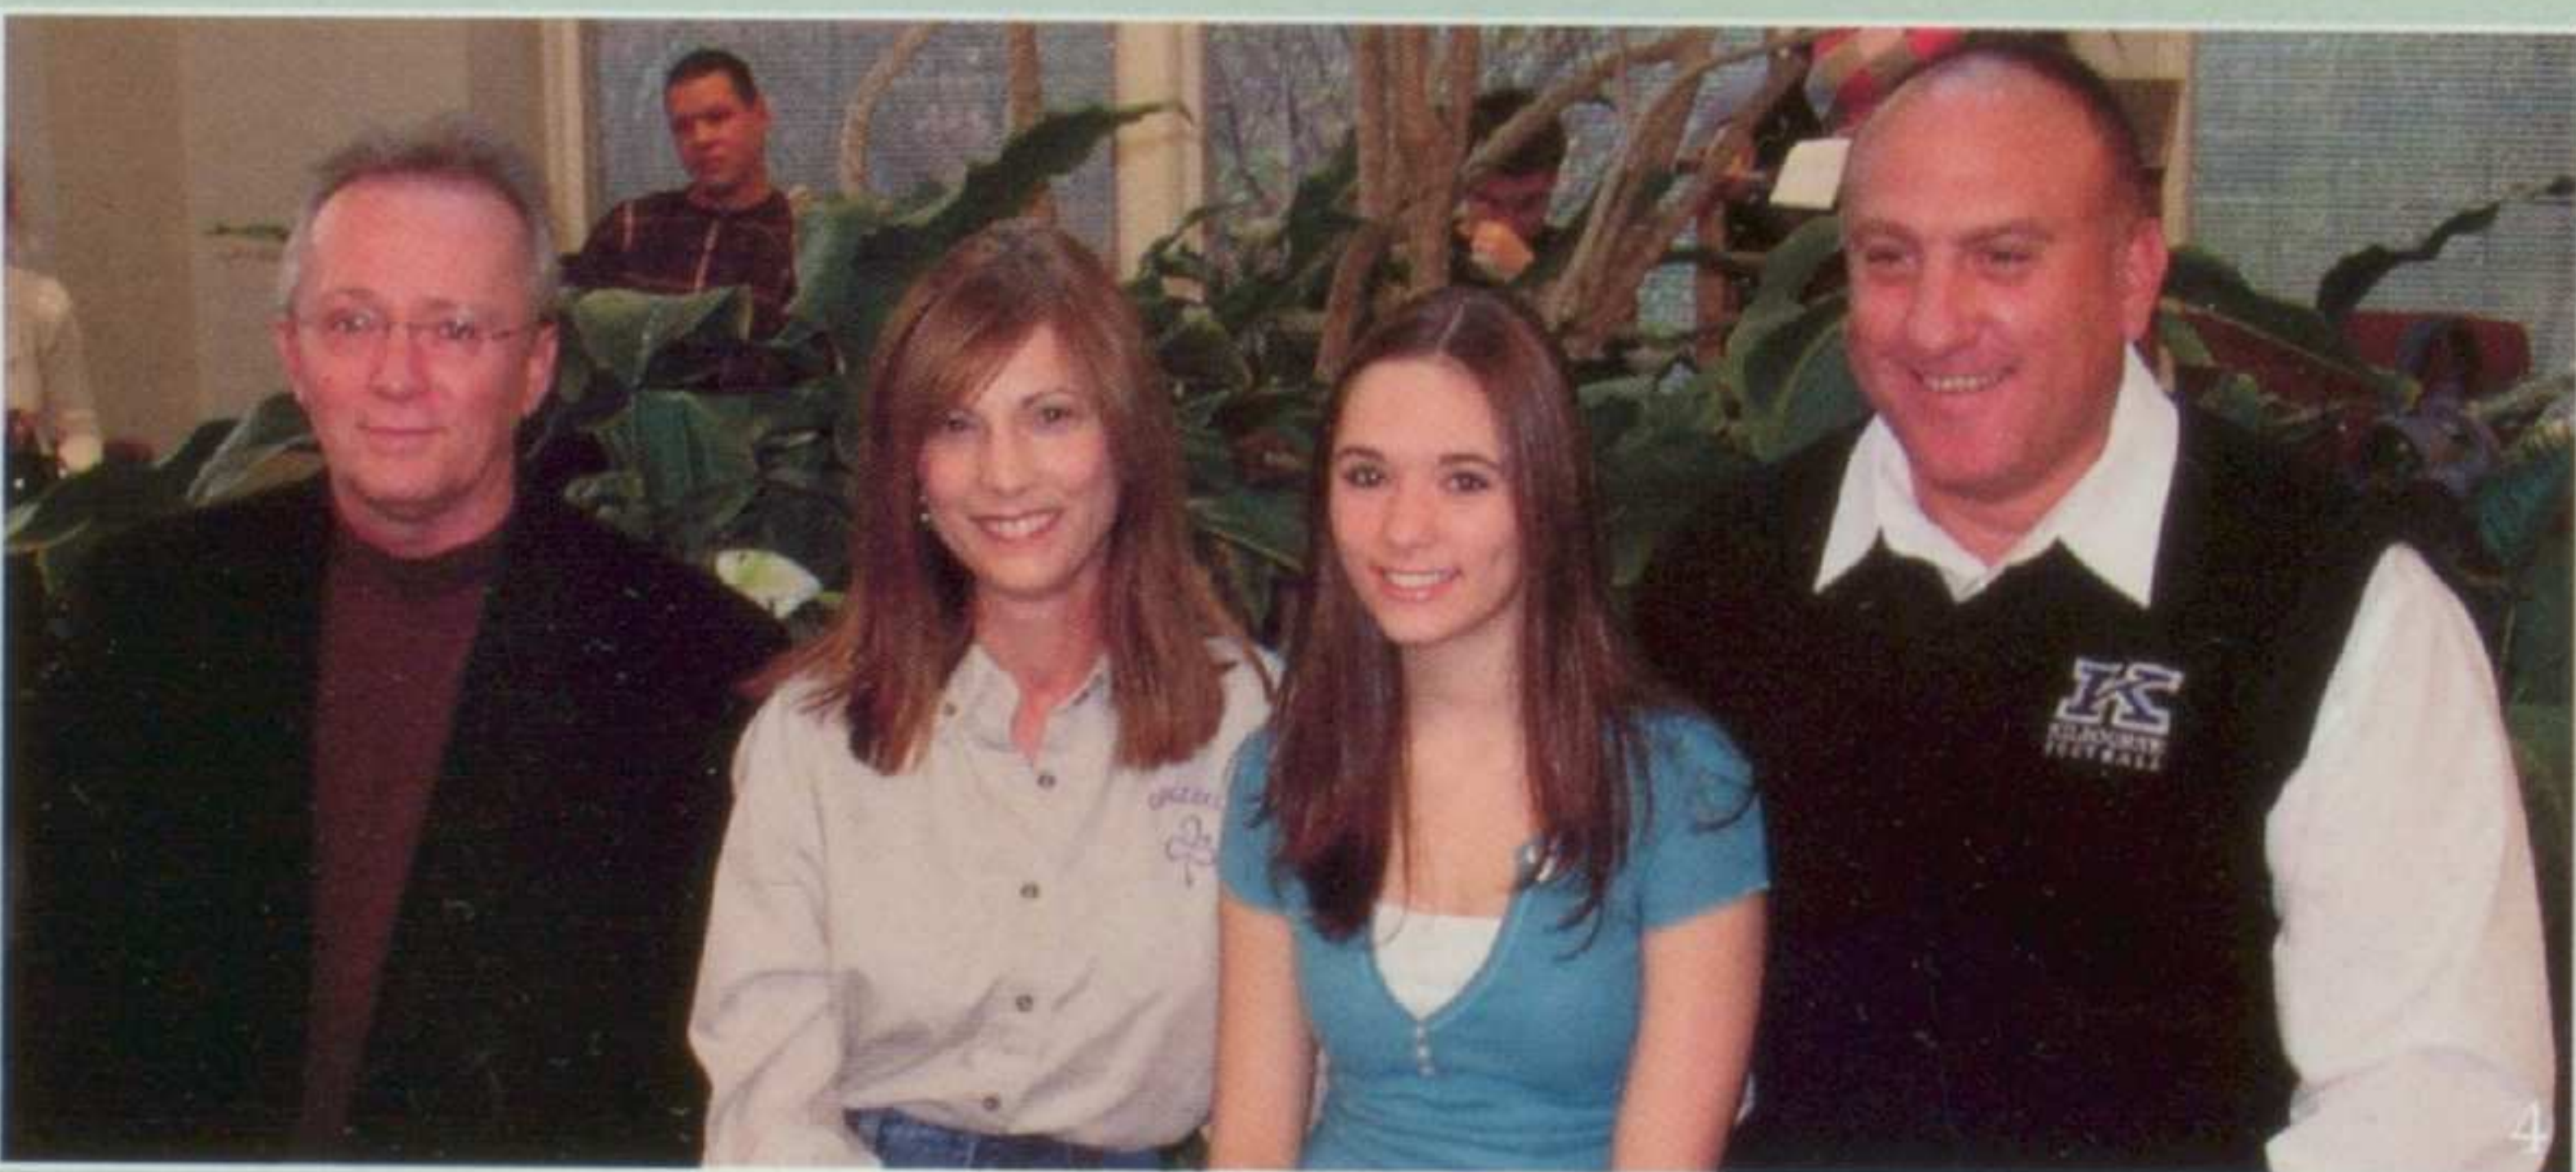

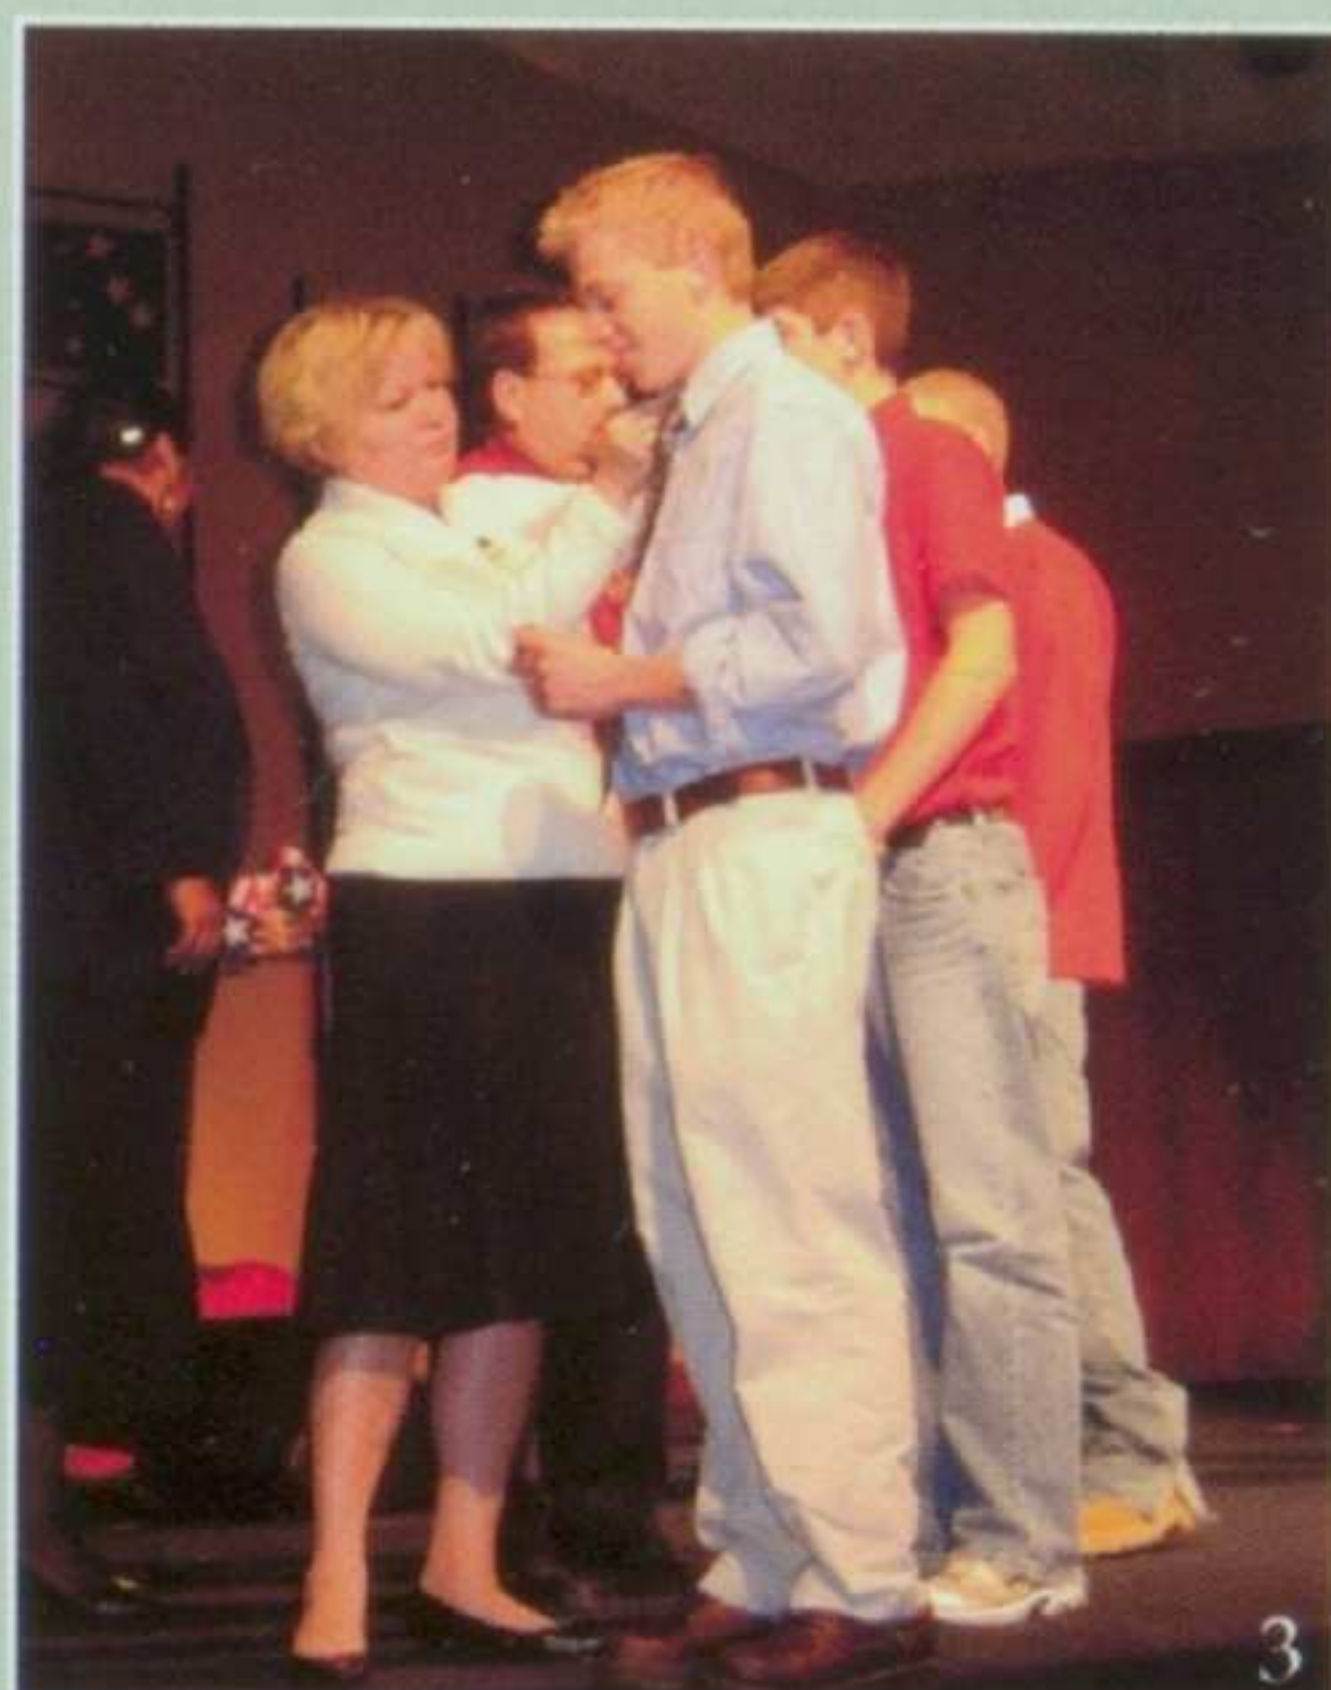

2 Helping students publish their work in the Worthington paper are juniors Brittany Baker and Anne McFarlane.

3 Student mediation members, (front row) Grace Hwang, Saduf Ullah, (row 2) Shanna Rute, Lauren Jensen, and Becca Ewing, raised money for the Tsunami relief by selling ribbons.

4 Trying to teach senior Courtney Vozenilek how to sign the letter K is junior Emma Parker.

Boggle...

Finding the right words to describe the leadership and talent of these stellar students is difficult.

1 Accepting her pin proudly, Allie Veith was nominated as Student-of-the-Month by Ms. Langer.

3 Receiving an award at a Socratic Society ceremony from counselor Kristy Smith is Mike DiBartola.

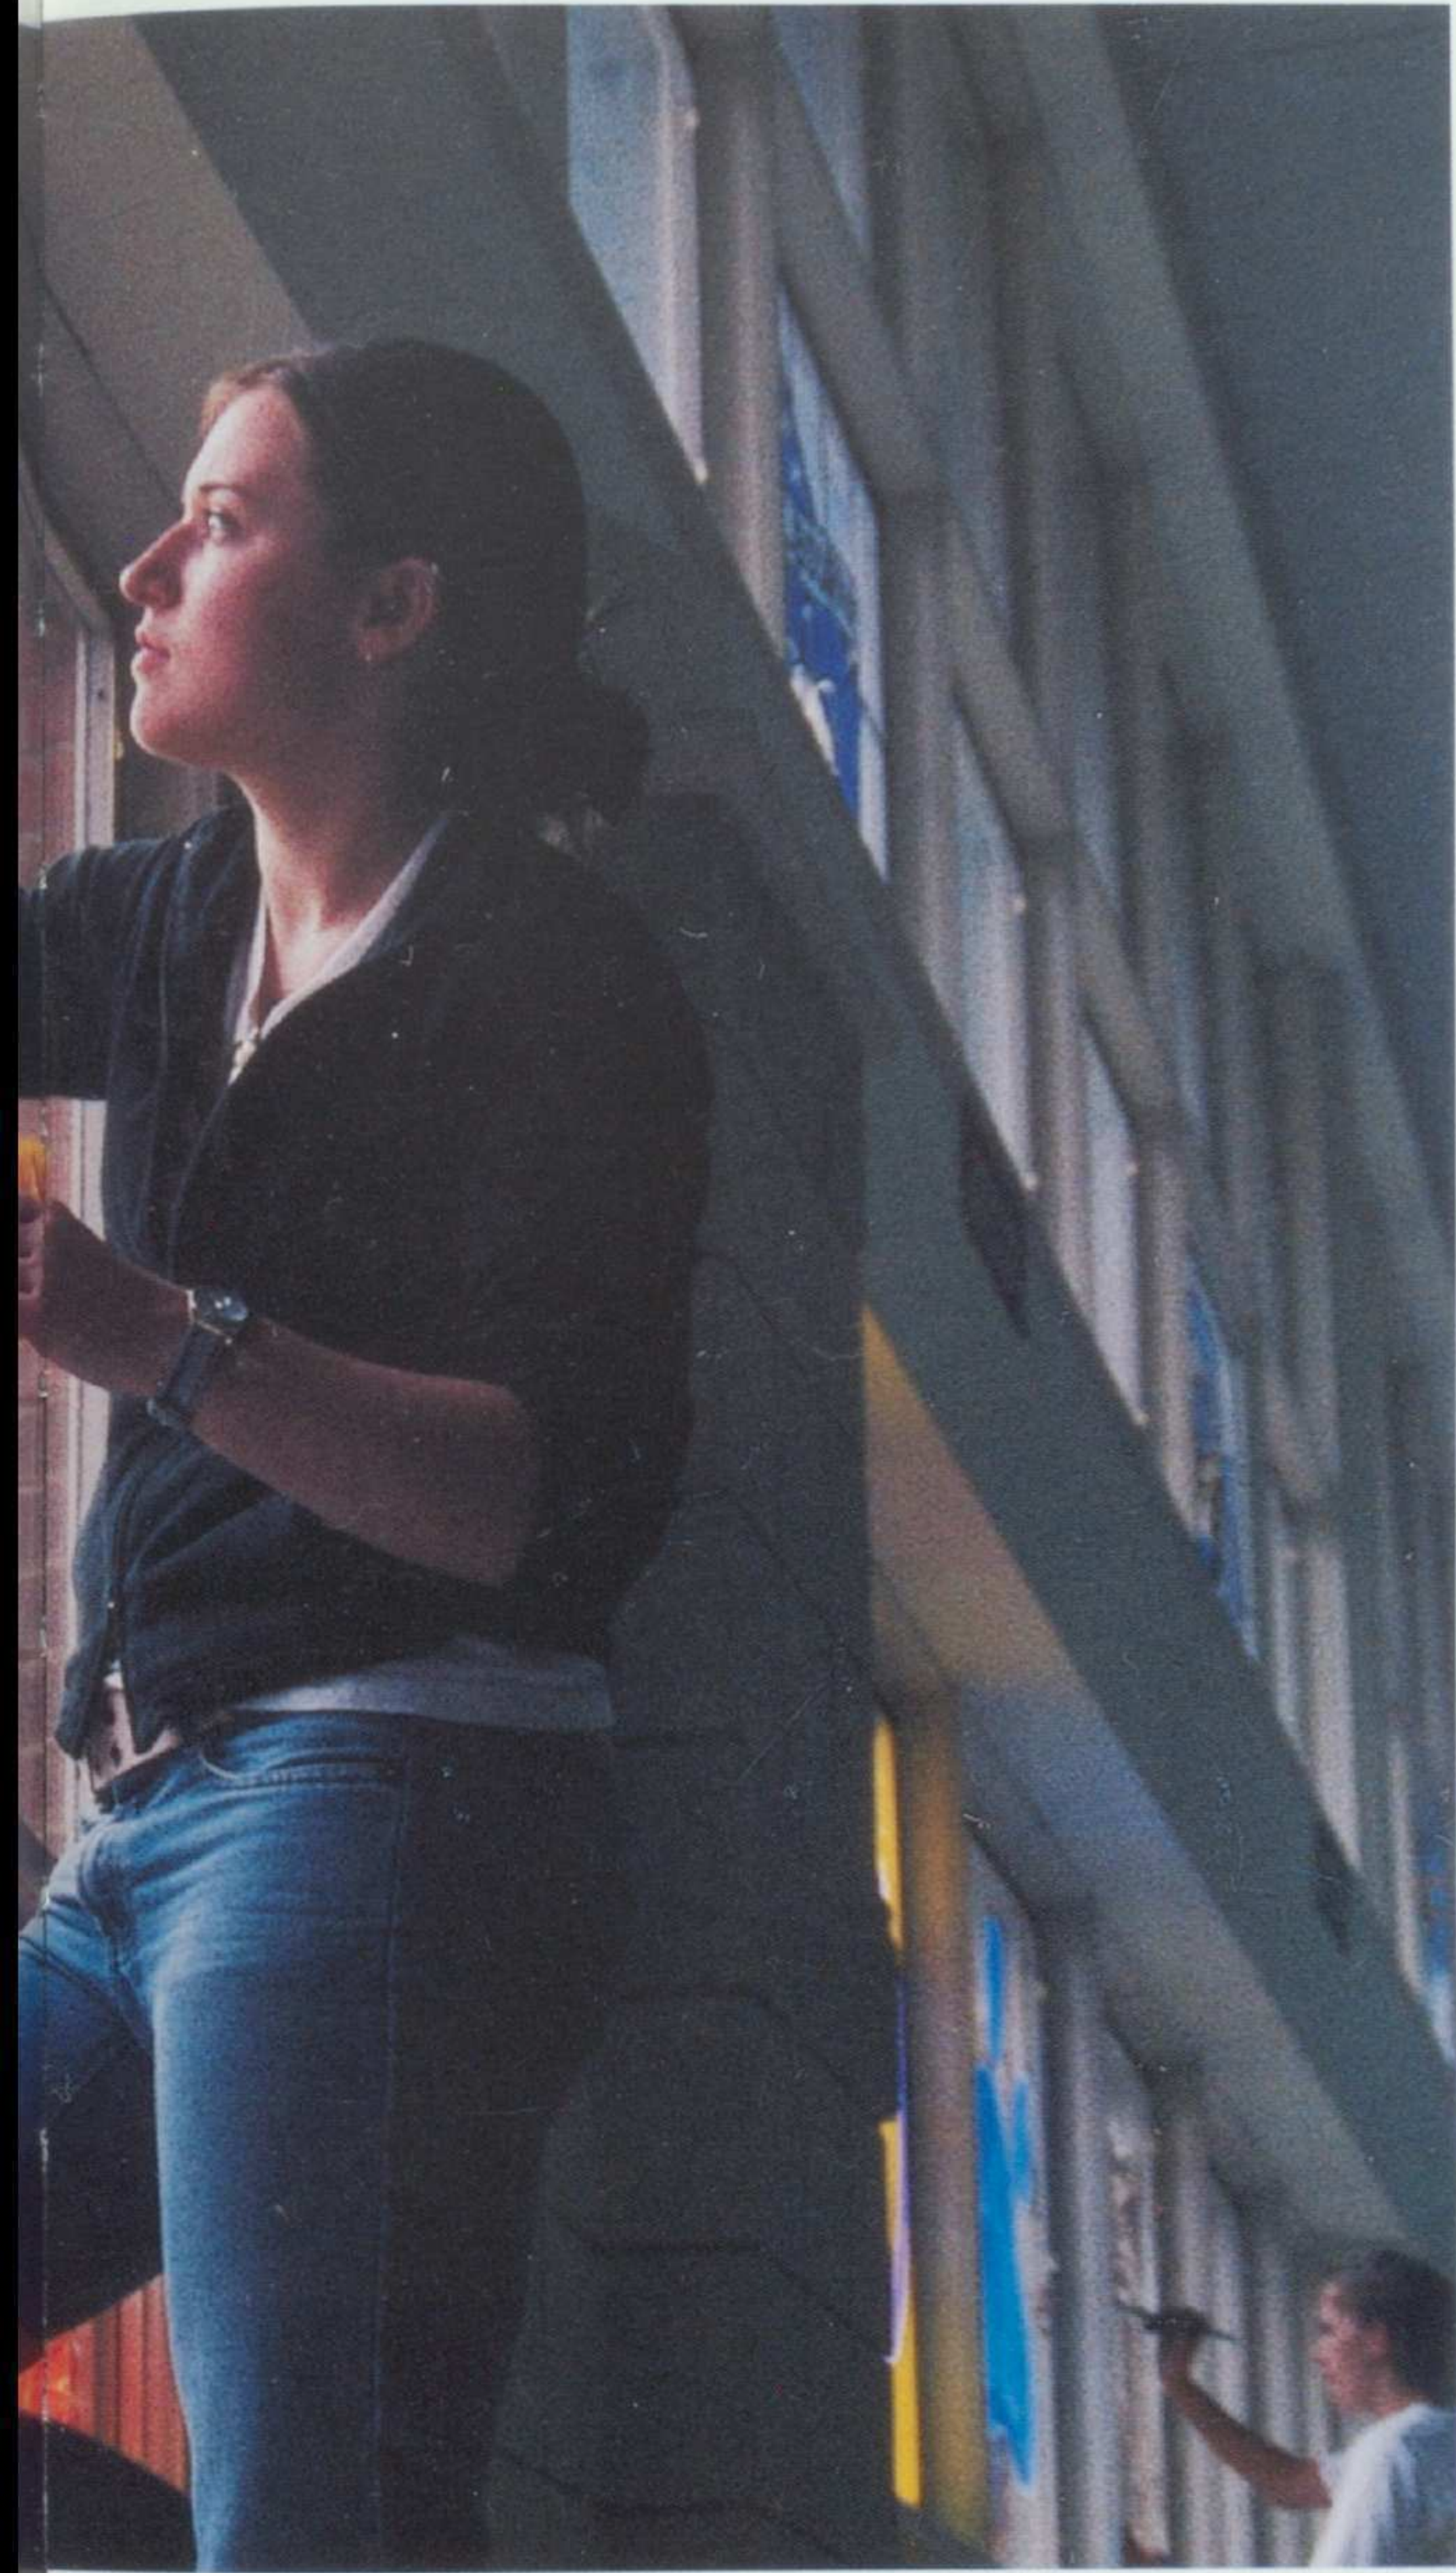

2 Shaking hands with Ed Dunaway is Andy Campbell at the National Honor Society induction.

4 After accepting an award for Student-of-the-Month, Sarah Simpson along with Mr. Trombetti and her family celebrate.

Previous to the pinning ceremony, Joe Emberger plays the saxophone at the Socratic Society induction.

During the canned food drive, Allie Veith, Teresa Zuniga, and Kristin Gunter organize the cans while hoping their classmates have collected the most.

During the week before homecoming, students in each of the graduation classes work hard to show off their painting skills. Pam Skehan creates a window that she hopes will win points for her class in the spirit competition.

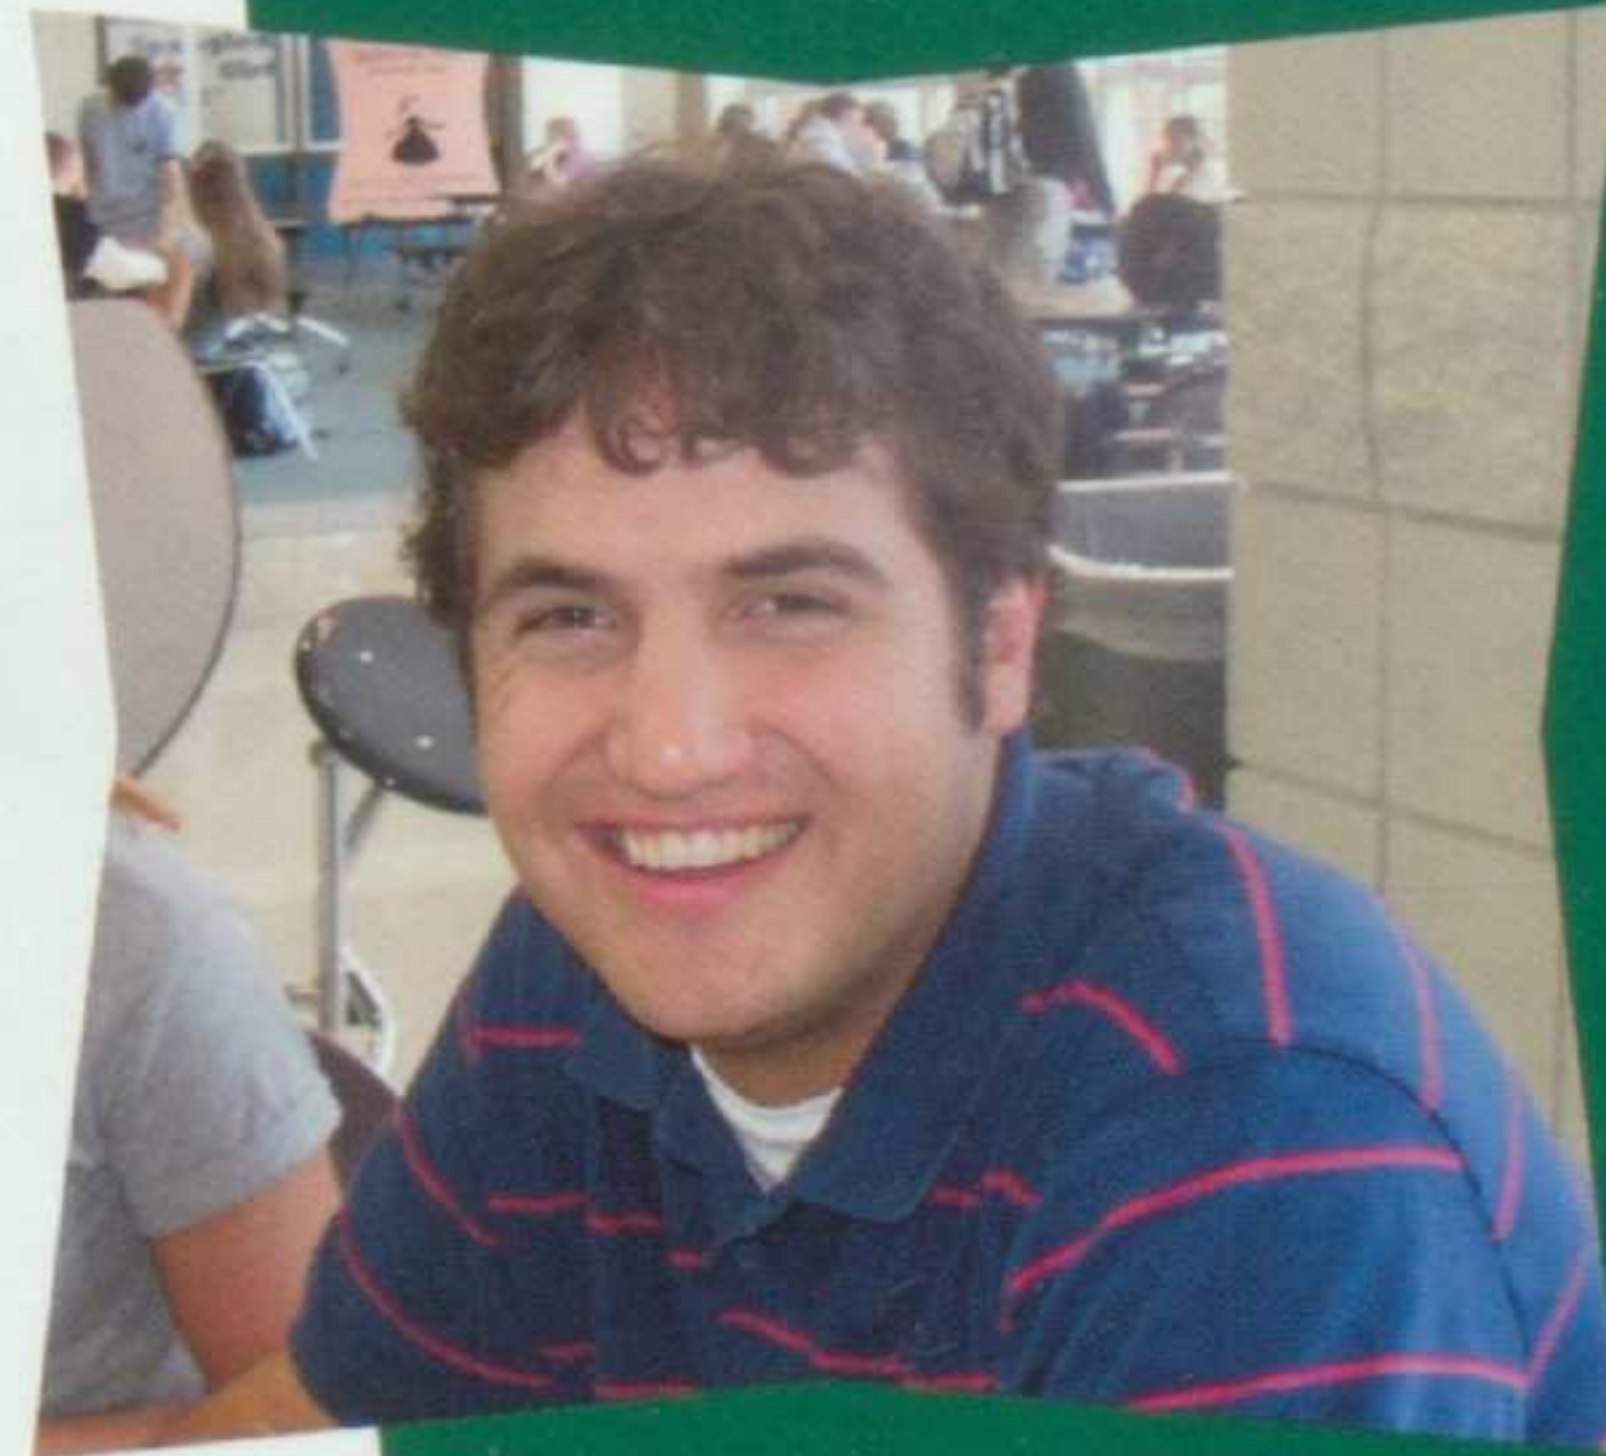

NICK BLAZAKIS - 11

"Learning German has been part of my great and wonderful high school career."

ASHLEY DAWSON - 11

"Being part of Spanish Club has been an honor here at Worthington Kilbourne."

TJ FRJES - 11

"Latin has been very beneficial to take since it's the basis of most languages."

CORY KENY - 10

"I enjoy French because it's the language of love and helps me get all the ladies"

EMILY NOLAN - 11

Sitting proudly in the Kilbourne library is Emily as she accepts her award for Student-of-the-Month for November along with her mother and Mrs. Foreman who nominated her.

Telling fellow classmates Alex Noble and Claire Durkin about her experience, Allison Bowman describes her senior project at the Columbus Dance Arts Academy.

Catching the eyes of Alex Hettinger, Alyssa Gliatas, Pat Koenig, and C.J. Hartman, Caryn Manchester elaborates on her experience at UrbanConnections, a resource center near the east side.

Sharing her thoughts with Ashley Anderson, Kelsey Seiple insists she learned more about nursing at Mount Carmel.

Senior project gives students a chance to get out of the school for the entire month of May and do something that they believe is interesting. Chris Gerke did just that by interning at Rycus Assoc. Photography, Inc.

Pointing out objects on her board to Nick Adamescu, Jasmine Blake explains her senior project at McCord Middle School. She spent her time with Troy Combs, a Spanish teacher.

As the day goes on, Samantha Brudzinski, who interned at Arhaus Furniture, looks over Harmeet Moti to learn about her senior project at the OSU Outpatient and Diagnostics Clinic.

All that is left are the finishing touches! As the year comes to an end, the class completes the house. The only thing left for the students to do is clean up the site! Good job, guys!

Construction isn't all hard work. Megan Boggs and Lindsey Kelley are obviously having fun!

Taking a break from a hard day of work are Brandon Welsh, Nick Baehr, and Kevin Holz. They don't look too tired!

Standing back and looking at their hardiwork. HomeBASE students begin to see the house form. The frame of the bottom floor is almost finished, and soon they'll start the second story.

On Sunday, June 5th, 415 seniors from Worthington Kilbourne walked across the stage at Schottenstein Center to receive their diplomas. This day marked the end of a journey that they started four years ago. The ceremony included speeches by senior class president Megan Hasbrouck and student body president Nik Mahdi. Students chose teachers from schools all over the district to award them their diplomas. Good luck to everyone on the next step.

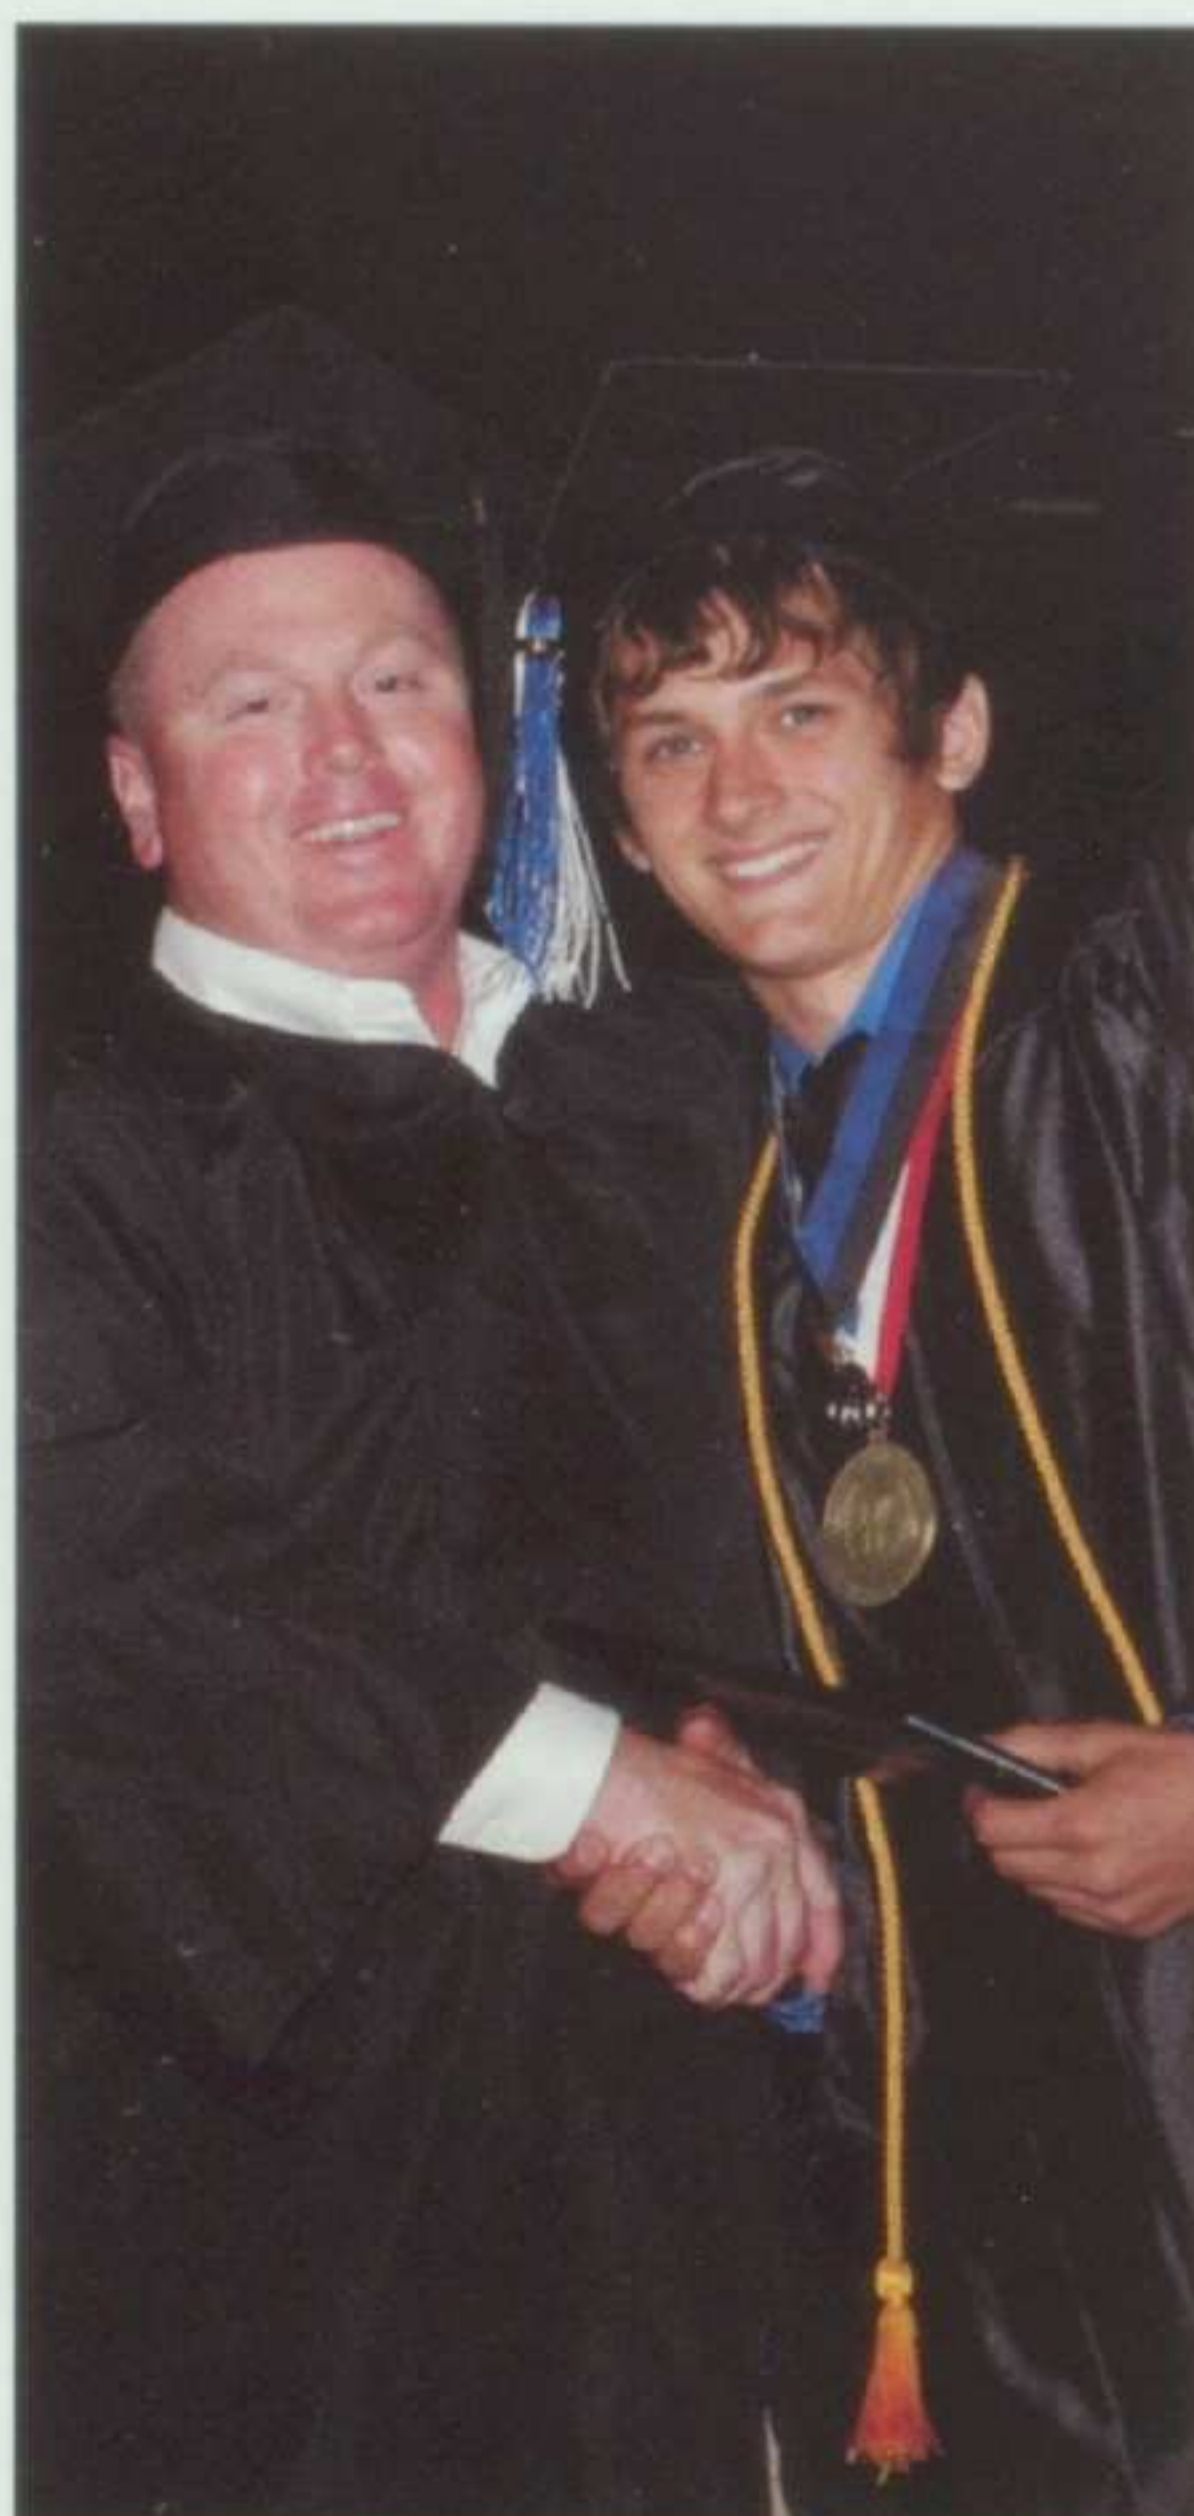

THERE IS A GOOD REASON THEY CALL THESE CEREMONIES "COMMENCEMENT"

"EXERCISES" ... BECAUSE GRADUATION IS NOT THE END; IT'S JUST THE BEGINNING. - ORRIN HATCH

Giving a diploma to another Linworth student Greg Martin, teacher-director Wayne Harvey congratulates him on a job well done.

Students and teachers are inducted into Worthington Kilbourne's Hall of Fame each year. This year's inductees are Bev Graves, Jeff Gafford, Nik Mahdi, Heidi Knoblock, and Mina Ananth, and Kelly Wegley.

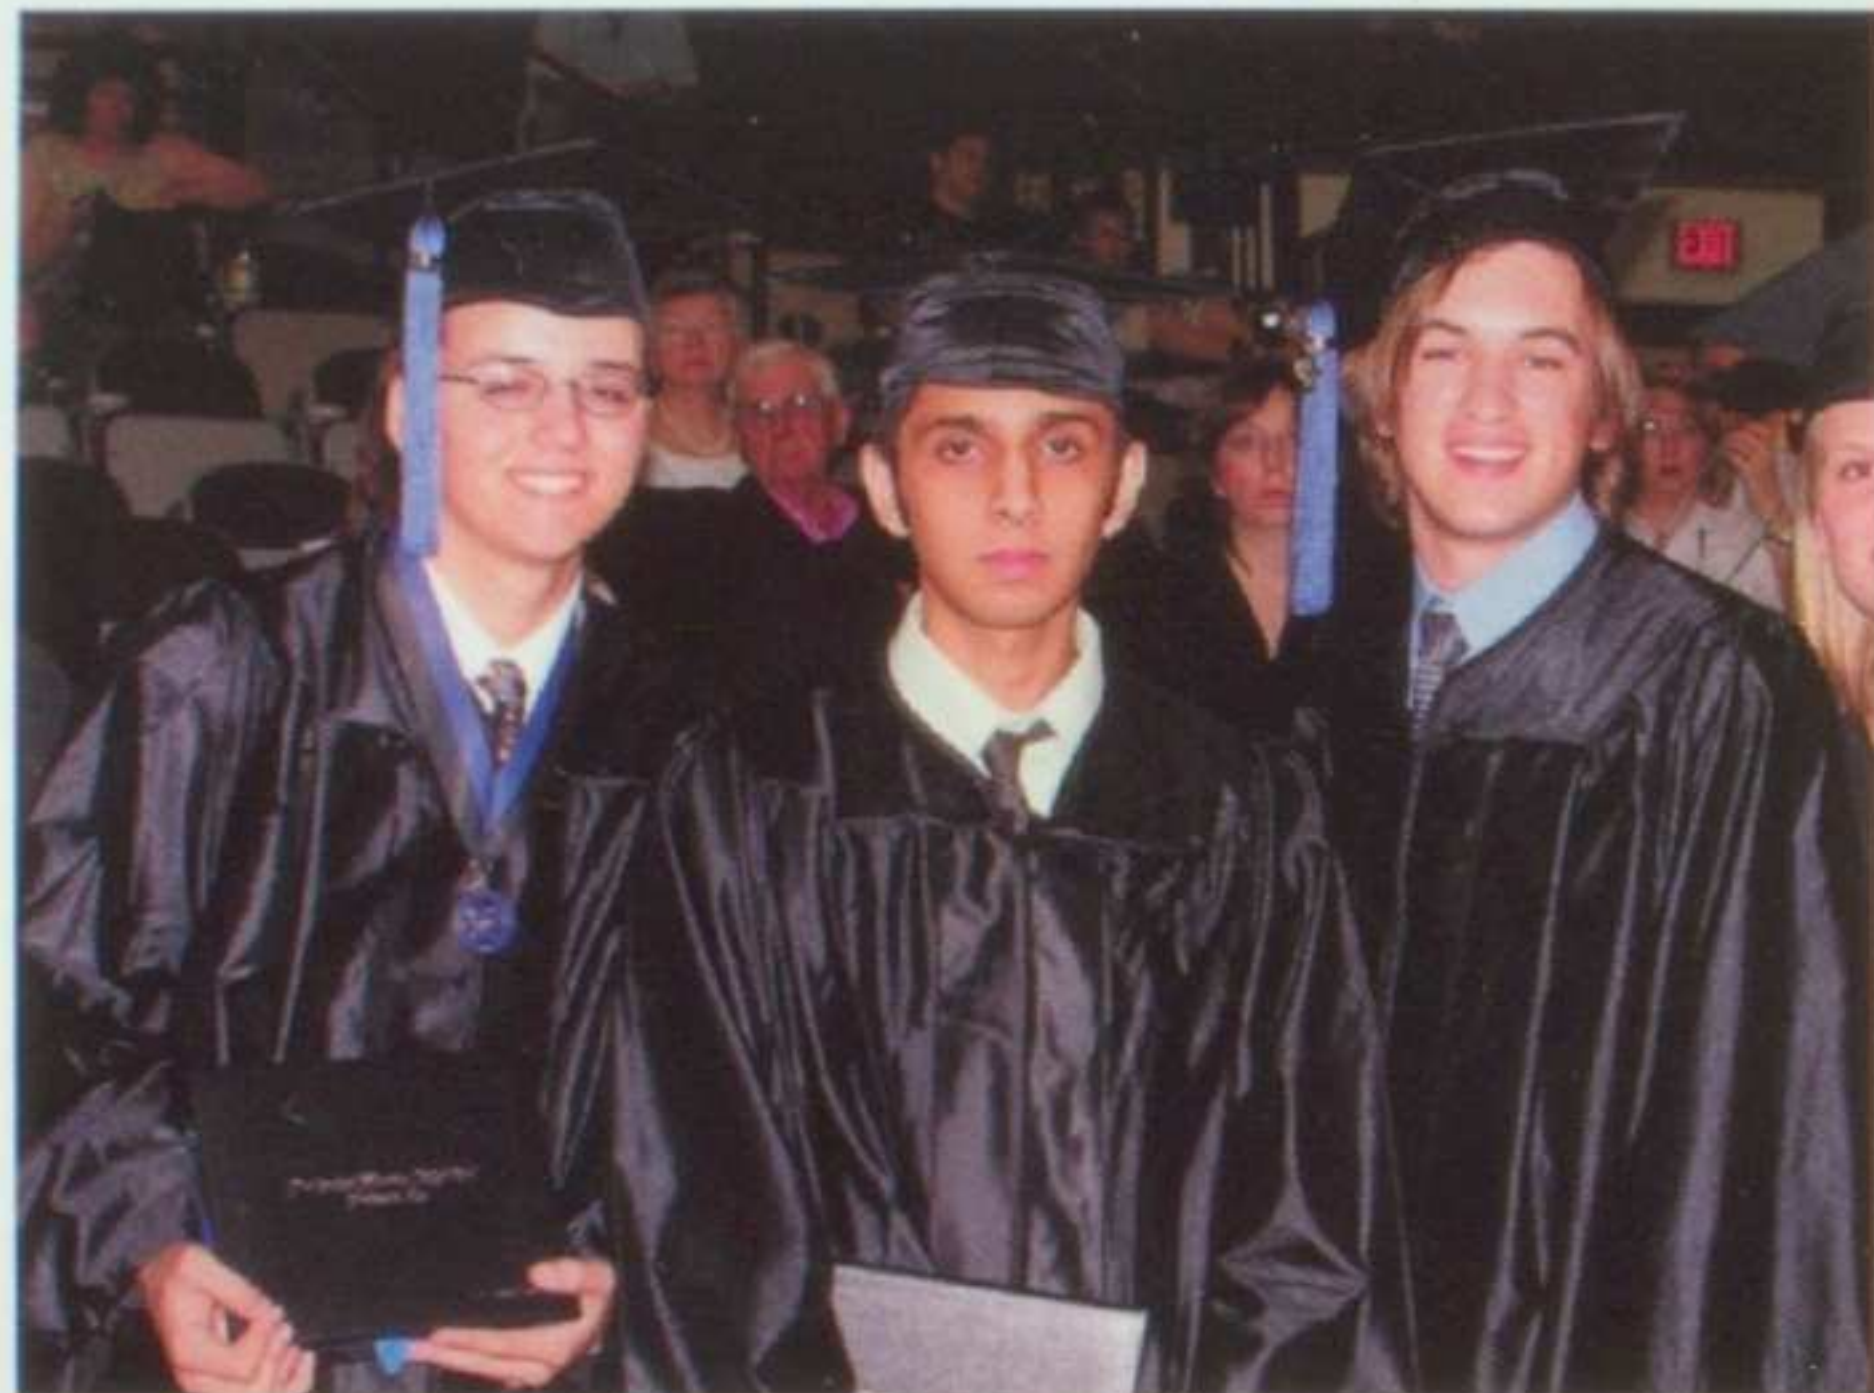

National Merit finalists Geoff Buller and Jennifer Duann receive a scholarship as a reward for being in the top percentile of SAT test takers.

Ready to receive her diploma from Latin teacher Christiane Baker, Chelsea Davis is pleased that her dedication has been rewarded by her designation as valedictorian.

Four years can bring people together, and this is no different for Doug Blake and Meg Thompson. Sad about leaving but ready to move on, these two grads show great promise in this world.

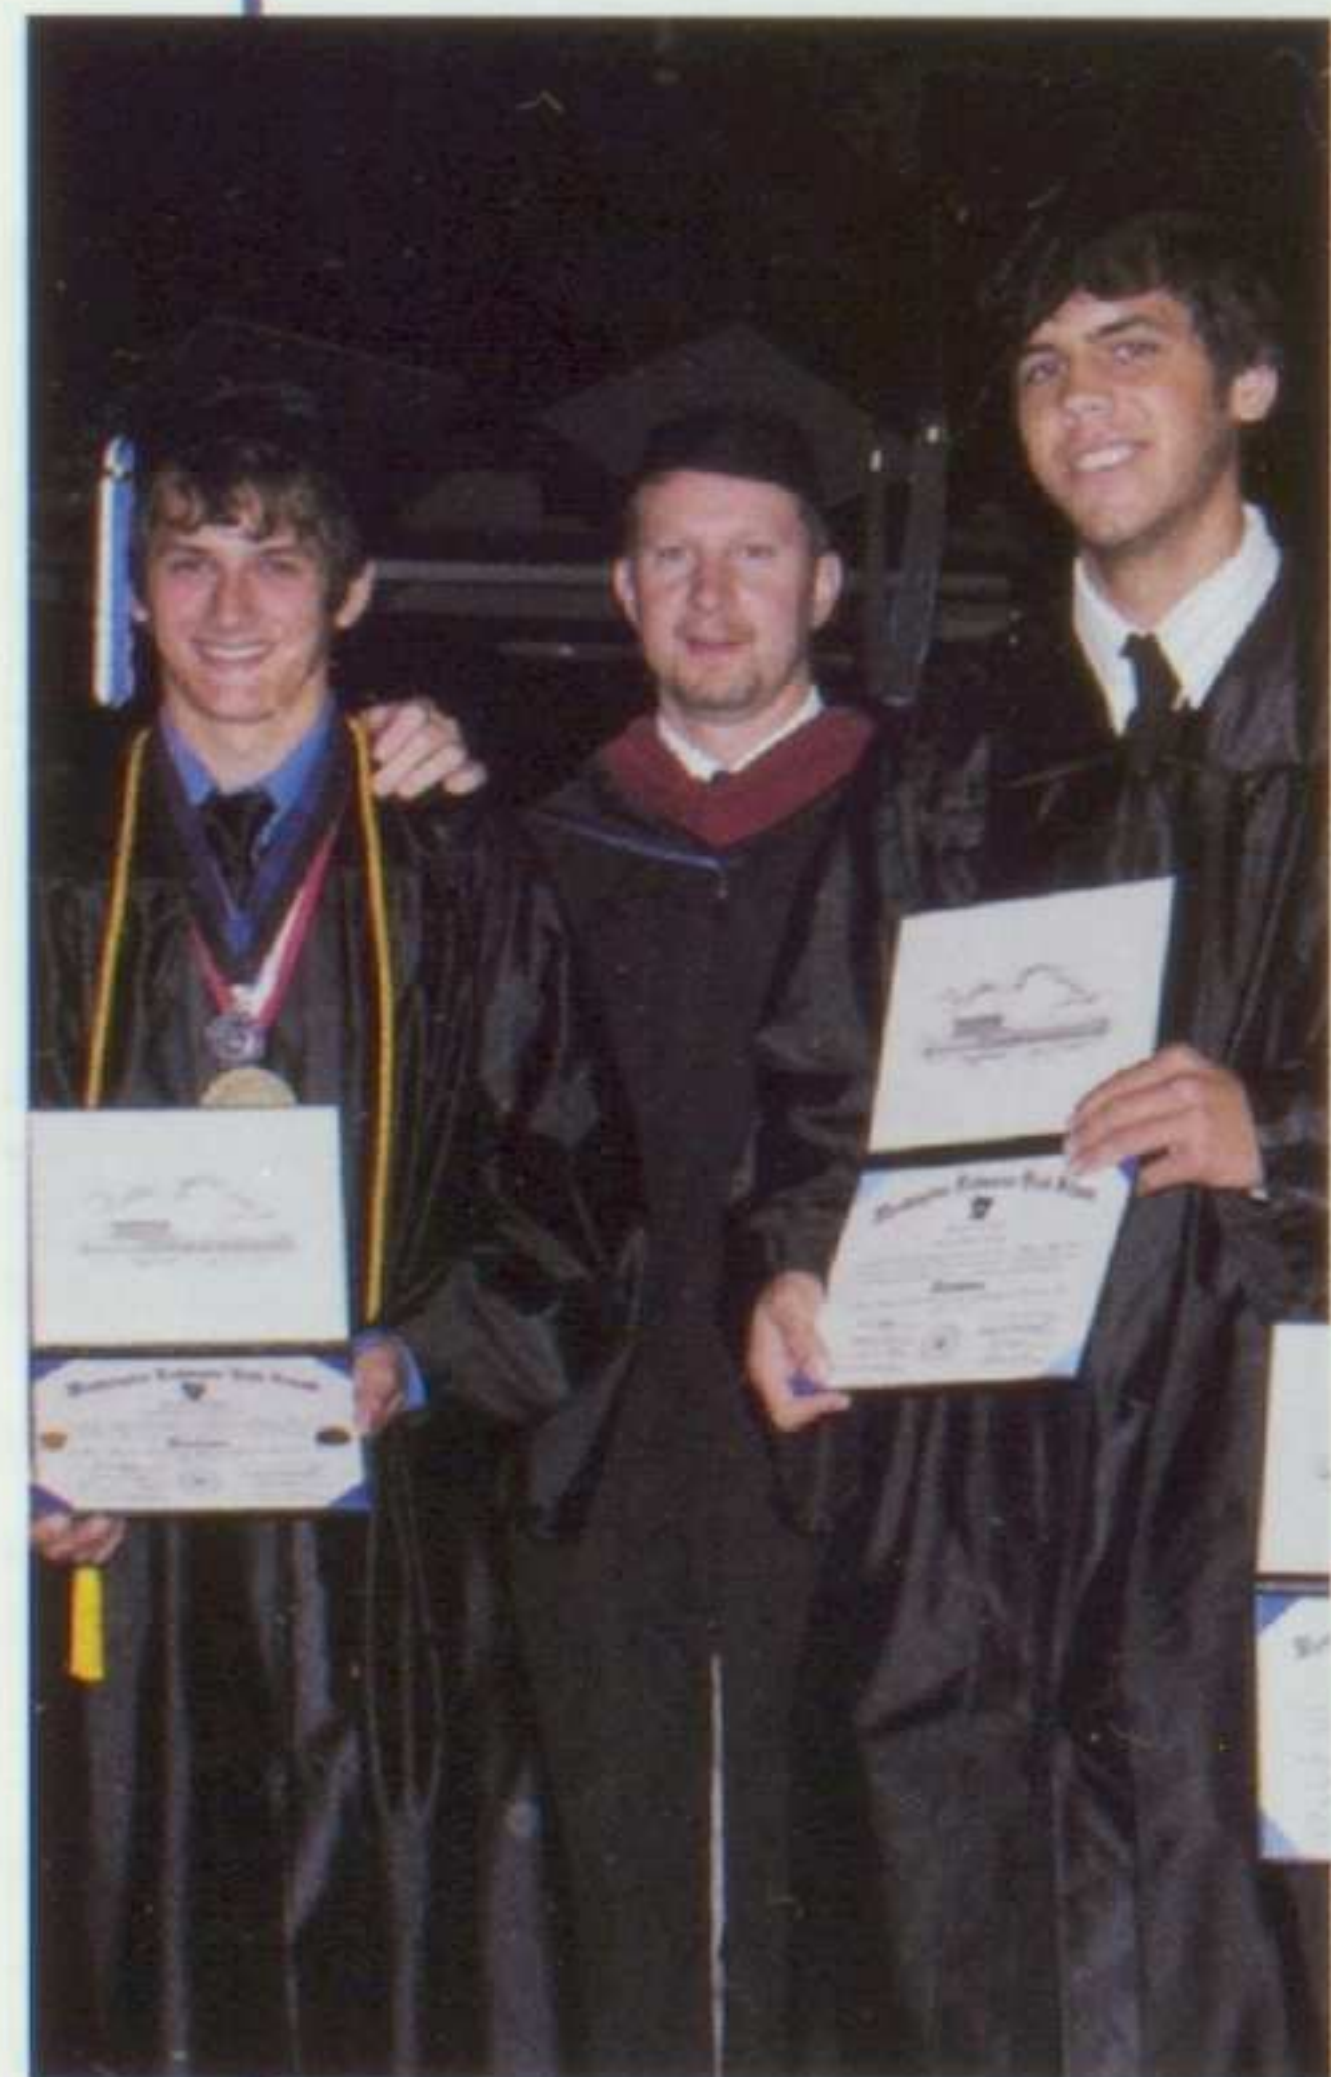

Moving their tassel from the right side of their cap to the left is a great feeling for these grads. Kyle Paster, Mohammed Ahmed, and Luke Augur who are all stoked about moving on.

"We're out of here!" Kelley Schlering proclaims as she takes a break from the day's festivities with Paula Ramao and Sarah Russell. All three girls are tired but eager to get to graduation parties with friends and family.

Imagining It Were Over

Flashing their new diplomas are Frank Swiatek and Jeff Varga. Mr. Strausbaugh takes time to congratulate the new graduates.

Excited to jump into his bright future is Trevor Edge who shared many special moments with musical mentor Mr. Griffin.

Linworth graduate Angelica Dohan is ecstatic to be moving to the next step. She gladly accepts Mr. Harvey's congratulations.

imagine

Congratulating Cecily Earls on graduating. Mrs. Wenner gives the diploma to her.

Showing off her diploma is Alexis Loveland. She is grateful that her favorite teacher Dr. Sharp is able to share this fine moment with her.

Experiencing the big walk to the next step in life is Dave Bruckner. What made this day even better is that Dave graduates along side his grandfather, Mr. Johnson, a Korean War veteran.

Talented musician and student, Zach Rudd shakes hands with mentor Mr. Nathan. Zach has spent many years learning from his favorite music teacher.

Uniting for the last time as classmates, Courtenay Thomas, Rachel Sun, Nami Tokizaki, and Leila Tomlin celebrate their time at Kilbourne.

Students and teachers alike anticipate the next leap of their life. The thing that ties all of these bright people, Mrs. Kucinich-Horn, Chris Gerke, Joe Freeman, Dr. Sharp, and Matt Graham, together is time spent at Kilbourne.

The moment finally arrives for Puja Datta's graduation which she shares with Mr. Cooke, one of her favorite teachers at Kilbourne.

To our little sweetheart

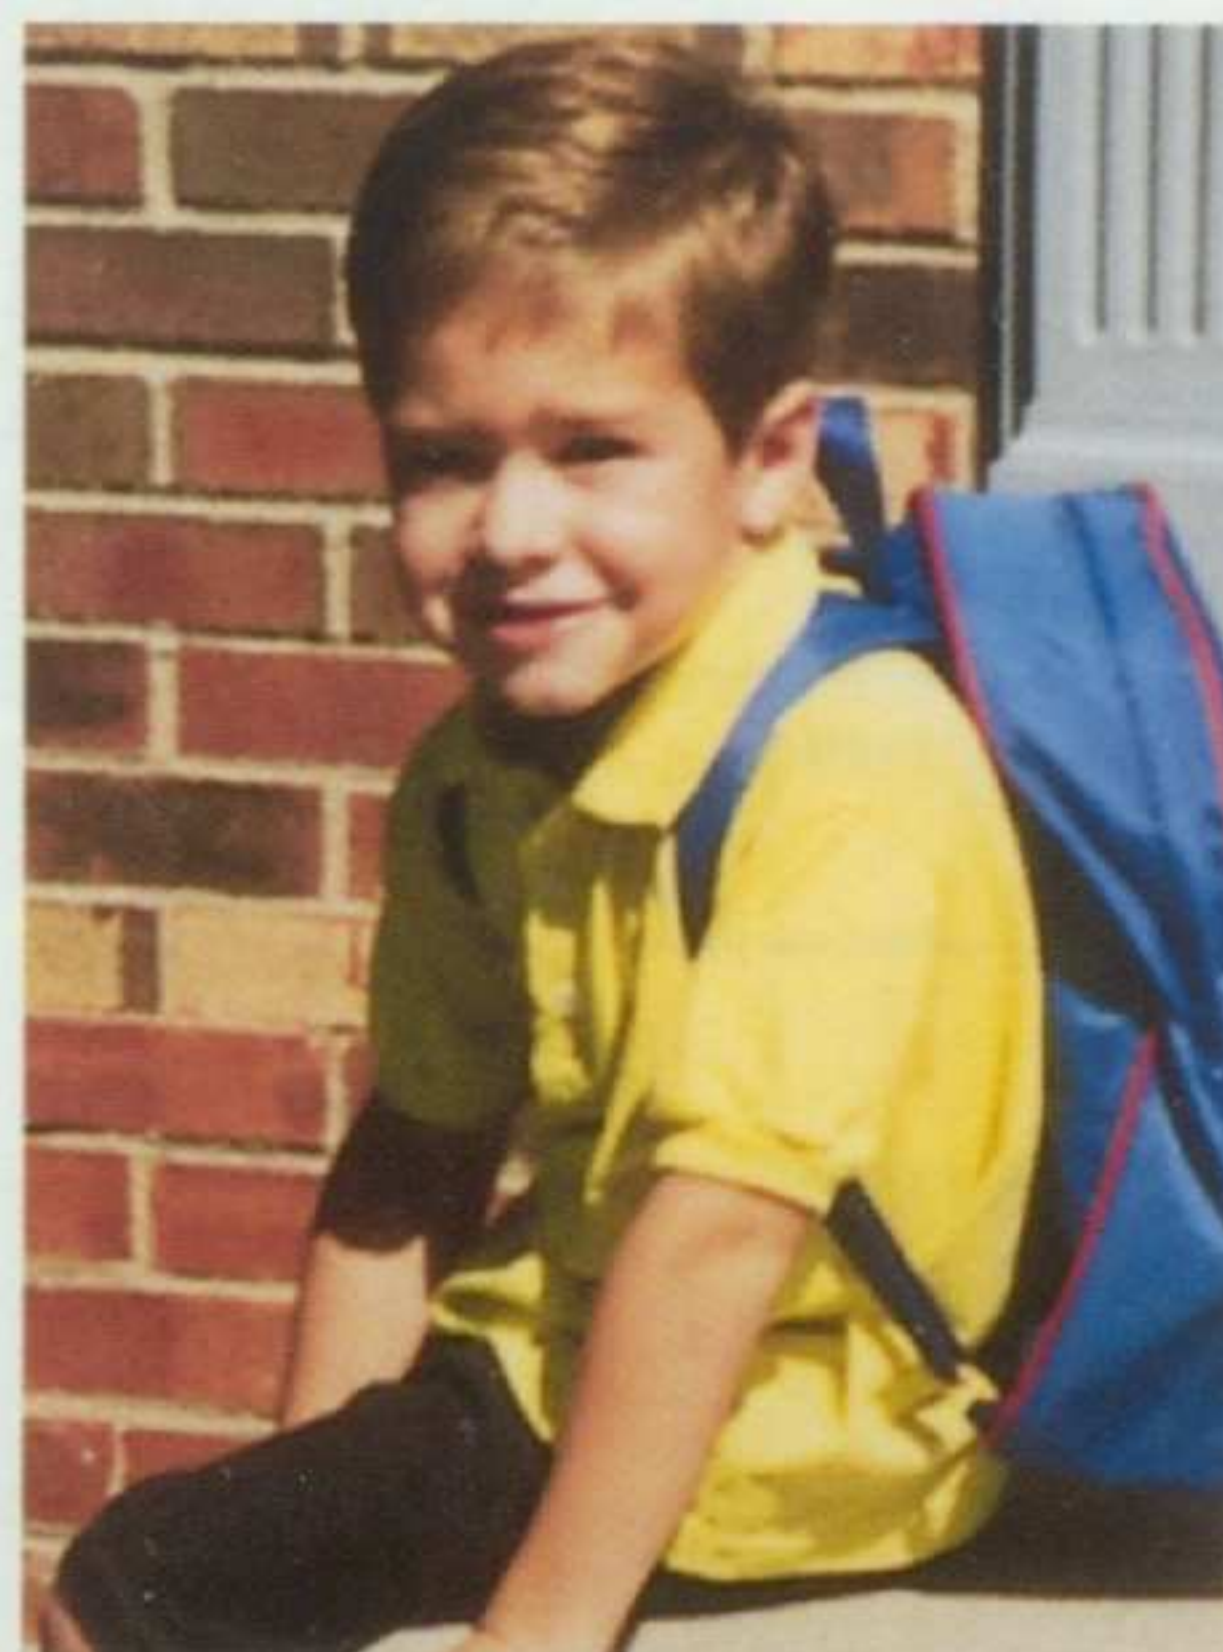

Turn that half frown into a smile as you bravely face a future full of wonderful opportunities. You carry such a good and caring heart that we know you will do well in all you do. We are having a difficult time seeing you as a young woman, all grown up from this little sweetheart. It just happened too fast for us. Love and happiness always.

Out on the ocean sailing away
I can hardly wait
To see you come of age
But I guess we'll both just have to be patient
'Cause it's a long way to go
A hard row to hoe
Yes it's a long way to go
But in the meantime
Before you cross the street
Take my hand
Life is what happens to you
While you're busy making other plans
