Copy of the Sentence of Consecration of St Johns Church

Whereas the Church Wardens and Vestry men of St Johns Church in the town of Worthington in the Diocese of Ohio have by an instrument this day presented to me, appropriated & devoted a house of public worship Erected by them in the said town to the worship and service of Almighty God, the Father, the Son, & the Holy Ghost according to the provisions of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America in its doctrine, discipline and worship, and by a congregation in communion with said Church and in union with the Convention there- of in the Diocese of Ohio:

And whereas the said Church Wardens and Vestry men have by the same instrument requested me to take their said house of worship under my Spiritual jurisdiction as Bishop of the Diocese of Ohio and of that of my successors in office and to consecrate it by the name of St Johns Church, and hereby separate it from all unhallowed, worldly, and common uses and solemnly dedicate it to the holy purposes above- mentioned -

Now, therefore, know all men by these presents, that I. Charles P. McIlvaine by divine permission Bishop of the Diocese of Ohio and acting under the protection of Almighty God, have, on this seventeenth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty five, taken the above mentioned house of worship under my Spiritual jurisdiction as

Nov 17. 1835

Bishop aforesaid and that of my successors in office, and in the presence of divers of the Clergy and a public congregation therein assembled and according to the form prescribed by the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, have have consecrated the same by the name of St Johns Church

And I do hereby pronounce and declare that the said St Johns Church in the town aforesaid, is consecrated accordingly, and thereby separated, henceforth from all unhallowed worldly and common uses, and is dedicated to the worship and service of Almighty God, the Father the Son, and the Holy Ghost, for reading and preaching his holy word; for celebrating His holy sacraments, for offering to his glorious Majesty the sacrifices of prayer and praise and thanksgiving, for blessing his people in his name, and for the performance of all other holy offices agreeably to the covenant of grace and Salvation in our blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and according to the provisions of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America in its doctrines discipline and worship.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto affixed my seal and signature at Worthington the day and year above mentioned and in the third year of my consecration

Charles P. McIlvaine
Bishop of the Prot. Ep. Church in the Diocese of Ohio
