THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1954

The freshmen of 1950 had the distinction of being the last 9th grade class in the Elementary Building. That year our Representative was Perry Gilpatrick and Bev Crooks was our representative on the homecoming court.

As sophomores we undertook the magazine sale, our first big money-making project. Doug Paton led our class and Connie Koepke was our homecoming attendant.

In our junior year we elected Perry Gilpatrick as President again. Some of our projects during our junior year were bake sales, selling decals, and selling Christmas trees. Emily Weese was our Homecoming attendant. Our junior class play "Finder's Creeper's" was a big success. "An Evening in Paris," which set the scene for our Junior-Senior formal, climaxed the year.

Chuck Zimmer was President during our eventful Senior year highlighted by the Rose Convention Dinner, the Senior Carnivals, the Senior play "Turn Back the Clock," and the all important trip to Washington and New York.

As we look back over our weeks, months, and years at Worthington, all of these events come flooding into our memory. It is a short walk from the Elementary building to the high school but that short walk embodies a long trail of memories for us. As they say "good-bye" the seniors of 1954 will always remember the four happy years they spent at Worthington High School.

Group scenes are many and varied at Worthington. Above a class of juniors engages in using the dictionary, answering questions and looking over the result of a group project. Gary Boucher and Rowena Zimmerman seem to be aghast at the import of the question at hand.

Student Government has long been a strong point of the senior high program. In the above picture some students are deciding what their class will do with regard to a class project. Every year the seniors plan to go to New York, and raise the money needed for the trip. Class meetings such as this are used to plan all seniors' activities. The above group is made up of freshmen reaching a decision.

FEATURES

HALLOWEEN COURT

The Annual Halloween celebration was carried off in style this year with Marylon Scatterday as queen. Her court consisted of Pat Oden, Senior Attendant; Marla Hoskey, Junior; Linda Campbell, Sophomore; Carolyn Scatterday, Freshman.

Marylon was crowned by last year's queen, Carol Palmer. She and the court presided over the parade and square dance.

Pat Oden, Marla Hoskey, Marylon Scatterday (Queen), Linda Campbell and Carolyn Scatterday.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming night was clear and cold with a victory on the football field to make it perfect.

QUEEN BEVERLY

QUEEN BARBARA

TRACK COURT

For the fourth time in as many years Worthington was host to the Mid 6 Track and Field Meet, which took place in May of 1953.

The Queen and court were chosen by the Track team. The 1953 Queen was Barbara McClanahan and her court consisted of Seniors, Betsy Moore and Linda McCord; Sophomore, Patti Armstrong; Freshman, Dottie Fouts.

The Queen and her court presided over the meet and awarded medals to the winners of the different events.

ED SEVY Playing against the roughest competition in Mid-Six history, Worthington finished their 1953 season with a league record of one victory, two ties, and two losses.

The Cardinals completely overshadowed London to give themselves their only league win. Worthington proved that they were just as good as Westerville and Hilliard by playing both of them to a 0-0 tie. The Cardinals were defeated by Marysville and were just barely nosed out by Grove City by a 7-6 score.

However, Worthington did much better in non-league games, emerging from all three of them in the winner's column. The Cardinals started off the season with two hard fought victories. The Cards defeated Grandview 19 to 13 and Delaware by a score of 12 to 6. The team ended the season with a victory over Big Walnut. This gave them a season record of four wins, two ties, and two losses.

VARSIITY BASKETBALL

The team's record this year was not the best but the spirit was there in every contest. The team had a good following at all of their contests and the crowd was enthusiastic regardless of the outcome of the game.

The high point of the season was the upset win over London's Red Raiders when the Red Raiders were leading the mid-six league. The home of the Cardinals was a great improvement over last year as the new gym reached completion in time for the basketball season.

Basketball practices are held after school and on Saturdays. A lot of hard work and careful study goes into the makeup of the team. Plays to be used on the floor are mapped out on blackboards in the locker rooms and a great deal of "skull practice" goes into the playing.

RESERVE BASKETBALL

The reserve squad had a good season and held the league lead throughout most of it. The loss of several players to the varsity held the reserves down only slightly as they employed their depth to come through with surprising strength. The showing made by the reserve squad indicates a strong varsity in years to come.

Worthington—61 in district (third)

Worthington—Third at Bowling Green Relays.

Worthington—Second in State AAU meet.

Terry Morgan and Captain Blackburn qualified for the State Meet, with Blackburn climaxing a brilliant high school career by winning this "race of races." Both the boys on the squad and the entire school join in saying, "good luck wherever you go Jack, you're a real champion."

First row: Robinson, Ream, Boucher, Morgan, Blackburn, Pelkey, P. Jerman, Russell. Second row: Jacobs, Mick, Woods, Stinchcomb, Rife, S. Jerman, Schwab, Coach Eisenhart.

TRACK

At this writing, this year's track promises to be one of our best. Worthington has standout performers in virtually every phase of the sport. Our distance department and the high jump are two of our strongest departments.

This year's squad will have to work hard to better the record of last year's team. In addition to winning the mid-six meet, last year's team beat many teams coming from larger schools. Columbus South is one example of a large team conquered by the Worthington squad.

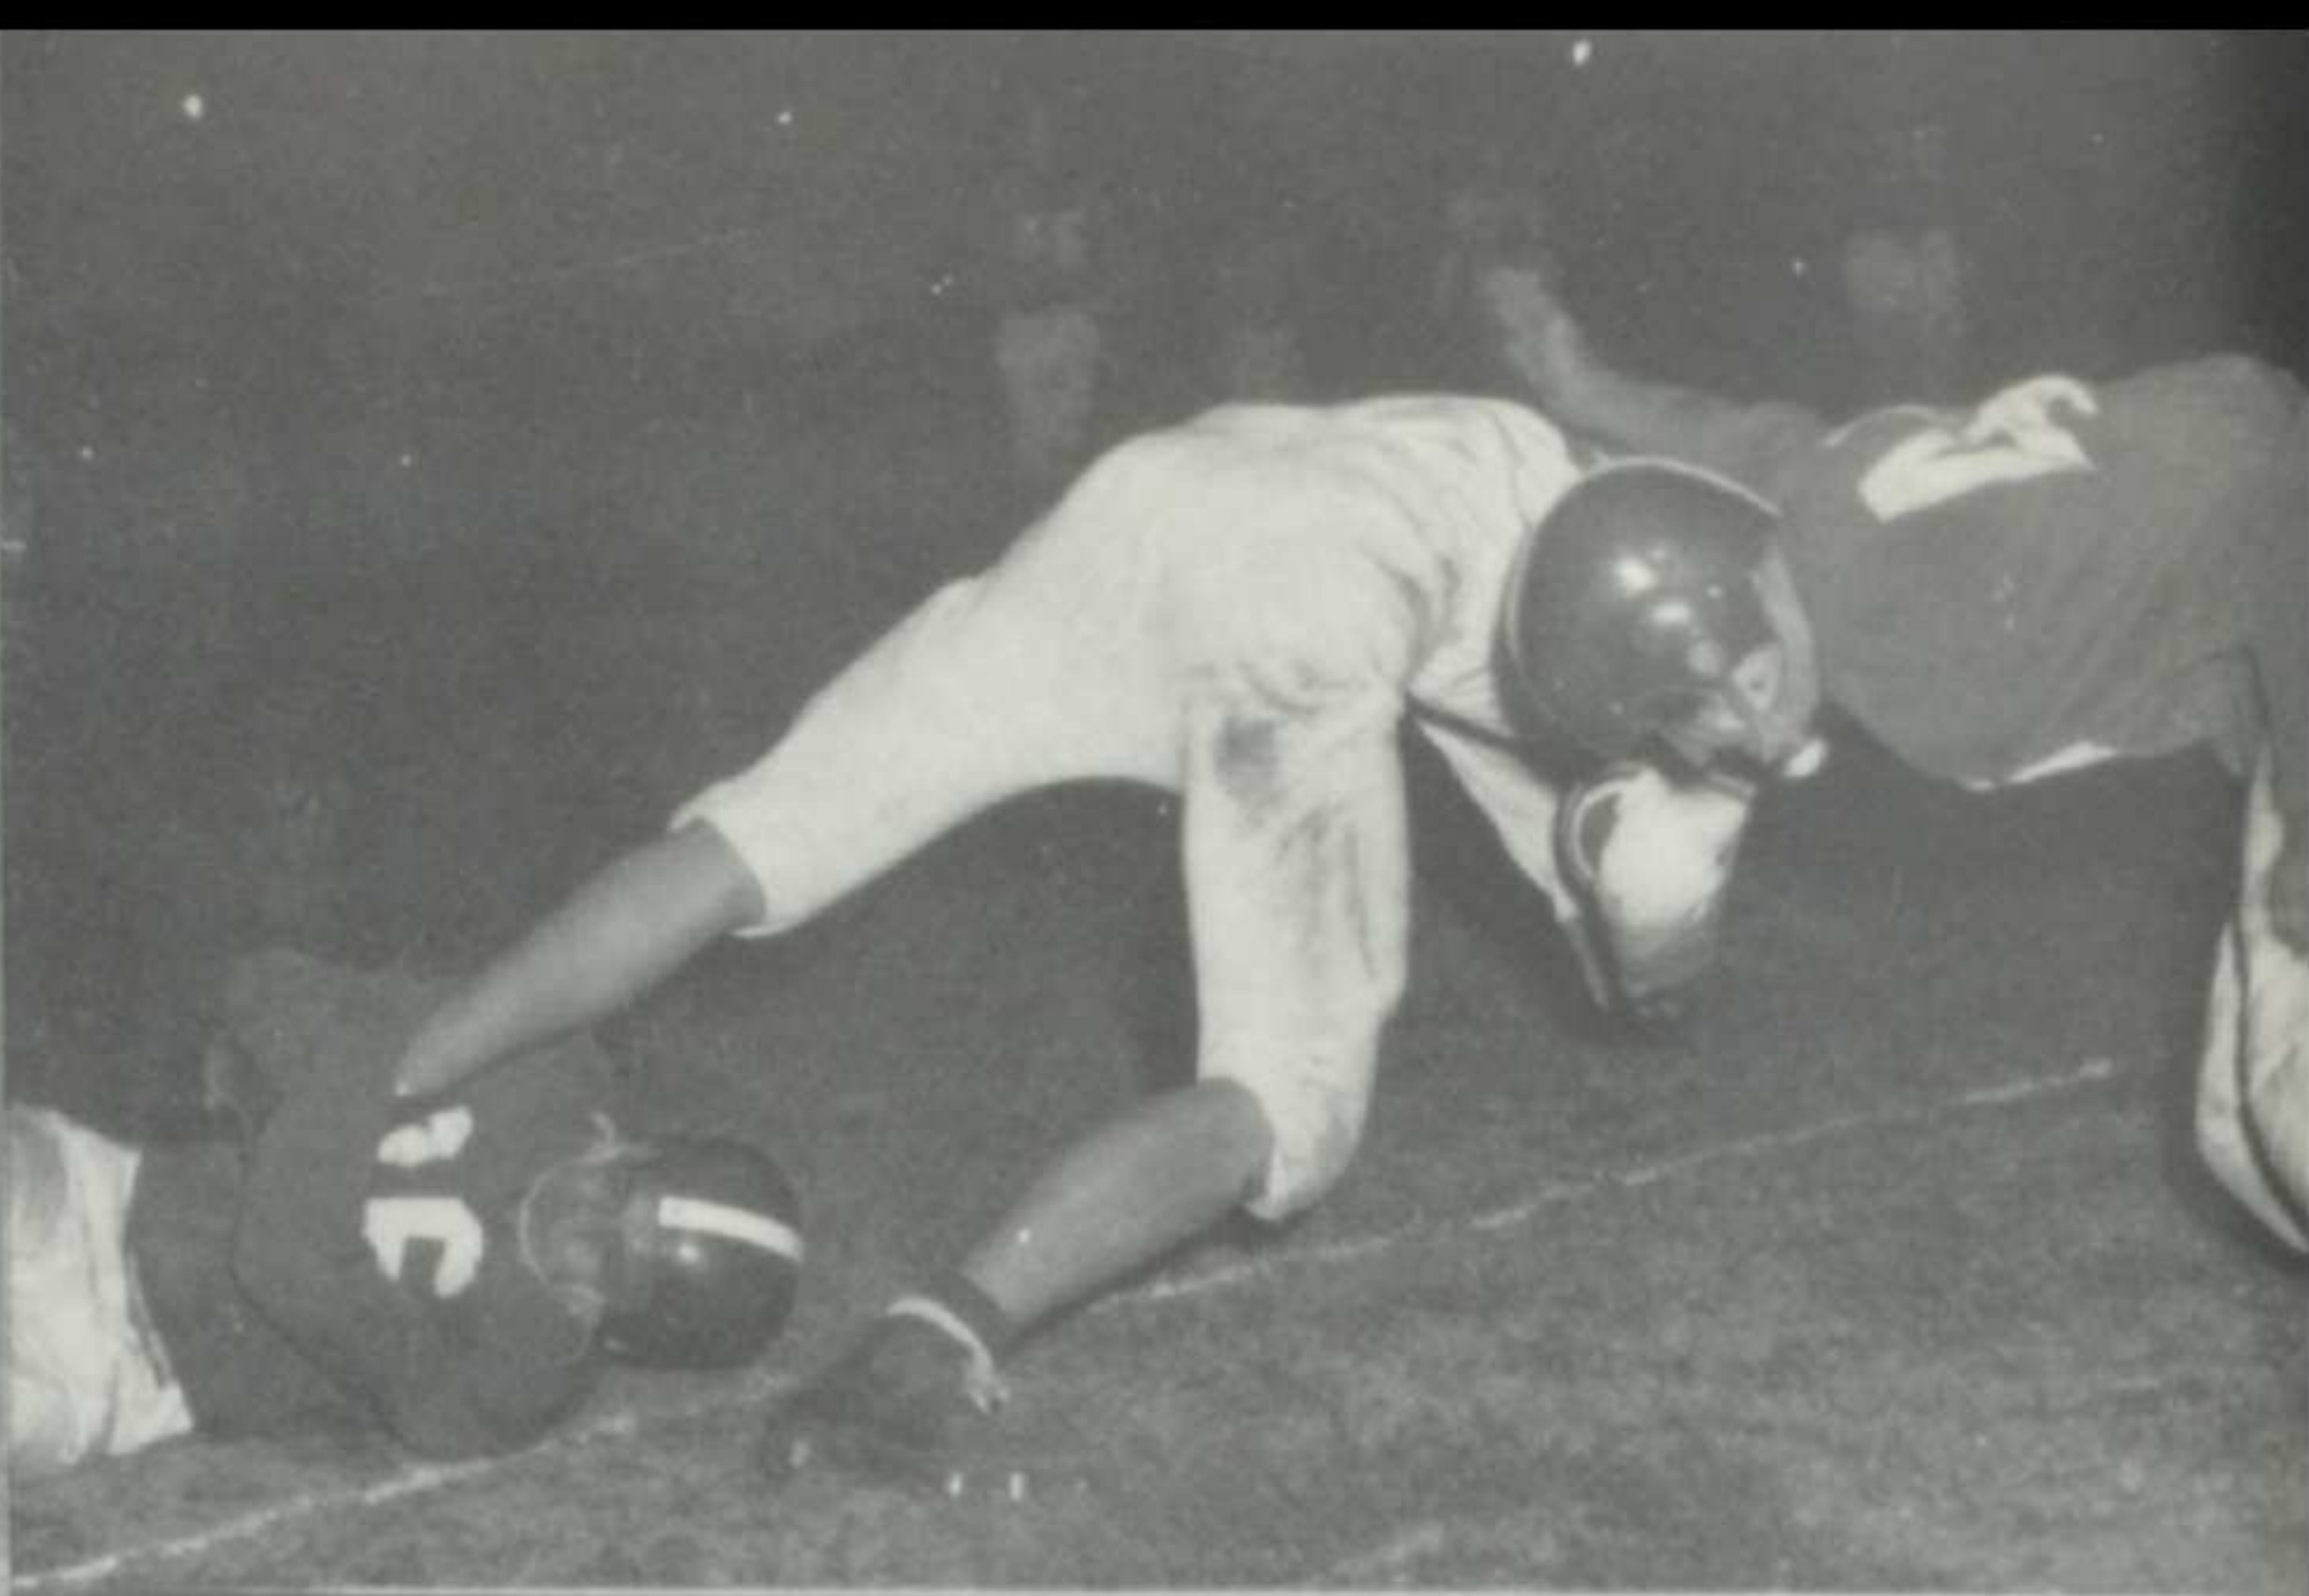

Mr. Eisenhart has put in a great deal of time in coaching this squad and has produced another fine team. Worthington's track team has long been known as a power in the state and this year will be no exception. We will be sorry to see such fine performers as Jack Blackburn and Dick Rieke leave. There are many other fine seniors who will be leaving us at the close of the year also. Many of them will be very hard to replace and all of them will be greatly missed.

Worthington has been mid-six champ every year, in track, since the mid-six was formed. Last year Worthing rose to a new level of point getting in the sport. Our accomplishments last year included scoring a point in the state meet.

The highlight of the track season in the past few years has been the mid-six meet. A queen is elected for the occasion who reigns over the meet and its many adjacent activities. This year a new idea has been instituted. The queen will be from Worthington and the attendants will be from the other mid-six schools.

The old grads and the young lads christened our new gymnasium with the first basket ever to be scored there. The honor went to the old grads as they poured on what was left of the coal to take the varsity. November the twenty-seventh was the fateful day for the varsity and the day of victory for the alumni boys. Ghosts of yesteryear flitted from the newly painted rafters as the alums took to the boards. It was a thrilling evening and the memories were golden.

Our alumni cheerleaders were on hand at the alumni game to help their boys on the spirit front. The present student body found that the beauty and talent of yesterday were more than sufficient to win the day. The alums were strong in the point column and in the yell column.

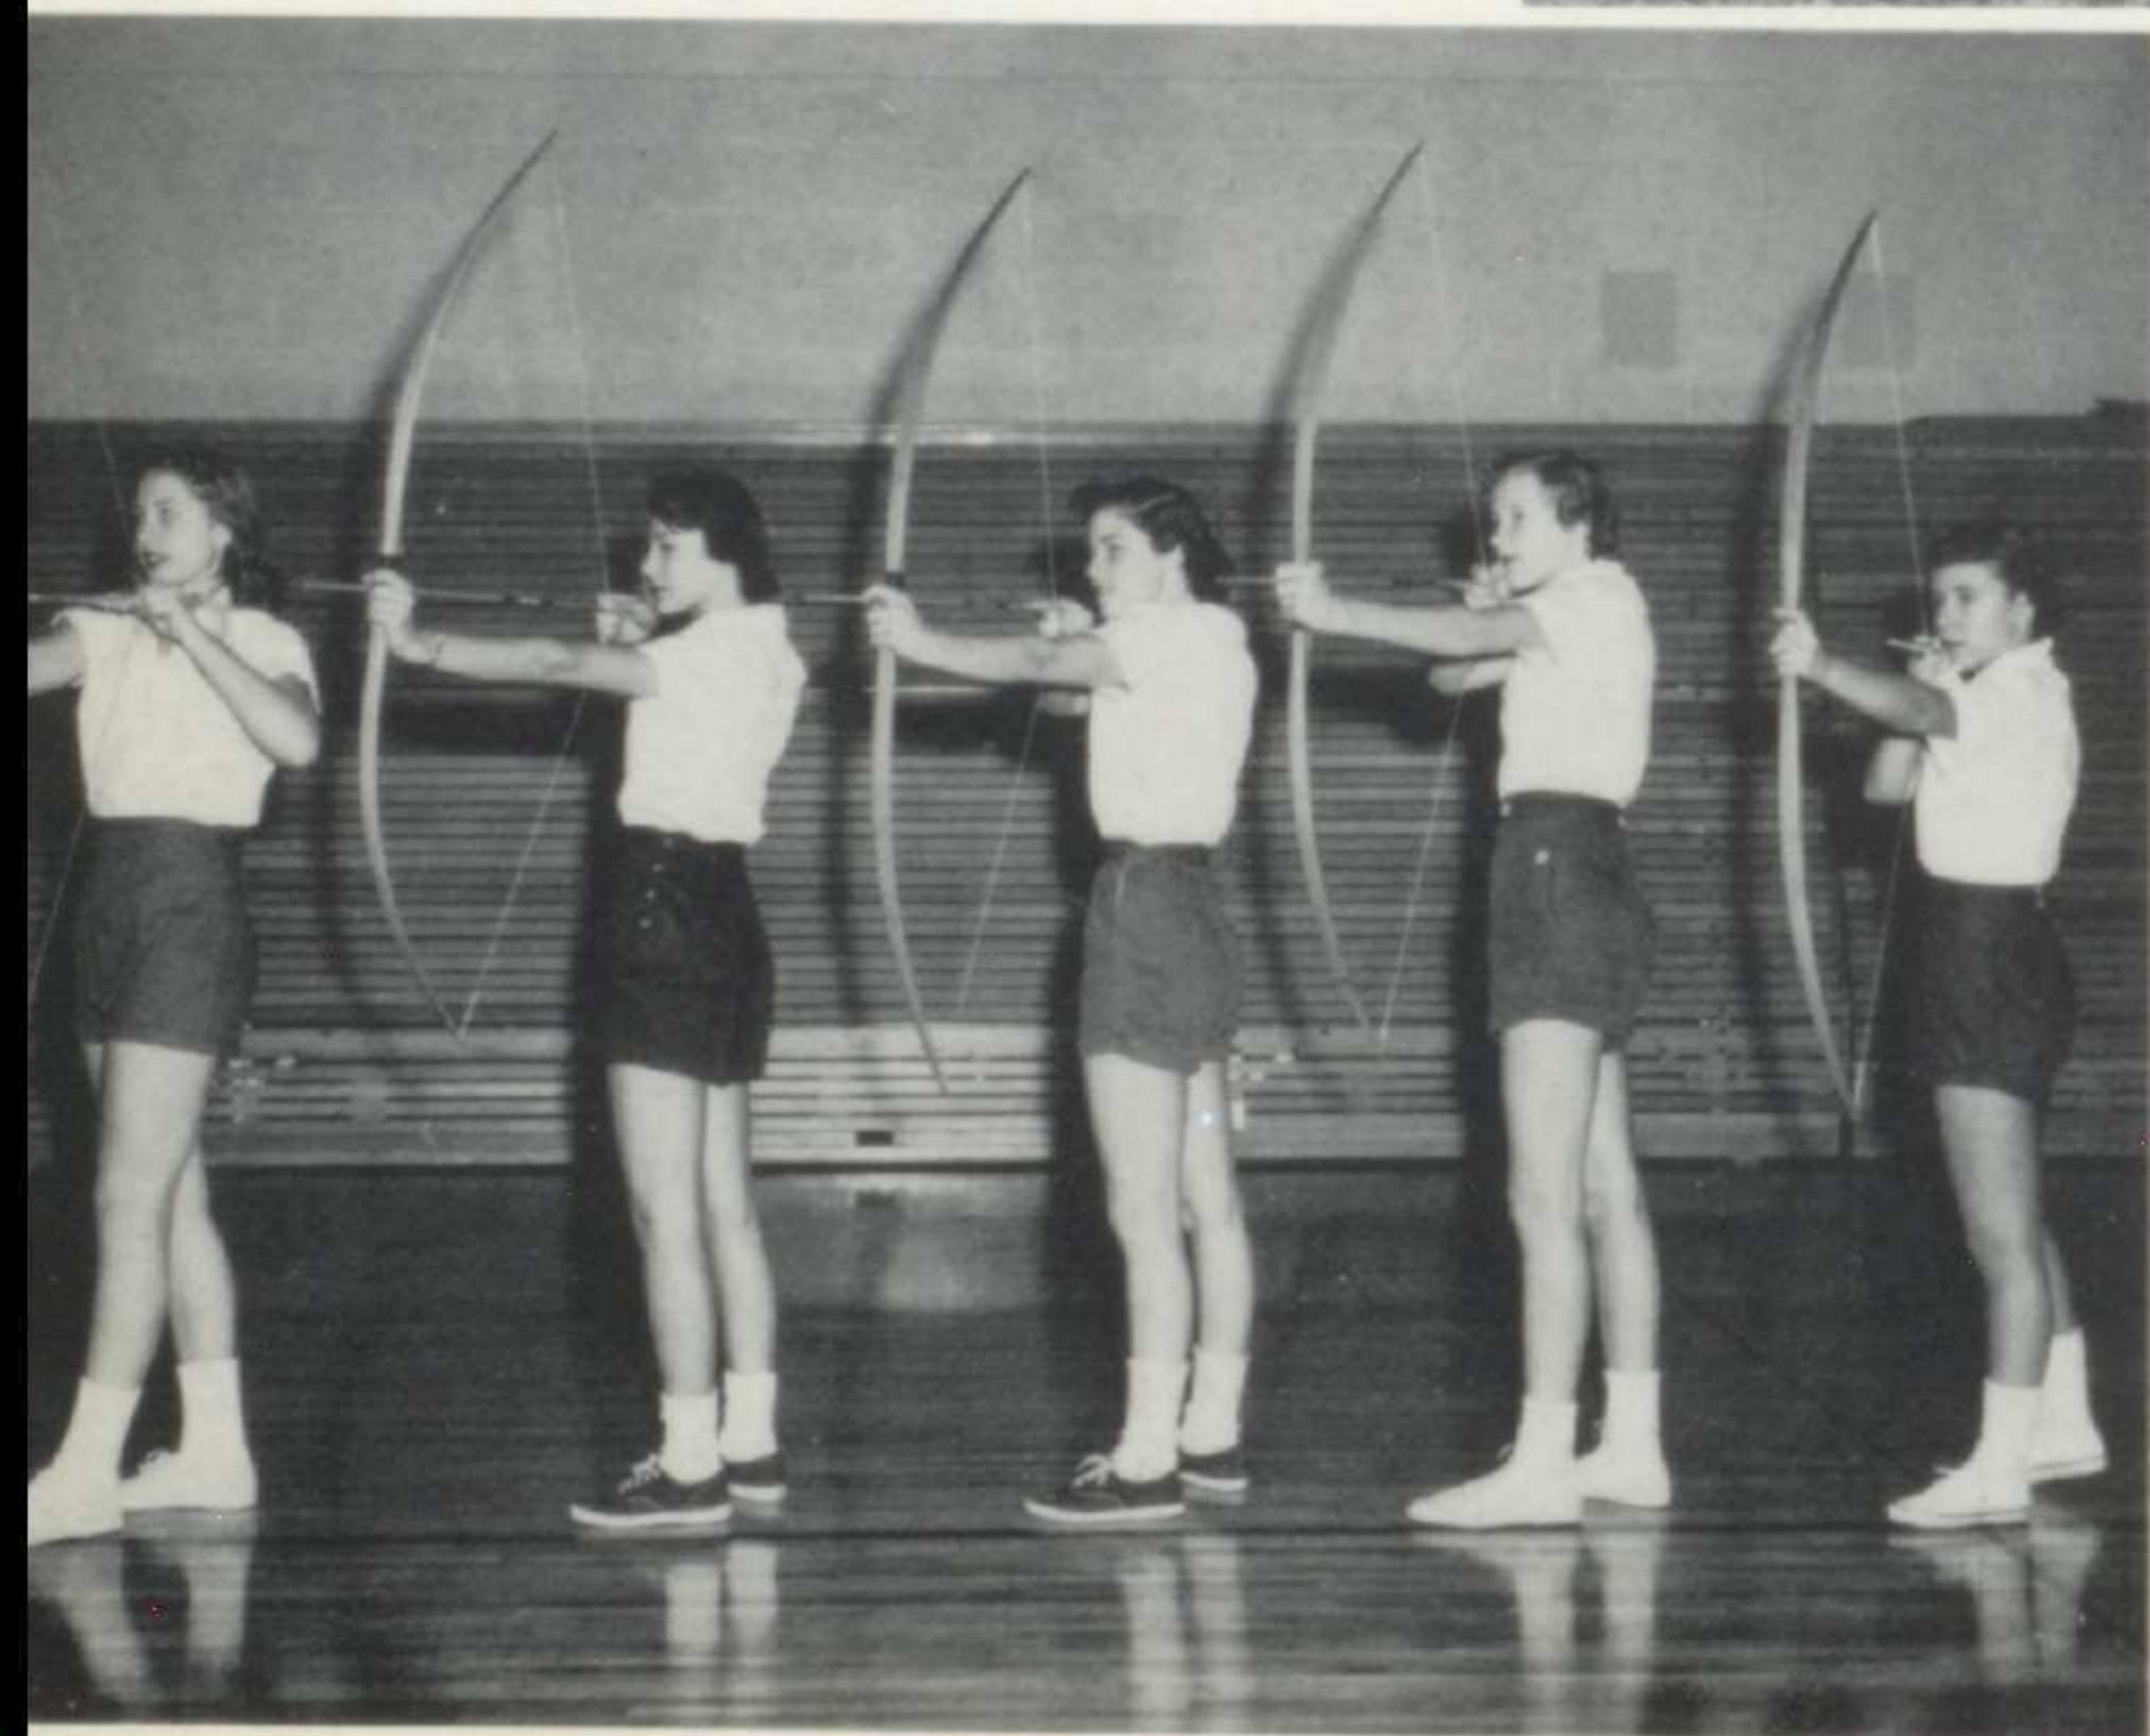

Gazing into the basketball to see what the future holds are a host of grads and varsity players. This is one scramble that found the varsity on top. Mr. Heischman rounded out the alumni setting as the grad team took over the varsity 53-40. The reserve squad was also spilled by the alumni, 27-42. The alums thus proved that there was a lot of fire left in the old grads, at least enough to give the young lads a good game.

Girls' basketball is a leading activity in both the gym classes and the GAA at Worthington. Climax of the girls' basketball season is the Yale-Harvard game. In the picture at the left are several prospective Yale-Harvard players as they vie for the ball. Worthington's new gym provides ample space for both boys' and girls' sports.

Hockey has long been a favorite sport among the girls at Worthington high school. Shin pads keep enemy sticks from leaving their marks as the home team tries for a goal. The cage-like structure in the background is the goal that these girls will be shooting for in an actual game. Worthington's hockey team played games with Bexley, Upper Arlington, Grandview, and University School, losing all of their games but making a good showing for their first year.

Instruction in the use of the bow and arrow is part of Worthington's girls' physical education program. A beginners' group tries out weapons of archery. Position and form will improve as the year progresses. The background might indicate that shooting is done indoors; this posed for shot is the extent of indoor archery. Targets and a complete range for shooting is located in back of the school.

MIKE MOSER

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council is the governing body of the high school. All the decisions of Student Council have a bearing on the activities of the students in the school.

Each class and club have a representative in Student Council who brings with him ideas from the students. Mr. Ray Heischman is advisor for the group and Mike Moser, student body president, is the presiding officer.

Y-TEENS

Standing: Cahoon, Keating, Dornbirer, Bobrovnikoff.
Seated: Lewis.

The goals of the Y-Teens are to grow as a person; to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities; and to grow in the knowledge and love of God. To achieve these aims the club has regular bi-monthly meetings. The programs cover many interesting subjects, and the speakers come from varied walks of life.

There are extra projects besides the regular meetings, many of which are in the service of others. The outstanding service project this year was the Christmas party the Worthington Y-Teens gave for the Y-Teens of the Blind School. Christmas carols were sung and games were played.

First row: Grau, Brown, Cligrow, Campbell, Fisher, Bobrovnikoff, Felder, Dierker, Gunnoh, Black, Butts, Allison, Anelich, Elder. Second row: Furnis, Garner, Dick J. Evans, Biven, Gabriel, N. # HI-Y

Seated: Paton. Standing: Richards, Bailey, Zimmer, Gilpatrick, Blackburn.

The Worthington Hi-Y club is a branch of the Y.M.C.A. The club's purpose is "to create, maintain, and extend, throughout the school and community, a high standard of Christian character."

Membership is open to any boy in the high school who is willing to line up to the creed.

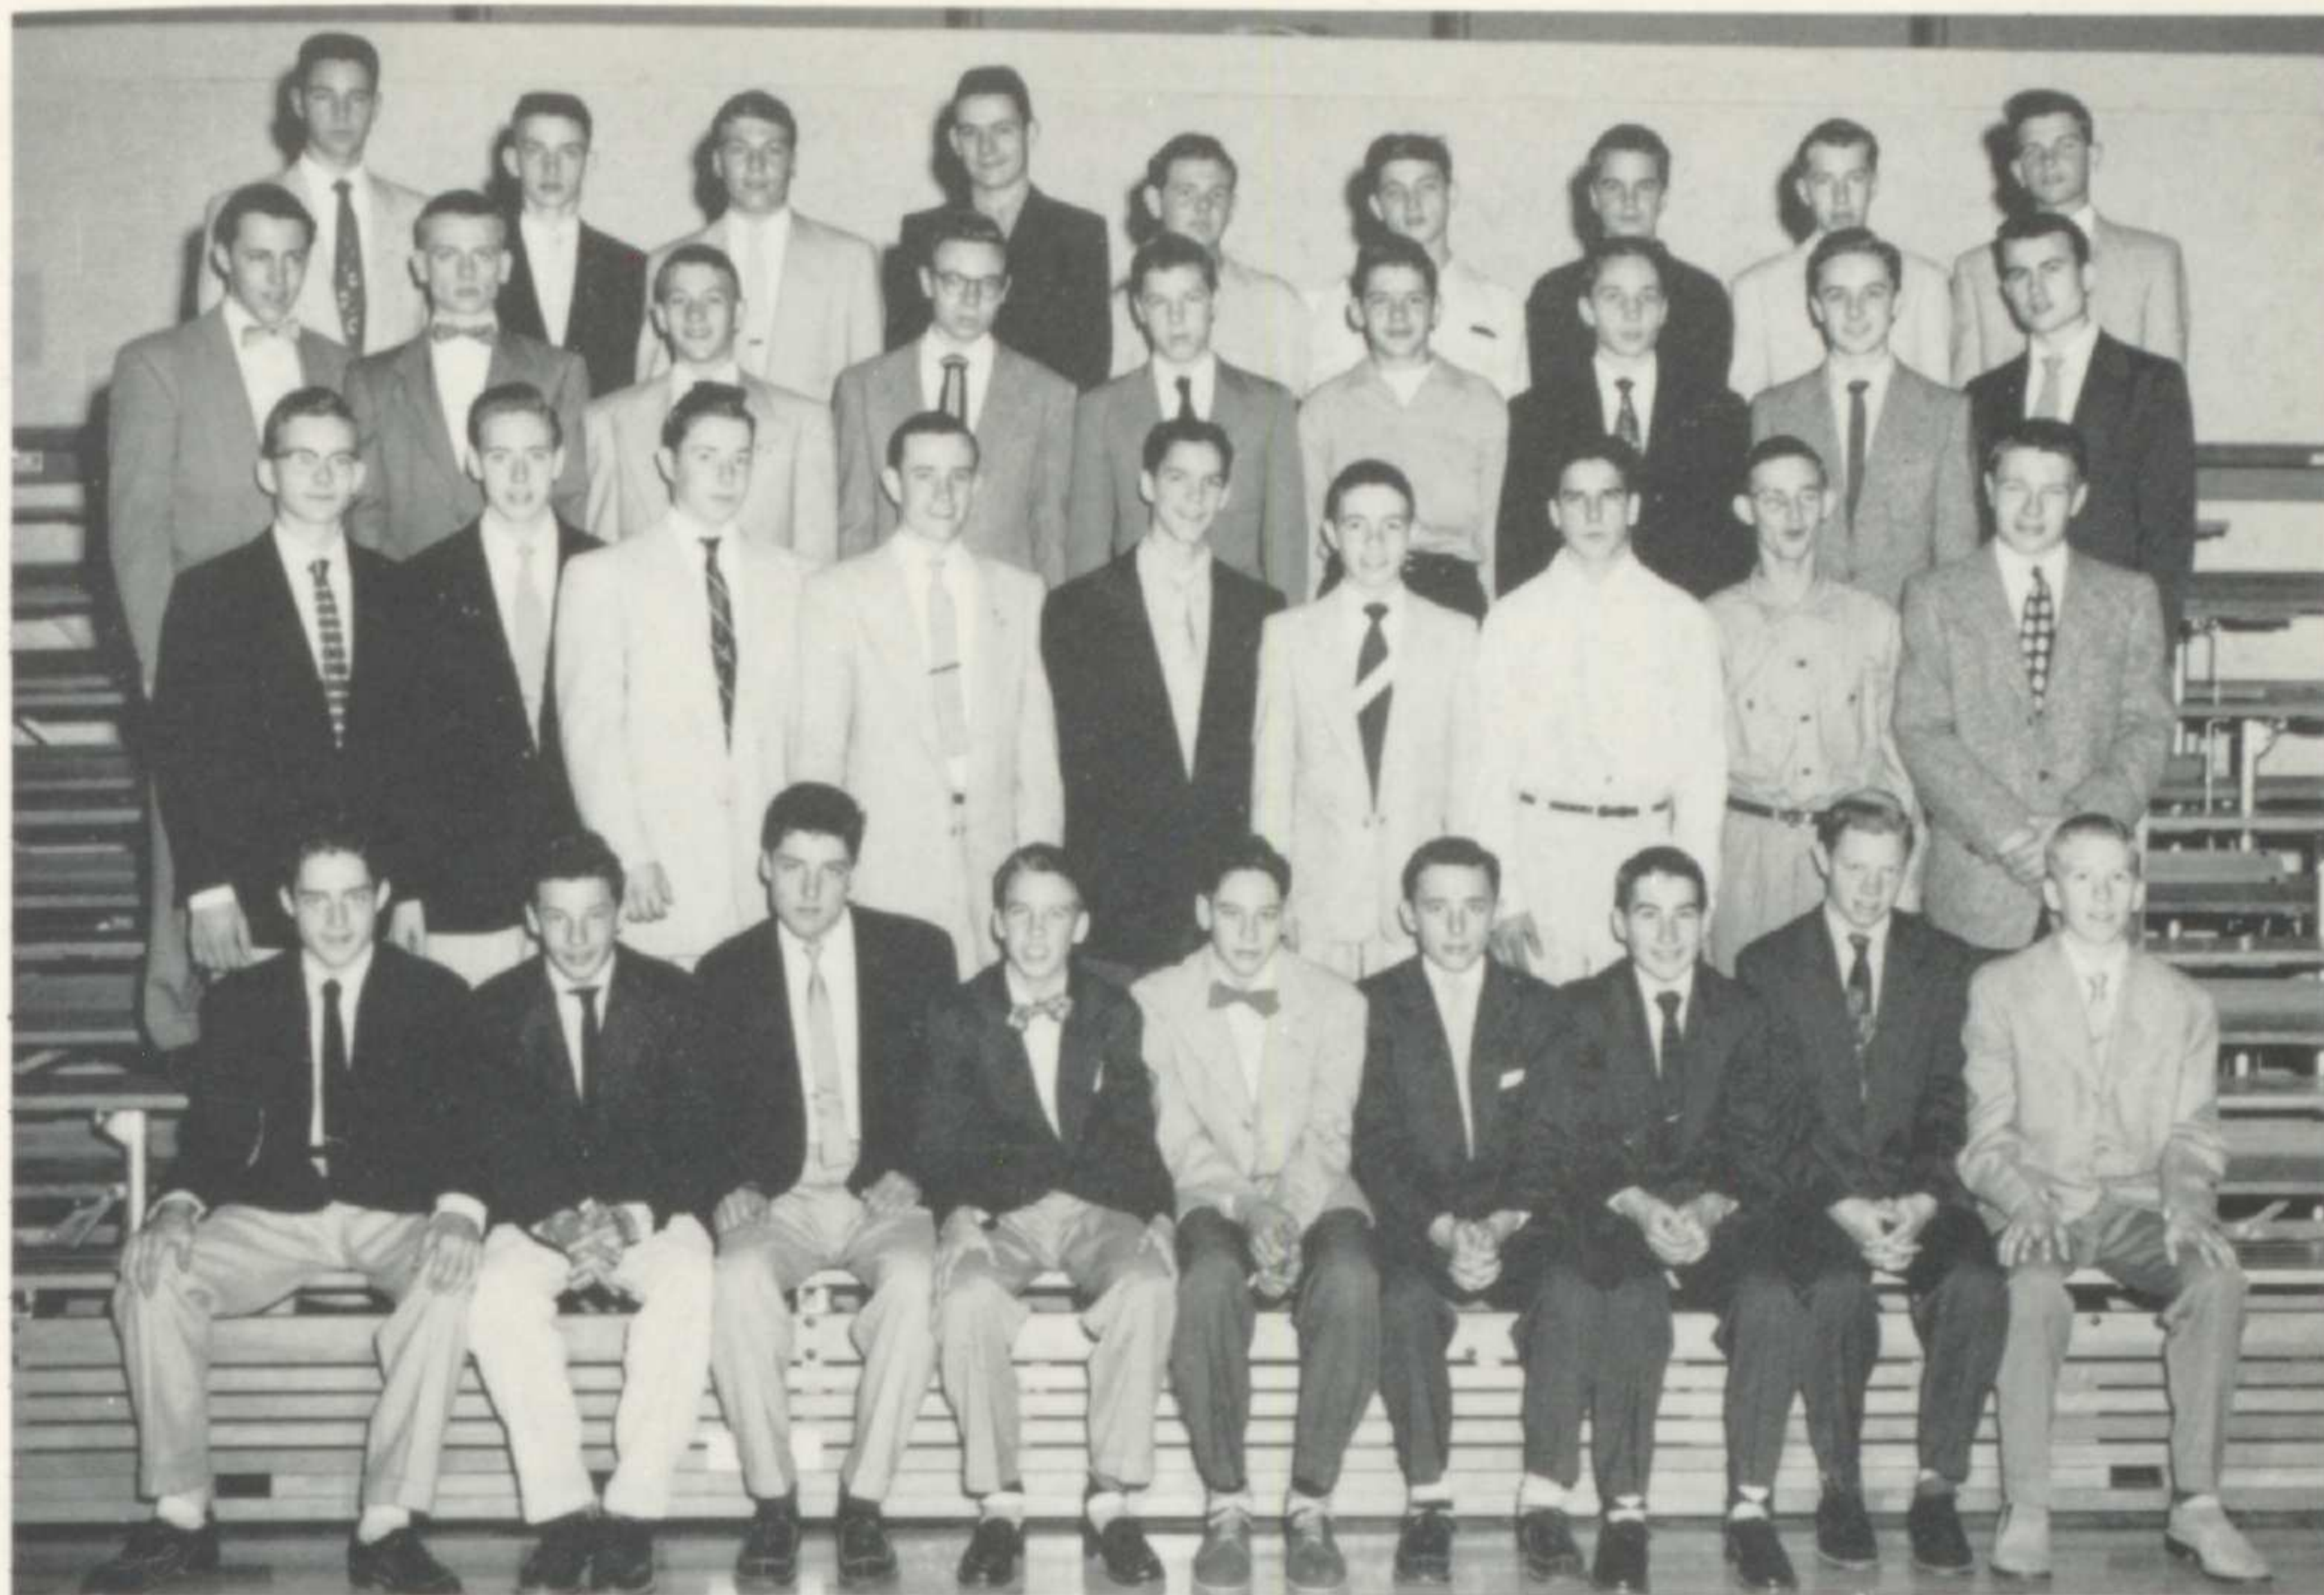

The officers this year are: Doug Paton, President; Chuck Zimmer, Vice President; Secretary, Fred Wood; Jim Bailey, Treasurer; Don Richards and Jack Blackburn, Sergeants-at-Arms; Perry Gilpatrick, Chaplain.

The group has included in its activities a dance, milk for the basketball players after games, and cosponsorship of the high school mixers.

JUNIOR Y-TEENS

Seated: Lalendorf, McLaughlin, Thomas, Purcell. Standing: Sells, Smith.

The freshman girls make up the student content of the Junior Y-teens. The group sponsored a bake sale early in the year and also planned and staged a dance in February.

Mary Thomas has given the group able leadership this year as its president. Jean McLaughlin is vice president of the group and Lois Sells is secretary. Sally Purcell is treasurer of the Junior Y-Teen group. This organization prepares the girls for future membership in the senior Y-Teen group.

Mrs. Patricia Dayton is the able advisor for this group. Meetings of the group are held in the typing room.

G. A. A.

Standing: Shidaker, Snouffer, Biven, Gabriel.
Seated: Butts.

The officers of GAA this year were, Barbara Butts, President; Nancy Biven, Vice President; Verna Snouffer, Secretary; June Gabriel, Treasurer; Sue Shidaker, Social Chairman.

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association is to give girls a chance to participate in sports. There is a big variety to pick from, and tournaments are staged often. The Yale-Harvard basketball game is the highlight of the season.

Some of the other activities sponsored by the GAA are hockey, swimming, baseball, tennis, and bowling. The GAA also gives a dance each year.

This year's advisor is Miss Bach, the girls' physical education teacher.

First row: Dixon, Black, Dick, Demos, Cahoon, Frank, Clark, Butts, Butler, Anelich, Andes.

SCIENCE CLUB

The science club is designed to appeal to all students interested in the field of science. The group has speakers at its meetings and attempts to keep up with new developments in the many phases of scientific advancement.

Demonstrations of science projects is also another feature of the science club's activities. The group receives a great deal of able advice and direction from their advisor, Mr. Harold Hill.

The science club has its meetings in the chemistry room. Jim Hard is president of the group and has done a good job of leading throughout the past year. Jim has also been very active in all senior class activities.

HONOR SOCIETY

The Franklin County Honor Society is made up of high ranking students from every school in the county. The members are picked by the faculty from the upper third of the junior and senior classes.

Character, leadership, scholarship, and service are the qualities upon which membership is based. Two meetings are held each year. This year's meetings were held at Grove City and Hilliard.

The meetings began with an initiation of the new members and ending in a social hour. The purpose of these meetings was to create an atmosphere of friendship for better understanding among the members.

To be selected for membership in this group is quite an honor and virtually all of the school's students vie for the honor of membership in the group. This year Nancy Hutchison was our representative to the county honor society. Nancy also doubled as pianist for the group and did a fine job of representing Worthington.

First row: Halliday, Keating, Butts, Bobrovnikoff, Hutchison, Scatterday, Lowman, Crooks, Lewis.
Second row: Lane, Koepke, Hobbs, Farris, Grimshaw, Boucher, McClanahan, Dick, Oden, McLaughlin.
Third row: Stinchcomb, Ream, Hard, Bruno, Zimmer, Gilpatrick, Greenwald, Welshimer.

PRESS CLUB

The Press Club celebrated its third year of progress this year as its membership climbed to forty six. Julia McLaughlin led the group and helped to plan many of its activities. One of these activities was a skating party, staged over Christmas vacation. This has come to be recognized as a traditional event around Worthington high school, since its origin three years ago. The skating party this year was held at Smith's Roller Rink and over one hundred students attended.

The club also has speakers who give a working portrayal of the field of journalism as a profession. Speakers this year included Betty Montai Ramsey, food editor of the Columbus Dispatch. This meeting, as well as the others, was held at four o'clock in the afternoon.

The club also joined in the civic projects which the entire school sponsors. This year the group contributed to the March of Dimes campaign. Mr. Glenn D. Williams is the advisor for the group.

1954 CARDINAL

MARYLON SCATTERDAY
Editor

The 1954 CARDINAL has tried to bring to the students of Worthington High School a bigger and better yearbook. After the large book of last year, we have tried to make up for the size with a number of special features. We have added the plastic covers to preserve the book and the picture of the school in Duotone in the center of it. This is the first year the Duotone Process has ever been used in a Worthington yearbook. We have also attempted to give the school activities a wider coverage.

The many hours of work that went into the publication are forgotten as the book goes to press and the entire staff awaits delivery of the books anxiously. Many capable people have contributed to the success of this year's book and words lack depth to describe the efforts of many members of our staff.

It is the greatest wish of the staff that the book please the student body of the school. Mr. Glenn Williams was advisor for the book.

Front: Moody, Moser, Rieke, Hard, Boucher, Van Voorhis, Cahoon, Scior. Back: Warner, Lewis, Tracy, Scatterday, Grimshaw, Butts, Lowman, Stien.

Much of the financial success of this year's annual has hinged on the success of the movie program. Scarcely enough can be said about the splendid way in which the movie crew has accomplished its task. Films were shown at Worthington, Flint, and Linworth on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of each week, November through March.

ORACLE

BEVERLY CROOKS
Editor

The Oracle is the school section in the Worthington News. Beverly Crooks was the able editor of the Oracle this year. The deadline on the Oracle is on Monday and it is published on Thursdays.

Gary Boucher handled sports for the Oracle this year. All of the articles were written by the high school staff. Assistant editor, Nancy Price handled many of the details for Beverly. The Oracle is advised by Mr. Glenn D. Williams.

SHORT CIRCUIT

MARY LEWIS and CONNIE KOEPKE
Co-Editors

Connie Koepke and Mary Lewis were the co-editors of the Short Circuit this year. The magazine featured multi-color on its cover and many other interesting innovations. As in past years, the Christmas issue was the largest of the year!

The material for the publication is written by the staff and the art work was ably handled by Janet Lowman. Mr. Glenn D. Williams is advisor for the Short Circuit.

SHARON SPECTATOR

NANCY HUTCHISON
Editor

The Sharon Spectator has been carrying a school section since its origin in 1952. Nancy Hutchison is editor of the Cardinal's Call this year, and has done a fine job.

Nancy has had some fine support from Jean Bobrovnikoff, the assistant editor. Sports Articles have been written this year by Sam Ream. The deadline for the Cardinal's Call is Tuesday and it appears in The Spectator on Friday. Mr. Glenn D. Williams is advisor for the publication.

Oden, Ream, Downing, Cahoon, Hutchison, Editor; Bobrovnikoff, Dick, Shirk, Tracy, McGlaughlin.

FUTURE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

Seated: Pat Oden, President; Nancy Hutchison, Vice President. Standing: Sharon Radcliff, Secretary; Judy Lane, Treasurer.

The purpose of this club is to acquaint high school students with the opportunities that exist in the field of teaching.

This year the Jesse Stuart Future Teachers' Association was adopted as the official name of the club.

During the year the members had a chance to observe a classroom in progress and were given the opportunity to teach.

The Future Teachers' group is led by Pat Oden, who is ably assisted by Nancy Hutchison, Judy Lane, and Sharon Radcliff. The play which the group put on at election time was particularly effective and proved that the Future Teachers have many talents.

The group is advised by Miss June Porter.

FUTURE NURSES' CLUB

Standing: Nancy Evans, Marilyn Boyer, Molly Tarbutton. Seated: Marilyn Dick.

Future Nurses' Club was organized in the fall of 1953.

The club program prepares girls for entering nursing with a better understanding of it. It helps them to see in advance whether or not it is the profession for them.

This year, field trips, speakers from local health and welfare organizations, and volunteer service in hospitals are some of the activities of the club.

Mrs. Bernhagen is the capable advisor for the club.

F. H. A.

The Future Homemakers' Club is open to any girl who has had one year or more of home economics in high school. The organization is a national one and our local group is affiliated. The Worthington F.H.A. chapter sends a delegate to the national convention.

This year Shirley Ziegler was elected president of the club. The group meets once a month. The purpose of this club is to further the interest of the girls in home economics.

Mrs. Palcich is the advisor.

Sanders, Zeigler, President; McAdams, Miller.

VARSITY CHEER LEADERS

Quelette, Johnson, Traver, Gerald, Keating.

Pictured at the top of the page were our 1953-54 varsity basketball cheerleaders. These girls helped to promote the general spirit by their enthusiasm. Although the season started out slow it picked up momentum as the conclusion drew near.

At the bottom of the page are pictured the 1953-54 reserve basketball cheerleaders. These girls had a terrific team to back. Their spirit cheered their team on to many victories.

RESERVE CHEER LEADERS

D R U M M A J O R E T T E S

Herron, Traver, Shiland, Corkin, Sheets, Price.

This year Worthington's band was led by five drum majorettes and a drum major. This was the first time in a number of years that Worthington has had a drum major.

Our cheerleaders were our inspiration for victory on many occasions this year. Their spirit carried over to the crowd and generated enthusiasm throughout our football contests. When the team was in a tight spot and needed a lift the cheerleaders came to their aid with the spirit that carried them through.

BAND

The Worthington band lends a festive note to many activities during the year. Its main function is playing at football games and enlivening the spirit that surrounds our gridiron contests. In addition to this function they play at the Halloween celebration and in the Memorial Day parade.

The variety show finds the band playing a major role once again. The variety show and the band's part in it has come to be recognized as a traditional event around Worthington.

The band finds recognition among its individual members in the state music contest each year. The band has won the admiration and respect of the entire community for its performances, both on the gridiron and off. They have added the basketball games to their schedule this year, and have appeared at all home games and many of the "away" games.

Mr. Alan Williams, who replaced Mr. Baumgartner as band master in January of last year, has done a fine job in continuing to build this musical organization to keep pace with our growing school.

First row: Herron, Sheets, Price, Corbin, Shiland, Traver. Second row: Bobrovnikoff, Downing, McLaughlin, Bach, Daver, Leach, Ward, Dumbauld, Kelly, Halliday, Demos, Malody, Lee. # JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"Who will turn out the lights?" The question brings peals of laughter from the audience as "Finders Creepers" progresses. Dwight Moody and Doug Paton are making the decision on the light question.

Murder, drama, and laughter carried a capacity audience through three hours of entertainment as the juniors put on another successful play.

A walking corpse and two frightened actors, in the person of high school chums, provided the crowd with a hilarious evening's entertainment.

Perry Gilpatrick, the "corpse," turned in a stand-out performance as he frightened actors and actresses from the stage. Mrs. Helen Winter was the able director of the play.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

This year, under the able direction of Mrs. Helen Winter, the seniors chose to put on a comedy that dated back to the "roaring twenties." An excellent performance was turned in by the entire cast and an interesting evening was had by the audience.

Above Larry returns home from college and serenades the family as Father looks dejectedly at the audience. The rest of the family joins in a chorus of "Collegiate."

In the lower picture the party turns into a near riot as Larry leads the group in a new game that he has learned at college. The day is saved as mother and father Palmer return.

Pictured above is the dance band. It backed all the numbers of this year's variety show which had as its theme, "Soft Lights and Sweet Music."

VARIETY

SHOW

Another feature attraction of this year's show is the chorus line shown below dancing to the popular tune, "Oh."

Shown below are three of the male soloists who appeared in the 1954 Variety Show.

Senior Class Prophecy

TIME: 1960

PLACE: Docks on the Ohio River at Cincinnati

EVENT: Revival of Showboat

As we saunter down to the docks we see the class of 1954, bags in hand, waiting to take the old "Showboat." As they clamber aboard Rex Browning tries very hard to take their tickets, and standing beside him to greet everyone is Chuck Zimmer, the Captain. Our entire safety is under the responsibility of Wayne Durley, Gary Warner, and Bernath Knecht.

Just as the boat pulls away, we see Jack Blackburn sprinting to make the boat. Will he make it? Of course, he wasn't State Champ for nothing.

Well, now that we are on our way let's take a look around the boat. The first thing we see is the First Aid Room where Marilyn Dick, Barb Butts, and Joyce Tuttle are the nurses standing by in case of any unforeseen accident. The doctor in charge is Jim Hard, applying some of the knowledge he learned as president of Science Club. Just as we start from the First Aid Room, we hear the dinner bell. Of course, everyone is hungry so there is a line, a mile-long. When we finally enter the dining room, we see Doug Paton, famous owner of a steamline corporation and Perry Gilpatrick, his fabulous business manager. Following the main course, as cooked by world renown cook, Shirley Zeigler, we sit back and listen to the conversations of those around us.

We hear Susie Allison and Joan McQuaide discussing some of the problems that arise from their occupations as psychologists. In the far corner are Judy Mayor and Pat Oden, alumni, who have come back to W.H.S. to teach.

Sitting at the captain's table is Bill Alban, Treasurer of the United States. He is discussing finances with Danny Warner, owner of Warner Used Cars Incorporated and Mike Moser, President of General Motors.

Say, the boat is slowing up! Oh, we're stopping to let Joey Mitchell, Chief Cotton Baler, off at Memphis, Tennessee. At the same time Marylon Scatterday, breeder of race horses, gets on the "Showboat," after just returning from her southern manor.

Some take cat naps or try some sport during the afternoon, but time passes swiftly when one is enjoying themselves and night has suddenly come. Everyone on board is inside the biggest hall on ship. As we glance over a program, we see what the entertainment consists of. Janet Lowman and Cloeen Gee are the designers of the beautiful costumes to be worn in the show. Dwight Moody is the well-experienced emcee. Those who will be a part of the show are Nancy Hutchison, who has just returned from a piano concert tour in Europe, Marilyn Boyer, new competitor for Jerry Lewis, and Frankie, the toot tooter, Aleshire. Incidentally, Margaret Fields was unable to appear because of a concert in Carnegie Hall.

After the program we stroll out on deck to retire to our state room. There's Pat Tracy taking her moonlight dip in preparation for The Olympics. Her manager, Keith Durley, is waving the towel for her to come in now. Hanging over the edge of the rail is Glen Brackney, struggling to take a picture of Pat for publicity.

As we enter our stateroom we are surprised and glad to see that our companions will be Nancy Johnson and Helen Marshall, two very efficient homemakers. The third member of our party is Mary Lewis, the philosopher of the group. We never closed our eyes that night with the excitement of our class reunion. Our traveling companions tell us that Nancy Frank has made the grade as private secretary to a big business firm and Don Welshimer is becoming a second Einstein.

In the morning we arise to that nice smell of "Baken" processed and cured by the experimental Norma Bakenhaster. We also hear people laughing at the funny antics of the two clowns, Peggy Cahoon and Sharon Hobbs.

Oh, look! Up there! It is a bird? Is it a plane? Why it's Tom Cunningham, the top flying ace and Ed Herpin his co-pilot. To think, they used to be in our room! And there's Tom Schumacher putting the American flag up on the flagpole.

You know, all the time we have been aboard there have been several cute girls dressed in uniforms helping us to get situated. These, Darla Leasure, Carolyn Carpenter, Bev Gerald and Jo Farris are all members of the class of "54."

Next stop—Vicksburg. We see Ken Grenwald, Annapolis grad, and Bob Quelette, now a captain in the Navy, disembarking on a secret mission. I wonder what it could be? They are to give our best to Van Voorhis (Dick) and Sevy (Ed) the big construction firm building a hotel for the well known proprietor, Dee Anna Muns.

Stepping onto the boat while these people are getting off are four models: Norma Scior, Emily Weese, Ruth Long, and Barbara McClanahan. How smart they look in their new summer outfits!

Once more we pull in the gang plank to let it down for the last time in New Orleans. With all the excitement in the air the second day passes as swiftly as the first.

The third day we hit New Orleans and Mardi Gras. While filing down the gang plank and onto the colorful streets of New Orleans, we see some of our other classmates.

There's Pat Treece, girl scientist, who has discovered "No-sneeze-it-pills." Getting into the swing of Mardi Gras, we see Nancy O'Dea and Susan Doering dressed in costumes for the elaborate occasion. It seems they have decided to stay here for a while. We stop to talk with them, and they tell us that Connie Koepke has become quite a spiritual leader out West. She mentioned in one of her letters that John Desquin has discovered a valuable substance through his work in Geology.

Just as we start to go on our way, we bump into Judy Lane and Julia McLaughlin who are rushing around, getting the news of Mardi Gras for their national newspaper columns.

Suddenly, all heads turn as the Queen of the Mardi Gras, Bev Crooks, comes down the street, opening the festivities. Right behind her, ride Carol Stein and Lynne Loomis on their white stallions.

Pushed by the force of the crowd, we next find ourselves in a restaurant named "Antoines." Making with the music is Dick Wagner and his "hat" clarinet, while the chief cookie maker is Carolyn Clark. Serving the numerous customers are the perky waitresses Carol Grimshaw and Nancy Lutz.

We push our way out in the streets once more. It is then that we hear a familiar voice over the loud speaker. It's Bob Hoskey, describing all the elaborate costumes in the parade. He mentions Phyllis Gabriel's name. We strain our necks to see. She is dressed in a costume of Marie Antoinette. Truly stunning, indeed! Looking over the crowd we spot Bill Rife, selling his new dictionary and Phil Porter, his assistant helping to advertise them. As we walk on we hear a familiar singer. On second glance, we see it is George Lawson, imitating Nat "King" Cole.

Time is fast fleeting now and although there are many phases of Mardi Gras which we haven't seen, we must be leaving. As we try to hurry back to the Showboat, we stop for just a second to see Keith Bruno and his display of wood carving which won first prize this year. Then we rush on.

As we near the docks, the gangplank is being pulled up. We shout and yell, but all in vain. Just as the starting whistle blows a young man spots us and immediately talks Captain Zimmer into letting us on. The gentleman is Tom McCauley.

We are all aboard and all is safe and sound. We think back over the past trip. It was made possible by Rachael Kern and Marilyn Monska, stenographer for the boat company.

This journey will always remain with us. But now it is coming to a close as our class of 1954 "Showboat" fades into the unknown future.

THE LAST WORD

Many members of the staff have earned special recognition and here we should like to commend them for their time and efforts.

Regularly on Saturdays a few of the staff gathered to spend the day in working and informal discussion. Janet Lowman did a tremendous job on the art work. A good time was had in the taking of pictures to back her accomplishments. Old costumes were gathered together and a trip to the near-by Buckeye Lake was taken to get the pictures. This was one of the many good times enjoyed by the staff while working on the yearbook.

We owe our thanks to Judy Major, Karen Keating, Janet Lowman, and Carol Stein for their constant attendance during the Saturday work programs.

The boys who made up the movie crew were Frank Aleshire, Rex Browning, Bob Quelette and Keith Bruno. Enough thanks cannot be bestowed upon these boys. Every week they went to the various elementary schools. Their work augmented the income produced by our business staff. The business staff was also helped by other individuals in the class.

As we look back, the good times are remembered and our troubles are forgotten, our job is done and we sincerely hope that we have pleased each and every one of you. Your favorable reception of our efforts will make it a perfect year.
